

A SPECIAL Thanks to the lady who brought in a pair of women's eyeglasses to our office on Thursday. She said she found them in front of the Lone Star Gas building on Conrad Hilton Avenue and she did not know what else to do with them. She said she hoped they would be claimed.

Well, they were claimed that very afternoon. We received a phone call from a lady interested in placing an ad in the paper for a pair of glasses she had lost.

When we asked her if they were in a brown case, she replied yes, and we told her we had them in our office, courtesy of the lady who found them. The woman who claimed the glasses was very thankful.

ONCE AGAIN bad weather is being forecast for our area, with possible snow or freezing rain being the words warning against travel.

If you remember last weekend was also predicted to be bad, but we had to attend a funeral service in Odessa on Sunday and we did not run into any type of precipitation on our trip. On stops in Colorado City and Odessa, we could see small snowflakes every once in a while, but they never did get heavy and nothing was on the highway or grounds.

With that in mind, you probably can go ahead and make plans for this weekend and feel pretty confident of being able to carry them out, since the weather forecasters have not had very good luck this season in predicting the weather.

Now, since I have made my statement on the weather Friday morning, you are probably reading this column on the weekend with a couple of inches of snow on the ground outside. Oh well, you can't be right all the time.

AMTRAK Test To Bisect Eastland County

The Ground Hog may or may not see his shadow on February 2 - but as it now stands, Eastland Counties are scheduled to see something the next day (Feb. 3) they haven't seen in a long, long time.

Passenger rail service - at least a test run - on the rail line that bisects the county.

Not just any service - but Amtrak Service, which in a test run could prove to be the missing link in rail passenger service, bringing the gap between Dallas-Fort Worth and El Paso. And that puts Ranger, Eastland and Cisco right "on the main line."

It could prove to be the boon of the decade, if not the century.

Ranger Mayor Raymond Hart set the wheels in motion, observing that there might be a chance for expanded Amtrak service particularly in Texas. He immediately began a letter writing campaign that's apparently resulting in favorable results.

Mayor Hart this week received official word from Burt C. Blanton, consultant to business and industry in Dallas:

Amtrak's 'test-train'-making the run from Houston via Dallas and Fort Worth to El Paso - will pass through Ranger on Friday, February 3, 1984.

This train will spend Friday night, Feb. 3, in Big Spring, departing on Saturday morning, Feb. 4, for El Paso.

Hopefully, W. Graham Claytor's rumored plan (he is president of the National Railroad Passenger Corporation, known as Amtrak) to re-route Amtrak's "Sunset Limited" (over the above route) will become a reality on or about April 1, 1984.

Mayor Hart suggests that personal letters of encouragement from citizens to President W. Graham Claytor, to his Washington Amtrak Headquarters Office, might be helpful in securing the regular rail passenger service.

(Mr. W. Graham Claytor's address is)

National Rail Passenger Corporation
400 N. Capitol St., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20001

The national Amtrak toll free number is 1-800-872-7245.

Mayor Hart officially wrote Cong. Charles Stenholm on Dec. 8, 1983 and the congressman's response to that letter is as follows:

Dear Mayor Hart:
This is in response to your letter concerning AMTRAK expanded rail service in Texas.

I have contacted AMTRAK officials here in Washington to express my interest in any such proposals. Other city officials in the 17th District have been in touch with on this matter as well, and I had previously corresponded with AMTRAK. A copy of that earlier letter is enclosed.

As I understand it, no formal proposal has yet been made for expanded service to Texas, and such requests usually come from State Transportation officials. You may wish to contact the Texas Highway Department on this matter as well.

Please be assured that I will support any proposal, whether from state or federal officials, to provide more rail passenger service to Texas. I appreciate your writing as you have, and with best wishes, I remain

Member of Congress

Judging from correspondence, letters and contacts to state officials, representatives, senators and the Texas Highway and Transportation Dept. might also be in order.

CJC Cagers Win, At Home Monday Night

Cisco Junior College basketball teams will meet Texas State Technical Institute of Waco in a double header conference program Monday night at the college gym in Cisco. The Lady Wranglers will play at 6 p.m. with the men's game at 8 p.m.

Both the Wranglers and the Lady Wranglers won conference games at Terrell last Thursday night, the Wranglers defeating Southwestern Christian College by a score of 68-67, while the Lady Wranglers beat the SCC team 81-65.

In the men's game, Auldson Robinson of Cisco stole a pass and scored a field goal with :08 on the clock to give the Wranglers a one point win. The SWCC team had a one-point lead and was trying to hold the ball and run out the clock when Robinson made his move and took the ball, dunking it in the basket.

In the women's game, the Lady Wranglers used a full-court press effectively and broke open a tight game and earned a 16-point victory. Barbara Williams scored 28 points to lead the CJC women.

The Wranglers are now 9-7 for the year and 1-2 in conference play, while the Lady Wranglers have a 11-8 record for the season and are 3-0 in conference action.

Friend To Friend

by Jim Hatcher

What do you think of yourself?

The apostle Paul advises, "For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith" (Romans 12:3)

Paul here deals with a very real problem in our self-centered society. We hear on television, read in magazines and every other advertising media that we owe it to ourselves to be Number One! Our sinful world encourages us to step on anyone who would keep us from being king of the mountain.

How contrary this is to God's Word and to our greatest happiness. Paul admonishes the Philippians, "Let nothing be done through strife or vain-glory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others." (Philippians 2:3,4)

What a revolution we would start if we really would begin to practice what the Word of God teaches.

But now neither do we need to go to the other extreme and think less of ourselves than we ought to think. So many go around with such feelings of inferiority that they can not function properly. This also is contrary to God's will.

On one occasion a Pharisee lawyer came to Jesus and asked, "Master, which is the great commandment in the law?" Jesus answered, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, thou shalt love thy neighbor as THYSELF" (Matthew 22:37-39).

You see Jesus wants us to understand that there is nothing wrong with self love. As a matter of fact we need to be concerned about ourselves. But not to the extent of selfishness and pride. Jesus gives the proper balance in this answer to the lawyer. God first, others second, and self last.

AARP Holds

First Meet Of New Year

Below freezing weather disrupted the skit program Louise Allison had planned for the meeting of the AARP on January 19, but Walter and Mrs. Knowlden brought slides of one of their trips into Minnesota with Rose narrating and Walt operating the projector.

Chairman of the various committees gave preview of some of their projected work for the 1984 agenda. In an area tax-aid program, Chairman Knowlden announced that beginning January 23 an IRS instructor from Dallas will be at the senior center for a week's training program. In training from Cisco will be Sue Taylor, Johnnie Jeffcoat, Walt Knowlden, Louise Allison and Josephine Cleveland.

Retiring president Knowlden was presented an AARP tie-tac by incoming president Rev. O.T. Killion.

Louise Allison announced these confirmed programs: a meteorologist from Abilene speaking on the duties of a weatherman with emphasis on tornado protection; District Attorney Walton on crime prevention; a chalk artist; Fire Marshall, Bill Webb; Cisco history and colorful Ciscoans, Bill Roberts; Wills and Estates, Attorney Virgil Seaberry. Chairman Allison also has some other unconfirmed programs including a musical one but she is holding them in abeyance until they are accepted by the performers.

Retiring treasurer, Velma Joyner, read a thank you note from the Andrus Foundation to which the chapter sent a $57.00 Christmas offering.

During the business session, the president welcomed two guests: Stella Avery and Margaret Cozart. He mentioned that the Bob Blalocks would be tour leaders for the year and that Judge Scott Bailey had accepted the office of parliamentarian.

Jack Roberson, membership chairman, reported 8 new members and reminded everyone that the 1984 dues should be paid this month.

Rebekah S.S. Class Holds Social Dec. 6

The Rebekah Sunday School class of East Cisco Baptist Church held their Christmas social on Tuesday, December 6, 1983, at the home of Mrs. Marie Ivie. The hostess had her home decorated beautifully in the Christmas theme. After the prayer by Mrs. Dessie Covington, the lovely Christmas meal was served.

Each lady brought a covered dish. The chicken and dressing, giblet gravy, green beans, potatoes, yams, potato salad, fruit salad, hot home-made rolls, tea, coffee, pecan pie and cheese cake was enjoyed by everyone.

The business part of the social was omitted so the ladies could get started to work on the class project. They made some little gifts for the Cisco Nursing Home residents. Since the project couldn't be completed that night, they agreed to finish a week later.

Those present besides the hostess were: Mrs. Marie Brock, Mrs. Oma Lee Holdridge, Mrs. Clara Hallmark, Mrs. Jean Posey, Mrs. Dessie Covington, Mrs. Leona Morton and Mrs. Jewel Kinard.

This reporter would like to apologize to the class for being late, but she has been ill, fighting the "flu bug" off and on since the social.

Mrs. Jewel Kinard

Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

WORD of GOD

Old Testament

And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

And every living substance which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

Return Doe Kill Post Cards

Landowners in Eastland County who were issued doe permits by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department have been reminded to return the post cards for the kill survey as soon as possible.

The post cards were attached to the books of permits. They need to be filled out completely and returned to the Parks and Wildlife Dept. in Austin. Many landowners fail to return these cards and this can greatly reduce the accuracy of harvest surveys which in turn can have an effect on next years harvest regulations. If there are any questions call Robert Rogers, wildlife biologist at 629-1171, Eastland.

The Farmer's Tax Guides were late in arriving, but we now have a good supply. This is very useful book to farmers and ranchers as they prepare tax information for income tax reporting. It explains how the federal tax laws apply to farming and ranching.

This book can be used as a guide to figuring your taxes and filling out your farm tax return. Some of the changes included for this year include investment credit, Section 179 deductions, Payment-in-Kind, and tax deposit forms. Come by the Extension office in basement of the courthouse and ask for a free copy of the Farmer's Tax Guide.

Farmers are concerned about ways they can improve the efficiency of nutrient use by crops and therefore should pay close attention to soil testing. Soil tests show which nutrients are actually present and which ones are lacking.

Fertilizer efficiency deals with the amount of a nutrient in fertilizer used by the crop to increase yields and profit. If no increase is obtained, then the soil's nutrient level was inadequate to meet the crop's requirement. Therefore, knowing the level of available nutrients in a soil is fundamental to fertilizer efficiency.

Soil tests have been developed to measure soil nutrient levels. These laboratory tests use methods that have given good correlations with crop responses. Soil nutrients must be considered for sound and profitable decisions about fertilizing 1984 crops.

Texas Agriculture Extension Service Soil Testing Laboratories at College Station, Lubbock, and Seymour can test your soil samples and provide you with information for more efficient use of fertilizer. More information about collecting and mailing samples can be obtained from the county Extension office.

Collecting soil samples and getting them tested now will help you avoid the spring rush and will allow you more time to plan your fertilizer needs for the coming crop season.

From John Blair County Extension Agent

There will be several 4-H'ers from Eastland County attending the Ft. Worth Show this year. These 4-H'ers have been working with their animal projects for as long as eight months. The Eastland Co. 4-H will take six steers, four lambs, nine barrows, two dairy goats, and twelve beef heifers to this year's show.

The Eastland 4-H'ers are Sam Scott with two beef heifers, Shirley Kidd with two beef heifers, John Williams one beef heifer, Noble Laminack with one beef heifer, Wade Shackelford with one beef heifer, Lee DeLong with two beef heifers, April Moylan with two beef heifers and one steer, Brian Baily with one beef heifer, one barrow and two dairy goats, Jackie Harris with one steer, Glenn Burgess with one steer, Angelo Burgess with one steer, Gary Simmons with one steer, Dwayne Williams one steer, Randall Gibbs one barrow, Robert Hill with two barrows, Derrick Taylor with two barrows, Shane Burgess with one lamb, Shane Lee with one barrow and one lamb and TaTonya Caraway with two lambs and two barrows.

We would like to wish all of these 4-H'ers the Best of Luck!

The 4-H Achievement Program encourages young persons from 9 to 19 to give their time and talents to a variety of individual and group service activities.

The program is conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, and is sponsored by the Ford Motor Company Fund says John Blair, county 4-H program coordinator.

The young achievers may work with low-income adults and children in expanded food-nutrition programs. Or they may volunteer their after-school and weekend hours as candy strippers in local hospitals, provide companionship to the aged and assistance to the mentally retarded.

Whatever activity 4-H'ers choose, their dedication to serve others is an outgrowth of the learn-by-doing situations they encounter in the 4-H program, notes Mr. Blair. 4-H projects stress practical skills that contribute to personal growth and development and ultimately benefit the community and the nation.

4-H'ers who excel in achievement may share in awards offered by the Ford Motor Company Fund. These include medals of honor to four members per county, an expense-paid trip to the National 4-H CONGRESS in Chicago, to one winner from each state, and $1000 college scholarships to nine national winners.

The high-ranking boy and girl among the national winners receive silver trays presented by the President of the United States.

Additional information on the 4-H achievement program may be obtained from the county Extension office.

He said: "It is not often that a presidential candidate comes to the 17th Congressional District. I have had the opportunity to visit with Senator Glenn on several occasions. He is a genuine hero with military experience, successful in business, has a vision for the '80s and a practical game plan for achievement. These are outstanding qualifications of leadership for this period of time in our nation's history."

Congressman Stenholm thanked a group of local leaders who have agreed to help with details of the visit by the Democratic hopeful and observed that he is aware that it is early for voters to make a definite decision regarding who they will support in a campaign that will be months developing.

Tickets for the continental Breakfast are $10.00 each and may be ordered from John Glenn, Box 3302, Abilene, Texas, 79604 or by calling 915/695-2570 between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 5 p.m.

"We believe our system is the best in the world allowing us to examine those who present themselves for public service and make our own individual decisions. I know our people will take advantage of this opportunity to get to know Senator Glenn better," Congressman Stenholm concluded.

The Bend Arch - A Billion Dollar Name

BY Viola Payne

It's a name like a boomerang - this colorful designation of Bend Arch.

To North Texas oilmen, riding obscure roads which always face into the sun, the words Bend Arch are as elemental as something from a grade school textbook.

But, like many titles involving the Oil Patch, the Bend Arch phrase is little understood by those outside the industry.

Eastland county people should be particularly interested in this geological term, for the humped-up 200 mile spine stretches across here from Llano to Wichita Falls. The Bend Arch country is also about 200 miles wide, reaching from near Ft. Worth to the Sweetwater area.

Above this large chunk of territory is the Red River Uplift area, reaching to the line of Oklahoma. The Texas Railroad Commission lumps this Uplift with the Bend Arch, and designates the 38 counties inside as Districts 7B and 9.

The huge subsurface Bend Arch feature begins at the Llano uplift, where basement rocks are visible at the surface. Then it drops to the north at a rate of about 45 ft. per mile, ending in Young and Archer counties.

The west flank of this structure becomes the eastern shelf of the Permian basin, and the east flank stretches to the Ft. Worth basin.

A variety of formations are controlled by these ridges - many of which are warped into all sorts of oil and gas traps. There is sand, shaly shale, sandy limes, conglomerates and limestones. Wells range in depths from 100 ft. to 12,000 ft., with the average depth about 5,070 ft. Eastland County wells are generally between 3 and 4 thousand ft., with some very shallow.

It's true that the history of this area is rich, and the production of the past is staggering. The district has produced approx. 4.7 billion barrels of oil since 1907, and there are still more than 52,000 wells producing in 33 counties.

But, due to the nature of the formations, it is basically a country of independent operators, where careful work and good management is needed. For it's an area of disconformities - of discoveries and dry holes.

It's an area for modern technology, too, where recovery from old fields is important. For this area of Texas has spawned 213 separate fields, and a lot of this oil is still in the ground. The project for recovering oil from the old Ranger Boom Field is the largest around at this time, but others will probably follow

Homemaking Hints
County Extension Agent
Janet Thomas

Dr. Alice Hunt, Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service foods and nutrition specialist, states that can food that you have stored in a garage may taste a little mushy when you finally get around to eating them.

A decrease in quality or texture may be noticeable in canned foods which were stored in garages or sheds during our freezing temperatures in December and January.

If you haven't already, check stored foods now for broken seals and cracks in jars or bulging cans. These foods will not be safe to eat and should be discarded.

Rust formed from condensation on the outside of cans poses no danger, although you may want to wipe up any remaining moisture to prevent further rusting. The food will not be safe to eat if the rust has gone through the can.

If Texas is hit with more severe cold this winter, canned foods stored in unheated areas would have an additional slight decrease in quality. But it would take may severe freeze-thaw cycles to make the food completely unpalatable.

Another word of caution! The U.S. Food and Drug Administration reported recently that tourists in Mexico may be buying a bargain that could be hazardous to their health. Coumarin extract is being sold as genuine vanilla or added to real vanilla in Mexico. It smells and tastes enough like real vanilla to satisfy all but the experts, and sells for as little as $1.50 per quart. Coumarin has been shown to cause liver damage to test animals and is banned for use in food in the United States. The F.D.A. has tested vanilla extracts from Mexico and found coumarin in varying amounts, so tourists have no way of knowing the amount present in vanilla flavoring they buy.

RECIPE FOR THE WEEK

With deer season over with, I am featuring a good recipe tis week to help use up some of that venison you have stored in your freezer. It is especially good on these cold winter nights.
VENISON SALAMI
4 tablespoons quick curing salt
2 1/2 teaspoons mustard seed
2 1/2 teaspoons garlic powder

Sunday, January 22, 1984

2 1/2 teaspoons coarsely ground pepper
1 teaspoon hickory smoke salt
1 1/2 teaspoons sausage and/or poultry seasoning
4 1/4 pounds well-trimmed venison ground with 3/4 pound beef suet

Mix spices together. An electric blender may be used to blend spices more finely. Sprinkle in small amounts over meat, mix thoroughly. Refrigerate for four days; kneading once a day, every day. On the fourth day, knead again and shape into 10 rolls, 1 1/2 inch in diameter. Place on rack of broiling pan and bake at 150 degrees for 8 hours, turning once. Cool and refrigerate. When ready to use, slice and serve with crackers and cheese or as a cold cut.

CJC Registration Continues

Cisco Junior College's registrar, Olin Odom, reminds area residents that registration will continue through Friday, January 27, at the Cisco campus and all off-campus locations. Though there will be no problem in registering as late as January 27, Mr. Odom urges those who wish to take college courses to register now in order to begin attending classes. Classes are presently in session, and a minimum amount of missed time is beneficial to the student.

Students may register at the main campus in Cisco, at the Clyde Educational Center, or at the Abilene campus at anytime during regular office hours, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Friday.

Cake Mixes Vary In Cost And Calories

Not all cake mixes are created equal either in cost or calories, say a Texas A&M University Extension Service foods and nutrition specialist.

Some packaged mixes can be economical and actually cost less than similar cakes baked from scratch, says Mary K. Sweeten. But "better quality" cake mixes can cost three times as much as simpler mixes and still require the addition of costly ingredients at home.

For example, a "butter" cake mix requires the addition of one-quarter pound of butter and three eggs, which would add about 75 cents to the cost of the cake. The shortening used in the cake mix is usually soy oil, so the only butter in the butter cake is added by the cook. Yet the butter cake may cost up to 50 percent more than a competitive yellow cake mix, notes the specialist.

Research conducted by Cornell University Extension home economists compared "pudding mix" cakes with their plainer counterparts in the same product line and found that the richer texture of these cakes was due primarily to the cook's additions, says Sweeten. They also found that nutritive value of the dry mixes identical for protein,

Spotlights & Sidelights

Julia Worthy

"To be or not to be is the question"—not for most of us, Willie Shakespeare notwithstanding.

We be. And we will be for our particular time span which may be preordained or it may not.

This is a point I do not wish to argue. I will speculate on matters of the hereafter, but until we humans recover from what may be a racial memory block or learn to tap the unused portions of our brains for the answers, I am in no hurry to know the specifics of the hereafter. There is little reason to argue a point that can't be proven until you're dead and possibly not then.

This attitude does not square with theology, but I do not wish to defend it nor to advocate it for anyone else. If called upon to explain it, I might try. Probably not.

When I consider the complexity of the system that produces anything, whether animal, vegetable, or mineral, I do not understand why creation vs. evolution is so passionately debated in search of a definite conclusion.

We be. That's the bottom line. Thinking about birthdays of various people, including my own, is responsible for getting around to "be or not to be."

We are careless about our language usage when we refer to having racked up another birthday. Maybe a "born-again Christian" is considered as having two birthdays, but physically speaking, we have only one. We observe our birth date, our anniversary of birth, but factually, we have only one birth day.

The more your vocabulary grows, the less certain you can be about what you mean when you speak. Add to your own uncertainty the likelihood that you chosen words may not have the same impact on your hearer as they do on you—not to mention that quite often a sound we use may have several spellings and meanings. Remember drills on "to, too, two; vain, vein, vane;" and "rain, rein, and reign?"

It pains me when anyone wants to prove a point by quoting the Bible. The point may well be perfectly sound, but "proof?"

How many translations of the Bible have been made? What kind of person made the first translation? The second? How many, many translations into how many languages have been made?

"La plume de ma tante" means "My aunt's pen." But how many of us visualize the same person as "aunt?"

Everyone uses four vocabularies (at least), even if he considers himself as using only one language. There's your spoken word, and it's different from your written vocabulary. Your read with understanding words you don't ordinarily speak, and what about your body language?

I hope you understand that what I have written may not be what I thought I wrote, and that what you think I wrote may be neither of the above.

calories and fat, with the pudding mixes providing two extra grams of carbohydrate. But the finished pudding cake has twice as much fat, and 25 percent more calories than the plain layer cake.

The addition of extra eggs and oil to the pudding mix increases the calories as well as the cost of the cake, she says.

Sweeten suggests that consumers make it a habit to read the labels on mixes, since nutritional differences among cakes are surprisingly large.

The fat content of various cake mixes ranges from four to fourteen grams for one twelfth of the cake; the calories from 180 to 300 per slice; and the sodium from 270 to 375 milligrams per slice.

In general, angel food cake and white cake mixes, made without egg yolks, are low in fat and calories, and cake mixes that require additional oil or shortening are high, says Sweeten.

The good news for chocolate lovers is that chocolate cake mixes are not significantly higher in fat or calories than other flavors, adds the specialist.

Sun Oil Co. Working To Revive Ranger Oil Field

Profile:

Ranger Field in Eastland County, Texas, began with a bang when in October 1917 the J.H. McCleskey well, at 3,431 feet, prompted an oil drilling boom of more than 1,000 wells during the next two years. Fueled by a wartime $4.25 per barrel price, the town of Ranger grew from 1,000 to about 26,000 in population in three years.

By mid-1920, the field had produced a cumulative 27 million barrels, but daily production had declined to 20,000 barrels from a peak of 80,000 barrels. Reservoir energy was exhausted, and the field was virtually abandoned by 1922.

Ranger Field, part of Production Operations' Central Texas District, is now the site of a massive waterflood, an operation Sun hopes will recover a large portion of the estimated 80 to 85 percent of the original oil in place. Sun drilled more than 60 wells at Ranger in 1983; the waterflood will eventually include approximately 400 wells.

The project is one of the Central Texas District's numerous secondary and enhanced recovery operations using technology to breathe new life into old reservoirs.

Headquartered in Abilene, the district counts among its assets sizeable fields acquired with the 1980 purchase of Texas Pacific, including one of the world's largest polymer injection projects, Sun-operated fields in the Silver area and two of Sun's oldest and largest natural gas processing operations. Also vital to the district's secondary recovery operations are water rights—gained from Texas Pacific—to more than 200,000 barrels per day from Possum Kingdom Lake.

Although waterflood operations account for 75 to 80 percent of the district's production, drilling there also is aimed at primary production. As the only major oil company located in Abilene, Sun E&P is building on a land base acquired in part from Texas Pacific, explains Jack Andrews, district manager.

"Our drilling program includes some good primary production at the Fant Ranch Field in Knox County. It was a TP discovery, and now Sun is expanding there, he says. "We're also drilling at the Suggs-Ellenburger Field in Nolan County, a Domestic Exploration discovery, and at Jameson Reef near Silver, where we have both primary and secondary recovery."

Wells in the district range from 3,200 to 7,400 feet in depth, with production primarily from lower Pennsylvania clastics, Canyon Reef, Caddo, Ellenburger and Odum formations. The district's gross daily production from 1,700 active wells in 12 segments is approximately 18,000 barrels of oil and 45 million cubic feet (MMcf) of natural gas.

With a total acreage figure approaching 200,000 acres, the district works closely with Domestic Exploration's land office in Abilene.

"We have the potential to acquire new properties for special projects similar to the waterflood at Ranger," Andrews says.

Among the estimated 186 wells to be drilled in the district in 1984 are 155 in waterflood areas, including Ranger and Breckenridge.

Since May 1979, Sun has acquired approximately 3,500 leases within the boundaries of the 67-year-old Ranger Field. To date, three areas have been unitized within the field, and a pilot waterflood has been initiated in each area. During the first six months of 1983 these pilot waterfloods were expanded by drilling 37 additional wells, installing 27 miles of injection lines, 10 miles of electric lines, seven well test satellites and two central batteries. Daily water injection is approximately 53,000 barrels, and that figure is expected to rise to about 300,000 when the project is completed.

At Eliasville, a Texas Pacific acquisition also drilled in the '20s, Sun has seen production responding to one of the world's largest polymer injection programs. After injection of $14 million worth of polymer over a period of three years, the field has begun to produce more than 1,000 barrels of oil per day, up from 380 during the early stages of the project. The ratio of water to oil production, which had been as high as 29-1, is now 17-1 and steadily improving.

Large volumes of water production pose a challenge to the district, Andrews says, as Sun works to improve waterflood sweep efficiency.

"At Breckenridge, we started out with a 19-1 water-to-oil ratio—78,000 barrels of water for every 4,000 barrels of oil. That same thing will happen at Ranger and Eliasville. Our challenge is to maintain the lowest possible operating costs."

In addition to oil and gas production, the district operates a CO<sub>2</sub> removal facility and four gas processing plants which account for half of the district's revenues. Total daily liquid production is 26,000 barrels per day; of that amount, 15,000 barrels per day are produced by the Snyder Gasoline Plant in Scurry County. Adjacent to the Snyder gas processing facility Sun operates a CO<sub>2</sub> removal plant for the SACROC Unit. Gas from the Chevron-operated unit enters the plant, where CO<sub>2</sub> is removed and then reinjected into the unit.

In Coke County, the 100 percent Sun-owned Jameson Plant near Silver has a gas processing capacity of 65 MMcf per day. Approximately 60 percent of the incoming gas processed at Jameson—most of it casinghead gas—is from independent operators, contributing a significant portion of the district's revenue.

In the face of declining gas volumes Sun faces a challenge in keeping its gas processing facilities running at or near capacity. To that end, Sun is preparing to lay a 30-mile, 12-inch line to the east and southeast of Jameson. The line will gather gas from the Suggs Field and Jordan Ranch area, where Sun is drilling, and also will gather production from other operators in the Winters area.

The district also operates two smaller gas processing facilities, Jupiter in Jack County, and Veribest in Tom Green County.

Both plants and fields of the district are operated by a diverse employee complement—a mixture brought about by the TP acquisition and by Sun E&P's recent reorganization. A sizable portion of the district, particularly the area near Abilene, became part of Sun's operation in 1980 with the purchase of TP. At that time Sun began operating the newly-purchased properties and combining two working groups and procedures. Last summer the district gained Sun's gas plants and production areas to the north and west, bringing the employee complement to 368.

That merging of properties, working methods and employees has called for close cooperation by all in the district. Andrews believes the Central Texas District will be a successful one because of the employees who work there.

"We have an excellent group of people," he says. "They've been extremely cooperative in working to meet our objectives."

CISCO

Funds amounting to $1,464 donated by appreciative citizens are being distributed to 10 City employees for outstanding work in keeping city water lines operative during the recent freezing weather. City Manager Mike Moore says: "I would like to express sincere appreciation to those who contributed to the fund, and to the supervisors and workers who gave up their Christmas holidays to do outstanding work."

The regular monthly Gospel Sing will be Sunday, Jan. 22, 2:00 p.m. at the First Evangelical Methodist Church. The location is Hwy. 80 W. across from the hospital in Cisco. Everyone is welcome to attend and participate, states Jack Robertson, President.

The Eastland County National Association of Retired Federal Employees meets Tuesday, Jan. 24, 12:30 p.m. at the Colony Restaurant in Cisco. A large number of the retired employees are expected to attend.

Cisco Junior College will offer a Defensive Driving Course to the community Feb. 6 and 7. The time will be 6:00-9:00 p.m. in the Science Hall Lecture Room. An enrollment fee of $20 must be paid by 3:00 p.m. on Feb. 6. The Course will last eight hours, and is designed to improve driver skills and attitudes, especially in emergency situations. For more information or to register call or come by the President's office at the College.

RISING STAR

The Rising Star Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture has set the date for the annual banquet as Monday, Feb. 13, 7:30 p.m. The place will be the First Baptist Church activities center. Those to be honored at the banquet include the Outstanding Farmer, Outstanding Business Person, and Outstanding Senior Boy and Girl, and a Senior Citizen. A decoration committee has been appointed for the event.

There will be a Bake Sale by the Rising Star High School Annual Staff on Sat., Jan. 21, at 9:00 a.m. The location will be in front of Higginbotham's. The public is invited out to purchase some excellent home-baked items and also assist the school.

The monthly dinner at Lakewood Recreation Center will be Tuesday, Jan. 31 at 6:30 p.m. For information call the Recreation Center.

EASTLAND

The Eastland Quarterback Club will have a special meeting Thursday night, Jan. 26, at 7:00 p.m. at the High School Cafeteria. The Girls and Boys Varsity Basketball Teams will be introduced, and their most recent game film will be shown. The public is invited to come out and show support of the teams.

The Old Rip Cafe building on East Highway 80 has been demolished and cleared away. A new restaurant, called the Depot, will be constructed on the lot. The Depot Restaurant is scheduled to be completed in March. The new establishment plans to offer varied menus and freshly baked bread and desserts.

The Eastland City Commission has suspended a rate increase requested by Lone Star Gas for 30 days. The item will be on next month's agenda. No action was taken on another request—a proposal by Texas Electric Service Co. that they replace the remaining incandescent street lights in the city with mercury vapor lights. The new lights would be more expensive to the city.

RANGER

The Ministerial Alliance of Ranger is sponsoring a Week of Prayer in observance of Christian Unity Week, which began Jan. 18, and will end Jan. 25. Posters made by the children from various churches are on display around the city. There will be a pulpit exchange on Sunday, Jan. 22, and a combined prayer meeting Jan. 25 at 7:00 p.m. at St. Rita's Catholic Church.

A reunion for the 1968-69 Ranger High School graduating classes is planned for July. Current names and addresses are needed. Please contact Floyd Parks at 43 E. Pine, Huffman, Texas 77336, or phone (713)354-5024.

John Kidd Elected Pres. Of Angus Assoc.

Mr. John Kidd registered Angus breeder from Eastland was elected President of the Leon Valley Angus Association at a recent meeting held at the Colony Restaurant in Cisco.

Mr. Kidd also serves as a Director, and Membership Chairman of the Eastland County Farm Bureau and he is active in the Eastland County Fair Association. The Kidd Family are strong supporters of the 4-H Program and the Texas Jr. Angus Association.

Other officers elected to serve the 1984 Leon Valley Angus Association are: Vice President, J.V. Heyser of Cisco; Secretary, Treasurer, Betty Kidd of Eastland; Reporter, and Helen Heyser of Cisco.

Directors are: 1 year term, A.G. Craver of Abilene and Herman Winsor of Abilene; 2 year term, J.D. Sargent of Tolar and H.H. Haller of Stephenville; and 3 year term, Bill Wilson of May and Charles Diesher of Stephenville.

Plans for a registered Angus Sale were formulated and a date for the sale was set for May 12, 1984, in Cisco.

After the business meeting, Mr. Bill Hall, Secretary of the Texas Angus Association discussed important information on the new program "Certified Angus Beef."

Dr. Leon Woods of Brownwood, was applauded for the dedicated job he did serving as Association President for the past two years. He also entertained the group singing a song he wrote about "Angus Cows".

Twenty seven members and guests attended the meeting. The next meeting was scheduled for February 13, at the Colony Restaurant in Cisco.

Cold Hurts Pecan Trees

The late December cold spell in Texas could have a major impact on the 1984 pecan crop.

"Many rapidly growing young pecan trees (less than 7 years old) as well as pecan trees in nurseries took a severe beating from the prolonged cold weather," says Dr. George Ray McEachern, horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"Mature trees that were stressed from a heavy crop in 1983 could also have suffered some freeze injury," adds McEachern. "This is especially true of Barton, Mahan and Wichita varieties."

Also, mature trees there were drought-stressed at the time of the severe cold weather likely suffered more severe freeze damage, notes the horticulturist.

Commercial pecan growers as well as homeowners interested in nursery pecan trees to plant this winter should inspect them closely for freeze injury before making a purchase. McEachern suggests slicing the buds, cambium (layer of growth just under the bark) and crown (base of the plant) to check for brown tissue, which would indicate freeze damage.

The horticulturist also advises against pruning back existing trees until mid-May to determine the extent of any freeze injury.

"Freeze injury can be deceiving," says McEachern. "Pecan trees that have been frozen often bud out and look healthy in April. This growth can be 6 to 12 inches long before it wilts and turns brown a few weeks later. The cambium layer of freeze-damaged pecan trees will have a brown color and a syrup-sugar smell in late April."

McEachern advises growers and homeowners to keep a close check on their pecan trees in the coming months to determine the extent of freeze injury.

Lights From The Christian World

by Josephine Cleveland

"I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." John 10:10

People throughout our land have seen 1984 unfold. Expectantly, many are thinking this is surely the year when things on the local level, national and international level might, just might, be a little better than during the past year.

And for Christmas this is as it ought to be, since we already as God's children are living an abundant life in Him. We have come to Him who has said: "I am the Way, The Truth, and the Life." "I am the Bread of Life." "I am the Resurrection and the Life." With trust and confidence in Him, who by His victory over sin, hell, and the grave, has ushered in for us an unending life, we can look forward to each upcoming day with anticipation and expectation. We know that despite appearances to the contrary and circumstances which surround us—only that which will ultimately and finally tend toward our good will unfold for us.

"Lord, ever grant us the assurance that in all things we clearly see your purpose for us. Help us to continually bring to our remembrance that all things work together for good to them who love you. Amen."

Canned Foods

That Froze Are Safe

Those canned green beans you have stored in the garage may taste a little mushy when you finally get around to eating them, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension food and nutrition specialist.

"A decrease in quality or texture may be noticeable in canned foods which were stored in garages or sheds during December's freezing temperatures," says Dr. Alice Hunt.

If you haven't already check stored foods now for broken seals and cracks in jars or bulging cans, says the specialist. These foods will not be safe to eat and should be discarded, she adds.

Rust formed from condensation on the outside of cans poses no danger, says Hunt, although you may want to wipe up any remaining moisture to prevent further rusting. The food will not be safe to eat "if the rust has gone through the can," cautions the specialist.

If Texas is hit with more severe cold this winter, canned foods stored in unheated areas would have an additional slight decrease in quality. But it would take many severe freeze thaws to make the food completely unpalatable, Hunt says.

Persons with specific questions about the safety of canned goods should contact their county Extension office.

1st Industrial Arts Club Holds Meeting Jan. 19

The First Industrial Arts Club met Thursday, Jan. 19th at the Women's Club Houses. Ruby Lee Pirtle, the president, called the meeting to order. Jewell Cole led the collect and the pledge to the American and Texas flags. Bessie Fields served as hostess.

This was the club's public affairs program based on the thought that "The goals of yesterday will be the starting point of tomorrow," by Carlyle. With this in mind, Mayor Eris Ritchie was invited to give a report on the street paving, sewage disposals, oil and gas development, and other city projects. He informed the members how difficult it was to decide which streets to repair first since there are so many. Front Street, Ave. N and 13th Street have been paved, and several streets seal repaired, which are holding up nicely so far.

Front Street sewers have been repaired from 8th Street to the cemetery. The new water and sewer plant is now being built, and Mayor Ritchie hopes no new taxes will have to be passed since there may soon be a grant available to the city.

The city now has two producing oil wells and more streets will be repaired as the money comes in from there.

When the mayor was asked about the Mobley Hotel project, he replied there would be an announcement made in the very near future.

IS IT WRONG TO CRY?

When a friend or loved one dies, it is only natural for your emotions to give way to grief - and for you to cry.

Tears are therapeutic in more ways than many of us realize. They give us an emotional outlet, providing us with specific physical action we can perform. At the realization that the loved one is gone, tears may come easily for both adult and child - and this is good! Children may even be encouraged to let out their feelings of grief by crying.

Most do not need encouragement since it is so natural to weep in sorrow. It is not unmasculine to cry at the death of a loved one or a dear friend. It's a misconception that "big boys shouldn't cry." This is all a part of the early 20th Century training in the old school of the "stiff upper lip" and "grin and bear it." If there is an emotional hurt, then the pain should be recognized, acknowledge, and expressed - in this case, through tears.

Your questions and comments on this and other subjects are welcome - in private or publicly through this column.

A 1984 CRIME Stoppers calendar has come to The Press office. It has pictures of Mayor Eris Ritchie and City Manager Mike Moore and the Cisco Police Department at the top with the calendar sheets at the bottom. Policemen shown in the picture are Jerry Carter, Peggy Ingram, Frank Thumsudan, Randall Haskins, Lynn Johnson, Cats Ingram, Chief Billy Rains, Lonnie Knight and Larry Jernigan.

Crime stopper numbers to call if you want to help solve criminal cases are shown (1-800-252-TIPS). Twenty-six local business concerns have ads on the calendar. The local police department received part of the money brought in by the calendar and, we understand, it will be used to buy items for the department.

ALL SET OR not, Sunday, Jan. 22, is Super Bowl Sunday and this winds down the National Football League Season, clearing the decks for the U.S. Football League season. Most of the folks we know believe Washington will win but not too many of them are for Washington. The Los Angeles Raiders have a pretty good following hereabouts.

Of a number of people we asked about their feelings in the super bowl only Mr. Carl Kleiner confessed that he didn't know who was playing. When the Cowboys were eliminated, his interest stopped, he told us.

In any event, it will be good to have another season behind us. Invariably, most folks are ready to become enthusiastic fans by the time another season starts. The US Football League begins practice next month.

MR. HAROLD Adling, the local gent who suffered a bad wrist fracture in a fall during the December ice storm, got out of Hendrick Memorial Hospital, Abilene, last Tuesday. Specialists operated on his arm that had been in a cast for several weeks. Nerve and muscle problems were cleared up and pins were put in place. And he's glad to be home... Miss Susan Watts, daughter of the Ike Wattses, got out of Harris Hospital, Fort Worth, on Monday. She underwent knee surgery there last Friday and went to work Tuesday on crutches as a faculty assistant at Eastland High School.

THE BIRTHDAY of Mrs. John Clinton was observed Wednesday at the mid-week service at First Evangelical Methodist Church where her husband is the minister. During a bible study period, Rev. Clinton asked everybody to stand and sing the birthday song to his wife Evelyn.

After the song, a big birthday cake was brought in and everybody ate cake. Mrs. JC was surprised and, our scouts report, pleased by the unexpected event.

MR. WILLIE Johnson, 17-year old CHS junior, will begin the second semester Monday. Doctors had him stay home this past week while he recovered from dental surgery that included wiring his jaws shut for six weeks. He's doing nicely, reports his dad, Mr. Willard

Johnson... The W.E. (Dizzy) Deans went out to dinner last Tuesday noon to observe their 58th wedding anniversary... Secretary Jasper Cook of the Cisco Lions Club got a big hand from club members when he reported on coming events last Wednesday noon and noted "we'll observe July 4th on July 4th this year."

A NUMBER OF local folks have tickets to sell for the breakfast at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, Jan. 24, at Abilene Civic Center when U.S. Senator John Glenn will be introduced by Congressman Charles Stenholm. The tickets are $10 each. If you'd like one, same may be purchased at The Press office... Mr. Stenholm, who spoke Thursday night at the annual CofC banquet in Eastland, will talk at the meeting of the Evening Lions Club here Monday night, Jan. 23. The event will be at the Colony Restaurant and you may attend. They'll eat at 6:30 p.m.

SEE BY THE ads that an Eastland restaurant will give you a 10 percent discount Sunday noon if you show the cashier a church program... Mr. Walter Knowlden, the AARP prexy, tells us that two men from state headquarters will be at the Laguna Hotel this coming week to talk about income tax. They'll meet in a room on the mezzanine floor from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. No charges... The temperature dipped to around 1 degree here early Thursday as the coldest for 1984.

WENT OUT TO community gym last Monday night for the Cisco and Eastland 7th and 8th grade basketball program and it was a nice evening of entertainment. They've done quite a bit of improving to the gym and it's now officially named Cisco Lobo Gym... The gym was in darkness briefly when the light switch was inadvertently turned off. And they had to wait 10 minutes until the mercury vapor lighting mechanism cooled down enough to come back on... The gym was full of Cisco and Eastland fans.

In the 7th grade games, the boys contest was a heart breaker. Cisco led 23 to 14 at the end of the third quarter. And Eastland came back strong to win, 33 to 32. Rayford Rattan, son of the Cleatus Rattans, who played for Cisco last year, was the star of the Eastland attack. Doug Shaw, a regular on the Cisco team, was almost a head shorter than anybody else playing but he was one of the best men on the court.

The 8th grade girls game was not exactly a high scoring affair. The score was 4 to 4 at the end of the first quarter and Cisco had a 9 to 7 lead at the half. The Cisco girls went on to win. The concession stands have popcorn, hot dogs and a lot of goodies. Same is operated by the Lobo Band Boosters Club.

THE FREEZING weather Wednesday night caused something to go wrong and the television cable antenna service went off. Nothing but a buzz came out early Thursday and it wasn't until around 10:30 a.m. before things started coming in loud and clear... Folks living out on the north shore of Lake Cisco reported seeing a low of two degrees on their thermometers early Thursday. And they could see a lot of hard ice on the lake.

THE OLD HOUSE was still in the Highway 206 ditch when we looked Thursday. Last we heard the contractor was still trying to figure out if they could move the house out of the ditch intact. If not, they would have to tear it down. The cold weather has very probably played a part in delaying action in doing something about the old house.

A MAN FROM out-of-town stopped at a restaurant on I-20 here last Wednesday night and went in to eat. He set a bottle of whiskey on his table and poured himself a drink. After a time, he got boisterous and police were called. Next morning, he was released after paying a $69 fine... The Ed Bradshaws got home Thursday after spending 10 days or so at Plainview. They kept the three children of their daughter and husband, the Robert Millers, while the Millers went to Hawaii... Members of the First Chris-

I, the undersigned authority, do hereby certify that the above Notice of Meeting of the governing body of the City of Cisco is a true and correct copy of said Notice and that I posted said Notice on the bulletin board in the City Hall of Cisco, and said Notice was posted on January 20, 1984, at 10:00 p.m. o'clock and remained so posted continuously for at least three days immediately preceding the date of said meeting. ## Three CHS Band Students Make All-Region

Three Cisco High School band students participated in the All-Region Band held Saturday, Jan. 14th, at Tarleton State University in Stephenville. Tommy Cross, Cheryl Casey and James Deadman were selected in competitive try-outs held December 10th in Stephenville.

Cheryl Casey was selected to fifth chair percussion, playing the drums and xylophone. Tommy Cross was selected to eighth chair trombone and James Deadman was selected to fifth chair trombone. "We need to recognize the tremendous amount of preparation required for these young people to earn this honor," stated Band Director Al Young.

The All-Region musicians rehearsed all day Saturday to prepare music for a performance that evening, under the direction of region director Pete Kunkel from Longview. Mr. Kunkel has had 32 years experience directing bands, and has served as an officer in many professional music organizations, including past president of the Texas Band Masters Association.

He conducted the All-Region band in a march "The Courier-Journal" by K.L. King, "Ave Vera Corpus" by Mozart, and "Exhilaration" by James Swearingen. Approximately one thousand parents, friends and band directors attended the concert Saturday evening, which was concluded with a performance of "America the Beautiful" with the All-Region Choir.

Outgoing Missionaries Will Speak Here Wednesday Night

Pastor John C. Jones invites the residents of Eastland County to hear outgoing missionaries to Zimbabwe, Rev. and Mrs. Lynn Davis tell the burden of their heart Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m. at the Greater Mountain Top Pentecostal Church located 10 miles South of Cisco on Hwy. 183. Rev. Davis was pastoring Caney Creek UPC in Conroe, Texas, when he and his wife were appointed as missionaries of the African Nation of Zimbabwe in October, 1983. Rev. Davis plans to be involved in Bible school construction, while both he and his wife will be instructors in the newly approved Zimbabwe College of ministries. Mrs. Davis is presently the devotional writer for the Pentecostal Homelife and Plans to continue writing from the field.

Damage Is Light From New Freeze

Temperatures that dropped to the 10-degree mark caused some new damage but nothing like the December cold wave with near zero readings, City Manager Mike Moore reported Friday. Area Thermometers dropped to around 10 degrees early Thursday morning.

Ciscoans Attend Eastland Dinner

Five couples represented the Cisco Chamber of Commerce at the annual banquet of the Eastland CofC in Eastland last Thursday night. Congressman Charles Stenholm was the program speaker.

Attending from Cisco were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gwinn, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Ledbetter, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Orr, and Mr. and Mrs. Randy Speegle.

Mr. Moore said that the water department crews repaired three sizeable line breaks Thursday and two more Friday.

Home owners apparently used caution to help prevent freezing water lines as very few calls came to city hall, the city manager said.

Warming temperatures were forecast for the weekend after sub-freezing readings most of the past week.

letters to the editor ...

Dear Editor, While everyone is passing out praise for our city workers that worked all night Christmas Eve, which they so richly deserve, don't you think it would be nice to acknowledge that Travis Lenard was the local contractor that went out that night too? When the city backhoe wouldn't start and another local contractor refused to help, Mr. Lenard was asked at 9:00 p.m. if he could start his backhoe to help. He did working all night also. When he wasn't operating the backhoe he kept a fire going for the workers with wood he brought from home. Mr. C.W. Guthrie was out there also until about 1:30 a.m. doing what he could to help. Mr. Lenard was paid for his services but you can't really place monetary value on services rendered on a holiday night in sub-zero weather to his community. I think he deserves a public acknowledgement.

Big Country Real Estate Has Update

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Green have settled into their home at 1011 East 18th here in Cisco. The house was formerly owned by Nita Baker who is presently living in Oklahoma. Mike is employed by Central Mud here in Cisco.

Kenneth and Winona Payne are busy working on their recent purchase located at 511 West 10th. Many of you may remember it as the residence of the late Mrs. J.D. Hall. Kenneth is a bus driver for the Cisco school system in his spare time and Winona is the new director of the Child Care Center.

Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Hounshell of Arizona are in the process of selling their holding in Tucson, Arizona and purchasing the home of Ima E. Thompson on the Breckenridge Highway. Mr. Hounshell is retired, but not idle. His hobby is breeding and showing registered Longhorn cattle. Mr. Hounshell is a brother to Raymond Hounshell of Cisco, and has other relatives in the area.

Letter of Thanks On behalf of the employees of the City of Cisco, we would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank all the citizens of Cisco for their patience and consideration during the bad cold spell we experienced over the Holiday Season. We would also like to especially express our sincere gratitude to the many persons who contributed to the "Water Crew Bonus Fund". It was a very thoughtful and very appreciated gesture. Again, we thank all of you very much.

"Farming can be complicated these days. Same goes for income taxes. So I go to H&R Block."

"With farming, one wrong step and it could cost you down the road. The same is true with tax preparation, and that's why I always go to H&R Block. My preparer is trained to know all the special problems that farmers face. And that saves me money. So I'll do the farm work while Block does the tax work."
