

Fluvanna Wins Class B Trophy Third Year and Claims Permanent Cup

Snyder Wins Track and Field Title As One of County's Greatest League Meets Held.

Fluvanna outran all Class B schools in the county Friday and Saturday to chalk up her third consecutive victory in Interscholastic League events. The win gave the North Scurry school undisputed possession of the all-around cup, which goes to the school earning it three years in succession.

While Fluvanna was winning an all-around Class B victory, Snyder, the only Class A school in the county, rolled up the most points in competition with her Class B and rural school neighbors. Her high school track and field team rolled up 47 points against 31 for Fluvanna, nearest competitor.

Beavers and Morgan, Snyder, tied for high point honors in the high school track and field meet with 16 1/2 points each. Beavers was first in the broad jump, the shot put and the discus throw, and ran on the winning relay team. Morgan, also on the relay line-up, won the 120 yard high hurdles, the high jump and the mile run.

Greatest League Meet. It was probably the greatest Interscholastic League event in county annals. More than 700 students entered from rural, Class B and Class A schools. Hundreds of patrons who watched events both days swelled the crowds to the largest proportions ever seen here for interschool events.

The traditional sandstorm came just after noon Saturday to mar the last track and field events, but all the runners and field men plodded through the heavy fog of dust and lowering temperatures. Friday was a perfect day, and Saturday morning was warm and inviting to the athletes.

On the previous week-end, rural athletes gathered in Snyder to host eliminations. Top-place winners entered the regular county meet here Saturday.

All literary events were held at the local school Friday, all divisions included.

Turner Wins Trophy. Turner won the rural school division for the third consecutive year, thereby gaining permanent possession of a circulating trophy that it had won the two previous years. The school easily led all competitors, piling up 127 1/2 points. Turner won most of her points in literary events.

Other rural pointage was divided as follows: Canyon, 65; Bethel, 45; 45 each; Crowder, 41 1/2; Plainview, 40; Loyd Mountain, 35; Independence, 37; Camp Springs, 35; Martin, 10; Woodard, 2.

The rural athletic meet was one of the best ever held in the county, reports Roy Irvin of Plainview, director.

Winners included: Boys' playground ball, Bethel first, Plainview second, Crowder third; girls' playground ball, Loyd Mountain first, Bethel second, Turner third; track and field, senior boys, Independence first with 37 points, Ennis second with 17 points, Turner third with 12 points; junior boys' track and field, Plainview first with 23 points, Independence second with 13 points, Turner and Crowder third with 7 points each.

Morris of Ennis was high point man in the senior rural division with 17 points; G. W. Parks of Plainview in the junior division with 15 points.

Snyder Juniors Win. Snyder was an easy winner in both the high school junior and the grade school division of athletic events, with 26 and 29 points, respectively. Other high school junior pointage follows: Fluvanna, 5; Ira, 4; Dunn, 7; Byron, 3; Hermleigh, 14. Grade school points: Ira, 5; Fluvanna, 5; Dunn, 14; Hermleigh, 8.

Fluvanna scored a double victory in debate, taking both boys' and girls' finals last Thursday night. She also took both extemporaneous speech events.

Total points for Class B schools follow: Fluvanna, 211 1/2; Dunn, 144 1/2; Hermleigh, 117; Ira, 84; Byron, 24.

Battery, Radiator, Junk Shop Is Open. A new battery, radiator and junk shop is being opened this week in the Hukabee Building, a block west of the square on 25th Street. It will be known as Davidson & Kemp Company.

Magazine, Plant Exchange Will Be Staged in Snyder

The local Altrurian Club will sponsor their annual plant and magazine exchange beginning at 3:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon and lasting until 5:00. Mrs. J. C. Dorward, chairman of the civic committee of the club, will be general chairman of the exchange.

The place of exchanging will be the old Piggy-Wiggly No. 2 building at the southwest corner of the square.

Each study club of the town will have a representative to assist with the trading, and rural women especially are urged to bring their old magazines and any plants they may have to exchange.

Plants and magazines to be exchanged should be in the building by 2:30 o'clock, Mrs. Dorward states.

Tiger Band Gets Ready for State Meet April 26-27

With Fred P. Rattan at the helm, Tiger Band is getting ready to enter the state band contest April 26 and 27.

The 33 bandsters have presented concerts recently at Roscoe and Hobbs, along with the one-act play that has over-run the county with good laughs. The Roscoe visit was made week before last; the Hobbs trip, last Friday night.

Along with these outside appearances, the musicians are practicing regularly at the school building. Mr. Rattan says he is well pleased with the progress of the group, which was composed early in the school year largely of inexperienced players.

Now the band is preparing for its biggest local event of the year—a three-act mystery play to be presented at the high school auditorium Friday night, May 3. "At the Sign of the Red" will be directed by Mrs. Hilton Lambert, and will feature attractive between-acts numbers.

Funds raised at the out-of-town appearances are being used to pay for the new bass drum, which is being played by H. F. Clark. Proceeds from the play will be used for this purpose and to finance the contest trip.

Woellert Final Rites Held Here Tuesday

Services were held at Odum Funeral Home Tuesday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, for Erwin Woellert, 24, who died in a Stamford hospital Sunday evening. He was the victim of two pistol shots that entered his side and abdomen during an altercation in Southeast Snyder Saturday night.

O. D. Lial, minister of the Church of Christ, was in charge of final rites. Burial was in the Snyder cemetery. The deceased is survived by his mother, two brothers and two sisters.

August Cajenek, Anton Laour, Ross Pate, Simon Bess, Adolph Shenker and Louie Shenker were pallbearers. Miss Pauline Jenkins and Mrs. Leona Martin were in charge of flowers.

CITY ELECTION HAS LOW VOTE

Only 57 voters went to the polls Tuesday to cast their ballots for Snyder councilmen who were running for reelection without opposition.

It is an "off" year as far as all other city offices are concerned. Last year's vote amounted to 839, but a number of names were on the ticket.

Snyder Dealers to Display New Cars

Snyder car dealers announce this week that they will stage a full-fledged Free Auto Show on Friday and Saturday of next week. It will be held in Snyder Garage, which will be decorated, fully lighted and otherwise beautified for the occasion.

Souvenirs for the ladies and other "extra" features will be offered for the benefit of visitors.

Full cooperation of all local dealers is anticipated. Several 1935 models of these eight cars will probably be on the display floor: Pontiac, Dodge, Chevrolet, Ford, De Soto, Plymouth, Buick, Oldsmobile.

CRIMM SOCKS ALL FORMS OF SIN IN SNYDER

Declares "This is the First Time I Ever Saw a Town Going to Hell in Chicken Coop."

Evangelist B. B. Crimm struck several decisive blows at bootlegging, drinking, card playing, dancing, gossiping and other popular sins during sermons delivered this week at the city-wide revival being conducted under Baptist auspices.

"This is the first time I ever heard of a town going to hell in a chicken coop," he declared, referring to Saturday night's affair at "that dive" in Southeast Snyder.

The high-point of the four-week meeting was reached Sunday night, when far more than 1,000 persons jammed into every corner of the First Baptist Church to hear the plain spoken cowboy preacher. A number of people came forward when a call was made at the close of the sermon.

"Prayer" Each Morning. "Prayer" continues to be the theme of morning services. A number of business houses are closing for one hour Tuesday through Friday mornings.

A feature of night services this week are "student night" programs. At the young people's inspirational services at 7:00 o'clock, classes of Snyder High School presented programs as follows: Tuesday, seniors; Wednesday, juniors. Sophomores will be in charge Thursday night; Freshmen, Friday night. Class members are recognized in the regular church services.

The young people's services, as well as song services, are in charge of H. M. Powell, who has been with Evangelist Crimm for 15 years.

Three Sunday Services

The preacher will speak to women only at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, and the singer to men only at the Methodist church at the same hour.

"The Highway to Heaven" will be the Crimm subject Sunday morning. In the evening he will preach on "Prepare to Meet God."

Last Sunday afternoon's lecture on "Bug Hunting" was largely a series of humorous scalping of the gospel-monger, with occasional reference to the statement that "you find in life just about what you want to find." An overflow crowd heard the lecture.

Other subjects this week are announced by the evangelist as follows: Thursday, "The Judgment"; Friday, "The Most Vital Moment of Life"; Saturday, "The World's Greatest Bust and Greatest Comeback."

Director of League Meet Well Pleased

Elmer Taylor of Ira, director of Interscholastic League events in the county this year, said Saturday evening at the close of competition that he was well pleased with the meet.

JURY RETURNS 9 INDICTMENTS FIRST SESSION

E. E. Wallace Jr. Charged With Murder; Case Transferred To Juvenile Court.

Nine indictments returned at the close of the grand jury's first session last week included a charge of murder against E. E. Wallace Jr., who is free under $2,500 bond in the fatal shooting of John Holland, colored, Christmas night.

The Wallace case was transferred to the juvenile court docket, because the defendant is under 17 years of age.

The grand jury recessed late last week after setting Thursday, April 11, two days before court closing time, as its final meeting day. The 12 men were recalled Tuesday, however, in order to delve into the fatal Saturday night shooting of Erwin Woellert.

Makes Suggestions. This report was made by the grand jury at the close of its first session:

"To the honorable district court of Scurry County, Texas: "We, the grand jury of Scurry County, for the March term of the district court, wish to report that we have completed our labors for the time being. We have examined numerous witnesses concerning law violations, and have examined the jail and courthouse thoroughly. We find that the jail is in need of certain repairs regarding the walls, windows, sewerage and hot water heater; also a new supply of bedding is badly needed for the prisoners in the jail. We also believe the jail should be kept cleaner.

"We also find a congested and crowded condition on the second floor of the courthouse, and also that the building and furniture is being abused."

Civil Suits Settled. Several non-jury civil suits have been settled by the court, and these divisions have been granted: Ethyle Houston vs. T. H. Houston, Juanita Robertson vs. Esse Robertson, Ruth Ballard vs. Russell Ballard, Alma Earnest Anderson vs. J. P. Anderson, Florence Miller vs. Junior O. Miller.

The W. L. Wills damage suit against the Panhandle & Santa Fe Railway Company was turned to the jury late yesterday, after lengthy testimony and lawyers' arguments. The court room was well filled during most of the trial. A verdict is scheduled to be given this morning. C. F. Sentell represents the plaintiff; C. S. Perkins of Sweetwater and John E. Sentell of Snyder the railroad.

Rogers and Fowler Begin Operation of Old Graham Dairy

Ernest W. Rogers and C. E. Fowler began operation Monday morning of the dairy in Northwest Snyder that has been known for several years as Graham's Sanitary Dairy.

Mr. Rogers, son of Will Rogers, former Snyder grocerman, is well known to local folks. Mr. Fowler has seen several years of experience on leading Oklahoma dairies, and has taken special work on dairy husbandry in Oklahoma and Texas schools. "We are equipped and qualified to give Snyder the kind of dairy service of which the town will be proud," the new operators state.

New equipment is being added, and the old equipment and grounds taken over from Graham's Dairy will be improved.

Grade "A" milk of the highest quality, as well as butter, cream and other dairy products, will be handled by Rogers & Fowler.

Buck Chandler, who has been associated with Snyder cafes much of the time in recent years, became proprietor last week of Bill's Cafe, a half block west of the square. The cafe has been operated for some time by Bill Crowder.

District 3 Interscholastic League Events at Sweetwater April 5 and 6

Sweetwater will be host April 5 and 6 to the annual District 3 Interscholastic League meet. Winners from Scurry and nine other counties will compete on these dates in literary and athletic events.

The cities of Abilene, Sweetwater and Big Spring, and the following counties are in the area: Taylor, Nolan, Mitchell, Howard, Fisher, Jones, Scurry, Kent, Stonewall and Borden.

Each major town in the district is to furnish judges for the various contests. Snyder is assigned two judges.

DICKSON SAYS LOW RAINFALL BEST FOR W. T.

Says Conservation of Water Will Largely Solve Problems of Dry Country Farming

This part of West Texas is the best farming section in the world because of its light rainfall, R. E. Dickson, superintendent of the Spur Experiment Station, told 35 Lions and 15 visitors at the service club's luncheon Tuesday noon at the Manhattan Hotel.

The droll speaker, chief guest for a program sponsored by the club's agriculture committee, backed up his startling statement by declaring that in the years of 30-inch rainfalls we are always struck by the least worm, boll worm and many other ailments.

Scheduled to speak on erosion to the Lions and their other guests, including presidents of the county's community agricultural associations, the nationally known soil authority said that soil erosion and most other major farm problems will be solved and a profit realized as farmers learn more and more about conservation of the rainfall that normally falls in West Texas.

"Save Water for Crops." "Our quality crop, no matter what it may be, is that crop produced with a minimum of water needed for that particular crop," pointed out Mr. Dickson. "Only about 3 1/2 inches of water is actually needed by the plant to produce a half bale of cotton or a ton of maize to the acre. With your average rainfall of 22 inches, you should be able to store up at least 5 1/2 inches for use of the plant."

Referring to 10 years of continuous experiments at the Spur station, Mr. Dickson declared that money crops are always made in the years of water reserve. Just after a year of heavy rainfall, the five biggest crops at Spur during the 10 years were made on an average rainfall of 13.5 inches. The 1933 crop was made just after a 30-inch rainfall in 1932.

One piece of land on the Spur farm has held all its rainfall with terraces since 1926, and the yield was increased 25 per cent almost immediately. "And we have not drowned a stalk of cotton during these nine years," the speaker added.

One hundred and twenty acres of land on the farm have been using all the water from 1200 acres, thereby converting rainfall of 1 1/2 inches to rainfall of 7 1/2 inches—stored down in the soil.

Confers After Luncheon. Mr. Dickson conferred with the farmers and several business men, after the luncheon, concerning definite plans for conserving water in this area.

O. P. Thrane, chairman of the agriculture committee, presided for the program. W. R. Lacey, county agent, a member of the committee, presented figures to show that Scurry County's benefits from the AAA program have totaled almost $1,000,000. Melvin Blackard, third member of the committee, speaking from the business man's standpoint, expressed the opinion that most Snyder stores owe their lives to the government's farm program.

Visiting community farm leaders were as follows: A. Johnston, president of Scurry County Agricultural Association; John F. Jordan, Ira; S. E. McGowan, Pleasant Hill; Ross Bishop, Elson; E. R. Bratton, Canyon; W. A. Johnston, Dunn; Joe E. Hairston, China Grove; M. W. Bayoussett, Camp Springs; Ben Brooks, Plainview; George Ramage, Ennis Creek; A. T. Nicks, Loyd Mountain; Giles Bowers, Snyder; W. J. Beavers, Fluvanna; Holley Shuler, Union.

Other visitors of the day were as follows: County Judge Charles Lewis, T. T. McCord, Lane Hardy and W. C. Strother, Sweetwater; Rev. Fred Carran, Spur; A. O. Thomas, Lubbock; Mr. Nelson of Johnson Motor Lines, Fort Worth; Harrie Winston, Snyder.

presented Friday night and Saturday. The director, Miss Ethel Harkins, Sweetwater, will notify teams when to appear, after entries are made following county contests.

Registrations and assignments for track and field events will be made at the stadium in Sweetwater: Saturday morning at 9:00 o'clock. Locker and shower accommodations are provided. All track and field events will be held that day.

Preliminaries in tennis, all divisions, will begin Friday, April 5, 9:00 o'clock, and finals will begin at the same hour after "Senior girls' volley ball and junior boys' playground ball will take place April 13, beginning at 9:00 o'clock, at the high school stadium in Sweetwater.

Trash Collection in Snyder Next Week

Mayor H. G. Towle announces that the city will pick up cans, trash and rubbish next week for citizens who sack or box the stuff and place it near the curb where wagons can reach it with ease.

This "pick-up" drive is the climax of this week's Fire Prevention Clean-Up campaign, which citizens have been urged to join in an effort to make the town more beautiful and sanitary.

Owners of vacant lots, as well as homes, are requested to clean up their premises and place the rubbish at the disposal of next week's collectors.

TRUSTEE VOTE IN COUNTY SET FOR SATURDAY

County Board Members Will Be Elected in Precincts 3 and 4; Light Ballot Foreseen.

County voters will go to the polls Saturday to decide who shall govern them in school affairs.

Accurately speaking, only a small portion of county voters will probably go to the polls, for interest in the various elections is at a much lower ebb than it was last year.

Precincts No. 3 and 4 will name county board members. In No. 3, which is composed of Ira, Canyon, Bison and Crowder, the names of J. E. Falls and W. B. Lemons are on the ticket. Hermleigh, Dunn, German, Pyron, China Grove, Big Sulphur and Independence, composing Precinct 4, will vote on M. A. Glass and S. L. Johnston.

No competition is offered in the Snyder race, H. L. Davis being up for election to a fourth term and W. W. Smith to a third term. S. T. Elza will be presiding officer, with Mrs. J. P. Morgan and R. H. Stovall as assistants. Ballots will be cast in the justice of the peace office.

Each of the other independent districts will elect two trustees. Candidates in these districts are as follows: Dunn—Fred Cotton, Dewey Denson, Harrison Durham, Jackson Ellis, Joe Lewis; Fluvanna—J. G. Landrum, Edgar Smith, A. L. Odum, Charlie Hunicutt; Hermleigh—J. O. Leech, G. R. (Ray) Higginbotham, A. W. Mobley, Estil Tate; Pyron—Will Young, W. D. Kinney, H. Coldever; Ira—W. H. Sterling, Perry Echols.

The following school districts have announced trustee candidates on printed ballots: Camp Springs, E. P. Simpson; Independence, Will Werner, Albert Bihls, Andy Jones; Crowder, W. B. Fenton; Turner, Elmer Bentley.

Tire Raids Made in Town Friday Night

Several tires and other car necessities were stolen from West Snyder Friday night, city and county officers were told.

One tire and all hub caps were taken from the D. P. Yoder car. I. H. Spikes lost two wheels, tires and all. Ivan Dodson lost one wheel with tire, and Ace Johnson reported that several gallons of gas were stolen from his car.

Officers have been keeping their eyes peeled for the petty thieves night and day, but no arrests have been made.

Youth Caught Under Store by Blackard

When Melvin Blackard went into Hugh Taylor & Company store, with which he is associated, Sunday evening before dark, he caught a fleeting glimpse of another visitor who darted behind some goods in the rear.

Melvin promptly went to the Snyder Candy Kitchen, across the street, for a gun, and posted some friends at the rear of the store to prevent the intruder's escape.

The visitor turned out to be a 16-year-old boy youth. He was caught beneath the floor of the building, where he had crawled after being discovered by one of the grocery store owners. The young man was placed in the county jail, but was turned out after a day or two of imprisonment.

Many Witnesses Heard By Grand Jury in Probe Of E. Woellert Slaying

Scurry Bombarded With Sand; South Area Gets Gusher

County shared with the remainder of West Texas a heavy veil of dust that shifted in Thursday from the fields of mid-western states. This dust storm, as well as another that came Saturday afternoon, rode the crest of a chill north wind, and reduced visibility to two or three blocks.

As if to make amends for some of his dusty capers, the weather man drenched a portion of the Hermleigh country in a two and three-inch downpour Monday night. It was heavy in spots, but it did comparatively little damage. The remainder of the county was either untouched or, like Snyder, received a light shower between 4:00 and 5:00 a. m.

Between and after each "special" spell of weather, balmy days and nights have prevailed.

No serious afflictions resulted from the infiltrations of dust in this area, although many a cold sufferer complained that the fine particles of earth aggravated his ailment.

Texas Products To Be Presented By Club May 9-11

Almost 1,000 letters are being mailed this week by the Twentieth Century Study Club of Snyder to Texas manufacturers as the first major step toward a "Know Texas Week" for this entire trade territory next month.

The manufacturers are asked to cooperate with the club by furnishing products made in Texas or by purchasing display booths in the exhibit to be staged during the week. A luncheon in which Texas products are featured will be presented May 9, 10 and 11, and the exhibit of state products will be staged the same three days.

"It is our plan," says the letter to manufacturers, "to make this a 'Know Texas Week' and to get the entire citizenship of Scurry County and the neighboring towns interested in this exhibition of Texas manufactured products. Extensive advertising of this event will be done in this trade territory.

"If you are interested in advertising your products before this group of some 15,000 people with an exhibit or by a contribution to our luncheon, let us hear from you."

Several manufacturers have already responded favorably to the invitation, according to Mrs. W. J. Ely, chairman of the "Know Texas Week" committee.

The Lions Club voted its unanimous support of the proposal Tuesday at noon, after hearing the plan outlined by Mrs. Nelson Dunn, Mrs. Charles J. Lewis and Mrs. Joe Strayhorn also appeared before the club. The Chamber of Commerce has also offered its support of the plan.

Spring Training for Tigers Has Started

Coach W. W. Hill and his Tigers, plus Assistant Coach Bob Curry, began spring training early this week.

About 30 youngsters are being completely uniformed, and several others are expected to be on the waiting list in a few days. Most of the newcomers, like their brothers of the 1934 squad, are lightweights. Regular workouts will be held for about a month, reports the coach.

BANK FIGURES CHANGE LITTLE

Not much change in resources, cash and deposits of Snyder National Bank is reflected in the condensed statement of March 4, call for which was issued by the government late last week. All national and state banks were required to make their statements effective March 4.

Loans made a jump of about $10,000 over the last report, which was dated December 31, 1934.

Figures for resources, cash, deposits and loans were higher than they were October 9, 1934, when the next previous statement was released.

C. W. (Chicken) Green Placed in County Jail; Murder Count Filed Against Him

Dozens of witnesses have been quizzed by the district court grand jury since Tuesday morning, but no indictment has been returned as an outgrowth of the fatal shooting of Erwin Woellert, 24, during a fight at the Greenhill dance hall in Southeast Snyder Saturday night.

Reports from the courthouse indicate that other witnesses will be heard today (Thursday) in connection with the charge of murder filed against C. W. (Chicken) Green Monday morning. It is reported that the grand jurors will conclude their investigations later in the day.

Woellert was shot through the left side and in the abdomen, and died Sunday at 7:00 p. m. in a Stamford hospital, where he had been taken to undergo surgery. John Etheredge, Green's son-in-law, received knife wounds in the throat, but is not in a serious condition. Ed Rich, friend of Woellert, was shot twice in the leg. A young woman onlooker was shot in the hand.

Criminal Cases Postponed. District court is in the second week of a three-weeks term, and was to have taken up the criminal docket Wednesday. Criminal cases were postponed until Monday, and the grand jury was recalled Tuesday, instead of Thursday of next week, as scheduled, in order that District Attorney George W. Outlaw might conduct investigations into the murder case.

Green, who has been held in the county jail since the night of the fight, waived examining trial and did not ask bond, when arraigned Monday afternoon.

The shooting took place about 11:00 o'clock Saturday night at the Greenhill dance hall. Officers who conducted the investigation said witnesses have stated that the place was crowded when Etheredge attempted to eject Woellert from the floor, that Woellert resisted, and that Green came to Etheredge's assistance.

Several Persons Involved. In the fight that followed, officers said they were told that Rich joined in to help Woellert, and that several other persons became involved. After Woellert and Rich were ejected, officers relate that they learned from witnesses, Green and Woellert engaged in another argument outside the hall, and the shooting of Woellert, Rich and the young woman followed.

Etheredge's throat was cut during the affray, officers were told by witnesses. Etheredge, Woellert and Rich were given emergency treatment in Snyder, and Woellert was rushed to Stamford Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Etheredge and Rich returned to their homes Sunday.

Green was taken in custody at midnight by City Marshal J. A. Woodfin and Deputy Marshal J. H. Byrd. Only a few persons remained at the Green place, they said.

Green has operated the place in the outskirts of Snyder for several years. He was convicted in two cases of liquor law violation and given two years in each case, but was pardoned by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson before his term began. He remained in the penitentiary one day.

Judge and Mrs. Jim Stinson of Abilene were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stinson Sunday.

State Recognition at Plainview for District Junior Chairman of Snyder

Mrs. Joe Caton of Snyder, Seventh District junior membership chairman, was given state recognition at the district convention at Plainview last week.

The department in the district of which the local woman is chairman was first in the state during the past year in the organization of new junior clubs, according to Mrs. Frank Friend of San Angelo, state junior chairman. At the close of the junior hour, during which Mrs. Caton presided, she received a lovely gift from the state chairman in commendation for the untiring work with junior membership.

Living Cup Presented.

The living cup presented at the convention for the best public welfare report from clubs in the district was won by the local Twentieth Century Club. Mrs. P. C. Chenault, Twentieth Century president and the club delegate to the convention, received the beautiful cup for her club.

In addition to the state recognition given Mrs. Caton and the public welfare living cup being brought here, Mrs. R. S. Sullivan, who is president of the local Ingleside Study Club, won second place with her short story, and the scrapbook prepared by the local Art Guild placed second in the district.

Record Attendance.

The registration of 675 women at the Fourteenth Annual Convention of Seventh District set a new record, according to publicity sent out from Plainview at the close of the three-day meeting.

Lubbock was selected as the 1935 convention city as the convention was brought to a close Friday. Mrs. W. P. Arvitt of Lamesa, district president, made the closing talk on the convention program on "Looking Forward."

Mrs. H. G. Towle, district program chairman, said yesterday of the convention that it was one of the most successful and most enjoyable she had ever attended. "The Plainview people are perfect hosts," she added.

Mrs. Chenault commented especially on the beautiful cut flowers. "Lovely corsages were presented at every important meeting," she said, "and at all the social affairs—dinners, luncheons, etc.—decorations of fresh flowers were used." She was, of course, quite proud of the living cup won by her club for its public welfare report.

Mrs. Caton was modest concerning the great honor bestowed upon her, but she admitted that the convention was lovely.

Others attending complimented Plainview women highly on their perfect entertainment of the visitors. "They turned their homes, their automobiles and their time entirely over to us," one said.

Twelve Locals Attend.

The names of the 12 local club women who attended the convention and the club which they represented are as follows: Mmes. Towle, O. P. Thrane, J. T. Whitmore and Caton, Altrurian; Mrs. J. D. Scott, Altrurian Daughters; Mrs. H. Doak, Art Guild; Mrs. W. Boren, Alpha Study; Mmes. Allen Warren and P. C. Chenault, Twentieth Century; Mrs. J. A. Woodfin, Woman's Culture; Mrs. W. W. Smith, Ingleside Study.

Some attendants are members of more than one study club. Mrs. Mary E. Banks also attended the convention.

Crusaders Class Clothes Orphan.

The Crusaders Class of the First Methodist Church sent their semi-annual box of clothing to their "foster daughter" in the Methodist Orphanage in Waco this week. The class has clothed the child for two years, sending boxes of clothing twice a year, and remembrances at Christmas, on birthdays and other special occasions.

Mmes. Melvin Blackard and Maurice Brownfield were hostesses to the class at its regular monthly meeting Friday evening at the Blackard home. The most interesting part of the meeting was the display of clothing prepared to send to Waco, so that the "daughter" may have a new frock for Easter.

Dainty refreshments were passed by the hostesses to the following: Mrs. R. H. Odum, class teacher, Mmes. Howell McClintock, A. P. Bingz, Frank Farmer, J. P. Nelson, J. C. Gay, Lex Wilmeth, A. E. Harvey and Mungie V. Lewis, and to Misses Hattie and Gertrude Herm, Neoma Strayhorn, Bonnie Gary, Moelele Roach and Jo Hailey, members of the class.

Mrs. Scarborough Home From Meet.

Mrs. Woodie Scarborough of the Everywoman's Beauty Shop returned home late last week from attending a series of lectures and demonstrations by outstanding hair-dressers of the state at the Blackstone Hotel in Fort Worth. A P. Bingz, Frank Farmer, J. P. Nelson, J. C. Gay, Lex Wilmeth, A. E. Harvey and Mungie V. Lewis, and to Misses Hattie and Gertrude Herm, Neoma Strayhorn, Bonnie Gary, Moelele Roach and Jo Hailey, members of the class.

The new operator in Everywoman's Beauty Shop, who arrived here this week to take the place of Mrs. Lovell Baze who moved last week to Sandia, is Miss Tincy Miller. Miss Miller came here from Ralls, and, according to Mrs. Scarborough, she is an experienced operator.

Federation Day Program Tuesday.

Annual Federation Day program was had by the Woman's Culture Club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. J. Richardson. Lilacs were used to decorate entertaining rooms.

Two members of the club, Mmes. J. A. Woodfin and P. C. Chenault, attended the fourteenth annual convention of Seventh District in Plainview last week. Roll call for the Tuesday meeting was "Federation News" and Mrs. P. C. Chenault led the program. Mrs. J. A. Woodfin, Woman's Culture president and delegate to the convention, gave the convention report.

Delicious ice cream and cake were passed to the following club members: Mmes. A. C. Alexander, J. P. Avary, P. M. Brownfield, H. L. Wren, P. C. Chenault, R. W. Cunningham, J. R. Hucklebee, W. A. Morton, T. Egerton, C. E. Ross, D. P. Strayhorn, E. E. Weatherstee and J. A. Woodfin.

Clubs to Beautify Courthouse Lawn.

Under the general direction of Mrs. J. C. Dorward of the Altrurian Club, study clubs of the town began this week to beautify the courthouse lawn.

Two clubs have been assigned to each corner of the lawn, as follows: Southeast corner, Altrurian Club and Altrurian Daughters; southwest corner, Twentieth Century and Alpha Study Clubs; northeast corner, Art Guild and the Ingleside Study Club; and northwest corner, Woman's Culture and Progressive Study Clubs.

According to the general chairman, the county commissioners allowed funds for 15 Arizona cypress trees, and the trees have already been put out.

Art Guild Meets Tuesday Evening.

Mrs. Andy Jones was hostess to the Art Guild Tuesday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. C. Grantham, at which time the club's study of "Italian Art" was continued.

Mrs. Ixon Joyce discussed "The Holy Night" by Corregio; Miss Edith Grantham's part was "Eternal and Hagar in the Wilderness" by Cavin; and Mrs. Herman Doak, club delegate to the district convention, gave her report. The scrapbook made by the Art Guild was judged second in the district contest.

Ice cream and cake were passed to Mrs. J. Allan Moses of Lubbock and Miss Margaret Dell Prim, two guests, and Mmes. Herman Doak, Ixon Joyce and Willard Jones, and Misses Bonnie Gary, Velma Sharp, Violet Bradbury, Grace Avary, Edith Grantham and Katherine Northcutt, guild members.

Miss Mavis Webb left Tuesday morning for Lubbock, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jack DeWald, the remainder of the week.

Ira P.-T. A. to Study Music at Friday Meet.

The Ira P.-T. A. will meet in regular session in the school auditorium at 3:30 p. m., Friday, April 12. Mrs. A. Kruse, president, will be in charge of the program.

During the afternoon those present will hear a program on music, and roll call will be "My Favorite Song."

Since the meeting will be the last of the year at which the out-going officers will preside, it is urged by the president that all school patrons be present. Immediately following the program, the group will hold election of officers for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Roy Strayhorn Hostess to Ingleside.

Mrs. Roy Strayhorn was hostess to the Ingleside Study Club at her home last Wednesday afternoon, and Mrs. Sam Williams directed an interesting program on "Southern Personalities."

Roll call for the day was "Men Who Made History." Mrs. Noa B. Sisk gave a paper on "The Great Men of the South: Yesterday and Today"; Mrs. Sam Williams, leader, told of "Historic Spots in the South"; Mrs. Charles B. Reed discussed "The Outstanding Southern Women"; and Mrs. Earl Louder conducted an English drill.

A lovely plate of chicken salad, cake with whipped cream and coffee was passed to the following: Mmes. Tom Boren, W. F. Cox, C. W. Harless, W. W. McCarty, Chas. B. Reed, Sam Williams, Noa B. Sisk, R. S. Sullivan, H. L. Vann, Edie Boren and Earl Louder.

It was announced at the Wednesday meeting of the club that the short story written by Mrs. R. S. Sullivan, Ingleside president, was judged second in the district contest. Mrs. W. W. Smith was the club's representative at the recent Seventh District convention in Plainview.

Mrs. Wolcott Is Hostess to Club.

Mrs. F. W. Wolcott was hostess to the Altrurian Club at her home Friday afternoon. The afternoon meeting was "Original Manuscript Day," with the program directed by Mrs. Lee T. Stinson.

Each member was asked to prepare an original manuscript and read it before the club. Some of them were humorous and others of quite a serious nature, both groups combined to make the program one of the most interesting of the year.

The Altrurian Club will sponsor a plant and magazine exchange in the Piggly-Wiggly No. 2 building Saturday, it was announced. The exchange is an annual project of the club. Mrs. J. C. Dorward is general chairman.

Three district chairmen from the Altrurian Club attended the Seventh District convention in Plainview last week—Mrs. H. G. Towle, program chairman; Mrs. Joe Caton, chairman junior membership; and Mrs. O. P. Thrane, chairman federation pin.

Guests for the meeting included Mmes. G. W. Arlington of Canadian, Earl Henry, M. E. Savage and Hugh Taylor, and the following members were present: Mmes. E. J. Anderson, W. R. Bell, H. P. Brown, Hugh Boren, R. H. Curmiste, J. C. Dorward, R. L. Gray, W. W. Hamilton, J. W. Leftwich, A. C. Preuit, J. C. Smyth, J. C. Stinson and Lee T. Stinson.

Club Meets With Mrs. Fla Joyce.

The Altrurian Daughters met with Mrs. Fla Joyce last Thursday evening for a study of Leonard H. Robbins' short story, "Mr. Downey Sits Down," directed by Mrs. Andy Jones.

Mrs. J. P. Strayhorn and Miss Maurine Cunningham took part on the program, and Miss Margaret Dell Prim, club parliamentarian, conducted a parliamentary drill.

Mrs. Joe Caton, Altrurian Daughters' sponsor and district chairman of junior membership; Mrs. J. D. Scott, chairman of mothercraft; and Mrs. Herman Doak, also a member of the Art Guild, from the club attended sessions of the district convention in Plainview last week.

A lovely plate was passed to Mrs. Amos Joyce, a guest, and to the following members: Misses Kenneth Alexander, Grace Avary, Mattie Ross Cunningham, Maurine Cunningham, Margaret Dell Prim and Dorothy Strayhorn and Mmes. Max Brownfield, P. W. Cloud, Herman Darby, Andy Jones, Novis Rodgers, J. P. Strayhorn, Forest Wade and E. O. Wedgeworth.

Lady Says CARDUI Eased Pain In Side

Cardui helped an Oklahoma lady, as described below, and many others have benefited in a similar way. "I had a hurting in my side every few weeks," writes Mrs. Bill Stewart, of Dewar, Okla. "I had heard of Cardui and started taking it. It stopped my hurting and built up my strength. I took 11 bottles and I sure felt better." Try Cardui for pain, cramps, nervousness due to a run-down condition. Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit you, consult a physician.

DOZEN SNYDER MUSIC LEADERS TO CONVENTION

Over a dozen Snyder music lovers, including members of the Musical Coterie and Junior Coterie and a few others, plan to attend sessions of the 20th annual convention of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs, in San Angelo. The meeting will begin today.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Spears, Mrs. A. C. Preuit, Virginia Preuit, Horace Leath and Dorothy Pinkerton will attend Friday and Saturday sessions. Misses Preuit and Leath won the district junior contest for piano ensembles at Sweetwater recently, and Miss Pinkerton placed first in hymn-playing. All three are entered in state contests at San Angelo.

Mrs. G. H. Leath and daughters, Ola Margaret and Frances, Mrs. J. E. LeMond and daughters, Louise and Nell Verna, and Mrs. Mollie Pinkerton will be at the state convention Saturday.

Outstanding features of the convocation will be the artist concert on Thursday, when Edward Kane will be presented, the composers program Friday, junior lay Saturday and the closing session.

About 300 adult delegates and more than 2,000 juveniles are expected at the four-day convention.

Friendly Helpers Meet at Dorward's.

The Friendly Helpers Class of the First Methodist Church met in the home of Hattie Dorward for their monthly social last Thursday afternoon. Josie Lemley and Adra Iverson assisted with hostess duties.

The meeting opened with prayer, followed by a business session. Lila Dodson was in charge of the program which was: Song by the class, "Something for Thee"; scripture reading by the leader, who also gave an interesting article on "How the Church May Help in the Home," Addie Hamilton's interesting hymn-naming contest.

The hostesses served a dainty plate with lilacs as favors to the following: Laura Stinson, Louise Vaughn, Opal Lambeth, Addie Hamilton, Lily Stinson, Effie McGlaun, Pauline Kent, Iva Thompson, Lila Dodson, Faye Norred, Ruth Hicks, Margaret Jones and Bertha Snyder.

"Holy Scriptures" Studied by Society.

Study for the Monday afternoon meeting of the adult missionary society of the First Methodist Church was "The Holy Scriptures." Mrs. A. C. Preuit taught the lesson, and she was assisted in presenting the course by Mmes. J. E. Hardy and W. W. Hamilton.

The following were present for the study: Mmes. A. C. Preuit, H. P. Brown, A. D. Johnson, Joe Stinson, Joe Strayhorn, W. W. Hamilton, A. M. Curry, R. W. West, J. E. Hardy and R. M. Stokes.

Mrs. Chenault Talks To Business Women.

Mrs. P. C. Chenault, president of the local Twentieth Century Club, was guest speaker at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Business Women's Club at the home of Mrs. Nathan Rosenberg. Mmes. Rosenberg, L. O. Smith and R. E. Gray were hostesses for the evening.

Roll call for the evening was "Scenic Places in Texas." Mrs. Chenault in discussing "Texas of Today" emphasized a Texas Centennial theme in her message, and told something of the recent Seventh District convention, Federation of Women's Clubs, in Plainview.

A lovely plate was passed to the following: Mrs. Chenault, a guest, and Hattie Wade, Ora Norred, Ruth Yoder, Mable Turner, Vera Miles, Jan Thompson, Lera Mae Scott and Allene Curry.

Miss Evanelle Arnold, Hardin-Simmons co-ed, was a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Arnold, during the week-end.

Junior B Program Heard Last Week.

The Junior B Class of Snyder High School met March 27. After the class was called to order the minutes were read by the secretary.

A committee was appointed for a future picnic, and the following program was given: An original poem, Dawson Moreland; a duet, "The Stars and Stripes Forever," Thalia and Thana Benbenek; five-year prophecy, Fickas Bell. A number of songs were sung by the group.

WHAT OIL MEANS TO TEXAS

This map, prepared from data supplied by the Texas Railroad Commission, shows how the 520 separate oil fields in Texas are distributed among 122 counties. Counties with the black dots contain one or more fields. Oil is worth more than $1,000,000 daily to Texas and contributes with its products $45,200,000 a year in State taxes alone, besides many additional millions in county and local taxes. The map gives a graphic illustration of why oil is important to so many Texas communities and citizens and why the Commission's successful fight to retain supervision by the State instead of turning regulation of Texas oil over to Washington bureaucrats has won favorable consideration by the Legislature of the Commission's request for a slight increase in the allocation of taxes paid in by the industry, so that efficient supervision can be maintained.

Solon Wants to Halt Ad Valorem Taxes at $1.25

Senator Roy Sanderford of Bell County has introduced a resolution in the Texas Senate calling for an election in November, 1935, to write into the constitution of Texas a provision that the total amount of state, county, municipal and district real estate taxes levied and collected for general purposes shall never exceed $1.25 per $100 valuation. The average rate now is $2.47. Figures from this senatorial district reveal an average rate of $2.33, compared with $2.47 for the state as a whole. Total state and local taxes levied for general purposes in the 12 counties of the district are $3,234,601 yearly. Scurry County's rate is $1.82, which is 49 cents lower than the district average and 65 cents lower than the state average. Stephens County has the highest rate in the district, $3.28. Throckmorton has the lowest, $1.67. One other county in the district, Fisher, is lower than Scurry. The Sanderford limitation amendment would reduce these rates to $1.25 per $100 valuation, and it would mean a reduction of 45 per cent or a saving of assessed taxes of more than $1,000,000 to the property owners of this senatorial district.

Let Us Straighten Your Subscription

In the rush of recording subscriptions during late November, December and early January, The Times made a few mistakes in names, addresses and dates of expiration. If you are one of the ones whose subscription is recorded improperly on the label of your paper each week, you will do the publishers a decided favor by calling attention to the error. Those whose subscriptions expire before October of this year are reminded that they may get the paper extended more than 10 months if they renew now. New subscribers get the paper from now until January 1, 1936, for the same rate—one dollar, in Scurry and adjoining counties.

Marble Machine Again Operating In Scurry County

After a closedown of slightly more than a week, marble machines came back into several Scurry County business houses early this week. The devices were ordered closed down Saturday, March 23, by the sheriff's department, along with "slot machines, cigarette machines, dice machines and every gambling device." The sheriff's department says the machines are being operated without their sanction. Operators of marble machines base their immunity under the anti-gambling order on an opinion handed down last week by the attorney general's department. A marble machine may be either legal or illegal, depending on whether the element of skill is involved, according to Pat M. Neff Jr., assistant attorney general, who wrote the opinion. Neff pointed out the Abilene Morning News said March 25, that a game of chance is a violation of the law. He added that such had been defined as a "game determined entirely or in part by lot or mere luck, and in which judgment, practice, skill or adroitness have honestly no office at all or are thwarted by chance; a game in which hazard entirely predominates." If the success of the operator of a marble machine depends upon the exercise of skill, judgment or accuracy, the machine is not illegal, the Abilene paper quoted Neff as saying. On the other hand, if the player is to receive something of value, based upon chance, as distinguished from skill, then such machine is unlawful. "It depends upon the facts of each particular case," Neff said in conclusion. Thursday morning clouds are offering a welcome threat of showers for the Snyder area. Duststorms have evidently eloped for a few days.

COUNTY USING NEW CAR TAGS

Bernard Longbotham, Scurry County tax assessor-collector, reported registration of 1,887 cars and trucks at close of business Monday at midnight. Passenger car registrations were 1,704; farm trucks, 74; commercial trucks, 109. Effective Monday at midnight, it became unlawful to operate a motor vehicle without the 1935 license plates.

ART CARNIVAL PLANNED IN ABILENE APRIL 26 AND 27

An art carnival, the first major community project of the Oscar Cooper Branch, American Association of University Women, is to be held in Abilene, at the city hall, Friday and Saturday, April 26-27. Although planned primarily for the purpose of offering artists of Abilene and surrounding territory an opportunity to present their works publicly, the carnival is to be made a festive affair, with a variety of entertainment features. Scurry County artists have been given special invitations to display their works at the Abilene affair.

J. T. Beavers Rites Heard by Hundreds

Hundreds of friends and neighbors jammed the Fluvanna Baptist Church Thursday afternoon of last week to hear final rites for J. T. Beavers, 22, as they were said by Rev. Lawrence Hays of Snyder. The young man died March 26. Pallbearers were James R. Patterson, Elmo Faver, J. C. Landrum, E. V. Boynton Jr., John Truss Jr., Carl Patterson, Rosa Nell Stavely, Lenora Patterson, Ruth Truss, Izora Patterson, Pauline Deere and Maurice Ainsworth were in charge of flowers.

T-P. Agency Moves To Highway Garage

Frank and Max Brownfield moved their T-P. oil and gas agency Monday to the Highway Garage, one block east of the square on the highway. The agency has been located for several years just east of Deep Creek on 25th Street. The Brownfields are operating the service station, and their office is in connection. The garage will continue to be operated by Ira Iverson and Roy Irvin.

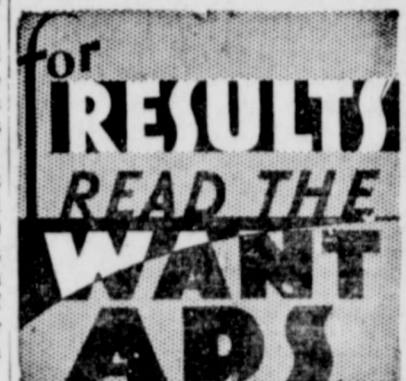

WORK GOES FORWARD ON HIGHWAY NO. 7 PROJECT

Work is going forward rapidly on the Highway No. 7 project between Snyder and Hermleigh. The heavy rain on the Hermleigh end of the stretch held up work temporarily, but it is being pushed again. Several bridges are being completed, and a portion of the R. S. & P. Railway's new dump has been finished. Telephone linemen are busy this week moving their poles to the new right-of-way.

MEAT PRICES TAKE HEARTY JUMPS DURING EARLY 1935

Meat prices have been soaring to pre-depression levels in the Southwest, with prospects of going even higher in the next few months, an Associated Press report indicates. Snyder is sharing in the increase, although she is in the heart of a cattle raising belt. Local market men say retail prices of fresh meat have risen at least an average of five cents per pound during the past two or three weeks. An active demand has developed for cattle in the Southwest, due to the sharp upturn of prices, which amounted in some instances to as much as 50 per cent.

Scurry County has done her part to raise the prices, for she disposed late last year of more than 14,000 head of cattle in the government buying program. The county, in turn, shares with other parts of the Southwest in the demand for good cattle to stock the newly green ranges.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN

Pete Makes an Observation.
Pessimism Pete says if meat prices continue to rise, he will soon be living on liver and onions, red beans and turnips, instead of sow bosom and T-bone steak.

But She'd Buy 'Em Anyway.
Pessimism Pete says the marriage vow should be changed to read: "And I, John Esquire, promise to pay no bills for spring attire for wife dear unless she feeds me hot biscuits three times a day."

Beginning to Smile.
Dixie Farm and Poultry Journal: "There is a smile on the faces of more hatcherymen and poultrymen now than we have seen in many years. Let us hope that—like the famous paint of which we have heard so much—it won't come off. Egg prices are now higher than they have been for many seasons. The egg feed ratio is showing up good."

The Sparrow Builds a Nest.
Mrs. Sparrow—or maybe it was Mr. Sparrow—was as busy as hops at nest building Monday morning, the first day of April. She was flitting about on the school grounds as if her little heart were bursting with pride at the little sparrows that will come by and by. And in the short space of a sidewalker's glance, she wrote an editorial!

A Call for New Pioneering.
President Roosevelt: "We, too, in these latter years throughout the length and breadth of our land have come to a realization of the pregnant fact that the accustomed order of our formerly established lives does not suffice to meet the perils and the problems which we are compelled to face. Again, mere survival calls for new pioneering on our part."

Speaking of Easter Eggs.
Easter will be coming in a few days with her new spring duds, her dyed eggs, her flowers, her music. But it is probable that Easter will not be coming on the wings of reverence for the One whose resurrection the holiday is supposed to commemorate. All our holidays, even those which honor outstanding religious occasions, have degenerated largely into pleasure periods.

Give Nothing, Get Something.
Everybody wants something for nothing. Take out a few exceptions and that statement will hold water almost anywhere you go. Give a fellow—or a woman—one chance out of 10 or one chance out of 10,000 to get a prize of any kind, and he'll spend the price of several loaves of bread to keep his slim chance within seeing distance. As long as human nature reigns, this element of take-a-chance will reign, and that's a' that.

A Tradition Is Re-emphasized.
A Scurry County tradition was broken for more than half a day Saturday—but the last part of the day re-emphasized the fact that you can't depend on Mother Nature's sandstorms. "Just set a date for an Interscholastic League meet and you set a date for a sandstorm." That's what folks have been saying—and proving—for years. It is probable that Saturday afternoon's visitor from Kansas and Nebraska was the worst athletic event of the day.

A State-wide Project.
Those who still have qualms about the Texas Centennial being an all-Dallas affair will be glad to know that both Houston and Fort Worth, as well as other Texas cities, are joining whole-heartedly in the plan of the Texas Centennial Special Train to Washington, beginning April 25. The Texas Press Association, sponsoring the train, insisted that all promotional material used along the swing through the Southland shall deal with the Centennial as a state-wide project.

Excited About Athletics?
If you are excited about athletics ruling the day in our Texas schools, just forget it. Football may wag the dog a lot of time, but Interscholastic League meets are different. An example: Snyder's track and field team of eight or ten men garnered 15 points when it won first place in the meet last Saturday; Fluvanna's debate teams, composed of two boys and two girls, made 40 points when they won first places in the county meet. As the preacher would say, that's really putting first things first.

Europe in Its Own Element.
The continuous newspaper rabble concerning spy rings, espionage and traitors amuses some of us who live far from the madding crowds. Some day, perhaps, we will come to realize that it is of such stuff that wars are born. Just now, with Europe stuffing in her own powder-keg, jealousy-ridden element, the uncovering of an extensive spy ring would put the whole continent into the frying pan. And mothers who have young American sons have just as much to fear today as they had on the eve of the World War.

Do We Want Education?
It is reported from Abilene that Mexicans are much more anxious to take advantage of the adult education program held out by Uncle Sam than Americans. Is it possible that folks are becoming content with their lot in life—with relief feeding and other government assistance? Many of those who are relief citizens claim that they "didn't have a chance." Now that they have a chance to study something useful at no cost whatsoever, they won't grab at it. Chalk up another victory for the powerful American god of Let-the-Government-Do-It.

Student Brains Take the Cake.

This newspaper rejoices today in the fact that this year's Interscholastic League events gave more emphasis to student brains than any other school meet in county annals.
We are quoting from an editorial in last year's Times that is so timely again this year that its sentiment should be welcome to most patrons:
Brains, after all, is what each student will need when he breaks out of the school room. Brawn will be of about as much use to the average student ten years from now, except insofar as health is concerned, as a post-hole digger to a humming bird.
Acting, debating, declaiming, essay writing, extemporaneous speech, three-R contesting—there is where you will find the majority of student brains that came to Snyder during various phases of the League meet. Students who displayed a neat balance of brain and brawn are to be congratulated. Those who starred in the indoor events where wit matched wit are to be doubly complimented over those who matched only muscle against muscle.
Congratulations to all you dash winners, mile-run winners, jumpers, and to all you other muscled lads and lassies who drew cheers with your feet. But to you who won with your brains, a bouquet and a triple measure of hope for future laurels.
To all of you: The Times' wish that you may bring back a hearty share of district first places.

EDITORIAL OF THE WEEK

FORGING FOR THE FUTURE.

The man in the moon was soliloquizing. Solitude can be a great breeder of thought. Not having to read the newspapers up there or listen to radio wranglings, he can pleasantly and profitably devote time to the contemplation of the divers preoccupations of mortals as they mill about this earth.
"Curious thing some men were doing the other evening in a smithy near New York City," he ruminated. "Several clever craftsmen were forging a sword. Two smiths made the anvil fairly ring as they hammered out the blade while the two other experts cunningly contrived the hilt and guard. Then laboriously and skillfully the parts were fire-welded together. I wondered why they did it. Swords aren't being used down there any more, except by admirals in comic opera and by kings making knights.
"I was changing a tire at the time and a wave leaped high enough to whisper in my ear why they took all that trouble. They wanted to reproduce a blade such as was used centuries ago by crusaders when they were carrying 'civilization' to infidels. Then they were going to hang it on a wall in a museum so people could see an object once prized but now discarded.
"Funny, that new old sword started quite a train of thought. So deep, in fact, that I hardly noticed when the dawn threw a rosy pink veil over me. What was I thinking all night? That the time was coming—perhaps it was already much nearer than folks down there realized—when the only place for all unneighborly—yes, murderous—deeds would be in museums, where they could be exhibited with other antiques."—Exchange.

BARUCH'S ANSWER.

Nothing gets under the skin like ingratitude. One in whom you have placed faith may rob you and you can forgive him, but if he accepts an act of kindness and later questions your motive—never.
Yesterday, appearing before the senate munitions committee, Bernard M. Baruch, a white-haired dignified man with a conspicuous record of distinguished public service behind him, lashed back bitterly at his critics. Mr. Baruch told the committee that when he was called to wartime government service as chairman of the War Industries Board he sold at a sacrifice all of his holdings that even remotely touched on his official duties; retired entirely from the stock market; made no purchases of securities except bonds, and these mostly Liberty bonds. The venture cost him an income loss of 75 per cent.
Because of which he felt he had the right to demand that the senate committee now probing the munitions ring either put an end to the insinuations and innuendoes leveled at him, "or find me guilty of violations of the trust and confidence imposed upon me during that period."
Good for Barney Baruch! There is a disgraceful habit in this country of pillorying successful men simply because they are successful. A penalty of success is that you are a natural target for the Huey Long school of self-seekers and appealers to prejudice and passion.—Abilene Morning News.

BOTULISM

The care of poultry and livestock these days concerns many farmers and ranchmen. Here is some information from the world famed veterinary laboratories of Fort Dodge Serum Company, Fort Dodge, Iowa, that should prove helpful.

A common affliction of poultry and livestock is botulism, or food poisoning. The micro-organism of this ailment is in the soil, becomes a virulent toxin during its growth process on food. Botulism affects humans, too, and is termed food poisoning, yet in poultry the common term is usually "limber neck."

Texas Becoming Mecca for Auto Vacation Travel

The popularity of Texas as a mecca for automobile vacationists from all parts of the country is indicated by a report just released by the Conoco Travel Bureau, a branch of Continental Oil Company and America's largest free travel service. According to the report, 239,470 travel bureau tourists spent more than $9,852,480 in this state last year.

It was also revealed that motor travel throughout the entire United States was unusually heavy during 1934. Hotels, tourist camps, restaurants and many other types of business took in more money from tourists than during any other year since 1929.

The bureau supplied detailed trip services to 969,485 vacationists, a figure 41 per cent greater than the organization's total for 1933. Statistics also show that travel bureau tourists spent in excess of 40 million dollars while they were away from home.

The Conoco Travel Bureau is an organization maintained by Continental to provide motorists with up-to-date information on North American roads, routes, hotels, cottage camps, scenic and historical attractions plus any other data likely to make vacation trips pleasant and profitable.

More than 100 carefully trained men and women are employed in the bureau's central offices at Denver. It is predicted that one and one-half million vacationists will rely on travel bureau assistance during 1935.

About feeding prepared grains and hays: Do not feed very much ground wheat or oat straw containing wheat screenings, molasses. It is palatable enough when dampened and mixed with other feeds, but should be regarded as a light filler or bulk roughage.
The only known remedy for botulism when it affects poultry, cat-

THE HEART
The human heart is an exceptionally interesting organ, like an automatic centrifugal pump, forcing fresh blood through our complex system of veins until death or disease stops its function. Two heart chambers (auricles) receive blood from the veins, while two of the heart chambers (ventricles) force the blood into the arteries.

Among heart diseases cardiologists have been concerned very much over a condition of the heart known as auricular or ventricular fibrillation, difficult to combat because for auricular fibrillation, digitalis is the only treatment. Digitalis is an old reliable heart stimulant, since this item used to constitute the medicine kit of the cowboy, as precious to him when ill or hurt as a vital of liquid magic.

It is not exactly known just how heart fibrillation develops, but of recent date new light has been thrown on this condition.

The First "Alloyed Oil"

—for better lubrication of today's high-speed, alloy-steel motors!

YOUR MOTOR is built of parts made of special alloy metals. Car manufacturers and metallurgists worked together to produce metal alloys strong and durable enough to withstand the greatly increased pressures and temperatures of the modern motor.

Oils, too, must withstand these pressures and temperatures and they must have extra oiliness and film strength to do it. Yet oils generally have no more oiliness and film strength than they had ten years ago. And many new refining methods now used to make oils free from carbon and sludge have lowered instead of increased oiliness and film strength!

Continental, pioneering as it has pioneered for 60 years, has developed the first alloyed oil—Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil! It is custom-made for high-speed, alloy-steel motors. It has 2 to 4 times the film strength of straight mineral oil, as tests on the Timken machine have proved! It has more oiliness than any oil has naturally. It penetrates and combines with metal surfaces, forming a permanent lubricating film—the "Hidden Quart". It is a pure, clean oil, free from carbon and sludge troubles. It gives extraordinary mileage as well as motor protection, as proved by the Indianapolis Destruction Test.

THE STORY

Chapter I—Jim Wall, young cowboy from Wyoming, in the early days of the cattle industry, seeks a new field in Utah. He meets Hank Hays, who admits to being a robber, and tells Wall he is working for an Englishman named Herrick, who has located a big ranch in the mountains. Herrick has employed a small army of rustlers and gun-fighters, and Hays and others are plotting to steal their employer's cattle and money. Hays wants Wall to throw in with the rustlers.

Chapter II—At the little settlement of Green River, Hays gets into an argument with a gambler called Stud, over a poker game. Wall saves Hank's life by bluffing the gambler out of shooting. With Hays and two other rustlers, Happy Jack and Lincoln, Jim Wall starts out for Herrick's ranch. In camp, the first night out, Jim regrets the step he has taken, but it is too late to turn back.

Chapter III—The four men arrive at the ranch. Herrick announces that his sister, Helen, is coming to the ranch. Hays unfolds his plan for getting possession of the 12,000 head of cattle on the Herrick ranch. He and his lieutenants ride away to drive off the first bunch of live-stock. Jim remains behind to shoot it out, if necessary, with Heeseman, Hays' rival among the cattle rustlers. Jim sees a dust cloud, which he is certain denotes the arrival of Heeseman and his gang. He stands with rifle ready.

Chapter IV—Heeseman tells Wall that Hays was once his (Heeseman's) partner and double-crossed him. Herrick delegates Jim to go to Grand Junction to meet Miss Herrick. Jim gets Barnes, a young cowboy with him, to tell her that he (Jim) is a desperado of the worst type. Barnes does so, but the girl treats the information lightly.

Chapter V—On his arrival at the ranch, with Helen, Jim is confronted by Hays, who betrays unusual interest in the coming of Miss Herrick. Jim tells Hays that Miss Herrick brought a Wells Fargo package, probably of money. Jim goes riding with the Herricks and greatly impresses Helen with his revolver shooting.

Chapter VI—The cattle drives to Grand Junction started. Jim Wall finds himself falling in love with Helen. He coaches her in riding western style, and finally kisses her. She is angry and dismisses him, but relents and asks him not to leave the ranch. The men return from the drive with the stolen cattle. The leader has sold the cattle and brought back the money. A quick getaway is imperative. Hays tells his men to go on ahead, that he will join them at a certain canyon. The riders arrive at the canyon and to their amazement and Jim's dismay, Hays and a lieutenant are sighted with Helen Herrick—captive.

Chapter VII—The gang is about to break with Hays over the abduction, but he explains that he robbed Herrick and stole Helen for ransom. Realizing that Helen will be worse off if she falls into Heeseman's clutches, Jim Wall rides on with Hank and his men. Heeseman's riders are discovered in pursuit. A running battle in which Latimer, one of Hays' men, is wounded, Hays leads the gang into a canyon retreat, difficult of access and easy to defend—The Robbers' Roost.

Chapter VIII—After camp has been made, Jim seeks out Smoky Slocum, and secures his promise to aid in case Helen is threatened with harm by the villainous Hays. Jim hears a wild cry in the night. Before he dies, Latimer, who was wounded in the fight with Heeseman, tells Jim and Smoky that Hays has held out some of the money he stole from Herrick.

Chapter IX—In the "roost" the robbers make permanent camp. Jim keeps a watchful eye on Helen. She steals from her tent at night to tell him that she fears the outlaw, Hank Hays. While they whisper, Hank steals upon them. Jim makes him believe that he has spurred a bribe from the girl to rescue her. Heeseman's riders are seen approaching and the desperados prepare to fight.

Chapter X—Helen is taken to a cave. Jim and Smoky Slocum open fire. A sharpshooter has the range of the cavern. Smoky crawls out and shoots Hank Hays, crawling to an advantageous position, kills Heeseman. The besiegers withdraw in panic.

Chapter XI—Smoky is killed in almost the last exchange of shots, and when the triumphant Hays returns to the cavern where he has left Helen, he is faced by Jim, who denounces him for his double-crossing the gang, and particularly for his abduction of Helen.

***
NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

All the time, Hank Hays, replied Jim, steadily, and it was the robber's eyes, pale fires no longer, that he watched for thought and will.

Still he saw the violent muscular quivering which slowly diminished to freeze into rigidity. He had struck the right chord. In whatever way possible, Hank Hays loved this woman. However it had begun, this sordid, brutal thing had ended in Hays' worship of the golden-haired sister of Herrick. Jim read this in the extraordinary betraying eyes, and read more—that it had been Helen the robber had fought for, not his lost estate with his men, not the honor of thieves. It was this that accounted for the infernal blaze of unquenchable hate, of courage that death itself could scarcely have stilled.

All this immediately coalesced into the conscious resolve to act and kill!

As the robber sprang up Jim's first shot took him somewhere in the breast. It whistled him half around. His gun, spouting flame, tore up the gravel at Jim's feet. A terrible wound with its agony, a consciousness of its mortality, added to the overwhelming ferocity of jealous hate, gave the man super-human physical activity. He whirled, bounding the other way, and so swiftly that Jim's second shot missed him altogether. Hays' gun was booming, but it was also describing the same curves and jerks as his body. Then as passion gave place to desperate need and the gun aligned itself with Jim, Jim's third shot destroyed aim, force and consciousness.

Hays' demonic face set woodenly. The gun, with hammer up, had dropped to explode. And the robber lodged against the slant of wall, dead, with the awfulness of his mortal passion stamped upon his features.

It was over. Jim breathed. The hand which held his gun was so wet that he thought his blood was flowing. But it was sweat.

"I wish—Smoky could—know," muttered Jim, with a convulsive jaw. He shoved Hays off the wall. Wiping his face, Jim staggered to the rock and sat down. Spent and heaving he sat there, his will operating on a whirling mind. It was over—the thing that had had had to come. All dead! Loyal and faithful robbers alike. What to do now? The girl! Escape from that hellhole, soon to be besieged again! He must pack that very hour and ride—ride away with her.

"Jim—oh, Jim" came a cry from the back of the cave.

"Helen—it's all—over," he called, hoarsely.

She appeared in the opening. "Gone?" she whispered.

"Yes, gone—and dead."

"I saw—you . . . is he—dead?"

"You bet your life," burst out Jim, his breast oppressed.

"Oh, help me out!"

Jim ran to assist her. She came slipping out, to fall on her knees, clasping Jim with fierce arms. Her head against his.

"Get up," he ordered, sharply, trying to lift her. But she was more than dead weight.

"God bless you! Oh, God bless you!" she cried. The voice was husky, strange, yet carried the richness and contralto melody that had been one of Helen's charms.

"Don't say that!" he exclaimed, aghast.

"Jim, you've saved me," she whispered.

pered. Jim's hands plucked at her arms, caught them.

She loosened her hold and raised her head to look up at him. He saw only her eyes, fearless, strained in overwhelming gratitude.

"No—not yet!" he blurted out. "We must hurry out of this."

She arose, still clinging to him. "Forgive me. I am selfish. We can talk some other time. I should have realized you would want to leave here at once. . . . Tell me what to do. I will obey."

Jim stepped back and shook himself.

"You kept me from thinking," he began, ponderingly. "Yes, we must leave here. . . . Put on your riding clothes. Pack this dress you have on—and all you have. Take your time. We're safe for the present. And don't look out. I've got to bury Hays and the men."

"My spirit wouldn't faint at that," she replied. "I saw you kill the wretch—and I could help you bury him."

"I won't need you," replied Jim, constrainedly, and wheeled away. Madly he rushed to and fro, while he searched the dead robbers, to fling their money and valuables in a pile. Then he dragged them to the brink of the wash and toppled them over.

Action had begun to steady Jim, if not compose him. He shoved all the money into his saddlebag. Next he packed every one of his shells. He might be attacked again in that hiding place. Then he selected supplies for two packs and filled them, not forgetting a few utensils.

His next move was to strap blankets and saddles on the two gentlest horses. Those he led back to the cave, where he packed them. After that he had only to saddle Bay and the gray horse Helen had ridden there.

Suddenly he thought of Smoky. If he had been alone, or with another man, even a helpless one, he would have taken time to find that strange and faithful robber and have given him decent burial. But he would not leave the girl.

While he stood there, trying to think what else to do, he remembered a sack of grain that Hays had packed in on Star ranch. He found it half full and tied it on the lighter pack.

He hurried back to the girl, calling: "Are you ready?"

"I've been waiting," she said, and came swiftly out. The rider's costume brought out the rounded grace of her form. She had braided her hair. The sombrero he remembered shaded her face.

"Where are your veil and long coat?" asked Jim, seeing her as on that unforgettable day.

"He burned them," she answered in a stifled voice.

"Get into this." And he held his slicker for her. It enveloped her, dragging on the ground.

"We're in for storm. Rainy season due. You must keep dry."

"Turning to the gray horse, she murmured:

"Ride close behind me where there's room. Just ahead where there's not," he directed her.

Jim tied the halters of the two pack animals to get their packs, and started them off. Then he vaulted upon Bay—the first time for many weeks. The horse pranced, but steadied down under an iron hand and heel.

Helen looked back as one fascinated, but Jim bent stern gaze ahead.

"I would destroy this canyon if that were in my power. Come," he said.

They rode up out of the oval, driving the pack horses ahead. The rain was now falling heavily. On the gravel ridge to the west Jim saw a dead man lying prone.

Soon they entered the wide, shallow wash, in the sand of which Jim espied footprints filling with water. They rode out of the tail of the storm and into a widening of the wash, where it reached proportions of a small valley. Scrub cedar and brush and cactus began to show, and patches of sunflowers on low, sandy knolls. They passed the cave where the riders' horses had been left. Broad and deep was the trail to the south.

"Are you all right?" Jim queried.

"Oh, I did not know I could feel rapture again. Yes, I am."

"You're dizzy just the same. You sway in the saddle. Ride closer to me, while you can. . . . Give me your hand. Don't talk. But look—look! You might see what I do not see."

They rode at length to a canyon head, down which the hoof tracks turned.

"We came this way by night, but I remember," she said. "Do you dare to follow them?"

"We must not."

Her reply was a stifled gasp.

"But that is the way to the Star ranch!"

"Yes, on the trail of desperate men, and across that Dirty Devil river. These summer rains. It will be in flood. I would not be able to get you through."

"You know best. But just to be free . . . to see my brother, Bernie! It is unbelievable."

Jim Wall looked away across the brakes. Presently he said, "I will try to find a way out of this hole. The country is strange. I'll be lost soon. But somewhere up out of here—we'll find a lovely canyon where there is grass and water. I must not run into cattlemen; robbers are not my only enemies. I don't want to be hanged for—saving you."

"Hanged! Oh, you frighten me!"

"I didn't want to tell you. It is no sure thing that I can safely elude the rest of Heeseman's outfit, if I try to get out through the brakes. It'd be far safer to hide you a while—south of here, out of the way of riders."

"Take me where you think best," she said tremulously.

"When you get out, you must go home to England."

"I have no home in England. Bernie is my only kin, except very distant relatives who hate the name of Herrick."

"Then go to a country as different from this naked, stony wilderness as day from night. Where it snows in winter, and in spring there are flowers, birds, apple blossoms. . . ."

"No, I shall not leave," she replied positively.

A flash of joy leaped up in Jim at her words, but he had no answer for her. He led on, away from that broad, fresh trail, into an unknown region. And it seemed that this point of severance had an inscrutable parallel in the tumult within his heart.

The sun set in an overshadowed sky and storm threatened all around the horizon. Far north the thunder rolled, and to the south faint mutterings arose. Jim could not hold to a straight course. He wandered where the lay of the land permitted. Rising white and red ground, with the mounds of rock falling, and green swales between, appeared endless and forlorn. He began to look for a place to camp.

At last, as twilight darkened the distant washes and appeared creeping up out of them, Jim came to another little valley where scant grass grew and dead cedars stood up, spectral ghosts of drought, and on the west side a low caverned ridge offered shelter. He led over to this and, dismounting, said they would camp there. Her reply was a stifled gasp, and essaying to get out of her saddle she fell into his arms.

CHAPTER XII

To Jim Wall it seemed a miracle that he did not snatch Helen to his breast. Like a wind-driven prairie fire his blood raced. He set her upright on the ground.

"Can you stand?" he inquired.

She essayed to, and, letting go of him, plainly betrayed her spent condition. Jim helped her into the shallow hollow under the rock.

In the quarter-hour before dusk he had unpacked, hobbled and fed the horses, built a fire and put water on to boil.

He carried his bed under the shelf and unrolled it, changed and doubled the blankets and folded the tarpaulin so that it could be pulled up in case rain beat in.

The fire sent a ruddy light into the cavern, and all at once Jim discovered that the girl was watching him.

"Are we safe here?" she asked.

"God only knows! I think so—I hope so. It's a lonely desert. Our enemies have gone the other way. They know they nearly wiped out Hays, and they'll try again with reinforcements. They know Hays had a fortune in cash—and you."

"To his concern and discomfiture, she ate very little. She tried, only to fail. But she did drink her coffee."

"You'll pick up," he said hopefully. "Sleep, though, is more necessary than food."

"Jim, I can't pull off my boots," she said later. "Please help me."

She was sitting on the bed when

Jim took hold of the boot she elevated.

"Look to see if you have any blisters," he said. "I'll bathe your feet in a little cold water and salt."

Bringing a pan of water, he knelt before her.

"Don't stand on ceremony, Helen. Stick out your foot. . . ."

Elizabeth Ammons, Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Rieburg have been enjoying a visit from their son, Cristo, who is here from Glenwood, New Mexico, where he has been working for the past few months. He will remain here for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Steward were in Abilene Tuesday.

We are proud of several first, second and third places won in the track meet at Snyder.

Several of this community attended the fifth Sunday singing at Lorraine Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cameron of Dallas visited Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Rieburg the first of the week, and on Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Rieburg, Cristo and Kenneth, with Mr. and Mrs. Cameron, Walter Rieburg and family of Lorraine and Carmen Rieburg and family of Arroyo enjoyed an outing and fishing on a creek near Ira.

Mrs. J. V. Ammons and daughter, Elizabeth, spent Friday with Mrs. George Northcutt of Roscoe and Mrs. James Ammons spent the same day with Mrs. A. L. Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kinney and children of Byron spent Sunday with Mrs. Kinney's mother, Mrs. Daniels.

Mr. and Mrs. Claburne Rose of Sweetwater were callers in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Crockett last Sunday night.

Mable Light spent last Thursday night with Melba Lightfoot of the Mt. Zion community.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Pieper and children of Lone Wolf called in the Walter Miller home Sunday.

Joe Clayton to Temple.

A former Texas Technological College student, Joe Clayton of Borden County, has been appointed a trainee under the soil erosion project under way at Temple. He is the eleventh former Tech student to be appointed this year in the national soil erosion program.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Webb and children of Ira spent Sunday in the Bill Rodgers home.

Grady Hamrick of Lubbock spent the week-end here with his wife.

Several attended singing at Plainview Sunday.

In the interscholastic League meet Friday Canyon won two first places and five second places.

Miss Alta Bowers spent the week-end with her parents at Snyder.

Canyon News

Mrs. J. G. Lane, Correspondent

A large crowd, including several visitors from other places, attended singing Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCarter and daughters, Eula Mae and Ethel, Mrs. Ray McCarter and children, Clela Beth and Billy, are visiting at Slation.

Very ill, who has been ill, became very ill Saturday morning.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Prather and children, who have moved from the Martin community, into our community.

Mrs. Erdice Stock of Plainview spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gillmore.

Mrs. T. I. Bynum is visiting her daughter and family, Mrs. Arthur Turner, in New Mexico.

Billy Jack Scott had his tonsils removed the latter part of last week.

Rev. Harvey Carrell of Abilene spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Eades and daughter, Edith, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henley of Snyder. Mr. Henley is ill.

Mrs. Gilbert Merritt returned to her home in Midland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Huffman have moved to the Plainview community.

Mrs. Forest Huffman, formerly of this community but now of Abilene, underwent an operation last Thursday. At last report she was doing fine.

We wish to extend sympathy to Mrs. H. G. Moore and other relatives in the loss of her father, who passed away several days ago.

Among the winners in the county meet at Snyder were Paynell Bentley and Burrell Eicke of Crowder, who won first place in sixth and seventh grade spelling; Pat Martin and H. P. Galyean of Crowder, who won first place in arithmetic.

Grandmother, Bentley spent Friday night in the homes of Mrs. Pavenport and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Maxwell of Snyder.

Mrs. S. E. McHaney and son, Billy, returned home Saturday after two weeks visit in San Antonio and other points in the South with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carrell accompanied their son, Rev. Harvey Carrell, to Colorado Sunday afternoon to join friends to return to Abilene.

Rev. Harvey Carrell brought an inspiring message Sunday morning at the Methodist church.

BLACK-DRAUGHT

"Such a Good Laxative," Says Nurse

Writing from her home in Festus, Mo., Mrs. Anna LaPlante says: "I am a practical nurse and I recommend to some of my patients that they take Black-Draught, for it is such a good laxative. I took it for constipation, headache and a dull feeling that I had so much. A few doses of Black-Draught—and I felt just fine."

Because so many people know from having used it that Black-Draught is a good, purely vegetable laxative, millions of packages of it are sold every year.

SUMMARY OF 1934 AND PLANS FOR PRESENT YEAR CITED BY AGENT

Following is the final section of the county agent's annual report, as published in The Times during the past several weeks. In this section, the work of 1934 is summarized, and plans for 1935 are presented. The report follows:

Most of the county agent's work during 1934 has been centered around various programs of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration with the principal attention being given to cotton and cattle, each bringing in about the same total revenue, and their combined total being above 90 per cent of the grand total.

The setting up of community and a county organization among the farmers was made easier by the group meetings, as well as group action of the AAA program. These organizations are developing slowly and surely, with a growing realization of their value by the farmers themselves.

AAA Sets 1934 Pace. The 4-H Club work was not developed because of the severe drought that prevented any feeding of livestock or satisfactory crop production practices. The other regular Extension activities have been kept in the background due to the extra AAA work.

The plan of work for 1935 is not in the cut-and-dried stage, but is being developed in cooperation with the community and county agricultural associations at their various meetings in January. These groups are suggesting the phases of agricultural work that they are interested in and are electing a chairman to aid the agent in each special line of work for that community.

Great stress will be laid upon group demonstrations on the part of the county agent and more time will be spent in the field than ever before.

Efficient Office Force. With the adjustment assistant to oversee the office, and with efficient help to handle the different programs in the office, the agent will have this extra time to spend in the field, and maintain the farmer contacts on the farms.

At present the 4-H Club work looms up as next to the AAA work in importance, with the tilling of gardens and terracing of farms as the important engineering phase. Farm record keeping is coming in for its share of attention just now. The encouragement of seed plots will be important and can be

Fluvanna News

Mrs. L. A. Haynes, Correspondent

Our community was made sad last week by the death of Grandmother McGregor and J. T. Beavers. Both passed away last Tuesday, March 26. Funeral services were held at the Methodist Church Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. McGregor. Bro. McDonald officiated and Odum Funeral Home of Snyder was in charge. Mrs. McGregor was 74 years of age. She had been an invalid for about three years. She leaves many friends and loved ones to mourn her passing. She made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Sam Wooten. Those who survive besides Mrs. Wooten are Mrs. Sam Beaver of Fluvanna, Green Lane of Ira, Mrs. Rosa Cocks of Clairemont, Lee Lane of Weatherford, and Dee Lane of California, Mrs. Lillie Bradley of Knox County, who were unable to attend the funeral.

Funeral services were held for J. T. Beavers Thursday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beaver. J. T. left many friends and loved ones. The teachers and his school mates showed their love through the beautiful floral offerings. Those who survive him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beaver; two brothers, W. J. of Roscoe and Leo of Fluvanna; two sisters, Mrs. Pat Jones of Fluvanna and Mrs. J. B. Stines of Ames, Iowa. W. J. is spending this week with his parents and Mrs. Stines will spend several weeks with homefolks.

A revival meeting will be held at the Methodist Church next week. Bro. McDonald will bring the messages. The meeting will start Sunday at the 11:00 o'clock service. Everyone is invited to attend.

The W. M. S. ladies met Monday afternoon at the parsonage with Mrs. McDonald. Refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, cakes and punch were served to the following: Mmes. J. I. Boren, H. H. Haynes, W. J. Mathis, J. G. Landrum, C. B. Bley, C. F. Landrum, Jephtha H. Landrum, Joe Cavin, R. L. Deere, Wilhite and Josey.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hunnicutt have moved back into our midst. We wish to welcome them back.

WHAT EFFECT DOES FOREIGN COTTON GIVE?

ACCA Man Says No Conclusive Answer Can Be Cited; New Crop Control Discussed.

The question of foreign competition in world cotton raising has bobbed up so much in recent months that The Times has diligently sought an accurate answer. A speech delivered at the recent joint meeting of the American Cotton Cooperative Association and other cotton associations in New Orleans recently, by Sam Bass, assistant general manager of ACCA, may shed some light on the moot question. J. L. Carrell, Scurry County director of the West Texas Cotton Growers Association, was among delegates who heard Mr. Bass say:

"It is a question that has two sides. You can not conclusively prove that crop control has no effect on foreign production, neither can you prove that it has an appreciable effect. When I say 'crop control' I mean decreased production.

The Theory of the Thing.

"Theoretically, a decrease in the production of American cotton without a corresponding increase in foreign production tends to increase the world price of cotton. We would think an increase in price would encourage foreign producers and a decrease in price would discourage them to the end that production would bear some relation to price. When we view the records of past years, however, this statement is not borne out in several instances.

"For instance, the foreign production during the season 1919-20 was 8,540,000 bales. The average price of American cotton for that season was approximately 30 and one-fourth cents per pound. With this extremely high price, one would think that foreign production would increase the following season, but it dropped to 6,531,000 bales, a decrease of approximately 2,000,000 bales.

"Again, in 1931-32, foreign production was 9,658,000 bales. The average price of American cotton for this season was approximately 6 and one-third cents per pound. With this unusually low price, and low prices forecast for the following season, the foreign crop was increased to 10,624,000 bales, or an increase of about 1,000,000. The price for this season averaged 7 and one-third cents per pound.

What Statistics Say.

"I do not think the world's available supply of cotton had anything to do with foreign production in those two years. Statistics do not indicate that foreign production is influenced by the size of the crop in the United States.

"... I believe we should have acreage control regardless of what the foreign producer does. I do not believe in letting nature take its course—the 'cure-all' remedy of the academic economist. One trouble is that we have let nature take its course too long and a lot of this was human nature.

"Production must be reasonably balanced with demand, then let the competitive processes operate to increase both consumption and production."

New Term Used for Dodge Descriptions

Like automobile engineering itself, motor car terminology is becoming more and more scientific, says Horace Elland, local Dodge dealer. At least so it seems when you find yourself looking at one of the new "Synchronatic Dodges" displayed at the Scurry County Motor Company.

What does "synchronatic" mean? Dodge engineers say it is a contraction of two words: "synchronous," meaning happening at the same time or speed, and "automatic," meaning self-acting. The 1935 Dodge presents synchronatic features in front suspension, transmission, automatic engine choke, water circulation and carburetor heat control.

Doc Gore at R. & K. Location.

COUGHING, WEAK AND THIN AFTER FLU

"I nearly died from 'flu' last October, and it left me with a terrible cough.

"I saw Milks Emulsion advertised and started using it. It helped me right from the start. I had no appetite and my stomach was in bad shape. But 12 bottles have straightened me out entirely. I eat anything without distress, my cough is gone and I have gained back my strength and flesh."—Emma Withers, Box 50, Belmont, N. C.

Milks Emulsion restores healthy, natural bowel action. Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened. This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Wonderful for weak, sickly children. You are urged to try Milks Emulsion. Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Following an appendix operation recently, Miss Maudie Mae Lee was able to go home Wednesday.

Mrs. R. B. Robinson had an appendix operation Sunday. Mrs. Robinson lives in the Plainview community.

Jones County Plans Big Singing Sunday

Scurry County singers have been invited to attend the Jones County Singing Convention, to be held in the Hamlin High School auditorium Saturday night and Sunday. Dewey Niedecken of Hamlin, president of the group, was in Snyder yesterday.

Several quartets, concert numbers and other special music will be featured. At 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning gospel singing will prevail. The period from 2:00 to 2:30 o'clock will be set aside for singing old-time gospel hymns by old-time singers.

Teachers Invited to Big Spring Program

Teachers and school patrons of this county have been invited to attend a District 8 program of the State Department of Education at Big Spring Friday night, April 5, at 7:45 o'clock. The meeting will be in the city auditorium.

L. A. Woods, state superintendent, Pat Bullock, rural aid supervisor, and Miss Nell Parmley, all from the state department at Austin, will be on the program.

Mahon Bill Sets Up New Judicial District in Area

Congressman George Mahon introduced a bill in the House of Representatives Monday, providing for the creation of a new federal judicial district in West Texas. The district is outlined to include those counties which have heretofore made up the Amarillo, Lubbock, San Angelo and Abilene divisions. These divisions are now in the Northern District of Texas.

A study of the conditions of the courts now in the Northern District reveals that the four divisions in the proposed new district are from six to 12 months behind with their work. With a new judge resident in the territory included in the new district, the litigants will have advantage of convenience and the efficiency of the court itself should be greatly increased.

In commenting on the bill, Mr. Mahon said: "It is unfair for the people of West Texas to be compelled to travel all the way to Fort Worth or Dallas to contact a federal judge. This is often true when injunctions or special orders are sought. The three present judges of the Northern District reside in Fort Worth or Dallas. I believe that the new court can well be established

Leaders of District Schools to Abilene

Superintendents of the 12 counties in District 3, under the deputy superintendency of Miss Sue B. Mann, met in Abilene Monday morning to outline the testing program for the district. Frank Farmer, Scurry County superintendent, was among them.

The standard testing program for all grades from the first through the sixth will be conducted in all schools, it was pointed out at the gathering. The tests, a part of the state department's new program, will be given soon.

First Christian Church

Our services will be at the usual hours.

The morning sermon subject is "The Gospel Applied to the Ethiopian." Evening sermon subject is "God's Call to Service."

As the spring time brings freshness by the revival of all plant life, let us bring freshness into the lives of our fellowmen by reviving our spiritual selves to a point of consecration never before attained in our lives.

This church welcomes you.—G. E. McPherson.

NEWS Store

Local

These are the two things The Scurry County Times is famous for. All the local events of the week are told in concise fashion, the little and big neighborly things the county is interested in and wants to read about.

Because of its local news, the local merchants want to add their bit by telling of new and seasonable goods on hand, as well as the old every-day staples.

To get all the local news, everyone in this locality must read The Times, of whatever character the news may be. Because almost everyone reads The Times is the reason for so much local Store News attractively displayed in its columns.
