Employment Up To 5,400 Level In City, Area

Total employment in the Artesia area picked up during the past 30 days to reach 5,400, according to latest report by Carl Foster, manager of state employment service's Artesia office.

Hiring was noted in construction and seasonal spring additions in retail trade. Layoffs are anticipated when the local telephone company converts to dial system but work on the four lane urban project has started. Work continues on other projects, Foster reported.

At the present 243 are registered as unemployed. These are mainly in the unskilled, semi-skilled and service occupations. Of this number, 65 are female applicants, 25 are veterans, and 51 are non-veterans, Foster said.

Shortages exist for registered nurses and for a laboratory technician. Agricultural activity has shown a slight increase the past week in preparation for cotton planting. Spraying and burning in alfalfa have been used in effort to control aphids which is causing extensive damage.

Approximately 700 are employed on farms with no increase expected before mid-May when cotton chopping will start.

Johns Appointed Head of Advocate Printing Business

Earl W. Johns of Levelland, Texas, Monday will become manager of The Artesia Advocate's office supply and commercial printing departments.

He will succeed Vernon Bryan, who has resigned to enter private business.

For the past 4 1/2 years, Johns has been manager of the Commercial Printing and Stationery Co. of Levelland.

Previously he had managed the West Texas Office Supply Co. in Midland, Texas, for 10 years, and the printing department of the Rutledge Printing Co., Dallas, also for 10 years.

Johns also operated a weekly newspaper and office supply business at Caldwell, Texas, for five years.

He is a member of the Methodist church and the Masonic lodge. He was born and reared in Greenville, Texas. Mrs. Johns will join him in Artesia in the near future. The couple has four children, all of whom are married.

Federal Approval Given CVE Loan

Approval of a $247,000 loan to Central Valley Electric Cooperative, Inc. of Artesia by the Rural Electrification Administration was announced yesterday in Washington.

Paul Frost, CVE manager, said the 35-year loan would be used to reimburse the cooperative's general operating and maintenance fund for construction done on the 1,000-mile system last year. Frost said application for the loan was made last November.

It'd be easier to stop a herd of elephants than the pinhead-size yellow clover aphids ruing Artesia area alfalfa.

A farm scientist here to try out chemical warfare against the bugs says "the elephants are big enough to shoot. But these aphids..."

The scientist, Dr. Bob Fye of New Mexico A&M's experiment station at Las Cruces, doesn't have any encouragement for alfalfa growers, either.

His work here this week has disclosed the yellow clover aphid population is as high—if not higher—as that which did more than a million dollars worth of damage in Eddy county alone last year. It struck down $3 million worth of alfalfa in the Pecos Valley, $4 million in New Mexico, California and Arizona together reported $1 million in damage. It has spread as far south as Torreon, Mexico, east to Oklahoma and the range of North and West Texas, and north to San Francisco.

Despite experimental burning with propane flame, despite old and new insecticides, the aphid is holding his own, it not increasing.

Dr. Fye told reporters he had started insecticide tests against the aphids Tuesday on the Bradshaw farm southeast of Artesia. Nine types are being tried.

"That's just the start. We're going to try any new insecticides that come out," Dr. Fye says. "We are also trying some of the old ones."

Currently three new types hold top promise. They're malathion, parathion and methylparathion, Dr. Fye says. They're all members of the organic phosphate family of chemicals. Their effect is short lived, but they pack a terrific punch.

That's in contrast to the longer-lasting but less lethal types known as the chlorinated hydrocarbons—DDT is one of these. The pure food and drug administration frowns on the long-lasting types where food is involved.

However, even the best of the insecticides being used against the yellow clover aphid are erratic, Dr. Fye says. And he may have to do his Artesia area experiments all over again. The weather has not been at its best for the insecticide tests.

Those nine sample types went on "in practical amounts," Dr. Fye says. Parathion and malathion were put on both as dust and spray the other seven as sprays.

BUT the scientist's experimental weapons depend on warmer weather and less wind. Tuesday's weather didn't measure up, and when Dr. Fye returns in two weeks he may find a repeat experiment necessary.

"We're going to keep experimenting," he says. "There aren't any overnight answers in this business."

Dr. Fye came to New Mexico last year—the same year the aphid began to cut its wide swath. He holds MS and Ph.D. degrees, yet discusses his work easily in unscientific language.

Dr. Fye has been assigned alfalfa research as one of his experiment station chores. That is how he came to know the yellow clover aphid.

He has to begin almost at scratch in preparing a scientific attack against the yellow clover aphid. It never caused heavy farm financial loss until last year. Re-yellow clover in the Midwest. It caused no damage reported to the U.S. Department of Agriculture until last year.

IT BECAME known in the early 1900s in the U.S. when it struck

Because it has previously been little trouble, the yellow clover aphid has largely been ignored by scientists. They have dealt with more immediate problems—bugs at the moment destroying crops. The heretofore peaceful aphid was ignored.

Consequently little is known about him—or her, that is. Science isn't quite sure, Dr. Fye says, just how long her life cycle is, for example.

Eddy county agent Richard Marek last year reported the aphid did a million dollars worth of damage in Eddy county. Loss for the Pecos Valley as a whole was set at $3 million. Another $1 million worth was suffered elsewhere in New Mexico, largely in the Mesilla Valley, where it struck later in the growing season.

THIS YEAR the aphid population apparently is as high—if not higher—as last year's, Dr. Fye finds. Furthermore, it's appearing earlier in the Mesilla Valley than in 1954. That could pretend more economic loss.

Latest surveys show the yellow clover aphid has struck in the Panhandle of North and West Texas, in Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona, and California north to San Francisco. A friend of Dr. Fye, qualified as an observer, reports seeing them as far south as Torreon, deep in the interior of Mexico.

Gilman, Sheldon Buy Artesia Auto

Artesia Auto Co., the city's Ford dealership for nearly 30 years, today came under new ownership and management.

Formal approval of the Ford franchise operation by Clyde Gilman and V. P. "Bill" Sheldon was granted yesterday by Ford headquarters.

Gilman and Sheldon have purchased the firm from Jack Armstrong, who will devote full time to farming near Roswell.

Gilman will act as general manager and sales manager of the firm, the partners said this morning.

Del Smith, previously sales manager and formerly owner of Del Smith Motors, will become shop foreman.

Name of the firm will be retained in future operations, Gilman and Sheldon said today.

A formal opening under the new ownership is planned for April 30. Gilman has been a resident of Artesia since 1949. For the past five years he has been associated with Guy Chevrolet Co. as sales manager. He came to Artesia from El Paso, where he had been connected with General Motors sales division.

He has been highly active in civic and church work. He is chairman of the First Methodist church official board, active in Chamber of Commerce work, and was first president of Toastmasters club, of which he was a co-founder.

Sheldon has lived in Artesia since 1943. He is a consulting geologist and independent oil producer. He moved here from Fort Worth.

He has been active in oil circles and activity, and in Republican party activities.

Urban Project Is On Schedule

Urban Project Engineer A. Morrison Friday praised city and city officials for their "cooperation in helping to clear First street of the new highway."

Morrison and his assistant, Errol L. Vick, both said work is on schedule "because the City of Artesia, Southwest Public Service Co. and the telephone company have been so conscientious in doing their share of the work."

City workers are moving fire hydrants and water meters back off the right-of-way and Southwest Public Service is moving distribution and transmission lines. These are major projects. The telephone company has comparatively little work to do, Morrison said.

Yesterday's duster held up work for three or four hours on the right end of the project, but Morrison said small delays "like this don't affect the overall schedule."

The construction work is being done by Longenbaugh & Coe, Inc. of Albuquerque. Morrison and his state crew of 15 function as engineers, advisors and checkers.

Total length of the 6-lane divided highway will be 2,006 miles, extending along First street from Hermosa Drive to Richey Avenue.

There will be four driving lanes and two parking lanes. A deceleration lane will be fixed at each intersection.

This will allow motorists to get out of the main lanes to slow down for a turn.

Morrison said work on the project would be done in sections so "we won't have the whole street torn up at one time."

Most of the work being done currently is on the south end of First street. Median strips are being poured and work has started on the big outside gutters and curbs.

Best Spellers Are Chosen for Contest

Contestants from three elementary schools are rehearsing for the 21st annual Artesia Advocate sponsored spelling bee April 14. Already chosen are winners from these schools: Park—Phyllis Gilchrist, first; Bob Gibson, second; Jerry East, third.

school spelldown were Tommy Williams, Janis Stewart, Nancy Warren, fourth grade; Edward Reynolds, Jesus Estrada, Jackie Mills, Katherine Hardin, fifth grade; and Loyd King, Robert Chinn, and May Rubio, sixth grade.

Also scheduled to compete in the city-wide spelling bee are three students each from Roselawn and Junior high, and two each from Cottonwood, Atoka and Hope.

The winner will be awarded a $25 check by The Advocate, the runner-up, a deluxe edition of Webster's Collegiate dictionary, from The Advocate.

Winner of the local contest will represent Artesia at the Southwestern championship spelling bee in El Paso April 29 and 30.

School Money - Raising Tossed to Parents

Parents Monday will get a chance to say what they think about fund raising projects in the schools.

A PTA survey committee, composed of parents, teachers and representatives from the PTA Council, is making the study.

Administrators and teachers received questionnaires on the subject of school fund drive two weeks ago.

Mrs. Joe Little, president of the PTA council, said the survey was started following discussions in the council on "demands made upon school administrators and teachers to conduct civic money raising drives through the schools."

Purpose of the first two questionnaires was to evaluate the savings stamp program, determine how many students participate, and methods used to teach thrift prior to the savings stamp program.

The questionnaire for teachers and administrators also is designed to determine how much time is consumed in conducting the fund raising projects.

Parent members of the committee have volunteered to tabulate the data. Final reports will be presented to the entire committee of teachers and parents for study and analysis before any recommendations are made.

The committee is composed of Miss Lorene Tyson and Mrs. Tom Sivley, Hermosa school; Mrs.

Baseball Ticket Workers Urged To Meet Quota

Artesia must buy 400 more season baseball tickets.

That was the word from Mrs. H. R. Paton, chairman of the Artesia NaMexer season ticket campaign, at a pep breakfast for workers.

So far, 201 tickets have been sold, Mrs. Paton reported. That's far short, she reminded workers, of the number needed to support baseball here in 1955.

Today is the deadline, she reminded workers, for 1954 season box holders to renew. Tomorrow they will be open to purchase by the general public. There is a large number of fans on the waiting lists, Mrs. Paton said.

In the meeting with workers, she also appointed J. D. Smith as publicity manager for the ticket campaign.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Paton, Mrs. T. C. Williams, Mrs. Mary Hefley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Currier, Clyde Guy, Wallace Beck, J. D. Smith, Jack Spratt, and John A. Mathis, Sr.

Price for adult season tickets is $35.70. Student tickets are $14.28, and for children, 7 to 12, $7.14.

Burned Youth Passes Critical Recovery Point

Little Manuel Palma was "apparently past the danger point of death" today but his physician said he may lose his right foot.

The 12-year-old school boy was critically burned early in March when he attempted to retrieve a wire he had thrown over a high line.

His physician yesterday changed the bandages, covering about half his body, and inspected the burns. Reports said the boy was "still in bad shape," that he would have a lot of trouble with his right leg and that he "might lose a foot."

The doctor said he felt sure the boy would live, "although there was some doubt earlier."

SOMETHING has frightened Leo Gorcey and Huntz Hall, starred in their latest Bowery Boys comedy for Allied Artists, "Bowery to Bagdad."

AMERICA'S mightiest athlete stars in the story of his own dramatic life in Allied Artists' "The Bob Mathias Story," now at the Ocotillo theater.

Mathias, Bowery Boys Headline Weekend Movies

Two weekend features at Ocotillo theater will provide a highly varied entertainment schedule for Artesia movie fans Saturday through Monday.

One of the top American athletes in world sports acts his own story in "The Bob Mathias Story."

In the second feature, the Bowery Boys, led by Leo Gorcey and Huntz Hall, spice up "Bowery to Bagdad."

"The Bob Mathias Story" racks up another hit for Allied Artists in a true-life story which combines action, drama, humor and romance.

There are many facts of interest in this story of the only athlete ever to win the Olympic decathlon championship twice. For one, Bob Mathias now 23 years old, plays himself. He not only duplicates for the Hollywood cameras the athletic feats which brought him world fame, but reveals himself as a competent actor with ease and naturalness in the dramatic part of the story.

Further realism is added to the picture not only in actual scenes of the Olympic Games in England and Finland, but also in the reenactment of most of the story in the actual town of Tulare, Calif., where Bob Mathias was born and reared.

In the madcap plot of the Bowery Boys comedy, Gorcey and Hall come into possession of Aladdin's magical wishing lamp, lost for centuries since the reign of Calip it up to present to Louie of the Hamud When Hall starts to clean sweatshop, portrayed by Bernard Gorcey, the genie appears to fulfill

Women Golfers Plan Luncheons Twice Monthly

Ladies Golf club held its regular luncheon and business meeting on Wednesday at Artesia Country club.

Mrs. A. C. Sadler won the attendance prize. She was also recognized for her birthday.

It was decided to give a golf ball as a prize to the ladies playing and participating in different events. It was voted to have two luncheons a month instead of one. These will be on the second and last Wednesday of each month.

A tournament is being planned. Mrs. Nora Clayton and Mrs. E. C. "Huck" Kenny are leaders. Names will be drawn for each team. Winners will be based on number of times out to play rather than score.

The second round of the bridge tournament was played with six tables participating. Mrs. Pat Fairley, substituting for Mrs. Sam Laughlin, won the prize for the high score for the day.

Playing in the championship flight will be Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Hollis G. Watson, Mrs. Sam Laughlin, and Mrs. Jim Lund. The final of the tournament will be played April 13.

Two Missionary Parties Are Given Methodist Children

Mrs. C. H. Johns, secretary of children's division of Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church gave two missionary parties this week.

On Tuesday she gave the primary department a party. She told the story of "Lami." It was about an African boy who was blind and how the missionary helped him.

The children played games that the African children do, and also played musical chairs.

A special missionary offering was taken up. The children voted to send their offerings to Korean children to help buy milk.

Those assisting Mrs. Johns were Mrs. A. C. Sadler, superintendent of the primary department, Mrs. Don Bush, Mrs. Richard Gill, Mrs. N. D. Baker, Mrs. Ralph Petty.

Light refreshments were served the children.

On Thursday a party for the junior department was held in Fellowship hall.

Bulldogs Work Lightly, Prep For Highlands

Track Coach Reese Smith was coaching his young athletes through a light workout schedule yesterday in preparation for the Highlands Invitational at Albuquerque Saturday.

The Highland's speedy back field is expected to appear in several of the tournament's 16 events—and chances are they'll be matched against the Artesia backfield, made up of Don Lewis, Fred Sanders, Leo Barker, and John Riddle.

Big Weekend Faces School Athletes

All Artesia school sports teams are in action this weekend except the Bulldog baseball and tennis teams.

Kicking off the big weekend will be Junior high's track team, which meets Alta Vista of Carlsbad in a dual track meet tomorrow.

That event is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m. at Senior high school football field. The Hornets of Artesia are a top-heavy favorite—they licked Alta Vista and Eisenhower of Carlsbad last week in a three-way meet at Carlsbad.

The Bulldog track team goes to Albuquerque for the Highland Invitational. Four Artesia men are especially anticipating that event. It was Highland which defeated Artesia in the 1954 state football championship game by a humiliating 19-0.

That 1954 Artesia football backfield faces Highland on the cinder tomorrow, and Freddie Sanders, Don Lewis, Johnny Riddle, and Leo Barker wouldn't mind a light revenge.

Junior high's Hornet baseball coach Francis Robinson has picked Jimmy Madrid as the probable starting pitcher tomorrow afternoon against Loving.

The game will begin at 2 p.m. at NuMexer park. The Artesia club has won three straight so far. Tomorrow's game will mark the halfway point on its schedule.

Senior high's baseball club under coach Jack Barron isn't scheduled to play again until Tuesday, when it travels to Roswell.

Coach H. O. Miller's tennis team will next appear in competition with Hobbs April 12, when Artesia will host the oil city's team.

Touring Golfers Hard Pressed in Azalea Tourney

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—There was no kidding today about the going manner in which the touring golf pros rolled out their big guns for another assault on par in the second round of the Azalea open golf tournament.

Billy Maxwell, 25, chubby 1951 National Amateur champion from Odessa, Tex., and Fred Haas, 39, were the big bombers in yesterday's opening round that saw parattered by 32 players.

Maxwell and Haas shared the first day lead at 65 in the chase for top money of $2,200 in this four-day $12,500 event, but they couldn't afford to relax.

Pressing them were eight first-day 69 shooters, nine who posted 70 and eight others with 71.

Sharing the interest with the beta of the top two were a hole-in-one by Gene Littler, 1953 Amateur king, and a double eagle by Ted Kroell, who is fighting to get the berth still open in next week's August Masters Tournament.

Eagles Breaking Up Training Camp in Florida

The Eagles and Southern Methodist have scheduled their annual exhibition game Monday night at Burnett Field. Dallas opens the Texas League against Shreveport Wednesday, April 6.

Weather Cuts NuMexer Work Session Short

NuMexer workouts yesterday were delayed by high winds and dust but Manager Tom Jordan got the men on the field late in the afternoon for "pepper play."

The men were spirited in their work after receiving praise from Jordan and Club Pres. Steve Lanning on their performance in the look-see game with the Roswell Rockets earlier this week.

With the "cutting time" only six days away, Jordan said every man "was really putting out." The Dallas club broke camp in Florida yesterday and Artesia will begin receiving players from that organization around April 6.

Needed are a veteran pitcher and second baseman, but Lanning was unable to say just who or what he would have to pick from.

Spring training games open April 6 in a match with Roswell here. The NuMexers go to Carlsbad on the ninth and to Roswell on the 10th. Exhibition play continues through April. The regular season begins April 21 with Artesia going to Hobbs.

DeMarco Chances To Win Title Hinge on Bleeding

BOSTON, (AP)—Tony DeMarco's chances of winning the welterweight boxing title from champion Johnny Saxton tonight depend largely on whether the local slugger can prove he's not a bleeder.

The healed knot of cartilage over DeMarco's left eye and the chine a sparate cut last December could be decisive in the 15-round battle for the 147-pound crown.

The Boston Garden fight will not be televised or broadcast.

DeMarco, No. 3 challenger, has escaped eye cuts in his past five bouts covering 32 rounds. But in his warmups for a scheduled December meeting with Joe Miceli, he was gashed along the ridge of his chin and the fight was canceled.

Since then he's had a 10-round non-title draw with lightweight champion Jimmy Carter, from which he escaped unscathed.

Witnesses Plan Special Sunday Service Message

A spokesman for Jehovah's Witnesses announced plans today for delivering a special message.

F. H. Woerndel, local presiding minister of the Artesia congregation, revealed details of the campaign, which includes sponsoring the public talk entitled "Christianity or Christianity—Which One Is the Light of the World?"

All congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses throughout the world (there are approximately 14,000 in 150 lands) will participate.

Mr. Woerndel will deliver this discourse locally and the public is invited. It will be delivered Sunday, at 3 p. m. at Kingdom Hall, Artesia.

After the discourse, a new 32-page booklet containing additional information will be given to each person in attendance.

This lecture will be given in Spanish by Eddie Leaton. The Spanish lecture will be given at 7 p. m. Sunday at Kingdom Hall.

Boyd Sure Bet To Make Club

Bobby Boyd comes from Springtown, Texas, and he gets a little peeved because folks don't know where the place is.

Good-naturedly he explains that Springtown is on highway 199 between Fort Worth and Jacksboro about 14 miles north of Weatherford.

The springy, 22-year old Boyd is one of 14 professional baseball players looking for a spot on the Artesia baseball club.

And manager Tom Jordan figures the former school teacher will make the grade.

Boyd played ball for the Nu Mexers last year. He only saw action in 47 games but came out with a .310 at the plate and a good record as utility infielder.

Baseball has always been a fascination to Boyd; outside of basketball he's never been interested in other sports. And since he wants to stay in the game he's giving it all he's got.

When Bobby got his degree in physical education from North Texas state college in 1951 he took a job in Springtown coaching baseball and teaching PE classes.

This was a good, friendly job for it was here that Boyd had grown up playing baseball and basketball. He drew letters the last two years in school. And he was glad to be back at Springtown for another reason: they didn't play baseball at North Texas State.

The Army put in its bid for Boyd in 1952 and after 10 months training he was sent to Korea for 14 months. He was in the signal corps. Boyd was discharged in April as a sergeant.

That's when he got together with the Artesia ball club and really started playing professionally. The only previous professional experience he had to show was 30 games in the summer of '51 with the Corpus Christi Aces in the Rio Grande Valley league.

Incidentally, it was during that stint with Corpus Christi that a Dodger scout saw Boyd and offered him a job on a Brooklyn farm club. Bobby said he didn't like the Brooklyn organization so declined the offer.

Boyd, who tips the scales at 175 now stands just a fraction over 5-10, is fast on his feet and accurate in his throw. He'll tell you quick that he believes in the good rules of physical training; that he doesn't drink and doesn't smoke except for an occasional cigar.

And he's even-tempered, too—except when you frown and ask where the heck is Springtown, Texas.

26 TURN OUT

LAS VEGAS, (AP)—Twenty-six players reported for the initial baseball practice at Highlands University this week.

Coach Ken Wheeler said he expects to have a 10- or 12-game schedule before the Cowboys enter the New Mexico Conference tourney at Roswell later this spring.

Exhibition Baseball Begins to Look Like Champ Type as Managers Work On Strategy, Relievers

By ED WILKS The Associated Press

Exhibition baseball almost had the air of championship competition about it yesterday, what with managers giving strategy a good workout and pinch hitters and relief pitchers getting the spotlight.

Four of the games were decided by one run, including a 3-2 decision by the Milwaukee Braves over the Brooklyn Dodgers as rookie Al Facchini broke up a 2-2 tie between the two National League contenders with a pinch singles in the eighth.

With less than two weeks remaining before opening day, there was only one game that had more wallop than finesse. That was a 14-11 comedy won from the world champion New York Giants by the Cleveland Indians.

Among other things, there were 18 ground-rule doubles, caused by 11 of 16.49, and a short skirmish an overflow San Antonio crowd in which Umpire Len Warneke, onetime Gas House Gang pitcher, pushed a local peace officer off the field.

Brooklyn and Milwaukee were neck and neck until Facchini, up from Corpus Christi of the Big State League, dropped his shot into left with the bases jammed. The hit was off Tom LaSorda who came on after Ron Negray had walked three with one out. LaSorda, a lefty, fanned pinch hitter Andy Pafko before running into Facchini.

Mickey Vernon lined a two-out pinch single in the eighth to score the winning run in Washington's 4-3 triumph over Cincinnati.

Lino Donoso, a left-handed reliever, got the job done for Pittsburgh in a 6-5 success against Baltimore by fanning Hal Smith with the bases full in the ninth.

Bob Tiefenauer pulled a similar pitching trick for the St. Louis Cardinals, working out of a jam with his knuckler after the Chicago White Sox had loaded the bases with none out in the eighth. Rip Repulski's 10th-inning single gave it to the Cards 3-2.

The Red Sox ganged up on Rookie Jack Meyer for all the runs during the first sixth innings against the Philadelphia Phillies before veteran Murry Dickson set down nine Boston batters in the final three frames. Boston won 6-4.

The Giants and Indians each had 9 of the 18 automatic two-base hits in their 25-hit slugfest that also had five errors. Cleveland clubbed Sal Maglie for eight runs and 10 hits in 3 1/3 innings. Ralph Kiner hit a two-run homer for the Tribe. Willie Mays and Al Dark did the same for New York.

The crowd caused Umpire Ed Runge to rule interference in calling a Giants fly out in the eighth. That led to an argument between Runge and manager Leo Duracher of the Giants. And when the cop tried to butt in, Warneke pushed him out.

The answers to everyday insurance problems!

QUESTION: In reading about theft of spare tires reported to police I've wondered how the owner would ever identify his own tire even if it were found. Could you tell me?

ANSWER: Truthfully most people can't identify their own property. The wise thing to do is to write the serial numbers of all tires and accessories and note all identifying marks on a piece of paper and put it where you can find it when necessary. Most people won't take the trouble but it's a very good idea.

Ten Years Ago Today

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY the present owners of The Artesia Advocate assumed charge of the newspaper property and printing business after purchasing it from Mrs. Beatrice Blocker.

During this 10-year period they have owned and continued to operate a newspaper serving this community, providing outstanding job printing, and serving Artesia's needs in the office supply business.

At the time they purchased the property and paid the price which was asked for it, a good many comments were heard among newspaper people in this section of the state regarding the purchase price.

Many felt a mistake had been made and that our judgment in paying that price had not been very good.

But two or three years later some of those who had discussed the matter and argued we had paid too much were perfectly willing to admit that the price had not been too high and they were actually interested in the property.

One of those at that time wanted to put in a job shop. He wanted to do this in competition to us over a period of time. Later he did it and only recently that shop changed hands.

Through these nine years The Artesia Advocate served the community and increased its service year by year. At the time the property was purchased April 1, 1945, it was a weekly paper. Later it became a twice a week paper. It was considered the outstanding weekly, and later twice a week paper, in the state.

On June 1, 1954 the paper was stepped up to a five afternoon daily paper. We had looked forward and had plans to make it into a daily at our own time when we felt the city was ready and prepared to provide the support and backing that a daily newspaper needs and should have from its community.

That, however, was not our choice to make. Others who seemingly weren't willing to walk in, buy the field, and pay the price asked for it as we did, seemingly decided to take over the newspaper field and supplant The Advocate which has served Artesia for more than 50 years.

During the past almost one year Artesia has had two daily newspapers.

There has been a division of the advertising business here as well as of the office supply and job business. It is possible this may be further divided.

That, of course, is not good for business firms here and it is not good for the concerns seeking this business. The Advocate has met competition before in its 50 years of service here. It was only to be expected.

But The Advocate has continued to serve its readers, its subscribers, and its customers. It will continue to do that in the weeks and the months ahead. It paid for what it has today and it has provided modern printing machinery and equipment to increase this service.

And now at the request of its advertisers and its subscribers, The Advocate has completed its plans for publishing a Sunday morning paper with an outstanding Sunday comic colored supplement to better serve the community. The first issue of The Sunday paper has been scheduled for Sunday, May 1. Present plans call for continuing to make The Advocate a five day publication with the Monday paper being discontinued.

So for 10 years the present owners have served the community to the best of their ability with the lowest possible costs, prices, and advertising rates consistent with good business practices.

On this, the beginning of the eleventh year of operation, we pledge we will continue to do just that during the weeks, months, and years ahead.

Getting French Come to U.S.

DALLAS Tex. (AP)—Guy Chassagnard, 19, wants a job in France. So he came to the United States. He landed in Montreal last July and rode his bicycle down to New York and across to Chicago. Then he turned south to Oklahoma and Texas and is going on across the country.

He explains that he is learning about the United States and writing about it for one Paris newspaper and five magazines. He wants a French newspaper job but he had no experience and no influential friends. He is showing French editors what he can do.

French manufacturers equipped him with his bicycle, movie camera, tent, sleeping bag, air mattress, even a cigarette lighter. That bicycle has 150 pounds of equipment draped over it. A shipping firm arranged the Atlantic crossing.

He says he is going slowly, but when he is on the road he averages 80 miles a day. He started out with $70 and has $15 left. Folks take him in along the way. Chassagnard says, "I have often the impression that Americans are too happy. They have not been destroyed two times in 30 years by the same enemy." His father is a railroad employe and his parents have been married 27 years. They have no car, no refrigerator even no vacuum cleaner, he says, and adds: "France needs you people who are not afraid of life and other people."

He is pleased with the help he has received from Americans. Often newspapers which he visit provide food and lodging for him. And the farther west he goes, the more friendly the people have been, he says.

One thing he finds strange is the "dry country" where alcoholic drinks have been banned. "In France, beer is a soft drink," he says.

HOW IS Your VISION

What you see and what you look for, when you read, makes a difference. Vision is 87% of all avenues to the brain. Can your vision distinguish between good and evil, honor and dishonor? Jesus said, If your eye leads you into sin, pluck it out. The library of your church will give you reading of 20-20 vision for the soul.

The Bible, in any version, is the world's best reading. Has your Bible reading vision become impaired? Do you develop astigmatism when you start reading God's word? What reading the Bible has done for others...it will do for you. Read it with 20-20 vision of mind and of soul.
