Trustees Will Open Bids For Mobley Hilton Project

The board of trustees of the Conrad N. Hilton Memorial Park and Community Center, Inc., will open bids at 2 p.m. Thursday, April 25, for a contract to restore the Mobley Hilton Hotel, according to announcement by President Eris Ritchie.

The call for bids was authorized by the board of directors after meetings here last Monday and Tuesday. Gordon Marchant of the architecture firm of Komatsu and Associates, Fort Worth, has plans and specifications for prospective bidders, Mr. Ritchie said.

Bids will also be opened to award a contract for interior design and furnishing, according to the announcement. Prospective bidders will be screened to determine their qualifications and financial capability, and an adequate bond will be required, the announcement said.

A set of blueprints is on display in the director's room at the First National Bank and the public was invited to see them.

Mr. Ritchie said the board hopes to have construction work underway by May 1 and for the restoration to be completed in a year. Funding includes a 1.2 million dollar grant from the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation.

The old Mobley, located at Hilton and 4th Street, was the first hotel owned by the late Conrad Hilton, who was later to become the world's No. 1 innkeeper with hotels throughout the world.

In the restoration, the board hopes to obtain part of the original furniture from the old Mobley and a committee was being organized to help locate suitable furnishings for the structure, Mr. Ritchie said.

'Needless to say, members of the board of trustees are real excited with developments," Mr. Ritchie said. "Legal details have been cleared up. Money will be available to us as progress is made in the restoration work."

Plans call for the Mobley Hilton to be occupied by the Chamber of Commerce as the building and property caretaker. The board has arranged for the Mobley Hilton to be dedicated on Oct. 13, 1986, as a part of state sesquicentennial program.

'An Open Letter To The Good People Of Cisco'

The people of Cisco are facing yet another important battle in an ongoing fight for our treasured "small town" way of life. This is a fight which may not be apparent to many citizens.

The economic difficulties which the local business community has suffered in recent months are symptomatic of this fight for survival. However, residents have the opportunity to do something to help their community. "Shopping at Home" may never be more important than it is this year.

Texas has suffered statewide: business is down, unemployment is up. Most rural areas and small towns, like Cisco, have been hard hit and are fighting for survival.

We can no longer be complacent, Cisco is also fighting for survival; but Cisco can survive and more, succeed, but it is going to take the concern and effort of all its citizens.

Everyone should do as much of their shopping as possible at home this year, for several reasons.

First, local sales keep those dollars at home where they turn over and over again, providing jobs and income for many persons. Those who complain about the town needing more jobs and better pay, and who then shop out of town, are only contributing to the very problem they're complaining about!

Second, the local sales tax comes back into the city budget to help it provide and maintain essential services. Shopping out of town decreases the amount received by the city for use on those essential services.

Third, a steady volume of local sales helps to assure that the local merchants will stay in business and be able to offer a greater and better selection of merchandise. Shopping away from home only means they can offer less and less or, perhaps, close altogether.

Fourth, local prices are generally competitive with those elsewhere, and usually beat others when you consider the cost of gasoline and service out of town.

Fifth, Cisco is a fine community to live and raise a family in. One reason is a good school system. A system supported by tax dollars from a local tax base. If local businesses close and property values decrease that tax base will be eroded and the schools will have to suffer or taxes will have to increase.

Sixth, lost jobs, sales tax, and tax base can only mean that the quality of life in Cisco will decline and our young people will be forced to go elsewhere as they seek careers and livings. Studies have shown that 75 to 80 percent of new jobs come, not from new saviour-type industries like say, a GM plant, but from expansion of existing businesses. Building up our local businesses by patronization should be a number-one priority.

Cisco businesses are making a real effort to attract and deserve local residents' patronage. Seasonal sales, promotions of various kinds, sidewalk sales and numerous other events are evidence of their willingness to compete.

Cisco merchants are trying to do their part in the community's continuing fight for survival, trying to be competitive, trying to be generous, and trying to be of service. They have long ago realized the importance of the local economy to the quality of life and have invested heavily in it, in some cases everything they have.

Cisco residents should recognize that commitment to the fight and do their part to help the town succeed by shopping at home.

County and State Getting Ready For 150th Birthday

Most of us can't pronounce it. Fewer still can spell it. But it's a once in a lifetime event!

In 1986 - all year. The State and Eastland County are already beginning planning: there's so much to be done, if it's to be the type of celebration it deserves to be.

Depending on our age, most of us have a foggy memory of the Texas Centennial of 1936. Now it's 50 years later, and 150 years is deserving of celebrating.

And the gears are beginning to turn here: not fast, but at least turning.

County Sesquicentennial Chairman Ginger Mangum of Eastland reports that she is already getting responses from some, but she needs a lot of help. If you have ideas and/or want to help, please call her now, so that this county can get its official designation and join the party.

She welcomes volunteers; her telephone numbers are 629-1704 and 629-2471. She wants to hear about "what we're going to do here."

You'll note that Texas is celebrating, not when it became a state, but rather, when it became independent, first as a Republic, a nation of its self.

150 years of Texas - that's worth celebrating.

"Why should we participate in the Texas Sesquicentennial?"

For many reasons. In addition to economic benefits to our community, the Sesquicentennial offers all Texans an exciting opportunity to learn more about our state's heritage and culture.

The Sesquicentennial provides us with a shared opportunity to restore or construct landmarks all across the State, and - in many different ways - to keep the rich and diverse Texas Legend alive for ourselves and future generations. For each of us, the Sesquicentennial provides an opportunity to ask "What does it mean to be a Texan?"

Most of all, the Sesquicentennial offers all of us a chance to extol the fact that we are Texans, and a chance to show the world why we're so famous for our colorful Texas celebrations!

"When and where during 1986 will the Sesquicentennial be held?"

Throughout the year, and throughout the entire State. The commissioner's "Sesquicentennial Calendar of Events" will keep Texas and the world apprised of projects and celebrations that will be happening - all comprising an exciting 12-month get-together in the Texas tradition!

"If the Texas Sesquicentennial won't occur until 1986, why is it so important to begin planning now?"

Because it takes much time and effort to plan a Texas-sized celebration. Invitations must be sent all over the world, national conventions must be scheduled, Texas towns and cities have to plan and promote their own regional and local projects. Remember, the 1986 Texas Sesquicentennial will be as big and varied as the state itself!

"What exactly does the Commission offer me?"

To start, a direct invitation to get involved. Every individual in Texas has a shared interest in the state's Sesquicentennial. You can develop your own projects and celebrations, the ambitious and worthwhile projects that have been waiting for "just the right occasion."

Well, this is it! The Commission is set up to support you - by channeling your requests for advice and assistance to the appropriate agencies, by furnishing guidelines for developing and promoting your own ideas, and by keeping you informed of other local, regional and statewide events.

Texas communities (or counties) and statewide non-profit associations wishing to participate in the Texas Sesquicentennial. These procedures for formal affiliation are described in the Texas Independence Community/County Handbook of Organization and the Texas Independence Association Handbook of Organization. For example, after official designation as a "Texas Independence Community," a local organization is listed on the official Sesquicentennial Calendar, and is entitled to sponsor sales of commemorative items and to use the Sesquicentennial Logo. Write the Commission for the appropriate free handbook for additional details.

"What kind of activities can we plan for the Sesquicentennial?"

Virtually any activity that involves cultural awareness or historical education will be appropriate. The Community Handbook lists 101 of these and it just scratches the surface! Ideas in the Handbook run the gamut from "ring every bell in town at high noon on Texas Independence Day" to "build or renovate a local historical museum."

Already, Texas communities are engaged in plans for oral history projects, roadside beautification projects and hundred others. The activities you plan for the sesquicentennial are up to you and your community, and the sky is the limit! What sorts of projects, what sorts of celebration, would you really like to see happen in your community? A better excuse to "make things happen" will not come along for another half century.

"How does my organization become involved in the Texas Sesquicentennial?"

Write to the Commission to be placed on the free mailing list for the Texas National Dispatch and to receive the appropriate "how-to-do-it" manual of organization. For local groups this would be the Community/County Handbook, for statewide non-profit associations the Association Handbook, and for private sector "for profit" groups the pamphlet "Private Sector Involvement in the Texas Sesquicentennial." Then begin planning your own project and celebrations for 1986. Join us now in helping make 1986 a year Texans young and old, newcomer and native, will long remember!

Old Tyme Fiddler's Contest Set April 28

The Cisco Civic League is sponsoring its 3rd Annual Old Tyme Fiddler's Contest on Sunday, April 28th at 2 p.m. The contest draws fiddlers from all over the area as well as locally.

Last year's winners were: 1st, Bill Murray of Borger, Texas; 2nd, Chester Derrick of Odessa; and 3rd, Roy Adams of San Angelo.

This year the contest has changed slightly to include two age divisions: 60 and over - one prize for Best of Division, $60; under 60 - 1st $75, 2nd $50, and 3rd $25.

Featured this year will be the "fingerless fiddling" demonstration by Roy Thackerson of Ranger.

Approximately

Inch Of Rain Falls In Area

Approximately an inch of rain fell in this area last Tuesday night as a cold front thunderstorm moved through the region. A half inch of rain was registered in area gauges Wednesday for a two-day total of 1.5 inches.

With Lake Bernie full, Lake Cisco has continued to gain new water during the past ten days, according to City Manager Mike Moore.

North shore residents reported that the water level was about seven feet above the low point of last year.

Equipment problems were reported at the Battle Creek pump station, which had been shutdown.

All members are urged to attend and bring a guest or prospective member. The meetings are held to provide, for those belonging to the Chamber, an opportunity to be updated on the organizations activities. A short program will also be presented.

Reservations can be made by calling the Chamber at 442-2537.

FIREMEN CALLED
Cisco firemen answered a call to stand by while a gas leak was repaired at the Cisco Nursing Center at 12:15 a.m. Friday, according to a report. The leak was repaired without incident, the report said.

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERREL HALLMARK

A SET OF keys have been lost this week, probably on Monday or Tuesday, but the person losing them is not sure where they were lost. There are three keys on a round ring with a metal clip. If you have found some keys fitting the description, call 442-1747.

A BEAUTIFUL sunny day is in evidence here Friday morning, following a week of cloudy days. Some good rains fell in the area during the week.

Although Cisco still needs a lot more rain to fill up the Lake, it was nice to see a pretty, sunny day with clear skies and warm temperatures. Bet there were a lot of lawn mowers running in Cisco on Friday since the grass is really growing this year, thanks to the wet weather.

Understand farmers are just waiting for their fields to get a little dry so they can start farming.

DON'T FORGET the Cisco Chamber of Commerce breakfast set this week at 7 a.m. on Wednesday, March 27. The breakfast will be held at the Colony Restaurant. Reservations may be made by calling the Chamber office at 442-2537.

START MAKING plans now to vote in the upcoming election on Saturday, April 6. Remember, if you don't exercise your right to vote, then you have no right to gripe if the elected officials do not vote the way you want them to on any future decisions.

Senior Citizens Nutrition Menu

The Senior Center, provided by the Cisco Junior College under the auspices of the West Central Council of Governments, is becoming well known throughout the area as a place where the older American is not only provided a nutritious luncheon but a place where they may learn more about themselves.

Many activities are provided for the older individual but perhaps the most important is that of sharing the fellowship with one another.

The older person has worked hard over the years and did not have the opportunity of sharing their experiences. But now through the Senior Center fun, food and fellowship are all under one roof and there is a great desire to share. Why don't you call 442-1557 on Monday, Wednesday or Friday and make a reservation for a luncheon?

The programs for the past week included: Music provided by Gerald Parks and Lois Holder, Mrs. M.D. Bailey being honored on her 95th birthday with the family providing cake and ice cream, with the Senior Citizens Band and choir providing music. The band participated in the Dublin Parade and won first place with their music.

The menus for the coming week will be:
Monday-- Swiss steak, squash, potatoes, tossed salad, cheddar cheese top, peach cobbler, bread, butter and milk.

Wednesday-- Meat loaf, cheese, corn, blackeyed peas, tapico pudding, tossed salad, carrots, french dressing, bread, butter and milk.

Friday-- Beef stew, tossed salad, applesauce, birthday cake, cornbread, butter and milk.

Tribute To Joe Flores

A Note to the Editor:
By request, I have been asked to publish this in memory of Joe Flores, also I have consent from Mr. Ellie Flores:

"Life"
In memory of Joe Flores,
by Vera Wheat

How wonderful of You, God, to give me life, to serve the Lord.

I chuckle now as I remember the many people who made this remark, "years of life".

I entered the Lord's journeyman program. Now, I have comments of my own. I did not give up my life, I was given a few years of life.

I walked the hilly streets of a little city, (Cisco), I called home. I wiggled my toes in it's streams, felt the rain on my face. Listened to the mumber of the trees. I found beauty!

I met a little girl... always smiling, always giving, always delightful. I lived, I was loved. I found contentment.

I had sons, (three), I had daughters (two). I was a father, I found love.

I washed babies on the hot summer days, felt their tender clutch, saw their tears, doctored their sores. I found caring, I had love, I had life!

I watched my family carefully. We went to church, we prayed together, we thanked God for the Blessed Mary. I saw my sons, and my daughters serve God in our church, I saw smiling faces, only God could have given the happiness, I found peace.

I saw old and young enter baptismal waters, with joyous expressions.

I found happiness, I loved, I had love, I had peace, I had 42 years of life!

I talked with young men choosing, or going to Christ. I found concern, I found love, I found Jesus. I had life!

I held my wife, I cared for my family.

We knew fear... questioning I had pain, loneliness, for my family, separated in pursuit of illness. I had torture, I found courage, I found love.

I found peace, I found faith, I had life!

I was in the hospital I saw expressions change on the Doctor's face. I heard unsure voices! I watched people, family and friends come into my room, into my life.

I had loved ones and friends taken from my life. I had to say some good by's. I felt loneliness in the loss. Yet, I found love, I found peace, I found "Jesus", I had life.

I felt kindness, and concern for my family and me. I found love in my little city, Cisco.

I cried, I laughed, I loved, I needed, I received, I gave, I endured, I rejected, I hoped, I lost. Yet, I found love, I found peace, I had life.

I went in search of beauty, I found contentment. I went in search of depth, only to find ever lasting peace. I have found eternal love, heavenly peace.

Yes, I had life. I went to my God only to find out how much I needed God. My years of life were few, Yet, the Lord is mine forever and ever.

I am at Home with my Jesus, I have found love, peace. I have life.

I said good night to my beloved wife, my precious children, my darling aging mother, my brother, sisters, and my many loved friends.

But, I said, good morning to my Precious Lord.

Amen

REDEEMER LUTHERAN CHURCH

The worship service begins at 8:30 a.m. Pastor Schueler's message is entitled "A Call to Bear Witness" based on John 12:20-33.

They waved palm branches in a joyous salute to Christ as He rode into Jerusalem on that first Palm Sunday centuries ago. But how many people stood up for Jesus when He was interrogated and beaten? What do you do when you are asked to stand up for Jesus? Think about it as you hear the Rev. Wallace Schultz on next Sunday's broadcast of the Lutheran Hour at 8:00 a.m. on radio station KCLW (900) and at 12:35 on KWFT (620).

Wednesday: the Cisco Care Center worships at 10:00 a.m. Rev. Russ Kinser will be here Wednesday evening, 7:30.

Thursday: Jesus Friends

Cong. Charles Stenholm Ask For Farm Dollars

Be Applied In More Productive Manner

I asked that federal farm dollars be applied in a more productive manner, Cong. Charles Stenholm said of his recent visit with President Reagan on the farm program.

The Texas Congressman's timing was perfect: the House Agriculture Committee opened hearings on the Farm Bill Wednesday.

"We re-established the fact that the president will be receptive to constructive ideas on the farm program," Cong. Stenholm reported. "We are trying to put a policy together to maintain what we have come to take for granted."

Later reports indicated that the discussion with the president also centered on the congressional support for the MX Missile program in exchange for support for farm program help.

Rep. Stenholm told President Reagan Thursday that the White House needs to be flexible on budget issues - including agriculture - if he wants to win on defense spending and other budget proposals in Congress.

Reagan lobbied Stenholm and the other congressmen for their support next week when the House votes on the MX missile, and all but one of the lawmakers, including Stenholm, said they would back the president on the new weapon.

But Stenholm, said Reagan might have more difficulty winning their future support. Four of the six congressmen, including Stenholm, are members of the House Agriculture Committee.

"When we get past that particular vote (on the MX), the difficulty is going to be on future votes as they pertain to the overall budget," said Stenholm. "There will not be 218 votes (a majority) to do anything in the House" unless Reagan shows flexibility, he said.

Although Reagan did not respond directly to the congressmen about his future plans on agriculture, the deficit and other budget issues, Stenholm said the "overall tone was very constructive" in Thursday's meeting.

"The president is expressing a willingness to listen to opposing viewpoints. The president was very attentive to that," said Stenholm, who met privately with Reagan Tuesday on long-term farm policies.

Farm programs for 1986 and beyond are now being debated in Congress after the Reagan administration introduced its 1985 farm bill into the House last month.

The administration's plan would almost eliminate direct payments to farmers for price supports and loans in an effort to make the pricing of commodities more market-oriented.

Stenholm, who testified on his own farm proposals before the House Agriculture Committee Thursday before going to the White House meeting, said he told Reagan that he could agree with the president on the need for a market orientation with the pricing for such commodities as cotton, wheat, feed grains and wool.

However, the congressman emphasized that Reagan's requested cutbacks in agriculture were far too steep.

"What we're saying is that 50 percent cut from an industry on its knees doesn't make sense," said Stenholm after the Thursday White House meeting.

In his testimony before the Agriculture committee, Stenholm outlined his proposal to freeze spending for three years on most farm programs while cutting 5 to 20 percent out of direct payments to farmers for price supports and loans.

"The answers to our agriculture problems lie not in increasing federal outlays to farmers, but in long-term reforms that will increase farm profitability for the marketplace," he told the committee.

Fishing Outdoors

Terry L. Wilson

An unprecedented land donation by Phillips Petroleum Co., Shell Oil Co., Dow Chemical Co., Crown-Rancho Pipeline Petroleum Corp. 8,580 acres of prime waterfowl habitat in Brazoria County will be transferred to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The Peach Point Marsh which was recently acquired by the Texas Nature Conservancy will be transferred at their cost to the Parks and Wildlife Department under a lease, purchase arrangement.

This habitat winters more white-fronted Canada geese than any other marsh in Brazoria County, also 500 sandhill cranes are known to winter in this region. Over 200 species of birds are recorded during the National Audubon Society's Christmas Bird count.

New proposed changes being made by the Parks and Wildlife Department concerning fishing regulations are causing some concern among Texas anglers.

One of these is the final destination rule. The Parks and Wildlife are proposed to extend this to include all waters of the state.

The stated proposal is it would be illegal for a fisherman to remove the head or tail, or to fillet any finfish while still in his boat. This does not mean they have to keep the fish whole until arriving back home.

The deer season proposal would open the season each year on the second Saturday in November, instead of the Saturday nearest Nov. 15. If adopted, the change would allow a 58-day season in 1985-86, but would drop back to the existing 51-day arrangement during some years because of calendar differences.

The proposal would allow the deer season to open as early as Nov. 8 in some years, or as late as Nov. 14. The current closing date of the first Sunday in January is not proposed to be changed. If adopted, the 1985-86 whitetail season in most counties would be Nov. 9, 1985, through Jan. 5, 1986.

In all counties having an archery-only whitetail season, the proposed dates are Oct. 5-Nov. 3, 1985.

Extension Homemakers Report

The District 8 Texas Extension Homemakers Association Spring Convention will be in Waco on Tuesday, April 9 at the Ridgeway Country Club.

Representing Eastland County as voting delegates will be Mrs. Dorothy Underwood, County TEHA Chairman; Mrs. Wynelle Brown, of Kokomo E.H. Club; and Mrs. Vadis Phelps, of Pleasant Hill Club. Mrs. Ardythe Caldwell of Lake Cisco is alternate.

Extension Homemakers wishing to attend are requesting to call the local County Extension Office, 629-2222, and pre-register by Wednesday, March 27. The cost is $8.00 per person which includes morning coffee, registration fee, insurance, and luncheon.

Mrs. Dorothy Underwood, County TEHA Chairman, encourages everyone to attend. Eastland County will be hosting the 1986 convention.

license to encourage hunters to take more antlerless deer. Currently, each hunting license has one antlerless (white-tailed or mule deer) tag, two tags valid for buck or antlerless mule deer tag.

The change would make it possible for a hunter to harvest five deer, not to include more than four whitetails (no more than two whitetail bucks) or two mule deer in a season. However, in some 92 counties hunters are limited to one buck, and antlerless permit issuance rates depend upon annual deer census surveys.

Several changes also are proposed for turkey hunting, including an increase in the bag limit of Rio Grande turkeys from one gobbler per spring season to two in most counties with a spring season. However, only three turkeys would be allowed per person per year and the bag limit in East Texas counties which have eastern turkeys would remain at one gobbler (spring season only).

Deer Bag Limit Increase Proposed By Commission

AUSTIN—Lengthening of white-tailed deer hunting season and establishment of an extra license tag to allow taking of an additional antlerless deer are among changes proposed for 1985-86 hunting seasons in Texas.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission, meeting in a briefing session recently in Austin, authorized the department staff to air proposed regulation changes in county public hearings to be held across the state during March and April. The local meeting will be Thursday, March 28, 7 p.m. at the Eastland County

Pisa

Pisa is an old city of Italy famed for its marble belltower (Leaning Tower of Pisa). It is often considered one of the seven wonders of the world. The tower tips so far to one side that it looks as though it will fall. But it has stood for hundreds of years. It was begun in 1174 and completed in 1350. The ground beneath the tower started to sink after the first three stories were built. The tower began to lean and continued leaning until it was 6 1/2 feet out of line. It has tipped one foot during the last hundred years. In 1928, the Italian government started to give the tower a firm foundation. Cement was forced into the soil beneath the tower to prevent further leaning. It is said that Galileo made his famous experiments with falling weights in 1589 from the top of the tower. The tower, or campanile, built entirely of marble, is a fine example of Romanesque architecture. The tower, the Cathedral, and the Baptistery from one of the most famous building groups in the world.

The leaning tower is 179 feet tall. The walls are 13 feet thick at the base and between 6 and 7 feet thick at the top. A row of arches, resting on 15 columns, surrounds the first story. Each of the 6 stories is surrounded by 30 columns. The top story has 12 columns, and also houses the bells. An inner staircase of nearly 300 steps leads to the top, or one can walk around the outside of the tower to reach the top. One of the men did this, who was in our touring group. He said he could really tell the tower was leaning as it was like walking uphill to reach the top.

Medieval walls surround the Piazza Miracoli (The Square of Miracles), where the Leaning Tower is located.

The baptistry is located here also, and was started in 1153. The upper stories are decorated with statues of humans and animals, heads, busts of saints and prophets. The building is marble, as are all of the buildings in Italy.

Inside, is the baptismal font, the large octagonal bath has its sides decorated with two rosetts panels, an extremely delicate work of intarsia and sculpture. On a column in the middle of the font is a statue of St. John the Baptist. Then there is a great pulpit made by Nicola Pisano. The particular acoustics of the building creates a multiple echo which, like a large choir, repeats many times, under the vault, any sound or song.

The Cathedral (Domo) was erected by the Pisans following the victorious battles fought against the Saracens of the Mediterranean istalnds. The construction was begun in 1063 by Buschetto whose tomb is walled under the first arcade on the left side of the facade. The actual plan of the Duomo is in the form of a Latin cross.

The Monumental Churchyard is also located here, and is a unique architectural complex. Funeral monuments and chapels were built throughout the centuries, and classical and medieval statues and sculpture can be seen through the building. All of the buildings are decorated with beautiful frescoes and mosaics.

There are many palaces and other cathedrals in Pisa. It lies on both banks of the River Arno. It has a university founded in 1343 and an academy of fine arts established by Napoleon.

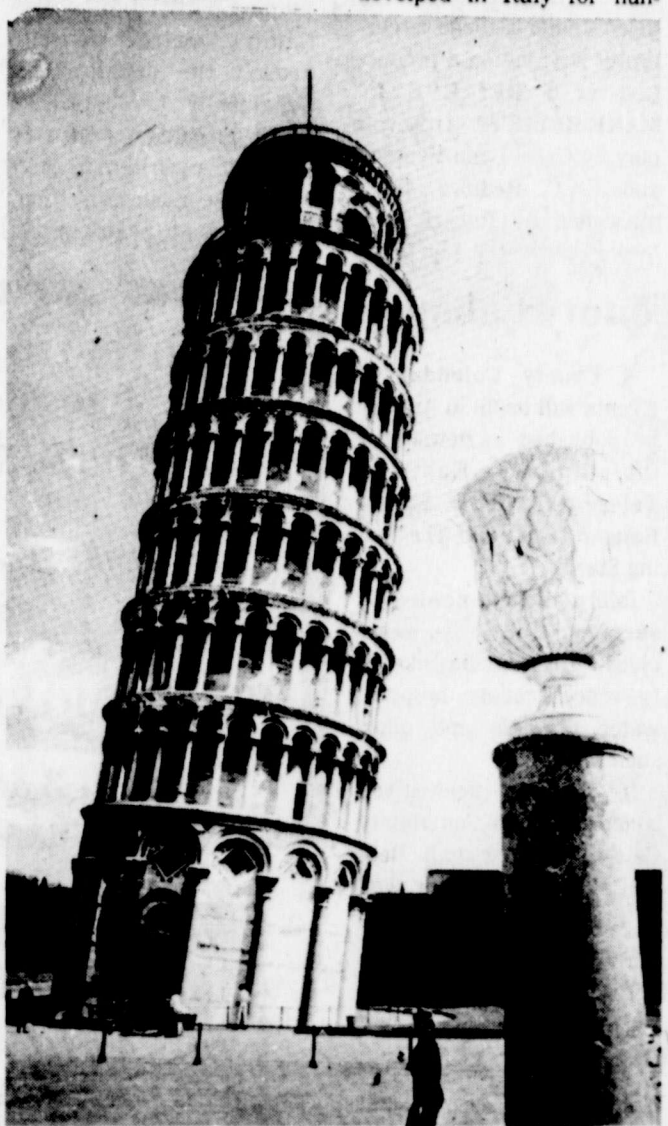

Our guide was always sharing information about her country while we were traveling. She said the school children attend school 6 days a week, from 8:30 until 1:30 in the afternoon.

They are required to learn two foreign languages, Latin and Greek. They must attend school from age of six to the age of fourteen. There are about 50,000 primary schools and about 3,500 secondary schools in Italy. There are technical schools of agriculture, commerce, and industry. Italy has more than 80 schools specializing in art and music. Nearly 50,000 students attend the 27 colleges and universities in Italy.

The arts have been highly developed in Italy for hundreds of years. A long history of creative achievement ranks Italy as a leader in Western European culture in such fields as music, painting, sculpture, architecture, and literature. Arts and crafts play an important part of the daily life of almost every Italian. We also found out that the TV show, Dallas, was well known in Italy, especially northern Italy. Our guide, whose family life in Rome, said her younger brothers never miss Dallas, and she said that was true of almost all the people who live in Rome, who have a TV. We did notice that if an Italian knew we were from Texas, he would immediately smile and say "Dallas."

C.J.C. News

The Drama division of the Fine Arts Department at Cisco Junior College is currently working on a production of I BELIEVE IN MAKE BELIEVE, a musical play by Carol Lynn Pearson and J.A.C. Redford. Commissioned by Robert Redford's celebrated Sundance Theatre, and acclaimed as "a play destined to become family theatre's favorite around the country," it delightfully presents five world favorite fairy tales by the Brothers Grimm in an irresistible musical setting. According to theatre director Philip Craik, "I BELIEVE IN MAKE BELIEVE is one of the very few and unique shows that have strong appeal for all age groups. Although the subject matter—the story of the princess who wouldn't laugh, the shoemaker and the elves, the Bremen Town musicians, and the lovable dunce, Simpleton, are fairy tales, they have been retold in such a way that the older you are—the more humor you will catch. Also, this marks the first time we have presented an evening performance of a play that we have produced primarily for area school children. This is in order for them to come back with their parents to enjoy as a family what promises to be one of the most popular productions ever produced at CJC."

The production is being staged in the Harrell Fine Arts Auditorium on the CJC campus on Friday, March 22, at 7:30 p.m. The performance lasts approximately one hour, and ticket prices are 50 cents for students and $1 for adults. Although tickets may be purchased at the door, reservations are recommended for the best seating possible. Past performances have generally played to full houses. Reservations can be made by calling (817) 442-2567 between the hours of 8 and 4, Monday through Friday.

OPEN LETTER TO GOVERNOR MARK WHITE, ET. AL.

What I want to say, Governor White, is best expressed by the borrowed statements quoted below.

With due respect for the tremendous task you undertook in educational reform, here is a quote from Fred Keller, Psychologist, as printed in the September, 1984 issue of PSYCHOLOGY TODAY, page 45.

"Reforming education is like taking a wounded moose from a pack of starving wolves."

And with due respect to how many classroom teachers—those folks out on the firing line—view the situation, here are quotes from a speech given in Texas on August 18, 1984 by Dr. Ernest Boyer, President of The Carnegie Foundations For The Advancement Of Teaching. Dr. Boyer's speech is printed in the October, 1984 issue of THE CLASSROOM TEACHER, a publication of the Texas

Classroom Teacher's Association.

"Education in search for excellence will try to make all the improvements from the top, and suffocate the spirit of the people who have to make it work."

"The simple truth is we have expected the schools to do what the homes, the churches, and the communities have not been able to accomplish."

"There is only one issue at stake in this great debate about education: Are we going to give status and support to the teacher in the classroom where the process of education takes place?"

Many of us who have been "in the trenches" doubt that the "Ivory Tower People" in the Great Committees and at the State Capitol will secure and/or grant real status and support to the classroom teacher. And in far too many communities petty politics and just plain ole garden variety "Local Yokelism" will curtail support and/or actually interfere with the educational process.

Photo copies of two other articles are enclosed: "Why Public Schools Fail," from the NEWSWEEK issue of April 20, 1981; and the article by Susan Zinn in THE LEAGUER, February, 1985 issue of the UIL newspaper.

The last time I checked, The University of Texas at Austin required a composite score on the Graduate Record Exam of 1100 for admittance to the Doctoral Program. I know at least one math teacher who scored over 1200 on said examination; and as a matter of principle he will not submit the indignity of any "competency examination".

Governor, nothing in Texas needs reforming as much as education; but I differ with you on your approach, and your failure to address the "real crux" of the matter; I think the crux is in the third paragraph quoted from Dr. Boyer above.

 BRINGS YOU THESE IMPORTANT TIPS...
YOU AUTO KNOW

Some European countries have made seat belt use mandatory, with stiff fines as penalties. In Switzerland, belt compliance jumped from 31 percent to 81 percent; in Norway, the figures rose from 45 to 70 percent. Do you buckle up for safety?

How hot does your car get? In late-model engines, a spark plug has to handle up to 40,000 volts and 4,500 degrees F.

Whether your mechanic performs a standard tune-up or a computerized engine-performance analysis, he'll do a better job if you tell him about any problems you have with your car, or any noises it makes.

If gas mileage has dropped, perhaps the engine idle speed is set too high. Have it checked.

It isn't smart to drive wearing a headset. Stereo headsets are a safety hazard on the highway because they block out important traffic sounds a driver needs to hear.

Countians Receive Award From Upper Leon Soil And Water District Banquet

Two Eastland County ranchers and two students were among those presented Conservation Awards at the Upper Leon Soil and Water District Banquet held at Lake Proctor Center March 18. The Upper Leon District covers all of Eastland and Comanche Counties, and the west one-third of Erath County.

The Award for land conservation and improvement in Zone 4 of Eastland County was won by Mack Elliott, a stockfarmer who lives 3 miles N.W. of Rising Star. The Award for Zone 5 was presented to Bill Greenhaw, a rancher who operates 7300 acres north of Desdemona.

The winning Eastland County students, who competed with all the schools in the District, were John Mark Vermillion of Eastland, a 6th Grader who won the Essay Contest, and Terry Ware of Rising Star, 4th Grade, who placed first in the Poster Contest. One other young person in the District, Shawna Holland of Comanche, won First in Coloring.

Several resident farmers and ranchers besides those in Eastland County were presented Awards from their Zones. They were T.M. Boucher of Gustine, Luke Easley of Comanche and A.J. Stewart of DeLeon. The Absentee Farmer Award was presented to W.G. Kirk of Brownwood, who owns land south of Sipe Springs, and a Conservation Homemaker Award was presented to Joyce Sides, who lives six miles S.E. of DeLeon.

A crowd of 195 persons filled the PAR Center meeting room for the interesting program, which included the viewing of slides showing the effort each winning farmer and rancher had made to conserve his land.

The occasion marked National Agriculture Week, the Thirteenth Annual Upper Leon SWCD Awards Banquet, and the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the U.S.D.A. Soil Conservation Service.

Master of Ceremonies for the event was Norman Moore of Comanche, Chairman of the Upper Leon District Board. The main speaker was Truman Renshaw, U.S. Soil Conservation Service (Ret.). Among those present who were involved with contest planning were Ron Bailey of Eastland, District Conservationist, and Jack Prichard, Range Conservationist.

Bankers and District Directors gave out the plaques. Among them were Butch Crudginton, Vice-President of the First National Bank of Gorman, Mike Perry, Exec. Vice President of Eastland National Bank, Mark Cooksey, Vice President of the First State Bank of Rising Star, and George Steel of Rising Star, Director of the Upper Leon Board.

Ten Banks of the District sponsored the competition, as they do each year. They were the First National Bank, Cisco, Eastland National Bank, Eastland, First State Bank, Ranger, First National Bank, Gorman, First State Bank, Rising Star, Comanche National Bank, Comanche, Farmers and Merchants Bank, DeLeon, First Comanche Bank, Comanche, Dublin National Bank, Dublin, and First State Bank, Gustine.

In presenting the Awards, Truman Renshaw said: "Lest we become another Ethiopia, let us consider conservation."

He discussed the history of U.S.D.A. Soil Conservation Service, noting that it began during the Dust Bowl Days in 1935.

"But now," he said, "the total appropriations for the U.S. Soil Conservation Service for one whole year does not equal the cost of just one of the big bombers we pay for."

"I believe in national defense," he added. "But I also believe in taking care of our top soil."

"If we don't, we are really going to be in trouble - and not too far down the line."

"We'll find ourselves busy just trying to feed our own people, much less other countries."

Renshaw stated that the purpose of the soil conservation Awards was to give land improvement the recognition and importance that is due it. The land programs undertaken by the farmers and ranchers working for improvement inspires others to do likewise.

He mentioned that the films being shown were made in 1984, when the drought was on and the land not at its best. But even under those conditions startling improvements could be noted on the various tracts of land.

The slides showed that the 500 acre farm of Mack and Sandra Elliott of Rising Star is a diversified operation. Crossbred cattle, haygrazer, peanuts and coastal bermuda are some of the things raised on this well-managed tract. Various improvements are underway, including the building of terraces and ponds.

Conservation work on the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Greenhaw, north of Desdemona, began in 1979, when Greenhaw went into a long-term contract with the Soil Conservation Service.

Fifteen acres of gullies has been turned into productive grazing land, mesquite has been controlled in the pastures, and a lake is being constructed. A native grass mixture has been used to replant areas where the turf was damaged, and habitats for wild life have been improved. A sound grazing system is being followed on this ranch, so that gains made in top soil restoration will not be lost.

The program at PAR Center was closed with the hope that the slides and Awards presentation would demonstrate what could be done to conserve and improve the land and quality of life in this area. And those present expressed appreciation for a memorable evening.

George Steel, District Director of the Upper Leon Soil and Water Conservation District, presents a plaque to Terry Ware of Rising Star for winning the District's Conservation Poster contest this year.

Butch Crudginton (left) of the First National Bank, Gorman, presents the Outstanding Conservation Rancher Award for Zone 5 of the Upper Leon Soil and Water Conservation District to Bill Greenhaw and his wife Dorothy.

Mark Cooksey (left) of the First State Bank, Rising Star, presents the Outstanding Conservation Farmer-Rancher Award for Zone 4 of the Upper Leon Soil and Water Conservation District to Mack Elliott and his wife Sandi. Zone 4 covers the western half of Eastland County.

NEWSPAPER LEADERSHIP FOR TEXAS PROVEN BY EVERY TEST

* CURRENT RESEARCH reports by Consumer Data Service (CDS), of Oklahoma City, show that 86.3 percent of Texans are reading newspapers every week... including more than 80 percent who read their local community newspaper.

* Texas is populated by 15,400,000 persons comprising 5,450,000 households earning more than $147-Billion each year and spending $84-Billion for retail goods, according to U. S. Census reports in January, 1983—FACTS THAT CAN BE REPORTED IN DETAIL ONLY BY NEWSPAPERS.

* Texas newspapers spend millions of dollars each year on new technology to provide superior news-gathering services, better reproduction methods and faster delivery systems... and more effective advertising techniques to activate consumers.

* In 1983, over 10.6-million tons of newsprint were consumed in the U. S.—equal to almost 100 pounds for every man, woman and child in this country—an increase of over 16% since 1970.

* ADVERTISERS SPEND THE MOST for newspaper ads:

$20.6 Billion in 1983
 $ 5.0 Billion MORE than tv
 $16.0 Billion MORE than radio
 $ 9.0 Billion MORE than direct mail
 $17.0 Billion MORE than magazines

... and today's advertisers are the world's most successful business people... their expenditures put NEWSPAPERS FIRST! because newspapers are by far the most effective.

(Source: National Advertising Bureau, NY)

* Texas is served by 583 newspapers with a combined circulation of 5,300,000... and each newspaper is read by two or more consumers. A lot of swat for advertisers!

* Americans spend over 6 billion dollars a year to buy their favorite newspapers. They don't turn them off, or toss them on the post office floor. THEY READ THEM... because they thought enough of them to buy them!

A TEXAS CELEBRATION

150th BIRTHDAY PARTY PLANNED

FIND OUT MORE ABOUT THE TEXAS 1986 SESQUICENTENNIAL!

This special edition of the Texas National Dispatch is JUST THE BEGINNING! For more information, or to keep informed of Sesquicentennial happenings on a regular basis, you are invited to subscribe to the Dispatch, the official newsletter of the Texas Sesquicentennial, by writing to the following address:

A Texas CELEBRATION is on the way! That's right - in 1986, Texas will celebrate 150 years of freedom and progress - a SESQUICENTENNIAL on a grand scale! And we'd like to invite YOU to come to the year-long party!

On April 21, 1836, Texas patriots won a decisive battle in their struggle for independence from Mexico - the Battle of San Jacinto. With this victory, the new Republic of Texas was born. Until becoming one of the United States in 1845, Texas existed as an independent Republic, recognized by diplomats from a number of foreign countries - a claim few other states can make.

Texas has come a long way since the first unstable days of the Republic. Over the last one-hundred-and-fifty years, it has become a leader in many fields - from agriculture and ranching to oil production, from medicine, science and space exploration to higher education. Texas today is a product of the ideals that built the American Southwest - ideals based on independent, unbridled thinking and unlimited vision.

And Texas is so much more than most visitors expect. From the picturesque mountains of the West to the dense, lush forests of the Northeast and the miles of sandy beaches bordering the Gulf of Mexico, the state is truly a study in contrasts.

Texas is a great place to visit anytime, but in 1986 it will be really special. Texans are proud of their state, and we're going to show it off for the Sesquicentennial in ways that have never been done before. So make plans now to visit Texas in 1986 and help us CELEBRATE!

Here is a preview of just a few of many exciting events and activities that are already being planned for the Texas 1986 Sesquicentennial:

The Sesquicentennial Wagon Train will follow a six-month, 2,800-mile route around the state in 1986 with the theme, "Circle Texas for the Past and Future." The Wagon Train is open to all persons and is expected to include some 20,000 participants, riding on horseback or in wagons. And as it passes through each city on its route, the Wagon Train will be incorporated into that city's already-planned festivities for 1986, and will inspire many a local festival and celebration of its own. The Wagon Train will truly tie the entire state together in a unified celebration of our Ses-quicentennial!

 Also for horse lovers, two 2,200-mile Texas Trail Rides will travel the eastern and western halves of the state respectively in 1986, and are open to all interested riders. The Trail Rides are being planned by the Sesquicentennial Equine Events Committee.

The Texas-South Australia Committee was formed to jointly celebrate the 150th anniversaries of Texas and South Australia, whose Sesquicentennial is also in 1986. Projects include a twin towns program, a twin schools program, twinning of youth organizations, professional sports exchanges, and cultural exchange programs.

Similarly, the Texas-West Germany Committee is planning a number of programs to highlight Germany's distinct contributions to the Texas heritage. Some projects are a wine exchange, a touring program of Big Bend National Park, a German-Texas folk dance program, and exchanges in textiles and sports.

Four major Texas museums are combining resources to produce Project 150, an extensive world-class exhibit covering all aspects of Texas history. The exhibit will be drawn from the holdings of the San Jacinto Museum of History, the Texas Memorial Museum, the Barker Texas History Center, and the Amon Carter Museum of Western Art. The Dallas Historical Society is also participating in the project, which will tour Texas in 1986.

Sponsored by the Sesquicentennial Commission itself, a series of workshops are being held in Texas for the statewide Oral History Project, a program to encourage roots level in honor of the Sesquicentennial. "Sesquicentennial Minutes," a series of 52 one-minute segments for television highlighting interesting and significant persons and events in Texas history, will be sponsored and produced by the Texas Committee for the Humanities.

And now festivities are not confined to within the Texas boundaries. Customers at the Lone Star Cafe in New York City voted recently for the Cafe to secede from the city and state of New York and become annexed to Texas for the Sesquicentennial, with many charitable projects scheduled in conjunction. It is hoped that groups from other states will "jump on the bandwagon" and plan similar activities.

Many national sports events are already scheduled for Texas in 1986. They include the PGA Tournament in Sugar Land, the NCAA Basketball Finals in Dallas, the Baseball Allstar Game in Houston, and the NBA Allstar Game in Dallas.

To be held in Waco in the spring of 1986, the Texas Air Show will be a premier cavalcade of aviation in Texas. Exhibits of virtually every type of aircraft from antique planes to supersonic jets will be featured in the air show, as will aerobatic displays of various types of aircraft and precision military flying teams.

A special, 60-day-long version of the State Fair of Texas in autumn 1986 is one of the highlights of the city of Dallas's plans for the Sesquicentennial. The Fair grounds and buildings are undergoing a major renovation and restoration, and many new and exciting programs are in store for 1986 fairsgoers.

The Texas Independence Express may give everyone a chance to see the rebirth of the steam train era, with an intensive two-year project to restore historic trains, train depots and train hotels across Texas and a plan to run steam trains through the state in 1986 now in progress.

Texas is the title of the latest novel-in-the-making by world-famed author James Michener, and publication is scheduled to coincide with the Sesquicentennial in 1986. Equally exciting is the ABC Television Network's recent announcement that it will produce a network miniseries based on the book, as well.

The Houston Festival, an annual celebration of the arts and culture of the Houston area, will take on an exciting new theme for the Sesquicentennial in 1986 - "Houston - Out of This World." The basis for the celebration will be another significant birthday observance that will occur in 1986 - the 25th anniversary of the opening of NASA's Houston headquarters. "Lone Star" is the title of an eight-hour miniseries for national public television being produced by KEDT-TV in Corpus Christi. The series is being adapted from the book of the same name by historian T.R. Fehrenbach.

And this isn't all! Many, many more exciting events and projects too numerous to mention here are being planned by the hundreds of local city and county Sesquicentennial committees across Texas. Each is planning a celebration to showcase its own best features, and it is these hundreds of local events that will truly make our Sesquicentennial a celebration for everyone. More than 200 non-profit associations, including several new ones formed especially to develop Sesquicentennial projects, also have wonderful things in store for out-of-state visitors as well as Texans.

No one will mail a letter in 1986 without knowing about the Texas Sesquicentennial, because the U.S. Postal Service is issuing a commemorative postage stamp for Texas on March 2, 1986, Texas Independence Day. And Texas drivers will publicize the Sesquicentennial as well with their new red, white and blue Sesquicentennial license plates, which the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation began issuing in mid-1984.

So, come on and join all Texans as we say a rousing "Happy Birthday" to our state, and help us celebrate. There will be something for everyone in Texas during the Sesquicentennial year. Don't miss it!

"Happy Birthday, Texas!!"

Choir & Band Festivals At CJC

A Junior Choir Festival on Saturday, March 23, and a Junior Band Festival on Friday and Saturday, March 29-30, will be held at Cisco Junior College, according to an announcement by Director Tim Jones. The two events will bring some 1,200 young musicians to Cisco.

Six junior choirs will participate in the March 23rd event. The group includes three from Cisco and one each from Mineral Wells, Seymour and Colorado City.

The program calls for the Cisco elementary choir to open the program at 9 a.m. followed at 9:50 by the Cisco 7th grade choir and at 11:05 by the Cisco 8th grade choir.

The Mineral Wells choir will sing at 9:25 a.m. Seymour at 10:15 a.m. and Colorado City at 10:40 a.m.

Starting at 1 p.m., the afternoon will be devoted to solos and ensembles. There will be ratings and sweepstakes awards. Solos and ensembles and the choirs will be judged by Wyley Peebles and Steven Zell of the Cisco Junior College music department and Wayne White of Cisco High School. Dorothy McIntosh, Brownwood, will judge sight reading.

Eighteen area junior bands have entered the March 29-30 festival.

Teaching Will Be On Prophecy

A special "prophecy study" concerning the RAPTURE OF THE CHURCH will start Sunday in the Pastor's Bible Class at the ten o'clock hour. The pastor, John C. Jones, invites the public to join him in the Dining Hall for COFFEE AND DONUTS WITH HE PASTOR & WIFE at 9:15 - 9:45 a.m., and stay for this special series on the soon RAPTURE OF THE CHURCH. The study will deal with the subject of the "catching away of the Bride of Christ" as presented by the various books of the Bible. Each book will be dealt with individually as a study, and emphasis will be placed upon original Greek as well as current events as related to this next event on God's prophetic timetable. A few of the individual books under study will be I Corinthians, II Corinthians, I Thessalonians, II Thessalonians, Galatians, Romans, Philippians, Daniel, Revelation, and others. The study will last over a period of several months, with each week adding enlightenment to the next.

The church is located on Highway 183, 10 miles south of Cisco. With it only a ten minute drive from downtown Cisco many of the congregation are Cisco residents, but each Sunday the Bible Class of the pastor is attended by people from three counties. The church has recently experienced its most baptisms in a three month period during the seventeen years Rev. Jones has been pastor there. The church is also teaching Home Bible Studies to people in Cisco and Rising Star area and the pastor may be reached at 442-2673 concerning these. They are taught in the privacy of the student's home by a layman of the Greater Mountain Top Church. The church is a member of the United Pentecostal Church, International.

The Bible. It has a lot to offer.

Vernon Rippey

Crime Stoppers

WICHITA FALLS, Texas—Michael Victor Briock is one of those people you don't easily forget.

After all, how many people have the word "Love" tattooed on each eyelid? And how often have you seen a tattoo of a half-man, half-goat on someone's back? Yet despite these easily recognizable marks, Briock has avoided law enforcement officers in two states who want him on warrants charging him with theft and forgery.

Briock, 44, came to the attention of Wichita Falls police detectives in May, 1984.

According to police reports, Briock has assumed the name of Vernon Rippey and was working at a business in Wichita Falls. His is charged with stealing several checks from the business, making them out in the name of Vernon Rippey, forging the business owner's name and then cashing them. Detectives discovered that the real Vernon Rippey was not involved in the forgery.

Briock has been charged with Theft Over $750. and Forgery by the Wichita Falls Police Department. He is also wanted in Stanton, Mercer County, North Dakota for Larceny.

Briock is a white male, 5-8, 170 pounds, with brown hair and brown eyes. He usually wears a mustache and beard. He has at least 30 tattoos over his body.

Detectives say he might be driving a 1973 silver Lincoln Continental with Texas license XRU-638. The car is listed as stolen.

Detective Jim Bernethy of the Wichita Falls Police Department says Briock "has contacts all over the country."

"He is also known to date and marry topless dancers and works in a tree trimming and lawn business," Detective Bernethy said.

Investigators believe that Briock might frequent the San Antonio area.

This week Briock made the Texas Most Wanted List. A $1,000. reward is being offered for information leading to his capture.

Anyone with information about Briock is asked to call Texas Crime Stoppers toll-free at 1-800-252-8477 or their local Crime Stoppers program. In all cases, callers do not have to reveal their identities.

Texas Most Wanted is a cooperative effort between Texas Crime Stoppers and the Department of Public Safety.

As of March 11, 1985, the Department of Public Safety reported Michael Victor Briock is wanted on the following warrants: 70194 and 70195, issued by the Wichita Falls Police Department, October, 1984.

Three Men Charged In Drug Bust

Three of four men arrested Friday night in a drug bust in northern Eastland County were charged in Abilene federal court Wednesday afternoon.

Scranton Man Sentenced

A 41-year-old Scranton man was formally sentenced Thursday to serve five years in the Texas Department of Corrections and was ordered to pay a $500 fine.

Scranton is a small community southwest of Eastland near the Callahan County line.

A jury had convicted Raymond Brooklyn Stuart of driving while intoxicated, third offense, on Tuesday.

While sentencing Stuart, 91st District Judge Jim Wright ruled the sentence imposed should be stacked on top of another five-year sentence Stuart had received in September 1984 for DWI.

Stuart appealed the September conviction and was out of jail on $8,500 bond when arrested by Department of Public Safety trooper Robert Ralls in November 1984.

Stuart is now facing 10 years in prison.

Phi Theta Kappa Names New Members

Jerry Brown and Anita Trammell of Breckenridge; Tracey Couch, Connie Gosnell and Deanna McGrew of Cisco; Joan Fariello of Merkel; Elizabeth Hardy of Brownwood; Cathryn Anne Jones of Hamilton; Angie Pickard of Weatherford; David White of San Antonio; Wesley Wynn of Olden and Walter May, Terri Owens, and Larry Searcy of Abilene were recently initiated into the Alpha Gamma Gamma Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa at Cisco Junior College.

Phi Theta Kappa is the Honor fraternity organized in junior colleges across the United States. Its purpose is to recognize and promote high scholastic achievement.

Terry Hart of Fort Worth said they were charged with possession of phenyl acetone, a controlled substance used in the manufacture of methamphetamine.

Hart identified them as:
• Lawrance Michael Payne, 33, of Breckenridge.
• Michael David Reynolds, 30, of Grapevine.
• David Loyd Harrington, 30, of Fort Worth.

They were held without bond by U.S. Magistrate John Weeks of Abilene, who set a detention hearing at 1:30 p.m. Friday in federal court.

Hart said there apparently was no connection with recent raids of "speed" cooking laboratories in Taylor and Fisher counties. "Not that we know of at this time."

Methamphetamine and amphetamine are commonly known as "speed."

Hart said the three were transferred Wednesday to Taylor County Jail by Eastland County Sheriff Don Underwood.

Payne and Reynolds were arrested about 7 p.m. Friday in a pasture in northern Eastland County, about a mile north of the intersection of State Highway 69 and U.S. 183.

Two other men fled after offices swept into the site where Underwood said the suspects were "cooking off a batch of methamphetamine."

Harrington later was picked up by lawmen as he was hitchhiking, and the fourth man turned himself in to police in Breckenridge. He was identified as Melvin Wayne Duggan, 26, of Breckenridge.

State drug charges were filed on all four men, but Duggan was not named in Wednesday's federal complaint.

Hart said 15 years' imprisonment is the maximum penalty on the federal charge.

Underwood said that the lab was located about 100 yards from the highway and that a tarpaulin had been spread over it to protect it from the rain.

Africa Unrest Cancels Trip

The phone call from Zimbabwe inviting Rev. John C. Jones, pastor of the Greater Mountain Top Church (U.P.C.), to preach in the April Camp Meeting was one of many international calls of preaching invitations he receives annually. This one was different, for seven days later the invitation would be cancelled.

The church, and interested friends had already pledged financial backing and air line arrangements were being made, but in south Africa political unrest would be intensifying.

The Zimbabwe party advised "if we were to assemble as planned, with over 1,000 at the Camp Grounds, it would be misinterpreted and result in attack by at least one of the political factions, possibly two, resulting in some deaths. I have been shot at twice (American missionary) this week, and several of our preachers have been badly beaten."

The Dark Continent of Africa is covered by gloom and despair. The starving of Ethiopia is no myth, but very

Resolutions Of Appreciation Adopted Here

Resolutions of appreciation to Mrs. Ina Stamey and Mrs. Lillian Hansen have been adopted by the E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, according to a report by Mrs. Louise Anderson, president.

The resolutions were adopted at a regular meeting of the Auxiliary board of February 11, 1985. The resolutions, naming the two long-time members, read in part as follows:

"Whereas, these long-time members of the Auxiliary faithfully discharged the obligations to uphold the organization with their prayers, presence and service for many years, and

"Whereas, included in their service was their influence in working with all members. They were willing and effective workers who could always be depended upon to give their best, and

"Whereas, it is the desire of this Auxiliary to express appreciation of Ina Stamey and Lillian Hansen and to extend heartfelt sympathy to their families; now, there, real, as is starvation in some other African areas. The social and political unrest of the southern half of the continent, combined with the racial problems, all scream out: "Where are our answers?"

Pastor Jones has been invited to preach the Camp Meeting in Zimbabwe after the elections there this summer. This would move the engagement into December, when the political climate should be more agreeable.

In the trip will be stops in Nairobi, Kenya and perhaps other African nations, as well as London, England if schedules permit. The Greater Mountain Top Church has a slogan, "Eastland County's Oasis of Love", but the "Oasis of Love" has overflowed its banks into the ends-of-the-world with missions outreach.

The church is located ten miles south of Cisco on Highway 183 and is attended weekly by people driving as far away as fifty miles, to attend the services of joy and worship and praise.

"Be it resolved that a copy of this resolution be entered in the permanent records of the Auxiliary and that copies of same be sent to their loved ones."

The resolution was signed by Mrs. Kitty McCracken, who retired recently as president, and by Mrs. Trixie Whately, secretary.

CJC's Student Government Elects Officers

Serving as Student Government Association officers for the 1985-86 school year at Cisco Junior College will be Candy Asbury, president, Albany; Harold Roan, vice president, Cisco; Shawn Alsop, secretary, Eastland; and D.D. McGrew, treasurer, Cisco.

MR. WESLEY Valek, who is one of our community's leading historians and authorities of things historical, has been commissioned by the board of trustees of the Conrad N. Hilton Memorial Park and Community Center to help determine the type of furnishings that went to the old Mobley Hotel.

Mr. Valek would like to hear from anyone with information about the old Mobley—how it was furnished, from carpets to coat hangers. Write him a card and he'll go see you. Call him and he'll make an appointment to visit you.

The official board of the Mobley Hilton would like for the interior of the hotel to be as authentic as possible. If you know of the whereabouts of any of the old furniture from the hotel, give Wesley the word. Perhaps some of it can be located.

WE'VE BEEN asked to remind one and all local ladies that a membership drive is being conducted by the E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. Dues are $3 per year if you do volunteer work at the hospital. If you can't work and would like to be a supporting member, dues are $5 per year.

Send your membership check—new or renewal—to Rebecca Walker, 1201 West 14th St., Cisco, the membership chairman.

The Auxiliary operates a gift shop at the hospital and it is a pretty complete shop with a lot of arts and crafts items plus many of the things you usually see in hospital gift shops. The shop is open during the daytime if you would like to see it.

The Auxiliary is planning to have a booth at the FolkLife Festival April 27-28... They'll help with a blood drive April 10th... And they'll assist with the annual county health fair April 25th.

THE ABILENE newspaper's sports writers published a list of folks making their Big Country Track Honor Roll for the past week. And the list includes Candy Escobedo, senior CHS student who won first place in the 200 and 400 meter races at Breckenridge last Saturday. Candy, daughter of the Ross Escobedos, ran the 400 meters in 59.23 seconds—a real impressive mark.

You'll see Candy and others of the CHS track and field teams in action this Saturday out at the CHS athletic field. Seven teams were due to commence at 9 a.m. with the finals at 2 p.m.

THE E.L. JACKSONS of our town are back home after flying to Pennsylvania where they visited his brother... THE O.L. (Robbie) Robinsons are back home in Cisco after a vacation out west as far as California. A highlight for the couple was spending a day at a tournament in which the nation's top lady professional golfers took part. The Robinsons are enthusiastic golfers... If you don't believe it's spring, look at the calendar. It all began on March 20th... And April 7th will be Easter Sunday... Dr. Henry E. McCullough, president of Cisco Junior College, spent several days in San Antonio this past week attending a meeting of the Association of Texas Colleges.

NOT EVEN ONE person had turned up Friday at City Hall of the downtown school office to cast an absentee ballot in the April 6th election... The beautiful cakes served at the reception that followed the recent flag raising ceremony out at Cisco Junior College were baked and decorated by Cahlotte Speegle and Emma Watts of the CJC staff. Several folks inquired. Everybody agreed that the cakes were as good as they were beautiful... Dr. and Mrs. Chief Brown attended a seminar at Lubbock recently. The weather was beautiful with no wind or sand like is often the case this time of year.

MESDAMES JUANITA Hartsell and Annita Ritchie of the Lemon Tree, local ladies ready-to-wear store, were in Big D attending market Thursday and Friday... Mrs. Ritchie, by the way, has been quite busy with duties involving the Smithlawn Homes, a Lubbock adoption agency, since she recently completed work to qualify as a counselor in that field... Some 1,500 youngsters plus a lot of fathers and mothers will be in town next weekend for the annual Junior Music Festival out at CJC... The N.T. EVERYTHING IS shaping up nicely for the April 27th reunion of CHS Ex-Students, reports Co-Chairman Bill Philpott. Many, many exes are making reservations with Bill and Co-Chairperson Geneva Webb and with the various class reps.

Understand that Butch Wilcox of Burnett and Buddy Waters of Fort Worth, two of the exes, have made plans for a dance at the Cisco Country Club for April 27th. They'll have a live band and serve breakfast when it's all over.

A bonus is the fact that the water flowing through the ditches goes into Lake Cisco, where the water level has been inching up slowly for a week or so. They're hoping for a diversion ditch to re-route the flow of rainwater.

Probation Office Is Fully Staffed

The Probation Office serving Eastland County and the 91st District Court is now fully staffed according to 91st District Judge Jim Wright, with the appointment of Joe Housson as Adult Probate Officer.

Mr. Housson has retired after some 19 years with the Department of Human Resources to assume his new position with the County Probation Office.

Other Probation Office staff members are Mrs. Larry Armstrong, Cassandra Conn, and Randall Logan. Offices are located in the Courthouse on the third floor, adjoining the 91st District Court.

Judge Wright said in announcing the staff:

"We believe that the probationary program is one that can serve well, and we are happy to be able to add Mr. Housson to our staff. There is so much good that can be accomplished through carefully-maintained probation programs and we feel that this office can adequately serve the needs of this court and our people."

"Often the probation program is misunderstood," Judge Wright said, "but properly supervised, it can be a major factor in helping offenders regain their status as useful and law-abiding citizens, and to assist in obtaining restitution for victims of crime. It is a major tool in helping reduce the confinement problems which are now so much a part of our correction system in this state."

Mr. Housson and his wife Neda have lived in Eastland for a number of years. They have three children who are attending the University of Texas and a fourth, who is an Eastland High School student.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan came to Eastland from Farmers Branch. They have one daughter, a fourth grader.

Mrs. M.D. Bailey Celebrates Her 95th Birthday

175 people attended the birthday party for Mrs. M.D. Bailey, at the Cisco Senior Center. Mrs. Bailey, who was 95 years old, had the privilege of sharing the party with 7 other people who were 90 plus years old. Mrs. Bailey heard her son, Judge Scott Bailey, praise his mother for her great concern for the family, her church and the community.

Judge Bailey provided ice cream and cake for the 175 older Americans attending the noon luncheon.

Travel In Europe Can Be Interesting

European travel can be very interesting and relatively inexpensive when the proper planning and preparation goes into arranging the trip, according to Wyley Peebles in a talk last Wednesday noon at the weekly luncheon of the Cisco Lions Club at the Colony Restaurant.

Mr. Peebles, head of the music department at Cisco Junior College, has made seven trips to Europe and is currently planning a trip for the summer of '85.

The first trip, Mr. Peebles recalled, came as a college credit course to Germany where he spent six weeks traveling and in classrooms. This outing was enjoyed while he was in graduate school at Baylor University in 1968. The some six weeks away from home cost about $1,200 and that included travel, Mr. Peebles said.

Purchasing railway passes before leaving the United States is the most economical way to see the various European countries, Mr. Peebles said. There are many "break and board" homes and hostels located over Europe and these offer real economy to the traveler, he added.

Intermediate School New Construction Is Approved

Plans for new construction at Intermediate School were approved and the architect was authorized to prepare plans and specifications for use in advertising for bids for work to start about June 1 at a meeting of the board of trustees of the Cisco Independent School District Thursday night.

Supt. James Couch said the board also authorized the revision of plans for removing debris of the windstorm wreckage of the old school gym for use in re-bidding. Bids for removing the debris were opened recently and rejected as being too high, Mr. Couch said.

The bids were between $44,000 and $57,000. Contractors submitting the bids as well as others interested will be invited to see the revised bids and to submit new proposals, Mr. Couch said.

Architect Lee Stuart of Fort Worth met with the board.

The new building plans call for adding 12 class rooms and a combination cafeteria-auditorium along with rest rooms and the like. Grades one through six and the kindergarten will be housed in the building after it is completed, hopefully in time for the beginning of the 1985-86 school year.

REV. AND MRS. BRIAN WISEMAN

Missionaries From Brazil Will Speak

Pastor John C. Jones and the congregation of Greater Mountain Top Pentecostal Church extends an invitation to the public to hear Rev. and Mrs. Brian Wiseman, missionaries to Brazil Sunday, at 11:00 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

Rev. and Mrs. Wiseman, former pastor in Thorp, Wisconsin, recently completed their first term of service in Brazil as missionaries of the United Pentecostal Church International. Originally appointed in 1979, Rev. Wiseman served as a district superintendent, national evangelism director, and vice-president of the Bible school in Rio in addition to pioneering a Sunday school and pioneering a church.

When they return to Brazil for their second term, the Wisemans will locate in Ponta Velho, the capitol of Rondonia, a state in the Amazon region of northwest Brazil. This rapidly growing area, much like the land rush era of the American old west. Eighty thousand new people entered the state in the first six months of 1984; 150,000 is expected before the year's end. Brother Wiseman states that the Brazilians of European descent who are moving into Rondonia are open to the gospel. Rev. Wiseman plans to work among this group, as well as the many Indian tribes in the state, as he develops a new district for the Kingdom of God.

Greater Mountain Top Church is located 10 miles south of Cisco on Hiway 183.

WORD OF GOD

The Gifts of the Spirit

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:1-4

Senior Citizens

Rhythm Band Joins Festival

The Cisco Senior Citizens Rhythm Band with twenty three members joined in the St. Patrick's Day Festival at Dublin on Saturday, March 16th. There were many activities through out the day.

Several bands competed in a contest that afternoon. There were two divisions of the Bands.

One was the Senior Citizens Kitchen Band Contest where The Dixie Land Band of Stephenville won first place. The other division was the Senior Citizens String Band contest where Cisco Senior Citizen Rhythm Band under the direction of Registration fees are: $10.00 per child, $5.00 for each additional child in the same family. If the fee is a true hardship, sponsorships are available.

Each player should bring his registration card, registration fee, and a copy of his birth certificate to the tryouts.

Questions about Little League or the tryouts should be directed to Harold Davies, at 442-4082 after 5:00.

Ann Sublett and the leadership of Jack Roberson walked away with first place.

The group went with much enthusiasm and excitement. The band is so pleased to be able to participate in events such as this.

We would like as members of the band to say thanks to Ann and Jack for their part in helping the band to be what it is.

We would also like to express our thanks to Ruth Carlee for her leadership and her help in every way for the Senior Citizens of the Cisco area. She's great and we all love her.

"Improving Your Photography" will be the title of an educational seminar scheduled to be held in Eastland next month. Photographer/lecturer Larry C. Sanders, a Certified Photographic Counselor, will conduct the seminar designed to increase photography understanding and improve photographic quality.

The seminar will be held at Camp Inspiration, April 11th, from 7:00 till 10:00 p.m. The Thursday night program will present ample time for questions and answers regarding personal photographic problems. Mr. Sanders recommends the seminar for beginning and intermediate level photographers of all ages, and assures everyone attending will leave a more capable and confident photographer.

Total cost for the seminar will be just $4.00 per person. Tickets are available at Eastland Drug and the offices of the Eastland Telegram, Cisco Press, Ranger Times, Rising Star and Callahan Star in Baird.

Mr. Sanders has instructed photography for over eight years thru various programs including the Keaton Kolor School of Photography, Abilene Tri-College, TSTI, and in high school and college workshops throughout west Texas. He also hosts KTAB-TV's "Photo-Phocus" television program.

If you and your camera haven't been getting along very well lately, this could be the counseling you need to get your relationship back in focus. Be sure to bring your camera equipment and a good notepad.

New Law Increases

Earned Income

Earned income credit, a tax benefit for certain low income persons, has been expanded to allow for the effect of inflation and higher social security taxes, according to the Internal Revenue Service.

In 1984, qualified persons were allowed a maximum credit of $500, which was gradually phased out as income increased to $10,000. Beginning in 1985, the credit will equal 11 percent of the first $5,000 for a maximum credit of $550. If income is greater than $5,000, the credit continues to gradually phase out. With an income of $11,000 there is no benefit at all.

The credit may be computed only on earned income, such as wages or self-employment. Since it is refundable, it may be claimed even though income is so low that there is no tax liability. It may be entered on either Form 1040 or Form 1040A.

Earned income credit is available to low income persons who provide a home in the United States that they share with a child for an entire year. Married persons must also file a joint return and claim the child as a dependent.

If you feel that you may qualify to receive the earned income credit, but would like help with preparing your tax return, you can get that help free of charge at any of the neighboring Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) centers. For a complete list of the VITA locations and their hours of service, call toll-free 1-800-424-1040.

Congressman Stenholm Announces Plans

Congressman Charles Stenholm announced plans today for the Fourth Annual Art competition for high school students, grades 9 through 12, in the 17th Congressional District. The contest will culminate May 25, 1985, with an awards dinner in Abilene. The winner will be displayed in a corridor leading to the United States capitol for one year. All winners in the local contests will receive a Congressional Certificate of Appreciation.

Over 30,000 students from all over the nation have participated in this contest during the past three years. We have had outstanding talent from the 17th District and I believe it is very important to encourage these creative energies which are so vital to our cultural traditions," said Stenholm.

This nationwide search for excellence, conducted with no Federal funds, is open to every high school student. Artwork must be no larger than 30" x 30" (unframed) and two-dimensional. Landscapes shall portray Texas scenes. Eligible categories are paintings, drawings, collages, and prints.

The regional show scheduled in Stephenville

You'll desperately run to the pusher, and then

You'll welcome me back to your arms once again. And when you return (just as I foretold!),

I know that you'll give me your body and soul.

You'll give up your morals, your conscience, your heart, And you will be mine until DEATH DO US PART.

"The Sunset In Her Life" - Miss Heroin

So, now, Little Man, you've grown tired of grass,

L.S.D., goof balls, cocaine, and hash;

And someone, pretending to be a true friend,

Said, "I'll introduce you to Miss Heroin."

Well, honey, before you start fooling with me,

Just let me inform you of how it will be.

For I will seduce you and make you my slave

I've sent men much stronger than you to their graves.

You think you could never become a disgrace

And end up addicted to poppy seed waste.

So, you'll start inhaling me one afternoon,

You'll take me into your arms very soon.

And once I have entered deep down in your veins,

The craving will nearly drive you insane.

You'll need lots of money (as you have been told):

For, darling, I'm much more expensive than gold.

You'll swindle your mother; and, just for a buck,

You'll turn into something vile and corrupt.

You'll mug and you'll steal for my narcotic charm,

And feel contentment when I'm in your arms.

The day when you realize the monster you've grown,

You'll solemnly promise to leave me alone.

If you think that you've got the mystical knack,

Then, sweetie, just try getting me off your back.

The vomit, the cramps, your gut tied in a knot,

The jangling nerves screaming for just one more shot -

The cold chills the hot sweat, the withdrawal pains,

Can only be saved by my little white grains.

There's no other way, and there's no need to look;

For deep down inside, you will know you are hooked.

Sen. Bob Glasgow Reports
P.O. Box 12068 Austin, Tx. 78711

The Texas Senate, following earlier passage by the House of Representatives, past a statewide water plan on February 27, 1985. The Senate version of the plan, however, differs significantly from that passed by the House. The result of the opposing plans is a Conference Committee consisting of 5 members of the Senate (Senators Santiesteban, Montford, Truan, Lyon and Brown) appointed by Lt. Governor Hobby and 5 members from the House (Representatives Craddick, Geistweidt, Clark, Buchanan and Staniswalis) appointed by Speaker Lewis. The two sides will meet and attempt to iron out the differences in the two water plans and ultimately come to an agreement on a drastically needed comprehensive water plan for Texas.

One of the most significant and debated differences between the Senate and House versions is the control of underground aquifers. Under the Senate version, citizens of an area who encounter a critical water shortage would have the opportunity to vote to create an underground water district. If such a proposal failed the election, then the voters would have another opportunity, in a second election, to vote for a district. If the voters rejected the district after two elections, then the Department of Water Resources would take control of groundwater in those critical areas. Under the House version, the voters could totally reject underground water regulation, thus making such a proposal strictly voluntary by the local areas affected by the critical water shortage.

A second major difference between the two plan involves appropriations and loans to agriculture research and farmers. The House plan calls for an appropriation of $10 million aimed to promote research into agriculture water conservation. However, no funds for direct loans to farmers is provided under the Senate version, $15 million would be appropriated for conservation research. Additionally, up to $200 million in water bonds would be provided for direct loans to farmers who need more efficient irrigation equipment.

A source of major concern throughout the development of a water plan has been the welfare of our economically profitable fish and seafood industries. Fish and shellfish in coastal waters must have a sufficient flow of fresh water in order to survive. Therefore, excessive damming, thus cutting off the flow of critical fresh water to our bays and estuaries, would be detrimental to Texas' ever important fishing industry. Both versions addresses this issue, however, the Senator version offers somewhat stronger language. The House plan requires that "beneficial inflows" of fresh water be maintained while the Senate went further requiring that "ecological health" and "productivity" be maintained.

In looking at the overall picture, there exists a $400 million difference in bond funds between the two plans. The Senate plan calls for $1.2 billion in bond funds while the House plan calls for $800 million in bonds. Governor White listed the development of a State Water Plan as the top priority of the 69th Legislature. Assuredly, neither of the two plans will survive intact as the ultimate water plan. Hopefully, however, after a series of debate and possible compromise both sides in the Conference Committee, an equitable and workable Statewide Water Plan will emerge.

Man Convicted
Of 3rd DWI

An Eastland County jury convicted a 41-year-old Scranton man of felony driving while intoxicated, his third offense, Tuesday in 91st District Court.

Formal sentencing is scheduled for Wednesday after the same jury recommended that Raymond Brooklyn Stuart serve a five-year prison sentence and pay a $500 fine.

According to testimony, Department of Public Safety Trooper Robert Ralls arrested Stuart Nov. 23, 1984, after a citizen reported a car being driven erratically in the Scranton community, about 10 miles southwest of Cisco.

District Attorney Emory Walton prosecuted, and Leslie Vance served as Stuart's court-appointed attorney.

Tele-Help Program Launched By Southwestern Bell

Tele-Help, a Southwestern Bell Telephone information campaign, is being expanded. The program was launched in August 1984 to increase customer understanding of changes in telephone service due to divestiture.

"Tele-Help was designed to provide customers with answers to some of the most common questions regarding telephone service that arose due to divestiture," said Larry Vernon, local manager. "The program was designed to assure customers, especially those in small and medium-size towns, that we're committed to help them better understand the changes in our business."

Vernon said that a set of six free brochures were featured initially in the program. They covered various aspects of telephone service such as how to handle phone repair, tips on buying a phone, understanding the phone bill and a guide to long distance service. More than 1.5 million of these brochures have been distributed in Texas.

"Most questions our customers had were actually shared by customers all over the state. By addressing these most common questions we could help customers on a broad scale," Vernon continued. "Now, a second set of questions will be addressed in our continuing effort to keep customers informed."

"Now, a second set of General Dentistry where he has earned over 500 hours of post-graduate continuing education credit.

Currently, Dr. Easley will be in the office on Tuesday and Thursdays from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Appointments can be made 5 days a week at 629-8581.

Dr. Easley and his staff look forward to meeting you and serving your dental health needs.

brochures will also be in customer telephone bill inserts and in newspaper ads across the state.

The topics for the new brochures were determined by interviews with customers. Vernon said that future Tele-Help topics will be decided in a similar manner.

"We sincerely feel Tele-Help has helped ease customer confusion. It has been one way to answer common questions, minimize confusion brought about by divestiture and assure customers that we are committed to keep service at a high level," Vernon concluded.

Lela Latch Reviews Book

Lela Latch Lloyd of Cisco presented a book review of her latest publication, "Browning on the Brazos", at a Paramount Bookstore dinner and program in Abilene March 12. The event was held at the Abilene Writer's Guild Building, 860 Hickory.

Juanita Zachry, Projects Chairman of the Bookstore and a Director of the Abilene Writer's Guild, welcomed Abilene Writer's Guild members and special guests to the program. A number of area authors attended: Lela Lloyd, Fred Blummer, Jim Johnson, Juanita Zachry, Rob Sledge, Dr. Lou Rodenburger, Frank Beasley, Walley Aiken, Julia Worthy, Jo Baldwin, Viola Payne, Sandra Miller, Alene Williams, Shirley Strawn, Jewel Pritchett and Billie McMullen, president of the Abilene Writer's Guild.

Mrs. Lloyd explained that the inspiration to write "Browning on the Brazos" came during her years at Baylor University in Waco. Her association with Dr. A. Joseph Armstrong and the Browning-Armstrong Library left an indelible impression.

"I dare you to do something tangible to show how much you love the poetry of Robert Browning," Armstrong once challenged her.

Her "something tangible" first took the form of reviews on Brownings work for clubs and civic organizations in Waco, Eastland County and Dallas-Fort Worth. Eventually she had enough material for a book. The volume was illustrated by Gene Kinser and Dwain Fall, and came off the press in the fall of 1984.

The Abilene Review concurred "Paracelus", Browning's epic based on the experience of a medieval doctor.

Paracelus runs the gauntlet of human experience - he has an intense seeking for knowledge, seeking for love, seeking for truth, and seeking for God. In all these he seems to fail - he finds misunderstanding, lack of acceptance, and lack of balance. But finally he is sustained by the thought of that life on this earth is not the total end of man's existence.

"Browning brings more spiritual truth to his writing than any of the secular authors I have studied," Mrs. Lloyd said.

Abilene Writer's Guild members and others in attendance expressed ap-give Him yourself without giving Him your heart, it is mockery. If you sing without giving Him your heart, it is tinkling cymbal or sounding brass. If you try to teach without giving Him your heart, it is ignorance. If you try to tell others of Him without giving Him your heart, it is hypocrisy.

You could give Him your wealth and He wouldn't be any richer; for He owns the world and everything in it. You could give Him your greatness and He wouldn't be any greater; for He is the creator. You could give Him your goodness and He would not be any better; for He possesses all goodness. You could give Him your strength and He wouldn't be any stronger; for He is your source of strength. BAIRD

Callahan County has been approved by the USDA Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service for special permission to graze livestock and harvest hay for forage on cropland taken out of production by the 1985 land diversion program. ASCS official Scott Odum said the special acreage conservation reserve haying and grazing could benefit about 35,000 farmers in the county. ACR acres include unpaid acreage reduction acres and acreage for which payment is made. Haying or grazing of ACR acres is not to remove the cover so the soil is unprotected from erosion.
