

Local Firms Burglarized

Burglars broke into four Cisco business firms Tuesday and Wednesday nights, according to a report by Police Chief Billy Rains. Police were investigating the incidents. A stereo system, two radios, and cash between $400 and $450 were taken in the Tuesday night robbery of the Traditions Restaurant, Owner Bobby Fink reported. The total loss was estimated at more than $1,000. The building was entered by knocking a hole in the rear of the dining room.

Burglarized Wednesday night were Taylor Center, Philpott Florist and B-D Used Cars.

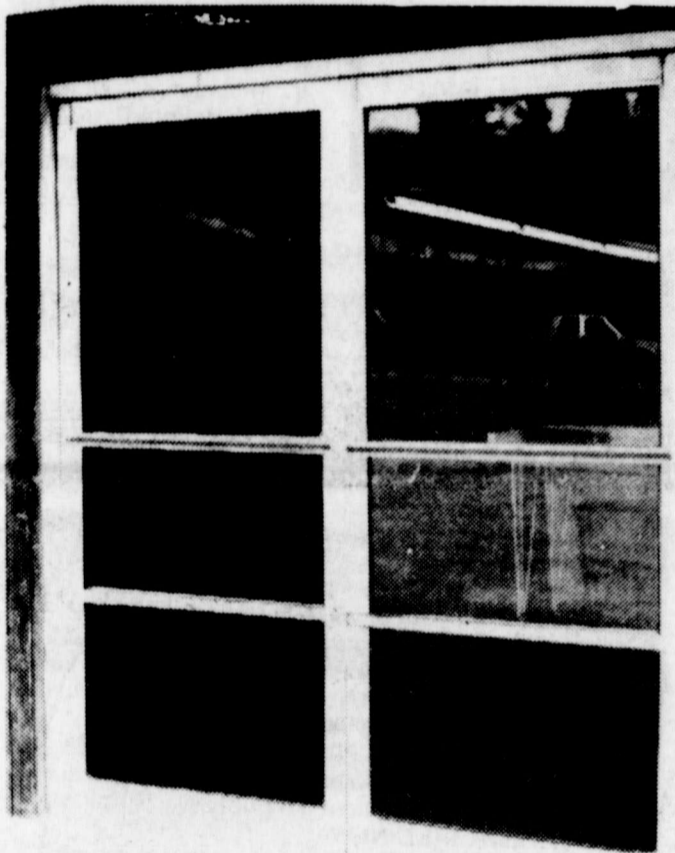

Taylor Center was entered by breaking a glass door in the laundry. There was no money missing and nothing else was believed missing, Mr. Rains reported.

At the Philpott business, the back door was forced open. Nothing was missing, the report said. The B-D Used Car business was entered by breaking the front door glass. Missing were two sets of car keys, Mr. Rains said.

City police arrested an Eastland woman here Tuesday night on a DPS warrant. She was turned over to authorities at the county jail, Chief Rains said.

BURGLARIZED— Burglars entered Philpott Florist by forcing open the back door there on Wednesday night. Nothing was missing, according to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wheeler, owners of the business. (staff photo)

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERREL HALLMARK

A GOOD rain was received in the Cisco area Wednesday and the front which brought the rains also brought cooler temperatures. Wednesday afternoon the temperatures dropped down in the 60s.

Wednesday night Cisco got a good rain but the predicted rains on Thursday did not happen. The skies were cloudy most of the day, but they cleared off later in the day.

On Friday, the skies were clear again and the temperatures were beginning to rise again into the 90s.

IF YOU have not already made reservations for the opening show of this summer's Roof Garden Dinner Theatre, be sure to call and make your reservations today.

I am sure this year's productions will be as good as those in the past and they were terrific. It is a great opportunity to be able to attend such a performance in Cisco.

The performances are usually sold out with a good number of persons from out-of-town. Usually, persons who attend once, return again and again.

A HUMOROUS article was printed in Friday's edition of the Fort Worth Star Telegram in George Dolan's column on the front page. I am reprinting a portion of the column in this space as follows:

TWO FELLOWS attending a seminar turned a rented canoe over in the middle of the lake at the Inn of the Mountain Gods on the Indian Reservation near Ruidoso, N.M.

Doc Blakely of Wharton, a seminar speaker, said one of the two tried to blame it on a monster in the lake.

"We got out on the lake and did well except for zigg-zagging and going in circles," that guy said.

"Then we had to turn back and go against the wind. We had a terrible time, going in circles again, but then we seemed to get it together and I said to my partner, 'I think we've got this thing licked.'

"At that very moment, something came up under that canoe and turned us over."

But a member of the lake patrol who helped rescue them said it was going in circles that did them in.

"It would be better," he told the two, "if you didn't face each other in the canoe."

Chamber Board Hears Reports

The Cisco Chamber of Commerce board of directors heard a number of committee reports in a recent regular meeting. Bill Austin, Jr., president of the Chamber presided at the meeting.

The Fourth of July committee is finalizing plans for the annual event according to Ivan Webb, chairman. The joint Lions Club-Chamber sponsored celebration has a full day of activities beginning at 10 in the morning and concluding with the fireworks display. The fireworks are funded by donations from the business community as well as individuals. Anyone wishing to donate money can call the Chamber office. Complete details of the 4th celebration will be announced in the near future.

Patsy Hogan, who chairs the membership committee, reported that a membership drive will be conducted the week of June 10th. Letters are being mailed to a number of businesses explaining part of the drive. The mailing will be followed with a visit from one of the members of the committee. All new members will be formally recognized and invited to the quarterly breakfast.

Jerry Morgan told the board that the business and industrial committee has been working and in contact with both industrial and retail prospects. It is hoped that much of the contact work being done will result in new business for the city.

The board of directors also established a budget committee to begin work now on the 1986 budget. Insurance coverage was also discussed. The manager was to prepare a report for the directors for the next regular meeting which will be held on July 2.

Board members attending the recent meeting were: Bill Austin, Jr., Shirley Hargrave, Joe Cooper, Ivan Webb, Linda Cozart, Patsy Hogan, Jerry Morgan, Bobby Smith, Gerald Winnett and Billy Wright Jr.

Good Times Meet Cancelled

The Good Times Gang 4-H Club meeting which was scheduled for Monday night, June 10, has been cancelled.

Rev. Buddy Sipe Resigns From First Baptist

The Rev. Buddy Sipe, pastor of First Baptist Church for some 10 years, submitted his resignation as pastor at a business meeting of the church last Wednesday night. The text of the action follows:

"To the Congregation of First Baptist Church, Cisco, Texas,

"Dear People: It is with fear and trembling that I offer to you my resignation as your pastor. This resignation is to become effective on or before Nov. 15, 1985. It is understood that until the resignation has become effective, I will assume and discharge the full responsibilities and benefits as pastor.

"In the service of Jesus Christ,

"Buddy Sipe."

The congregation voted to accept the resignation as presented.

Dinner Theatre To Begin Summer Run

SHERLOCK HOLMES by Arthur Conan Doyle and William Gillette is the opening play of the 1985 professional Summer Season at the Roof Garden Dinner Theatre in Cisco. The play will run June 13-15 and 20-22.

SHERLOCK HOLMES is a play in the tradition of the great detective stories. That most famous detective, Sherlock Holmes is pitted against his arch-rival, Professor Moriarty. It is a plot of blackmail, revenge and murder with plenty of intrigue, mystery, disguises and surprises. Holmes and Moriarty play cat and mouse games to the inevitable end. Or it? And, if that is not enough, it is a love story to boot.

Tickets are $12 for dinner and show. Dinner time is set at 7:00 p.m. Call (817)442-2589 for reservations.

CofC Membership Drive Set June 10

The annual membership drive for the Cisco Chamber of Commerce has been set for the week of June 10th, according to Patsy Hogan who is in charge of the Membership Committee.

A letter was recently mailed to a number of business prospects in the Cisco area explaining the need for the drive. The Chamber receives both financial and manpower support from interested businesses and individuals. The Chamber is a collective effort of civic minded citizens to promote the welfare of the city.

Most of the work done by the Chamber is not in the attention grabbing area but in the day to day service the organization provides. The Chamber is constantly at work making contacts to business and industrial prospects, answering inquiries about the area, promoting tourism, and providing numerous other services to the area's citizens.

The membership drive will involve a number of active members who will visit business people during the entire week. Specific information on the Chambers goals and programs will be presented. All new members will be introduced at the quarterly breakfast later in the month.

Although the drive is targeted at the business community, the Chamber of Commerce is fortunate to have a great many individual members. The com-

County Red Cross Chapter Needs Help

When a small Red Cross Chapter, such as the Eastland County Chapter, has been called upon to serve the community due to a disaster it is a financial drain.

The Eastland County Red Cross Chapter operates, as a rule, on a minimum budget, taking care of the emergencies that arise due to service men being called home, or for other emergencies that fall under the charter to assist the victims.

But when the chapter is called upon to assist large numbers of families that have been displaced due to a disaster, the funds are quickly depleted and an appeal must be made to the citizens of the county.

Every person is subject to some form of disaster, certainly every city, so no one is immuned.

The Eastland County Red Cross is asking the people of the Eastland County to help by sending a check to assist in recovering the funds spent at the Eastland disaster to Grover Hallmark, Eastland National Bank, Eastland, Texas 76448, or Roy Cartee, Eastland County Red Cross Chairman, 900 Avenue H, Cisco, Texas 76437.

Softball All-Stars

mittee will continue to contact many citizens to join in the effort and become part of the organization.

The membership committee includes Fred Wheeler, Sharene Richardson, Lynn Wages, Dan Dixon, A.C. Holdridge, Patsy Hogan and Ron Scheuren.

Reading Program On Schedule

Boys and girls through grade eight are invited to continue signing for the Hang-A-Book Reading Program any Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. at the Cisco Public Library.

The program will continue through August 9 with achievement certificates being awarded August 13.

Rain Measures 2.5

Rainfall measuring up to 2.5 inches fell in the Cisco area as a cool front thunderstorm moved through the region last Wednesday afternoon and night. The city hall gauge showed 1.8 inches, and Lake Cisco reported 1.2 inches.

Gauges south and southwest of town measured up to 2.5 inches.

Southern T.V. Equipment Is Arriving

GETTING READY— Roy Thackerson, manager of Southern Television Systems in Eastland County, stated that the company is getting ready to begin its extensive re-build of the cable system in the Cisco area. Equipment, such as the rolls of cable seen above in the company yard in Eastland, is arriving and they are preparing for phase one of the project. He said the work will take at least 60 days or longer for completion, but when it is completed Cisco cable subscribers will receive a number of additional channels on their televisions. (staff photo)

Van Cleave Reunion Is Held At Kendrick's

On May 25th and 26th, the Van Cleave reunion was held at Kendrick Amphitheater. Fifty-one people attended the gala affair. Every one enjoyed fellowship, games and nice meals. Family pictures were shared, and special entertainment was enjoyed by the "Fingerless Fiddler", Roy Thackerson and Al Anderson provided the "toe tapping" music.

Five generations of Van Cleave have lived in Cisco, starting with Grey Van Cleave, who was a Captain in the Confederate Army. He settled in the Cisco area with his wife, the late Matilda Derosett Van Cleave. With them came a daughter, the late Edna Van Cleave Foy, and a son, the late Charlie Van Cleave. A son Cobb Slaton Van Cleave, was born after the family settled in Cisco, which was then called "Red Gap". They moved to the area in 1880, soon after the Civil War.

The group who met at this reunion are descendants of the late Cobb Van Cleave, who spent most of his eighty-nine years in Cisco. His children are: Melton, Hester Van Cleave McCoy, Elmer, Lester, and Joyce Van Cleave Estep. Two daughters Violet Van Cleave Furr, and Ruth Van Cleave are deceased. The only member of the family still residing in Cisco is, Hester, who is now Mrs. Henry McCoy. Two of her great-grand children, Billy and Becky Thackerson, often spend weeks visiting in Cisco. They represent the sixth generation of the Van Cleave family who have resided in this area. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. B.T. Thackerson of Monahans, Texas. Their Dad grew up in Cisco, as did his Mother, Anita Blount Thackerson, (daughter of Hester).

Other descendants, besides Cobb's children, who have resided in the area are;

Larry, Jad and Barry Van Cleave, sons of Lester and Flo.L.D. Blount; Hazel Saub and Anita Blount Thackerson, children of Heste. And Bob Laird, Betty Laird McClellan, Mary Laird Anderson; and Alton Laird, also children of Hester.

Cobb was married to the late Dora Ann Hoover Van Cleave. Her parents also pioneered the Cisco area. Dora was the daughter of the late Peter Culver Hoover and Mary Lucinda Duncan Hoover. They moved to Cisco from Marble Falls, Texas in 1890.

Since the reunion was held on Memorial Day week-end, all of us could recall that a monument was placed in Oakwood Cemetery in honor of Grey Van Cleave by the Daughters of The Confederacy. We could also recall that his descendants have served in the Armed forces. They are; Elmer and Lester Van Cleave (World War II). L.D.L. Blount, Billy Furr and Richard Van Cleave (Korean War), and the late Elon Estep Jr., Laura Blount Russel (Viet Nam Era). Only one lost his life at war, he was Richard, son of Melton Van Cleave. Richard died in Korea and was declared a hero. His Father was presented the Distinguished Service Cross posthumously.

Since the family has "deep roots" in Cisco, they have decided to make Memorial Day week-end an annual date for their reunion and they plan to meet in Cisco.

Those who attended the reunion including friends, are as follows; From Houston, Betty, Al, Marilyn and Mark McClellan, Hazel and Victor Saub. From San Antonio, Roy, Janice, David, Mark and Daniel Van Cleave, Ray, Jason and Brian Van Cleave, and Helen Wildman. Elmer and Faye Van Cleave. From Cisco, Hester and Henry McCoy, and Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Cook. From Abilene, Bob, LaVern and Bryan Laird, Bobby and Beth Laird, and Mary and Randall Anderson. From Lubbock, Lester, Flo, Larry, Tad, and Barry Van Cleave. From Monahans, Anita and Troy Thackerson, Billy Troy, Janet, Billy and Becky Thackerson, From Colorado City, Patsy and Gaylord Price, From Big Spring, Al and Barbara Laird. From Ft. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Tate. From Ranger, Roy Thackerson. From Cisco, Lela Latch Lloyd, Al and LaNell Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Simmons.

Employees Of Hospital Win Local Contests

Margaret Jarvis won the bread/dessert division and received a Northern portable lighted mirror donated by City Drug during the cooking contest held May 16, at the E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital in Cisco. Margaret is an employee in the dietary department.

The employee winning the salad/vegetable division was Nora Kennedy, admissions and insurance officer. She was given a gift certificate for KC for two at the Colony Restaurant donated by Helen Orr, Administrator.

Becky Biggs, an employee of the Medical Record Department won the main dish division of the cooking contest. She received a $25.00 gift certificate to The Man's Store donated by First National Bank.

Judges for the cooking contest were: Henry McCullough, president of Cisco Junior College; Ron Scheuren, manager of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce; and Billy Rains, Chief of Police for the City of Cisco.

Door prizes given during the luncheon included: Tricia Hardin received a set of wooden beads donated by Quettas; Patsy Hawkins received a tote bag donated by Eastland Manor Home Health Service; Lois Stephens received a cubic zirconia jewelry set; Harriett Collins received a $5 gift certificate from Traditions; and Debbie Norman received a pot of fresh pinwheel mums from The Potting Shed.

Local Hospital Observes Week

National Hospital Week (May 12-18) was observed recently at E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital. All hospital employees were honored at a luncheon during the week. Contest were held with prizes being donated by businesses and individuals.

The theme of National Hospital Week was LIFEWORK. Appreciation was expressed to hospital personnel for dedication to quality patient care. Prizes were awarded at the luncheon which included prizes for a cooking contest.

Phillip Schaefer received a Panasonic wet/dry shaver donated by Dean Drug in a contest sponsored by the accounting department. The housekeeping department sponsored a contest which was won by Jean Stroebel. She won a stethoscope donated by Eastland Manor Home Health Service. The pharmacy sponsored contest was won by Ursula Guthrie. Mr. and Mrs. Jibby Donovan donated a gift certificate for a Sunday buffet for two at the Colony Restaurant. A contest sponsored by the maintenance engineer was won by Robert Conner. He received a chicken fried steak dinner donated by the Colony Restaurant. A medical record sponsored contest was won by Devonna Wheeler. Her gift was a fajita dinner for two at Traditions Restaurant donated by Helen Orr.

Public Utility Commission of Texas

Consumer Update

Does it really do any good to complain about incorrect utility bills?

Does it really have any impact if you call the utility or the PUC and complain about poor service?

Does anyone at the PUC really read letters from consumers about high rates or sloppy service?

The answer to all three questions is "yes," but the real question that should be asked here is how can a consumer complain effectively. The following is a short course on how you can complain in a way that will achieve positive results:

(1) Decide what you want to accomplish in complaining. Do you want to vent your frustration about high rates? Do you want your telephone line fixed? Do you want to make sure you're being charged the proper rate? Be specific in stating your complaint.

(2) Decide to whom you want to complain. We have found that the majority of successful complainers try the utility first and obtain satisfaction. Perhaps the utility's computer messed up and charged the wrong rate or a service representative miscalculated a deposit. Any number of things could be the answer to your problem, and most utilities will try to satisfy your complaint as soon as you contact them.

(3) If you cannot obtain satisfaction from the utility, ask the utility to whom you should address your complaint (under PUC rules the utility is required to give you our address).

What do we do with the complaints and inquiries we receive? Much of what we do depends on the type of complaint. But we will acknowledge your complaint and we will try to get you some help if you are having a specific problem such as disconnected service or an inaccurate bill.

In most cases, we contact the utility and ask for a written report on its investigation of your complaint. We want utilities to respond effectively to complaints, and the reports help us determine how well the utility has responded to your complaint.

Last year the Consumer Affairs Office received and acted on more than 21,000 complaints and inquiries. As a result of our actions, more than $275,000 was returned to utility customers in credits or refunds. Hundreds of Texans obtained essential utility services that they had not been receiving. Many who had given up on having a service problem resolved finally got the repairs they were entitled to. We can't always resolve a complaint to your full satisfaction, but we do listen, and we will do our best to help make your complaint count.

So, increase your chances of making your complaint effective. Be specific, contact the utility, and then contact the PUC. Our mailing address for complaints or inquiries is:

There are some natives in the South Pacific who spend much of their time fighting and feasting. It is customary for each man to keep a reminder of his hatred before his eyes day and night. Trinkets are hung in their huts to keep alive their memory of wrongs. We are somewhat like them. But instead of hanging them in our huts, we hang them in our hearts. But 1 Corinthians 13:5 says love "thinketh no evil." The word "thinketh" comes from the accounting

Farm Communication Could Be Lifesaver

COLLEGE STATION—An emergency communication system on a farm or ranch could reduce the seriousness of an injury and even save a life.

Farming and ranching is one of the nation's most hazardous occupations, says a safety engineer, and accidents often occur in remote locations.

—Install two-way radios on tractors, trucks and self-propelled equipment.

—Establish a means of field SOS communication, using hand-signals, flashing lights, flag, boat horn—anything to get attention and convey to others help is needed fast.

—Before going out to work, tell someone and approximate your time of return.

—Give special attention to monitoring the young, the elderly and those with special health problems. —Teach all family members, even young children, how to get help. Keep emergency numbers handy at every phone. Be prepared to give directions to emergency medical personnel if the location is hard to find. Write out directions and place near the phone for use by employees. Practice giving directions with children.

—At least one person on every farm or ranch should be well-versed in first-aid, including cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR). Local Red Cross or health agencies can supply information or training.

—If living alone, keep in phone contact with a relative, friend or neighbor. "Calling in" every day after work is a good practice.

Food Preparation Aids

Retaining Nutrients In Your Food

COLLEGE STATION—There's more to nutritious eating than just selecting wholesome foods, says a Texas University A&M Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist.

"With only a few exceptions, nutrients begin to be lost from the moment a food is picked or processed," says Dr. Dymple Cooksey. "But you can hold these losses to a minimum with proper food storage, preparation and cooking."

The nutritionist advises the following steps to retain food nutrients:

- Keep milk cold, covered and away from strong light. The riboflavin in milk may be destroyed by sunlight or artificial light.

- Sun-ripen fresh fruit and vegetables and then chill them to preserve the content of Vitamin A, Vitamin C, folate and other nutrients.

- Avoid storing cut vegetables, since nutrients can be destroyed with the food is exposed to air. If necessary, wrap them tightly.

- Place a freezer thermometer in your freezer to make sure it's set at 0 degrees F or below. Nutrient losses occur when food is stored at temperatures above that level.

- Wash produce without soaking it to avoid leaching out nutrients. Then trim the produce only as necessary to remove the damaged parts. Also prepare vegetables close to serving time to minimize the exposure of cut surfaces to oxygen and light.
- Steam produce or cook it in as small an amount of water, for as short a time as possible to minimize nutrient losses from water leaching and heat.

- Cook only the vegetables you'll use at one time, since reheating causes loss of vitamins.

After you have bought nutritious food, don't let its nutrient value go down the drain by poor storage or preparation, cautions the nutritionist.

July Fourth Celebration To Be In Rising Star

The Rising Star P.T.O. is sponsoring a large Fourth of July celebration this year at Williams Memorial Park, known as City Park. Area citizens and businesses are invited to participate in the Parade and other events, and the public urged to attend.

Festivities will begin with a Parade at 10 a.m., followed by a noon meal. The afternoon entertainment will include a fiddler playoff, summer carnival, senior citizens hobby and craft fair, and ice cream judging.

There will also be baseball for the oldsters, pig chasing for children 5-10, sack races for kids 10-18, three legged race for 18 and over, and a demonstration of the Rising Star Ambulance.

Half of the proceeds from the celebration will go to the local P.T.O., and the other half will be banked to fund annual Fourth of July celebrations.

So come out to Rising Star and enjoy the day - there will be fun for people of all ages.

U.S. Dep. of Labor Official Speaks To County Commissioners

Curtis L. Poer, Area Director for the U.S. Department of Labor Wage-Hour Division, spoke to a called meeting of the Eastland County Commissioners at the Courthouse on Tuesday, June 4.

Commissioners in attendance were Richard Robinson, Pct. 1, and L.T. Owen, Pct. 3. County Judge Scott Bailey presided and introduced the speaker.

A number of officials and other interested citizens from Eastland and area towns were present. They included M.D. Moore, Cisco City Manager, Mayor Charles Garrett of Gorman, Mayor Henry Burk of Rising Star, City Manager Roy Underwood of Eastland, City Commissioner W.Q. Verner of Eastland, County Sheriff Don Underwood, Eastland Chief of Police Lyndall Underwood, District Attorney Emory Walton, County Auditor Emma Morris and County Clerk Jo Ann Johnson.

Director Poer attempted to clarify the latest Federal ruling concerning the Fair Labor Standards Act - namely the Garcia vs. San Antonio Transit Authority case (Wages and Hours). The final ruling on this was Feb. 19, 1985, and it will undoubtedly affect the wages paid to employees by cities and counties.

Poer, who is stationed in Dallas, mentioned that this District covers the area across north Texas from Louisiana to New Mexico.

He went into the background of the Fair Labor Standards Act, and the various Supreme Court ruling which have interpreted it. These rulings have generally expanded coverage of the law across all sectors of political subdivisions.

One decision, in 1968, seemed to exempt all Policemen and Firemen, but the San Antonio Transit case brought a reversal to that. Poer defined the criteria of a law enforcement officer, gave the definition of employees, and listed exemptions to the ruling allowed by law.

All elected officials are exempt from the 40 hr. week Wage-Hour law, and of course all volunteers. There are executive exemptions and some other special ones. But generally anyone who performs a duty for pay must be compensated time-and-a-half for work above 40 hrs. per week.

When asked about the enforcement of this latest ruling, Poer stated that his Division was "Not yet scheduling investigations, but trying to get information to the public."

He said that he would be glad to answer questions here or from his office concerning the coverage of various jobs. "We have a legal department equipped to advise on various matters," he added. He indicated that he would be glad to work with all the towns and counties under his jurisdiction in an attempt to effect compliance.

He concluded by saying that litigation was a time-consuming process, and that he preferred not to go into that if it was possible to settle outside of the Courts. He passed out packets of information to anyone who wished to study them.

After the talk district attorney Walton indicated that about 25 to 30 municipal and Eastland County employees will probably be affected by the San Antonio Transit Case ruling. This will include the whole Sheriff's Department, with the exception of elected Sheriff Underwood. It will also include a number of Road and Bridge men, and clerical workers.

"I wish to express appreciation to Director Poer for taking time to come here, make this presentation and meet with the local people."

NOTICE: See us first for office furniture, fixtures, supplies. All kinds. Fast service, reasonably priced. Check your local newspaper in Eastland, Cisco, Ranger, Rising Star, or Baird.

TF

County Judge Scott Bailey said, "I think we know more about what we are faced with."

"The County Commissioners are confronted with a management problem, for they have the ultimate responsibility to pay all the bills.

"Work will have to begin on this very soon."

CISCO

Richard Connell, owner of Woodmill, Inc., took over duties as Chief of the Cisco Volunteer Fire Department June 1. He succeeds C.W. Guthrie, who has held the Chiefs position for the past 10 years. Connell has been a member of the Fire Department for 13 years and has served as Assistant Chief for the past year. The new Chief grew up at Morton Valley and graduated from Eastland High School. He attended Cisco Junior College and Tarleton State University, and has lived in Cisco for 14 years.

Jim Hatcher, minister of the Church of Christ for the past two and a half years, will give his final sermon next Sunday. Mr. Hatcher, who has been in the ministry some 13 years, has resigned at the 1-20 church to become minister of the Church of Christ in the Flatwood community. He will also work as a sales representative for the James River Corporation, beginning this work June 10.

The Country Western Musical will be at the Cisco Corral Room Saturday, June 8, at 7 p.m. Everyone is invited, especially area musicians. There will be a concession stand.

The interior painting of the city water tower in South Cisco is expected to be finished by the weekend, and will need a five to ten day curing period before the tower can be put back into use. So the water situation should be normal before long. Pressure has been maintained with Lake Cisco pumps during the time of the line improvement and water tower cleaning and maintenance work.

RANGER

James M. Smith, administrative assistant to Texas Electric Service Company's Eastland Division Engineering manager, has been named Manager of the company's Ranger office, effective immediately. He is filling the post of Ben Lancaster, who will be assuming the duties of TESCO Manager at Colorado City. Smith, a 36 year veteran of TESCO, has held various assignments in the Eastland County area.

Mrs. Kim Watson has been named as the Manager of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, according to Ron Butler II, Chamber President. Mrs. Watson, a recent graduate of Tarleton State University, is married to Ed Watson, plant engineer for the Featherlite Corp. in Ranger. Mrs. Watson will open the office and Roaring Ranger Museum at 9 a.m. and close at 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, with an hour off for lunch. Kim will also assist the Chamber members in carrying out various activities.

The Chamber of Commerce has set up a planning Committee for the Roaring Ranger Days. Anyone interested in helping with this celebration is welcome to attend meetings of this committee. The date of the first meeting will be announced soon.

RISEING STAR

A new motel has been built just east of Star Plaza Truck Stop on Highway 36 West, and it is scheduled to open Monday, June 10. The ten-unit building, called Western Motel, has eight double rooms and two single rooms, manager Jay Edwards said. Each unit has queen sized beds, is air conditioned, and has a telephone and cable television. The addition of the Motel is seen as a positive sign for Rising Star, and if it does well ten more units will be added.

The Rising Star Nursing Center, located at 411 South Miller Street, is holding its third annual Barbeque on Saturday, June 15. Serving time will start at 6 p.m. Tickets are on sale now at the Nursing Center or from any employee of the Center. The price for adults is $5, and children under 12, $2.50. The fund-raising event is held to raise money for the Volunteer Ambulance Service, which operates from donations and voluntary help.

Formal approval for the Rising Star 4-H'ers to use the Scout House at City Park is expected at the next City Council meeting June 11. The Scout House has been repaired through the Park Improvement Committee, and can now be of use to the community. The 4-H Club will have the responsibility of keeping up the building.

EASTLAND

Eastland National Bank President Grover Hallmark has presented a check for $750 to the Eastland Fire Department for the "Jaws of Life" fund. Mr. Hallmark stated that the Eastland National Bank would like to congratulate the Fire Department for all they have contributed to the community in the past and during the recent train derailment. The Fire Department will continue with their Fund Drive with proceeds from the Chamber of Commerce barbeque to be held Saturday, June 8, and from ticket sales from the Fire Department Fish Fry on June 22. The Jaws will arrive at the Fire Department June 15.

The congregation of First Baptist Church has extended an invitation to Dr. Robert Jeffress to assume the pastorate of the church. He is presently Assistant Pastor of First Baptist Church, Dallas, in charge of the program for youth. Dr. Jeffress indicated that he and his wife Amy will be in Eastland and ready to assume leadership of the church by August 1.

The first session of Summer Reading Program at Centennial Memorial Library will be held June 10 from 10 to 11 a.m. This is a very interesting program for children, and all are welcome. Contact the librarian for more details.

BAIRD

A program at the Old Depot last week raised more funds on the "Save the Depot" project. Mrs. Archie Nichols, Chairman of the drive, has been informed that a new roof for the structure will cost approx. $5,000. The total in the fund is now $3,004.26, and plans are to have more benefits for the historic building. Thanks are due to the Thurman family, which played at the musical program at the Depot.

An antique shop called "Country Classics" has opened on Market Street next to the old movie theatre. Monica Hickerson, the owner of the store, will sell strictly primitives, antiques and collectables. If you have good, reasonably priced merchandise which fits that description she will be happy to buy, sell or trade. The store will be open Monday through Friday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The public is encouraged to stop by and look over the things on hand.

Camp Inspiration Adds Two Associates

Camp Inspiration announced the addition of two associates for the summer programs. They are Calvin Pleninger and Tony Casey. They are both May graduates of Gulf Coast Bible College at Houston.

Their duties this summer will be to assist with the summer camps, help maintain the grounds, and life guard at the swimming pool. In addition they are on staff for the local church in charge of the youth ministry.

Calvin Pleninger is 27 years old and comes from Big Sandy, Montana. He graduated from high school there, worked for a while on the family farm and also attended Montana State University, before deciding on entering the ministry. He enrolled at Gulf Coast Bible College to pursue his field of study, and graduated this past May.

Tony Casey is 22 years old and graduated from high school in Indiana, but is now calling Memphis, Tenn., his home. He entered Gulf Coast Bible College as a Forest Service career. He changed his mind and entered the ministry. Tony intends to continue his education this coming fall by attending Warner Southern College in Lake Wells, secondary education with a major in Biology.

Brother Larry Smith extends an invitation to all to come out and meet the two new associates.

ENTHUSIASM IS one thing your local newspaper would like to be known for.

It's easy to be "high" when things are rolling and prospects are bright, but quite another when there are leveling off periods which are bound to come, if not in cycles, at least in almost predictable times.

That's when we all have to work extra hard to keep each other encouraged and to look for new ways to be innovative and to get the "roll going again." During such "softening" and "cooling off" times, we all have a little more time to take stock and to band together a little tighter to utilize the resources we have, and work to make things happen.

A salesman says "Nothing happens until somebody sells something."

Your local newspaper want to be a part of helping make things happen good for our town. One of our publisher friends devises a questionnaire and asked for public input. With some modifications, we're going to ask some questions, and we hope that readers will respond to the local editors, remembering that community journalism is a two-way street. The small staffs can't be and do all things; they must depend on reader input to advise of story ideas and tips which can be developed into local news stories.

A local newspaper should reflect its community's pulse, and it does this through close cooperation between the citizens and staff members. They need you and we hope you need them.

Some of the questions are touchy, but deserve to be considered.

1. Should the newspaper use the word suicide in its stories? (We don't).
2. Should drunk driving citations be listed? (We don't).
3. Should court cases be printed?
4. Should the newspaper cover shoplifting?

5. Should the newspaper run more photos than copy?
6. Should the newspaper place less emphasis on sports?
7. Should the newspaper endorse national political candidates even though it concentrates on local news?
8. Should the newspaper endorse candidates on the local level such as mayor, alderman, school board?
9. What should this newspaper's unsigned letters policy be?
10. Should editorials carry the name of the writer?
11. What topics are not currently being well covered?
12. Should the newspaper cover more school news?
13. Do you believe the newspaper covers both sides of most controversial issues?
14. Do you feel the newspaper personnel are approachable, whether it be for a compliment, complaint or possible news item?

NOTICE

The Eastland County Retired Teachers Association will have their final meeting of the year Monday, June 10, at 2:30 p.m. in the school lunchroom at Carbon. Officers for the new year will be installed at this meeting. Charlie Garrett, Chairman of the Legislative Committee, will bring us up to date on recent legislation of interest to all retired teachers.

All members and prospective members are urged to attend this meeting.

Please announce that everyone is invited to attend a wonderful time of fellowship during the revival services at the First Baptist Putnam, June 23, until the 28 at 7 p.m. each evening. The Evangelist, Mike Eckland, will be bearing God's messages while Carlton and Sharon lead in inspirational music. Please support us with your prayers and fellowship.

In Christ,

Direct Deposit of Checks Saves

People receiving Social Security checks in the Big Country area can have them deposited directly into a checking or savings account at a financial institution of their choice, Glyn Hammons Social Security district manager in Abilene said recently.

Direct deposit has several advantages, Hammons said, including:

- No worry about a check being lost.
- No worry about a check lying in the mailbox when away from home.
- Savings in time and transportation and no standing in line to cash or deposit check.

Spotlights and Sidelights

by Julia Worthy

By Julia Worthy
Ding-dong-dell!
Does school
ring your bell?

One of my favorite proposals, which may be too spaced-out to judge from the reception it gets, is for an all-year school.

Hold up the hisses until I make my pitch, please!

The majority of public school facilities are used about three-fourths of the time. Is any other business content to make do with that percentage of use? School is business—big business. Make no mistake about that.

Aside from the physical plant, it takes increasingly greater gray matter to operate high tech equipment. Teachers' salaries will be higher. They do more and more to earn what they get, anyway, and further demands on mind and matter are predicted.

To use school facilities efficiently, schedules should develop in keeping with upgraded levels in open-ended systems geared to individual progress.

If a student completed an X-level packet in math by Christmas, s/he would come back after a three-week holiday (from 12/20 through 1/10, let us say) to pick up the next level.

Some older students, whose need is mostly guidance, might be involved in a literature program. A holiday break would not have to interrupt their progress unless they chose to let it.

The six-year-old, who is having trouble coordinating his sounds and words, could stay with his reading problem until s/he's competent to move on. But if s/he is a whiz-kid on math, it would be possible to work through two or three levels of math while struggling through one level of reading. (Or vice versa. I read before I started to school, but numbers? Well, the truce between my checkbook and me is best described as "uneasy.")

As a nation we would have to modify our concept of "grades." Possibly an about-face modification is in order. When we laud independence as the backbone of our country, why do we lump our budding individualists into classrooms and give a teacher the well-nigh hopeless task of moving all those minds in the same direction at the same time?

Bodies can come closer to regimentation than minds. But here is trouble, too, and it varies between the sluggish child who really doesn't wake up until ten o'clock and the hyperactive one who hits the floor running and doesn't stop despite, "Wait a minute!", "Be still!" and "Don't do that!"

An open-ended, year-round school would provide opportunity for anyone to attend classes. Please note: I do not want to dispense with the classroom because many people need, and should be able to find, group support.

What I do want to throw out is the idea that everyone in the group should be in The Blue Book on Page 23, second word on Line 4, at the same time...this is not the exaggeration I wish it were.

The year-round school should be so established that the young man who needs a quick course on how to fill out Forms 1073, 96z, or 408n would find his needs met. So would his Uncle Fud who wants a course in romantic poetry because he's courting a lady with an ear for a pretty phrase. So would his grandma whose green thumb has caused a proliferation of plants that would be greatly enhanced by macrame hangers she would learn to make at school.

"The old folks" who pay big whacks of school taxes would be able to go to school when they want to or need to.

More and shorter vacations would give maintenance personnel time for upkeep of the physical plant, but students would have more skills carry-over from level to level because of the shorter time lapse.

Parents could plan vacations without fear of absentee penalties. Teachers would be able to take advantage of special courses, arrange their own vacation times—maybe even schedule maternity leaves in there somewhere!

Athletic programs would prosper because participants would be working at their own levels of competency. That level could be high or low. Progress would be the yardsticks—not an artificial grade measurement.

It is my belief, based on more than thirty years of classroom experience in teaching and my personal needs and desires, that an open-ended, year-round school would better serve individuals and communities than does the present system.

Ivan Webb Outlines 4th Of July Program

Ivan Webb, chairman of the annual community July 4th celebration committee, outlined the program for the Independence Day event in a talk last Thursday noon at the weekly luncheon of the Cisco Rotary Club. Rotarian Jerry Morgan served as program chairman.

Mr. Webb pointed out that Cisco's annual celebration was one of the best "open-to-all and everybody's invited" type of program as an Independence Day feature in West Central Texas. The program has everything from a patriotic feature to fun and games and a carnival with fireworks, Mr. Webb said.

The annual event is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, and Manager Ron Scheuren added to Mr. Webb's presentation.

A guest was the Rev. Jack Garrett, pastor of the First Christian Church at Brownfield for some 25 years. He is the son of the late H.R. (Pop) Garrett, long-time Cisco civic leader and educator.

Sr. Citizens Rythym Band Has Busy Month

The month of May was a very busy month for the Band.
The Band visited and performed at Putnam Senior Center and had lunch with the Senior Citizens there. They traveled to Baird to visit the Nursing Home residents and had a very good time.

Who met the members of the band at the door? But, Nova George, a former nurse at the Cisco Nursing Center. The members of the band enjoyed a very good time of fellowship with the residents, nurses and of course, Nova. After the band performed they were served refreshments.

The band also visited at the Ranger Nursing Center, The Valley View and Eastland Manor Nursing Center in Eastland, and the Cisco Nursing Center in Cisco.

On Saturday night, May 18, the Band performed at a spaghetti supper at the Church of the Nazarene Fellowship Hall. The band members were served a meal and were given a donation, but the band members voted to give the donation back to the Ladies Group of the Church.

The Band Members enjoyed the fellowship with the people at the supper.

We would like to say Thanks to all who helped make the month of May a month to remember. Also a big Thank You to all members for being faithful.

If an organization needs some good clean fun entertainment remember the Cisco Senior Citizens Rythm Band.

Thanks, Juanita Milford Publicity Chairperson

Roy Thackerson Is Feature At Lions Club

Roy Thackerson and his violin, accompanied on the guitar by Al Anderson, played a 20-minute concert as the program feature at the weekly luncheon of the Cisco Lions Club last Wednesday noon at the Colony Restaurant.

Mr. Thackerson, manager of Southern TV Antenna Systems in Eastland County, has played on Grand Ole Opry programs in Nashville, on national television and on numerous area and regional programs. He is known as "the fingerless fiddler" because he has no fingers on his left hand.

Sunday, June 9, 1985

The program was arranged by Dr. C.M. Cleveland who introduced the two musicians.
Lion Ivan Webb announced that arrangements for the annual July 4th carnival were well underway. He asked Lions to take part in a work day at the city park on Saturday, June 15, to prepare for the carnival there. He added that various clubs have been invited to have a booth at the carnival.

Guests were Mrs. Rose Knowlden and Brian and Mark Callarman, all of Cisco.

Fire Dept. Elects Two New Members

Two new members were elected by the Cisco Volunteer Fire Department to bring their total number to 28 at the monthly business meeting last Tuesday night.

New firemen are Jack Tollett, manager of Lone Star Gas Company, and Tom Barrett, detective sergeant of the Cisco Police Department. The fire department has been authorized by the city to have a maximum of 30 members.

Gerald Jackson and Robert Rains were elected captains of the two companies of firemen. After the business session, firemen inspected all trucks and equipment.

First Baptist Elects Nine Messengers

The First Baptist Church has elected nine members as messengers to the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in Dallas next week. The list includes Rev. and Mrs. Buddy Sipe, Mr. and Mrs. John Picklesimer, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Kirk, Mrs. Lamar Elton, Mrs. Wanda West and Jerry Luster.

Jesus said:

I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

John 10:10

But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

Cisco Funeral Home

HOW DO I PRE-PLAN A FUNERAL?
First, discuss your wishes with us or any of the other fine funeral homes in the area. We will talk about your preferences as to religious services, the minister, selection of music, readings from scripture, and flowers. Costs for caskets, fixed and optional funeral services, and cemetery fees will also be covered.
Second, a completed pre-arrangement document will be provided. In it, all of your wishes and costs will be recorded. Your copy should be kept in a safe place and/or given to your executor, friend or relative. There are no costs or obligations for preparing this.
Third may be pre-financing. This is optional and at your discretion. After we record your wishes, it can be arranged in several ways: (1) pre-payment in full; (2) partial payment and provision made for installment payments; and (3) partial pay with balance to be paid by insurance, Social Security, Veterans Administration, etc.
Pre-planning is sensible and realistic. It can be done without stress or grief. It provides great "peace of mind" in knowing that an unpleasant, yet necessary, task has been completed in advance, thereby sparing your loved-ones a difficult task later on.

HOWARD and JOY WORLEY

Celebrate Anniversary

Howard and Joy Worley Jr. celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary June 4 with their children Trace, Joey, Hazel, Roy, Donnie and Linda and one grandchild, Joshua. A heart-shaped cake and ice cream were served as refreshments.

church services ...

REDEEMER LUTHERAN CHURCH
The worship service begins at 8:30 a.m. Pastor Schueler's message is entitled "Lord of the Sabbath" based on Mark 2:23-28. Sunday School and Bible study begin at 9:30 a.m.
"Good parents give their children stability," says Lutheran Hour speaker Dr. Oswald Hoffmann. "Children inherit standards of conduct, values, beliefs. Wise parents train children to make choices and then free them to make their own decisions." Hear the message "Roots and Wings," next Sunday on radio station KCLW (900) at 8:00 a.m. and on KWFT (620) at 12:35 p.m.

Tuesday: Sunday School staff meets at 8:00 p.m.
Wednesday: Care Center worships at 10:00 a.m.
Thursday: 3:00 p.m. V.B.S. staff meeting. Christian Fellowship and Evangelism committee meets at 7:30 p.m.

Cousins Hold Reunion

Senior Citizens Nutrition Menu

We have, during the month of May, discussed the disease known as osteoarthritis, a bone-thinning ailment that is very painful.

However, there is another form of arthritis that is one of the most common known as Rheumatoid arthritis. The Rheumatic disease affects joints, muscles and connective tissues of the body. Most are chronic illnesses, meaning they have no cure, but they can be managed through proper treatment programs.

The word "Arthritis" literally means joint inflammation and refers to more than 100 Rheumatic diseases in which one or more joints are inflamed, a reaction causing swelling, pain, stiffness and redness. Rheumatic diseases include not only arthritis but also diseases in which there are aches and pains in tissues near or around the joints. These tissues include ligaments, tendons and muscles.

We will continue during the month to discuss the rheumatic diseases and encourage you to come to senior center to know more about the diseases.

The programs for the past week included: Senior Citizens band and choir, Dinner music by Billie Wood, A.E. McNeely, Lois Holder and Anna Dytzel.

The menus for the coming week will be: Monday—oven fried chicken, beans in tomato sauce, potato salad, carrot cabbage slaw, cookies, bread, butter and milk

Wednesday—rice/casserole, vegetable salad, green peas, fruit cobbler, bread, butter and milk

Friday—ham, deviled eggs, green beans, sweet potatoes, pineapple upside down cake, bread, butter and milk

Express-News Star published Saturday, May 11, 1985. The article is written by George Carmack and the photo is by Bonnie Carmack.

Bonnie and I had a pleasing experience the same morning as the dedication. It was at our motel coffee shop in Palestine. At a big round table sat nine lively ladies, dressed in identical blue and white outfits with their first names stenciled on the back of each shirt.

The nine ladies are first cousins. All used their regular first name on the shirts except Marguerite Oxley, whose nickname "Sis" was used.

There was one substitute in the group. Gail Kilcrease was pinch-hitting for her aunt, Earline Sollberg of Clifton, who could not come. Geneva Dowell of Bandera is a reader of our pieces and she told us the appealing story of the group.

"We were girls together at the Spring Creek community near Iredell in Bosque County," Dowell said. "The families have long had a reunion - called the Adams Family Reunion, the name of our great-grandmother."

"At the family reunion a few years ago, we girls had so much fun being together that we came up with the idea of meeting separately once a year and having our own costumes - we have one blue and white and another red and white.

"Our first reunion was at the old home at Spring Creek. The old school and the church are still standing and there's the same wonderful old creek."

"But we have branched out. We have met in Palo Duro Canyon, at the Festival in San Antonio and now here at the Dogwood Festival."

So there you have today's story, a cross section of Texas: a one-man sawmill; a Texas pioneer going back to the days of the Black Bean Episode; and a group of women cousins who relive their girlhood days with a marvelous "floating reunion."

Adams Reunion

The Adams Reunion was held at the Cisco Country Club May 18th and 19th with 75 persons attending.

Those present were Chaney and Lottie Lassiter; Iva Garland Payne of Hamlin; Dollie Cooper and Lena Lassiter of Cisco; Callie Thornton, Lawrence Thornton, Sis and Artie Caley of Hico; Doretha and Ray Arms of Dublin; Geneva Dowell of Bandera; Verlon and C.A. Giesecke of Comanche.

Emma Pruitt; Gail and Doug Kilcrease; Cindy and Randy Kilcrease; and Anthony Holland of Cleburne; Sonny and Mary Kay Lassiter; Floyd, Muri and Valerie Lassiter of Fort Worth; Dorothy, Alton, and Dale McCune; Mildred and Spec Speegle, Linda, Jackie, Doug, and Dave Witt; Brenda, Luke, Lacey, Cheryl and Mike Harrison; Jay, Becky, Rachel, Jim Bob and Chris Maples; Charles, Sandy, and Steffanie Maples; Charlotte and Randy Speegle; and Terry, Nancy and Mike Speegle, all of Cisco.

Ron, Betty, Shane and Brianne Lassiter of Abilene; Ann and Andy Cunningham, Cecil Cooper, Brady Brock of Cisco; Mollie Hight of Ranger; Frank, Rawena, Carl and Shillie, Keith, Jarred and Kevin Lassiter of Eastland; Monica, Steve, Necoh, Leesha, and Steve England.

The Adams family will have its reunion the third weekend of May 1986 and say they are looking forward to seeing more there.

People in Things

A HOMING PIGEON with an injured wing showed up at the home of Charles and Sue Davis in Cisco last Monday. Since he couldn't fly, the Davises put the pigeon in a pen to keep cats or other animals from having a pigeon dinner.

The pigeon has a numbered tag on one leg and a red band on the other. If anyone knows about the organization of pigeon owners, give the Davises a call and they'll try to find the owner. Call them at 442-4712.

MR. C.R. Saunders, the new Cisco school superintendent, and his wife Alice spent last Friday and Saturday in Cisco, meeting folks and looking at houses. They will be moving here from Anton, near Lubbock, as he takes over his job July 1.

The Saunderses have put their home in Anton up for sale and will be buying one here. Mr. Saunders will be in and out of Cisco during the balance of this month as he completes his work at Anton and prepares to begin his duties here.

The school board will have two meetings during the coming week - the regular meeting Monday night and another meeting when they open bids June 13th for a school building project, reports Dr. Allen McGinness, board president.

OUR SCOUTS report that Mr. John Scott, who operates a helicopter crop dusting repair facility at his place out on the Lake Road, has just shipped parts for two helicopters to Israel.

Some years ago Mr. Scott owned and operated a crop dusting helicopter manufacturing plant in Fort Worth. He sold the facility which later closed. Since that time, he has built a large shop and equipped it at his place here. The Cisco shop turns out parts for the helicopter dusters in operation over the country - parts that keeps them flying and dusting.

Mr. Scott's local plant has the capacity for turning out the dusters, we'd say after looking it over. It's a nice facility. They're also equipped to do precision machine work.

VISITORS IN our town last week were Mrs. Norman (Erma) Huston and daughter, Mary Wayne Tryer, of Kingsville. They stayed out at Best Western motel and enjoyed visiting many old friends in Cisco.

Mrs. Tryer, who teaches piano, reported that her mother was healthy and busy in Kerrville where she moved a few months after her husband's death. Mrs. Tryer has earned a fine reputation as a piano teacher as her students have been accorded numerous honors. Her husband is a member of the faculty of Texas A&I University in Kingsville. They have two children who are college students.

MR. JESSE Reynolds, the old fireman, was back on the job at City Hall last Tuesday. He retired a year or so ago and was called in to help while Fireman Johnny Jarvis was out. Johnny, who suffered burns in the Eastland train mishap, spent several days in the hospital. He was back on duty at the fire station Wednesday.

Mr. Reynolds reported that he is enjoying retirement. He and his missus live on their ranch east of town. He looks after his livestock, and they do some traveling.

HOME FROM A visit with daughter Charlotte in Telluride, Colo., are the John McGuires. They came in before they had planned due to illness of relatives at Clyde. The beautiful garden between 4th and 5th Streets in the 800 block area belongs to the Edward Wendes of 808 West 5th Street. It is a large and bountiful garden, indeed. The flowers in front of the Wendes home are beautiful and a delight to look at. Mr. Owen King is chairman of the Lions Club program for the coming Wednesday noon.

A LOT OF good work is going on downtown to make the streets look better. And the workers are Johnny Seabourn, Stanley Callahan, and Keith Johnson, all high school boys who have been hired by the city for the summer. They've been sweeping the streets, cutting weeds and the like. This is an annual city program.

MISS LYNN Pittman, a 1985 CHS graduate, is a part-time employee this summer at Olney Savings. Patsy Hogan, Olney Savings branch manager here, reports that the mini Little League team she helps manage played a 15-to-15 tie game the other day. Jim and Sylvia George have built an attractive fence around their new home out at West 14th and Front Streets. Glad to hear that Mrs. Manning Davis is back home after undergoing minor surgery at E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital last Monday.

MRS. JAMES Couch tells us that the eye surgery she underwent last Monday was done by laser and that she was only in the hospital three hours. Back home, she's doing nicely and, she added, she is getting preferential treatment around the house. Daughter Tracey has taken over the cooking chores. Rev. Joe Philpott, who resigned as pastor of Mitchell Baptist Church June 1, has agreed to continue in the pulpit there until they find a replacement, according to one of his members. Joe works for Halliburton at Albany and his decision to resign the pulpit was based on a need to slow down after several years of working seven days a week, the member told us.

CISCO LIONS Club members sent a bouquet of flowers to the Mena, Arkansas, club for their Thursday night banquet where Mr. E.L. Jackson of Cisco was an honoree as Mena's last surviving charter member. Mr. E.L. has been a Lion for some 63 years. Hats off to Mr. C.W. Guthrie who passed the fire department chief's hat to Mr. Richard Connell last week after serving for 10 years. Mr. CWG remains a member of the fire department as he has been for many years. The Dan Montgomerys are planning a vacation trip to Europe sometime this summer, according to scout reports.

MR. BENNY Phippen has taken over the pro shop at the Cisco Country Club from Mr. Arlie Whitley and is operating same. Benny and his missus recently moved into the house near the pro shop at the club. Cisco golfers Bennie Nichols and Mike Thiberville will be among those playing in the annual Lakeside Country Club golf tournament in Eastland this weekend.

MAYOR ERIS Ritchie will become a professor this coming week. His annual summer schools for cheer leaders, band twirlers, majorettes, and drum majors will begin Sunday at H-SU in Abilene. Some 600 students were expected for the first sessions. Later, the Ritchie schools will move to the Houston area and San Antonio. Mr. Ritchie will be in and out of Cisco and hopes to make most of the city council meetings and look after things and his business here.

A NUMBER OF Andy Hawari's friends and relatives were expected in Canyon on the Saturday night, June 8, wedding of Andy and his young lady. Mrs. George Owens of Cisco was to sing at the wedding and those planning to attend included Mr. Owens, Roger Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Ramirez, Craig Kent, Tracy Owens, Brad Hawari, and, of course, Andy's parents, the Tarek Hawaris, and his grandmother, Mrs. Johnnie Cheshire.

Andy and his bride are expecting to go to St. Louis soon as he has been accepted as a student at a college for optometrists. He is a graduate of the UoFT, Austin. The Press will see about a writeup of the wedding.

Rural Fire

Dept. Purchases

Two-Ton Truck

The Cisco Rural Fire Department has purchased a 1985 model two-ton Ford truck for use in improving their facilities to fight fires in the rural areas. Chief Freddie Anderson reported. The truck was bought last week at auction.

Mr. Anderson said the truck would be overhauled and equipped with a 1,500-gallon water tank. The department has an old GI truck with tank. Mr. Anderson said they would need funds to finance the truck improvements and that any contributions would be appreciated. Eastland County contributes $200 per month to help defray expenses of the rural fire fighting group.

CARD OF THANKS

There are no words to genuinely express our heartfelt thanks to all of you who extended to us sympathy in our recent sorrow. Thanks for the flowers, cards, memorials, food and especially the prayers. Our grateful thanks are given to Dr. Cermin and the staff of E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital.

Thank God for small towns and dear friends.

CARD OF THANKS

With love and appreciation from the depths of my heart, I want to say "Thank You" to my friends for being so kind and thoughtful while I was a patient at Hendrick Medical Center, and since I have returned home. Thank you for your many cards, letters, gifts, visits, telephone calls, but most of all for your prayers. All of these meant so much to me. I would like to give a special thanks to my pastor, Bro. Cecil Deadman and Joye, also A.V. who stood by during surgery.

May God bless each of you,

Rev. Frank Williams Is Reassigned To Churches

The Rev. Frank Williams was reassigned to the pulpit of the First United and Wesley United Methodist Churches in Cisco for the coming year at the conclusion of the annual regional conference in Waco last Wednesday. He will begin his third year in the local church Sunday.

The Rev. Jasper Cook of Cisco, a long-time Methodist minister who had been active as a pastor for a number of years, was assigned to serve Methodist churches at Cross Plains and Burkett for the coming year. He will take over his duties Sunday.

Dr. H.F. Mier of Brownwood was reassigned as superintendent of Brownwood district churches for another year.

The annual meeting began Monday with Rev. and Mrs. Williams and Layman Rick Whitley as the official delegates from Cisco. Also attending were Mrs. Williams, Russ Williams and the Cooks.

The convention approved a campaign to raise $10,000,000 to finance improvements and additional land purchases for the church-owned recreation facility at Glen Rose, to increase the pension fund for pastors, and to purchase new church sites for development.

There was a meeting of the Conference Council for Methodist Young People last Saturday and Russ Williams of Cisco is the district president and Leslie Covert of Cisco is the secretary. Both were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wallace took a number of local young people to Waco last Sunday for a youth rally program. Rev. Williams, who has been in the ministry for 29 years, described the Waco conference as a good success from all standpoints.

Cool Relief In Cisco

COOLED DOWN- Temperatures during the last week in May were up in the 100s, but last Wednesday at 3:50 p.m., the bank's temperature gauge showed a cool 65 degrees. Rain during the day and later that night measured up to 2 1/2 inches in some parts of Cisco. (staff photo)

Camp Inspiration Memorial Day Weekend

By Darrell Basham

At exactly 10:00 a.m. on Friday, May 24, 1985, Memorial Day weekend started for most Eastland residents. At that moment a water transport truck struck the east bound freight train at the Breckenridge hiway crossing in Eastland. From that time on almost every person in Eastland can tell you a similar but different story of their life for the next 3 days.

At Camp Inspiration the staff was planning for a quiet week-end. The camp had been prepared for a statewide church softball tournament to last the 3 days of Memorial Day weekend. Earlier in the week the tournament was cancelled because not enough ball teams signed up for the tournament. It was too late to schedule another event at the camp. Since this was the last weekend the camp was to be unoccupied until October, some of the staff planned to go out of town, others to take it easy and enjoy the swimming pool.

Pastor Larry Smith had completed his "coffee with the pastor" local radio program at 9:00 a.m. and was back at the camp. Tony Casey and Calvin Pleninger, summer work students from Gulf Coast Bible College was busy in the youth building.

Darrell Basham was the TESCO Service Center 1/4 mile north of the railroad.

At 10:00 a.m. the power went off at the TESCO Service Center and immediately the rumble and explosions shook the building. It seemed like the shaking wouldn't end. The emergency generator came on to restore power to the lights and radio in the dispatch office. Outside a red and black column of fire and smoke rose to several hundred feet. The scanner started picking up emergency calls confirming a train derailment. TESCO crews feared power had been knocked out to the entire town. Crews started for the substation but soon found all 3 north routes into town was blocked by the 99 car train. Later reports revealed that some 25 rail cars had been derailed. These cars were loaded with liquid petroleum products and several kinds of acid. The fire was from the LPG cars.

Very soon orders came to evacuate everyone in a 1/2 mile radius. Darrell and all other TESCO employees closed down operations and moved out. Darrell delivered portable two-way radios to the small group of office workers still maintaining the TESCO telephones in the down-town office, located about 1/2 mile from the wreck. At about 12:15 Larry Smith met Darrell at the TESCO office and discussed using the camp for the overflow of evacuees from the Methodist Church which was located about 3/4 mile from the wreck. It was agreed to pass the word the camp would be available. Larry contacted the Methodist Church pastor.

At about 12:30 the area to evacuate was increased to 1 mile. At this time the downtown TESCO Office and the Methodist Church evacuation center had to be closed. Since it had been prearranged, several years ago that, when possible Camp Inspiration could be used for TESCO to set up operations, the decision was made to move the remaining TESCO employees, on duty, to the camp where there was room to park the big trucks and have access to telephones.

By this time evacuees were arriving at the camp. Larry and Darrell decided to put TESCO in the Dining hall and park the large vehicles on the church parking lot. The towns people was put in the cabin area. Larry, Tony, and Calvin worked with getting chairs and some tables into the cabin area for drinks and supplies. Darrell prepared coffee and telephones in the dining hall.

By 2:00 p.m. we realized with the crowd growing that there would be a lot of hungry people at the camp come suppertime. Plans were made to prepare a stew supper from food supplies in the dining hall. Ruby Smith came to the dining hall and supper plans were discussed. The crowd kept getting larger, more food preparation plans were made. Food was placed in the steam table. About 3:00 p.m. Red Cross Rep. Roy Cartee, arrived and met with Larry and Darrell. We shared plans for supper with him. He told us they were closing down the shelter at the Elementary School and transferring everyone to the camp. It was then decided there would not be enough stew for everyone, so spaghetti and meat sauce was added to the menu. Dr. Pepper and Pepsi drink companies delivered soft drinks to the camp for the people.

By 4:00 p.m. additional help from the Inspiration Church of God arrived to help in the kitchen. It was then decided to transport the supper food to Cisco for preparing in the large senior citizens center kitchen and bring it back for serving. Desserts and drinks were prepared at the camp.

Shortly after 4:00 p.m. TESCO decided that their employees could be dismissed for the weekend and they left the camp by 4:30.

Red Cross personnel from Brownwood, Abilene, Wichita Falls and Fort Worth started arriving, around 4:30 to 5:00 p.m. We met with them and set up their registration procedure in the East side of the dining hall. The Red Cross registered each evacuee and assigned them cabin bunks. There were 99 registered for help and 70 stayed in the cabins on Friday night.

Larry arrived back to Camp Inspiration with the food about 7:00 p.m. Most all had registered by then and all were called to the dining hall for supper. Local church people who served the meal and cleaned up the kitchen were Larry and Ruby Smith, Darrell and Darlene Basham, Charles and Joy Perry, Gail Dennis, Scott Dennis, Bob Dennis, Shelly Smith, Calvin Pleninger, Tony Casey, Duke Dixon, Martha Parsons.

Approximately 150 meals were served from 7:00 p.m. until about 2:30 a.m. Plans were worked out to serve pan cakes and sausage for Saturday breakfast. Most of the church folks and camp staff went home around 11:00 p.m. and Darrell and Calvin stayed with the Red Cross folks until around 4:00 a.m. Local church workers and staff returned around 6:30 a.m. and started breakfast. Food was prepared from supplies on hand at the Camp. About 100 were served breakfast. Coffee was consumed by the gallon. Food and coffee was delivered to the workers at the wreck.

Channel 4 and Channel 8 TV news from Dallas visited Camp Inspiration on Friday evening about suppertime and interviewed some of the people.

By noon most of the camp food supply was served and the Red Cross had time to plan for taking over the gathering and serving the meals. Red Cross workers and local volunteers worked long hours Saturday and Sunday serving the folks at Camp Inspiration and delivering food and drinks to the workers.

TESCO employee, Jimmy Garrett, also Red Cross worker arrived Friday night and set up emergency radio communications at the camp.

Some evacuation boundaries were changed Saturday night and several people were able to return home. Some of the folks attended church at Inspiration Church of God on Sunday.

Sunday afternoon the electrical box burned up serving the parsonage where Larry and Ruby live. Larry, Ruby and Shelley had to spend the night in the church because temperatures were over 100° F. in the parsonage. Ken Watson and Gaylon Wilcox from TESCO came out Monday to help make repairs and get this part of the camp back to normal.

Bob McGuire, former camp student employee, and his wife visited the camp over the weekend. We put him to work and Bob and Tony replaced the main drain grill cover in the large swimming pool.

All but 3 people and 5 Red Cross workers had gone by Sunday night late.

Red Cross workers swept out Cabins and the bathhouse and were gone before 10:00 a.m. Monday.

The dining hall was really a mess with sweeping and mopping left to the camp staff. The camp staff worked all day Monday cleaning the dining hall, putting away kitchen equipment, mopping bathhouse, cleaning 6 cabins and washing and drying mattress covers for the local camp fire girls to move in Tuesday for a two day stay. The camp staff is glad that the camp was available to help feed and sleep some of the misplaced persons of Eastland. We are very appreciative of the many Red Cross and other volunteers that served so many long hours to help. We are thankful that the disaster was not any worse than it was and that no one was killed.

As we monitored the activities of the weekend on the scanner, we owe a tremendous amount of gratitude to our volunteer firemen and local law officials.

We at Camp Inspiration were glad to have been a small part of the team that spent Memorial Day weekend in Eastland.

Special Section for the Bride & Groom

Phenomenon of the '80's: Here come the executive brides...

Here come the brides — older and more sophisticated than ever! According to bridal industry figures, of the more than 1.5 million women marrying in 1983 for the first time, one-fifth were over 25 and, of those, one-third were over 30.

Anyone who has paid attention to wedding invitations over the past few years will also realize that brides are not only older, they are also frequently executive brides. These are brides with full careers from which the celebration of marriage is a brief, yet important pause in their hectic lifestyles.

Brides in their mid-20s are more likely to be career women, and this trend peaks with brides aged 30. Both their wedding celebrations and their bridal ensembles are more sophisticated than their younger counterparts' choices, even if the older bride is marrying for the first time.

This changed picture of the American bride is not an overnight phenomenon. It is the result of social and economic changes shifting through society for the past two decades — and it is certainly making changes in the bridal fashion business.

Editor-in-Chief of Modern Bride, Cole Goldsmith Lalli, comments, "Older brides often choose lace and trains when marrying for the first time. However, the type of gown an executive woman selects is likely to be more highly styled. For bridal designers and retailers, this fine line has been a fascinating challenge."

She adds, "Today's career woman has a very different perspective concerning her wedding plans than a young woman just out of school — but she does want to look very special with just the perfect dash of tradition."

Confident shoppers

Darlene Katz, buyer of bridal gowns for the JCPenney Company, foremost retail resource for bridal attire in the U.S. today, observes, "The new brides want it all! They want their careers, their perfect wedding, a spouse and family — and they want happiness and fulfillment, beginning with the gown they select from us."

"This career bride in the throes of wedding planning is an exciting customer. Her ideas are specific and her vision is quite clear — she is a confident shopper." Ms. Katz notes that there are also many "executive brides" who are "encore," or repeat, brides.

To serve these women, JCPenney and other bridal retailers are showing a wider range of sophisticated, trend-setting choices in their new collection.

The spring, 1985, bridal fashions at Penney reflect influences from both Italian and French designers. Lustrous embroideries and fine laces are much in evidence.

Ms. Katz notes, "The bride-to-be today has an image of the traditional that is not the popular one of 'sweet, feminine, frilly' — it is more refined with emphasis on opulent fabrics, fashionable silhouettes, and attention to detail."

Fashion freedom

The popularity of the tea-length bridal dress among career brides shopping in the JCPenney Bridal Salons demonstrates a preference for the high-stepping fashion freedom of the 1920s when hems went up and up and up.

Women exulted in a new joie de vivre with classic gowns high in front and trailing in back. Necklines plunged in the back but rose demurely high across the throat.

And some of these touches are found in current bridal collections along with more variety in length than in many a season.

Even veils are offered in varying lengths: Short on the sides and incredibly full and romantic in back in order to cascade down the back.

Other trends attributed to brides in their late 20s and early 30s are a preference for ivory and oyster over pure white, and the selection of attendants' dresses that are also high-styled.

Retailers and the bridal magazines agree that the spring and summer of 1985 will see a large number of carefully orchestrated weddings — and at many of these the focus will be the executive bride.

Census figures for 1982 show a record 2.5 million marriages which is a 16 percent increase over 1975. They also indicate the first decline in the divorce pattern in 20 years — 1.2 million.

The number of divorces continued to decline in '83 and the trend is holding for '84. Experts feel the increasing age and thoughtfulness of brides and their grooms is a major contributing factor.

In a recent Reader's Digest/Gallup Survey, 85 percent of those polled (1,549 adults over 18 in 300 communities), responded "yes" when asked if they would wed the same person if they could make the decision again!

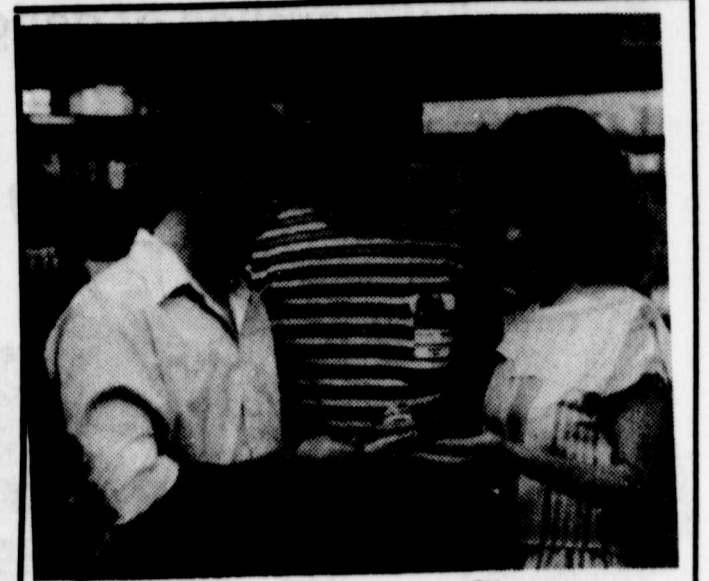

Brides who are confident, self-assured and poised can still be "blushing brides." Mrs. Lalli of Modern Bride stresses, "Nothing has been taken away. If anything, the bride with her career in full-swing and with a certain maturity has access to yet another dimension of creating the perfect wedding and a wonderful memory for this most important of days."

CONTEMPORARY WEDDING ATTITUDES

While the approach may be traditional, it's definitely not old-fashioned!

The word for weddings today is "traditional." Anyone who attends a nuptial 1980s-style can see why right away. The barefoot-in-the-park ceremonies of the 1960s and '70s have disappeared as completely as flower children and low heels. Elegant clothes, age-old ritual and a spirit of nostalgia are the rule.

But does this swing-back mean that all innovation is out of style? Like the bride of today really have a wedding that is indistinguishable from the one her mother or grandmother had?

"No need to look more closely to see what's happened," says Barbara Tober, Editor-in-Chief of BRIDES Magazine. "Today's weddings do seek out the best and most beautiful traditions of the past in contrast to a few years ago when anything old was automatically suspect. But, at the same time, they're very, very modern in that they express new ideals."

However, "rules" etiquette plus a climate that favors personal expression have led couples to add their own creative touch. "But today's individuality is very different from the 'do your own thing' brand of the last decade," says Mrs. Tober.

Couples don't throw out the whole ceremony and start from scratch; they must change or add little things. For example, they have their own special music played, have a little girl instead of a boy as a ring bearer, or pass out prom-style "programs."

Modern weddings also break with the past over the ideal of equality. Today's bride may be dressed in a skorture turn-of-the-century style, but that isn't necessarily indicative of her approach to marriage. For example, because couple after couple decided that ritual phrases such as "love, honor and obey" and "man and wife" just didn't fit anymore, these phrases have largely disappeared.

The "giving away" (a part of some ceremonies in which the celebrant asks, "Who gives this woman in marriage?") has also changed with the times. Today, a couple might rewrite the question to read, "Who blesses this marriage?" with both the bride's and groom's parents answering "We do."

The same kind of thinking has likewise revised the idea of who pays for a wedding. Traditionally, the bride's parents shouldered the whole bill.

But for the first time, says Mrs. Tober, "there's a definite trend toward the sharing of expenses by the groom's family." This is partly economic — inflation for some families means everyone has to chip in for there to be a wedding at all. But it's also a sign of the times. A bride's parents are no longer considered to be "marrying off" their daughter. Rather, "the wedding is seen as a joining of two people and two families."

Finally, equality means a new role in the wedding for today's groom. In the past, a groom often felt like a spectator at his bride's "big day." Modern couples simply take for granted that it's his wedding too. Grooms have new responsibilities. They help pick the wedding site, choose china patterns, address invitations and write thank-you notes. And they bask in a larger share of the limelight. Some men wear engagement rings, appear with the fiancée in newspaper announcements, and even have showers thrown in their honor.

Diamond engagement ring: A long-standing tradition

Getting engaged is one of the most exciting moments in any woman's life, and a main part of that excitement is the diamond engagement ring.

The tradition of giving a diamond to signify an engagement began back in 1477, when Maximilian of Austria gave Mary of Burgundy a gold ring set with diamonds.

This romantic tradition continues at the Petit Salon of Harry Winston, from the classic solitaire to a more contemporary style — or a custom-designed ring for the bride-to-be. An example of a contemporary setting is one from the Petit Salon collection of Harry Winston. Two bands surround one with your choice of stone — the most popular is the diamond. The center ring snaps securely into place. The most wonderful aspect of this ring is that additional center bands may be purchased with different stones — the ring can then be coordinated with additional accessories from the Petit Salon. A lovely gift for the long-lasting relationship.

For those hectic days of planning...

Hints for alleviating pre-wedding stress and anxiety

As anyone who has gotten married can tell you, the months leading up to a wedding can be a time of stress as well as happiness. There's just so much to think about and do!

You need to find ceremony and reception sites, to choose just the right clothes, to make sometimes touchy decisions about who will be in your wedding, to furnish a complete home for your life after the wedding — and all this while you're having the inevitable doubts about getting married in the first place.

While wedding jitters are about as common as weddings, there are ways to make sure the anxiety doesn't get out of hand. BRIDE'S Magazine has these commonsense suggestions:

- Don't be afraid to admit you're upset. Tell your partner what's bothering you, whether it's a serious question about your relationship or a relatively trivial worry that you'll go blank when it comes time to say your vows.

If you try to keep the stressful feelings to yourself, you'll only transfer them to something else, such as getting overly irritated at a late train, or a run in your stockings.

Take positive action whenever possible: Sign up for a pre-marital workshop. Practice reciting your vows in front of a willing friend.

- Share the wedding responsibilities. If you're the bride, don't assume you have to do everything yourself. This idea is old-fashioned, as well as exhausting.

Ask your fiancé to join you in picking out a catering hall and registering for gifts. He can write a share of the thank-you notes, handle all the honeymoon arrangements.

- Keep a calendar of everything you have to do. This kind of master plan gives you the secure feeling that you're not forgetting something crucial.

Also gather any business cards, fabric swatches or magazine clippings you accumulate all together in one place — either a wedding planner made for this purpose or a simple manila envelope. Organization has the magical effect of reducing anxiety to a manageable level.

- Have a system for each task. Say you're doing your invitations. First, see if the task can be broken down into steps. (You have to address the envelopes, stuff them, seal them, and stamp them.) Then, decide how you'll tackle each step: How long it should take and who will do it.

Next, set a completion date (invitations should be mailed six weeks before the wedding). Finally, take action by setting a time and a place to begin.

- Pace yourself — don't plan to scout for reception sites the same day you have a report due at work. You'll make it through those pre-wedding months if you promise yourself you won't tackle more than one major job a day.

- Guard your health. Don't let a hectic schedule keep you from eating right, or often enough. You'll feel even more jittery from the weakness that results from a drop in blood sugar.

Be sure to get enough rest and exercise too. Did you know that exercise increases the body's level of norepinephrine, a substance that gives you a feeling of calmness and well-being?

If sleep eludes you at night because you have too much on your mind, try the time-tested soothers: A hot bath, warm milk or a back rub.

Wedding cake variations that are "a cut above"

Cake is the one ingredient no wedding reception can do without. But it doesn't have to be the all-white confection that's traditional. According to BRIDE'S Magazine, today's brides and grooms are personalizing their wedding cakes in any or all of the following ways.

- The Flavor: White spongecake is customary and still the choice of many. But brides and grooms who are chocolate lovers or carrot-cake fans are determined to be recognized too.

Some couples are striking a compromise with tradition by offering vanilla in one tier, chocolate or some other flavor in another. Unusual and very gourmet fillings are also showing up.

There's a lot of interest in ethnic roots in this country right now, and this is helping to change the idea of what's "right" for a wedding cake. Brides and grooms who want to honor their heritage are celebrating their marriage with slices of Italian cheesecake or Irish fruitcake.

- The Shape: Three or four round tiers are being replaced at some weddings by square, rectangular or even heart shapes. And the familiar white swirls and curls are sharing the stage with pink hearts, pale blue scallops, bright marzipan flowers, and fresh roses and daffodils inserted into water-filled vials.

- The Topper: The ornament that sits on top of the cake offers the greatest room for imagination. The time-honored bride and groom, wedding bells and lovebirds remain popular.

But these days you're just as likely to find a tiny music box that plays "The Wedding March," Miss Piggy and Kermit the Frog dressed in their best wedding attire, or a miniature bicycle meant to represent the fact that the couple met on a cross-country biking trip.

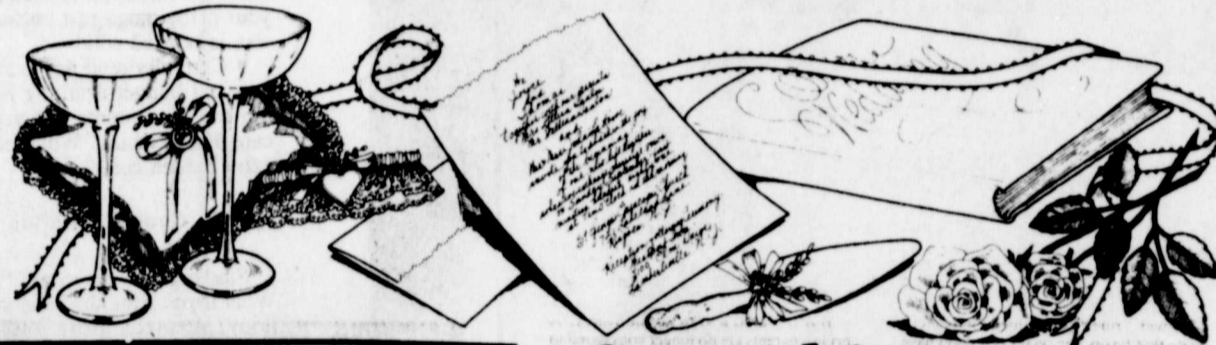

Some couples are nostalgically giving their cake a touch of "history" by borrowing a topper that appeared years before on their parents' wedding cake.

Whatever type of cake a couple desires, BRIDE'S has these suggestions to make the ordering and delivery trouble-free.

First, to find a bakery, it's safest to go on the recommendations of recently-married friends. Or, see if the club or catering hall where the reception will be could supply a cake.

Then visit each of your possible choices, and ask to see photos of past wedding cakes they've made and to taste a sample of their baking.

When you do order, expect to put down a deposit. And get a receipt that spells out: The cake size, flavors and filling, icing, topping design, delivery date and address, and the balance to be paid.

Some hints on wedding costs

It's traditional in the United States for the parents of the bride to cover the entire cost of a couple's wedding. But, according to BRIDE'S Magazine, this situation is changing.

For the first time, there's a definite trend toward the sharing of wedding expenses, says BRIDE'S. The groom's family, as well as the bride and groom themselves, are taking on a chunk of the financial responsibility.

Changing attitudes

One reason for this may be the changing attitudes toward the nature of marriage. In this era of liberation, a bride's parents are no longer considered to be "marrying off" their daughter.

Rather, the wedding is seen as the joining of two people, and two families, with everyone contributing to the festivities.

A second reason is frankly economic: The cost of a formal wedding these days runs on average around $6,000 (figure from a 1984 BRIDE'S Reader Profile Study), but it can go as high as $10-$15,000 in some urban areas.

Rather than cut back on their idea of the perfect celebration, many couples and their families are, instead, finding new ways to meet the expenses. Especially where the bride and groom are on their own and earning money themselves (increasingly common as the average age for marriage goes up), it only makes sense for them to pitch in.

The actual dividing up of the costs can be done in several ways. An easy, tactful method that BRIDE'S recommends is to settle on specific expenses in advance, rather than to just split the cost of the whole wedding down the middle.

For instance, the groom's family might agree to cover the flowers, the music and the liquor. They would then discuss the general budget for these items with the couple and have the bills sent directly to them. This eliminates the need for money changing hands or for further talking about costs between families.

An alternate idea would be for one family to pay for the ceremony (flowers, church rental, limousines), while the other picks up the reception tab. Each family then has complete jurisdiction over their part of the celebration.

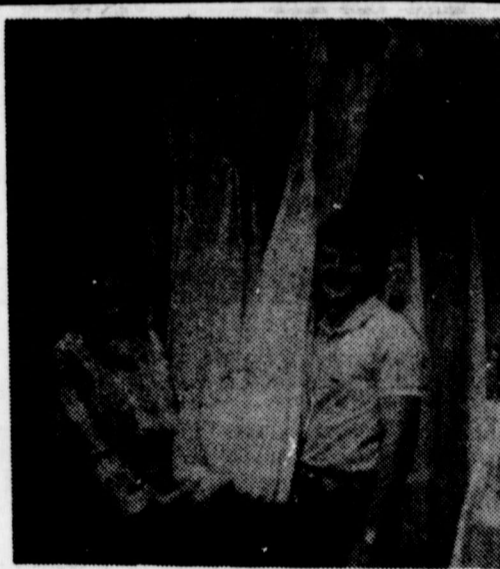

Advance planning a must

There are many possible arrangements and the options should be discussed openly and early in the engagement, so an agreeable plan can be worked out.

It's also important to remember, says BRIDE'S, that it's still the prerogative of the bride's family to decline an offer of help if they wish.

If this happens, the groom's family can celebrate the marriage in another way, such as hosting the rehearsal dinner or throwing an engagement party.

Incidentally, the idea of sharing wedding expenses is not really a new one. In many countries the practice has been followed for centuries. For instance, Spanish fathers of the bride and groom traditionally issue the invitations and host the wedding together.

Advice on how to choose a wedding photographer

One very important item on your wedding checklist is hiring your professional photographer. While relatives and friends may take photographs of the occasion, you'll want to be sure an experienced professional has been contracted to capture the mood and scenes of this memorable occasion.

A professional photographer is trained to consider not only the technical aspects of your photographic needs, but is also people-oriented and knows how to photograph you with sensitivity to capture the mood and feeling of the day, without interfering with the solemnity of the ceremony or the fun of the reception.

Here are some suggestions to help you select the right photographer:

- Begin early — particularly if you are getting married in the popular months of June, July, August or December, the busiest seasons — in order to book your choice of photographers.

- "Interview" a variety of photographers. Look at samples of their work. Select a photographer whose style suits the images you'd like to capture.

- Arrange for a formal bridal portrait for the newspaper at the time of your final gown fitting.

- Don't change your hair style, or have it cut or frosted, just before taking your portrait — you want to look like you. Keep jewelry and other accessories to a minimum. Your makeup should not be excessive.

- Enlist a friend or relative to identify special friends and relatives for the photographer. At the reception, request photographs of your guests at various table groupings.

Wedding photographs do not have to be limited to your album; they have many creative uses. Here are a few suggestions:

- An album for your parents.
- Personal thank-you notes with your photograph.
- Christmas cards or gifts.
- Decor for your home.

Most professional photographers use quality Kodak film and paper and will provide you with photographic memories perfect for your wedding album, gift giving, home decor and other purposes.

COUNT ON A PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHER to capture all the special moments at your wedding.

Tips to control wedding costs...

Like everything else in these inflationary days, getting married can be expensive. A wedding includes items such as a bridal dress, flowers and a reception, not to mention photography, music and a honeymoon trip. When you add it all up, that one special day can cost a lot.

But does it have to cost more than you can afford? According to Barbara Tober, Editor-in-Chief of BRIDE'S Magazine, it doesn't and it shouldn't. "The wonderful thing about weddings is that they can take so many different forms," she says.

How to do it

Mrs. Tober feels that no couple should miss out on a wedding because they think they can't afford it. Here are some tips for making sure that costs don't get out of hand.

- Set priorities early on. Do this by finding out what a wedding in your area actually costs and then deciding what you must have, and what you can sacrifice or spend less on.

One strategy is to go all out on one or two things that will make your wedding unique and economize on the rest.

For example, at your reception you might serve your guests a full sit-down dinner, but limit the music to a single strolling musician and choose only in-season, and therefore less expensive, flowers.

Or, for an afternoon wedding, you could scale down the meal to simple finger sandwiches but splurge on the most memorable wedding cake you can find.

- Try, whenever possible, to get the look you want without full cost. For example, the lushness of a country club garden wedding might be duplicated at much less expense in a city park.

The same basic style wedding dress can cost anywhere from a few hundred to a few thousand dollars depending on the fabric and other fine points of design.

- Start your wedding planning early. This is always a good idea, but doubly so when money is a factor, because you'll have the time to shop around and find the best prices or single package-price.

Comparison shopping tips

Don't be afraid to tell a prospective caterer, florist or whatever, that you're comparison shopping and taking bids. He may try a little harder to get your business.

- Shopping early also helps you avoid the pitfall of paying higher prices by default: You won't have to take a reception hall or a honeymoon suite that's out of your price range just because everything else is booked solid.

- Carefully read any contract you sign to avoid budget-draining rip-offs. Watch out for agreements that say they'll take care of everything. Will there really be no extra hidden costs?

Consider contingencies

Find out answers to the "what-ifs" too. What if you want the band to play another hour? A dozen more four-color prints made?

- Finally, consider reducing the burden of wedding costs by redistributing them.

It's traditional in this country for the bride's parents to foot the whole wedding bill but, according to Mrs. Tober, all signs are that this is changing toward a sharing of the expenses by the two families.

The groom's family often offers to cover specific expenses — for example, the flowers, the music and the liquor.

Or, the two families might decide that one will pay for the ceremony (flowers, church rental, limousines), and the other will pick up the reception tab.

Honeymoon homework memo: Send for a free Alaska vacation planner

Once upon a time, plans for the wedding trip were a bridegroom's prerogative and responsibility. Can you imagine today's bride being packed off to an undisclosed destination at the climax of weeks of wedding preparation and celebration? With a trunkful of smart city clothes to a fishing camp? With a backpack of jeans and boots and sweaters to a glamour resort? No contemporary bridegroom in his right mind would take such a risk!

The honeymoon's a mutual decision these days. Choosing a destination is a time for real up-front honesty about preferences... maybe even compromise. Privacy, romance, glamour, fun are all considerations. Exploring a place that's new to you both has a psychological advantage in getting your marriage off to an even start.

Opportunities for adventure

Alaska — America's last frontier — can be an adventure you'll never forget. It's easy to feel you have the world to yourself in Alaska, where the scenery is spectacular, where the opportunity to explore the wilderness is unlimited and where warm hospitality prevails — from cosmopolitan Anchorage to wilderness lodges.

Do your homework early, before pre-wedding stress sets in. The best place to seek advice on travel to Alaska is the state's Division of Tourism. Your 1985 Alaska Vacation Planner, which includes information on travel throughout Canada's Yukon, is free, and can be ordered by writing to the Alaska Division of Tourism, Pouch E-603, Juneau AK 99811.

All the information you need

A wealth of information is crammed into the 100-page book. In addition to facts, figures, maps and detailed information, the Vacation Planner combines practical advice with personal reflections of many who've traveled north to explore America's last frontier.

Honeymooners' survival kit

Late in your wedding day you'll both drive off with tin cans clanking, while friends and relatives pelt your car with rice or bird seed for good luck. Alone at last!

Somehow the breakfast you both missed for pre-wedding jitters, and reception dinner missed for all the dancing and excitement of the day, begin to catch up with you. Now that the day's events have come to a close, you find yourselves hungry and relaxed for the first time all day.

Stopping at a restaurant would hardly seem magical, and even ordering room service at the hotel would be another unwanted interruption.

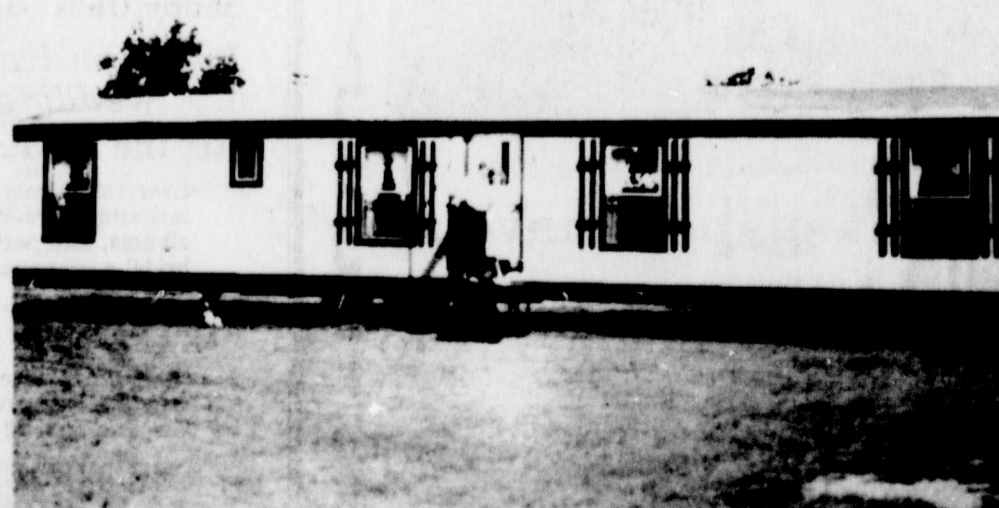

Ah, but you find a gaily decorated basket in your getaway car en route to the hotel. A note attached reads: "Food Is Love," and is signed by a thoughtful member of the wedding party who packed the surprise.

The basket is filled with all the essential treats for two famished honeymooners: Fresh French bread, cold lemon chicken, a wedge of cheese and luscious strawberries.

There is sparkling Perrier for pure thirst quenching, and Lindt bittersweet chocolate truffles for pure indulging. The final ambrosia is two slices of wedding cake and a split of champagne.

And tucked into the side of the basket is a small bunch of daisies, because daisies don't tell...

Drilling Bits

Sun Exploration & Production has filed first production figures on two new oil wells in the Ranger Field. The Nos. 238 & 361 North Central Ranger Unit showed combined potential to make 15 barrels of oil daily.

Drillsites are three & five miles west-southwest of Ranger in the John York Survey, A-557.

The wells will produce from perforations in the McClesky Formation, ranging from 3,434 to 3,491 feet into the wellbore. Total drilling depths were 3,750 and 3,800 feet, respectively.

A 3,400-ft. wildcat well is planned by Abilene Petroleum Land Services at a drillsite two miles northwest of Desdemona, Eastland County. The location is in a 140-acre lease in the Juan Curbella Survey, A-53. Well's designation is the No. 2 West.

Kem-Gem Inc. of Wichita Falls has filed for permit to drill the No. 2-4 Hogan Lee, a 1,000-ft. wildcat well four miles northeast of Cisco. Location is in a 788-acre lease in Eastland County's H&TC Survey, A-225.

A Duncanville-based operator has staked location for the No. 4 A.C. goen, a wildcat well to be located four miles north of Eastland. With projected total depth of 4,000 feet, the well is in a 125-acre lease in Eastland County's H&TC Survey, A-861. The operator is Northridge Corp.

Two undrilled wildcat locations have been abandoned in Eastland County. Michael D. Brown's No. 2 Millican - two miles east of Carbon.

Morrison Energy's No. 1

Lovell - three miles south of Carbon.

Drillsite has been staked for the No. 5 Hogan, a 2,000-ft. developmental well in the Eastland Regular Field. The operation will be located two miles north of Eastland in a 57-acre lease in the H&TC Survey, A-300. The operator is Advance Exploration of Abilene.

The No. 4 D.E. Benshoof, a 4,000-ft. developmental well, is scheduled to be drilled in the Eastland Regular Field. Northridge Corp. of Duncanville is the operator. The well will be spudded in a 195-acre lease two miles northeast of Eastland in the H&TC Survey, A-2042.

Plug-and-abandon orders have been issued for the No. 1 Goode, a developmental venture of Firebrock in the Eastland Regular Field. Spudded April 18, the well had reached 3,855 feet and total depth. Drillsite was three miles east of Pioneer.

Ridge Oil has suspended operations at two locations in the Eastland Regular Field five miles west-northwest of Ranger. The ventures had been designated as the Nos. 3 & 4 Longmire.

Robert E. Byrne of Lubbock has revealed plans to drill two 3,700-ft. developmental wells in the Eastland Regular Field. Drillsites are four miles south-southeast of Ranger.

The No. 4 Duffer "A" will be located in a 449-acre lease in the S.N. Mathias Survey, A-376.

The No. 1 Durham-Tatum will be located in a 124-acre lease in the McLennan CSL Survey, A-369.

Richey & Co. of Ft. Worth has filed for permit to drill the No. 1 L.K., Daniels, a 4,000-ft. developmental well four miles south-southeast of Ranger. Location is in a 50-acre lease in Eastland County's S.N. Mathias Survey, A-376. The well is in the Snow Field.

An Eastland-based operator has staked location for the No. 1 Gilbert, a developmental well to be located four miles south-southeast of Carbon. With projected total depth of 3,500-feet, the well is in a 40-acre lease in Eastland County's Marsan Field, D&DAL Survey, A-1957. The operator is T.L. Robertson Operating.

The No. 1 Sam Beggs, a 4,000-ft. developmental well, is scheduled to be drilled in Eastland County's Snow Field. Snow Oil of Ft. Worth is the operator. The well will be spudded in a 40-acre lease five miles north-northeast of Eastland in the H&TC Survey, A-297.

Van Oil has suspended operations at the No. 2 D.D. Castle. Location was three miles southeast of Cisco.

A potent new wildcat has been completed two miles northwest of Crystal Falls, flowing 45-gravity oil at the rate of 682 barrels per day on an 18/64 choke.

The well is designated as the No. 1 Robertson, with Sunset Energy of Texas Inc. as the operator.

The explorer well probed to total depth of 4,516 feet and was perforated to produce from a Conglomerate Formation interval, 4,038 to 4,048 feet into the wellbore.

Flowing tubing pressure was gauged at 600 PSI.

Paul De Cleva has slapped a dry hole label on an unsuccessful developmental well in Stephens County's Ivan Field, about five miles east of the Ivan townsite.

Designated as the No. 1 C.B. King, the well was spudded on April 23 and probed to a dry bottom at 4,111 feet. It has been plugged and abandoned.

A 4,500-ft. Stephens County wildcat is scheduled to be drilled four miles north-northwest of Parks, with Sheets Exploration Inc. of Breckenridge as the operator. The venture will be known as the No. 10 A.S. Veale. It will be located in a 160-acre unit in the T&P Survey.

Pumping 10 barrels of oil and 50 barrels of salt water per day on an open choke, the No. 1 Houston has been finished by the Shillelagh Corp. in the Stephens Regular Field three miles northwest of Necessity.

Shillelagh took the hole to a 4,438-ft. bottom and plugged back to 2,100. It will produce from a set of Strawn Sand perforations, 1,970 to 1,980 feet into the hole. Oil tested at 40-gravity.

Bandera Energy has suspended operations at a pair of developmental wells in the Stephens County's Regular Field eight miles south of Eolian. The wells are designated as the No. 4 and No. 6 Agnell. They had been drilled to total depths of 4,236 and 4,179 feet, respectively. Production casing has been run at both wells.

A total of six 4,500-ft. developmental wells are scheduled for spudding in the Stephens County's Regal (Ellenburger) Field by Trinity Exploration, operating out of Eastland.

The wells have been designated as the No. 2 Compton, one mile southwest of Eolian; the No. 1 Shaw, one mile southwest of Eolian; the No. 1 Adams, two miles southwest of Eolian; the No. 1 Caldwell, one mile south of Eolian; the No. 1 Newman, two miles south-southwest of Eolian; and the No. 1 Tomlin, two miles south of Eolian.

All locations are in the OAL Survey.

Wildcat drilling action is planned in Palo Pinto County, one mile south of the Brazos community, with Chester R. Upham Jr. of Mineral Wells as the operator.

The venture will be known as the No. 1 Weldon et al. It is under permit for 4,600-ft. maximum depth. It will be spudded in a 320-acre lease, W.W. Fulkerson Survey.

A dual-zone wildcat producer has been completed in Palo Pinto County three miles northeast of Lone Camp, with Cabot Petroleum of Houston as the operator.

The well is designated as the No. 1 James F. Alexander.

It indicated ability to flow natural gas from both the Bend Conglomerate and Marble Falls formations. Bottomed at 4,779 feet, the well was perforated to produce from the Bend at 3,707 to 3,713 feet into the hole. The zone potentiated at 1,120,000 CF gas per day on a 12/64 choke. Additional pay will come from the Marble Falls at 4,076 to 4,112 feet into the hole. The Marble Falls showed ability to flow 717,000 CFD on a 14/64 choke.

Flow pressure in the Bend zone was gauged at 1,282 PSI. The Marble Falls came in at 1,069 PSI.

More wildcat action is scheduled in Palo Pinto County, three miles east-northeast of Lone Camp, with Cabot Petroleum Inc. as the operator. The company is preparing to spud the No. 2 Cabot-Kramer et al in the 641-acre lease in the T&P Survey. The well carries authority for 5,000 feet of hole making.

 BRINGS YOU THESE IMPORTANT TIPS...
YOU AUTO KNOW

New device scans brain waves to detect drug use that would impair driver's ability. It's being used by police on a test basis now.

More autos are also purchasing service contracts and extended warranties. Most of these contracts cover the engine, transmission, drive axle, front suspension, steering, air conditioning, brakes, and electrical systems.

To avoid tailgating, follow the "2-second" rule: note when the car in front of you passes a roadside object, and be sure that at least 2 seconds elapse before your car passes the same object.

Do you speak "auto"? SEATING refers not to where YOU sit, but to the wearing in or adjusting of moving parts to one another so they fit properly.
