Building Boosts Area Employes

Non-agricultural employment is estimated at 6,250 and increases have been noted in construction. Projects scheduled for completion are the Artesia-Atoka road by A.P., the high school Vocational Agriculture building in six weeks. Work continues at Conoco Refinery. Spring increases in service and retail trade have compensated for continued layoffs as cotton compressing is completed.

COMMUNISTS PER MONEY SETTLEMENT

YORK (AP) — The Communist Party's Daily Worker offered $2,850 in cash in a bid to recover their property — battered office equipment seized by the government on income tax liens.

R. Moysey, New York director of internal revenue, declined the proffered funds at the moment at least. He said recovery of the seized property was not complete.

He invited and accepted a formal submission of the financial arrangement proposed by the party and its lawyer, the lawyers said.

War Hero Dies In Plane Crash
WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — A hero of the New Guinea campaign in World War II was killed Wednesday in the fiery crash of a B-47 Stratojet bomber.

Lt. Col. William H. Dames, 34, of Oconomowoc, Wis., was one of three men killed when the bomber exploded and crashed at the edge of a residential area here. It had just taken off from McConnell Air Force Base.

Dames won fame as the leader of a ground attack that drove the Japanese out of Buna Mission, New Guinea, in 1943. He was then a National Guard infantry captain with the 32nd Division.

He transferred to the air force shortly after that and returned to action at Iwo Jima in 1944 as a fighter pilot.

Also killed in the crash were Capt. William C. Craggs, 34, Wichita, and 1st Lt. John G. Leysath, 24, North, C. C.

Simon Of Cyrene Meets Mob, Is Drafted To Carry Cross

CINCINNATI (AP) — An innocent bystander was compelled to carry the cross for the innocent man who was crucified. A simple summary, indeed, of tragic drama surrounded by circumstances so extraordinary! Biblical accounts barely mention Simon of Cyrene, a stranger from the country, and his role in a part of the march from the palace of Herod to Golgotha, where Jesus was put to death.

Mere conjecture by biblical scholars leaves wide scope for one's imagination in completing the story. Shortly after daybreak, the day Jesus was crucified, Simon of Cyrene bade his wife and sons farewell for the day and left by foot for Jerusalem, where the Passover was being celebrated.

The country merchant was not a strict observer and was prepared to pass some hours in the city as only an on-looker. Once or twice before when in Jerusalem on business, Simon had overheard talk about a man who professed power to make the lame walk, the blind to see, the deaf to hear.

It had sounded incredible and he'd dismissed it from his mind, telling his wife that no man could work such miracles. But one time after that when his son Rufus was very ill, Simon thought about the reputed man of miracles and wished that he knew him, so fearful was he that his son might die.

Simon was making good headway in his walking when he was startled by a frenzied procession approaching. Quickly the mob was upon him.

In the front ranks were soldiers. Before them they were pushing and shoving three prisoners, each of whom was being forced to carry a heavy wooden cross. One of the prisoners was bleeding about the head. He stumbled under the weight of his cross. His strength was almost spent. He appeared faint.

The procession halted. The soldiers swore and shouted at the wearied prisoner, commanding him to carry his load like a man. But his strength was gone and he fell to his knees, and the weight of his burden pinned him to the ground.

The soldiers suddenly noticed Simon, the stranger, standing by the side of the road, staring at them.

"Here, stranger, you're a strong man, take up this man's cross and carry it along. We're in a hurry to be done with this business. And you should not object. He is one of your people. Yes, he says he is king of your people. Come, give us a hand."

Egg Hunters Strike Liquor

ATLANTA (AP) — Pupils at a school Easter egg hunt made quite a find—but it wasn't eggs. They uncovered 8½ gallons of moonshine whiskey under the school steps.

Co-Op Offers 150,000 Pounds Wool For Sale

By noon today the Artesia Wool Co-op sale had turned 80,000 pounds of fleece, with prices ranging from 36-and-three-quarters cents a pound to 46-and-three-quarters. The lot bringing the highest price belong to Runyan and Runyan of Pensaco and was for the entire clip.

As 150,000 pounds of wool was offered for sale at auction today at the Artesia Wool Co-op, eight buyers were on hand from as far away as Boston to take part in bidding.

Ralph Vandewart, Jr., Co-op manager, said the offering might be reduced if bidding lagged later in the day. To date the Co-op has sold 800,000 pounds of fleece for its members this season, he said.

Buyers taking part in the bidding today were Max O. Riley, Roswell; Bill Morse, Boston; E. O. Oglesby, San Angelo, Tex.; C. J. Webb, San Angelo; H. W. Maginot, San Angelo; Richard F. Burt, Boston; Dick Boutin, Boston; and Ralph Vandewart, Sr., Boston.

As the sale opened at 10 a.m. today, the buyers lined up and passed the fleeces from one to the other, each man feeling the wool, examining it for length and fineness of fibre and estimating the shrinkage, as he evaluated the fleece before entering his bid.

The Co-op manager estimated that particular lot of wool would shrink 62 per cent when cleaned of grease and dirt.

Southeastern New Mexico wool handled by the Artesia Co-op is recognized by wool buyers across the nation as some of the best to be had anywhere and usually attracts a good number of buyers and commands a good price.

This Theft Adds Up To A Dirty Trick

PORT HURON, Mich. (AP) — Police thought Ida D. Findlay was pulling their leg when she called up to report a theft. She said someone had stolen her back yard.

A skeptical policeman, Richard Maveety, went over to investigate, and sure enough Miss Findlay's back yard was missing—at least all the sod was gone for a depth of at least two inches.

Miss Findlay, a nurse, explained she had been away from home three days on a case.

Israeli-Arab Tension Throws Ominous Overtones At Easter

JERUSALEM, Jordan Sector (AP) — Thousands of persons gathered today in the Old City of Jerusalem to retrace the Way of the Cross in the annual Good Friday pilgrimage.

The winding route of the massive procession follows the path from the place of Christ's trial to his tomb. It was another major event in the pre-Easter observance which began Palm Sunday.

Casting ominous overtones over the celebration were the Israeli-Arab tensions starkly represented by the division of this old holy city.

Guns along the frontier dividing the city between Israel and Jordan were still. But some Holy Week observances were curtailed and residents of Arab Jerusalem complained that war jitters had kept visitors away. Hotel facilities were booked solid from Thursday through Easter Sunday in the Old City but the extra accommodations required in past years were not needed this Easter season.

The chief Easter sites are on the Arab side of the line dividing Jerusalem, but a ceremony commemorating the Last Supper had to stop short last night because of the division of the city. Normally a procession of Christians goes from St. Saviour's Church inside the old walled city to Cenacle, the site of the upper room where Christ ate his last meal with his disciples. Cenacle is on the Israeli side, however, and the pilgrimage went only as far as St. Mark's Church inside the Arab Christian quarter.

Starting point on the Way of the Cross is the courtyard of a Moslem school, the site where Christ was condemned by Pontius Pilate. The second of 14 hallowed spots along the route is the place where Christ received the cross. Others commemorate his struggle beneath the weight of the cross, the place where tradition holds that his mother watched him pass, and the long ascent to Calvary.

From the place where the body was taken from the cross, the route leads to the Holy Sepulcher. A symbolic service tonight will carry out the burial of a statue of Christ in the Holy Sepulcher.

Santa Fe Rwy. Strike Is Off For Time Being

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Mediation Board says a strike scheduled for today on the Santa Fe Railroad's coast lines has been postponed at the board's request.

The walkout on the railroad's line west of Albuquerque was ordered by officials of the Order of Railway Conductors and brakemen and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen after negotiations on rules and working conditions broke down.

The mediation board said indefinite postponement of the strike would give government officials time to seek a settlement of the dispute.

TOURIST DIRECTOR GETS FIRST AIR LOOK AT NM

SILVER CITY (AP) — New Mexico's Tourist Bureau director took his first aerial look at the state he has been promoting off and on for more than 18 years.

"It was wonderful. I've been missing something," said State Tourist Director Joseph Bursley.

The occasion was Bursley's first airplane ride over the Land of Enchantment in his service for several governors as chief of the State Tourist Bureau and it also was the pre-inaugural flight for Frontier Airlines' new one-flight a day service between Albuquerque and Silver City.

The service starts officially April 1. Bursley, aboard a test flight bearing Albuquerque dignitaries and press men, bore up well under the rigors of his first aerial journey. Mrs. Bursley, who accompanied him, suffered very slightly from a queasy stomach during the flight to Silver City. She had no such difficulties on the return flight.

FBI CAPTURES TWO FUGITIVES

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Nick George Montos, the only fugitive to make the FBI's "10 most wanted" list twice, was captured by FBI agents in a suburban motel.

Despite an arsenal of weapons, the 38-year-old Montos and a fellow fugitive, Robert Lloyd Jones, 30, surrendered meekly a few agents fired tear gas bombs into their room. Each fugitive was carrying more than $2,000.

C. E. Piper, in charge of the Memphis FBI office, said Montos was one of the nation's "top burglars and safe crackers." Jones, a convict murderer, was serving a life sentence at the Mississippi State Penitentiary in Parchman from which he and Montos escaped last Jan. 10.

Piper and other agents made the arrest shortly after 3 a.m. "We ordered them to come out," Piper said. "They were a little slow about it so we fired tear gas into the room. They came out in a hurry then."

Piper said the arsenal of weapons in the fugitive's room included a sub-machinegun, sawed off shotgun, a rifle, five pistols and a fountain-pen gun.

"They were loaded for bear and would have used it if we had given them the chance," Piper said. Jones was convicted of the murder of a fellow prisoner at Parchman. Piper said he was due to be placed on the "most wanted" list "at the first vacancy."

Youths Given Two Years, Fine On Dope Charge

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — John B. DeMartinez, son of a Bernalillo County deputy sheriff, and Robert D. Shaw, son of an Albuquerque school teacher, have been sentenced to two years and fined $200 each for narcotics violations.

Each is a first offender. U. S. Dist. Judge Carl Hatch, in passing sentence, told the two they "must suffer punishment for one of the worst crimes" engaged in by young people of this nation.

The two were arrested last month by Albuquerque Police Sgt. Abe Aguilar in his own home where he said he found them making cigarettes of marijuana in the company of his stepdaughter and another teen-aged girl. The girls were turned over to juvenile authorities.

Liquor Director To Get Pay For Legal Services

SANTA FE (AP) — An arrangement to pay State Liquor Director Hilton Dickson an extra $100 a month for helping with special legal work in the State Revenue Bureau was announced by Revenue Commissioner Mike Gallegos.

This will be in addition to Dickson's $650 salary as liquor director. Gallegos said the plan is an economy move "designed to take advantage of our having a liquor director who is also an attorney."

He placed present costs of three Bureau attorneys at $1,100 a month compared with $2,000 for four attorneys in the previous administration.

Chavez Says AF Academy Design May Be Approved If Less Glass Is Used

WASHINGTON (AP)—A redesign of buildings for the new Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo.—with far less use of glass—may meet with approval of congressional critics, one of them said. "They might do," Sen. Chavez (D-NM), chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, told an interviewer.

"They have yet to be approved by the committees in both the Senate and House."

This statement was Chavez' way of saying that the congressional appropriations committees which have a big say in how much money governmental agencies are given to spend will have something to say about the design of the buildings.

Chavez said newly designed models of the air academy buildings had been exhibited to congressional appropriations committees.

Observing that changes had been made in designs in light of criticism which had been voiced months ago when plans first were displayed, Chavez said:

"They're different now, and more in keeping with what we had in mind."

Redesigned models were put on display at the Pentagon for the legislators.

Originally the plans called for more than 60 per cent of the walls to be composed of glass. As redesigned, much more of the wall space will be of stone.

"The question as to the source of the building materials hasn't yet been decided fully to our satisfaction," Chavez said, "and we have to pass on the appropriations."

"They should use sandstone or marble from Colorado or that part of the West. It doesn't make sense to go to Indiana or some other place back East to get the stone as they have suggested."

Chavez said his committee wouldn't get around to considering the Air Force Academy construction funds until late April or early May when the Defense De-

Non-Farm Employment Gains 1,100 Persons

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Non-farm employment gained by 1,100 persons in February over the preceding month, reaching 181,400 in New Mexico.

This was a sharp jump over one year ago. The Employment Security Commission said, with last year's February employment total 172,700.

The increase was distributed fairly evenly except that more than one-fourth came in the retail trade categories. The rise over a year ago came in mining, 900 jobs increase; manufacturing, 1,000 jobs; transportation, communication and utilities, 1,100; trade, 2,400; service, 1,100; government, 1,800, and contract construction, 400.

Small and medium peppers and pascal celery. Beans, beets and iceberg lettuce are on the high side of a good buy.

Potatoes are plentiful with some new potatoes coming in.

On fruit counters the best buys are oranges, grapefruits and apples.

Ham, Turkey Specials For Easter Meals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The youngsters might favor jelly beans and chocolate bunnies for Easter fare, but food stores across the nation figure their mothers will be thinking of hams and turkeys. These are the specials most often lined up for the Easter feast.

Leg of lamb, another traditional meat for the day, is less frequently on special sale.

While ready-to-eat hams are being sold by one big food chain at 49 cents a pound, canned hams were higher and turkeys in the same stores are 53 cents a pound.

Cheaper cuts for the holiday would be veal and pork roasts. Some stores are also featuring rib roasts of beef, other beef cuts and chickens.

The wholesale market for most meats was a little higher this week. Pork was higher at wholesale for the second consecutive week and beef cuts advanced slightly.

With most of the nation still getting its vegetables shipped from Southern growing areas, only onions are generally an outstanding buy.

Good buys are cabbage, carrots,

Iceland Votes To Ask American Forces To Leave

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP)—Iceland's Parliament has called on U.S. forces to quit this North Atlantic defense post. The move would leave the strategic island—a NATO member almost midway between Moscow and New York—with no military force.

The Communist-supported resolution was adopted 31-18 over a conservative opposition. It asked that all NATO forces be pulled out "in view of the altered situation" since 1951. At that time the United States and Iceland agreed on the stationing of U.S. Army, Navy and Air Force units here under NATO command.

The Defense Department in Washington said the United States has on the island a "small Army force of battalion size," an Air Force fighter interceptor squadron several "supporting units" and the joint Iceland defense force. It refused on security grounds to specify the number of men involved.

The resolution said the defense treaty should be revised so that Icelanders—who have no army or navy at present—would take over their own defenses.

Manager Of Tigers Has 'Cavities' At Second Base, Left Field To Fill

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Bucky Harris views his Detroit Tigers as a better club than last year's fifth-place finishers, but he admits the Bengals can't break into the American League's big four until a couple of "cavities" are filled.
The "cavities," as the veteran manager sees it, are the big holes at second base and left field, aside from the absence of a top-flight relief pitcher.
Bucky realizes the Tigers cannot hope to get past the Yankees, Indians, Red Sox or White Sox unless they can engineer a trade for (1) a second baseman who can hit and (2) a left fielder with batting power, preferably left-handed. He is willing to gamble on coming up with a satisfactory bullpen brigade from his own ranks.
Ever since the start of the spring training season, the Tigers have tried to close such a deal, or deals.
"We got a good nucleus of a pretty good ball club," said Harris. "I think we might have a little better pitching. I'm satisfied with my catching and I believe Ray Boone, Harvey Kuenn, Bill Tuttle and Al Kaline will do all right. So will Earl Torgeson. But we've got to have help at second base and left field if we are to

Frenchman Hopes To Upset Costa In Ten-Rounder

NEW YORK (AP)—France's Cheffit Hamia hopes to benefit from stalemate Charley Humez's mistakes and upset 2-1 favored Carmelo (Chubby) Costa in a 10-rounder between featherweight contenders tonight at Madison Square Garden.
The baby-faced, 25-year-old Parisian watched Humez, the European middleweight champion, take two rounds to warm up against Tiger Jones in the Garden last Friday night. The slow getaway cost the rallying Humez the split decision by one point.
"I will be out punching from the opening bell," vowed Hamia. "I realize here the first round counts as much as the last in the scoring."
Unbeaten in his last nine, Hamia has a 23-1-1 record.
Catching and tagging Costa solidly is a major task. The fleet-footed, 21-year-old Brooklynite, skips around on nimble legs, moving in and out on his opponent.
Costa, the No. 3 contender, has a 29-2-4 record.

Japan Editorial Hits Un-Taxed Golf Player

TOKYO (AP)—The newspaper Tokyo Shimbun in an editorial suggested a new heavy tax on golf because "it is a medium for corruption, . . . a minority of Japanese are monopolizing huge tracts of desperately needed land, . . . and its the only thing left untaxed."
The editorial claimed many scandals involving government officials "have been hatched on golf courses."

Duke City Basketballer Holds To Bible, Seeks Olympic Place

Abilene, Texas (Special)—From the shadow of the lofty Sandias in New Mexico to the hill country and cowboy campus of Hardin-Simmons University is a "fur piece" for the average college-age youth.
But six-foot six-inch Robert Louis (Bob) Tremaine of Albuquerque made it with the help of a basketball and a Bible.
Although his major subject is Bible and his chief endeavor is preaching, he found time in the spring of 1955 to become an all-Border Conference choice in basketball and was this spring invited to try out for the U. S. Olympics team. An injured foot at the beginning of the present basketball season sidelined him from the cage activity, but gave him more time for his preaching, which is the major desire of his life.
Since school began in the fall he has filled the pulpit in Baptist Church youth revivals all over West Texas. On the April 6-8 weekend, he will stand his six and a half feet behind the pulpit in Carlsbad, N. M. First Baptist Church to "spark" a youth week in that church with a Youth for Christ rally. The Rev. J. Melvin Ray is pastor there.
In Albuquerque as a high school student he was elected president of the New Mexico State Student Council (1951-52). There he preached in the city's Fruit Avenue Baptist Church.
Continuing his studies in Bible next year, Tremaine will play his last year of basketball for Har-

Owls Prove Versatile Team With Nebraska

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Rice Owls proved themselves a versatile baseball team Thursday when they staged a complete reversal of form to defeat Nebraska 4-1 and to break even in a two-game series at Houston.
Wednesday the Owls were losers after giving up eight unearned runs on eight errors. Thursday they turned around and played flawless ball to keep Nebraska scoreless until the final inning.
In other games involving Southwest Conference teams Thursday, the Texas Christian Horned Frogs downed Sam Houston State 6-4 in a 10-inning game at Huntsville while Texas A&M bowled, 15-8, to the Corpus Christi Clippers of the Big State League at Corpus Christi.

Cerny And Ratliff Pitch Bulldogs To Shutout Victory Over Lovington

Bob Cerny and Max Ratliff here last night pitched a shutout victory over Lovington for the Bulldogs, 17-0.
The non-conference game played at Municipal Park here was the first game in which Lovington had fielded a team. For the Bulldogs, who twice trounced the Colts of New Mexico Military, it was another resounding victory.
Star player in last night's game was Sophomore Kenny Parish, who, in the absence of regular catcher Bill Mayes, caught the entire game for the 'Dogs and at the same time hit three for four.
Coach Jack Barron said that Parish did a masterful job behind the plate and only lost one ball. It is the first season that Parish has worked that position. The coach plans to groom Parish for third base, which is a weak link in the Bulldogs nine at present.
Bob Cerny pitched the first four innings striking out 10 and pacing 14. Max Ratliff paced nine and

'Dogs To Run Pecos Valley Meet Saturday

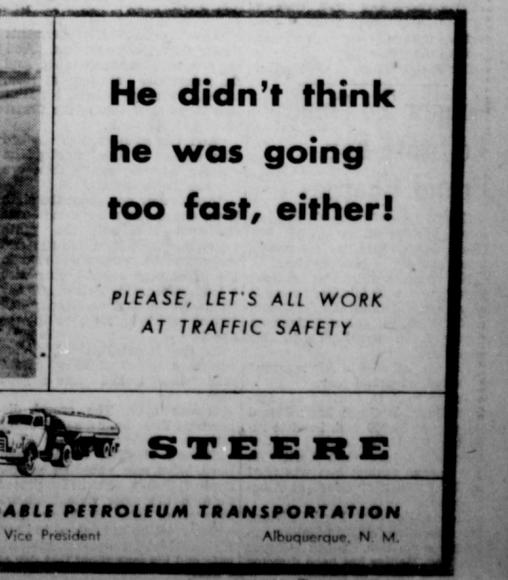

Bulldog track and field teams will journey to Roswell tomorrow for the Pecos Valley Invitation Meet there. This will be the first scheduled conference meet of the season.
Participating will be Artesia, Roswell, Carlsbad, Hobbs, Lovington, Portales, Hagerman and Dexter.
Coach Reese Smith said today that there will be several changes made in the team line-up over that of a week ago when the 'Dogs participated in a practice meet at Roswell and came in behind Roswell and Carlsbad in most events.
At that meet the Bulldogs showed up especially weak in the field events. The coach said the boys have been working hard and he hopes to see some improvement tomorrow.
Part of the relays are to be run at night for the first time.
Sprinter Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian College, named the meet's top performer as a freshman last year, and Kansas' massive Bill Nieder are big choices to defend their titles in the 100-yard dash and shotput, respectively.
Robert Van Dee of Oklahoma, a two-time winner, will try again for the discus throw championship.
Threats to Van Dee in the discus even will be Al Gertler, a Kansas sophomore; Ray Burrus of West Texas State, last year's runner-up and NAIA champion, and Carl Vereen, Georgia Tech.

Swimming Champ Gives Recipe For Beating Record

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—What do you have to do to lower the world's long-course 1500-meter swimming record by 13.1 seconds?
"You have to swim like hell," says George Breen of Cortland (N.Y.) State Teachers College, and he should know.
The 20-year-old swimming sensation from Buffalo, N.Y., did it with a spectacular 18:05.9 last night as he got the three-day NCAA Swimming Championships going.
Breen won in a breeze. Behind him were Peter Duncan of Oklahoma, Tetsuo Okomoto of Texas A&M, John Phair and Joe Robinson of Yale and John O'Reilly of Michigan.
The Aggies are scheduled to meet the Clippers again at Corpus Christi Friday while Nebraska moves on to Waco to engage the Baylor Bears.

He didn't think he was going too fast, either!

Group Asks Spillway On Abiquiu Dam

WASHINGTON (AP)—A delegation of Texans and New Mexicans wants the Army Engineer Corps to install a spillway in Abiquiu Dam to free any water over 70,000 acre feet.

Present plans are for an outlet to free impounded water after it reaches 1,200,000 acre feet in the northern New Mexico reservoir.

The group testified Wednesday before a House appropriations subcommittee considering a bill to provide money for various water projects during the next fiscal year.

The dam will be on a tributary of the Rio Grande. Rep. Rutherford (D-Tex.) said irrigation farmers downstream in Texas fear too much water might be stored. He told a reporter later that unless irrigation farmers of his district are protected he and other Texas members of Congress will oppose appropriation of any money for Reps. Fernandez and Dempsey, New Mexico Democrats, also told the committee they wanted the reservoir capacity limited to 700,000 acre feet. They said there are many irrigated farms in New Mexico below the site of the proposed dam.

Appearing with the congressmen were N. B. Phillips, manager of El Paso County Water Improvement Dist. 1; Louis Scott, El Paso, Texas member of the Rio Grande Compact Commission, and John L. Gregg, Las Cruces, N. M., manager of the Elephant Butte Irrigation District.

John P. Murphy and Hubert Ball, both of Albuquerque, previously urged the committee to support a Budget Bureau recommendation that 1 1/2 million dollars be provided for Abiquiu and Chamita reservoirs during the next fiscal year. Chamita also will be on a Rio Grande tributary in northern New Mexico.

Estimated cost of the two structures is 27 million dollars. Last year, Congress provided $300,000 to start construction.

Natural Gas Bill Seemed Right Step For Texan Lyndon Johnson

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—The political world of dark-haired Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas had a smooth and pleasant look when he got up on the morning of July 2, 1955. It's a little rougher now.

Any criticism of him on that day last July was minor. He wasn't quite 47 and he had gone a long way in politics; he was leader of the Democratic majority in the Senate.

He had just done a remarkable job—through conciliation and consideration for Democrats and Republicans alike—of getting both sides to work together and ram through one bill after another with a minimum of fuss.

He didn't go in for speeches himself. He paid attention to details. He had inexhaustible energy. He never said he thought of the presidency. But if he did, he had plenty of time.

On the evening of July 2 he suffered a heart attack which almost killed him. The best tribute to his success as a Senate leader was shown in the days which followed when one senator after another filed the Congressional Record with praise of him.

Getting Democrats and Republicans to work together is not the only thing he has done well and readily in a presidential campaign.

Since the Democrats don't control the White House, they must depend on their congressional leaders to produce a program which can be offered to the voters.

Right after Congress came back this year Johnson began pushing a bill to take natural gas producers from under direct government price control. He may have felt he was putting his political right foot forward. His native Texas is loaded with natural gas producers. In a way it turned out to be his left foot.

Sen. Francis Case (R-SD) disclosed a gas lobbyist had offered him a $2,500 campaign fund contribution which he turned down. This made an investigation of lobbying almost mandatory. And, although the Senate passed the gas bill, President Eisenhower vetoed it.

A couple of regular Senate committees were anxious to begin a lobbying investigation but Johnson got the Senate to create a special committee for this task. That committee hasn't started work yet and doesn't know when it will.

Then the Senate took up a week with a debate on a constitutional amendment for changing the system of choosing a president. It was finally abandoned.

The Democrats have talked of making natural resources a campaign issue. They accuse the Eisenhower administration of giving them away.

But last week Paul Butler, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, gave Johnson and his fellow Texan, Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, a startling judgment.

Highway Dept. Workers To Get Blood Tests

SANTA FE (AP)—The State Health Department Monday will begin a blood testing survey of all 1,700 employees of the State Highway Department as part of a venereal disease preventive program.

The survey, which is voluntary on the part of the employes, has the cooperation of Highway Department officials. Chief State Engineer Lawrence Wilson was the first to take the test, getting the program off on an early start.

"This service being offered by the health department is part of a generalized preventive program," said Dr. Bernard F. Rosenberg, director of the communicable disease division of the department.

"This is the first such survey we have tried in another state department. Eventually, it is hoped that it will be extended to other branches of the state government."

Estes Says He Is Not Critical Of NM Leaders

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver says he does not criticize Gov. John F. Simms and Sen. Clinton P. Anderson for their backing last fall of Adlai Stevenson for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The Tennessee senator said he does not feel the Simms-Anderson announcement of last October fell in the same category with actions by political leaders in Minnesota and California which he has attacked.

In those two states, he said on a one-day visit to New Mexico, some political leaders "got together with early endorsement with the apparent purpose of freezing me out."

This was "not the situation at all in New Mexico," he said. Simms and Anderson were expressing their opinions on the presidential race, whereas in the other states Kefauver said active organization was carried out.

"I have no criticism of anybody coming out for Mr. Stevenson," he said. "He's a good man. I do hope some of them will reconsider."

Kefauver said he had found "a lot of support" in New Mexico and had received a warm reception. He could not predict how much support he expected to receive from New Mexico's 16-vote convention delegation.

The senator visited the office of Gov. Simms, who was in Chicago for a meeting of the board of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission, which Simms heads. Kefauver was accompanied on a flight from Albuquerque to Santa Fe by Lt. Gov. Joseph M. Monaco and Acting State Democratic Chairman John Joe Wilkinson, among others.

In Santa Fe, a State Police escort accompanied Kefauver, who rode in the governor's limousine to the state capitol. He was met by scores of Statehouse employes who lined the corridors as he made his way slowly, shaking hands, to the executive office.

The campaigning Kefauver called Stevenson "still the leading candidate" because the party's 1952 candidate for president is titular head of the party.

He refused to become involved in a fight over what he called Stevenson's "little quips at me." "I'm not going to speak for him," Kefauver told newsmen ining about Stevenson's remarks concerning "boss nonsense."

"I have not used the word 'bosses' myself," Kefauver said. He reiterated that some political leaders in Minnesota and California got together with "an apparent purpose of freezing me out."

In response to questioning, Kefauver said he felt his statements have indicated that National Democratic Chairman Paul Butler is "on the fringe of the party" in the Democratic presidential campaign.

He said he felt that during the time the Democratic National Committee was partial, he came a period, he said, "I was tried to be neutral." Butler said, it appears Butler jumped the traces again.

Since his victory in the Nevada primary, he said quite a number of political leaders have turned over to his support.

Let Them Make Enemies

ONE of the arguments being advanced now by the state department for our government to vote more funds for handouts to foreign nations is the fact that Russia is proposing to aid and help certain nations.

Most of us know that the best way to lose friends is to loan a supposedly friend money or to give them something.

That has been our experience with our billions of dollars we have given away to foreign nations in a program designed and labeled to help these nations and win their friendship. It hasn't worked.

There is little question but what our statesmen and those advocating the give-away programs think they work or will help and yet the program itself clearly indicates this is not true.

The arguments advanced for us doing this are not sound—you don't buy friendships. Friendships are not for sale. We have seen many instances where we befriended a nation even before the days of "give-away" programs and yet later they turned against us.

Those nations we have helped and aided for the most part have never appreciated our help and when the "give-away" programs come to an end they no longer have any use for us.

We know as a nation we can no longer afford these "give-away" programs. We know we have spent billions in foreign aid and neglected our own people and programs and projects in our own nation.

Some of the members of congress are slowly becoming convinced of this fact. We believe the American people have been convinced of this for a long time.

Let sufficient members of congress become concerned and take a stand and we will stop the spending of billions in trying to buy friendships that can't be bought.

We believe the time has come for us to spend this money at home helping our own people and let Russia spend some of her money losing friends as we have been doing ever since World War II.

America has been playing Santa Claus to the world long enough—others learn to take care of themselves and do for themselves when they no longer have someone to depend on to take care of them.

$330,000 Given For Building Of Indian Schools

SANTA FE (AP)—School Superintendent Georgia L. Lusk says another $330,000 in federal funds has been made available for school construction in districts providing schooling for Indian children.

For construction of an elementary school in San Juan, Rio Arriba County, $155,000 has been authorized. At Dulce, $200,000 will be added to $423,000 previously approved for construction of an elementary and junior high school. Bloomfield will receive $75,000 to aid in construction of a high school.

A request for $440,000 for construction of a high school in the Cuba independent district has been increased to $941,000, Mrs. Lusk said. That and several other requests for federal funds are pending.

Point Blank Shotgun Blast Misses Boy

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—A 10-year-old boy was shot at point blank with a shotgun by four teenagers but wasn't hit.

"Don't know how they missed the boy," said Detective W. A. Lackey.

Lackey said the four older boys didn't miss when they switched to a truck as a target. The truck was riddled with more than 100 rounds from the .410 shotgun and a .22-caliber rifle.

The officer said the youths also fired one blast of the shotgun between two 14-year-old girls as they walked along, and threatened to shoot a woman and her son.

The teen-agers, whose names were withheld, have been charged with vandalism, assault and assault with intent to do bodily harm. Lackey said they admitted the shooting.

Senators Hear Tale Of Nationalists Trade With Reds Through Hong Kong

WASHINGTON (AP)—Investigating senators have called top government officials for questioning about efforts by this country to curb its allies' trade with the Communists.

Secretary of Commerce Weeks, Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr., and Foreign Aid Director John E. Hollister, were called to a closed session of the Senate Investigations subcommittee.

At earlier public hearings before the subcommittee, which is investigating East-West trade, all three refused to produce some requested information about a 1954 agreement to relax free world trade with Russia. They said they would supply such data only at a secret session, and that to do so publicly would violate a U. S. agreement with some of its allies.

All three officials have testified this country reluctantly agreed to some relaxation to prevent the whole voluntary system of restrictions on Iron Curtain trade from collapsing.

Hoover testified Monday that the Chinese Nationalists have been trading with Red China, while exchanging shots in the Formosa amounts to "quite a number of Straits." He said such trade millions of dollars' worth of goods every year.

Recently, however, State Department Press Officer Lincoln White said he could find "no evidence of direct trade between Nationalist China and Red China." He said some such trade is carried on indirectly through Hong Kong, a British colony.

The U. S. embassy of Chiang Kai shek's Nationalist government said there is some trade in nonstrategic goods, mostly consumer items, between Formosa and Hong Kong. It indicated the Nationalist government has no control over any forwarding of such goods on to Red China.

Know YOUR Schools

DID YOU KNOW that more than 900,000 children are attending school on half-day sessions, according to the 14th annual estimate by the NEA Research Division?

This is the 11th consecutive year of increasing enrollments, leading to overcrowding, understaffing, and makeshift alternatives to accommodate the estimated over 31 million youngsters in public schools, an increase of 1 1/4 million over 1954-55. Figures show 81,000 emergency teachers, a shortage of 171,000 teachers, a need for 75,000 new classrooms plus another 20,000 to replace obsolete buildings. All 48 states report serious building shortages at the secondary level in 44 states.

An alert and informed public in Artesia will prevent such a crisis here. This community has reason to feel proud of its active interest in providing adequate facilities for the education of its youth.—By Jo Connell.

Cooper To Come To State For Fraud Charges

GUAM (AP)—Winston C. Cooper, former public utility chief for Guam, leaves Saturday to answer fraud charges in New Mexico.

He is charged by the federal government with falsifying records of an electric cooperative at Cloudcroft, N. M., in 1951 and diverting funds of the organization to his own use.

He was indicted in Albuquerque by a federal grand jury.

Judge Paul D. Shriver of District Court in Guam has released Cooper on $1,000 cash bond to report to the U. S. Marshall in New Mexico not later than April 16. The charge against him was filed in U. S. District Court in Albuquerque.

Meanwhile, Gov. Ford Elvidge has appointed William Heliier to Cooper's position, which Cooper resigned. Heliier has been director of public works in Guam.

About time for your first tractor trip out into the field, isn't it? It may be a while since you've handled the tractor. Remember how to do it safely? The National Safety Council and the U. S. Department of Agriculture report about 1,100 farm people lose their lives in tractor accidents every year. Don't cut those corners too sharply, watch for ditches and gulleys, and don't hurry.

He is not here. The Cross and the Tomb have both been snatched from their association with death. They have been transformed by love and self-giving. DARK FRIDAY becomes GOOD FRIDAY with the revealing of Heavenly love. Christmas is sanctified in Easter. He lives and we, too, shall live, in the measure in which we learn to kiss the Cross, our cross as well as His. His journey to Golgotha transfigured the cross forever, TURNING A SYMBOL OF SUFFERING INTO A SYMBOL OF TRIUMPHANT LIFE. It is Easter.
