O.T. Killions Are Honored Here

A large crowd of old friends and neighbors gathered at the Laguna Corral Room at noon Thursday to take part in the observance of O.T. and Vida Killion Day in Cisco and Eastland County.

And it was a fitting climax to a long and useful career for the veteran couple who are preparing to move their household to Garland where the retired minister was born and raised. The occasion was proclaimed by County Judge Scott Bailey and the official document was presented to the Killions during a "this is your life" type program at the luncheon.

The program featured presentations to the Killions by the various clubs and organizations in which they have been active during 16 years as residents of the county. These honors included:

1. The official proclamation was read and presented by Virgil Murphy, past president of the Cisco AARP Chapter, and it paid tribute to the couple for their work in the church and the community.

2. The Rev. Ronnie Shackelford of the Cisco Ministers Association presented Rev. Killion a plaque in recognition of "a life devoted to the ministry and

3. Mrs. J.C. Dyer of the Cisco Music Study Club presented a plaque to Mrs. Killion, member of the club, for her interest and talent in music and club activities over the years. The club's collect was printed on the plaque.

7. Police Chief Billy Rains presented Mr. Killion a plaque for "outstanding services as a city judge and as chaplain of the Eastland County Law Enforcement Officers Association."

wife will be long remembered for 'coming our way' and living among us for a good many years," Mrs. Cartee said.

After the presentation both Mr. and Mrs. Killion were invited to speak and they expressed appreciation for the honors. Mr. Killion quoted from the Bible - Isaiah 41:6 - to "sum up our feeling of gratitude."

More than 200 persons, including senior citizens and visitors, attended the luncheon.

Mr. Killion, 76, has been a minister since 1929. Mrs. Killion was born in Collier County. They observed their 50th wedding anniversary in 1983. They are the parents of one daughter, Douvena Ickert, of Houston and have four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

CJC's Yule Concert Set

The Fine Arts Department of Cisco Junior College will present its annual Combined Christmas Concert, Tuesday, December 11, at 7:30 p.m. in Harrell Fine Arts Auditorium. The concert will feature the Wrangler Band and Belles, the CJC Singers, and organist Steven Zell.

Immediately following the concert the lighting of the campus Christmas tree on the Mall in front of the Science Hall will take place. The Band will begin with the program with a concert standard, "Tenth Regiment March," by R.B. Hall. The band will also present "Carillons" at Christmastide, "Adeste Fideles," and "Christmas Music for Winds." The Wrangler Belles will dance "Winter Wonderland," choreographed by Belle Director, Nicki Harle. The Belles will also do some "sing-a-long" with the band on some familiar Christmas carols. Tim Jones directs the Wrangler Band.

A vocal ensemble of the CJC Singers will conclude the concert with two medleys of Christmas music. One is called "Christmer Cheer," and the other one is "Rhapsody of Christmas." Included will be such carols as "The Holly and the Ivy," "God Rest You Merry Gentlemen," "Wassail, Wassail," "O Holy Night," "Angels We Have Heard on High," "What Child Is This," and the ever popular favorite, "Silent Night." Wyley Peebles directs the singers.

The concert is open to the public, and there is no admission charge.

Goodfellows Have Close To 50 Applications Now

BY HERREL HALLMARK

Close to 50 applications had been turned into the Goodfellows by Friday asking for a food basket this Christmas. The deadline for filing such a request is Monday, December 10.

Among the requests received, comes a letter from a single person who lives alone and has no relatives here. They are under a doctor's care for skin cancer and are seeing an eye specialist in Abilene. They do not have a telephone since they are nearly deaf. Another single person writes, "Just me at this time of year. Can't work or walk too much. Only receive social security."

A single mother with two children, ages 17 months and 5 years, writes, "My husband left about six months ago. I have two small children that need something for Christmas. I only have a small amount of money. I only work two days a week and cannot find employment. I can not afford a baby sitter and buy Christmas gifts for my children. I have no relatives in Cisco. I really need help because my husband does not pay child support and don't know where to contact him."

Another woman with two children writes, "My husband is disabled at this time and I don't have a job and we are not receiving government help at this time."

A couple writes, "I need a Christmas basket because I have not worked in over 3 1/2 months. I don't have any income at all. I get cheese and butter each month. I have an artificial leg and it is hard to get a job when they know it. I am really in need for food. I would be grateful for anything."

A woman with three grandchildren living with her writes, "I have not worked for over three months. I get a widows' check as it just barely pays the bills. I have my three grandchildren living with me. And my mother is in the Cisco Nursing Center. I have to pay part of her bills each month. I won't be able to buy Christmas dinner or toys for the children. There is nothing left. If I do get a Christmas basket or not, I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. I wish you all a very Merry Christmas."

Two other applications stated they need help because they are on low, fixed incomes and/or they are unemployed.

A mother, with a 13-year old girl and a 14-year old boy, has asked for help because "all the work she is doing is odd jobs, like house cleaning. The girl does baby sitting and the boy does odd jobs."

Plans call for all requests to be turned in by December 10 and reviewed by the Goodfellows Board of Directors by December 12. The baskets will be delivered on Saturday, December 22.

All letters must be accompanied by an official Goodfellows application which may be picked up at the Cisco Chamber of Commerce office, 619 Conrad Hilton Avenue.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the Goodfellows may do so by mailing them to:

AN ASSEMBLY will be held at 9:15 a.m. in the Cisco High School Auditorium to acquaint the students with a new program the school will be entering. The program deals with a trained dog which will be used to sniff out narcotics.

The same company you may have read about Clyde schools using, will be the ones in Cisco. They are from Waco and the company is called Security Associates International. They are a professional firm which has worked with 65 school districts in Texas.

IF YOU'D BE interested in owning a Labrador Retriever (bird dog, untrained), contact Mr. Jim Graham, 500 W. 4th, Cisco. This dog is a 3-year old black male, has had shots, and is in good health. Jim says he has one too many dogs. Free to the first caller.

EASTLAND

Eastland is ushering in the Holiday Season in a number of ways. There is a huge, brightly decorated tree in the Courthouse lobby, and the traditional cascade of red lights glows against the outside of the building. A number of people came into town for Special Days For Special People, choosing gifts from the wide selections in the stores. Santa will arrive on the Square around 2:30 December 8 to visit with all his special little friends. And its great just to drive around to look at all the beautifully decorated Churches and homes.

While appreciating all the secure and happy homes in the area, don't forget that there are some less fortunate children who need your help. Contributions are needed to buy Christmas gifts for local children who are in foster care due to abuse or neglect. Tax deductible donations can be made to the Eastland County Child Welfare Fund, P.O. Box 876, Eastland, Texas 76448. For more information you may call Alice Pritchard at 817-629-1713.

Lone Star Gas Co. Manager Delton Ake has announced that the Company is again sponsoring Project HAP'N, a Heating Assistant Program for the Needy. This is the third winter, Ake said, that Lone Star has began the fund with a donation. Customers and the general public are encouraged to join with the Company in making a contribution to the program.

Nineteen Eastland County members, advisors, sweethearts, parents and guests will attend the Cross Timbers District FFA Awards Banquet in Early on Monday, Dec. 10. Four leadership teams from the Eastland FFA will be recognized, and pictures taken. A highlight of the banquet will be the crowning of the District Sweetheart. Darla Cagle, representing the Eastland FFA Chapter, will be competing in this contest.

There will be a Family Planning Clinic in Eastland on Dec. 12 at 204 N. Lamar. The hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. You may call 629-3421 for an appointment.

Italy - 40 Years Later

by Margaret DeFord

After making the decision that we would go to Italy with a group from the 36th Division Association for the 40th Anniversary of the Liberation of Rome, we spent a lot of time reading about the country where we would spend three weeks.

Sunny Italy is an independent democratic republic in southern Europe. The country lies on a boot-shaped peninsula which juts into the Mediterranean Sea. It is separated from the rest of Europe by the high mountain peaks of the Alps.

The ancient Romans called the peninsula "Italia". The official name of the country is Repubblica Italiana, or the Italian Republic. The capital and largest city is Rome.

This sunny, historic country is noted for its beautiful scenery, ancient buildings, and works of art. For hundreds of years Italian painters, sculptors, musicians and poets have brought the world pleasure and inspiration through their art. Many tourist visit Italy to see the country's art masterpieces, to hear lively Italian music, and to view such beauties as the hill of Assisi, Perugia, Arezzo, Siena, Naples, and Soreanto.

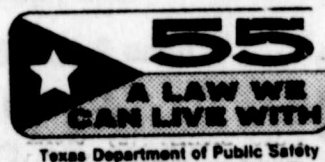

Boot-shaped Italy, which covers 116,303 square miles forms a bridge across the center of the Mediterranean Sea from Europe almost to Africa. No place in the "leg" of the boot is more than 65 miles from the sea. The greatest distance north-south is 708 miles and east-west 130 miles, and the coast line of 2,685 miles. This mountainous peninsula is only about the size of Georgia and Florida. When I read this information I thought we would get bored because it was such a small country, but that was not true. There was far too much to see every day. Italy has 19 regions divided into provinces. The great Alps encircle the peninsula on the north, and the Appennine Mountains curve from the "knee" to the "toe". There are three active volcanoes in Italy. Mount Vesuvius, south of Naples, is the most famous. It has had 50 serious eruptions since history began. The earth forces that produce Italy's volcanoes also cause earth-quakes, and Italy has more earth quakes than any other country in the world except Japan.

 IN THE INTEREST OF SERVING THIS AREA, JIM CALDWELL BRINGS YOU THESE IMPORTANT MONEY-SAVING ARTICLES:

It's been against the law to drive without a seat belt in Ontario, Canada since 1976. Traffic fatalities have declined more than 40 percent, though there are many more cars on the road now.

If you've got radial tires, don't forget to rotate the spare, too. Decide which side you will rotate it on and ALWAYS put it there.

If a door lock is frozen, heat the key, or use a special spray designed for the purpose.

Change your oil filter on time. Once the filter is full of dirt and contaminants picked up from the engine oil, the engine oil flow may bypass the filter, letting dirt circulate through the engine.

Safety on the road starts in your own driveway, say the experts. Inspect your car periodically, and keep it in top running shape with preventive maintenance. Know how to find and use your jack, spare tire, extra fuses, and warning devices.

and during that meeting, chose Stenholm as their leader for another term. Stenholm said that he "looks forward to a strengthened CDF in the 99th Congress, particularly in the legislative area." During the two-hour meeting, the group compiled a list of names to present to the Democratic Steering and Policy Committee in an effort to get more conservative members on the key legislative committees of the Congress. Speaker Tip O'Neill has assured Stenholm that a conservative member will be placed on the advisory panel to the leadership. The advisory panel will be instrumental in the next two years paving the way for O'Neill's successor when he retires.

Local Doctor Familiar With Baby Faye Research

People of this area recently shared the world-wide interest in Baby Faye, the infant who received the transplant of a baboon's heart at Loma Linda Hospital in California.

The local person who could visualize the scene the most clearly was probably Dr. Stephen Krech, a young Eastland physician.

For Dr. Krech spent three years of Medical Residency at Loma Linda University Hospital, graduating there in 1983 with a Degree as a Specialist of Internal Medicine.

Before going to Loma Linda the doctor took his pre-med training at the University of California at Los Angeles. His M.D. Degree was obtained at the University of South Carolina in Charleston. He opened his general medical practice here in Eastland on Oct. 1.

"When I learned of the transplant operation on Baby Faye," the doctor says, "my first feeling was one of surprise. This seemed a bit unusual for Loma Linda, which I had thought was a fairly conservative institution."

Loma Linda, he explains, is operated by the Seventh-day Adventist Church, and is one of the major teaching institutions in the country. The high standards and large volume of applications make it difficult to be accepted at Loma Linda.

"One reason why I wanted to attend is that the school has good doctors and a high standing," he says.

"After I thought over the Baby Faye heart transplant, I decided that the far-reaching effects would be beneficial.

"The death of the child was very unfortunate. But the surgery showed that the doctors were willing to take a chance and pioneer new grounds in the long run this may save other lives."

Dr. Krech says he was aware of the drug used to halt tissue rejection after heart surgery - that this is something which has been in use for several years.

The doctor mentions that Loma Linda is located in a small community between Riverside and San Bernadino, about 60 miles east of Los Angeles. His wife, Melanie, grew up at nearby Corona, while Dr. Krech's home town is in Woodland Hills, in the San Fernando Valley.

Dr. Stephen Krech and his wife, Melanie. The Krechs, natives of California, recently moved to Eastland.

He describes the Loma Linda University Hospital building as being a white structure nine floors high, with three towers at the top connected with walkways. Each of the floors is numbered and used for different disciplines or fields of medicine. There are approx. 600-700 beds in the hospital.

The seventh and eighth floors are largely surgery, including the place where heart surgery is performed. The ninth floor is used for internal medicine, and that is where Dr. Krech trained.

"I really enjoyed my stay at Loma Linda," the doctor remarks. "Although not of the Adventist faith, I appreciated the christian atmosphere and positive approach to medical care. I was impressed by the dedication to saving lives."

"There is a mixture of Adventists and non-members on the house staff, but overall there is a strong church influence."

Dr. Krech has some contact with doctors in the Cardio-Thoracics Unit, but does not recall meeting any directly connected with the operation on Baby Faye. Loma Linda, he says, is probably best known in the field of pulmonary and cardiovascular medicine. The hospital is also noted for its work in the field of preventive medicine, and Dr. Krech's studies included some of that training.

"I believe the hospital will continue to move forward in the field of health care," he says. "That will undoubtedly include more transplant surgery. Perhaps the public has been made more aware of the work going on there."

Area Students In Who's Who

A total of 52 students from this area have been included in the 18th annual edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG AMERICAN HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS, 1983-84.

WHO'S WHO, published by Educational Communications, Inc., Lake Forest, Illinois, is the largest high school recognition publication in the country. Students are selected by high school principals and guidance counselors, national youth groups, churches or by the publishing company based upon students' performance in scholarship award contests or extra-curricular activities.

Final selection is determined on the basis of criteria which include high achievement in academics and leadership in school activities, athletics or community service. Traditionally, 99% of WHO'S WHO students have a grade point average of "B" or better and 97% are college bound. The 18th edition of WHO'S WHO, published in nine regional volumes, features 392,000 students, or 6% of the nation's 6,500,000 high school juniors and seniors. They represent 18,000 of the 22,000 public, private and parochial high schools in the country.

WHO'S WHO students also compete for over $50,000 in scholarship awards and participate in the publication's annual opinion poll of teen attitudes. The book is distributed on a complimentary basis to over 15,000 high schools, colleges, universities, and public libraries throughout the country.

Local students selected for this year's volumes are: Randy W. Bledsoe, Cathy Files, Sherry Halford, Lynn McDaniel, Stacy Marc Morgan, Landon Stallings, Carlton Cozart, Denise Hagan, Travis Hays, Marc Morgan, and Sheryl Sandlin all of Carbon. Dana Carlile, Sabrenia Justice, Scott Keating, Lynn Pittman, Margaret Yeager, Lana Hogan, David A. Kanady, Deanna McGrew and Jeanine Reich all of Cisco.

Volunteer Fire Fighter - Jack Of All Trades

Most of us have no idea what a volunteer fire fighter actually does other than spray water on an occasional fire. The volunteer fire service is much more than a group of "good ol' boys" hanging out at the local fire house and organizing an occasional carnival.

They are building inspectors, construction workers, fire safety experts, community leaders and trained paramedics.

For instance, volunteer fire fighters regularly conduct home inspection programs to help homeowners spot common fire hazards and to stress the importance of smoke detectors.

During one of these inspections in Seaside, Oregon, the volunteer fire department found that many elderly and handicapped people were especially vulnerable to fire. Consequently, the department designed a program to provide smoke detectors to those people unable to obtain their own. The community wholeheartedly supported the program. With funds donated from a number of service clubs, the first smoke detectors was installed within months.

Volunteers offer this same inspection to schools, businesses, hospitals, churches and other public buildings within a community.

These inspections save many lives because the fire fighters are able to familiarize the tenants with hazards within the building, how to correct them, and how to evacuate the building when a fire occurs. Equally important, the volunteers have a chance to familiarize themselves with the building which enables them to develop a plan for dealing with a fire inside it.

Butler, New Jersey, has taken building inspection a step further. The volunteers regularly work with architects to design firesafe homes and offices.

"No building goes up in Butler until we have approved the plans," said Floyd Decker, a Butler volunteer.

In addition to ensuring that buildings are fire safe, volunteer fire fighters make sure that people learn to correct fire safety techniques. Departments across the nation have implemented fire education programs for both children and adults.

The Butler volunteers regularly sponsor poster and essay contests for elementary and high school students. The fire fighters also work with teachers to include firesafety techniques along with regular school lessons.

Volunteers are even seen on college campuses. Floyd Decker speaks frequently to elementary education majors at a small northeastern college. These students are required to learn firesafety techniques that they will be able to pass on to their own students.

"This is a good example of the growing emphasis on fire safety in the U.S.," Decker said of the college program.

Many volunteer departments have been successful in organizing community fire prevention committees to assist the volunteers in delivering their message.

One department in Delta Junction, Alaska, organized a committee of local community leaders and trained them in fire prevention techniques. The committee then assisted the volunteer fire fighters in presentations to community clubs on home firesafety and in conducting evacuation drills in local homes and businesses. After the first year of the program the number of structure fires declined from nine to one.

The volunteer fire service does everything possible to reduce the number of fires and fire related deaths in towns like ours across the nation. But a fire may still occur...in your home, your child's school or your place of business. And the highly trained volunteer fire fighters and paramedics will be there.

Are you volunteer material? Call the local fire hall.

Dec. 31st Ends 1984 Crop Year

December 31st ends the 1984 Crop Year insurance period for Peanuts grown in Eastland County and insured by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC), or by a private company reinsured by FCIC, according to Ardell M. Kalmbach, a representative for the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

"Any notice of loss must be given no later than 30 days after total destruction of the unit, completion of harvest, or December 31, 1984, whichever occurs earlier," according to Kalmbach.

The producer who anticipates a claim should notify his or her Crop Insurance agent immediately.

"Under the terms of the policy, an acreage on which harvest will not be completed must be left intact until an inspection is made. Any claim for indemnity may be rejected if these loss reporting requirements are not met," Kalmbach stated.

Arts Department Concert

The Fine Arts Department of Cisco Junior College will present its annual Combined Christmas Concert, Tuesday, December 11, at 7:30 p.m. in Harrell Fine Arts Auditorium. The concert will feature the Wrangler Band and Belles, the CJC Singers and organist Steven Zell.

Immediately following the concert the lighting of the campus Christmas tree on the Mall in front of the Science Hall will take place.

The Band will begin the program with a concert standard, "Tenth Regiment March," by R.B. Hall. The band will also present "Carillons at Christmas tide," "Adeste Fideles" and

"Christmas Music for Winds." The Wrangler Belles will dance "Winter Wonderland," choreographed by Belle Director, Nicki Harle. The Belles will also do some "sing-a-long" with the band on some familiar Christmas carols. Tim Jones directs the Wrangler Band.

A vocal ensemble of the CJC Singers will conclude the concert with two medleys of Christmas music. One is called "Christmer Cheer," and the other one is "Rhapsody of Christmas." Included will be such carols as "The Holly and the Ivy," "God Rest You Merry Gentlemen," "Wassail, Wassail," "O Holy Night," "Angels We Have Heard on High," "What Child Is This," and the ever popular favorites, "Silent Night." Wiley Peebles directs the singers.

The concert is open to the public, and there is no admission charge.

Citizens of Athens scratched their votes on pieces of broken pottery. Potsherd ballots cast more than 2,400 years ago have been unearthed by archaeologists. Such ballots were known as ostraka, from which the word "ostracize" is derived.

The Robert E. Lee Memorial is a historic residence, Arlington House, on a hilltop above Arlington National Cemetery. It was built by George Washington Parke Custis, grandson of Martha Washington and father of Mary Ann Randolph Custis, who married Lee in the house in 1831. BIRTH CONTROL FOR DOGS & CATS

It is common knowledge that millions of unwanted dogs and cats are killed every year by dog pounds, humane societies, and individuals. Most of these puppies, kittens, and adult dogs and cats are quite healthy but just not wanted. Pet birth control is an obvious step in solving this problem. Here are the methods available:

1) Confinement - The physical separation of the in heat female is obviously going to prevent pregnancy however this is often impossible to arrange. When the reproductive hormones of the female dog get to flowing the old saying "Where there is a will, there is a way" is often proven. Dogs and cats are known to bite through, dig under, climb over and break out of any type of enclosure just to have a brief encounter with the dog next door or any other four legged traveling man that just happens to be in the neighborhood. The confinement method of birth control has had a surprising tendency of developing a line of mongrels that have the ability to jump 6 foot fences, the intelligence to pick locks, the strength to rip chain link fences and the flexibility to squeeze through any small opening big enough to point their nose into.

2) Ovariectomy - Commonly called a spay is the most common surgical procedure in veterinary medicine. With modern techniques it is very safe and 100% effective in controlling birth. Both ovaries and the uterus are removed from the females through an abdominal incision. Besides the obvious benefits of birth control, spaying also eliminates the possibility of uterine infections and greatly lowers the occurrence of mammary tumors. Uterine infections and mammary tumors are common life threatening diseases of the older female dog.

There are a lot of old timers that will try to convince people that a female will settle down and be a better pet if she has one litter of puppies before she is spayed. This old myth just doesn't hold water. Most young dogs of either sex will calm down considerably about 15 months of age regardless of their family situation. Another old wives tale is that spaying makes a dog fat. Spayed dogs will only get fat if they are over fed and under exercised. Just like you and me.

Castration is the equivalent to spaying in a male dog - both testicles are removed. In addition to the birth control benefits castration can also tend to make male dogs stay at home better, fight less, and reduce the incidence of prostate disease in older males.

3) Birth Control Pills - There are several medications that can be used in the female dog to either prevent the occurrence of the heat period or to prevent pregnancy and shorten the heat period. The advantage of this type of birth control is that it is not permanent in cases where puppies are desired at a later time. Its disadvantage is that it is not 100% effective and it may increase the incidence of uterine disease. With few exceptions birth control medications should not be used in cats.

4) Mismatching Injections - Mismatching injections are a means of terminating a pregnancy within a short time after mating has occurred. The hormone estradiol cypionate must be given within a few days of mating to be effective. The drug tends to prolong signs of heat in the animal and also has been associated with an increased incidence of uterine disease.

Your veterinarian would be happy to discuss any of these methods in detail if you need further information.

Overall it was Traci Brown 8th, Debbie Pope 7th, Shelly Bailey 4th, and Paul Brown, Sandra Lyerla, Mary Jane Little splitting 1st, 2nd and 3rd. It was a very good contest. ANSWER TO BIBLE TRIVIA

ANSWER: ABNER

The son of Ner, of the tribe of Benjamin. Abner served in the army of Saul and his fighting force sometimes assumed major proportions, upward to 200,000 men. (1 Sam. 15:4) Abner was a very powerful man, but did not feel himself a match for the towering Goliath. However, he stood by and witnessed young David demonstrate his courage. Abner proposed a contest between a dozen warriors on each side of the opposing Kings. The sides were so evenly matched that a mutual slaughter resulted. This provoked a full-scale war and Abner's forces lost eighteen men to every one of Joab's soldiers. (2 Sam. 2:12-17, 30, 31) Joab later denounced Abner as a conniving spy and tricked him into a position where he could kill him. (2 Sam. 3:20-17) With Abner's death, any hoped-for support for Ish-bosheth was assassinated by traitorous men. With this the rule of the house of Saul came to a complete end. SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

It was a custom in Rome, that in the time of trouble, a friend would wipe away the tears with a piece of cloth. Then the tears would be squeezed into a bottle. And that bottle would be kept as a memorial of love and sorrow.

That same custom prevailed in the Holy Land. That is why David prayed in Psalm 56:8, "Put Thy my tears in Thy bottle; are they not in Thy book?"

The Lord knows all about the tears that are shed in sickness, and He cares. When Hezekiah became deadly ill, he prayed. And the Lord said, "I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears; I will heal thee" 2 Kings 20:5.

The Lord records the tears that are shed over sin. A woman of the streets knelt at His feet and repented of her sins. Dr. Luke reported that His feet were wet with her tears. The Lord said to her, "Thy sins are forgiven" - Luke 7:48.

The Lord honors the tears that are shed when sowing the seed with a happy harvest. He promised in Psalm 126:5, "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy."

Tears are not a sign of weakness, but of strength. They sometimes speak more eloquently to the Lord than tongues. He always heeds the tears and heals the broken in heart. And the soul would have no rainbow had the eyes no tears.

Lights From The Christian World by Josephine Cleveland

We need not be tossed about by circumstances. In spite of tribulations, distresses, dangers, wars or other problems, Christians can be more than conquerors through Christ who loves us. You may feel that your problems are overwhelming you so that you no longer can manage your life. Friend, it is then you are at the place where God can help you. Our extremities are God's opportunities.

Modernists tell us that men are in control of their own destiny.—that God does not exist. True, God created us with the power of choice.

We were told, "Choose you this day who you will serve." We need only look around us and see the folly man's own ways has wrought. Searching for peace men have reached out for alcohol, drugs and thrills that only lead to more turmoil.

Friend, it is good to know that even now the Lord is interceding for you. Paul wrote, "The Spirit also helpeth our infirmities; for we know what we should pray for as we ought; but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God."

What shall we then say? If God be for us who can be against us?

Dear Jesus, we thank you that your strength is all sufficient. When we are weak then you are strong. We desire to look to you each day. Amen.

POEM

THREE MONKEYS
Three monkeys sat in a coconut tree,
Discussing things as they seem to be,
Said one to the others,
"Now listen, you two,
There's a certain rumor that can't be true—
That man descended from our noble race.
The very idea; It's a disgrace.
"No monkey ever deserted his wife,
Starved her babies, or ruined her life.
And you've never known another monk
To leave her babies with others to bunk,
Or pass them on from one to another,
Till they scarcely know who is their mother.
"Another thing, you'll never see,
A monk build a fence round a coconut tree,
And let the coconuts go to waste,
Refusing all other monks a taste.
If I'd put a fence around a tree,
Starvation would force you to steal from me.
"Here's another thing a monk won't do,
Go out at night and get on a stew,
Or use a gun, or a club, or knife,
To take some other monkey's life.
Yes, man descended, the ornery cuss,
But brothers, he didn't descend from us!

Battle Creek

Pumps In Repair

The City of Cisco's Battle Creek water pumping station is expected to be back in operation and ready for the creek to run by Dec. 18th. City Manager Mike Moore reported Friday. The pumps were removed several weeks ago for a complete overhaul.

Mr. Moore said the improvement program at the pump station, which included re-wiring both 300hp motors and work on the huge pumps, will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000.

The station pumps water from Battle Creek after rains and sends it via pipeline to Lake Cisco.

News From The Center

By Mae Green

The Agape Sunday School class of Calvary Baptist hosted the residents monthly birthday party on November 15th at 2:30. Birthday honorees were Lillie Beene, Etta Judia, Tlausa Hess, Lucy Callaway, Cleo Bell, Henry Pence, Georgia Chapman, Ernest Damron, William Taylor and Willie Walker.

An after Thanksgiving dinner was held at the Nursing Center on November 26 at 5:30 p.m. for the residents and their families. Everyone was treated to turkey and dressing with all the trimmings. We appreciate the families for taking the time to come help make this a special occasion.

We appreciate the Monday Night Singers for bringing covered dishes and sharing in this occasion with us. After the dinner many of the family members went to the back lobby to listen to the Singers sing many of their favorite inspirational songs and hymns of faith. A special thanks goes to Mrs. C.P. Chick and Mrs. Ernest Reich for the flowers used as centerpieces.

On Tuesday, November 27th the members of the Pleasant Hill Homemakers Club started to decorate the home for Christmas. We appreciate this club for the many nice things that they've done and are doing for the Nursing home.

Mrs. Velma Joyner, of the community chairman of A.A.R.P. # 247, brought 19 lap robes that were made by some of the women in this organization.

The pastors visiting the Nursing home for the month of November were: Bro. Benny Hagan, Corinth Baptist; Bro. Cecil Deadman, East Cisco Baptist; Bro. Joe Philpott, Mitchell Baptist; Bro. Frank Williams, First United Methodist and some of the members of the men's Bible class of the Church of Christ.

We are grateful for Don Copeland and his group for coming up to the Nursing Home on Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m. to sing for the residents.

We would like to thank Mary and Richard Dennis for entertaining the residents on Friday. Volunteers are always welcomed. Your contributions to the Nursing Home mean more than you'll ever know.
God Bless You.

18-Year Old Adult Charged With Burglary

An 18-year old adult was formally charged with burglary of a building and two youths, ages 14 and 16, were turned over to county juvenile authorities Thursday as the City Police Department completed its investigation of vandalism last weekend at the Cisco High School building, Police Chief Billy Rains reported.

The burglary charge, a second degree felony, was filed against Martin Elizalde, 18, in Justice of the Peace J.V. Heyser's court here. Bond was set at $500 and the young man was released from county jail after the bond was posted.

The two juveniles will face charges in the county juvenile court, Chief Rains said.

The trio was alleged to have defaced the building and walks with spray paint. Damages amounted to several hundred dollars, school authorities said.

Health Dept. To Inspect Water

A final inspection of the new water filtration plant and other improvements made to the Lake Cisco water facilities is expected to be made by the State Health Department on Wednesday, Dec. 12, City Manager Mike Moore reported.

Work on the project is near completion, Mr. Moore said. Filtered water has been flowing through city water lines for the past two months and the quality has shown steady improvement, the city manager said.

Work on the water improvement program has been going on for the past year.

Senior Citizens Nutrition Menu

Last week we discussed the three basics of a well-balanced and nutritious diet: the carbohydrates, proteins and fats.

Have you ever considered that complex carbohydrates are the first and perhaps most important portions of the diet. Vegetables, and fruits, dried beans and peas, seeds and nuts, whole-grain rice, cereals and breads easily supplant the red meats, butter, cheeses, salty processed foods, pies and cakes.

These carbohydrates are your energy base, loaded with vitamins and minerals and your only source of fiber.

But let us not get carried away with just living on the so-called "simple carbohydrates." A lot more is involved. Let's talk about that next week.

Programs for the week were: The Senior Citizen Band and Choir entertained, dinner music by Al Sims, Vida Killion, Margerite King and A.E. McNeely. Special program "This Is Your Life Rev. O.T. Killion and Mrs. Killion", the Cisco Music Study Club members Lydia Krauskopf and Viola Payne presented the special music. (More about the special program in another section of the paper.)

Menus for the coming week:

Monday-- Chicken and dumplings, peas and carrots, vegetable salad, banana pudding, bread, butter and drink.
Wednesday-- Beef stew, tossed salad, apple sauce, gingerbread, cornbread.

Bass Club Report

Our final meeting for 1984 was held Thursday, December 6th. On hand to finalize this year's business were 7 members plus an excellent youth attendance of 5 family members. Items discussed were appropriation of remaining funds, ways to improve participation, and area fishing.

Our winners of door prizes were Steve Pennington, Jerry Scott and Ira Pennington.

1984 has come and gone, now is the time to begin preparations and scheduling for the continued growth of this organization, which is directed by the members. We have already begun with the appointment of Don Flowers, Ira Pennington and Tommy Maynard as our nominating committee for 1985 officers.

This committee shall only be nominating not electing our officers. Next years members will be solely responsible for the election of officers.

At this time as our outgoing president I would like to thank everyone for their support and cooperation during the past year. As a club we have made many strides forward to continue the growth of our organization. We hope everyone will make plans to be with us again next year for those members who could not be active for one reason or another we hope to see you able to participate and join the growing numbers of club members and when you come, bring a friend with you to our next meeting January 1985. Thursday 3rd 7:30 p.m. Eastland National Bank Building.

Area lakes look cold, but hold some hot action. Hybrid stripers at Hubbard Creek are hitting just about everything but the boat, catches of as many as 30 fish are being reported. Channel cat are good up to 4 pounds. Crappie are coming around but still dragging. Bass are slow but can be found around steep points, try bouncing a jig slowly down points. Leon's crappie are starting to move, with boat house showing good results. Bass good on steep points and near the creek channel. Catfish slow.

There are well over five million native pecan trees along Texas rivers and streams. Little wonder the State claims this popular and productive tree as the official State Tree of Texas.

The pecan, whether native or a named variety, is often claimed as a good yard or shade tree. Not only does it provide shade but rewards the grower with desirable nuts as well. The pecan makes a stately shade tree and is comparatively fast growing. It is quick to lose its leaves come fall and late to leaf out in the spring, thus allowing the desired winter sun more than most other tree selections.

Winter is pecan tree planting time. Planting when the tree is dormant and the season cool and moist is important for good livability.

For success in planting pecans, select and buy sound, vigorous trees. The pecan is purchased bare-rooted, thus, choose trees which are not dried out, and keep the root area moist at all times. If there is a delay in planting, cover the root area with moist rags or with moist soil until planting. Select a tree 3 to 6 feet in height...above the root line...and prune at least one-third of the top growth away. Cutting the new tree back is often difficult for most gardeners; yet, pruning the tree will pay off with faster establishment of roots and faster growth the first critical year after planting.

Locate the pecan planting in well-drained soil and where there is ample sun and growing room away from the competition of neighboring trees.

The grower must dig the planting area large enough to easily accommodate the tree's root system. Set the tree at the same depth it stood in the nursery row...not too shallow, not too deep. Replace well-prepared topsoil around the roots, firming it well to eliminate possible air pockets, and water well after planting.

Do not fertilize the tree until it is well established and growing. Usually, it is best for the grower to wait until the second spring or growth season to begin a fertilizer program.

Perhaps the most difficult and the most important item in growing pecans is to choose the proper variety for one's specific area. New varieties which are of better quality and more disease resistant are replacing the older and less desirable ones. The following are recommended pecan varieties for Eastland County with some of their outstanding characteristics:

In-shell pecans for retail sales and home use:

CHOCTAW is a large pecan of excellent kernel quality. Choctaw develops a 59 percent kernel and requires 37 nuts to weigh one pound under optimum growing conditions.

KIOWA is a brand new USDA release. Kiowa nuts look like Desirable. The tree is more vigorous, produces larger crops, but is not as consistent as Desirable.

MOHAWK is a large pecan of fair to good kernel quality. Mohawk develops a 60 percent kernel and requires 34 nuts to weigh one pound under optimum growing conditions. Mohawk makes an excellent dooryard tree because of its diffuse branching and heavy, dense foliage. Mohawk is also adapted to areas of North Texas because it matures pecan early in the season.

MAHAN is a large pecan with variable kernel quality. This is an old variety which has had good market acceptance in spite of poor kernel quality due to its large size. The Mahan tree has a dark rich green color and is an excellent tree for ornamental purposes.

SHELLING PECANS FOR WHOLESALE TRADE AND HOME USE:

SHAWNEE is a medium-sized pecan of good kernel quality. Shawnee develops a 59 percent kernel and requires 51 nuts to weigh one pound under optimum growing conditions. This pecan is big enough and attractive enough to use as a retail pecan.

SIoux is a small, excellent quality pecan. Sioux develops a 60 percent kernel and requires 61 nuts to weigh one pound under optimum growing conditions.

WICHITA is a medium-to-large western pecan variety with very good quality kernels. Wichita develops a 62 percent kernel and requires 44 nuts to weigh one pound under optimum growing conditions. Wichita must be harvested when mature and stored properly. The tree is very productive and comes into production at an early age. Wichita requires zinc management for proper leaf development and tree growth. Wichita is not disease resistant.

CADDO is small pecan of good kernel quality. Caddo develops a 63 percent kernel and requires 57 nuts to weigh one pound under optimum growing conditions. Caddo is very productive and comes into production in approximately 6 years. The tree is a vigorous grower, has strong disease resistance and is a regular producer. It is pro-tandrous, pollen first, variety.

'TEJAS' A medium size pecan of good kernel quality. The tree is very vigorous and very productive and comes into production at an early age. 'Tejas' sheds pollen over a long period of time.

'SHOSHONI' A small pecan of fair kernel quality. The 'Shoshoni' pecan matures early in the season and should be valuable to areas where the growing season is short.

CHEYENNE is a medium sized pecan of good kernel quality. The tree is vigorous with very diffused branching. The Cheyenne is very productive and comes into production at a very early age.

THE HISTORY OF HERBS

We find herbs in many places in the Bible: "Small rain upon the tender herb." -Deuteronomy 32:2; "And thou shalt eat the herb of the field." -Genesis 3:18; "The greatest herbs." -Matthew 13:31-32; "Eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs." -Numbers 9:11; "But woe unto you, Pharisees! For ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs." -Luke 11:42.

The term "herb" is used in the Bible to describe grassy plants in general, as well as to refer to the group of plants use specifically for scent, flavor, or medicinal purposes.

The Old Testament mentions the bitter herbs which had to be eaten with the Passover lamb, but does not specify any particular plant. (Exodus 12:8). Tradition names them as lettuce, endive, and chicory, to which were added later watercress, parsley and others.

Though the herbs themselves varied with time and place, the reason for eating them always remain clear. They were to remind the Hebrews of their bitter experience as slaves in Egypt. (Exodus). The Passover feast is celebrated in the Spring of the year and its purpose is to recall how the Israelites were "passed over" by the destroying angel when the first born of the Egyptians were slain. (Exodus 12:21-28). The Last Supper is thought to have been a Passover meal, though there is some difference of this since the synoptic Gospels and the Gospel according to John differ on the time of events of Holy Week.

Only in the New Testament are the lesser herbs mentioned by name. Mint was valued for its medicinal qualities and was spread on floors to give off its sweet scent with each footfall. In food preparation, mint was served with meat dishes, especially with Passover lamb.

Anise is a three-foot high plant with an oval fruit which has a pungent taste and is used to flavor food, as medicine, and as a healing wash for cuts. Rue grows to a height of five feet and is mentioned only once in the Bible. (Luke 11:42) Its Greek name, peganon means "strong smelling." This plant was used in medicines, to flavor food, and as a disinfectant.

Jesus mentioned mustard twice, calling it the "greatest of herbs", evidently a reference to the twelve-foot height this plant sometimes attains. Mustard leaves were eaten as a vegetable and the seeds were ground into a powder used to flavor meat dishes. In the parable of the mustard seed in a forceful saying about faith, Jesus compared the smallness of the mustard seed and the greatness of its possibilities. (Matthew 17:20; Luke 17:6) The Latin name for the mustard family is Cruciferae, meaning "cross-bearing," because the four petals of the plant's flowers resemble the shape of the Maltese cross.

4-H Project Deadline

ATTENTION all 4-H and FFA County Livestock Show Exhibitors. It's time to validate projects. All market animals (steers, barrows, lambs) have to be validated by January 10, 1985. Each town or community will validate at different dates. The Vo-Ag teachers, County Agent, and a Livestock Raiser Director will work together in each community to validate all projects at one time.

Some tentative dates are:
Eastland - December 12-13 (Wednesday and Thursday) afternoons
Rising Star - December 14 (Friday) afternoon
Ranger - December 15 (Saturday)
Gorman - January 10 (Thursday)

Other communities have not set dates yet but as soon as a date is set the word will get out. If you do not have your project yet, you only have a few more days left to get it (that is if you plan on showing in the County Livestock Show). Let's get this done so we can have a GREAT COUNTY LIVESTOCK SHOW IN 1985.

"UNDER A BUTTERMILK MOON"

Written by Roy Webster... 180 pages, illustrated, photographs, hardbound. Available locally at House of Webster Ceramics, East Highway 80 Eastland, Texas. $11.95.

Faith, hope, love...but the greatest of these... - Roy has a fine inheritance. He writes of times when these were all they had to survive on, survive they did. Indeed, faith and hope, as Roy sees it, were as essential as sunshine and rain to his parents' success in farming that Czark hillside. For Roy, faith, hope and love are not abstractions; they are concrete; faith is a harvest of strawberries, hope is a new stove, love a patchwork quilt.

But, while this book is filled with philosophy, it is not a book of philosophy. It is a book of life, of personal history (how we need such stories to be written down!), of a time and a place, yet of every time and every place. Most of all, it is a pleasure; it is laughing, it is remembering, it is learning, it is delighting in Roy Webster's voice and spirit.

"Finally, this book is a celebration. I'm glad I was invited to be a part of it; you'll be glad you came, too. Happy Anniversary, House of Roy and Evelyn Webster."

Lifted from the introduction by: Sally Chandler Crisp, Staff Member, University of Arkansas at Little Rock, Arkansas.

The author is Roy Webster, founder of the HOUSE OF WEBSTER, a gift package manufacturer of Rogers, Arkansas and the House of Webster Ceramics co-owned and managed by Jimmy Little and family of Eastland.

Copies of the book are available at the House of Webster Retail Store on East Main St. in Eastland. It's a good 'un.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:
The Cisco Press is almost like a "letter from home", even though I have been away from there since 1966. It was my home from 1947 until May 1966. Have been reading with great interest the article the lady wrote on her tour of Europe. I have worked for the Army since 1967 (at Corpus Christi Army Depot) and in March 1983 came to Germany to fulfill a three year contract. The country is beautiful and I sometimes believe that if my family and friends were over here, I would stay. We have visited all the places, and experienced all the sights, that the lady did except more. We have visited Austria, Switzerland, Lichtenstein, Italy, France, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Turkey, Greece (twice), Belgium, Luxenburg, Netherlands, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Hungary and Berlin (east and west). We plan to go to Spain, Portugal and North Africa over the Christmas holidays and then visit the Holy Land in February. Will make England, Ireland and Scotland over the Easter holidays.

My grandparents were Charlie and Rachael Guinn. My grandmother was Rachael Graves Guinn, sister of T.A. Graves.

My mother is a cousin to Woodrow Harris of the Santa Claus Bank Robbery. His grandmother was my mother's grandmother that he helped out of the car the bank robbers wanted to use.

Thanks,
Mrs. Belva R. Schott

The push and pull of Christmas - is it meant to do away with the manger? "Christmas card messages, Christmas shopping, Christmas plans and celebrations, often exclude Jesus in the manger in Bethlehem," says Dr. Oswald Hoffmann, speaker on the Lutheran Hour. "But only when Jesus is the Center of our celebration does Christmas have real meaning." Hear the Lutheran Hour message "Away With The Manger" next Sunday at 8:00 a.m. on radio station KCLW and again at 12:35 on KWFT.

HUNDREDS AND hundreds of railroad cross ties are being changed out in this region as the Missouri Pacific Railroad begins a replacement project for all of the wooden rail supports between Cisco and Ranger—some 20 miles of them.

Major Farnsworth, signal maintenance chairman for M-P in this region, tells us that the cross tie project is the reason you're seeing a lot of cars parked near the railroad here these days. The cars belong to the workers on the project.

Understand that Mr. Ed Stuart of Cisco, who is the M-P's section foreman in the Ranger-Cisco area, is one of the over-seers of the work.

What happens to the old cross ties? They belong to the contractor and he sells. They're sold all the way to Colorado to folks using them around their yards and farms. Perhaps there'll be a place in this area where you can buy some—if you're interested, that is. Understand there are some 1,500 cross ties per mile under the rails.

A NOTE IN this column recently reported that the children at Cisco Child Care Center were missing their television programs since a thief broke in and took their TV along with other items.

Mr. Bill Philpott of the CCC board reports that three people called the center to offer gifts of TV sets. And they accepted one of them. The children are again watching their favorite programs.

Another caller offered to pay for TV cable service for a year.

You can bet that the CCC board, the children and staff appreciate the gifts. Thank you notes are printed elsewhere in the paper.

VISITING OUT at Cisco Junior College's technical-vocational building the other day, we wandered into the cosmetology department where Mrs. Dessie Covington has 23 students learning all about hair cutting, coloring, shampooing, skin care and the like—things that cosmeticians (not beauty operators) need to know to qualify for a state license.

Would we like to have a hair cut? It was flattering for a man with virtually no hair to receive such an invitation.

So we were seated in a chair presided over by Miss Jessica Cater, one of the students, and in no time at all we had a fresh hair cut. Miss JC told us that students such as she practice on mannikins mostly. The need live models to learn hair cutting. And live models are preferred for lessons and practice in various other functions performed.

A sign on the wall reminds you that students are working on you.

Mrs. Covington has run the cosmetology department for five or six years and has been in the beauty business some 22 years in our town. Twenty-five is the limit for the number of students they can handle. Students must have 1,500 hours of actual practice, complete a number of courses that deal with cosmetology and take a state board exam upon completion to qualify as licensed cosmeticians.

Obituaries

Services For Belinda Talavara Are Saturday

Services for Belinda Sue Talavara, 31, of Eastland were held Saturday, at 2:00 p.m. at Kimbrough Funeral Home. Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery.

Ms. Talavara was found dead in her home last Wednesday.

Born May 10, 1953 in Amherst, Ohio, she was a food service employee at Super Duper in Eastland.

Survivors include three children, Shane, Amanda and Devina Southard all of Rock Springs, Wyoming; parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Latham of Eastland; a grandmother, Mona Wotaw of Cisco; four brothers, Lloyd Latham, Baryd, New Mexico, Steven and Wade Latham both of Rock Springs, Wyo. and Noland Latham of Cisco.

In a nearby workshop at the CJC TV building, we found Mrs. Sue Mullinax teaching a class of artists. And it was interesting to look over shoulders while painters were creating.

UP NORTH ON Hilton Avenue, the folks at Mayor Eris Ritchie's Southwest Enterprises are busy these days addressing and mailing 4,000 Christmas greetings (appointment calendars) to customers and projects all over the country... The board of trustees of the Conrad Hilton Memorial Park and Community Center was to meet Friday, Dec. 7, to complete details of the transfer of the Mobley Hilton building by deed to the center... Some eight or 10 paintings by the late Letha Stafford are on sale at D&H Enterprises, 105 West 8th Street. Mrs. Stafford was regarded as an artist of considerable talent.

A LABRADOR Retriever, bird dog owned by Jim Graham of our town, must have a compass in his brain. Twice lately, Jim has given the dog to a man in Eastland. And twice the dog got out of a fenced yard and returned to the Graham home in Cisco. Last week, Jim was looking for Jammie Fry to give him the dog... Mr. Walter Preston, Cisco, heard about a couple of duck hunters. One shot a duck that fell in a stock tank. His dog walked out on the water, picked up the duck and delivered same to the hunter. "Did you notice anything unusual about that dog," the hunter asked his friend. "Yes," he replied, "the dog can't swim"... And Mr. E.D. Anderson, local oil man, knows a man whose dog goes to the family recreation room, turns on the TV, and settles down comfortable in front of same to watch his favorite programs.

LAREN KIRK, seven pounds and four ounces, was born last Tuesday in a Garland Hospital to join the family of the Ken Kirks, formerly of Cisco. Laren's grandparents, the Truman Kirks, planned to visit her this weekend... Olney Savings has announced plans to hold an open house all day Monday, Dec. 17th... The Cisco Country Club has changed the date for a catered dinner for members from this Saturday (Dec. 8) to Dec. 18th at 6 p.m. Call Peggy Ledbetter (442-3369) or Debbie Whitley (442-2560) if you haven't made a reservation.

YOU CAN WIN $100 by attending a CJC Basketball game. And they're playing a doubleheader here Wednesday, Dec. 12, (6 p.m. women, 8 p.m. men.) Those who buy tickets are given numbered stubs. A drawing pulls out three names at half-time.

The three people then are given basketballs to toss free throws. The ticket holder whose best score for three tosses wins the right to shoot a goal from the center stripe. If his ball goes through the basket the tosser wins a $100 bill. See you at the game.

MR. STEVEN Zell of the CJC Music Department presented a musical program on the harpsicord that he built from a kit as the program feature when ladies of the CJC faculty and wives of faculty members held a Christmas luncheon at the Laguna Roof Garden last Tuesday night. Sue Mullinax presided. Some 25 ladies enjoyed the salad luncheon... Coach John Parchman had several near misses while out turkey shooting last Saturday. Our scouts report, Rick Whately's lone shot was true and there's a fine gobler in his mother's freezer awaiting Christmas dinner. Lawyer Billy Wright, out with the two, couldn't get his gun off safety, the scout reported.

A NUMBER OF residences are beginning to add to the Christmas season with attractive lights these nights. They include those at the Scott Zellman home, 704 Avenue I; the Tom Smartt home, 1100 West 12th at corner of Avenue N; the Kenneth McCullochs, 508 Avenue I; and the Lairds on Avenue N... Isn't it unusual that both Mr. Don Reynolds and his wife Loretta were summoned for the same petit jury in 91st District Court on Monday?... The first Christmas card at our house is signed "Hubert, Snookie, Pinkie and Killer." It's from Hubert Kennedy and his three faithful dogs, Snookie, Pinkie and Killer.

ABILENE'S Channel 32 (7 on the cable) put their Big Country Reporter program on the air at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday and two segments were of interest locally.

They showed a nice film and story about the 1927 Santa Claus bank robbery in Cisco. The feature had close up pictures with interviews with Mrs. Lela Lloyd, Jasper Cook and O.L. Stamey plus shots at the old First National Bank building and of the Randy Steffen painting (at the bank) of that day when Santa held up their bank.

The other item was a picture story of Mr. Victor Cornelius and his VC Printing Company of Eastland—about how he started as a sign painter and nickelodeon owner, went into printing after inventing theatrical advertising gimmicks, and grew big in printing for theaters, restaurant menus and nursing home menu cards and the like.

Both items were nice and appreciated by the folks of Cisco and Eastland.

Tanning Is Now Possible During The Winter Months

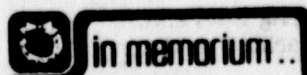

The Lobo and J.R.'s Hair Care Center, 709 Conrad Hilton Avenue, has added a tanning salon to its high-tech program. The tanning bed is located inside a private booth which may be locked from the inside by the customer.

One of the advantages of a tanning bed, other than privacy, is the specially designed ultraviolet lamps that make it possible to visibly brown the skin with none of the tanning torments of burning, peeling or aging of the skin that occur with the outdoor sun.

Generally ten sessions are needed for the average complexion to show a tan. A session is 20 minutes in duration. It is important that the initial sessions be done on consecutive days. The patron can skip the weekend, but cannot expect good results if the initial ten visits are spread out over too long a period of time.

Once a person gets a tan, they need to use the tanning bed approximately once a week to keep the tan.

In answer to the question

A donation to the Conrad Hilton Memorial was recently made by Mr. and Mrs. Eris Ritchie in memory of Austin Allred.

whether it is possible to burn with exposure to the ultraviolet lamps, a very hesitant "yes" was given since it requires a very substantial over exposure time for this to happen. Because a deep rich tan can be achieved without burning, suntanning artificially with ultraviolet light is the easiest and most convenient way of tanning all year.

Lobo owner Jim Roberts stated, "Customers can purchase tanning sessions at reduced rates now and use those sessions throughout the coming year. Tanning sessions may also be given in the form of gift certificates."

In keeping with their high-tech program, the Lobo and J.R.'s will be adding a computer perm in early 1985.
