Softball Assoc. Plans Tourney

Cisco Softball Association is sponsoring a Round Robin T-Ball Tournament. It will be held Monday, June 10, and Tuesday, June 11, beginning at 6:00 p.m. each evening and playing 3 games per night.

There will be 4 teams participating. The Little Drillers, Little Roughnecks, Little Haulers, and the Little Pills will be playing.

This will close the season for these children. Come out to Whitley Field and enjoy watching these 6 to 8 year old girls and boys play softball.

HALL OF REMARKS BY HERREL HALLMARK

CLOUDY SKIES were evident in Cisco this week and weather predictions called for the chance of thunderstorms Tuesday evening and Wednesday. Hopefully, Cisco will receive some more rain soon.

The past few days of hot temperatures, especially last weeks 100 plus temperatures, seem to really be drying out the ground and turning grass from green to a slight brown. Let's all continue praying for rain and hope we do not get in the same water situation we were in last summer.

WHAT IS Scleroderma? That was the question in my mind when we received a news release at the Press office this week announcing that National Scleroderma Awareness Week is June 10-17.

Well, the release answered that question. Scleroderma

Sherlock Holmes Presents Challenges For The Roof Garden Dinner Theatre

Is it a detective story? Is it a comedy? Is it a romance? The answer to all three questions is a resounding "yes!" according to theatre director Philip Craik. The opening play of the 1985 Summer Dinner Theatre Season is the original and world-famous SHERLOCK HOLMES by Arthur Conan Doyle and Philip Craik. The opening

Two other programs will be presented during the summer months by a cast that includes several professionals. The dinner theater program has won considerable acclaim for Cisco Junior College since its beginning several years ago.

Dr. Henry McCulloch was the program chairman and introduced the speaker.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Chambliss of San Angelo; Dianne Stephenson of Midland; Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Stephenson of Big Spring; Terry, Mary and Krista Stephenson of Ponca, Okla.; Thelma Hogan of Wolforth; Jaunene Lambert of Mansfield; Jeep, Brenda, Judy and Billy Butler, Springtown; Sheri, Shannon, Magi and Amber Wharton of Early; Raymond and Dorothy Perdue of Post; Billy Edwards of Warner Robin, GA.; Mr. and Mrs. Clund McBeth of Springtown; Mrs. Gladys Hardy Carter of Grandbury; and Fred and Ken Steffey of Grand Prairie.

Those from Cisco were LaVerne Andrews, Reba Steffey, Vickie Wilcoxen, Frank and Mamie Ruth Wilcoxen, Artie Bill Perdue, Grace Harrelson and Jerry McBeth. Officers elected for 1986 are T.E. Stephenson, president, and LaVerne Andrews, secretary-treasurer.

ON LIONS PROGRAM
Roy Thackerson of Ranger, known as the "fingerless fiddler," was to appear on the program at the weekly luncheon at noon Wednesday, June 5, according to an announcement by Dr. C.M. Cleveland, program chairman.

WORD of GOD

Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.

Psalm 27:11

come expecting to see a murder mystery like Agatha Christi's THE MOUSETRAP or TEN LITTLE INDIANS.

When Gillette approached Arthur Conan Doyle about making a play adaptation of his famous Sherlock Holmes detective stories, Conan Doyle was thoroughly fed-up with the Holmes character. It seems that he had literary aspirations other than writing detective stories, but the book-buying public was only interested in Sherlock Holmes, and he had been forced out of economic necessity to continue writing detective stories until he loathed them. So when Gillette asked if Conan Doyle minded his introducing a love interest for Holmes, Conan Doyle is said to have responded "Fine, marry him off, kill him, do whatever you want."

It should be noted however, that Gillette was very discreet, and although his play is both a comedy and a romance, he has stayed true to the characterizations of the original stories. In fact, much of the humor in the play is inherent in the original as any Holmes aficionado will tell you. It is a stylish kind of humor the entire family can enjoy.

Technically, SHERLOCK HOLMES presents some major challenges for the intimate ROOF GARDEN DINNER THEATRE in that there are five different settings. In any other theatre this would be challenging, but in a theatre created in an adapted ballroom with virtually no backstage space, it required some very imaginative planning. The answer in the past to multi-set shows has been the use of roll-drops and sets on rolling reversible wagons. The solution for this play will be a revolving stage on a large turntable. This marks the first time a revolve has been used in the Roof Garden Theatre. With five different settings a large cast of 18 to outfit in Victorian costume, SHERLOCK HOLMES represents one of the greatest technical challenges to date.

The leading roles in SHERLOCK HOLMES will all be played by actors familiar to Roof Garden regulars. The title role will be played by Steven Vincent who also played the hysterical slave hysterman in A FUNNY THING HAPPENED ON THE WAY TO THE FORUM, the devious Sydney Bruhl in DEATHTRAP, the timid tailor Motel in FIDDLER ON THE ROOF, Jack in CHARLEY'S AUNT, the bewildered husband Charles with a ghostly wife in BLITHE SPIRIT, and Nathan Detroit in GUYS AND DOLLS. With a year of training at the Drama Studio in London to his credit, Steven should be able to give a special understanding to the characterization of Holmes.

The role of Dr. Watson, Sherlock's confederate and personal friend, will be played by Bill Austin, Jr. who runs Austin's Furniture Store in Cisco. Although the theatergoers remember his performances as Senex in A FUNNY THING... and the lead role Tevye in FIDDLER ON THE ROOF, some are unaware that prior to coming to Cisco, Bill had many years of professional theatre experience with the Windmill Dinner Theatre in Houston.

Also in the play is Charles Hukill who played the part of Lord Fancourt Babberley (Babbs) who dresses up like an old lady in CHARLEY'S AUNT. Charles is a multi-talented theatre artist who has designed numerous shows for the Roof Garden Theatre in the past along with directing last summer's production of BLITHE SPIRIT. This summer, in addition to acting, he will be designing and building the sets for all three plays and directing the second play GREATER TUNA.

SHERLOCK HOLMES will run June 13-15, 20-22. Tickets are $12.00 for Dinner and Show with Dinner beginning at 7 p.m. Reservations are required and can be made by calling (817) 442-2589. Season tickets are also available for $32. All checks should be made payable to Cisco Junior College and sent to Roof Garden Theatre Box Office, Cisco Junior College, Rt. 3, Box 3, Cisco, Texas 76437.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—On the last day of the session, the Legislature passed a $38.6 billion budget, and while lawmakers avoided a $1.2 billion deficit crisis, they didn't sidestep a special session called to provide health care for the poor.

Less than an hour after the midnight gavel banged final adjournment, Gov. Mark White announced he was calling legislators back into session immediately to consider unfinished business.

Three days later, the Legislature approved a $70 million health care plan for the poor. The money comes out of general revenue and contingency funds controlled by the governor, and does not call for a tax hike.

Although the plan was supported by Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby and House Speaker Gib Lewis, the bill died in the final three minutes of the regular session when an opposition legislator talked it to death.

The bill provides that the state will pay for health care for the very poor, and for expanded medical services for mothers, infants and the elderly. County governments will be reimbursed for costs.

Indigent Plea Heard

Of course, the poor were naturally for the bill, but so were many rural hospital boards strained financially by indigent patients.

Finding funds for the program was the major problem because few lawmakers were willing to vote for another tax increase. Most of them, in fact were careful to avoid even the appearance of voting for a tax increase, so scared are they of voter reaction.

When someone proposed latching onto an eight-cent cigarette tax that the feds are rumored to be repealing, most legislators, and especially Gov. White, were uncertain and slow to act. Hence the delays in bringing the program to a floor vote.

An Election Issue?

But once the budget was passed, the extra money was found to pay for the program, and a tax increase was avoided.

In the early hours of the special session, the indigent care plan threatened to be the foremost election issue of 1986.

On one hand, Mark White and the Democrats, including most of the rural conservatives, had revived and advocated the program.

On the other, the Republicans had fought it all along in the belief they were avoiding a tax increase.

Wishy-Washy or Gutsy?

The man in the hot seat was, and still is, the governor, alternately blasted for being headstrong and "wishy-washy."

Already he must stand for re-election with one bona fide tax hike on his record. He ran the risk of adding another, but by not adding a tax, he and lawmakers diminished the election bomb effect.

The governor saw the need for the legislation and was determined to see it passed. Even his opponents must concede that he pulled it off, and speedily.

Other Legislation

Other approved legislation includes:

—Raising the legal drinking age to 21 to avoid losing some $100 million in federal highway funds.

—Reviving the law requiring triplicate prescriptions to aid law enforcement officers in drug cases.

—Allowing widows and divorcees to continue receiving health insurance benefits for one year after spousal death or divorce.

—Requiring drivers and front-seat passengers to wear safety belts or face a fine.

—Creating the first state-wide plan for water development conservation, and research.

—Extending unemployment compensation for farm laborers.

—Increasing cities' jurisdiction over billboards and limiting compensation to sign owners for removal.

—Mandating criminal background checks for new day-care employees.

—Establishing a felony and penalties for an unauthorized person who alters or damages data in a computer.

Doing MORE...With LESS!

By the staff of THE MOTHER EARTH NEWS

A HOMEMADE CHARCOAL LIGHTER

One of the more pleasurable aspects of summer living is sitting down with friends and family to a meal that's fresh from the backyard grill. In many households, the delectable aroma of barbecued chicken or grilled burgers is as much a part of summer as warm, sunny days.

If you're a fan of tasty outdoor fare, but don't have much patience with reluctant coals, you might want to put together a homemade charcoal lighter. This handy device, which can easily be made from common household and hardware store items, will produce a glowing bed of briquettes in about ten minutes—a definite improvement over the time required to generate embers when using the more conventional lighter-fluid method.

The workhorse of the lighter is simply an 8" length of 6" diameter single-walled stove-pipe. You'll also need 14" of 1 1/2" x 1" flat steel for the handle and another 12" or so of the same material for the three legs (each leg measures approximately 3-1/2"). In the charcoal chimney shown in the drawing, the legs were brazed to the inside of the stove-pipe so that 2" of each leg protruded from the bottom of the cylinder. (If you prefer, you can attach the legs with 1 1/8" Pop Rivets or No. 6 machine screws and nuts.) A section of 1 1/2" expanded metal screening can be cut to fit the bottom of the cylinder and should be fastened by brazing (or with rivets or machine screws and nuts). Then attach the handle and apply a coat of heat-resistant flat black paint to the burner, inside and out.

With that done, your chimney is ready to use. For hot coals in no time, fill the igniter with briquettes until it's about two-thirds full, set it on your outdoor grill, and place several sheets of crumpled newspaper underneath the cylinder's metal screening. When you light the paper, it will ignite the charcoal, and, as a result of the "chimney effect," the briquettes will rapidly develop into glowing coals. When the embers are ready, simply dump them on the grill and prepare the feast. Be sure to use a barbecue glove when you transfer the coals, as the handle of the igniter is likely to be very hot.

When you use your charcoal igniter, you'll find that a few sheets of paper can be a lot more effective than liberal libations of fossil fuel—and a lot cheaper, since old newspapers and other burnables are usually available free for the asking. As a bonus, you won't have to worry about the odor of lighter fluid, which sometimes taints grilled foods.

If you've got a little time on your hands (and yesterday's paper), try putting together your own version of our charcoal igniter. You might just decide that the igniter is the greatest addition to the barbecue since fire.

1985 DINNER THEATRE SUMMER SEASON

"Sherlock Holmes" To Open 1985 Season

Is it a detective story? Is it a comedy? Is it a romance? The answer to all three questions is a resounding "yes!", according to the theatre director Philip Craik. The opening play of the 1985 Summer Dinner Theatre Season is the original and world-famous SHERLOCK HOLMES by Arthur Conan Doyle and William Gillette. But don't come expecting to see a murder mystery like Agatha Christie's THE MOUSETRAP or TEN LITTLE INDIANS. When Gillette approached Arthur Conan Doyle about making a play adaptation of his famous Sherlock Holmes detective stories, Conan Doyle was thoroughly fed-up with the Holmes character. It seems that he had literary aspirations other than writing detective stories, but the book-buying public was only interested in Sherlock Holmes, and he had been forced out of economic necessity to continue writing detective stories until he loathed them. So when Gillette asked if Conan Doyle minded his introducing a love interest for Holmes, Conan Doyle is said to have responded "Fine, marry him off, kill him, do whatever you want." It should be noted however, that Gillette was very discreet, and although his play is both a comedy and a romance, he has stayed true to the characterizations of the original stories. In fact, much of the humor in the play is inherent in the original as any Holmes aficionado will tell you. It is a stylist kind of humor the entire family can enjoy.

Technically, SHERLOCK

HOLMES presents some major challenges for the intimate ROOF GARDEN DINNER THEATRE in that there are five different settings. In any other theatre this would be challenging, but in a theatre created in an adapted ballroom with virtually no backstage space, it required some very imaginative planning. The answer in the past to multi-set shows has been the use of roll-drops and sets on rolling reversible wagons. The solution for this play will be a revolving stage on a large turntable. This marks the first time a revolved has been used in the Roof Garden Theatre. With five different settings a large cast of 18 to outfit in Victorian costume, SHERLOCK HOLMES represents one of the greatest technical challenges to date.

The leading roles in SHERLOCK HOLMES will be played by actors familiar to Roof Garden regulars. The title role will be played by Steven Vincent who also played the hysterical slave Hysterium in A FUNNY THING HAPPENED ON

THE WAY TO THE FORUM, the devious Sydney Bruhl in DEATHTRAP, the timid tailor Motel in FIDDLER ON THE ROOF, Jack in CHARLEY'S AUNT, the bewildered husband Charles with a ghostly wife in BLITHE SPIRIT, and Nathan Detroit in GUYS AND DOLLS. With a year of training at the Drama Studio in London to his credit, Steven should be able to give a special understanding to the characterization of Holmes. The role of Dr. Watson, Sherlock's confederate and personal friend, will be played by Bill Austin, Jr. who runs Austin's Furniture Store in Cisco. Although theatregoers remember his performance as Senex in A FUNNY THING... and the lead role Tevye in FIDDLER ON THE ROOF, some are unaware that prior to coming to Cisco, Bill had many years of professional theatre experience with the Windmill Dinner Theatre in Houston. The role played by Charles Hukill who played the part of Lord Fancourt Babberley (Babbs) who dresses up like an old lady in CHARLEY'S AUNT. Charles is a multi-talented theatre artist who has designed numerous shows for the Roof Garden Theatre in the past along with directing last summer's production of BLITHE SPIRIT. This summer, in addition to acting, he will be designing and building the sets for all three plays and directing the second play GREATER TUNA.

SHERLOCK HOLMES will run June 13-15, 20-22. Tickets are $12.00 for Dinner and Show with Dinner beginning at 7 p.m. Reservations are required and can be made by calling (817) 442-2589. Season tickets are also available for $32. All checks should be made payable to Cisco Junior College and sent to Roof Garden Theatre Box Office, Cisco Junior College, Rt. 3, Box 3, Cisco, Texas

Lights From The Christian World

Josephine Cleveland

"But Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end."

(Isiah 45:17)

NOT OVER YET

A small band of disciples stood at the foot of the Hill of Golgatha and watched their Lord die. They saw His pierced body taken from the cross. One of them had betrayed Him for thirty pieces of silver. Another of their number had cursed and sworn that he never knew Him, and many turned and ran for their lives, forsaking Him. When Jesus was placed in the tomb and the huge stone rolled against it, it appeared that this was the end of all their hopes and dreams.

But Calvary does not tell the whole story, for Christ arose and their despair turned into a glorious morning.

As we look at the world today, we cannot help but be disturbed by what we see. After working years, the brilliant scientific gave us the ability to destroy planet earth. The invention of the nuclear weapons, their availability to nations, the threat of nations determined to gain control of others in order to set up a one-world order, has posed a threat of total world annihilation. It appears that there is no hope. Not only does it seem that the end of all things is near, but your personal world already may have crumbled.

Friend, all is not over! Christ conquered! Christ is in control and He will order your steps as you make the Lord your trust. In God's time He will make all things new. We are promised that "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God," (Revelation 21:3).

Putnam News

By Mrs. R.B. Taylor

Looks like Old Man Summer really found us with a bang! How hot it has been! Today (Friday) is cloudy and a little bit cooler. And no rain. How quickly everything will burn and die if we do not have rain soon. This reporter is leaving for the High Country where it will be much cooler. I will be visiting my daughter Mary and Ross Finley at Farmington, New Mexico. I will be thinking of all of you while I enjoy the mountain air.

We were so sorry to learn of the death of Katie Lee Ivy last week. We have known Katy and the Ivy family for many years. She taught in the Putnam School for several years and was loved by every one. Our sympathy to the family.

Mr. Graham who had her hand badly injured last week, checked with her Dr. at DeLeon yesterday. She will have skin grafting later. Mr. James Jagers also had his hand injured in a freak accident. Cutting off the tips of two fingers.

Mrs. R.B. Taylor spent Sunday night with the I.G. Mableys at Baird and attended the yearly meeting of the Belle Plain Cemetery Association. Monday at the Presbyterian Annex. About 30 members attended. A business meeting was held then a pot luck lunch was enjoyed along with good fellowship.

Mrs. Weisa Hoenget of Holland returned home this week after visiting 3 weeks with her sisters, Mrs. Bill Feeley and Mrs. Tina Balder at Abilene. Weisa said she like Texas. But says "It is so big".

Meta and John Doyle Isenhower visited with the Butch Pettys last Saturday evening at Lake Leon.

Linda Hughes of Cisco was a visitor at the Baptist Church at Putnam Sunday.

The George Weeks went to Abilene Wednesday to meet their grandson, Bryan Weeks who flew in from New Orleans. Bryan will be visiting his grandparents for some time.

Pam Trainer of Abilene spent Memorial Day with Billy Wagley at the Cafe.

The Sid Weathermans spent several days this week visiting their son, Don Weatherman at San Antonio. Robert and Lucretia Alexander of Houston and two children visited her mother, Mrs. Edith Ivie this week, also Mr. and Mrs. Don Hazelwood of San Marcos was a visitor with Mrs. Ivie.

Mrs. George (Margie) Weeks has graciously consented to write the Putnam News for me while I am gone. Please call 662-3298 if you have any news items.

WORD of GOD

The Gifts of the Spirit Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

June 1985

The following events, selected by Mari Schnell of the Texas Tourist Development Agency, are but a few of the many excellent recreational opportunities offered by communities across the state.

A leisurely ride on horseback along the beautiful, cypress-lined Medina River is one of the most popular and enjoyable activities at Bandera's many Dude Ranches. The lovely rolling hills and placid river, combined with warm Texas hospitality make for an ideal summer vacation for those who want to "get away from it all." Bandera is located in the heart of the Texas Hill Country, just 50 miles northwest of San Antonio. TTD photo by Richard Reynolds.

George Strait To Perform

George Strait, country music's male vocalist of the year, will be appearing in a memorial scholarship concert at the Texas Cowboy Reunion grounds in Stamford, June 20, 1985 beginning at 8:00 p.m.

Strait, 31, who was born in Poteat, Tex., and who still lives (and ranches) in that neck of the plains, is riding high. "Right or Wrong" his current MCA album hit the top of the charts by bumping off Kinney Rogers' monster hit "Islands in the Stream". His last album "Strait From The Heart" has been a billboard best seller for more than a year. His singles chart well, too. The last one, "You Look So Good In Love" was his fifth number 1.

This will be the last time "Strait" fans will have a chance to attend one of his live performances for some time, in Texas, since he is now on tour hoping to reach the rest of the country with his special brand of "Texas Crooning".

Tickets are now on sale at $10.00 each, and may be purchased from any West Texas Utilities office in the surrounding areas, except Abilene, where tickets may be purchased at Luskey's Western Store, Tommors Records & Tapes, Cody's Western Store, and the Music Box in Haskell.

The outdoor concert will be held in the arena of the world's largest amateur rodeo (Texas Cowboy Reunion), which is capable of seating 10,000 guests. All proceeds, after expenses, will be placed in a memorial scholarship fund for Wade Shurley, a Stamford High School Senior who lost his life in a car accident earlier this year, and for Mr. John McGaughey, Stamford High School Superintendent, who was killed in a motorcycle accident April 20, 1985.

Debra Cline Is Honored At Shower

The Fellowship Hall of the First Christian Church was the setting of a miscellaneous shower Sunday afternoon given by Mrs. LaVeda Massey in honor of Debra Cline, bride elect of Andy Hawari.

The decoration theme of the serving table, refreshments and the registration table was carried out in orchid and purple, the bride elect's chosen colors for their wedding, which will be June 8, 1985 in Canyon, Texas, at the First United Methodist Church.

Lynda Wenda presided at the serving table and Leila Hawari registered the guests.

A table displayed the many lovely gifts opened by the intended bride and groom, who were assisted in listing the gifts by Anjie Cheshire.

Corsages were presented to Miss Cline and other members of the receiving line and house party including Mrs. Kay Hawari, mother of the groom to be and Mrs. Johnnie Cheshire, his grandmother.

The centerpiece of orchid and purple fresh flowers in an antique bowl formerly belonging to Mrs. Massey's mother, was presented to Debra and Andy by the hostess as her gift.

All Who Volunteered In Any Capacity
During Memorial Weekend Crisis
Whomever You Are Wherever You Are

Dear Friends:

It would be impossible for us to list each emergency crew, business firm, church, civic group, and individual who assisted in any way (great or small) during Eastland's Memorial Weekend Crisis without omitting the names of many who had contributed greatly.

Certainly, it was the combined efforts and complete cooperation of all which made it possible to keep everything under control and to prevent loss of lives and further loss of property.

So, to each and every one who helped in any way at all, we would say, "God bless you, and thanks a million for all that you did!"

Area News Briefs

EASTLAND

Donna Metcalf of the Environmental Protection Agency and Don Wyrick of the Texas Department of Water Resources confirm that there has been no widespread contamination of the area from the recent train derailment and explosion. There has been no contamination of the North Fork of the Leon River, where emergency dams were thrown up after the disaster. The dams will remain in place until after all soil in the area has been completely neutralized. Acidity testing is being done all along the river, Wyrick said, from Lake Eastland eastward. Air quality testing equipment was put into use immediately after the explosion, and the monitoring continues.

Tickets for the June 8 Get-Acquainted Barbecue at City Park are available for $5 at the Chamber of Commerce office and from Chamber members. The Barbecue is scheduled to 6 to 8 p.m. The Chefs are Jim Wright and Lewis Tiner, and Roy Underwood will provide music. A special presentation will be made by Mo-PAC representatives, honoring some Eastland citizens for their contributions after the recent train derailment.

There will be a Family Planning Clinic at the Multipurpose Center, 204 North Lamar, June 12, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Patients will go to the office of Dr. Stephen Krech, 203 South Daugherty, for physical exams and medical services. The center uses a pay scale based on the client's income.

Lakeside Country Club is having a Two-Man Scramble Tournament Friday, June 8 and Saturday, June 9. All area golfers are invited to get their entries in as soon as possible. Along with the tournament will be the opening of the Clubhouse and proshop facilities. There is a banquet room which will hold 70 people available for anyone who would like to rent it. Entries for the tournament can be called in to Ralph Cain at 629-2892, or mailed to: Lakeside Country Club, P.O. Box 268, Eastland, Texas 76448.

RANGER

The Eastland County Roping Club will sponsor a Roping on Sunday, June 9, at 1 p.m. at the Double F Arena in Ranger. This is on Commerce Street north of the Jaycee Arena. The match will consist of 3 for $30 open, and 3 for $20 mixed roping. The public is welcome, and there will be cold drinks on the grounds.

The Ranger Volunteer Firemen have begun to give the World War II Park on Highway 80 a face lift. Among other things, Fire Chief Darrell Fox and volunteer David Cross painted the entry sign. The park is going to be the site for a new Ranger Volunteer Fire Station in the future. The Department has been sponsoring programs and activities since mid-winter, with all proceeds going toward this new building.

A Wrestling Match featuring the Von Erichs vs. the One-Man-Gang and many more will be held at the Jaycee Rodeo grounds on June 13, 7:30 p.m. Tickets are available at the Fire House, from any local Fireman, or will be available at the gate. Proceeds will go to the Volunteer Fire Department Building Fund.

Splash Day at the Ranger Pool will be June 10th. Extensive work has been done on the pool, and visitors are sure to be pleased with it's condition. More details will be posted in the Ranger Times in the near future.

A new Sears store is located at 324 West Main Street, and it is now open to serve the public. Jean and Mike Ford invite all to come in and see the facility and what it has to offer.

RISING STAR

The Higginbotham store will remain open, according to A.R. Horton, general manager of the company. L.E. Allen of Rising Star will be interim manager upon the retirement of Wayne Merritt on May 31. Allen said he is in agreement with the City Council and Chamber of Commerce in their appeal to area residents to "Shop Rising Star" and keep more money in the local economy. He was a member of the group which met with Higginbotham's in an effort to retain the store in the town. He will serve as manager until company officials select a permanent replacement.

On Sunday, June 8, 2 p.m. there will be a County 4-H Horse Show at the Rising Star Rodeo Arena. This is located east of town on Highway 36. The show is open to all youths of the county, and books will open at 1 p.m. There will be 16 different classes, with awards given in each event, plus High Point awards. There will be an entry fee of $5 per horse. For more information contact Paul Brown, CEA-Ag, at 629-1093. Come out and have fun.

The Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture Committee which has secured boards for the bleachers at the Rodeo Arena wishes to thank each one who has donated a board. The bleachers are to be repaired in preparation for the Chamber sponsored Playday the third Saturday in June. D&T Building Supplies is selling the boards at a special rate of $1 per running foot, making a single board cost $16. Twenty boards are needed in all.

CISCO

Water pressure is low in Cisco, due to repairs and repainting of the water tower. The water reconditioning is expected to be completed in 10 to 15 days. While the tower is out of service it is necessary to run pumps at the College Hill pump station 24 hours per day. Citizens are reminded that the city's voluntary water conservation ordinance is still in effect. Although water is still a precious commodity in the area, Lake Cisco is in a lot better shape than last year.

Plans for a gala Fourth of July at City Park are already underway. The Lions Club will hold a carnival, and the club has invited interested groups to place booths there. A fund has been started to finance a fireworks show and other events. There will be a variety of program activities centered around the bandstand.

The Summer Dinner Theatre will present "Sherlock Holmes" in the Roof Garden on June 13-15 and 20-22. Tickets are $12 for dinner and show, with dinner beginning at 7 p.m. Reservations are required, and can be made by calling (817)442-2589. Season tickets are also available for $32. The Theatre Director is Philip Craik of Cisco Junior College.

BAIRD

Barry Morris, Minister to Youth at the First Baptist Church of Baird, stated that the church youth group will be making a trip to Eureak Spring, Ark. to see the Passion Play June 10-12. The group will leave the church parking lot at 6 a.m. Monday, June 10 and return late Wednesday afternoon. Anyone who wishes to go is welcome. The cost for the trip will be your own meals and the ticket to the play. Call the church office for more information.

Mrs. W.L. (Katy) Ivey, Clubwoman and Baird Civic leader, died May 26 in Humana Hospital in Abilene. Her husband, William Lee Ivey, rancher, died in 1983. Born in 1900 in Marlin, Mrs. Ivey was a member of the Baird Presbyterian Church, the Garden Club, Wednesday Study Club, Business and Professional Women's Association, and the Callahan County Historical Association. In 1974 she was named "Outstanding Clubwoman" of Mesquite District Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Survivors include two daughters, Janice Ferguson of Cisco and Carol Moring of Aulin, and a son, Thomas of Big Spring.

Corinth Baptist Church Holds Monthly Fellowship

The monthly fellowship meeting of the Corinth Baptist Church was held Sunday evening, May 26, 1985, at the J.B. Hagan place at Pleasant Hill. Thirty-six church members and guests enjoyed a cookout at the picnic grounds adjacent to Hagan Lake.

The fellowship included a song service led by Harold Bassham with Kenneth Payne providing guitar accompaniment. Special music included "Amazing Grace" by Claudia Waite and Teresa Winnett; "I'll Fly Away" by Kenneth Payne and Teresa Winnett; "Just a Closer Walk With Thee" and "God Walks The Dark Hills" by Teresa Winnett; and "Keys to the Kingdom" by Kenneth Payne.

Reverend Benny Hagan used the natural surroundings to illustrate his message. These included Jesus' parables of the vine and the branch and the parable of the sower and the seed.

The monthly fellowship meetings are a regular part of the Corinth Church services. The next church fellowship meeting will be on Sunday, June 30, 1985, on the grounds of the residence of Roy and Venita Smith on Yellow Mound Road, north of Eastland.

Other special activities planned for the near future include Vacation Bible School and a unique Bible Study program. The Bible study program will be a Bible survey course using "Journey Through the Bible" by Tommy C. Hingle as a text. The Bible study course will be conducted each Sunday evening and will take approximately one year to complete. The course will be taught by Rev. Benny Hagan, pastor of Corinth Baptist Church, along with selected guest speakers. The exact dates of the Vacation Bible School and the Bible Study program will be announced in the near future.

Corinth Baptist Church is located mid-way between Cisco and Eastland, and is one-fourth mile north of US 80 opposite the Kendrick Amphitheater.

Colorful Clematis Climbers

Acrobatic Clematis is the neighborhood show-off, climbing trees and fences, covering walls, entwining trellises, filling arbors, scrambling up poles and mailboxes to flash its brilliant flowers.

Clematis is a beautiful vine all season, but it saves its real show for midsummer, when the verdant foliage is pushed aside by a sheath of enormous blooms. The Clematis flower is unique in that it has no true petals, but petal-like sepals instead. Because of this trait, the blooms have an unusual velvety texture and rich color intensity.

Three luscious Clematis colors that are the bloungest, climbingest, sturdiest vines you can drape about your yard are Jackmani a violet-purple, Ernest Markham a bright red and Nelly Moser a lavender-pink.

Jackmani offers rich violet-purple blooms, a color that has been prized since the variety was first exhibited in England in 1863. It was the first of the large-flowered hybrids (4-5") ever developed, and it remains the all-time favorite of Clematis fanciers.

Ernest Markham is a bright petunia red that will set your lawn aglow with its vibrant tones and huge 5-7" bloom size.

Nelly Moser is everything you'd expect from a lady—delicate, refined, and radiant in two-toned lavender-pink.

The Clematis will thrive in ordinary garden soil but loam containing lime is perhaps the ideal. If lime is lacking and the soil is light and sandy, loam, cow manure and crushed limestone should be added, the ground being dug to a depth of two feet. An annual mulching with decayed manure or compost early in June is of great benefit as it not only supplies plant food but keeps the roots cool and moist.

Mix or match colorful Clematis for new excitement in your yard this summer. You'll find a thousand uses for this versatile plant.

Good Garden until next week from your garden editor, Ted Brice.

Using seat belts and other restraint devices practically eliminates the risk of death in auto accidents for children under 4, according to a study reported in the Journal of the American Medical Association. Millions of dollars have been saved in medical costs.

Well-chosen options make driving more pleasant and improve resale value, too. Consider interval wipers, headlamp-on warning buzzer, body side guard moldings and bumper strips.

Will your car's cooling system stand up to warm-weather driving? Pressure tester can disclose leaks—or even potential ones—in hoses, radiator core, and other parts.

Cleaning is not enough to keep leather upholstery in good condition. After cleaning with saddle soap, rub in a leather preservative.

Newest feature in car security systems is a remote-controlled transmitter so alarm can be armed or disarmed from outside the car.

Spotlights and Sidelights
by Julia Worthy

With her own doll and Marvin's T-shirt Mandi had only praise for "evac'tion" purse or totebag is likely to be permanent enough, and I really don't go for tatoos, so it's "Memorize" for Mandi.

As much as I approved of the children's fingerprinting last year, I have not provided copies for Mandi's mother and father. I will. If your child lives with you, shouldn't you provide a relative who does not list in the same locality with all the information that might be needed to find a displaced child?

Mandi is old enough, I think, to be helpful in her own case, but all children aren't. Consider the ages of your children in day care as well as in school. What will their situation be if you are removed from their orbit?

Don't shrug it off! No, it is not pleasant to think about not being there when your child needs you. It could happen.

Try not to give your youngster nightmares, but provide him with a "what-if" cushion. He may never need it, but be sure he has it. You do teach him traffic safety and not to be friendly with strangers, don't you?

Call it emergency training or whatever you want to, but do it. Pretend you have amnesia and little Johnny or Mary has to get help for you. However you wrap it up, make every effort to insure your youngster can help others help him when you can't.

Don't underestimate your child's ability. Mandi was half past four when a freak wind locked her in an upstairs bedroom. Weeping and wailing? No. Someone had taught her how to dial an extension phone, so Mandi called downstairs to her daddy to "come and get me."

We are grateful disaster came no closer than the pocketbook on the twenty-fourth. She may never need them, and I hope she doesn't, but Mandi is going to memorize several more phone numbers in case she needs someone to "come and get me" again.

What about your child?

Community Tree Care Important

Virtually everyone is involved in forestry—at least urban forestry. Eastland County towns are "tree towns."

Urban forestry is the management of trees in areas where man has significantly affected the "natural" ecosystem by his structures or manipulations, says a forestry specialist. This includes large cities, small communities and even areas outside of municipal boundaries.

Everyone should be interested in urban forestry since trees provide many benefits, points out Dr. Michael Walterscheid with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

In the summer, trees help moderate temperatures by controlling solar radiation. They also aid in moderating air temperatures through evapotranspiration (water vapor evaporating from leaves). For example, a large tree with sufficient soil moisture can give off about 88 gallons of water in one day. This is comparable to five room-size air conditioners.

In the winter, trees reduce wind velocity and create sheltered zones. Proper planting of shelter belts can reduce windspeeds by 50 percent for distances up to 20 times the height of the tallest trees, says Walterscheid.

When planted close to a house on the prevailing wind side, conifers (cone-bearing evergreen trees and shrubs) create a "dead air space" that can reduce heat loss from the house. In northern areas, this can mean a 23 percent fuel savings.

Many communities in the northeastern and midwestern United States have had active forestry programs for years, but Texas town officials are just now realizing the advantages of trees, notes the specialist. However, tree planting programs may prove to be a future burden if little consideration is given to future maintenance problems, drought resistance, size or adaptability to the planting site.

To aid in this effort, a system of tree management has been developed which can be used in any community, Walterscheid points out. The system involves consideration of these questions:

1. What kind of trees are now growing in the community?
2. How are insect, disease and man-caused problems affecting these trees identified and corrected?

3. What are trees worth?
4. Are the right trees planted in the right place?
5. What are priority tree management plans?
6. What would the community be like without good trees?

Developing an urban forestry program involves several basic steps, according to the specialist. First, leadership must be assigned for implementing and administering the program. This can be done through an existing park board or other city board or by appointment of a tree commission. An effective ordinance developed by the group should establish authority over public trees if this does not already exist.

Next, existing community tree resources should be inventoried since a necessary step in management is to know the resources. The inventory can be a simple listing of species, size and condition, or it can involve a sophisticated computerized list, including location and suggested maintenance work.

Once the inventory is complete, objectives and work plans can be developed. A goal should be established not to allow any one species to make up more than 20 percent of a community's trees, notes Walterscheid. This will help avoid future disasters should a disease or insect attack a particular tree species. An example is oak wilt on live oaks in parts of the Texas Hill Country.

Maintaining an urban forestry program must be a continuous concern. New plantings are not the only consideration—existing trees also need care, notes the specialist. Properly cared-for trees are damaged less by ice and windstorms. Trees along right-of-ways need to be pruned for clearance and safety reasons. This includes removing all dead and damaged limbs.

Walterscheid notes that the Extension Service can provide assistance in the development of community tree programs.

WORD OF GOD

HAVE YOU MADE YOUR DECISION FOR CHRIST?

If not, how about doing it right now? Just pray:

"Dear God, thank you for sending Jesus Christ to die on the cross that I might be saved. Please forgive me for all my sins, cover me with the blood of Jesus, and free me from the bondage of my old nature, that I might find life here on earth with thee and life eternal in the world to come, in Jesus name, Amen.

Thank you Jesus! Praise you Lord! Thank you for coming into my heart! I love you, Jesus!"

If you prayed that prayer, tell someone about it and attend church regularly where the Word of God is taught. God bless!

County Needs Discussed By Commissioners

Eastland County Commissioners had a number of things to discuss during their Tuesday, May 28 meeting in the Commissioners Courtroom. Present at the meeting were Richard Robinson, Pct. 1, L.T. Owen, Pct. 3, C.B. Dill, Pct. 4, and County Judge Scott Bailey. Jack Blackwell, Commissioners from Pct. 2, was absent due to illness.

One discussion concerned the May 24 explosion near North Seaman Street. The Commissioners heard how the Courthouse was jarred by the blast, and that two windows were knocked out. An inspector from an insurance company will check on the windows, and also some cracks in the basement.

In business on the agenda, Commissioners approved the relinquishment of County interest in the Right-Of-Way in an unincorporated area of Dawson Subdivision in Olden. Raymond Stark brought this before the Court.

Final approval was also given of Plats and Roads in Tree House Estates Subdivision in Pct. 2 L.H. Jones presented this.

The Commissioners authorized the use of Revenue Sharing Funds for the two used cars purchased by the Sheriff's Department from the Department of Public Safety in Austin.

There was no report on the structural and plumbing needs of the County Jail, since the architect making the survey did not appear.

The San Antonio Transit case (Wage-and-Hour-Law) was again considered. The Commissioners plan to have a member of the Wage and Hour Division, U.S. Dept. of Labor, come to Eastland this week and explain more of the far-reaching effects of this case.

Some time was spent discussing budgetary matters. There will be a considerable cost to the County for a recent trial, in which the defendant was acquitted.

The Commissioners concluded by authorizing payment of routine bills, claims and accounts.

Thursday, June 6th the Eastland County Bass Club shall be holding their monthly meeting.

This month we are fortunate to have Mr. John Blanks, who is a authorized Hummingbird and Lowrance depth sounder serviceman. We are proud to announce that for members who bring their depth finders graphs and the new micro processors, Mr. Blanks will test these units free of charge. This service is only available for present members of the Eastland County Bass Club. Also Mr. Blanks will be having a short question and answer session on operations and reading these devices. So everyone bring those units and get them checked.

Also let us not forget, this months door prize will be valued at $40.00. As you may remember our last prize of this value was a lovely casting reel.

This month's meeting needs the attention of each and every member. We shall be laying out plans for our annual Open Invitational on Lake Leon September 15, 1985. Your thoughts and opinions are greatly needed on this matter as well as many other items which shall be brought forth.

We have received a call from Jim Maddox TABC director for the Hells Gate Bass Club on Possum Kingdom, notifying us that they shall be holding an open tournament on P.K. June 9th. Headquarters will be at the Lakeview Inn. Entry fee is $15.00 with a $5.00 calculata optional. First place guaranteed $1,000, and based on entries 2nd $500.00, 3rd $300.00, 4th $200.00. This shall be a 5 fish 12 inch minimum. Regulations will begin at 5 a.m. Sunday, June 9th. Also June 9th the Eastland County Bass Club will be having their inner club tournament. Lake to be drawn at Thursday's meeting.

This weeks hot spot is a toss up with Coleman and Graham both producing some nice fish. Stringer numbers are small, but the quality is up. Remember, only you can prevent game theft.

Good Fishing.

Wedding

Miss Mary Elizabeth Pennington became the bride of Timothy Jones Saturday in a double ring ceremony at the First Baptist Church of Eastland. The ceremony was performed by Bro. William (Terry) Jones of Eastland, brother of the bridegroom. The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, Ira Pennington, and her brother, Steve Pennington. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sue Pennington of Eastland and the late Lonnie V. Pennington. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Williamson of Lake Leon and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Pennington of Ranger.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Murland H. Jones of Eastland. He is the grandson of Mrs. L.C. Jones of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Foller of Tye, and great grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Foller of Abilene.

The bride wore a formal gown of Chantilly lace. The pearlized empire lace bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline that accented the sheer Chantilly bishop sleeve and cuffs. The bouffant skirt of organza featured a triangle inset of matching lace that fell softly into a demi-cathedral train of cascading tiers of Chantilly lace accented with a satin bow and streamers. To complete her bridal ensemble, she chose a lace bandeau with pearlized flowers attached to a two tier fingertip veil edged with Chantilly lace.

The bridal bouquet was of blue carnations and roses. It was body-length and had floor-length streamers of grey accented with pearlized sequins.

The bridegroom was attired in a full dress pearl grey Bill Blass designer tuxedo, tie and vest. He wore a white collar tipped shirt trimmed in grey. His boutonniere was a single blue rose.

Mrs. Clista McNabb of Ranger served as matron of honor. Mrs. Shelia Vick of Yokum, cousin of the bride, served as bridesmaid. Both attendants wore two-piece floor length, sky blue designer gowns. They carried fan bouquets of blue roses and carnations.

Tommy Jones of Eastland, brother of the groom, served as best man. Steve Pennington of Weatherford, brother of the bride, served as groomsman. The ushers were John Pennington of Ranger, uncle of the bride, Dean Connel of Waco, cousin of the bride, Tracy Jones of Eastland, brother of the groom, and Daren Connel of Breckenridge, cousin of the bride. Mr. Jones and Mr. Connel also were candlelighters. The groom's attendants and ushers were attired in tuxedos identical to that worn by the groom.

Mother of the bride chose a two-tone blue street length gown with matching satin sash. Mother of the groom chose a blue street length gown covered in blue Chantilly lace. They wore identical corsages of blue roses and carnations.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Mary Evelyn Pennington, sister-in-law of the bride. Coordinating the wedding was Mrs. Vicki Ames, aunt of the bride.

The church was adorned with brass candleabras, ferns and floral arrangements. Floral arrangements were by Mrs. Monnyean Stacy. Corsages, boutonnières and attendant's bouquets were by Mrs. Toni Jones, sister-in-law of the groom and Mrs. Mary Williamson, grandmother of the bride.

Piano music was provided by Mrs. Flo Clark of Eastland. Solos were performed by Luce Pittman of Eastland. The songs included "Love Me Tender," "The Wedding Song (There Is Love)," and "O Perfect Love."

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at Eastland National Bank. The reception following the ceremony was hosted by the bride's mother in the fellowship hall of the church.

Members of the houseparty were Jean Underhill, Barbara Bridges, Rudy O'Neill, Loyce Jones, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Toni Jones, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Dawn Underhill, Rebecca Kessler, Kayla Odell and Eriean Shackleford.

The bride chose a pink eyelet dress for her going away outfit. The dress was designed and made for her by the mother of the bridegroom. She wore a pink corsage made by her grandmother.

After a wedding trip to Colorado, the couple will reside in Eastland.

with some of the evacuees from Eastland's recent misfortune, and he will be more comfortable and healthier through what promises to be a long, hot summer because he did.

Santa Claus brought Slim an air conditioner, not purely for comfort. Slim has respiratory problems, but he makes do on his SS check, and he did not think he could afford an air conditioner, even if he did need one to be able to breathe more easily.

When you get right down to it, Slim probably couldn't afford the hospitality he gave so generously and promptly. Certainly, he didn't think of "being decent" for any reason other than that's the way he was brought up.

Santa managed to cover up his identity with his traditional beard and red suit, complete with the "stubb of a pipe," and he even changed his voice. His visit was better-planned than that of his handit predecessor, but Slim cracked the case.

If you drop in on him for a visit in air-conditioned comfort, Slim will chuckle and tell you Santa Claus, "didn't know nobody else walks the way he does."

The Santa Claus bandit came to Cisco in December, 1927, and trailed behind him wounded and dying people as well as most of the "take" from what must be one of the worst-planned robberies ever pulled. "Doom, despair and agony on end" describes it to perfection.

Santa Claus came to Cisco again this week, but he was in his more familiar role of gift-giver this time.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS

at 1605 Hilton. There's a wedding in the family Friday night, June 8.
Meg Reynolds, daughter of the Billy Reynoldses, will become the bride of Mr. Woody Cravens in a ceremony at 7 p.m. Friday at the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Buddy Sipe will perform the ceremony, and John Picklesimer will sing, accompanied by Mrs. Sipe.

The Board of Trustees for the CISCO INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT, Cisco, Texas will accept sealed proposals for the design and construction of a 10-classroom, cafeteria building and certain remodeling of existing classroom facilities, to be performed under a PERFORMANCE CONTRACT.

Bids will be accepted at the School Tax Office, 610 Conrad Hilton Avenue, Cisco, Texas, until 5 p.m., June 13, 1985, and addressed to the above. All proposals will be publicly opened, tabulated, and taken under advisement by the Board for evaluation. The Board will have up to thirty (30) days for evaluation and will award the contract at a called meeting or as directed by the Board. Bids may not be withdrawn or modified after time set for receipts of bids.

A reception will follow at the church. And all friends of the family have been invited to attend.

The classroom buildings and remodeling program, setting forth the requirements, schematic plans, outline specifications, instructions to bidders, and contract documents, may be obtained from Mr. James Couch, Superintendent, 610 Conrad Hilton Ave., Cisco, Texas, 817-442-3056, or from Lee Stuart and Associates, Architects, P.O. Box 11580, 1150 E. Mansfield Highway, Fort Worth, Texas 76119, 817-478-1497, upon deposit of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) made payable to the architect. Deposit will be refunded in full if all documents are returned, in good condition, within ten (10) days following receipt of bids. Plans will be available May 23, 1985.

Mr. Cravens is a native of Childress where Meg is a school teacher. He is in the insurance business and has cotton farming interests.

OVER-HEARD some talk that the interior painting of the city water tower in South Cisco probably will be finished by Thursday of this week. There will be a five to ten day curing period before the tower can be put back into use. So... perhaps the water situation will be normal again by about June 12.

The city has done a good job of maintaining pressure during the month or so of line improvement and water tower cleaning and maintenance work.

THE GRAIN harvest is in full swing in this region, and the crop is pretty good. That's the report of folks in the business of raising grain crops and livestock.

Mr. Willis Parker, who gave up peanut farming to concentrate on grains and hay, tells us that they're running combines full-time these days. The price for wheat is running around $2.85 per bushel this year. It's costing $12 to $15 per acre to have your grain field combined.

Hay baling is pretty good, too.

YOU COULD VERY likely hear a good fish story if you approached Ivan Webb, Frank Spangler, Joe Besselaar or Glen Deitiker. They went over to Arkansas last week for a float down the Quachita River.

Our scouts report that they had pretty good luck and enjoyed fish fries at night. And they brought home some blisters.

HEARD THAT Glen Deitiker has gone to Austin to attend summer classes at the UoF where he is a junior studying computer science. His little brother, Dusty, who graduated from Cisco High School this year, plans to attend CJC in the fall.

Glen and Dusty are the sons of the Kenneth Deitikers. Kenneth, who works for Lone Star Gas Co., was transferred to Coleman some time ago.

GREG SWINDLE, son of the Lloyd Swindles, is attending summer school at Tarleton State University where he is completing his junior year... Carl Bray, CJC prof, is doing some hay hauling this summer, according to our scouts... A group of First Baptist Church youngsters will go to Six Flags this week for a day's outing... There's a new cabin under construction on the north shore at Lake Cisco.

THE E.L. JACKSONS took off Monday for Mena, Arkansas, where they were invited to attend a Tuesday night dinner meeting of the Lions Club. Mr. ELJ's is the Mena Lions Club's last surviving charter member. They planned to be gone a week or so... Sorry to hear that Mr. C.H. (Cats) Ingram, the Lake Cisco patrolman, was hospitalized here early Monday after becoming ill at his home... Miss Cindee Rince of the Olney Savings staff is back on the job after a week's vacation. She has a peeling nose from too much sunshine.

VISITED OUT at Lake Cisco the other night and it was a very pleasant outing indeed. There was a nice south breeze coming in over the water in the north shore country. And the moon was full. All of which made fish from the frying grill taste especially good.

A goodly number of boats were out with water skiers. A few fishermen were plugging along the banks from boats. The lake looks pretty good after the low water situation last year.

THE SPRING 1985 issue of Cross Timbers Review, the nice magazine type bi-yearly publication, published by Cisco Junior College, came to our desk this week. Dr. Monte Lewis of CJC is the editor, and the staff includes Dr. Ken Hammes and Cleatus Rattan of CJC, Lawrence Clayton of H-SU and Kenneth Neighbors of Midwestern.

We liked best the piece entitled "Come Home Larry, All Is Forgiving: A Native Son's Search for Identity." It was written by R.C. Reynolds, English professor at Lamar College, Beaumont. The article tells the story of Novelist Larry McCurry and deals primarily with his newest book, Cadillac Jack, and of Larry's wanderings to the west coast and to Washington, D.C. The book Cadillac Jack has between the lines indications that Larry wonders whether he would be happier back home in his native Texas.

There are other good pieces by quality writers. A subscription is $6 per year.

THEY'VE GOT to finish work this week on the big remodeling job at the home of the Billy Reynolds family under a single prime contract, and including general construction, HVAC, plumbing, and electrical work. Attention is called to the fact that not less than the prevailing wage rates for the neighboring area to be paid on this project.

The Board of Trustees reserves the right to reject any and/or all bids, and to waive any formalities or irregularities in bids or in bidding and to award the Contract deemed to be in the best interest of the Cisco Independent School District. (5-26, 5-30, 6-2, 6-6)

A cashier's check or certified check on a state or national bank in the State of Texas, payable without recourse to the CISCO I.S.D., or an acceptable Surety Proposal Bond, in an amount not less than five percent (5%) of the largest possible bid, including consideration of alternates, must accompany each bid as a guarantee that, if awarded the contract, the bidder will promptly enter into a contract and execute bonds on forms provided as outlines in the Specifications and Instructions to Bidders. A Performance Bond and Payment Bond in the amount of one-hundred percent (100%) of the contract price will be required.

The work will be awarded
