LONDON (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist party chief Kikita Khrushchev arrived in London today jaunty and full of smiles and extended a hand of friendship to Britain and the rest of the world.

"We all have to live together on the same planet," Bulganin told a crowd of cheering, jeering, and laughing Londoners who came to welcome the Russian leaders at Victoria railway station at the start of a 10-day official visit.

Prime Minister Eden, wreathed in smiles, stepped forward to shake hands with the Russian statesmen as they stepped from the express train which brought them from the port of Portsmouth.

Outside in the packed streets, thousands of Britons in holiday mood cheered and laughed — and booed.

Eden made a brief speech of welcome under the glistening batteries of television cameramen.

"In greeting, I express the hope that we shall, by our work and by our decision, improve relations between our countries and our peoples," he said.

Bulganin, beaming broadly then stepped to the microphone and replied through an interpreter: "We offer our greetings to Her Majesty's government and the (Continued on Page Four)

New Arab-Israeli Cease-Fire Agreement Expected Tonight

Suspended Chief Powell Returns, Pleads Innocent

Former Chief of Police Frank Powell pleaded innocent here yesterday to four counts of accepting bribes. The suspended chief was arraigned before Justice of the Peace John Ellicott about 4:30 p.m. yesterday.

Powell returned unexpectedly yesterday from Durant, Okla., where he had been undergoing treatment for diabetes.

Powell's bond was set at $4,000 and was signed by Dave Feldman and Howard Achen, both Artesia businessmen. A preliminary hearing will be set for the chief when his attending physician reports his condition favorable for the ordeal.

His doctor here said that it will be two or three days before Powell's physical state can be properly evaluated as to when he can go through the "ordal facing him."

"He arrived here extremely weak, tired and worn out," the attending doctor stated. "He is under sedatives and we are trying to get him to eat a little more to build him up." The ex-chief, who was suspended recently by city councilmen when the charges were filed, was said to have lost a "moderate" amount of weight.

Mrs. Powell said the ex-chief was unavailable to reporters today and was sleeping. She said he drove here unexpectedly with a (Continued on Page Four)

Hammarskjold Reported To Have Consent Of Both Sides

JERUSALEM (AP) — A usually reliable political source said Dag Hammarskjold is expected to announce tonight a new Arab and Israeli agreement to a cease-fire along the Egyptian-Israeli armistice line.

The U. N. Secretary General was reported to have received consent from both Egyptian and Israeli officials, in negotiations over the past week, to a new and definite attempt to maintain the armistice in the broad sense of the word.

This report came out in the wake of the Soviet Union's surprise announcement it would back a U. N. settlement of the Arab-Israeli conflict.

Press reaction to the Russian move seemed generally favorable in both Egypt, which is getting arms from the Communist bloc, and in Israel, which contends those Communist arms are upsetting the balance of power in the Middle East.

U. S. Ambassador Edward B. Lawson left Tel Aviv somewhat mysteriously for Washington consultations. His plane seat was booked in the name of "Hyde" and he arrived at the airport while his Embassy was denying his departure.

Hammarskjold, following up two long conferences yesterday, talked again with Premier David Ben-Gurion and other Israeli government leaders, and to avert the danger of a Middle East war.

Publicly, Israeli officials were saying nothing about Moscow's offer to back a U. N. settlement of the feuding, recently intensified that has marked the years since the Palestine war of 1948.

There was a similar official silence in Cairo, where Hammarskjold conferred with Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser and other Egyptian authorities last week.

The Israeli Foreign Ministry at noon still had not received an official text of the Soviet pronouncement, which called on Israel and the Arab nations to refrain from further incidents on existing armistice lines. (Continued on Page Four)

Russia Moves Toward Power In Mid-East

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union appears to be moving swiftly and with great skill to consolidate a position as a power in Middle Eastern affairs.

This is the interpretation most generally placed here on the Russian Foreign Office announcement of readiness to cooperate in United Nations efforts to make peace between Israel and the Arab states.

The move, in the view of U.S. officials, was timed to set the stage for British-Russian talks on the Middle East. It was announced as a warship carrying Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Nikita Khrushchev, Communist party boss, approached English shores for the first visit ever made by Soviet Communist rulers to a great Western capital. Grace Becomes Real-Life Princess In Wedding Today

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (AP) — Serious-faced and sitting as a statue, film queen Grace Kelly became the real life princess of Monaco and bride of Prince Rainier III today. No tears were shed and no kisses were exchanged.

The 26-year-old American film star, one of the oldest princely brides of Europe and making her debut as the 370-acre Mediterranean principality, was telecast by Europe's major networks. A religious ceremony will be performed tomorrow.

Today's ceremony consisted of an exchange of "Ouis" and the signing of an official register in the presence of 81 guests. The details were concluded in a relaxed and glanced at the bride but he was staring straight ahead. Then she glanced at her (Continued on Page Four)

Sen. Kefauver Suffers His Worst Setback

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. Sen. Estes Kefauver had the worst setback in his 1956 fight for the Democratic presidential nomination to contemplate today as a result of yesterday's New Jersey primary election.

It was a double disappointment. He was soundly licked by members of his own party in a fight over convention delegate votes and trailed President Eisenhower badly on the "popularity contest" side of the ballots.

The intra-party fight in New Jersey resulted from the insistence of Gov. Robert Meyner and the Democratic organization on an unpledged slate of delegates free to support the candidate they think best at the August convention.

Kefauver, entering a slate pledged to him, argued for an expression of preference by the voters.

Ferguson Steere Suit At Lovington

LOVINGTON (AP) — Attorneys for Ferguson-Steere Trucking Co. today took up the defense of the firm being sued for $186,630 as the result of the collision of one of its trucks and a bus last year.

Mrs. Maybelle Peacock, Carlsbad, is suing the trucking firm for $111,630 in the death of her husband, Thomas J. Peacock, in the crash on State Road 31, about 20 miles northeast of Carlsbad Aug. 8, 1955.

W. R. Burns, Carlsbad, is suing the firm for $75,000 for injuries received in the crash.

Four men were injured fatally and 19 were hurt. The Potash Mines Transportation Co. bus was carrying miners to work at the Potash Co. of America plant and mine. All the victims were on the bus.

Dist. Judge C. Roy Anderson was hearing the joint case on a change of venue from Carlsbad asked by the trucking company.

Don G. McCormick, attorney for Mrs. Peacock, said about 10 other damage suits are pending, and total damages asked amount to about one million dollars. He said he expected this specific joint case to reach a conclusion about the end of the week.

Man Pleads Innocent To Carrying Away

Lewis Bowling pleaded innocent to charges of carrying away, concealing or disposing of property under a sales contract, when arraigned Tuesday afternoon before Justice of the Peace John Ellicott.

Bowling was brought here from Clovis by Deputy Sheriff Ike Funk on the charge which involves a television set bought on terms here last October.

Bond was set at $1,000. Preliminary hearing is scheduled in JP Court on April 24. Bowling had not made the bond this morning and was in the custody of police.

A car driven by Victor Clack ran off the highway about one mile south of town about 2 a.m. this morning, hit a corrugated tin pipe drain and landed in a culvert. State Patrolman Bill Allen said the accident caused about $500 damage to Clack's car.

No Pants For 'Fancy Pants'

YORK, England (AP) — Chorus girls in the touring revue "Fancy Pants" threatened a strike over a shortage of what's in the title of the show—and they don't mean fancy.

Posing in the nude, they said, was no part of the bargain when they signed on.

Show manager Eric Williams conceded this, but told reporters: "Out here in the provinces the audiences won't come to the theater unless you give them nudies. I have explained to the girls that they must either satisfy the modern demand or we will have to close down."

Williams and the girls compromised on a wisp here and a wisp there.

Eisenhower Pledges No Surrender To Pressure

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has pledged no "surrender to pressure, bribes for support, escapes from responsibility" in his campaign for re-election.

Eisenhower urged Republicans last night to make a special drive to enlist young people in a campaign he said must be "concerned with those things which count for most—people and principles."

Gress Case Ends In A Mistrial

CLOVIS (AP) — Dist. Judge E. T. Hensley has declared a mistrial in the case of the Rev. Harold Gress of Lovington, who was charged with lying to a grand jury here about pulling a gun in a Clovis club.

Rollie Wicker, foreman of the jury, said that after 5 hours and 10 minutes last night, the jurors were unable to reach a verdict. He said three polls were taken, 7-5, 8-4, and 7-5, and that there did not seem to be much chance that the jurors would change their minds. He did not announce which way the jury leaned.

Hensley declared a mistrial and continued the present bond for Gress.

Gress, a Baptist minister, was indicted for lying when he said he did not point a gun at anyone in the Clovis Cattleman's Club Jan. 29.

Before the case went to the jury, the defense suggested Gress may have suffered loss of memory when he allegedly gave the testimony which resulted in his indictment.

Eisenhower was cheered lustily by 900 GOP leaders as he addressed a colorful banquet that wound up a two-day pre-campaign strategy meeting. His speech, in effect, was the opening of his own re-election effort.

"Our aim must be to convince every American newly arrived at voting age that the Republican party is the party through which these young citizens' aspirations for their country can be achieved," Eisenhower said.

In sounding a call for what he termed an "organized crusade" on behalf of people and principles, the President invited aboard Republicans, independents and those he described as "sound thinking Democrats." He said "we welcome them all."

Although this was a party gathering, Eisenhower had no harsh things to say about the Democrats. In fact, he told the assembly:

Wedding Of Grace Kelly And Prince Is Described

MONTE CARLO — Movie Queen Grace Kelly today married Monaco's Prince Rainier III in a simple Throne Room ceremony that made her a reigning princess.

The Palace of Monaco's red and gold Throne Room was crowded with members of the two families, representatives of 25 nations, special guests and a handful of news correspondents and photographers for the civil ceremony in which the film star from Philadelphia became first lady of his 370-acre Mediterranean realm.

A religious ceremony in Monaco's Roman Catholic Cathedral will follow tomorrow.

The nervous Prince and the composed movie star both answered "oui" in faint but distinct voices as Marcel Portinier, the minister of justice of Monaco, asked them these questions in French:

"Miss Grace Patricia Kelly, do you consent to take as your husband his Serene Highness Prince Rainier III, here present?"

And then, after her response: "Your Serene Highness, do you consent to take as your wife Miss Grace Patricia Kelly, here present?"

After Rainier's "oui," Portinier stated: "I declare your Serene Highness united by the ties of marriage."

The new Princess sat quietly at the side of her Prince as she listened to a long reading of the list of titles she assumed—Princess, Countess, Baroness, Duchess, and many more.

The Prince clasped his hands, chewed his forefinger and sat smiling. The bride sat with a cool, grave expression.

The handsome 32-year-old Prince—in formal morning attire—and his radiant bride, 26, sat and talked with Portinier awhile across a table, then signed the marriage book. This step in the romance, which bloomed after the Prince met the Philadelphia girl while she was making a picture on the Riviera in 1955, all took about a half hour. Their engagement was announced last Jan. 5 while the Prince was visiting the United States.

Because this was a marriage of the chief of state, there was a little more formality than a local mayor might find necessary for just any man and woman.

The program was as well-organized and timed as any movie script with which Grace ever worked.

It started at 11 a.m. (5 a.m. EST) when the few guests who could be accommodated in the Throne Room began arriving at the prince's 120-room palace. Traffic moving up the steep hill to the palace was strictly controlled, so there were no serious delays. Prince Rainier had arrived ear-

Grace's Regal Style Wedding Dress Described

MONTE CARLO — The wedding dress Grace Kelly will wear tomorrow is described as a "regal style designed along Renaissance lines." It represents six weeks work by 35 persons in the wardrobe department of the actress' studio Metro-Goldwyn Mayer.

Into the ivory silk taffeta and lace creation, Academy award-winning designer Helen Rose put 25 yards of peau de soie—that's heavy taffeta, 25 yards of silk taffeta, 100 yards of silk net, and 200 yards of val lace (narrow strips for the petticoats).

The gown, combining the ivory peau de soie and rose point lace, has a cathedral train 3 1/2 yards long. The long-sleeved bodice is of rose point lace, re-embroidered so there are no seams. It is closed down the front with tiny lace buttons and fitted over a foundation of silk sou. The pale flesh tone.

The peau de soie overskirt is bell-shaped. It has no folds in front and the fullness is the back is laid in pleats at the waist, flaring out at the bottom in a fan shape.

The underskirt, described as a "masterpiece of engineering," in valves three petticoats.

The veil, a circular affair designed to keep the face in view, is embroidered with rose point lace and re-embroidered with thousands of tiny pearls. It is attached to a Juliet cap of rose point lace, with a small wreath of tiny orange blossoms and leaves fashioned of seed pearls. Embroidered on the back of the veil are two tiny lace love birds.

Philadelphia, Miss Kelly's hometown, will get the gown for its Museum of Art after the wedding.

lies in the day from his seaside villa, to which he expected to return tonight.

Portinier was in his place with a sheaf of documents.

First to enter was the palace manor domo and two butlers named Michel and Etienne. Then came the court chamberlain, Count Ferdinand d'Aillieres.

Next was Grace, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Kelly of Philadelphia and Mrs. Paul Noghes, whose husband is chief of the Monaco Cabinet. They were followed by Grace's sister Mrs. George Davis, her sister's husband and her brother, John Kelly Jr., and Mrs. Kelly.

The bride wore an alencon lace suit of blue silk taffeta. Both it and the wedding gown for the religious ceremony tomorrow were designed by Helen Rose of Hollywood, like the bride on Academy award winner.

The skirt of the suit was bell shaped and 14 inches above the floor. The jacket was of the same material, with lace buttons down the front. Miss Kelly wore short matching kid gloves and matching silk pumps and a somewhat bell-shaped cloche hat, also in beige. She carried a small corsage of roses.

Prince Rainier followed the Kelly family into the Throne Room.

After the Prince came Col. Rene Severac, chief of Monaco's military and defense forces. Then came the Prince's mother, Princess Charlotte; his father, Prince Pierre; Princess Ghisiane, widow of Prince Rainier's grandfather, Prince Louis II; Princess Antoinette, Rainier's sister; Count Ferdinand d'Aillieres; Count Charles de Polignac, Rainier's uncle; and Lt. Col. Rene Ardent, one of the Prince's educators.

Then he turned the official register and pushed it across the table, first to the Prince.

The Prince signed and then Grace, now a serene highness and an authentic member of European royalty, added her signature.

Hurried glances, screeching voices, pounding feet, RIOTING STUDENTS!

As a small child I often wondered what it would be like among a group of rioters. After one such experience I'll guarantee it isn't any fun. When a stranger hears the following story he habitually says, "You and your 'pipe

Gathered around, squeezed into corners of the room, were about 25 guests and witnesses.

When all the principals were seated, Portinier got right down to business.

"Does your Serene Highness authorize me to proceed with this marriage?" Portinier asked.

Assured by the Prince that he was authorized to proceed, the official gave a talk on the seriousness of marriage along these lines:

Both the husband and wife must be faithful and helpful. A husband owes protection to his wife and the wife owes obedience to her husband. A wife is obliged to live with her husband and follow him everywhere he finds it convenient to live. A husband is obliged to shelter his wife and furnish her with all necessities according to his ability to supply them.

Speaking in French, Portinier said: "Miss Grace Patricia Kelly, do you consent to take as your husband his Serene Highness Prince Rainier III, here present?"

"Yes" (oui), said Miss Kelly, also speaking in French.

Then to the Prince, the minister said: "Your Serene Highness, do you consent to take as your wife Miss Grace Patricia Kelly, here present?"

"Yes" said the Prince.

The minister recorded the answers with care and then said: "I declare your Serene Highness united by the ties of marriage."

us but they let us travel in peace until we reached the heart of the city. Suddenly as if from nowhere our bus was surrounded by thousands of maddened students. They beat on the windows and the door chanting, "Americans and British must go!" It appeared that there was no stopping; they wanted blood.

Thank God, the police came to our rescue and right before my eyes I saw boys no older than myself clubbed.

The same boys had only moments before been my enemies my heart cried out in anguish when I saw them beaten until I was certain they would fall to the ground dead, but each one had the endurance of Samson.

After what seemed an eternity our bus was permitted to move on with its load of terrorized occupants. As one might well expect we hurried back to the airport and demanded an OK for our departure. Our wish was granted and in 24 hours we were many miles away and the incident was forgotten.

I'm not writing this story for the purpose of relating a minor riot, but instead emphasizing the fact that it is the youth of a country who run the country. When one sees a great number rebel it is only natural to wonder whether there is or isn't a grave problem that must be looked into.

I'm not a politician or a professor, only a teenage American student. I can't say what is wrong or how it can be remedied. I only want to expose the fact that riots and students in anxiety can "kill" the democracy of a country.

Due to modern ways of travel today's world is very small. The U.S., Germany, Japan, Russia or Greece are all neighbors.

If a next door neighbor was in trouble would we stand by and watch him fall down hill to ruin or run to his aide and attempt to remedy the situation?

THE AGE-DATED BEER

The Yankees, who have been hinting this may be Mickey Man-tle's BIG year at last, swamped Washington (10-4) with the Mick swatting two 475-foot homers out of the Senators' Griffith Stadium.
The White Sox got a jump on the Indians, winning 2-1 at Chicago when Cleveland ace Bob Lemon walked the clinching run home in the seventh.
Kansas City beat Detroit 2-1 on Gus Zernial's pinch two-run double.

In the National, which fell short of the AL's 117,210 opening day crowds with an attendance of 108,887, Brooklyn's world champion Dodgers—who won their first 10 games last season, were knocked off by Philadelphia and Robin Roberts 8-6. Hank Aaron and Joe Adcock homered for Milwaukee in the Braves' 6-0 decision over the Chicago Cubs on Lew Burdette's five-hitter. Stan Musial hit a two-run homer in the ninth as St. Louis defeated Cincinnati 4-2. And Johnny Antonelli tossed a six-hitter and homered in the New York Giants' 4-3 victory over Pittsburgh.

Yogi Berra also homered for the Yanks, who got six-hit pitching from Don Larsen. Karl Olson, late of the Red Sox, homered twice for the Senators and Rookie Dick Tettebach, former Yank farmhand, once.
Southpaw Billy Pierce, the AL's earned-run leader in '55, five-hit the Indians, giving up a homer to Jim Busby—only member of the Busby-Chico Carrasquel-Larry Doby trade to do anything.
Doby fanned three times—once with the bases loaded.
Sherm Lollar scored the winning run, and drove in the other for the Sox with a double.
Zernial's blow in the seventh wrecked Frank Lary's one-man show for the Tigers. Lary hit an inside-the-park homer off winner Alxe Kellner for the lone Detroit run and had a three-hitger until
the seventh.
Roberts, who set a major league mark by allowing 41 homers in '55, was tagged for a home run by Roy Campanella and an inside-park job by Junior Gilliam, but the Phils gave him the padding he needed by chasing Don Newcombe. Jim Greengrass's three-run blast got rid of Newk in the third. Gran Hamner homered off Ed Roebuck.
Musial, out for his seventh battle, was hitless in four trips but scored Joe Nuxhall made his ninth since 1953 after his Army dis-

Dale Long homered twice for the Pirates to make Antonelli work

Texas League In Four-Way Tie For First

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Texas League race is all knotted up in a 4-way tie for first place and the boys already are getting edgy with less than a week of play.
Shreveport and Houston players reached the chip-on-shoulder stage Monday night followed by a veiled accusation by Shreveport Manager Mel McGaha that somebody of the Houston club swiped the spectacles of his star outfielder Ken Guettler, in order to get Guettler out of the lineup.
At Austin Tuesday night Manager Connie Ryan and third baseman Leo Thomas of the Senators were chased for arguing too vigorously with the umpires. Connie perhaps is more justified than anybody else in getting edgy. His ball club has lost four straight and is in the cellar.
Shreveport bounced back from Monday night's 3-3 loss to Houston to nose San Antonio in 13 innings and it created the 4-way jam at the top. San Antonio, Tulsa, Shreveport and Houston are tied for the lead with 3-2 records.
Shreveport and San Antonio struggled three hours and thirty-seven minutes with Billy Lynn scoring on a foreout at second for the winning run in the thirteenth inning. Ev Joyner's homer with a mate on board had produced the other two runs as Shreveport won 3-2.
Houston was handing Austin its fourth straight loss 6-4 as Ralph

Four Seeded Players Out, At River Oaks

HOUSTON (AP) — At least four nated today in the fourth round of the 22nd annual River Oaks Invitational Tennis Tournament.

Four of the eight matched pairings were canceled because of Beard weathered an 11-hit Senator attack.
Lloyd Jenney delivered a pinch homer for three runs in the eighth as Tulsa shamed Fort Worth 3-1.
Dallas slapped Oklahoma City
9-4 for the Eagles' second victory of the season. Dallas and Fort Worth are tied for fifth place with 2-2 records.
It took 2:54 to play the game,
a dreary affair that saw 20 bases on balls, a stream of 17 players by Oklahoma City and only 776 fans in the stands.

Whitney Reed, the nation's No. 15

Seixas eliminated John Zimmer-

Bulldogs Lose To Carlsbad 11-5 Here

The Bulldogs ran into a bit of went up against Carlsbad, a team which the 'Dogs have never been able to take at baseball, and dropped the game 11-5.
The Bulldogs ran into a bit of tough luck in the first inning when catcher Bill Mayes received an injured finger and had to be retired to the outfield.
Kenny Parish caught the rest of the game and did a wonderful job behind the plate.
Bob Curry went the whole way on the mound, striking out 10 batters and allowing only seven hits.
Artesia's next game is Friday at Roswell.

Pierce Stops Indians For Sox Victory

CHICAGO (AP) — Billy Pierce,
the Chicago White Sox left-hander, likes it cool when he pitches.
Pierce stopped the Cleveland Indians on five hits yesterday in hurting the Sox to a 2-1 triumph and the chilly weather was in his favor.
"I like it cool," said Pierce.
"Clouds don't make a big difference but I like cold weather. When it's cold I don't work up a sweat and therefore I don't get tired."
Pierce, the majors' leading pitcher with a 1.97 earned run average last year, said Jim Busby, formerly of the White Sox, hit a slider for a home run, Cleveland's only run.
Pierce was never in serious trouble as he bested Bob Lemon in the season's opener before nearly 17, 000 chilly fans. Temperatures were in the low 40s and a stiff west wind swept spacious Comiskey Park.
He walked a man in the first who was caught stealing, then gave up a single but settled down.
Pierce showed his pitching mastery in the ninth. With two out he walked Al Rosen and finished the game by striking out Vic Wertz.
Pierce had no intention of walking Rosen which would be the normal thing to do with Wertz, a left-handed batter, on deck.
"The ball kept rising away from me," said Pierce, "and I couldn't figure it out. Then I looked at the ball and found a scratch on it. It would be a good pitch if you could control it but with a man on I couldn't afford another walk so I asked for another ball."

All Home Teams Win As SW League Opens

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The brand new Southwestern League has opened up its operation as a home town circuit.
All five home teams won Tuesday night as the Class B loop-born of a merging of the old West Texas-New Mexico and Longhorn Leagues—went through its first night of competition.
All but one of the games was decided by a single run, and one went 10 innings. Ballinger nudged Pampa 10-9. Carlsbad took Clovis
5-4 in 10 innings. El Paso eased out Roswell 6-5. San Angelo got past Hobbs 3-2 and Plainview posted the only runaway, 9-0 over Midland.
But it was in that runaway that the outstanding performance of the evening was turned in. Veteran righthander Jack Cardey tossed a sterling one-hitter as the Ponies got off to a good start.
All the teams tonight will stay in the same location, and the teams now on the road won't get their home openers until Thursday.
Cardey, who was backed by homers by Jodie Beeler, Frank Tor-nay and Don Blaha, fanned six and passed three. The only hit off him was a clean single by Steve Hill in the first.
Gene Houradou doubled in the tying and winning runs for San Angelo in the fourth as Jodie
Phipps of the Colts and Hobbs' Wli Sirosis matched six-hitters.
El Paso rallied for two runs in the bottom of the eighth to edge out Roswell. The Texans scored on a triple by Juan Armenteros, a single by Scooter Hughes and sacrifice to overcome a lead Roswell took with four runs in the first. Heading Roswell's attack was a two-run homer by Joe Bauman.
Pampa first baseman Joe Fortin blasted three home runs, but it wasn't enough to stop Ballinger.
The Westerners shoved across five runs after two were out in the bottom of the ninth to take it.
It came on two bases on balls, a double, a single and two errors.
Steve Nunez, the last of three Carlsbad pitchers, won his own

Let's Air It Now

There seems to be some beliefs and some indications if there is to be an airing of the Clayton dam matter and the charges being hurled of the waste of funds it should be held prior to the primary election and not after that election.

Whether it hurts some of those in office seeking re-election or not shouldn't be taken into consideration. It is also true if the fired employee of the State Game and Fish Department has a case and is justified in demanding a hearing—that should be held now.

This is not a matter of concern only to one or two political parties or a few office holders. This is the business of the people and it was their money that was wasted if there was money wasted.

They have a perfect right to have the facts in this matter prior to the election so they can base their decisions as to those nominees they want prior to election.

Those who might seek to delay the hearing for the fired employee or an airing of the case are not helping themselves any by attempting to delay the matter until after the primary. The fact is if they do manage to delay it you can be sure their political opponents—those opposing the present office holders for nominations—and the other party will use this for political propaganda.

They will contend they must be something to be covered up or those responsible in these matters would want to air the matter before the election.

It, of course, is up to the public to make a demand regarding this matter or any other matter that concerns them and concerns the spending of their money. It is not a matter to be decided by a few politicians or a few public officials.

These individuals were elected to represent them in such matters and to carry out the laws and to carry out the wishes in so far as possible of the people of the state.

The matter of the Clayton Dam has been whispered and kicked around in the state for a good many months now. We see no reason for it continuing to be a subject of discussion when everything points to the fact a hearing should be held concerning a firing and the charges that money was wasted.

Know YOUR Schools

By Jo Connell

DID YOU KNOW that the purpose of discipline in the classroom is first of all to develop self-control in the students?

Not always does enforced discipline breed self-discipline. Not always does teacher-control in a classroom promote self-control in the students. Most teachers spend the entire length of their time in educational service seeking the key to giving their students self-discipline or self-control. The absence of self-control means the absence of happiness probably in direct proportion.

While self-control is the primary objective of discipline in the classroom, there are other reasons, of course, for maintaining order during a period of teaching. The classroom is usually filled with from twenty to thirty-five or more students. Without some order or a teaching situation could not exist.

Order in the classroom varies

Russia-

American officials are watching the London scene closely to see what kind of impact the Soviet leaders make on the people of England and Western Europe. They also are eager to learn whether the Kremlin pair comes up with any concrete proposals for Middle East action, for progress on disarmament negotiations or for developments on other world issues.

Officials here believe Bulganin and Khrushchev would welcome an invitation to visit Washington. No consideration is being given at present to extending such an invitation. It might be possible if their London visit goes off well.

The Russian policy shift on the Middle East is analyzed here as serving several, soviet, purposes. At least one of them coincides with the announced abolition of the Cominform as an agency for international Red propaganda.

This is the idea that a major aim of Soviet foreign policy now is to demonstrate peaceful and friendly intentions all over the world with the hope of diminishing fear of Soviet power and lulling the Western world into a sense of relaxation.

Until yesterday the Russians were subject to a charge that their only contribution to the Middle East situation had been to make bad matters worse between Israel and Egypt by selling arms to Egypt through Czechoslovakia.

Many U.S. and British officials feared that Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser, with Soviet support, was moving toward a military showdown with Israel possibly late this year.

Some authorities now speculate that perhaps the Russians came to the same conclusion and were alarmed by the possibility of an outbreak of full-scale war in Palestine.

somewhat with different teachers. This is natural since methods of teaching vary with different teachers just as their physical appearances or personalities differ. These differences indicate merely that the same goal may be reached in different ways and that these ways may be equally interesting, profitable and effective. The beginning teacher soon discovers what is the best manner for him to conduct his classes and works to develop his leadership as head of his classroom community.

An attitude of respect for school personnel and property is a product of self-discipline in a student. This attitude can be begun in the home before the child starts to school. This attitude can be nurtured at home all during the child's school life.

Eisenhower-

Eisenhower has said he would be happy to run on any ticket with Nixon, but that Nixon must chart his own course. Last night, Nixon may have indicated, at least indirectly, that he had made a decision to seek re-election.

Introduced by GOP Chairman Leonard W. Hall, who repeatedly has assured Nixon would be on the ticket, the vice president told Eisenhower:

"We shall serve in any capacity necessary to assure your re-election to the position you now hold. We pledge ourselves here and now to do our best to give you in November what you need and deserve to carry out your program and to win the House and Senate."

Eisenhower, half turned in his chair, listened intently as Nixon said that "what marks any great President is summed up in one word, courage—courage to do the right thing as he sees it regardless of what the political consequences might appear to be at the time."

Nixon said most politicians believed the easiest way was for the President to sign the farm bill. But he said Eisenhower did what he thought was right in vetoing it.

Eisenhower told the Republican leaders—most of whom had closed ranks in support of his veto action—that he had received a flood of messages. He said some were critical, citing one from a man in California who he said accused him of being persuaded by his "right business friends to crucify the farmers of the U. S.," Eisenhower said every message he had from a business man urged him to sign the bill.

Eisenhower stressed the civil rights theme with an assertion the Republican party "sets up no walls of birth or creed." He said it was one of the fundamental principles of the GOP that "every American is equal before the law and the conscience of government."

SAC Officer Tells Rotarians Of Air Power

On the 10th anniversary of the Strategic Air Command, Artesia Rotarians Tuesday heard a SAC officer of Walker Air Force Base, Roswell, tell of the immediate striking power of this nation's air arm in the event of hostilities.

"In SAC's top secret files are hundreds of strike plans for various parts of the world, instantly ready to meet all foreseeable conditions," Lt. Col. Hadley told the local Rotary club. "They are worked out in minute detail, each based on a different set of world conditions, different objectives, different aircraft availability. Anyone of them, or a combination, may be used in the event this country is attacked."

The officer outlined the developments of SAC in the last decade, pointing out: "Today SAC is beginning to retire the B-36 and is rushing production on her streamlined jet sister, the B-52." The B-52 "Stratofortress" is the first all-jet intercontinental nuclear bomber. It carries enough bomb power to destroy a target of 15-mile radius, he said.

By preparation for war, Lt. Col. Hadley concluded, SAC works for peace.

Rev. John Payne was a new member of the organization at the Tuesday meeting.

Visitors were Marty Vogel, Odessa; Lewis Todd, Roger Aston, Bert Aston, Hugo Anderson, Reed Mulkey, O. L. Garretson and Bob Beck, all of Roswell; Bert Rawlins, Carlsbad; Ira Williams, Brookfield, Mo., and James B. Skewes and James Skewes, both of Meridian, Miss.

Presidential poll: 3,416 of 4,155 districts.

Eisenhower (R) 260,007; Kefauver (D) 98,227; Stevenson (write-in) 1,681.

Meyner has said his slate has no particular candidate at this time, but it was believed generally most of his delegates prefer Stevenson, who did not participate in the primary.

The state organization victory did no harm to Meyner's political stock. The governor has been mentioned as a possible dark horse candidate for president or vice president.

Kefauver was unopposed on the presidential preference ballot side. He also was unopposed in the same situation in 1952, when he got 154,964 preferential votes.

Eisenhower in 1952 polled 390,591 votes in defeating the late Sen. Taft of Ohio and Gov. Harold Stassen of Minnesota on the GOP preference side. The President faced no real GOP challenge this time for New Jersey's 38 Republican delegate votes.

sister, Mrs. George Davis of Philadelphia. In the exchange of smiles it appeared for a moment the bride was going to burst into laughter.

"I am kind of numb," she said after the ceremony.

The 32-year-old bridegroom was strained and nervous as he sat beside the blonde beauty from Philadelphia and Hollywood in the small gold and red Throne Room of the Palace of Monaco. He ran his finger under his collar, bit his fingernail and pulled his mustache. Briefly he folded his hands firmly in his lap, but a moment later was tugging again at his mustache.

Kellys and members of Rainier's ancient Grimaldi family were banded on both sides of the couple in the Throne Room, along with movie and television cameramen; representatives of government; a small group of American, French and British reporters, and a few other guests.

The bride signed the official register making her a princess at 11:15 a.m., using her full name, Grace Patricia Kelly. She was a little uncertain just how the Prince signed, but said after the ceremony she thought he had written "Rainier, Prince of Monaco." His full name is Rainier Louis Henri, Maxence Bertrand Grimaldi.

The week-long wedding celebration which has drawn thousands to this Riviera pleasure spot will conclude tomorrow with a religious ceremony in Monaco's Roman Catholic Cathedral. Actually the couple are married now according to French and Monacan law, but for the Catholic Church they will not be wed "in the eyes of God" until the church rites.

Later tomorrow the couple will sail on the Prince's yacht for a Mediterranean honeymoon cruise.

Tuberculosis Ass'n. To Meet At Carlsbad

Tuberculin testing of children in schools will be the subject of a panel discussion at the 39th annual meeting of the New Mexico Tuberculosis Assn. at Carlsbad, Thursday through Saturday.

What TB test should be used will be discussed with Dr. William Russell, chief of clinical research of the National Jewish Hospital, Denver, as moderator.

Tuberculin tests, gaining in importance in New Mexico as a means of discovering unknown cases of tuberculosis, were given last fall in Artesia schools sponsored by the local TB Association.

Managing director of the National Tuberculosis Assn. James E. Perkins of New York City will be at the first annual TB meeting to be held in the southeastern part of New Mexico.

Mrs. Leah Perkins, Deming, president of the New Mexico TB group, also will be at the sessions held in conjunction with the New Mexico Trudeau society.

William Healy, chairman of the local arrangements committee, is in charge of getting everything in order for the meet which will be attended by doctors and persons interested in TB control from all over the State.

director of the Tri-County TB Assn., along with Charles K. Johnson, president of North Eddy County Assn., and Mrs. Ray Bartlett, board member, will attend.

On Sunday arrangements are being made for the convention guests to tour Carlsbad Caverns, Mrs. Potter said.

At 3:45 p.m. doctors of the Trudeau society will attend a panel discussion on pembine type chest cases. These sessions are approved for five hours formal credit by the American Academy of General Practitioners, New Mexico chapter.

Mrs. Potter said anyone interested in the tubercular control movement in New Mexico is invited to attend the three-day program, and all board members are urged to attend.

No other truck can offer you as much as a new 1956 GMC

LOOK at the facts—no matter how large or how small a truck you need, there's a GMC that fills the bill for your business.

GMC's new light-duty power plants average substantially greater displacement than the nearest competition—14.4% on 6-cylinder models and 16.2% on the V8's. Horsepower's been upped as much as 20% on some of the larger models. And the new V8's are the very latest in modern, short-stroke design.

In the new half-tonners, a brand-new fast-ratio cruising axle handles this huskier power with all the efficiencies of overdrive. You get the same crisp pace—save 2 to 4 m.p.g. on fuel. And it's an option at a fraction of overdrive's usual price.

A new ride stabilizer gives Blue Chip light-duties remarkable new riding comfort. They're far easier to handle, too, because there's no need to fight the steering wheel—even on the poorest excuses for roads.

And there's more: All GMC's now have a 12-volt electrical system for easier starting. Tubeless tires are standard equipment. And a GMC truck's boulevard styling makes it far and away the best advertisement you can run.

In short, new 1956 Blue Chip GMC's are just about as impressive a line as you've ever seen. Dollar-for-dollar values are even more remarkable. Drop by and see some of the first models—just arrived on our showroom floor.

See us, too, for Triple-Checked used trucks.

Middleweight Contender Works For Shot At Title

CHICAGO (AP)—Young Bobby Boyd, No. 2 ranking middleweight contender, tries to expand a winning streak against dangerous Holly Mims tonight to keep his hopes buoyed for an early title shot.

Boyd, lanky 22-year-old Chicago Negro, is unbeaten in his last nine starts and rules a 9-5 choice in bout at Chicago Stadium.

The fight will be televised (10 p.m. EST, ABC).

Boyd, who turned pro in 1952 after coming up in the Golden Gloves ranks, has advanced steadily in the ratings since his last loss a year ago to Milo Savage.

He has disposed of such rugged fighters as Italo Scorticini, George Johnson, Gene Fulmer, Tony Anthony and Eduardo Lausse. He defeated Lausse in his last start two months ago.

Possessor of a long, hard right and accurate left jab, Boyd has scored 21 knockouts in a record of 38-6-2.

Mims, 26, is registered out of Washington, D. C., and is regarded in boxing circles as a "spoiler." He is a fine counter-puncher with a sharp right. Many ring experts figure his shuffling, walking style and punch will give Boyd trouble.

Someone Swipes Batter's Glasses

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP)—The mystery of the missing spectacles was solved by Manager Mel McGaha of the Shreveport Sports last night.

He said he wasn't accusing anybody of swiping the glasses of his slugging outfielder, Ken Guettler, at Houston Monday, but "circumstances in this case certainly look a little strange."

The glasses were taken from Guettler's locker at the Houston ball park and since there was no evidence the place had been broken into, McGaha hinted that it was an inside job. That would mean somebody on the Houston ball club, and the purpose was to render Guettler, who had hit four home runs in two days and broke up Sunday's game at Houston with a slashing double, hors de combat.

Guettler can't play ball without his glasses and he's having to get a replacement from Portsmouth, Va., which is keeping him out of the Shreveport lineup.

It sounded like "semi-pro stuff" to Manager Harry Walker of Houston. At Austin last night, Walker, hearing that McGaha was insinuating some of his players took the glasses, declared: "That's silly. He could have left those glasses anywhere. He worked out in the morning and they were out in the afternoon. We didn't know anything about it until just before the game."

Kim Nash Signs Intent For SMU

HOBBS (AP)—Kim Nash has signed a letter of intent to enter Southern Methodist University, he announced last night.

One of the most sought-after basketball players in Hobbs and New Mexico, history, Nash set a new state tournament scoring record with 45 points in the Class A finals against Carlsbad last season as the Eagles were winning the state title.

For the year he hit 590 points on 221 field goals and 148 free throws. Percentage-wise it was 44 per cent from the field, 75 from the charity line.

Nash plans to study business administration at SMU.

Wildcat Relays Scheduled Friday At Clovis

CLOVIS (AP)—The third annual Wildcat Relays, promising to be the final yet, gets underway Friday afternoon and runs through Friday night with the two top powers in the state—defending champion Highland and Carlsbad—set to battle for team honors.

Along with the two top teams, there are nine other state squads that are scheduled to field individual standouts to add to the already star-studded field.

The preliminaries get started at 2 p.m. Friday and the finals are slated for 7 Friday night. The finals in the field events will be run off Friday afternoon.

Of the 18 records, Highland holds eight of them. The rest are distributed between Carlsbad, Artesia, Albuquerque High, and Fort Sumner. However, six of the marks could go by the boards as the fleet youngsters, predominantly east-siders, get into action.

Other teams entered in the carnival are Fort Sumner, Hobbs, Roswell, Portales, Clayton, Tucuman, Santa Rosa, Melrose, Farmington and Clovis.

Let's Air It Now

There seems to be some beliefs and some indications if there is to be an airing of the Clayton dam matter and the charges being hurled of the waste of funds it should be held prior to the primary election and not after that election.

Whether it hurts some of those in office seeking re-election or not shouldn't be taken into consideration. It is also true if the fired employee of the State Game and Fish Department has a case and is justified in demanding a hearing—that should be held now.

This is not a matter of concern only to one or two political parties or a few office holders. This is the business of the people and it was their money that was wasted if there was money wasted.

They have a perfect right to have the facts in this matter prior to the election so they can base their decisions as to those nominees they want prior to election.

Those who might seek to delay the hearing for the fired employee or an airing of the case are not helping themselves any by attempting to delay the matter until after the primary. The fact is if they do manage to delay it you can be sure their political opponents—those opposing the present office holders for nominations—and the other party will use this for political propaganda.

They will contend there must be something to be covered up or those responsible in these matters would want to air the matter before the election.

It, of course, is up to the public to make a demand regarding this matter or any other matter that concerns them and concerns the spending of their money. It is not a matter to be decided by a few politicians or a few public officials.

These individuals were elected to represent them in such matters and to carry out the laws and to carry out the wishes in so far as possible of the people of the state.

The matter of the Clayton Dam has been whispered and kicked around in the state for a good many months now. We see no reason for it continuing to be a subject of discussion when everything points to the fact a hearing should be held concerning a firing and the charges that money was wasted.

Know YOUR Schools

By Jo Connell

DID YOU KNOW that the purpose of discipline in the classroom is first of all to develop self-control in the students?

Not always does enforced discipline breed self-discipline. Not always does teacher-control in a classroom promote self-control in the students. Most teachers spend the entire length of their time in educational service seeking the key to giving their students self-discipline or self-control. The absence of self-control means the absence of happiness probably in direct proportion.

While self-control is the primary objective of discipline in the classroom, there are other reasons, of course, for maintaining order during a period of teaching. The classroom is usually filled with from twenty to thirty-five or more students. Without some order a teaching situation could not exist.

Order in the classroom varies

American officials are watching the London scene closely to see what kind of impact the Soviet leaders make on the people of England and Western Europe. They also are eager to learn whether the Kremlin pair comes up with any concrete proposals for Middle East action, for progress on disarmament negotiations or for developments on other world issues.

Officials here believe Bulganin and Khrushchev would welcome an invitation to visit Washington. No consideration is being given at present to extending such an invitation. It might be possible if their London visit goes off well.

The Russian policy shift on the Middle East is analyzed here as serving several, soviet purposes. At least one of them coincides with the announced abolition of the Cominform as an agency for international Red propaganda.

This is the idea that a major aim of Soviet foreign policy now is to demonstrate peaceful and friendly intentions all over the world with the hope of diminishing fear of Soviet power and lulling the Western world into a sense of relaxation.

Until yesterday the Russians were subject to a charge that their only contribution to the Middle East situation had been to make bad matters worse between Israel and Egypt by selling arms to Egypt by selling arms to Egypt through Czechoslovakia.

Many U.S. and British officials feared that Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser, with Soviet support, was moving toward a military showdown with Israel possibly late this year.

Some authorities now speculate that perhaps the Russians came to the same conclusion and were alarmed by the possibility of an outbreak of full-scale war in Palestine.

somewhat with different teachers. This is natural since methods of teaching vary with different teachers just as their physical appearances or personalities differ. These differences indicate merely that the same goal may be reached in different ways and that these ways may be equally interesting, profitable and effective.

The beginning teacher soon discovers what is the best manner for him to conduct his classes and works to develop his leadership as head of his classroom community.

An attitude of respect for school personnel and property is a product of self-discipline in a student. This attitude can be begun in the home before the child starts to school. This attitude can be nurtured at home all during the child's school life.

Eisenhower-

Eisenhower has said he would be happy to run on any ticket with Nixon, but that Nixon must chart his own course. Last night, Nixon may have indicated, at least indirectly, that he had made a decision to seek re-election.

Introduced by GOP Chairman Leonard W. Hall, who repeatedly has assured Nixon would be on the ticket, the vice president told Eisenhower:

"We shall serve in any capacity necessary to assure your position to the position you now hold. We pledge ourselves here and now to do our best to give you in November what you need and deserve to carry out your program and to win the House and Senate."

Eisenhower, half turned in his chair, listened intently as Nixon said that "what marks any great President is summed up in one word, courage—courage to do the right thing as he sees it regardless of what the political consequences might appear to be at the time."

Nixon said most politicians believed the easiest way was for the President to sign the farm bill. But he said Eisenhower did what he thought was right in vetoing it.

Eisenhower told the Republican leaders—most of whom had closed ranks in support of his veto action—that he had received a flood of messages. He said some were critical, citing one from a man in California who he said accused him of being persuaded by his "right business friends to crucify the farmers of the U. S.," Eisenhower said every message he had from a business man urged him to sign the bill.

Eisenhower stressed the civil rights theme with an assertion the Republican party "sets up no walls of birth or creed." He said it was one of the fundamental principles of the GOP that "every American is equal before the law and the conscience of government."

SAC Officer Tells Rotarians Of Air Power

On the 10th anniversary of the Strategic Air Command, Artesia Rotarians Tuesday heard a SAC officer of Walker Air Force Base, Roswell, tell of the immediate striking power of this nation's air arm in the event of hostilities.

"In SAC's top secret files are hundreds of strike plans for various parts of the world, instantly ready to meet all foreseeable conditions," Lt. Col. Hadley told the local Rotary club. "They are worked out in minute detail, each based on a different set of world conditions, different objectives, different aircraft availability. Anyone of them, or a combination, may be used in the event this country is attacked."

The officer outlined the developments of SAC in the last decade, pointing out: "Today SAC is beginning to retire the B-36 and is rushing production on her streamlined jet sister, the B-52." The B-52 "Stratofortress" is the first all-jet intercontinental nuclear bomber. It carries enough bomb power to destroy a target of 15-mile radius, he said.

By preparation for war, Lt. Col. Hadley concluded, SAC works for peace.

Tuberculosis Ass'n. To Meet At Carlsbad

Tuberculin testing of children in schools will be the subject of a panel discussion at the 39th annual meeting of the New Mexico Tuberculosis Assn. at Carlsbad, Thursday through Saturday.

What TB test should be used will be discussed with Dr. William Russell, chief of clinical research of the National Jewish Hospital, Denver, as moderator.

Tuberculin tests, gaining in importance in New Mexico as a means of discovering unknown cases of tuberculosis, were given last fall in Artesia schools sponsored by the local TB association.

Managing director of the National Tuberculosis Assn. James E. Perkins of New York City will be at the first annual TB meeting to be held in the southeastern part of New Mexico.

Mrs. Leah Perkins, Deming, president of the New Mexico TB group, also will be at the sessions held in conjunction with the New Mexico Trudeau society.

William Healy, chairman of the local arrangements committee, is in charge of getting everything in order for the meet which will be attended by doctors and persons interested in TB control from all over the State.

director of the Tri-County TB Assn., along with Charles K. Johnson, president of North Eddy County Assn., and Mrs. Ray Bartlett, board member, will attend.

On Sunday arrangements are being made for the convention guests to tour Carlsbad Caverns, Mrs. Potter said.

At 3:45 p.m. doctors of the Trudeau society will attend a panel discussion on pembine type chest cases. These sessions are approved for five hours formal credit by the American Academy of General Practitioners, New Mexico chapter.

Mr. Potter said anyone interested in the tubercular control movement in New Mexico is invited to attend the three-day program, and all board members are urged to attend.

No other truck can offer you as much as a new 1956 GMC

LOOK at the facts—no matter how large or how small a truck you need, there's a GMC that fills the bill for your business.

GMC's new light-duty power plants average substantially greater displacement than the nearest competition—14.4% on 6-cylinder models and 16.2% on the V8's. Horsepower's been upped as much as 20% on some of the larger models. And the new V8's are the very latest in modern, short-stroke design.

In the new half-tonners, a brand-new fast-ratio cruising axle handles this huskier power with all the efficiencies of overdrive. You get the same crisp pace—save 2 to 4 m.p.g. on fuel. And it's an option at a fraction of overdrive's usual price.

A new ride stabilizer gives Blue Chip light-duties remarkable new riding comfort. They're far easier to handle, too, because there's no need to fight the steering wheel—even on the poorest excuses for roads.

And there's more: All GMC's now have a 12-volt electrical system for easier starting. Tubeless tires are standard equipment. And a GMC truck's boulevard styling makes it far and away the best advertisement you can run.

In short, new 1956 Blue Chip GMC's are just about as impressive a line as you've ever seen. Dollar-for-dollar values are even more remarkable. Drop by and see some of the first models—just arrived on our showroom floor.

See us, too, for Triple-Checked used trucks.

Middleweight Contender Works For Shot At Title

CHICAGO (AP)—Young Bobby Boyd, No. 2 ranking middleweight contender, tries to expand a winning streak against dangerous Holly Mims tonight to keep his hopes buoyed for an early title shot.

Boyd, lanky 22-year-old Chicago Negro, is unbeaten in his last nine starts and rules a 9-5 choice in bout at Chicago Stadium.

The fight will be televised (10 p.m. EST, ABC).

Boyd, who turned pro in 1952 after coming up in the Golden Gloves ranks, has advanced steadily in the ratings since his last loss a year ago to Milo Savage.

He has disposed of such rugged fighters as Italo Scottichini, George Johnson, Gene Fullmer, Tony Anthony and Eduardo Lausse. He defeated Lausse in his last start two months ago.

Possessor of a long, hard right and accurate left jab, Boyd has scored 21 knockouts in a record of 38-6-2.

Mims, 26, is registered out of Washington, D. C., and is regarded in boxing circles as a "spoiler." He is a fine counter-puncher with a sharp right. Many ring experts figure his shuffling, walking style and punch will give Boyd trouble.

PUTTING MARRIAGE before career, 13-year-old Mrs. Robert Holladay of Santa Paula, Cal., will quit school after finishing eighth grade. Arkansas-born bride of Robert Holladay, 18, service station employee and part-time evangelist, will "be housewife and help in church work." (International)

Someone Swipes Batter's Glasses

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP)—The mystery of the missing spectacles was too deep for Manager Mel McGaha of the Shreveport Sports—he thought.

He said he wasn't accusing anybody of swiping the glasses of his slugging outfielder, Ken Guettler, at Houston Monday, but "circumstances in this case certainly look a little strange."

The glasses were taken from Guettler's locker at the Houston park and since there was no evidence the place had been broken into, McGaha hinted that it was an inside job. That would mean somebody on the Houston ball club, and the purpose was to render Guettler, who had hit four home runs in two days and broke up Sunday's game at Houston with a slashing double, hors de combat.

Guettler can't play ball without his glasses and he's having to get a replacement from Portsmouth, Va., which is keeping him out of the Shreveport lineup.

It sounded like "semi-pro stuff" to Manager Harry Walker of Houston. At Austin last night, Walker, hearing that McGaha was insinuating some of his players took the glasses, declared: "That's silly. He could have left those glasses anywhere. He worked out in the morning and they worked out in the afternoon. We didn't know anything about it until just before the game."

Wilicat Relays Scheduled Friday At Clovis

CLOVIS (AP)—The third annual Wilicat Relays, promising to be the finest yet, gets underway Friday afternoon and runs through Friday night with the two top powers in the state—defending champion Highland and Carlshad—set to battle for team honors.

Along with the two top teams, there are nine other state squads that are scheduled to field individual standouts to add to the already star-studded field.

The preliminaries get started at 2 p.m. Friday and the finals are slated for 7 Friday night. The finals in the field events will be run off Friday afternoon.

Of the 18 records, Highland holds eight of them. The rest are distributed between Carlshad, Artesia, Albuquerque High, and Fort Sumner. However, six of the marks could go by the boards as the fleet youngsters, predominantly east-siders, get into action.

Other teams entered in the carnival are Fort Sumner, Hobbs, Roswell, Portales, Clayton, Tucuman, Santa Rosa, Melrose, Farmington and Clovis.

Kim Nash Signs Intent For SMU

HOBBES (AP)—Kim Nash has signed a letter of intent to enter Southern Methodist University, he announced last night.

One of the most sought-after basketball players in Hobbs and New Mexico, history, Nash set a new state tournament scoring record with 45 points in the Class A finals against Carlshad last season as the Eagles were winning the state title.

For the year he hit 500 points on 221 field goals and 148 free throws. Percentage-wise it was 44 per cent from the field, 75 from the charity line.

Nash plans to study business administration at SMU.

Ike Plays It Real Relaxed; He Deals In Generalities

By JAMES MARLOW AP News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP)—Politics is like a piano. How you play it depends on how you feel. If you feel pretty confident, you can play it relaxed. That's how President Eisenhower is playing it right now.

It will be unusual if he gets by as easily as Roosevelt did. Roosevelt had one thing in his political favor which Eisenhower lacks: there was a war and a great public reluctance for change right then.

His speech last night, in effect opening his campaign for re-election, was a concentrated collection of generalities and high-sounding principles. His whole talk was about "people and principles."

And this year both Democrats and Republicans are anxious—because of the strong feeling about racial segregation—for the northern Negro vote and the white southern vote. They also are wooing the farm vote.

That he never got specific even once about people or principles or anything else was probably the most significant point in his talk to the Republican strategy conference here.

Eisenhower addressed himself to the farmers Monday night. Last night, because of his references to equality, no matter what the race, it can be assumed he was talking about civil rights and desegregation.

He was even nice to the Democrats, acknowledging they are just like Republicans in their loyalty and devotion to the nation and differ only in methods, traditions and philosophy.

If he was, he never said so in so many words. That he said what he vaguely did may have been some comfort—but perhaps not much—to the Negroes who want segregation in the South ended fast.

Since politicians can build a whole campaign around attacks on their opponents' methods and philosophy—as Eisenhower himself did against the Democrats in 1952—he left himself plenty of room for future maneuver.

At the same time Eisenhower's very vagueness in this field could hardly have antagonized white southerners toward the Republican party. It's doubtful he can remain this vague on this issue to the end of the campaign.

Apparently he doesn't think he has to get down to cases yet. To be able to launch a campaign on the vague plane he used last night is a kind of political luxury. It's a luxury Eisenhower can enjoy for a while, at least.

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite all the distractions of love and politics and sports this week business confidence and activity is managing to creep higher.

Dissolution Of Cominform; Aims Remain

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda made it clear today the dissolution of the Cominform—the international organization of Communist parties—does not represent any change in Communist aims.

The Soviet party organ served notice that party organizations in the various countries will find new "beneficial forms for their mutual ties and coordination of their activities."

The dissolution was agreed on by the central committees of Europe's Communist parties after they decided the Stalin-sponsored bureau set up in 1947 had "exhausted its functions."

Prospective New Teachers Increased by 10 Per Cent | Nation Still Must Face 86,000 Instructor Shortage

WASHINGTON—A new study by the National Education Association shows that 96,079 prospective new teachers will graduate from the nation's colleges this June, up nearly 10 per cent from a year ago.

Nevertheless, the National Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards is encouraged by the new report because it tends to confirm its belief that "teacher supply and demand can be balanced by 1962 if economic gains of teachers continue and if standards continue to be raised."

THE REPORT POINTS out that many of the teachers who will leave "will be among the best in the fields of greatest shortage," such as chemistry and biology.

THE 1956 CLASS will include 38,731 college graduates prepared as elementary school teachers—5,192 men and 33,539 women. This total is up 2.7 per cent from the 37,712 members of the class of 1955 who prepared for elementary school teaching.

Transplanting Of Glands Seen As Cancer Treatment

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE AP Science Reporter LOS ANGELES (AP)—Human glands invaded by cancer are being used in attempts to supply healthy new glands for other humans.

They are planted into the arm of a person who needs new gland tissue. There is no risk of giving the person cancer since human cancer cells do not "take" or grow in another person's body, said Dr. Roberto F. Escamilla, representing a research team at the University of California School of Medicine.

But healthy gland cells in the fragments of glands apparently can survive the transplanting, and produce hormones the person needs.
