You Could Win This Double Rocker - This Double Rocker, donated by Meghann's Market in Eastland, will be given away Saturday night, February 8th, at the Owen Turner Benefit. The rocker is on display now at the Texas Heritage Bank. Tickets are $1 each, and benefits the family of Owen Turner, 9 month old grandson of Dannes and Greg Turner who is battling leukemia.

Benefit to be held for Turner Family

Owen Turner, Grandson of Greg and Dannes Turner, began having trouble moving his right side on January 12. His parents, Joseh and Allison of Godley, took him to the hospital at Cleburne. The doctors immediately sent Owen to Cooks Children's Hospital with a preliminary diagnosis of Leukemia. After many more tests over several days, the diagnosis was confirmed as a very aggressive form of Leukemia, specifically AMLM5. Owen has completed one round off chemotherapy with plans for three more rounds in the upcoming months. The doctors are planning for a six or eight month stay at Cooks. The Turners have felt the prayers being lifted up for them and have witnessed miracles as Owen has continued to overcome obstacles. Please continue to pray for Owen, his family, and the doctors and nurses working with him daily.

There will be a benefit held February 8, 2014 for the Turner Famil from 5:00-7:00 pm at First Baptist Church in Cross Plains. There will be a Brisket dinner by donations cooked by Cowboys Cooking for Christ. A cake auction will also be held. The silent and live auction items include: scarves, jewelry, game cam, sports items, Scentsy packages, tires, protein tubs, Yeti cooler, outdoor decor, and many more items. A double rocker donated by Meghann's Market, Eastland, is being raffled off. Tickets are available this week at Texas Heritage Bank as well as the night of the benefit.

Coach Purvis excited about University Interscholastic league realignment

The University Interscholastic League announced its biennial realignment on Monday, February 3, 2014.

All schools in the league will move up one classification.

Cross Plains High School football and basketball teams will play in two separate classifications for the next two years.

Six-man football will now be called class 1A, the original 1A class will become 2A, etc. (everyone moves up a slot).

Cross Plains will play in District 8-2A Division II in football along with Albany, Baird, Gorman, Perrin-Whitt, Ranger and Santo for the next two years.

In Basketball (we are changing Districts) Cross Plains will be in District 15-1A, with Baird, Eula, May, Moran and Rising Star.

"We are very excited to be going East," said Cross Plains head Coach and athletic coordinator Daniel Purvis. "I believe it will cut down on our traveling (mileage to other towns)." Purvis continued "I am excited that we will be playing towns in our area, that we have a history with".

The Big Read/ "Experience True Grit" T-Shirt Design Contest Begins

In preparation for our 6-week celebration of The Big Read in March, the Cross Plains Public Library is holding a T-Shirt contest. Winning artwork will be reproduced in a single color on white or gray T-shirts to be given away during The Big Read. Because of copyright laws, designs cannot portray a real person, or a character from the "True Grit" movies. We are looking for artwork that would portray the spirit of "true grit" with drawings and/or words. Images must be no longer than 10" X 10" and preferably black and white, although color drawings will be accepted. Deadline for entries is Thursday, February 27, 2014. Any age can enter. The winner's name will be added to the design before printing.

Buffaloes Still Second With 5-3 Record In Basketball

The Cross Plains Buffaloes boys basketball team is still sitting second in district play at 5-3 after a win against Santa Anna, Friday, January 31 on Senior Night. A slip up at Panther Creek, Tuesday, February 28 could cause major complications to the district come Friday, unless the Buffaloes take care of business.

Cross Plains fell Tuesday by the score of 46-40, dropping their record to 4-3. Panther Creek was able to keep momentum with big shots throughout the evening, hitting 9 three point shots, all at key times in the game. Senior forwards Cutter Halsel and Josh Branch fought to keep the Buffaloes in it with Halsel netting 18 points and Branch finishing with 15. Only 4 Cross Plains' players would find their names in the box score as Stephenson went for 3, and Justin Willis would add 5. Josh Branch would finish with a double-double adding 14 rebounds. Stephenson and Henderson led in assists with 4 each.

Friday, seven seniors played in the final games at Cross Plains Gymnasium. Cutter Halsel, Tyler Henderson, Tristen Stephenson, Josh Branch, Colton McWilliams, Wesley Carver, and Justin Willis. Justin Willis would miss because of illness. The Buffaloes would make sure it was a good finale, as they took a big 30-15 lead into the locker room, and went on to win it by the score of 53-31. Tristen Stephenson had a big night, he tallied 14 points, 4 rebounds, 4 assist, and 2 steals. He was 8 of 9 from the charity stripe. As a team, the Buffaloes shot 11 of 13 from the line. Cutter Halsel scored 12 for the Buffaloes adding in 13 rebounds for good measure. Tyler Henderson added 4 assist and 8 rebounds, and 2 steals. Others scoring for the Buffaloes were Branch with 6, and McWilliams with 6, and Senclair with 12. Senclair hit two 3's on the evening.

The win moved the Buffaloes 6-5-3 in district with 2 to play. Rising Star's win over Brookesmith put them at 5-3, and Panther Creek's loss at May put their record at 5-3 in district play. Wins at Brookesmith and Rising Star this week will clinch second place for the Buffaloes. In the event that Rising Star defeats Cross Plains, a three way tie for second will be between Panther Creek, Rising Star, and Cross Plains forcing a round-robin tie-breaker between the three teams for the final two spots. The winner of District 15 will earn a bye in the first round of the playoffs. The second place team will play the third place team in District 16, which will likely be Blanket. The third place team will play the second place team out of that same district in the bi-district round, and the opponent will likely be Zephyr. Mullin has a comfortable lead for the district title in District 16.

Friday, at Rising Star, JV Boys will play at 5:30, with Varsity Boys to follow likely around 6:30. The girls conclude district play Tuesday in Brookesmith. Only Varsity Girls and Boys will play Tuesday at 6:30 and 8:00.

OBITUARIES

Chaplain T.D. Whitehorn

Chaplain T.D. Whitehorn, 96, died on January 24, 2014. Chaplain Whitehorn was born June 15, 1917, in Kildare, Texas, to T.D. Whitehorn, Sr., and Trannie Waites Whitehorn.

His was a life of service and challenge. He married Lavelle "Pat" Craighead August 3, 1937, and they enjoyed 72 years of marriage until her death in 2009. They struggled in the early years during the Great Depression, but he was accepted into the Texas State Highway Patrol in about 1940. They were stationed in various Texas locations for ten plus years, places including Del Rio, Fredricksburg, Lamesa, Big Spring, and Baird. His Highway Patrol service was interrupted during WWII, when he was drafted and served in the U.S. Army. As a patrolman, he had a well-earned reputation for integrity and firm enforcement of the law, tempered by compassion and grace.

T.D. and George Clark were the first Highway Patrolmen stationed in Baird, following WWII in 1947-48, and those were some interesting times according to Tom Ivey who remembers both men well.

While in Baird as a Patrolman, T.D. felt the call to Christian ministry. Though by then he and Pat had two children, he resigned his commission with the Highway Patrol and began a safety consulting business with West Texas oil companies and national moving companies. At the same time he entered Hardin-Simmons University as a full-time ministerial student, graduating in four years. He immediately enrolled in Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, graduating in three years.

Also, during those years he served as pastor to two rural churches, first Admiral in Callahan County and then Sabanna, near Cross Plains.

During these years Pat's health deteriorated, making service as a pastor increasingly difficult for T.D. He became a chaplain for the V.A.

T.D. and Pat had an especially strong bond. When, after a debilitating stroke, Pat had to have full-time care in the Gorman Long-Term care facility, T.D. visited her every day. Then, when his own health failed due to Parkinson's, T.D. also lived in the care facility, sharing a room with Pat.

T.D. was preceded in death by his parents, T.D. Sr. and Trannie; his wife Lavelle "Pat" Whitehorn; his daughter Sylvia Leah Estes.

He is survived by his sister Evelyn Beaty, of Waco; his son Dr. Michael Whitehorn and his wife Marcia, of Abilene; his granddaughter Mary Jesse and husband James, of Ft. Worth; granddaughters Heidi Forbes and husband Scott (Virginia Beach, VA), Barbara Whitehorn and partner Lisa Lemons; grandsons Christopher Scheetz and wife Erin, and Alfred Elser.

Chaplain Whitehorn will be buried beside his beloved wife Pat in the Murray Memorial Cemetery near Carbon, Texas.

Thank you!

The Cross Plains High School Junior Class would like thank everyone who donated items and baked goods for Pack the Gym for Billy Bell Night. And thanks to all who bought the baked goods and bid on the auction items. The turnout was overwhelming as our community came together to help the Bell family by raising over $5,000.00 to assist in the family's ongoing needs. As always, the people of Cross Plains and the surrounding areas showed what it means to be a caring community. 😊

We received the following news from Bob Childress and the Cottonwood Heart Attack Fund: "We made our goal and have purchased an automatic external defibrillator. Thank you for your contributions that have made this possible. The defibrillator will stay with Norma Farmer, a licensed Emergency Medical Technician. Norma is a member of the Cross Plains Emergency Medical Service and carries a beeper. When someone calls 911 for an ambulance, Norma will get the page. If the page is for the Cottonwood area she will go directly there and use the defibrillator if warranted."

Also, there is money left in the Heart Attack Fund and the group will be purchasing a portable oxygen unit for Norma to use.

This Saturday night, February 8, is the fundraiser at the First Baptist Church in Cross Plains for Owen Turner, grandson of Dannes and Greg Turner, who are well-known in Cottonwood. Owen, who 9 months old, is battling a rare form of Leukemia.

Experience the 'True Grit' of "The Worst Hard Time"

The Cross Plains Public Library will be sponsoring a book discussion of the "The Worst Hard Time: The Untold Story of Those who Survived the Great American Dust Bowl" by Timothy Egan, as part of Experience True Grit-our choice for The Big Read-on Thursday, March 20, at 6:00pm at Jean's Feed Barn. Cross Plains will celebrate Experience True Grit from March 3rd until April 12th. Events will center on Charles Portis' book, "True Grit" and will be expanded to include people who have shown the characteristics of true grit, such as those who survived in "The Worst Hard Time."

Copies of "The Worst Hard Time" are free and can be picked up at the library. If you prefer to download the book on your e-reader, bring your invoice to the library before March 1st and you will be reimbursed. The Big Read is an initiative of the National Endowment for the Arts, managed by Arts Midwest, and is designed to restore reading to the center of American culture.

Old-timers: if you remember this era, and have stories to tell, we encourage you to attend! Join us for dinner (Dutch treat) at Jean's Feed Barn and share the experience.

Efforts to weaken COOL misguided 98 Farm, Ranch & Rural Groups urge Congress to protect Country of Origin Labeling

Lyons, NE — This week, the Center for Rural Affairs, R-CALF USA, Western Organization of Resource Councils and 95 other groups representing farmers, ranchers, consumers and other rural and small town interests sent a letter to Farm Bill Conference Committee members with an urgent appeal to resist making changes to weaken the nation's country of origin labeling (COOL) law when they finalize the 2014 Farm Bill.

"Widespread reports circulating on Capitol Hill indicate that the United States Trade Representative was capitulating to the pressures by COOL opponents, primarily the National Cattlemen's Beef Association (NCBA) and their transnational meatpacker allies, to weaken, if not eliminate COOL," said R-CALF USA CEO Bill Bullard.

According to Bullard, the letter was initiated following reports last week that the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR), the federal agency responsible for defending the U.S. country of origin labeling law for meat and other food products before the World Trade Organization, was lobbying the Farm Bill Conferees to weaken the COOL law.

"Ranchers, farmers and consumers overwhelmingly favor retaining the strong, effective 2013 final COOL rules requiring retailers to inform their customers about where the meat they purchase comes from, and that means where the livestock were born, raised and slaughtered. A standard that the Center for Rural Affairs has advocated for nearly 20 years," said John Crabtree, Center for Rural Affairs.

"When we learned that the USTR was pressuring Farm Bill Conferees to replace current COOL rules with a 'Product of North America' label for meat from animals imported in the U.S., we knew it was time for urgent action," said John Crabtree of the Center for Rural Affairs. "This North American or NAFTA-meat label is entirely unacceptable. Moreover, the Farm Bill Conference Committee is not the place for this effort to undermine COOL. It is an effort to undue democratic decision-making behind the closed doors at the 11th hour of the farm bill debate."

Crabtree explained further that the final, 2013 rules are in line with decisions issued by the World Trade Organization (WTO) Appellate Body. But the purported amendment suggested by the USTR would not only erode the quality of information consumers would receive, it also fails to remedy the issues raised by the WTO dispute panel, opening the law up to future challenges.

To view or download a copy of the letter go to: <http://www.cfra.org/lettertocongressCOOL>

Established in 1973, the Center for Rural Affairs is a private, non-profit organization working to strengthen small businesses, family farms and ranches, and rural communities through action oriented programs addressing social, economic, and environmental issues.

Make your Greeting Card a Paint Chip! Looking for an unusual Valentine's gift?

Buying a greeting card, chocolates, or roses may be your default setting for Valentine's Day, but why not give something more permanent this year, say a beautiful new interior paint color scheme?

Okay, a new squeeze might snooze at the idea of watching paint dry. But if your significant other shares your living space, an exciting paint treatment might just be very... well, exciting!

For starters, you'll score big points for Valentine's originality. If you involve your partner at the outset, selecting the paint colors can provide some nice together time, too.

Assuming that you're game for this gambit, you can proceed in one of two ways: either paint the room and surprise your partner; or involve him or her in the color selection process. Clearly, unveiling an already-completed room has more cache; but jointly choosing the colors can itself be romantic.

Either way, you can proclaim your love (and your colorful plan) by creating a clever Valentine's card using the printed samples of paint colors on display at your local paint store. Incorporate one or more of these color chips

(for multi-color paint schemes) into a store-bought Valentine's card, or express your feelings in a homemade card fashioned entirely from large-size paint chips.

Doing the painting itself should, of course, be a labor of love. But that doesn't mean you have to work any harder than necessary. By using one of the revolutionary new "paint and primer" products, you'll simplify and speed up your Valentine's project; which may further impress your partner, and even free up more time for favorite pastimes... like watching old movies together!

How do paint and primer products make your project go faster? Debbie Zimmer, paint and color expert at the Paint Quality Institute, explains:

These coatings short-circuit the normal painting regimen: Rather than applying a coat of primer followed by two or more coats of paint, you usually need only apply two coats of a paint and primer product. That eliminates an entire application, saving both time and effort," she says.

If you're unfamiliar with paint and primer products, they provide the benefits of both primer and paint in a single coating. On the one hand, they conceal both the underneath color and surface marks as a primer would; and, like a high quality paint, they impart beautiful color in a finish that resists stains and is easily washable, especially in higher gloss levels.

Your local paint store, hardware store, or home center may carry several different brands of paint and primer products, but according to Zimmer, the ones that perform best have one thing in common: "The best-performing brands" meaning they have a great balance of primer and paint properties — all contain 100% acrylic, the very same ingredient used in the highest quality traditional paints."

So, if you're of a mind to do something different this Valentine's Day, why not something that will show your love every day of the year, such as repainting? If you take this tack, you'll benefit from using a top quality paint and primer product made with 100% acrylic. Both you and your sweetheart will fall in love not just with its outward appearance, but also with the way it stands the test of time!

For more information on interior painting, color selection, and newly developed paint and primer products, visit the Paint Quality Institute blog at blog.paintquality.com.

ZUMBA comes to Baird

At the organizational meeting of the Restoring Baird to Greatness group it was announced that one of the members has achieved certification as a Zumba instructor. Everyone is excited to announce that the classes will begin February 11, 2014 at the Baird Activity Center (East 3rd and Walnut). Class times are Sundays at 3pm, Tuesdays and Thursdays at 6pm and 8pm. Cost per session is $4 with a portion of the proceeds going to the Restoring Baird to Greatness fund. Everyone is welcome to join the class regardless of experience. For more information please call Kayla at 325-721-3658. The group has other projects in mind and in the works. We would welcome your participation and ideas. Follow the group on Facebook - Restoring Baird to Greatness.

Weight Warriors

Weight Warriors met Tuesday afternoon for their regular meeting. Our group has increased in numbers each week for the past several weeks. We only had a few present last week because of weather and illness. The celebration bracelet was once again passed to one of our current members to wear for the week.

We reviewed the previous weeks topics which included new year resolutions that really don't work and those that focus on more specific details. Each week a new topic is discussed and we always share celebrations and ny upcoming challenges that anyone has. Bravo stickers are passed out to everyone who has any celebrations. These not only involve celebrations at the scale but others as well, such as making good choices.

Weight Warriors meet every Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church. Everyone who is interested in a local weight loss support group is welcome. The only thing we ask is for a donation we ask of non-perishable food items to our local food pantry. Come and join us as we travel the weight loss journey together.

Project Pride open for membership renewals

It's time once again to re-new memberships in Project Pride or to join for the first time and discover the scope of the organization, both locally and beyond the city limits. The group makes a real impact on the community, collaborating with the library, sorority, garden club, school, cancer walk and Higginbothams on many projects. And there's a place for everybody, whether you can attend monthly meetings to share your input, be actively involved in activities or to just support the cause.

Project Pride is proud to be the premiere good will ambassadors for the major tourist attraction in Cross Plains. The membership roll routinely lists folks from numerous states and a couple of foreign countries in addition to many cities in Texas. Visitors to the Robert E. Howard Museum throughout the year represent a fascinating collection of professions, interests and addresses. Attendance at the annual Robert E. Howard Days in June draws an even bigger gathering of visitors from even farther away.

And all these people take dead aim on Cross Plains! And Project Pride members get to be involved with all of them!

This group was organized in the mid-80's for the purpose of making the community a cleaner, more attractive place to live and to preserve and document the history of the Cross Plains area. A strong membership base has always been essential for maintaining the non-profit status of the organization as well as for the maintenance and operation of the Museum. Meetings are held the first Tuesday of each month, 6:00 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church and usually last about an hour. Plenty of space and plenty of parking, so come on out and join the fun.

Annual dues are only $3.00 per person or $5.00 per family or organization; checks payable to Project Pride may be mailed to PO Box 534 or you may pay via PayPal at Projpride@yahoo.com For more information, please contact Arlene Stephenson, 725-4993 or Era Lee Hanke, 725-6562.

Card of Thanks

I would like to say "Thank You, Thank You, Thank You" to the Junior Class, to all the Teachers & faculty at the school and to all the people of the community who so graciously donated to Billy Wayne's funeral expenses, and to the "Pack the Gym" benefit for Donna and her boys.

For the community to come together in such a wonderful way and show so much love for his memory and to his wife and kids is so thoughtful and kind. I can not express enough of my heartfelt Thank yous for all your generosity and kindness.

Billy Wayne was a servant at heart and I know he would have been so appreciative, over whelmed, thankful and humbled at the care shown towards his wife and children by this community. I know I am! I know Donna is! Thank you, so very much!

-April Wheeler

Card of Thanks

We want to take this time to thank everyone from the bottom of our hearts. We appreciate everything that you all have done for the family of Billy Wayne Bell.

Sincerely,
Donna Renee and Boys

HPU to host financial aid seminar for parents of area high school students

BROWNWOOD - Feb. 3, 2014 - Parents of area juniors and seniors in area high school are invited to a free seminar at Howard Payne University to learn more about financing college educations.

HPU will host the meeting on financial aid and the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 6th, in the university's Paul and Jane Meyer Faith and Life Leadership Center.

Glenda Huff, HPU's director of student aid, will discuss the financial aid process with a special emphasis on the FAFSA, the application used to award loans and grants to students at universities across the nation.

According to Huff, it is extremely essential to begin the financial aid process as soon as possible after January 1st.

"Some schools have very early "priority dates" for awarding financial aid funds," she said. "Parents of all area students, even those not planning to enroll at HPU, are welcome to attend this session."

University representatives will also discuss HPU's Heart of Texas Scholarship Program, designed to benefit students graduating from high schools in Brown, Callahan, Coleman, Comanche, Eastland, McCulloch, Mills and San Saba counties.

The scholarship awards up to $14,000 annually to students who meet the requirements.

For more information about the seminars, contact P.J. Gramling, director of admission, at (325) 649-8406 or pgramling@hputx.edu.

For more information about HPU financial aid, visit www.hputx.edu/financialaid or call (325) 649-8015.

Callahan County Businesses reminded to render taxable property by April 15th

If you own tangible personal property that is used to produce income, you must file a rendition with the Callahan County Appraisal District by April 15, 2014.

A rendition is a report that lists all the taxable property a person owned or controlled on Jan. 1st of this year. Property includes inventory and equipment used by a business. Owners do not have to render exempt property, such as a church property or agriculture producer's equipment used for farming.

Chief Appraiser Don Jones said "The Appraisal District may use the information submitted in the rendition to set property values." You can also file a report of decreased value to notify the district of significant depreciation of your property. For example, if your property was damaged by a storm, flood or fire last year, you should file a report of decreased value. The district will look at your property before assigning a value in 2014.

The last day to file a rendition or report of decreased value is April 15, 2014. If a rendition is filed late or incomplete or not at all a 10 percent will be imposed, if a fraudulent rendition is filed, a 50 percent penalty is mandated. Property owners who need more time to file their renditions may file a written request with the chief appraiser on or before April 15, 2014 to receive an automatic extension to May 15 or the next business day.

For more information about rendering property, deadline extensions, penalties and rendition forms, taxpayers may contact Susan Childers at the Callahan County Appraisal District, 132 W. 4th St., Baird, TX or by phone at 325/854-5865.

Merriam's Kangaroo Rat

As I have previously stated, I am what is known as a "herper", short for herpetologist. A herpetologist is someone who studies the behaviors and life histories of reptiles and amphibians. As a "herper", I have spent countless hours in the Trans-Pecos eco-region of Texas looking for reptiles, particularly snakes. While on these nocturnal forays, many other animals are observed, and one rodent in particular is always a welcome sight.

Merriam's Kangaroo Rat (Dipodomys merriami)

The Merriam's Kangaroo Rat (Dipodomys merriami) is a small rodent that inhabits the Trans-Pecos, southwestern Llano Estacado, and western Edwards Plateau eco-regions of Texas. Unlike the other four species of Kangaroo Rats that are indigenous to this state, the Merriam's variety is much more tolerant in its habitat requirements, thriving in the sandy dunes, gravelly soils, and rocky areas of west Texas. It digs deep burrows, occasionally at the base of the creosote bush. In these burrows, it will often plug up the simple opening with grasses to spend the day away from the brutal heat of the summers and the frigid temperatures of winter. It does not hibernate, but rather is active year round. Generally, only one animal will occupy a burrow at any given time; the exception is when the females are rearing their young.

Merriam's Kangaroo Rats, as with the other species of the genus, have a very unique body structure. Instead of having four limbs of equal size, the back limbs are almost twice as long as the forelimbs, giving this animal the ability to hop away from potential predators faster than it can run. This hopping is what gives this animal its "Kangaroo" namesake. Adult Merriam's are brownish tan dorsally, while the underside is typically cream to white. The body length of adults is approximately 4 inches, while the rather long tail is up to 1.5 times the length of the body. An unblemished tail ends with a tuft of dusky fur. It has conspicuously large eyes, giving this rodent an almost endearing appearance. In fact, many people who shun other species of rats will often coo at the sight of a Kangaroo Rat. Being nocturnal (active at night), the eyes are of great benefit to this mammal as the large pupils allow more light in for vision even in the darkest of conditions. This allows them to evade predators such as snakes, owls, and carnivorous mammals like foxes, bobcats and coyotes when they vacate the safety of their burrows to search for food and mates.

Merriam's Kangaroo Rats are similar to other mammals in the aspect of giving live birth to young. It has been known to breed year round in the Big Bend region of Texas, while throughout the remainder of its range it typically breeds from March through November. The average number of young per litter is three, while occasionally as few as one or as many as five are produced. Gestation is generally one month, and females can reach sexual maturity as early as 60 days. Studies have shown that reproduction rates vary according to environmental conditions such as drought, which directly affects their food supply. Merriam's feed primarily (up to nearly seventy percent) on seeds, while grasses and insects are also consumed. Seeds are packed into their cheek pouches to allow for easy transference back to their burrows for later consumption. It does not drink water, for like many other rodents that thrive in this harsh land, it receives the water necessary for its survival from the foods that it eats. In fact, it is so adverse to water that it is actually one of the few mammals that cannot swim.

Texas Civil Justice League Announces Statewide Campaign to Improve Voter Turnout for Judicial Elections

AUSTIN, Texas — The Texas Civil Justice League (TCJL) has announced a statewide advocacy campaign to increase voter participation in judicial races. The organization, which advocates for a fair and balanced judicial system in Texas, is launching a voter education effort aimed at increasing awareness throughout the state about the importance of electing qualified judges.
"Many Texans don't understand how important it is to educate themselves on the qualifications of those who run in judicial races so that they can vote for the most qualified candidates," John Fainter, chair of the TCJL board of directors, said. "In reality, a judge can have a major, direct influence on a citizen—perhaps more than any other elected official—including making decisions that impact a person's home, family, job and their very freedom."
The campaign will initially focus on the upcoming March primaries and will include efforts to educate Texans about the importance of judicial races in addition to providing information about the various candidates who are running in statewide judicial races.
"I applaud the Texas Civil Justice League for their efforts to raise the profile of statewide judicial races," former Texas Supreme Court Justice Harriet O'Neill said. "Texans are fortunate to be able to elect the best qualified candidates in judicial elections, but with that opportunity comes the responsibility of educating themselves about the candidates. This campaign will be a major step toward achieving that goal."

Voter participation drops significantly for judicial races compared to other higher-profile races. For example, in the 2012 general election, 58.6% of registered Texas voters voted for a presidential candidate, but only 44% voted for a candidate in the judicial race for the Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 8. In other words, a significant number of voters did not vote for judicial candidates even though they were already at the polls. Percentages for other statewide judicial races were similarly low.
For more information about judicial races in Texas, visit www.texasjudges.org, a TCJL website that provides information about the state's judicial system and candidates running in judicial races.

About the Texas Civil Justice League
Founded in 1986, the Texas Civil Justice League (TCJL) advocates for a fair and balanced judicial system in Texas. The Austin-based group is the oldest and largest state legal reform organization in the nation, with membership comprised of corporate businesses, law firms, professional and trade associations, health care providers and individual citizens.

Youth Leadership Development focuses on Natural Resources & the Environment

San Antonio, TX — The Texas Brigades program is looking for a few good leaders. Actually, they are looking for 170 leaders. The Texas Brigades' mission is to educate and empower youths with the leadership skills and knowledge in wildlife, fisheries, and land stewardship to become conservation ambassadors for a sustained natural resource legacy. This will be the 22nd year of the Brigades.
The application deadline is March 15, 2014 and may be found at <http://www.texasbrigades.org/Applications/applications.html>.
Participants are selected through a competitive application process. Helen Holdsworth, Executive Director, says they are looking for youth ages 13-17 years of age. No experience is necessary, but applicants should have a strong interest in learning about wildlife, natural resources, livestock, and/or the environment. "We are looking for those with an interest in learning and then sharing what they have learned with their communities," reports Holdsworth.

The 4.5 days camps are held on private ranches across the state. "These landowners open their gates to us for five days, allowing us to utilize the land as a living laboratory. Natural resource professionals give of their time to mentor the youth. This is a valuable networking opportunity," she said.
The cost of the camp is $400 but scholarships and financial assistance are available. "We do not want the fee to be a barrier to anyone. We have donors who are willing to support the youths' educational experience," says Holdsworth.
For more information, call 855-TXBIRGS or 210-556-1391 or email hholdsworth@texas-wildlife.org.

Texas Comptroller Announces Plan to Support State-Funded Universities in Species Research

AUSTIN—Texas Comptroller Susan Combs announced today plans to support high quality research by state-funded universities on three species, which cover nearly three-fourths of the state and could potentially be listed by U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (FWS) as endangered or threatened.

The Texas Legislature, understanding the potential economic impacts of species listings, appropriated $5 million to her agency for the research, which will be conducted on species that are designated as priorities primarily based on gaps in data, urgency in listing and potential economic impacts to our state in the near future.

The Comptroller's office established a science working group comprised of state universities to help prioritize species for research. The first species selected for research are freshwater mussels (12 mussels total); the spot-tailed earless lizard; and the desert massasauga (a snake). The ranges of these species potentially cover 190 of the 254 Texas counties — a coverage area of about 75 percent — and the economies in these counties contribute about $1.3 trillion of our state's gross domestic product.

There will be a competitive process using Request for Proposals through the Texas Register, which will be issued to all Texas public universities to solicit research proposals for the species.

Species listed as endangered or threatened under the Endangered Species Act (ESA) could restrict the use of land and water, impact local and regional economies, decrease property values and add regulatory hurdles and costs to otherwise lawful activities.

"I worked hard to get the funding since gathering accurate scientific data and providing it to the federal listing agencies is one of the best ways to deal with the increasing number of species under review in Texas that can greatly impact our economy," Combs said. "This process further ensures the best science is available when the federal government is determining if a species should be listed and raises the standard for data used in listing decisions."

Today, more than 120 species in Texas are subject to review under the ESA, which requires listing decisions be based on the "best scientific and commercial data available." However, FWS does not define this term, sometimes allowing many species to be listed with limited science.

"Mandating a high standard for species research that emphasizes recent, independent and credible empirical data will improve the research and scientific information used in listing decisions," Combs said. "This will help ensure the best science is available when determining if a species should be listed, thereby bringing more scientific rigor to the process."

As Comptroller of Public Accounts, Combs serves as the presiding officer of the state-wide Interagency Task Force on Economic Growth and Endangered Species and has statutory authority to facilitate the development of and hold federal permits associated with conservation plans. The agency holds a federal permit for the Texas Conservation Plan for the dunes sagebrush lizard, which was not listed by FWS in 2012 because of conservation efforts by the state and because of additional research conducted on the species after it was proposed for listing.

The Comptroller's office will continue to work with the science working group to identify additional species for research. The science working group includes state research leaders, FWS, and other state and federal governmental agencies.

For more information detailing the members of the science working group, the potential economic impact of these species and which counties are affected, visit www.KeepingTexasFirst.org.

USDA Program accepting Summer Nutrition Program applications from Non-Profit Organizations, Government Entities

AUSTIN—The Texas Department of Agriculture (TDA) is accepting applications from organizations for participation in Summer Nutrition Programs, which help feed children who do not have access to nutritious meals when schools close for summer. These programs are vital at a time when more than 18 percent of Texas households are considered food insecure; meaning not everyone in the household has consistent access to good nutrition.

Two programs federally funded by the U.S. Department of Agriculture aimed at addressing childhood hunger in Texas are administered by TDA. The Seamless Summer Option (SSO) is operated by schools that participate in the National School Lunch Program and the School Breakfast Program while the Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) allows government entities and non-profit organizations to serve as meal sites during the summer. Organizations partner with TDA to serve meals at sites across the state in areas where more than 50 percent of children are eligible for free or reduced-price meals in the National School Lunch Program. Eligible sponsoring organizations include schools, faith-based groups, nonprofit summer camps, government agencies and other tax-exempt organizations. All meal sites must be sponsored by an organization that has a contract with TDA.

TDA encourages any eligible organization to consider providing this much-needed service to Texas children. Approved sponsors, operating in accordance with federal and state regulations, will be reimbursed for meals served to children. All new and renewing sponsors are required to take training courses before participating in these programs. The deadline for a new sponsor to apply for participation in the Summer Nutrition Programs is April 15, 2014.

For more information about TDA's Summer Nutrition Programs, visit www.summerfood.org or call the TDA Food and Nutrition Division office at (877) TEX-MEAL, (877) 839-6325.

DPS Recognizes National AMBER Alert Awareness Day

AUSTIN — The Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS) will join the nation in observing National AMBER Alert Awareness Day on Monday, January 13th. AMBER stands for "America's Missing: Broadcast Emergency Response," and was named for 9-year-old Amber Hagerman, who was kidnapped and murdered in 1996 in Arlington, Texas.

In the wake of Amber Hagerman's death, law enforcement and media representatives in the Dallas-Fort Worth area created the first AMBER Alert program, which served as a model nationwide for alerting the public about abducted children. Every U.S. state has an AMBER Alert program, along with several other countries. This year marks the 18th anniversary of Amber Hagerman's abduction, which the U.S. Department of Justice designated as National AMBER Alert Awareness Day.

The Texas AMBER Alert Program was established by Gov. Rick Perry in 2002, complementing existing local AMBER Alert programs. DPS manages the statewide program and provides law enforcement a mechanism for rapid notification of the media and the public in these serious child abduction cases.

From 2002 through the end of 2013, 124 children have been recovered during 109 DPS activations of the Texas AMBER Alert Program. (Some alerts have involved more than one child.) Activation of the Texas AMBER Alert Network involves resources from the following groups:

- Texas Department of Public Safety
- Office of the Governor
- National Weather Service
- Texas Department of Transportation
- Local, state and federal law enforcement
- Media
- Texas Association of Broadcasters
- Independent Bankers Association of Texas
- Texas Lottery Commission
- The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC), which was added as a state partner in 2005, providing notification to the public through wireless carriers, content providers and major retailers.

If your child is missing:
• Immediately call your local law enforcement agency to file a missing persons report.

• Be prepared to provide law enforcement with the most recent photo of the child, a detailed description of what the child was wearing and any other information that could help identify the child or the abductor, such as vehicle and license plate information.

DPS currently offers an email notification system that distributes AMBER Alert information at no cost to members of law enforcement, media and the public. Anyone wishing to become a subscriber can register online with a valid email address and zip code at <http://www.dps.texas.gov/DEM/AMBERALERT/AMBERREGISTER.ASPX>.

For more information on the Texas AMBER Alert Program, visit <http://www.dps.texas.gov/dem/Operations/Alerts/index.htm>.

1,400 DWI Arrests During Holiday

AUSTIN — Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS) troopers made more than 1,400 DWI arrests during a special enforcement period from Dec. 13th - Jan. 2nd. The 21-day DWI enforcement effort included funding from a Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) grant.

"These enhanced patrols are designed to protect the lives of all travelers by taking impaired drivers off Texas roadways," said DPS Director Steven McCraw. "The holidays are packed with celebrations, which means an increased potential for drinking and driving, and I'm confident DPS efforts helped prevent potentially deadly crashes."

DPS Highway Patrol troopers made 1,490 DWI arrests during the holiday enforcement effort, and 289 of those arrests were a direct result of the increased patrols. The TxDOT grant allowed increased patrols in high-risk locations during the times when alcohol-related crashes are most frequent.

DPS enforcement also resulted in more than 24,800 speeding citations, 2,960 seat belt/child safety seat citations, in addition to 1,070 fugitive arrests, and 790 felony arrests during this time period.
