

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERREL HALLMARK

A PLEA HAS gone out to all Cisconians by Mrs. Elmer Denman of our city. Mrs. Denman reported that she recently stayed with her sister because of illness and when she returned home two of her chihuahuas were missing from her home.

Mrs. Denman said they were both males - one was blue and white and the other was a fawn color. The fawn-colored dog has bad hips. She said she believes they were stolen.

She also said another of her chihuahuas, a female, had been beaten with walnuts from a tree in her yard. She said the pet had been beaten so bad that she lost a litter of pups and later died herself.

A reward is being offered for the return of the two missing pets with no questions asked. Mrs. Denman said she has had the dogs since they were two days old and losing them is like losing children.

If you know anything about this incident, I would urge you to contact the proper authorities.

Let's all try and help Mrs. Denman to get her pets back safely.

Executive Vice President. After this nerve-racking experience, Wayne was making a slow comeback until Tuesday. He became sick while in therapy and had to be returned to his room and dispense with therapy until he is feeling better.

Wayne's mother reported Wednesday that she was "Sorry to say he wasn't feeling so good at this time. But he does enjoy visits and cards from his many friends from time to time."

OUR LATEST Report on Wayne Pryor says that a week ago last Wednesday, Wayne began to run a little temperature, then by Saturday, infection had set in and his temperature shot to 104. The I.V. had to be started again, giving antibiotic.

The following Monday night, the shootout at Hendrick Medical Center was in front of Wayne's door, room 4702C. The suspect pulled his ex-girl friend into the room across the hall from Wayne, shot her, then stepped out into the hall, shot a security guard in the hip. A police officer and another security guard shot him.

All three bodies fell within one, two and three feet of Wayne's door, with blood running under the door. Eleven or twelve shots were fired from .357 magnums. One shot went into the room next door, two in the ceiling above the door, others in the rooms across the hall and up and down the hall.

Wayne's mother was standing near the door when the shooting started, needless to say, she immediately moved to Wayne's bedside. When the wounded were seen to, attendants came into the room to see if Wayne was all right.

The next day a large pretty basket of fresh fruit, juice and other goodies was sent up to Wayne with a card saying "with our apologies for any inconveniences caused to you by the incident last evening." It was signed by Michael C. Waters, President, and Tucker Banner,

Sally Goodwin Will Appear In Recital

Sally Goodwin, harpist, will appear in recital, Thursday, October 13, at 7:30 p.m., at Harrell Fine Arts Auditorium, on the campus of Cisco Junior College.

Miss Goodwin studied with Marcel Grandjany at the Juilliard School of Music and has traveled extensively both in Europe and the United States as a recitalist. Following her Carnegie Hall debut in 1978, she toured Europe. She was presented the prestigious Karl-Theodor Medal for her outstanding performance at the Schwetzingen Palace in Germany.

The artistry of Sally Goodwin has placed her in demand on numerous university and artists series. She has performed for heads of state and international dignitaries and government officials. She has appeared at posh hotels such as the Plaza, the Pierre, and the St. Regis of New York. She has also been a featured musician in several Broadway shows, including "The Fantastics" and "A Little Night Music."

Miss Goodwin's experience covers the entire spectrum of performance. She has been harpist with the American Symphony, the Brooklyn and Westchester Symphonies, Musica Sacra of New York, and the Joffrey Ballet. She has appeared with other noted recitalists, such as trumpeter Martin Berinbaum, and she has been featured on public radio and television across the U.S. She has premiered the works of three contemporary composers and recorded four harp solo albums.

Thursday's concert is under the auspices of Cisco Junior College. Admission is $4 for adults and $1 for students.

Civic League Will Not Meet Oct. 13

There will not be a meeting of the Cisco Civic League, October 13, 1983 due to the mini marathon on Monday, October 10.

Kiwanis Club Asks For Rummage Sale Donations

Cisco Kiwanians will be making pickups this week to collect items, anything of value, for their annual rummage sale to be held Saturday, October 15th.

Items such as furniture, toys, tools, equipment, housewares, clothes, may be dropped off at Cisco Lumber and Supply and at Bateas Builders, 203 East 8th, or donors may call 442-2320 and leave their names and addresses for pick up service.

Those who desire a receipt for tax purposes will be given one. Proceeds from the October 15th rummage sale to be held at Cisco Lumber and Supply will help pay for the Kiwanis Christmas toy project and indebtedness on the miniature golf course at Lake Cisco Park.

Mini-Marathon Set Monday

Cisco Civic League will be sponsoring a Mini-Marathon on Monday, October 10, from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at the City Park in West Cisco. Registration will be from 5:30 to 6:00. The Marathon will be around the track at City Park.

Tacos, nachos, and drinks will be sold under the new pavilion. After the race, music will be provided by local students.

CHS Junior Varsity Loboes Keep District Record Clean With Win

Cisco High School's Junior Varsity Loboes kept their district record clean here Thursday night as they defeated the Albany J.V. by the score of 30-8. The Lobo J.V. is now 3-0 in district play and 3-2 for the season.

Cisco's Steve Abbott received the opening kick-off at the 30-yard line and returned it to the 38 to set up Cisco's first drive of the game. With John Gonzales at quarterback and Brian Nichols at center, the Loboes began moving the ball on runs by Danny Kearney and Stanley Callahan. In nine plays, the J.V. had moved the ball to Albany's 11-yard line with five runs by Kearney and four by Callahan. Kearney took the next handoff from QB Gonzales and scored on an eleven-yard run. Another hand off to Kearney netted two extra points making the score 8-0 with 5:46 left in the first quarter.

Cisco's defense prevented Albany from getting a first down on their first possession of the ball and they were forced to punt. Abbott received the punt and Cisco took their second possession of the ball at their own 33-yard line.

Callahan, Kearney and QB Gonzales ran the ball while Abbott received a pass play to move the ball downfield in seven plays to Albany's 13-yard line. A pass from QB Gonzales to Dusty Deitiker scored the second touchdown of the night for the Cisco J.V. A handoff to Kearney gained two more points with 1:21 left in the first quarter of play making the score 16-0.

In the second quarter of S.S. Class Holds Social

The Golden Circle Sunday School Class of East Cisco Baptist held a social on September 29. Each person brought a salad of some type.

The business for the evening was deciding what to do for the class Christmas project. It was decided to collect non-perishables and give to those without.

play, neither team was able to score, although Cisco threatened twice. The first threat was ended by a fumble which was recovered by Albany at their own 13-yard line and the second threat was stopped with a pass interception at Albany's seven-yard line.

Albany's J.V. came back from half-time with a little more life in them and received the second half kick-off from Shelby Nixon at their own 30-yard line and returned it to the 40. Albany eventually moved the ball downfield to Cisco's two-yard line. On their next play they scored. On Albany's first try for two extra points, Cisco was penalized for jumping offsides and they were given a second chance. Their second try was good making the score 16-8 with 4:20 left in the third quarter.

Cisco came right back and Abbott received the ensuing kick at Cisco's 35 and returned it to the 38-yard line. In nine plays, Kearney and Callahan had moved the ball to Albany's two-yard line. A handoff from QB Gonzales to Kearney gained the touchdown with 49 seconds left in the third quarter of play. An incomplete pass to Deitiker failed to gain two extra points leaving the score at 22-8.

In the final quarter of play, Cisco's defense kept Albany playing on their own end of the field during each of their possessions. Cisco also played most of the final quarter of play on Albany's end of the field.

Cisco recovered an Albany fumble at their own 46-yard line for their first possession in the final quarter. On their second play of the quarter, Callahan moved the ball to Albany's 39-yard line. Kearney then moved the ball to Albany's 26-yard line but on his next carry, Kearney fumbled the ball and Albany came up with the recovery.

Albany was able to move the ball to their own 45-yard line in five plays, but Cisco's Michael Wester came up with an Albany fumble at Albany's 38-yard line to stop the drive.

Kearney scampered for 20 yards on his first carry and another four on his second carry of the following Cisco drive. With the ball resting on Albany's 14-yard line, Abbott took the pitch-out but the ball was fumbled and Albany came up with the recovery.

Cisco's defense stiffened and drove Albany backwards forcing them to cough up the ball in a fourth down and 13-yards-needed situation. Cisco's defense stopped the Albany offense and Cisco took over possession of the ball just 13 yards away from the visitor's goal-line.

A run by Kearney moved the ball to the nine and a run by Callahan set it down on the six-yard line of Albany. On the next play, a handoff from QB Gonzales with Kelly Darr at center, Callahan scored the final touchdown of the night. QB Gonzales kept the ball and scored two extra points for Cisco making the final score 30-8 with 1:16 left in the game.

Standouts on Cisco's J.V. defense were Michael Wester, Scott Roberts, Dusty Deitiker, Robert Rains, Brian Nichols, Phillip Allen, Lonnie Pevey, Jeff Dennis, John Gonzales, James Berry and Stanley Callahan.

of play. Trying for two more points, QB Jeffcoat pitched the ball back to Wagon, but he was stopped short of the goal-line giving Cisco an early lead of 6-0.

Albany received the ensuing kick and started their own scoring drive. One minute and two seconds after Cisco's score, Albany scored on an eleven-yard run. An incomplete pass try for two extra points tied up the game at 6-6 with 5:32 left in the first quarter of play.

In the second quarter of play, Cisco moved the ball from Albany's 46-yard line to their 19 with runs by Mark McGinness, Wagon, Andy Woody and QB Jeffcoat in eight plays. On the next play, a handoff to Wagon, the ball was fumbled and Albany recovered killing the drive.

Later in the same quarter, Albany took possession of the ball at their own 14-yard line following a punt by Cisco's McGinness. The Albany quarterback kept the ball during the drive and sprinted 73 yards for another touchdown, the try for two, a pitchback, was good making the score 14-6 with 1:16 left in the second quarter.

In the second half of play,

Albany then proceeded to move the ball downfield until their quarterback was able to sneak across the goal-line from four yards out with 2:03 left in the game. The try for two extra points was good making the final score 22-6.

Defensive standouts for Cisco included David Reyes, Rodney Ledbetter, Andy Woody, Tim Rains, Shannon Berry, Brian Wagon, Robert Webb, Mark McGinness and Joe Flores.

NEARING COMPLETION - A new city park built by the City of Cisco is nearing completion along East 14th Street. It is located near the Little League Baseball Park. The city park has been built by the City using its park funds. A new slide and climber were purchased for the park through the use of Revenue Sharing funds. The slide and climber may be seen in the photo taken Thursday morning at the park. There are also two softball practice fields with back stops available at the park, as well as picnic tables, swings and barbecue pits. Still remaining to be done, according to City Manager Mike Moore, is to "get some grass growing in the park." (staff photo)

CARD OF THANKS
I just want to thank the many friends and neighbors who did so much for us during the illness and death of Joseph Ossmore Milford. A special thanks to all the neighbors who were so helpful and to the ladies of the Harmony Baptist Church and the Nazarene Church. The goodness and kindness of the nursing staff and the employees of Ranger General Hospital will always be remembered. We are truly grateful to Dr. W.P. Watkins, Pastor C.L. Reneau, Rev. You Are Cordially Invited
To Attend the
GREATER MOUNTAIN TOP PENTECOSTAL CHURCH
(U.P.C.)
From the Pastor...
I invite you to join us in worship this year. Join the multitudes of people who come through our doors week after week finding peace, joy, and the answer to the problems that life presents. A church that believes in miracles, divine healing, the baptism of the Holy Spirit, and exalts JESUS AS THE MIGHTY GOD.
It is "old fashioned religion" in all modern facilities! Gospel singing is featured each week. With our two preaching services on Sunday, Bible Study on Wednesday night, and Friday Family Night, your family will be blessed.

Beautiful England By Auto --Steering From Right, 5-Speed

Roses, heather, and poppies were growing all along the railroad tracks from Paris to Calais. We saw some evidences of World War II bombings and found concrete picket fences interesting.

We had the interesting and uneventful experience of going through customs in Folkstone after crossing the English Channel by ferry.

We were fortunate that both our crossings of the channel were in good weather and we had maximum benefit of sight seeing.

We arrived back in London by train about 7:30 p.m. and went back to the Hotel Kennedy where our heavy luggage was stored during our trip to Paris. Our door man welcomed us like long lost friends. We talked about what a good living he must make because he was very good at his job.

We went to Good Friends, a Chinese restaurant, that evening to eat. We had eaten there during our stay in London before going to Paris. The same Chinese waiter waited on us and each time he insisted we eat every bite we were served. Even though we had eaten too much of the delicious food, we ate the remainder at his insistence. This Chinese waiter made me thankful again for my U.S. citizenship, because he told us how much he wanted to come to the United States. He said it was impossible unless someone like us sponsored him. He almost begged, telling us he has a British passport which would help.

We went back to the hotel, repacked and fell in bed around midnight.

We left the Kennedy at 8:00 a.m. on the 29th of June. We had loved London and there was so much more to see, but we were anxious to pick up our rented car and get out in the countryside and visit the people.

Les and Helen took the luggage and went by taxi to the place where we were to get the car. Marian, Clyde, Gilbert, and I went by tube.

The car was a lovely new Peugeot station wagon. The man was telling Gilbert some things about it, and I heard Gilbert say in a voice I had never heard him use before, "But don't you have an automatic." We drove out into the 9:00 a.m. London traffic in this nice, new station wagon with the steering wheel on the right side, five speed gear shift to be shifted with the left hand, driving on the left side of the road. Gilbert says, "With four people screaming wrong directions to him." Marian was too scared to assist us in direction giving.

We were not out of London good when a truck passed us, and a piece of timber, which looked like a cross tie, fell off right in front of us. It was bouncing and hit the ground just as we drove over it. Gilbert held steady, and we got through it fine with a little damage to the station wagon.

For a while, I thought, since the driving in England was so much harder than any of us had anticipated, it was going to ruin the trip. However, Gilbert with his sense of humor just added to the fun of our feeling of independence and never let the wrong directions we gave him upset him at all. He would just laugh, turn around and try it again.

Our lunch was a picnic in a beautiful park in Oxford. We made a stop in North Leach that afternoon for tea. The young couple who ran the tea room had lived in Dallas briefly. I think they enjoyed our visit with them as much as we did. Their quaint little place was over 300 years old. All the houses in North Leach had slate or thatched roofs as did all the houses in the area in which we traveled. The streets were extremely narrow. Our Peugeot was a large car compared to most, and we were really crowded when meeting other cars.

After passing through

Ross on Wye, Tintern and then down a narrow sandy lane, we arrived at Brookland Farm at 5:30. The farm is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Stockdale. We were awed by the beautiful view around the farm. Everything was so green and there were flowers just everywhere.

Mrs. Stockdale served us a wonderful dinner of gazpacho, baked chicken, stuffing with bread sauce, sausage rolled in bacon, cauliflower, potatoes, English peas, scones with butter, and lemon pie. The meringue on the pie was very crisp and was served with whipped cream over it.

After dinner we had coffee in the drawing room. With our coffee we discussed the drive we had had that day. Helen called it "white knuckle day" because of the narrow escapes we had during the drive to Brookland Farm.

Gilbert was fascinated by a hover lawn mower which Mr. Stockdale used. It had no wheels, and the centrifugal force of the blade raised it off the ground. Mr. Stockdale said that it is very dangerous, and many feet have been cut with hover mowers.

After a restful night, we had a large breakfast. Coffee, cereal, milk, grapefruit juice, toast and homemade marmalade were on the table when we sat down. We ate that and all of us except Les thought that must be our breakfast. We were ready to leave the table, but Les insisted we stay. Sure enough Mrs. Stockdale came in and served us eggs, sausage, ham, and broiled tomatoes.

Mr. Stockdale was very friendly and talkative; while Mrs. Stockdale, though friendly, was somewhat shy. They had traveled a good deal and lived in other countries before retiring from 32 years in the army. Mr. Stockdale expressed doubt that the United States would help England if they were involved in war. He also said he did not think England had the will to fight another war such as the World Wars.

June 30th was the day which Helen had been waiting for. We were to visit Cordiff, Wales, where she had taught school for a year. We enjoyed the ride from Tintern to Cordiff. We drove through quaint little towns with narrow streets, houses with thatched or slate roofs, and friendly people. Part of the trip was made on the motorway which is the same as our interstate highways. Everywhere we stopped people were ready to give us directions or just visit.

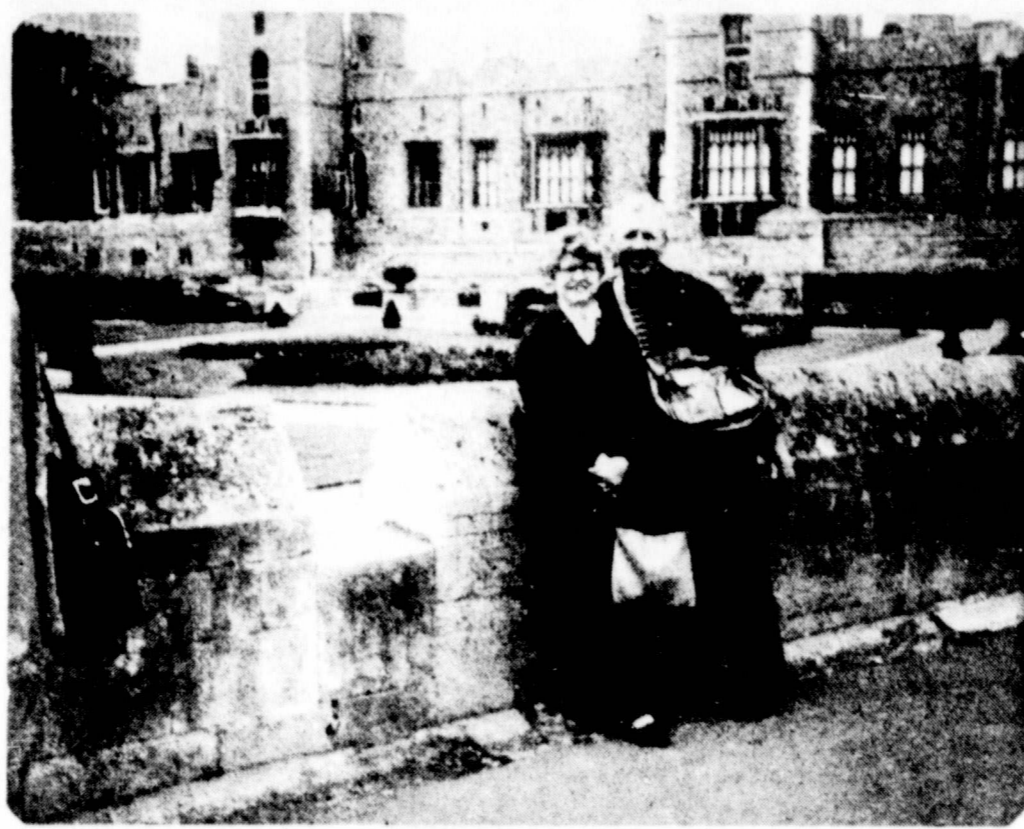

When we arrived in Cordiff, we drove directly to the school where Helen had taught. Though it had been 20 years since Helen had taught there, one teacher was still teaching there. A friendly, young, Welsh man teacher was moving some books and he gave me a set of first grade books which they had used.

We then went to the house where Helen had roomed, and she was so pleasantly surprised when the little old lady with whom she had lived answered the door. We went in and had tea with this real Welsh lady. She kept saying, "I can't believe you came back to see me."

After a wonderful day of visiting with the Welsh people, we returned to Tintern and strolled through the ruins of the old abbey there. It was founded in 1131.

Mrs. Stockdale had a delicious dinner of fruit cup, lamb roast, mint sauce, current jelly, carrots, cabbage, scones, raspberries and cake with cream. We again had coffee in the drawing room.

After dinner, we enjoyed a walk along the narrow, country roads. All the roads were paved, and hedge rows growing on both side were much taller than we were. The roses, fuschia, rhododendron and cottonaster were beautiful all along our walk. I was especially interested in the cottonaster, because I had bought one several years ago just because it was different and I had never seen one before.

By Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Meredith

It was cool enough for us to wear light sweaters, and this was the last time we needed any wraps at all.

On Friday, July 1, we ate our breakfast of homemade raspberry jam, marmalade, orange juice, cereal, toast, eggs, ham, sausage and coffee, packed the car, took pictures of the Stockdales and their dog, Heidi, said, "Goody-by", and were on our way.

Our destination was the Hawkins' dairy farm, Cutsey Farm, which is just outside Taunton. On our way we drove over Bristol Bay and headed for Bath.

In Bath, we took our time during the ruins of the baths which were built by the Romans between 30 and 40 A.D. The bath house is fed by thermal springs. While in Bath, we did some shopping and found good buys in woolen clothing.

We drove on to Wells. While we were in a tea room having tea and pastry, a policeman was giving us a parking ticket.

While the men fretted over the parking ticket, Helen, Marian, Clyde, and I visited Wells Cathedral which I thought was more beautiful than St. Paul's in London.

When we returned to the men, we found they had received advice from a policeman to throw the ticket away.

Driving from Wells, we headed to Taunton and Cutsey Farm. After we reached Taunton, we turned onto country roads where the hedgerows were much taller than the car, and they touched the car on both sides. The roads were a hopeless maze, so we stopped to ask for help. The doctor who lived in the house where we stopped sent his son to lead us to Cutsey Farm. The roads are so confusing there is no way he could give us directions.

With the help of the doctor's son, we did find Cutsey Farm. Mrs. Hawkins was prepared for us. Our flat had three bedrooms, a bath, a large living room with color T.V., and a kitchen which was completely equipped with all the usual things plus a clothes washer, dish washer, electric tea kettle, iron and ironing board. She had placed a fresh flower arrangement in each room. The arrangements were made of snapdragons, roses, and the largest sweet peas I had ever seen. She served us tea and had put milk, eggs, and bacon in the refrigerator and a loaf of freshly baked bread on the cabinet.

Before we started to drive into Taunton the next morning, Saturday, July 2, we put a Cowboy football sticker on the back of the car and a sign that said, "U.S.A. Driver." We enjoyed seeing Taunton and buying groceries, as we planned to prepare some of our own meals while at Cutsey Farm.

We were up early July the third prepared breakfast and headed for Oxmoor. As we drove along the country roads, we saw plants and flowers growing everywhere -- tops of chimneys, rock walls, roofs -- everywhere!

The foxglove and ferns, which grew just about everywhere you looked, were beautiful.

We saw almost no new building, but many places were being renovated.

Even though we saw no terracing, there was no evidence of erosion even in the hilly country.

We ate a picnic lunch in the park near Dunster Castle in Dunster. This was a most elegantly furnished castle which had been carefully maintained and lived in until a few years ago. Only two families have owned it since it was built 1000 years ago.

On leaving Dunster, we headed for Bristol Bay. The country was very mountainous and Gilbert drove in low gear for miles and miles. We saw many different kinds of sheep in this area; the most interesting having very long shaggy wool. In this area, we saw moors. The tedious drive seemed worth it when we looked down upon the beauty of Bristol Bay.

We saw many people sitting in lawn chairs enjoying the sunshine along the roadside. There would be no park or house in sight. They simply drove out into the country, set up their lawn chairs and sat there enjoying the sun.

We always got lost in the maze of narrow (always paved) roads with their hedgerows back to Cutsey Farm. All the cross roads looked just alike. When we found Cutsey Farm again, we had driven 141 miles that day. That doesn't sound like much in the U.S., but it was a long way on those narrow, crooked roads.

We got up early on July 4th, had breakfast, packed a lunch and headed out for another day of adventure. We crossed the Rye River on the way to Salisbury where we did some sight seeing. We then drove to Stonehenge crossing Avon River on the way.

Stonehenge was an amazing sight. There is no evidence to indicate who built this massive structure of why, although it is thought that it was erected about 4,000 years ago as a religious and cultural center of early herding clans. Farmers were baling hay only 50 feet away from the huge stones.

William Hawkins, the oldest son, took us out to see their 90 dairy cows that afternoon. William, who had his eighteenth birthday while we were there, had taken the entire responsibility of the dairy because of his father's terminal illness. This young man amazed us with his knowledge about each cow. He knew absolutely everything about each one. Standing there in the pasture, he told us how many heifer and bull calves each cow had had, the temperament of each cow, whether the cows calves had good temperaments or not, the amount of feed each cow received, how much milk she produced, the butter fat of the milk, how old she was, and on and on. They fed the cows according to the amount of milk given. The less milk a cow gave; the less feed she got.

It took Williams two hours to do the milking, and he still had the cleaning up to do. He did all of this and went to high school. They had one hired hand who helped him.

The Hawkins dairy had Freisein and Holstein cows. The Freiseins are colored like a Holstein but are built like a beef cow. They were crossing the two breeds because the short legs of the Reisein caused their heavy udders to almost touch the ground. They wanted the beef of the Freisein with the longer legs of the Holstein.

Gilbert was particularly interested in agriculture in general in Britain. He had observed in our traveling about that farm people take a great deal of pride in their crops and livestock. In his opinion, he found British farmers very efficient. He visited with several farmers at a cattle auction and found they use the most modern and exact methods in their operations. Technology is similar to ours, but it seemed to him they make more efficient use of it. They have many farm community meetings, and the entire community attends. Farm subsidies are similar to ours. They use highly skilled techniques in conserving water and soil on their farms. Farms are much smaller there than here; therefore, more individual attention is given each detail.

We noticed there was a huge pile of animal waste on Cutsey Farm and asked William if they sold it. His reply was, "Oh, no, it is much too valuable to sell. We use it on our own fields."

As we left Cutsey Farm for our excursion for the day on July 5th, we went to Shepley's Cider Farm where we went through an interesting museum and saw how cider is made.

We had enjoyed Wells so much on July 1 in spite of the parking ticket, we decided to go back. When we got there, Clyde, Marian, Helen, and I decided to shop a little, so Gilbert and Les decided to see one of the cathedrals. While in one, Gilbert, noticed a Masonic emblem, and he asked a little old man there about it. The man, Mr. Rice, was tiler in the lodge there, and when he found Gilbert and Les were Masons; he took them all around Wells introducing them as his American friends. He took them to the Wells lodge and had Gilbert unlock the door so he could say he had opened the Wells lodge. He also gave each of them an apron to present to their lodges here at home.

Mr. Rice told them that the London Philharmonic Orchestra was to play in Wells Cathedral that night, and we must stay to hear it. He offered us his private parking space at the cathedral, so we stayed and heard Franz Schubert's Symphony No. 8 (Unfinished), Horn-Concerto No. 2 in E flat by Richard Strauss, and Symphony No. 4 in E minor, Op 98 by Johannes Brahms. All of which were beautiful.

We went into the cathedral quite early to wait for the performance, and many priests came in for evensong. Their wonderful voices in this lovely cathedral were a moving sound to hear.

We enjoyed our evening so much, but we dreaded trying to find Cutsey Farm after dark. We found it easily by 11:00 p.m., and were all so grateful for the experience which we had had.

July 6th was a restful day, for we did not leave the flat until about 11:15. We went into Taunton to a good museum then drove to Wellington to the monument to the Duke of Wellington. It was built in 1817. The citizens said the Duke never visited Wellington, but they just wanted to build a monument for him.

We were up at 5:45, had breakfast, and left the flat by 7:45 on July 7th. We planned to go to Exeter but on the way we decided to go to Plymouth instead.

We found Plymouth and the bay to be a beautiful place with such friendly people we found it hard to believe we were strangers in a foreign country. There are many modern buildings (a rare sight) as it was bombed severely during World War II. The ruins of a large cathedral were left as a memorial for the Civilians who were killed during the war.

As we sailed along the bay, seeing frigates that had participated in the Falkland Islands War, nuclear subs, warships, and a World War II submarine, it was hard to imagine the Pilgrims sailing away from here in the Mayflower so many years ago.

We had seen clotted cream in grocery stores ever since we started traveling about the country and wanted to try it. We did eat some with strawberries in Plymouth. It was rich and good but not what we had expected. Mrs. Hawkins had told us that it is a lot of trouble to prepare.

The car was loaded, and we were ready to leave Cutsey Farm by 5:00 a.m. on July 8th. This was the only day we had a lot of fog and we had 140 miles to drive from Cutsey Farm to our hotel on the other side of London.

It took us two hours of driving in very heavy traffic to get across London. We probably never would have found our way if it had not been for a very helpful policeman.

Our hotel, the Copthorne, was very nice with beautiful grounds, and we had a very good dinner our last night in Britain.

We had driven 1194 miles in our rented car, and I still marvel at how wonderfully Gilbert handled the task of driving while giving all the rest of us many good laughs because of his even disposition and good sense of humor.

We had to leave our hotel at 7:45 a.m. on July 9th to go to Gatwick Airport. Gilbert left his cowboy hat on the bus, and we didn't think of it until we were already in the

Sunday, Oct. 9, 1983

American Airlines line to check out our luggage. We just said "So what, it's gone." We turned around to see the bus driver coming toward us with cowboy hat in hand. When he spotted the hat on his bus he got it and hunted us up to return it to Gilbert. We all agreed this was indicative of the helpfulness we had received the entire 21 days of our trip. We landed at D.F.W. at 1:15 p.m. to end a trip we could never forget because of a beautiful country of friendly, helpful people.

Drilling Bits

A 4,500 ft. developmental well is planned by Delta Oil & Gas Co. of Breckenridge. The location is in Stephens County's T&PRR Co. Survey. Well designation is the No. 1 Garland Cuddy "B". It is in the Stephens Regular Field.

Seely Oil Co. of Ft. Worth has filed for permit to drill below casing on the No. 2 T.P. Robertson "61". It is a 4,500-ft. developmental well in the Ann T. (Mississippi) Field. Drillsite is one mile northeast of Crystal Falls. Location is in a 160-acre lease in Stephens County's BBB&CRR Co. Survey.

At a location two miles east of Brazos, Chester R. Upham, Jr. of Mineral Wells has finished a new gas producer in Palo Pinto County's Calabria Conglomerate Field.

The well is designated at the No. 1 Calabria Dobbs Valley. It indicated ability to flow 412,000 Cf gas per day on a 7/8-in. choke. It was rated at 1,075,000 CFD on ab-

Location is in a 160-acre lease in the Allen Williams Survey. Bottomed at 4,365 feet, the well will produce from perforations 3,800 to 3,806 feet into the hole.

Echo Production Inc. of Graham has finished two new gas wells in Palo Pinto County's T&PRR Co. Survey.

The No. 2 Charlsie Orme CF gas per day on a one-inch choke. It was given an identical rating on absolute open Texas crude oil production totaled 71,991,989 barrels in July, according to Railroad Commission Chairman Mack Wallace.

This figure compares with June production totaling 70,324,492 barrels and July 1982 production of 73,487,527 barrels.

Texas oil production averaged 2,322,322 barrels daily in July 1982.

The July 1983 production allowable totaled 94,083,593

The No. 2 Bert Simmons indicated ability to flow 176,000 CF gas per day on a half-inch choke. It too was given an identical rating on absolute open flow. The well, located in the Palo Pinto Regular Field, is located in a 280-acre lease three miles south of Brad. The well will produce from an interval 3,544 to 3,705 feet into the wellbore. Total drilling depth was 4,200 feet.

barrels. Texas oil production was 23.48 percent under the allowable for the month.

The state's top producing counties in July were Pecos, 4,262,142 barrels; Ector, 3,773,567 barrels; Gaines, 3,743,948; Yoakum, 3,650,018 barrels; Andrews, 3,229,514 barrels; Hockley, 3,179,955 barrels; Gregg, 3,167,119 barrels; Scurry, 2,547,869 barrels; Crand, 2,155,001 barrels; and Refugio, 1,916,546 barrels.

Reduced Rate Approved

The Railroad Commission has approved a change in contract gas rates between Delhi Gas Pipeline Corp. and Lone Star Gas Co. that will decrease the cost of gas for customers of Lone Star.

The exact effect of the change on particular residential, commercial and other customers of Lone Star gas depends on several variable factors. One factor is the percentage of gas Lone Star purchases under the new contract as compared to the total amount of gas the company buys through all contracts. Other factors are the individual gas rate structures that exist between Lone Star and the cities and other customers it serves with gas.

The new rate will be $4.59 per MMBtu (million British thermal units) of energy. Although Btu value varies with the quality of gas, a thousand cubic feet of gas contains approximately one million Btu's on the average. The old rate was $5.91 per MMBtu.

11 Amendments

Let me begin by saying that you are in for some very "dry" reading. There is no way to make constitutional amendments sound exciting but please do read about them.

On November 8th, eleven (11) constitutional amendments will be on the ballot for the people to vote either for or against. For the benefit of the voters in my district, over the next few weeks I will be explaining each proposal stating the views of both supporters and opponents of each. I do this in hope that you will all get out to cast an informed ballot whether or not you are in favor or opposed to the proposed amendments.

Proposition -1 on the ballot would allow counties with a population of less than 30,000 to have fewer than 4 constables and justice-of-the-peace precincts.

Supporters say many small counties do not need 4 constables and 4 JP's and requiring that many for smaller counties serves no purpose and waste the county's money. They feel it is much better to have one qualified and adequately paid JP and constable rather than 4 to 8 who are under-qualified and underpaid.

Opponents say lowering the number of elected local officials sets a bad precedent and could be cited by a future Legislature to help justify cutting the number of county commissioners.

Proposition -2 would replace the urban homestead exemption from a $10,000.00 limit to a one acre limit and would be retroactively applied to all homesteads in Texas.

Supporters feel since urban land values are inflated, the constitutional exemption is protecting fewer and fewer urban homesteads from forced sale for debt. The $10,000.00 exemption used to be reasonable but now may represent just a fraction of the value of a newly-purchased lot, leaving anyone purchasing a lot for more than that amount without homestead protection.

Since more and more often creditors stand to gain something by forcing a sale, naturally they are doing so and the current exemption does not protect people's homesteads as it was intended. Supporters also say basing the exemption on land area instead of value would make periodic revisions of the exemption limit unnecessary. Rural homestead exemption has always been figured by area, not dollar value.

Opponents feel one-acre for an urban homestead is too much and treats claimants in different locations unfairly. Land in an affluent section of a large town is more valuable than land in a poorer section. They feel making it retroactive would be harmful to creditors who now have contracts and might be found to unconstitutional. Some opponents feel the $10,000.00 is too generous since it does not include improvements, such as a home, and a homestead claimant can invest large sums of money making improvements yet creditors would not be able to get money owed to them because the investment was in the homestead.

Proposition -3 would authorize the Legislature to enact legislation (which it has already done contingent on passage of this proposal) that permits commodity boards to collect a refundable fee on product sales if the fee is approved by a referendum of the producers. The fee would be used by the board to promote the production and marketing of that agricultural product. Passage of this proposition would allow SB 7 to take effect. This legislation which was passed last session permits commodity boards established before September 1, 1983 to adopt a rule denying an exemption of the fee at the time of process or sale of the product; however, the producer may still apply for a refund of that fee. Should any commodity boards be established after September 1, 1983 or should the territory of an existing board be expanded, producers, themselves, could vote to deny the exemption. Refunds of the fee would still be allowed. Should this proposition fail SB 7 would have no effect.

Supporters say that commodity boards do a good job which is beneficial to producers and that they need the fees to carry out their programs of promotions, marketing and researching their products. If revenue is cut, the influence of Texas boards will be diluted a time the national commodity organizations are enlarging or expanding foreign markets for their members.

Opponents say that even though the fee is refundable upon request, it is still a forced fee if there is no option for exemption in the first place. They feel commodity boards are not so popular with agricultural producers that they should be granted special taxing powers. Opponents say Texas voters have rejected similar propositions twice before and it should be permanently laid to rest.

Hopefully these admittedly very brief explanations have been informative and will help you in making a decision on how to vote on the propositions. Next week I will continue discussion on propositions 4, 5, and 6. It is not my intent to sway you in anyway; however if you would like additional information on a particular proposition, please contact my Austin office for a more complete analysis which has been done by the House Study Group, a research group funded through money from many representatives' office budgets.

The Garden Editor

Ted Brice

This day and time we hear the word recycle used with almost everything. The gardeners have been recycling for hundreds of years by using compost.

There is no item in the original state that has a claim on the word compost. Compost is a decayed product of nature that has changed from its natural state into a decomposed state. To understand the composting procedure, think of it as a way of speeding up the natural decomposition of organic waste material (plant, vegetable and fruit) by micro-organisms, such as fungi and bacteria which consume this waste and produce nutrient-rich compost. In the forest this process takes many years.

There are packaged compost items made from animal manure, gin waste, rice hulls, sugar cane, pine, saw dust ect.

You can make your own compost. This can be done by accumulating your grass clippings, leaves and garbage in what is called a compost pile. These items are added to a controled pile and the decayed or composted material is removed from the bottom of the pile. As the items decay the center of the compost pile builds up a very high heat and in some commercial companies piles of compost has caught fire with this extream heat. Composting micro-organisms produce heat within the pile due to the excess energy they release. This in turn promotes faster composting. However, it is necessary to prevent this excess energy from escaping at a faster rate than it is generated.

Micro-organisms require water for reproduction and decomposition activities; therefore, the material must remain moist. It is necessary to regulate the moisture content which will vary with the type of material. Basically the moisture is sufficient when the surface of the particles glisten - the material should be as damp as a well squeezed-out sponge. You should check the moisture content frequently.

If there is an excess of high-carbon materials (dead leaves), extra nitrogen may be added as an activator. The best organic activators are packaged or animal manures, dried blood, real bone meal, and hoof and horn meal. Some commercial activators are high in nitrogen but chemically prepared (such as lawn fertilizer), and thus may adversely effect efficient natural organisms including earthworms. The resultant compost may also not have the same disease-resident properties.

Most commercially prepared activators contain inoculants of several types of organisms, enzymes and hormones which have to be dissolved in water. This often makes the conditions too wet, and causes an unpleasant putrid smell. These chemical preparations are not essential if local bacteria are present from garden soil. I recommend compost by Phostrogen, applied in powder form.

There are many home compost bins some are very good but most lack several of the necessary items needed to make good compost. The English have been composting for many years and we can benefit from their years of experience.

The Barclay Rothschild Company of Toronto, Canada is making this experience available to the gardeners of the United States by offering the "Soilsaver" and the Rapirotter" compost bins. If you would like more information on this comp: t bin write "The Garden Editor" care of this newspaper.

GOOD GARDENING UNTIL NEXT WEEK FROM YOUR GARDEN EDITOR, TED BRICE!!

Old rip, who is said to have slept peacefully in the Eastland County Courthouse for 32 years, apparently has several descendants in the county. He was well-represented in the children's Pet Show Saturday afternoon as the final event of the Eastland County Fair was judged.

As on category - the Smallest Pet - was announced, children coaxed their protesting cats and dogs into the arena. however, three youngsters walked in clutching small jars, and the judge awarded first place to "George Trout" a tiny horned toad owned by Tommy Seay of Gorman; second to "Bob Trout," a slightly larger toad shown by Sharla Trout" and third to the largest toad shown, "Sally Trout," owned by Shundra Trout. Each child participating in the show was awarded a silver dollar.

Best of show in the Adult Division of the Handcrafts Department went to Tammy Belyew and Best of Show in the Youth Division of the department went to Laura Brown. In the Baked Goods Department, Best of Show was awarded to Muri Campbell, Adult Division, and Kelly Muirhead, Youth Division. Living Plants Department top awards went to Mrs. Bill Howell, Adult Division, and Barbara Butler Youth Division.

Students Can Win VFW Awards

Eastland County Sophomore, Junior and Senior students can win more than awards and scholarships when they participate in the VFW Voice of Democracy Scholarship Program, says Commander Sidney High of VFW Post 4136 in discussing the broadcast scriptwriting program conducted annually by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary.

Some of the fringe benefits, according to Commander High, are increased self-confidence and poise, experience in communicating with others and valuable training in self expression. For the state winners, there is also the broadening experience of a five-day tour of Washington, D.C., and the opportunity to make lasting friendships with the other state winners.

More than 5,000,000 students have participated since the VFW and Auxiliary started the program 22 years ago. Participants write and then tape-record a three-to-five minute broadcast script expressing their views on "My Role in Upholding our Constitution." From among the state winners, six national winners are chosen to receive a total of $32,500 in scholarships.

The Texas Department of VFW has allocated $575,000.00 in awards, bonds and scholarships to this program.

The local VFW has allocated $100.00 for first place, $75.00 for second place and $50.00 for third place.

The national scholarship award for first place will be $14,000, ranging downward to $1,000 to the college of the winners' choice.

One of the greatest benefits to young people who take part in the program, is that by thinking, writing and speaking up for their country, they gain a better appreciation of their obligation to maintain our nation's freedom heritage, Commander High said.

On the local level, Nov. 30, is deadline for entry of the material. Students interested in entering the contest should contact their principals, counselors, or Commander High at the Eastland VFW Post, or L.B. Holly at 600 W. Sadosa St.

Judging will be based on delivery, originality and content.

Lights From The Christian World

by Josephine Cleveland

Someone handed me a tract. I read, "Our God wants a people who will not only pray but also praise Him. Praise changes things. You kneel in prayer, yet do not contact God. Try praising Him and He will flood your soul with His divine presence.

The Psalmist David in Psalm 98:4 exhorts the people to make a loud noise, rejoice and sing praise unto the Lord. If the world can make a loud noise during recreation hours, how much more should His people glorify His name by giving Him praise continually. "His praise shall continually be in my mouth." Psalm 34:1.

It is necessary my friend, for God commands it. "Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord." Psalm 150:6.

Again you say you do not feel like praising God. "Let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God." Hebrews 13:15. If you are in a testing place, surrounded by circumstances which point to defeat, praise the Lord for five minutes, and in the glory of God's presence all things will be possible.

Yes, learn to praise God now, for heaven will be filled with the praises of the redeemed. "And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of might thunders, saying Alleluia, for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth."

PROCLAMATION
BY THE
COUNTY JUDGE OF Eastland COUNTY

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I, Scott Bailey, County Judge of Eastland County, do hereby declare the week of October 9-15, 1983, as FIRE PREVENTION WEEK in Eastland County, for the following reasons:

WHEREAS, according to the National Fire Protection Association; the 1981 fire loss totals are as follows; United States - 6,823 deaths; from 2,893,500 total fires; total dollars lost $6,676,000,000;

WHEREAS, NFPA Also provides these additional facts:

- * The majority of multiple-death fires occurred during the winter months.
- * Cigarettes continue to be the leading cause of accidental multiple-death fires in residential properties.
- * 78.5 percent of the fires were reported between 8:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m., the time range when most people were sleeping
- * In the category of deaths per million population; Texas ranked at 26 or greater, but less than 34. Texas recorded 348 deaths due to fires, burns in 1981.
- * The largest dollar loss fire for 1981 occurred in Lynn, Massachusetts. Loss was estimated at $70 million.
- * For most large-loss US fires, the premises were unoccupied. 57.0% - No one on premises.
- * Almost 29% of reported large-loss fires were of incendiary or suspicious origin.

WHEREAS, this year's theme for FIRE PREVENTION WEEK is "LEARN NOT TO BURN ALL THROUGH THE YEAR"; now, THEREFORE, I urge all citizens of Eastland County to join hands in "observing" this special period by working fifty-two weeks ("ALL THROUGH THE YEAR") to fully realize the benefits of FIRE PREVENTION WEEK.

Signed Scott Bailey
County Judge

Senior Citizens Nutrition Menu

Are you not in hot water? Don't be. Water-heaters get set too high and not only waste money, they also deliver scalding hot water that can give you a bad burn. Take a temperature reading at the hot water tap nearest the water heater. The National Safety Council suggests 120 degrees as a safe "high" temperature. If your water is hotter than that, turn down the regulator on the heater. Be thrifty and safe!

The programs for the week included: Tommy and Debbie Ferrell and their country and western band; The home health representatives explaining about their program and assisting us; and Dr. and Mrs. M.A. Treadwell who played the musical saw and piano. Dinner music by Gerald Parks and Marguerite King.

The Menus for the coming week will be:

MONDAY: Beef pattie, pinto beans, apple-carrot-celery salad, cherry cobbler, cornbread, bread, butter and drink.

WEDNESDAY: Cheese meat loaf, buttered corn, lima beans, pineapple-cheese jello, bread, butter and drink.

FRIDAY: Oven fried steak, cream gravy, white kernal corn, spinach, banana cake, bread, butter and drink.

Comptroller's Rep. To Be In Eastland

A representative of Comptroller Bob Bullock's Office will be in Eastland, October 13, 1983, to assist local taxpayers and answer questions about the state taxes.

Jerry Franklin will meet with taxpayers at the Eastland County Courthouse in the Commissioner's Courtroom on the 2nd floor, Thursday, October 13, 1983, from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

If local merchants, or anyone else for that matter, have any questions about state taxes or need help in preparing tax forms, we will be there to assist them," Bullock said.

The Brownwood office serves Brown, Coleman, Comanche, Eastland, McCulloch, Mills, San Saba, and Stephens counties and is located at 300 North Main Building, Suite J. The office is open from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The telephone number is 915/643-1557.

Times Announced For Music

Time-frames for Elementary School Music recognition practices for UIL competition has been announced by Davene Jeffcoat, Cisco Music Teacher, and Melinda Draper, Eastland Music Teacher, sponsors.

Geared to expose students in grades three through six different kinds of classical music, the various pieces will be played over the radio and students are asked to practice recognizing and being able to write the title of the piece and the composer, according to UIL rules.

The music will be played at KVMX-FM during these time frames: between 6:30 and 7:30 a.m. and 4:30 and 5:30 daily; between 9 and 10 a.m., Saturdays.

County News Briefs

RANGER

The Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (MADD) will have a presentation Monday, Oct. 10, at 6:00 p.m. in the Ranger School Auditorium. This presentation will be for the Ranger PTA, but the public is invited to attend.

There will be a series of gospel services at the Eastside Church of Christ in Ranger, Sunday through Friday, Oct. 9-14. Hayse Reneau, minister of the Walnut Street Church of Christ in Greenville, Texas, will be the guest speaker. Sunday services will be at 9:45 a.m., 10:45 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. Monday - Friday, meetings will begin at 7:30 p.m. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

EASTLAND

Fire Prevention Week will be noted in Eastland with a series of programs at Siebert Elementary School, Oct. 10-14. The Eastland Volunteer Fire Department and Eastland local Insurance Agencies are sponsoring these Fire Prevention programs, which will include talks and demonstrations. Parents and interested persons are invited to the last event, a Water Display at 1:00 p.m. They are requested to be on the grounds and parked by 12:45.

Glenda Agnew of Cisco, named "Artist of the Month" for the Eastland County Art Association, is exhibiting her paintings through October at Eastland National Bank. Mrs. Agnew particularly enjoys painting landscapes, and a number of them are on display. The public is invited to view this exhibit.

County Extension Agent DeMarquis Gordon urges all persons interested in pecan production to take a pecan tour Monday, Oct. 10. Three Extension Specialist, Dr. Sammy Helmers, Dr. Chip Lee and Dr. Jesse Cocke will be on the tour to discuss disease and insect problems and answer questions. The tour will begin at 9:30 at Billy Dennis's orchard in Gorman, and conclude at the L.N. Wetwiska's pecan orchard in DeLeon. The tour will be completed by noon.

An election for a Director to serve in Zone 5 of the Upper Leon Soil and Water District will be held Tuesday, Oct. 11, at Eastland County Livestock Show Barn, at approx. 7:45 p.m. The election will be preceded by a tour of brush controlled by Graslan pellets, 6:00 p.m., and a hamburger supper at 7:00 p.m. Zone 5 covers the east half of Eastland County, and Norman Moore is the current Chairman of the Board.

Donna Sabir Castanon, R.N., will begin another series of Lamaze Childbirth Education Classes Monday, Oct. 10, 7:00 p.m. in the Eastland National Bank Conference Room. The classes will continue for six weeks. For further information call 629-3404 after 5:00 p.m.

RIISING STAR

The Rising Star Rural Fire Department is in need of more members. The Volunteer group stresses that fighting a fire during a drought takes many hands. The group will meet Monday, Oct. 10, at the First State Bank Conference Room. Members and anyone interested in joining are urged to attend.

RETIRING OR MOVING?

At least 18 per cent of the people in America will move this year. And many of you are thinking about retiring. These decisions are a part of your life and will affect at least one out of every five of your family and friends soon.

When making your retiring and moving decisions you'll soon discover that you've really accumulated a lot of possessions in the last few years. And you'll quickly see that it will be very difficult, time consuming and quite expensive to haul your possessions across the country or even around town.

But, you can turn these accumulated possessions into quick cash by holding an auction. A well planned auction can cash out your entire household in just a few short hours. And, I provide complete auction service so you don't have to worry about a single detail.

It's a whole lot easier to have an auction and put cash in your wallet than it is to put your piano, refrigerator & hide a bed in a truck. And remember, when it comes to buying or selling AUCTION'S BEST!

CISCO

The City of Cisco received a check for $500 from an anonymous donor who requested that it be paid on the proposed city wastewater treatment plant. Apparently the check was the result of a letter city water customers received with their bills, telling that the city must build a new facility.

The Kiwanis Club of Cisco is accepting donations for their annual Rummage Sale, which will be held Oct. 15. Chairman Joe Wheatley states that clothes, toys, dishes, anything of value will be appreciated. Donations will be received at Cisco Lumber and Supply and at Batteas Builders, 203 East 8th St. Proceeds will be used for the Club's Christmas Toy project and to pay on its Miniature Golf indebtedness.
