ANAHUAC, July 11, 1835.

MR. EDITOR:—

Sir: In consequence of some remarks in the report of the committee of the Columbia meeting, disapproving the proceedings of a set of individuals at this place who should have given to Don José Gonzalez, a string of resolutions declaring they would not submit to the revenue laws of the government, renouncing these individuals as foreigners, and denying any participation in the transaction. In consequence of which remarks, I take it on myself to transmit you herewith a copy of those celebrated resolutions, which will shew for themselves. I beg leave also to state for the information of those hasty Columbians, that there were some twenty or twenty-five men present, of whom but two were strangers or foreigners, and they both own land in the country and intend to become citizens. The Columbians pursued probably a wiser course as the collector had no power to distress them. It was not so here.—If any thing is intended for me personally, I have only to reply that I have been followed by a regular persecution since I went to Velasco to see the real collector, and his mode of proceeding was very different from what it was here. You will see by these resolutions that we only asked a fair chance with the rest of the colonies. A copy was never furnished Gonzalez nor any body else I believe, in consequence of Gen. Hardin (the Chairman of the meeting) having immediately left for the U. S. before copies could be made out and signed. I have not seen Mr. Moreland (the Secretary) since the meeting. He left the memorial in my possession to be copied and took the resolutions home a copy of which he signed and send me. I send the same to you. I have not yet been able to obtain a signed copy of the memorial, though I send a literal copy which I made myself. You would do me a favor to publish those papers accompanied by this note which may give some elucidation of them. I do not know who drew those Columbia resolutions, but they are certainly a complete non-committal; they profess the strongest attachment to the government, and immediately recommend the formation of a provisional government and beg leave further to state that the business of Messrs. Grayson and Jack at Anahuac, was not made known to any person but judge Williams, if to him, that it seemed they could get information from no other person; and further that I believe this same John A. Williams a personal enemy of mine, and a general enemy to the prosperity of the country.

Your most obedient servant
A. BRISCOE.

DEPARTMENT OF NAGOODCHES }
Jurisdiction of Liberty. }
To his Excellency the Governor of the free State of Coahuila and Texas.

The people of this Jurisdiction having this day convened in the town of Anahuac to consider the public welfare have taken into consideration the mode of collecting duties and executing the revenue laws in these colonies, and conceiving themselves most grievously oppressed, do most respectfully represent:

That for several years past, no duties have been demanded in any part of these colonies, and even now none are demanded at any port but that of Galveston; that this Jurisdiction is the poorest and least improved of any in all Texas; that though any part of these colonies are too poor to pay the regular duties according to the Mexican Tariff, this is the least able of any; that notwithstanding this, some three months since one Martin de Alegria arrived at this place, accompanied by a small party of soldiers, and represented himself as an officer of the Government appointed to collect duties at this port, and since that time he has endeavoured to enforce the revenue laws in their fullest rigour; that about the same time one Don José Gonzalez arrived at Velasco, representing and signing himself as the Collector of the ports of Galveston, and demanded the tonnage duties only, declaring that he had no orders to collect more; that neither of these officers has in his possession any treaty of commerce between this Republic and the United States of the North; that neither of them has taken the proper steps to inform the Ayuntamiento of the Jurisdiction of the nature and extent of his office; that none of the authorities of the Department have been notified by the Government of the appointment of any such officers; that a few days since, Don José Gonzalez arrived at this place (Anahuac) and pretending to have received fresh orders, pursues the same course of exactions formerly pursued by the above mentioned Don Martin de Alegria, demanding duties on all importations, according to the letter of the law; that the people of this Jurisdiction are very much discontented at these proceedings, and that though they have patiently submitted for so long a time to this injustice, they have at length resolved to pay no more, till custom houses shall be organized and duties collected throughout all the other ports of these colonies; and your petitioners would further represent, that the poverty of the citizens of these colonies, and of this Jurisdiction in particular, their increasing population, the scarcity of provisions in the country, and the difficulty of procuring supplies make it absolutely necessary that all kinds of provisions and Groceries, and all other articles of absolute necessity, should be imported duty free, it being impossible to procure these things in a Mexican market, a sufficiency not being made in this country, and there being an insufficiency of money in the country to pay the duties on half the articles of absolute necessity to the existence of the Colonies; moreover, we are here so near the boundary of the United States, and the facilities for smuggling are so great, that if this course is persisted in, the commerce of the country will be completely prostrated, and the Government not benefited, for the citizens will be compelled to drive their cattle and hogs across the Sabine, and every one will procure his own supplies from the United States of the North, the emigration to the country will be suddenly checked, and the prospects of the present inhabitants at once blasted.

Therefore, having made this representation of our grievances and dispositions, we pray of your Excellency, to lay before the general Government, this, our humble petition, and to use your Excellency's influence in obtaining for us the exemptions we pray for, including some years further exemption from the duties called for by the general Tariff, and your petitioners will ever pray for your Excellency's health and prosperity, &c.

Done at Anahuac, May 5th 1835.

ANAHUAC, May 4th, 1835.

A respectable number of the Citizens of this Jurisdiction convened this day at the house of Benjamin Freeman in this place according to previous notice.—General William Hardin was called to the Chair and I. N. Morland was appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting was explained by Mr. A. Briscoe, who presented the following Resolutions and Preamble which

A letter has been received from Col. Austin as late as the 1st July, he was to have started in all that week for Texas; it also states that Congress was to meet on the 19th to carry into effect the New form of Government.

A communication from A. Briscoe in defence of the course pursued by a meeting held at the town of Anahuac, in regard to the revenue laws, will be found in to-day's paper.

after a short discussion, were unanimously adopted.

Whereas there is no Custom House organized in any other part of the Colonies of Texas, nor any duties upon importations collected, and whereas duties have been collected here for the last three months, this being the poorest part of a poor country, there being an insufficiency of money to pay the duties on what few importations have been made; trade every day decreasing and the improvement and settling of the country being suddenly checked. All business prostrated, which will ultimately destroy the prospects of the country and blast the hopes of its inhabitants unless some steps be taken by the citizens to prevent it.—Therefore

Resolved, that the proceedings of the individuals claiming to be Custom House officers at this place, have neither been reasonable, just or regularly legal, it being unreasonable and unjust to demand the whole duties of one small settlement, while the whole coast and border besides is free and open; and illegal because they have never presented themselves or their credentials to the civil authorities for their recognition, nor have the said authorities ever been notified by the Government that any such officers had been appointed for this port.

Resolved, that the country as we believe is not able to pay the regular duties according to the regulations of the General Tariff. Therefore it is resolved that we send to the Political Chief of this Department, by him to be forwarded to the Governor of the State the foregoing memorial expressive of our opinion with regard to the situation of this part of the country and its inability to comply with the Tariff Law, and praying him to intercede with the General Government for an exemption for these Colonies for five or six years, from the restrictions upon Commerce imposed by the General Tariff.

Resolved, that until the object of the preceding resolution can be carried into effect, no duties should be collected in this port, unless the collection is also enforced equally throughout the province, nor until then will we pay any duties upon importations into this port.

Resolved, that these proceedings be signed by the Chairman and Secretary and that copies be furnished to the Judge of the first instance, to the Editor of the Texas Republican, to Don José Gonzalez, and to the Political Chief of this Department, to be sent by him to the Governor.—

I. N. MORELAND,

To the inhabitants of the Department of Brazos.

Fellow Citizens.—

Feeling duly impressed with the importance of the present crisis in the affairs of Texas, and the alarming extent to which anarchy seems likely to prevail. I deem it my duty as the highest constitutional officer of the department, to call upon you in the name of the constitution and laws of the country which we have sworn to support, to remain tranquil and quiet. In other matters, which we are merely voted for by the citizens assembled at the meeting aforesaid in the first emotions of their surprise. It may appear unlucky that I should have been named to preside at such a meeting, since the duties I had as Political Chief, are so responsible and so important; but I fear not for a moment that my motives will be misrepresented by the public. Fellow Citizens—my temper and inclinations have always been for peace. I have no hope but public tranquility and order; I stand before you in the unenviable position of one who loves quiet, but who is forced by a high and honorable office into the turmoils and contentions of party.—What I ask is a generous indulgence and as I claim no exemption from human weakness, I hope and expect your indulgence.

These orders are necessary to prevent anarchy and confusion, which are the worst enemies that Texas can have—They have been dictated for the general good of the inhabitants and I entertain the most sanguine hopes that they will be obeyed. God and Liberty.

J. B. MILLER.

July, 1835.

Addressed to the Public.

Fellow Citizens,

In placing before you the above correspondence and my proclamation as the political chief I deem it my duty to say a few words in explanation of my course. Having no interests separate from the peoples interest and no design but to discharge my important duties with honesty. I trust that the public will understand and justify my whole proceedings.

During the late excitement at an early period I received orders as political Chief from the Governor of the state, to proceed with men and arms to his rescue. At that time also it was reported besides the arrest of the Governor and others, an army of some thousand men were then marching to Texas for its subjugation. This request from the Governor of the State, and the very unpleasant reports of the day had the same effect on myself, that they had on the people generally. We were all overwhelmed with surprise, and for a moment lent an ear to unfounded rumors. In this state of things and in obedience of the legal head of the state, and in obedience to the earnest protestations of a number of influential citizens around me, I proceeded to call on the citizens to come forward at the request of the governor. It was not designed by me to proceed to any hostile measures; my inclination was to obey orders—or if reports proved true, to defend ourselves.

At a meeting of citizens in July last, I was called to set as Chairman. My fellow citizens will readily understand that I sat on that occasion not as political Chief but as any other individual to keep order and perform the ordinary office as Chairman. My being called on to take the chair cannot even be made to appear as giving sanction to the proceedings of the day. Yet some intimation has been given that inasmuch as I was chairman of the meeting I have given sanction to all that was done, nay even more it is asserted that the political Chief gave order in reference to Anahuac as well as the present condition of our country, ted for by the citizens assembled at the meeting aforesaid in the first emotions of their surprise. It may appear unlucky that I should have been named to preside at such a meeting, since the duties I had as Political Chief, are so responsible and so important; but I fear not for a moment that my motives will be misrepresented by the public.

Fellow Citizens—my temper and inclinations have always been for peace. I have no hope but public tranquility and order; I stand before you in the unenviable position of one who loves quiet, but who is forced by a high and honorable office into the turmoils and contentions of party.—What I ask is a generous indulgence and as I claim no exemption from human weakness, I hope and expect your indulgence.

Having said thus much for myself, allow me to close this appeal to my fellow citizens and friends by expressing the felicity which I feel at the new and happy appearance which our political affairs have assumed. I hope and believe that all difficulties and misunderstandings will be effectually removed, and that public order will be made to prevail. It is undoubtedly the interest of Texas to stay at home, pursue the calls of industry and peace. And your Political Chief is happy to be able to proclaim to the world, that the people of Texas in general every where, and in the most honorable and warm-hearted manner, on this as on all former occasions declare themselves grateful to the Mexican Government for the indulgence and various bounties, which they have received. None of the citizens of the Mexican Confederacy can be more attached to the Constitution and to peace and order, than those of Texas. They feel no inclination to intermeddle with the difficulties of the other states, much less with the jealousy of discontented and factious individuals.

Fellow Citizens—I shall close with one single suggestion; it is that we always act with caution.—The late unnecessary alarm, proceeding out of false information has taught this salutary lesson of caution and moderation. To profit by experience is the high purpose of wisdom: and wisdom combined with a patriotic attachment to the laws and the love of peace, will be sure, in all events to lead to the felicity of each individual and all the citizens of Texas.

The meeting of Thursday 30th ult. at Columbia, was dissolved without doing any business, and Sunday 16th inst. appointed for a general meeting, to accomplish that which the first meeting resolved on—a convention.

The committee of Safety dissolved without calling a Convention, and great dissatisfaction prevails.
