CJC Basketball Teams In Regional Tourney

Both the Wranglers and the Lady Wranglers of Cisco Junior College have won the Northern Texas Junior College Conference championships and will compete next week in the Region Five tournament at Snyder. Victories in the final home games last Saturday night brought the conference crowns to CJC's two teams. The regular season's final games will be played by both the men's and women's teams Thursday night as they meet Ranger JC in a doubleheader program at Ranger. The Lady Wranglers will play at 6 p.m. with the men's game at 8 p.m. The regional tournament will begin Tuesday at the Snyder coliseum and the men's tourney will be played Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the same place. As the champions of their respective conferences, the two Cisco teams will be seeded No. 1 at Snyder. Both Cisco teams will meet the No. 4 seeded teams in their opening games. Coach Dan Montgomery's Wranglers will go against strong opposition as Midland, undefeated for the season, has wrapped up first place in the western conference. South Plains, Odessa, Western Texas and New Mexico JC were battling for the remaining three spots. In the north, Grayson, McLennan, Weatherford and Hill all had a chance to make the playoffs. Coach Montgomery expects to have James Griffin, star Wrangler player, back for the playoffs. He has been out for the past two weeks with a bruised knee. Coach Ronnie Hearne expects his Lady Wranglers to be at top speed for the Thursday night finale and next week's playoffs.

Emory Walton Files For Re-Election

EMORY C. WALTON

Emory C. Walton has announced that he is a candidate for re-election as Criminal District Attorney of Eastland County. He is currently serving as Eastland County's Criminal District Attorney. As a full time prosecutor for Eastland County, Walton does not have a private practice of law. He is a member of the State Bar of Texas and the Eastland County Bar Association and has had extensive trial and appellate experience in criminal cases.

A native of Mills County, Walton served in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean War. He is a graduate of North Texas State University and Baylor University Law School. He was formerly employed by a national certified public accounting firm and he came to Eastland in 1968 as an Assistant County Attorney from Abilene where he was the First Assistant City Attorney. He was elected and served as County Attorney of Eastland County from 1969 until the designation of that office was changed by the Legislature in 1971 at which time he was appointed by Governor Preston Smith as the Criminal District Attorney.

Walton and his wife have three children, Mindy who is a senior at McMurray College, Karen who is a sophomore at Eastland High, and David who is in the fifth grade at Siebert Elementary in Eastland. They attend the First Baptist Church in Eastland. Emory is also a member and alternate teacher of the Men's Fellowship Bible Class.

Walton has been active in the community and civic affairs. He has served as president of the Eastland Lions Club, Eastland Civic Theatre, Cross Timbers Shrine Club and the Eastland Girls' Softball Association. He is also a charter member and past president of the Eastland Law Enforcement Officers' Association and a past master of the Eastland Masonic Lodge. He is a former vice-president of the United Fund and a member of the Chamber of Commerce, Quarterback Club and Band Boosters.

At the 1973 Annual Banquet of the Eastland County Law Enforcement Officers' Association, Walton was honored as the county's Outstanding Law Enforcement Officer. As the recipient of the first such award, Walton received a plaque sponsored by the Eastland County Newspapers, Inc.

Walton states that he is grateful for the opportunity to serve in the capacity which he does, and he asks that his sincere appreciation be expressed to all the citizens and public officials of Eastland County for the splendid help and cooperation they have given to him. He says that without such help and cooperation, his job would be exceedingly more difficult. He asks for the continued support and vote of the citizens of Eastland County.

Mobley Open House Attracts Big Crowd

A good crowd turned out Sunday afternoon to inspect the Mobley Hilton Hotel in a special "under construction open house" program. The old hotel is being restored in a project sponsored in part by the Conrad Hilton Foundation.

President Eris Ritchie of the Hilton Park and Community Center, owner of the property, explained the restoration project and plans for the building to a capacity crowd that gathered soon after 2 p.m. inside the structure.

Assisting Mr. Ritchie were President Shirley Hargrave and Manager Don Shepard of the Chamber of Commerce, City Manager Mike Moore and Joe Ann Cermin, Barbara Pope, and Brad Kinbrough of the Hilton center board and others. Mr. Ritchie introduced Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Mobley of Putnam, members of the pioneer Mobley family and Ted Rogers of Cisco, a former resident of the old Mobley Hotel. He said the Mobleys and Mr. Rogers were assisting the board in locating furnishings for the building.

Mr. Ritchie reported that the Chamber of Commerce is making plans to move its offices to the building when the restoration work is finished in April or May. He explained the purpose and plans for each room of the building. He said that City Council meetings will be held there after the building project is finished.

"The building belongs to the people of Cisco," Mr. Ritchie said. "The Hilton Foundation has contributed the sum of 1.2 million dollars to restore the first of the Hilton Hotels. We are proud of the Mobley and are looking forward to having its use for many years to come."

Mr. Ritchie explained plans of the Center board to raise funds that will be a perpetual care source of income for the property. Literature with details of the fund raising program were passed out and contributions were welcomed.

STAND To Hold Organizational Meeting Wednesday February 26

Students of Texas Against Narcotics and Drinking (STAND) is an organization that attempts to provide an alternative to students who do not wish to succumb to negative peer pressure.

The organization was established in Texas when several students attended a nationwide conference in Atlanta, Georgia, last March. Two students from Eastland, John Collins and Karen Sue Walton, attended this conference and have begun to establish a local group here.

STAND attempts to provide activities for students that are chemical-free. The organization hopes that students who are members will have activities to attend where they know they won't be pressured into getting high on any type of chemicals. The group also hopes to serve as a positive role model for younger students, to engage in drug awareness activities for the community and for fellow members, and to do community service projects.

The group also hopes to raise money to send members to state and national conferences to learn more on how to use positive peer pressure to discourage chemical abuse.

Any student interested in becoming a member of STAND is invited to attend an organizational meeting on Wednesday, February 26th, at 7:00 at Camp Inspiration Youth Building.

This meeting is open to any student from Cisco, Eastland, Ranger, Carbon or Gorman.

Sheriff Discusses County Jail Non-Compliances

Part of the Commissioner's Court meeting on Monday, Feb. 24 was concerned with the Texas Commission on Jail Standards latest report on the Eastland County Jail. A State Supervising Inspector visited the jail on Feb. 18, and then issued a report that the facility was not in compliance with minimum jail standards. The Inspector listed nine things in which the jail did not comply. They were, according to the report: "The facility does not provide adequate segregation for the different classifications of inmates. "The intercom system was turned off at the time of inspection. "Each inmate detained over 72 hours is not provided a bunk. "A litter is not provided in the facility. "Light fixtures have been vandalized throughout the facility and inmates control the lighting. "Inmates cannot always be separated as per the facility classification plan. "Some mattresses used in the facility are not serviceable. "A female staff member is not always present when a female is booked and processed into the facility. "Each inmate is not allowed one hour of supervised physical exercise or physical recreation at least three days a week."

Sheriff Underwood said it was a poor system to start with, and the employees had turned it off before the inspection. So this was partly an employee problem.

Inmates do NOT control the lighting in the jail, the Sheriff said. The screws put in to hold up light fixtures were poor ones, and inmates have removed some of them. Arrangements are being made for tamper-proof screws.

"We spent a year drawing up plans for this jail, and it cost nearly a million dollars, and the Jail Commission approved every thing," L.T. Owen, Comm. of Pct. 3 remarked. "Now it looks like they have started changing rules in the middle of the stream."

The Sheriff remarked that inmates ARE allowed the required amount of physical exercise, but some refuse it. You can't force a person to take exercise, he said. So the record-keeping system will be changed to reflect not only how many inmates TAKE exercise, but how many are ASKED.

"Are the Jail Standard policies posted in the jail?" L.T. Owen asked. "Yes," answered Sheriff Underwood. He concluded his report by saying that the jail would probably get another inspection before too long a time.

HER ASSOCIATES out at Cisco Junior College applauded for Carroll Brown, director of the Roof Garden Theater, this week after last Saturday's nice article in the Abilene newspaper. She was referred to as "the un-sinkable Carroll Brown," a take-off on the Molly Brown musical.

It was a real nice feature story and The Press is seeing about reprinting it on an inside page.

This week, by the way, is CJC Week at the Roof Garden Theater. Scheduled for Feb. 24, 25 and 26 were preview performances of "The Servant of Two Masters," a highly regarded play, and on Feb. 27 and 28 and March 1 (Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights) the play will be presented along with dinner.

Call the college (442-2567) for reservations.

OUR SCOUTS report that Mrs. Alice Rogers, director of nursing at E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital for the past 18 months, is resigning at the end of February. Hospital officials are interviewing applications for her replacement... Helen and Vernon Orr of our town were in Denton during the weekend of Feb. 15-16 to attend a missionary oration conference directed by officials of the Southern Baptist Convention. The Orrs were recently given missionary appointments to work in church expansion programs in this region.

THE SCOREBOARD clock went out at CJC Gym last week and they had to call in folks from the visual aids department to keep up with the basketball game scores and the time. They used one of the machines that shows figures on the wall with a man writing the score as points were made and changing the time left to play every minute.

Some of the machinery in the big scoreboard clock shorted out and new parts were ordered.

Scoreboard operators for home games at CJC Gym have been Ed Murphy and Vandell Weathers, volunteers for the job... Mrs. Darlene Hearne, wife of CJC girls coach Ronnie Hearne, keeps the scorebook and handles the PA system for girls game and has been doing this for some years. In fact, the Lady Wranglers have not lost a home game since Mrs. Hearne took over her duties in the early part of the 1984 season... The Wrangler Belles staged a "between the games" show at last week's programs. Mrs. Nicki Harle, Belle director, reports that recruiting is coming along nicely for next year. They've been holding try-outs.

CISCO WAS well represented at the annual banquet of the Rising Star Chamber of Commerce last Thursday night. Some 450 people attended. The program speaker was Mr. Bill Clements, former governor of Texas who is running for

Unsinkable Carroll Brown

'She's strange,' but CJC's glad to have its new theater director

By WILLIAM WHITAKER
Entertainment Editor

CISCO — Carroll Brown has settled into her element.

Indeed, a Cisco Junior College official can barely contain himself when talking about the institution's new theater director.

"Well," he says, when asked to describe Brown, "she's crazy, she's wonderful, she's strange — and we're very fortunate to have her."

Happily, the feeling's mutual. Nearly six months after taking over as CJC director of theater, the confident, spirited Brown seems to have established a healthy rapport with her students and the surrounding Big Country.

"This isn't new to me," she says of the wide-open spaces. Besides teaching school in Temple, serving as director of the San Angelo Civic Theater and studying at Texas Tech before coming here, she grew up in a small farming community in North Dakota.

What's more, she actually enjoyed living in towns such as Temple ("I liked the latitude I had there"), San Angelo ("I lived in San Angelo for six years and loved it") and Lubbock ("There's a lot going on there — it's very current").

Now, she's deep into her first season at CJC, joining students in painting sets and later returning to rehearse them in a production of "The Servant of Two Masters," a zany comic piece from the commedia d'arte period.

The play opens Monday at CJC. Brown has fit in quickly at CJC. True, conditions aren't always perfect at the Laguna Hotel, where the dinner theater production is being mounted. For one thing, a leak left some of the floor soaked. Also, there are wasps in late summer and bitter cold in the winter.

"Yeah," she chuckles, "there are times when I think I'm not sure I can go into that chilly bathroom one more time. I'm not sure I can take one more kamikaze wasp. I'm not sure I can paint one more set with my gloves on."

Just the same, Brown says she's used to working under such conditions. In fact, it presents an appealing challenge for her. Certainly, such things don't bother her greatly. "Maybe, it's just the sentiment of not where you are, but what you're doing," she says. Brown says she understands the drive to work on or around the stage, because she's experienced it continually since childhood. "I've never not wanted to — oops, double negative — well, what I mean is, this wasn't something that just happened to me."

The daughter of a car dealer and a state-employed job counselor, Brown was introduced to the arts early, attending concerts and plays in Minnesota. "I danced and took piano lessons and all the other things you're supposed to do."

teach and I wanted to be an actress," recalls Brown, "and I guess I never really put the two together until quite a bit later."

Marrying a designer she met while working on a theater production in Temple ("one night we did the 'some enchanted evening' number and decided to get married"), she and Tom Brown today have a 10-year-old son.

Boasting a master of fine arts degree from Texas Tech, she says she feels some guilt in seeing so many close theater friends struggle to pursue acting careers in New York. But, she adds, she just doesn't have the "killer instinct" required for it.

Instead, she prides herself with a happy family life and the order it lends her on the job. She also continues to find herself absorbed with her students, including those CJC students acting and building and painting sets for "The Servant of Two Masters." Working with students makes it all worthwhile, she says. As for the other problems — for instance, the occasionally chilly conditions in the hotel during winter months — Brown cheerfully reminds herself why she got into this profession in the first place. "So I just keep my gloves on and keep on painting."

"The Servant of Two Masters" will be staged in "preview" performances Monday through Wednesday and in a dinner theater format Thursday through Saturday. Dinner tickets are $8 each, with the meal being served from 7:45 p.m.

Certain time is 8 p.m. For reservations or further information, call (817) 442-2557 between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays and 442-2556 after hours.

Firemen Answer Six Grassfire Calls

Two junk cars valued at about $300 were destroyed by fire at the Phippen Used Car Lot on Highway 80 west at 2:35 p.m. Sunday, according to a Cisco Volunteer Fire Department report. The blaze started in grass back of the business.

Fireman David Gill reported that firemen answered six alarms to put out grass and trash fires from Saturday through Monday. They went to the 1100 block of East 8th Street at 4 p.m. Friday and to the Honea Welding Shop area on North Hilton at 7 p.m. Friday.

Three calls came in Monday — one for a trash fire at 12th and Ash, another for a trash fire on West 1st Street, and a call from the Missouri-Pacific Railroad for help in putting out a right-of-way fire west of town.

Fire Chief Richard Connell called on Cisco area residents to use extra caution during the current dry and windy conditions to prevent fires. He noted that Cisco has an ordinance prohibiting the burning of trash and debris in the city limits.

Shepard Talks About C of C At Rotary Club Meeting

Manager Don Shepard of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce discussed his organization's program of work for 1986 in a talk at the weekly luncheon of the Cisco Rotary Club last Thursday noon at the Colony Restaurant.

Mr. Shepard said the CofC's efforts for the coming year include to attract new business activity and to provide help for existing industry and business. Special promotions are planned to benefit local trade.

Rotarian Jerry Morgan was the program chairman and introduced the speaker. Guests included the Rev. Harry Garvin, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The club had a 100 per cent attendance of its membership. Dr. Henry McCullough, president, reported.

Rotarian Clois Purvis will serve as program chairman for the February 27th meeting.

Raid Items Will Be Confiscated, Walton Reports

Eastland County will seek to confiscate and keep items seized when Cisco police raided a local home in a drug bust early this month. District Attorney Emory Walton reported Monday. Such items may be seized under a new state law. Mr. Walton added.

Items taken in a raid at the residence of Adrian Roy Swindle and his wife included a 1975 Ford Ranchero, $1,045 in cash, two shotguns and two rifles with no visible serial numbers, Mr. Walton said.

The new state law provides that the state can confiscate property seized in raids if the property is used or intended for use in the sale, manufacture, distribution, delivery or other commercial undertaking involving controlled substances.

Detective Risa Livingston was the seizing officer of the listed items, Mr. Walton said.

Letters to the editor ...

To the Editor:

The Civil Rights Restoration Act now pending in Congress has one simple goal — to restore the full protection of the federal civil rights laws to older persons, the disabled, women and minorities. As we approach the second anniversary of the Supreme Court decision, Grove City College v. Bell, that severely weakened these previously very effective laws, it has become clear that if the House does not pass the restoration bill immediately, there may be no restoration bills at all.

For many years, under Republican and Democratic administrations, the civil rights laws were interpreted as Congress has intended — to prohibit an entire institution receiving any federal funds from discriminating in any of its activities. The Court narrowed this to prohibit discrimination only in the specific programs in which the federal monies are spent. Thus, federal law now allows a college that uses federal monies only for the purchase of gym equipment to refuse to admit women into its science classes.

Federal monies cannot subsidize institutions that discriminate. The bills pending in Congress seek only to restore the original scope of the civil rights laws by having them apply once again to the entire institution receiving any federal money whatsoever. This simple and popular goal (almost half the members of the House and Senate have co-sponsored the current bills) is now threatened by two controversial amendments on abortion and religious beliefs that are unrelated to the purpose of the bill and would substantively change civil rights laws. It is clear that this bill is not the proper place to address such difficult and complex issues, regardless of one's view on those matters. Nonetheless, these amendments now jeopardize the very existence of the restoration bills.

The members of Congress must once again require that recipients of federal funds, in all their activities, respect the civil rights of all persons. After this month, Congress will not have the time or inclination to turn to any issues but the budget and campaigning in this election year. The Civil Rights Restoration Act, unencumbered by amendments that prevent its passage, must be brought to the House floor today.

Very truly yours,
AARP Chapter 2428
Eastland, TX

President

Monday Night Scenes From 'The Servant of Two Masters'

Business Plans Told By Dan Wester At Lions Club Meeting

Members of the Cisco Lions Club enjoyed an entertainment program and heard about Dan Wester's plans for a restaurant at their weekly luncheon meeting last Wednesday noon at the Colony Restaurant. Mr. Wester served as the program chairman.

President Jerry McBeth announced that Ward McCullough of Dallas would present a bag-pipe program at the luncheon Feb. 26th.

A program of old favorites were sung by Mrs. Dan Wester, Mrs. Ivan Webb and Miss Wendy Wester as the entertainment feature. Lion Wester told the club that his restaurant, which is under construction across the street from the Laguna Hotel on Hilton Avenue, will have entertainment of the type rendered by the trio.

Mr. Wester said April 1st is the tentative opening date for the restaurant to open which is being decorated and furnished with an assortment of antiques and materials obtained from old buildings throughout this region. He said that "we plan for the restaurant to be a show-place — a real credit to our fine community."

Mr. Wester told Lions that he has re-read the late Conrad Hilton's book, "Be My Guest," which tells of his life story, and found that the late hotel magnate mentions Cisco 21 times and the Moberly Hotel 26 times in the book.

The Moberly Hilton, which is being restored, will be of considerable benefit to Cisco as a civic and a tourist attraction, Mr. Wester predicted. He invited anyone interested to visit his own restoration project.

Guests at the meeting were Dale Stewart, Cisco western artist and bronze sculpturer, and Jack Lewis, a visiting Lion from Willow Park, Texas.

WACO - Ranger Junior College won three games and took a draw on the time limit in the McLennan Community College Baseball Tournament here Saturday.

The tie, a 3-3 deadlock, came in the first game. Ranger took its second contest 7-0 over Northeast Oklahoma, lost the third 9-7 to Northwood, edged host McLennan 5-4 in the fourth and beat Murray State 6-4 in the final game.

Vinicio Tabar hit an inside-the-park grand slam to lead the win over MCC while Borbon collected 13 strikeouts in winning the second game on a three-hit shutout.

The Rangers also had a split squad game in Ranger in which Bobby Perez hit a grand slam in the bottom of the ninth inning to lead the Ranger 'B' team to an 18-14 win over Paris Junior College.

Ranger, 10-3-1, hosts Paris in a doubleheader Monday.

County-Wide Reappraisal Project Has Been Started

Several weeks ago, it was announced by the Eastland County Appraisal District that a county-wide reappraisal project had been started. The reappraisal or review of all properties within the County is required by the State Property Tax Code.

It will be several months before the review work can be completed. The field work is now underway and is being conducted by the same appraisal firm, Western Appraisal Company, Incorporated. This firm handled the initial reappraisal in 1982.

Once the field work is completed, any reappraisal notices that might be required will be mailed out. This portion of the process will not take place until at least May, 1986.

The field work is expected to be completed in Cisco City by the end of the week. The field men will then move into the Eastland City area; where they will continue their work.

The cooperation of all property owners is appreciated, while this review is underway. If you have any questions concerning the reappraisal, you should contact the Eastland County Appraisal District at 817-629-8597.

Fishing Outdoors

By Terry Wilson

Sixteen pounds 9 ounces has become the new mark that bass anglers in Texas are now shooting for. A Florida strain bass was taken on a crawdad pattern crankbait from the small East Texas impoundment of lake Pinkston, located just outside Center. This tops the past record of fifteen pounds 5 ounces.

With the rapidly warming water temperatures, fishing in area impoundments is improving rapidly. We have spoke with many anglers on Lake Leon, which might disagree though. It seems catches are very scattered, and the main reason we can see for this is that most anglers are shying away from fishing in very, very shallow water. The best stringer we have seen, was four fish which weighed an average of three pounds. These fish were taken on black lizards. By request from this person we can't reveal the exact area. He feels a very large fish will be taken from this area shortly.

Upcoming events: March 22 and 23, Lake Tawakoni, Lone Star Team Tournaments; February 22, U.S. Bass Team Tournament, Lake Palestine; March 1 and 2, U.S. Bass Tournament on Toledo Bend; March 13 and 14 Bass 'n Gals, Sam Rayburn; April 13, Lake Fork, Team Tournament; March 19-21 B.A.S.S. Texas Invitational, Sam Rayburn; April 5, Parker County Sportsmen Club open bass tournament on Possum Kingdom; April 5-12 B.A.S.S. Megabucks tournament at Harris chain of lakes near Leesburg, Fla. Total payback $731,000. April 12th Snyder Bass Club open Bass Tournament, Lake Spence.

FEDERAL FARM BILL MAY BENEFIT WILDLIFE, HUNTERS

AUSTIN--The federal farm bill signed by President Reagan during December can provide many benefits for Texas wildlife, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department said.

Ron George, federal farm program coordinator for the department, said 14 million acres of highly-erodible croplands in Texas are eligible to be removed from production under the Food Security Act of 1985.

"Landowners who choose to participate in this program must take eligible land out of production for 10 years and plant vegetative cover to prevent erosion," said George. "This has tremendous potential for wildlife, especially in the western half of the state."

Farmers will enter the voluntary Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) on a competitive bid basis and will receive annual cash payments. They also will receive 50 percent cost-sharing for planting specified types of plants, George said.

"Harvest of the cover through grazing or mowing will not be permitted, but hunting and leasing the land for hunting will be allowed," George said, adding that farmers are encouraged to consider wildlife needs when entering the program.

"I believe wildlife benefits of the CRP could exceed those of any previous federal farm program, including the famous Soil Bank Program of the 1950s and early 1960s," George said.

George anticipates that much of the acreage will be planted in introduced grasses and legumes and native grasses, which will provide valuable nesting and brood rearing habitat for pheasants, quail, prairie chickens, wild turkeys, rabbits, songbirds and a variety of other species. He said mixtures of grasses and legumes benefit wildlife more than a monoculture of grasses such as coastal Bermuda or buffel grass. Native grasses and legumes generally require less maintenance (including fertilization) than introduced grasses.

Tree plantings will be limited primarily to the eastern third of the state, and involve both pine and hardwood. Deer, squirrels, quail, woodcock and a variety of other forest wildlife will eventually benefit from this practice. "Hardwood plantings provide especially good forest wildlife habitat and many hardwood trees thrive on bottomland soils that are too wet for pines," he said.

The establishment of permanent wildlife habitat, field windbreaks and shallow water areas for wildlife are expected to account for relatively small percentage of the program, but George believes this acreage will be extremely important for wildlife throughout the state.

The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service is handling signups and overall administration of the program, but a number of other federal and state agencies are cooperating, George noted. "Cooperation among these agencies has been outstanding," he said.

The U.S. Soil Conservation Service will determine eligibility of croplands, provide technical assistance on most conservation practices and assist farmers in preparing conservation plans. The Texas Forest Service will assist tree planting, and the Parks and Wildlife Department will provide technical assistance on wildlife questions. The Agricultural Extension Service is handling information and education aspects in preparation for the March 3-14 sign-up period.

George said in order to qualify for the program, land must have been annually cropped during at least two of the last five years to be "highly erodible" under established guidelines. Minimum project size is 10 acres. Payments to individual producers may not exceed $50,000 per year, and no more than 25 percent of the cropland acreage in any county may be enrolled.

Four Pay $10,000 In

Pollution Penalties

AUSTIN - The Railroad Commission on Monday assessed a total of $10,000 in penalties to four Texas oil and gas operators for pollution problems. Each of the companies agreed to the penalties.

Clinton Manges of Freer was assessed a $7,500 fine for allowing discharges of oil and salt water onto the surface at the D.C.R.C. Section 75 lease in Duval County. Commission investigators reported that a surface area of two to three acres was contaminated. The discharges had entered Ygnacio Creek, which is a tributary of the Nueces River. Commission inspectors also found an unpermitted saltwater disposal well on the lease.

Fines assessed other operators this week involved well-plugging violations. Commission rules require operators to reactivate or plug wells that have been inactive for more than 90 days.

Thomas Y. Kidd, Inc. of Fort Worth agreed to a $1,000 penalty for an unplugged well on the Heirholtzer lease in Wilson County.

N.C. Ginther of Houston agreed to a $1,000 penalty for one unplugged well on the I.J. Benavides lease in Brooks County.

T & T Production Co. of Victoria agreed to a $500 penalty for an unplugged well on the Shelton-Askew lease in Harris County.

To date in 1986, the Commission has assessed more than $141,000 in pollution and well-plugging penalties. Last year, the Commission levied more than $1 million in these types of penalties.

THE TIGHT ECONOMY is being felt in many quarters and apparently one of the classic examples of "belt tightening" would appear to be the intern program provided through Cong. Charles Stenholm's office in which outstanding students and teachers from throughout the 17th District are given the opportunity to spend a month during the summer working in the Congressman's office in Washington.

This has been a very popular and beneficial program. Those who have gone in the past have reported unusually educational experiences from the exposure in the busy office.

Consequently, the number of applicants each year is great and the quality of the applicants is high - as well it should be.

However, this year as the complicated selection process is underway, comes word that funds to help underwrite the program are, like many other things, shorter than ever.

So it could be that the selectees may need some help in meeting some of their expenses during their stay in Washington.

Cong. Stenholm called Wednesday afternoon to inquire if such a help-effort would meet with approval in this area. An informal survey indicates, and this was conveyed to the Congressman, that the intern program is such an important learning experience, that no one, including the selectees, should object to helping pay the expenses of being able to participate in the program.

The purpose of the program is to help teach the interns how government works, and what better way to show them that there is "no free lunch." Somebody has to pay - and that one can't always look "up-ward" for financial help. After all the government, as Pogo was wont to say, is us.

So if students and/or teachers are picked from our area, we may be asked to help fund their trip and expenses.

The Congressman was told that the sun was shining bright and the work load was heavy here when he called Wednesday afternoon. He said that it was raining cats and dogs in D.C. and the work load was heavy.

He described the week in the capital as one of little action though as the leadership apparently were taking a wait and see attitude, but that he guessed it'd pick up soon as the wrestle with the budget begins.

Is the President's budget dead?

Dead in his own party before it ever got here. We're going to have one for him which we hope he'll accept, and the cuts are going to be drastic.

Defense too?

Defense too, "Probably more than Charley would personally wish," and certainly no increases as asked by the President.

What about the NASA mess?

Tragic and apparently the result of tremendous pressure (military and otherwise) to "get the bird off the ground to excelerate the program," and now we're down and probably will remain down for some time. Once the blame is placed and the lumps taken, guess the thing to do is to get on with the program again.

ANOTHER VISITOR this week was Dr. William O. Beazley, reporting that his "Horses I've Known" is now in its second printing and his new book, "And Thereby Hangs a Tale," will be out soon...He's just back from Nice France with the H.S.U!

Cowboy Band where they were the hit of the international carnival at the resort, and won much admiration for their marching, playing and singing, which included "Amazing Grace" and the French especially liked that...Dr. Beazley would be excellent service club program material anytime, anywhere.

THERE'S STILL time to register for the May Primaries.

Aquaculture Faces Bright Future

COLLEGE STATION--While many industries seem to be facing a bleak future, everything seems to be "positive" for the aquaculture industry.

Aquaculture, the cultivation of water products such as fish and shellfish, is still in its infancy but appears to have a bright future, said Dr. Wallace Klussmann, speaking at the recent 18th annual Texas Fish Farming Conference at Texas A&M University.

Klussmann, formerly head of A&M's Department of Wildlife and Fisheries and currently on a joint assignment with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, pointed out that from both a U.S. and world perspective, aquaculture should increase sharply over the next 15 to 25 years.

"Fish consumption in the U.S. should increase to about 47 pounds per person by the year 2000 and to about 55 pounds by 2010," he said, citing figures from studies conducted in 1983. "This compares to current per capita consumption of about 33 pounds.

"By 2010, world aquaculture production should increase some 150 percent from the current level while U.S. production should take a quantum leap of some 400 percent," Klussmann added. "Crawfish and catfish production in the U.S. will lead the way, with crawfish production expected to increase by some 800 percent."

Worldwide, Klussmann noted that the production of crustaceans should increase more than 1100 percent. Much of this increase will be in the production of shrimp and crawfish.

A new cultured species, red drum, commonly called redfish, will also appear in the marketplace, Klussmann said. Recent investments through the Texas Advanced Technology Research Program (TARF) in redfish research at the University of Texas and Texas A&M University should provide the basis for a greater understanding of the nutritional and environmental requirements of this species. Redfish has much potential as a farm-produced fish in Texas, Klussmann added.

An introduced species, talapia, is adaptable to a wide variety of production systems and environmental conditions, he pointed out. Talapia can be used to produce high quality protein in great quantities using low cost feedstuffs.

"The consuming public appears to be turning more and more to fish products for many reasons, and this apparent long-term trend will have a major impact on the aquaculture industry in years ahead," Klussmann said.

The annual Texas Fish Farming Conference was hosted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. This year's conference featured special workshops on catfish and redfish production, handling and processing of aquaculture products, groundwater in aquaculture, assessing pond conditions, pest control in aquaculture, fertilization programs, stocking recommendations for pond owners, critter identification, market alternatives and advertising.

Spotlights & Sidelights

By Julia Worthy

KINDERGARTEN
The time allotted to the kindergarten day is decided by the school boards of each district in Texas.

Space to put another age-level of education was the problem that was responsible originally for the half-day solution. Half-day sessions were considered by many as a stop-gap measure at best—a condition to be corrected as soon as possible.

Thanks to the local building program, Eastland will have space for a full-day kindergarten for the 86-87 school term.

Some parents are opposed to this for various reasons. The one that seems to get the most attention is the length of the day, though the kindergarten "full" day is shorter than that of the other grades.

The present sessions here are from eight until eleven in the morning and twelve until three in the afternoon. That's three hours in which to do work ordinarily scheduled for a six or six and a half hour day.

How would you like your eight hour work day compressed into four hours? You are expected to accomplish the same amount of work, remember. Do you think you might get a little testy, a little resentful about it?

What do you think a five-year-old is going to feel about such a situation? At five s/he is not exactly expert at rationalization.

The state says X-amount of material must be covered each school year. Curriculum guides are meant to be followed whether three hours or six are available.

Teachers operate under more pressure in such a situation, and the children pick up on the pressure.

The child's attitude toward school forms early, and it doesn't change easily. Kindergarten should be a happy prelude for the rest of a youngster's school life.

When there is time, teachers can extend learning experiences to the maximum the child can handle.

With time, there are rest periods.

With time, there are stories for teachers to read aloud.

With time, there are songs to sing.

With time, a child gets the full measure of the teacher's attention. In half-days, his counterparts is entitled to just as much time as he is: half of it.

Is it realistic to believe that any human teacher, regardless of mental ability and physical stamina, can do the same justice to 100 students as s/he can to 50?

No doubt, robots could. Are five-year-olds ready for robots?

The foregoing is predicted upon the assumption that you want your five-year-old in school at all.

Compulsory education is not compelled until the age of seven in Texas. There is a gray area here which is not clear whether your seven-year-old would have to begin in kindergarten...maybe a competency test would be in order!

However, if your five-year-old is not ready, mentally and physically, don't send him to kindergarten for either a half or a whole day. Once your child is enrolled, he will have to meet attendance requirements.

There have been, and will continue to be, reams written on early vs. late school starters. As long as children continue to be individuals, the topic will continue to be current.

The deciding factor in when to begin the youngster's formal education should be the child's personality, not the parent's ego.

If you are parents who have time to give your children the equivalent of kindergarten learning (alphabet, counting, films, music, group games, etc.), do give serious thought to "home training." There are many good things about it.

Eastland parents who have children who will be kindergarten age for the 86-87 school term should let the local trustees know what they prefer, but be sure you are informed on all options.

It is later than you think.

Bullock Reports Bingo Contributions

To Charities Doubled In of 1985

AUSTIN — State Comptroller Bob Bullock today said bingo contributions to charities doubled in the last three months of 1985 in the wake of a new rule issued last year setting a floor on charitable donations by licensed bingo operations.

Bullock said charitable organizations received $10,135,725 in the last three months of 1985 as bingo operators met or exceeded the comptroller's new requirements that at least 35 percent of gross receipts go to charity.

Bullock issued the 35 percent rule after the Legislature failed to adopt bingo reform legislation last year.

"One reason the Legislature legalized bingo in Texas was to benefit charities," Bullock said. "I'm going to see that this happens."

Bullock said the amount contributed in the last three months of 1985 was 54 percent of bingo operator's receipts, an impressive increase over the 27.4 percent donated the same period in 1984.

Bullock said that as few as 50 out of approximately 1,500 licensed organizations aren't abiding by the rule or are failing to comply with all provisions of the bingo statute.

"We're giving these people an opportunity to voluntarily surrender their license. If they don't, we'll just take it off the wall," Bullock said. "Everybody plays by the same rules or they don't play."

Final Deadline For Texas Silver Haired Legislature Is February 28

The final deadline for filing for candidacy for the first Texas Silver Haired Legislature is February 28, 1986. Interested individuals must submit a candidacy form (may pick up at West Central Texas Council of Governments Aging Department), petition with 25 signatures, and $5.00 filing fee to the offices of WCTCOG by that date.

The Silver Haired Legislature will be composed of citizens 60 years of age or over who are registered voters. The West Central Texas region, which covers 19 counties, will be represented by four candidates elected by those 60 years of age and over. A preliminary training session for the elected representatives will be held in Austin at the University of Texas, July 27-30, 1986. The legislative session will meet in Austin, September 29 through October 1, 1986, to discuss matters of concern for the growing number of older Texans. Its recommendations will then be passed on to the Texas Legislature for consideration when it convenes in January of 1987.

For more information about the Silver Haired Legislature, contact Elaine Allred at West Central Texas Council of Governments, 1025 E.N. 10th Street, Abilene, Texas, 915-672-8544 or call the Texas Department on Aging, 1-800-252-9240.

Public Hearing Friday, 9-12

A public hearing to take testimony regarding regional alcohol and other drug abuse needs will be held Friday, February 28, 1986, from 9:00 a.m. — 12:00 p.m. at the West Central Texas Council of Governments Administrative Offices, 1025 E.N. 10th in Abilene.

Written testimony may also be submitted. It must be received in the WCTCOG offices by February 28, 1986.

A number of Ranger fans drove to Crowley to see the game and support their team. The win was the 13 in a row for the District 11-AA champions, and ran their season record to 24-3. The Bulldogs are expected to have an excellent chance to win the Area Playoffs.

The annual blood drive at Ranger General Hospital will be March 14 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Carter Blood Bank will be in charge. Everyone is invited to take part in the blood drive, for the availability of blood is a critical part of hospital care.

Glady Eakin of Ranger is the Junior 4-H Leader of the Week. She is a member of the Ranger Trail Blazers Club, and active in Clothing, Recreation, Foods and Leadership projects. Ranger Fire Chief Darrell Fox would like to send a urgent request to the public: Do not follow the fire trucks and emergency vehicles. When you follow any type of emergency vehicle you are hindering the emergency personnel from doing their job. You are also endangering your life and the lives of others. There is also a state law against following an emergency vehicle.

EASTLAND

Lewis Tiner will serve as Interim City Manager of Eastland until a replacement is named by the city. Tiner fills the position vacated by Roy Underwood, who resigned on Feb. 20. Lewis Tiner served as Eastland City Manager from 1946 to 1983, during which time all city indebtedness was cleared and a number of improvements made to the town. Roy Underwood was hired as City Manager in 1984, following the retirement of then City Manager Tip Arthur.

There will be a Reception honoring Faith Ballard, County Agricultural Agent, in the Eastland National Bank Community Room on Friday, Feb. 28 from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. Miss Ballard is leaving Eastland County to be stationed in San Angelo as a District Agent. She has been an outstanding 4-H Leader in Eastland County, with the Clubs showing a lot of growth and activity during her term here. The 4-H Adult Leaders Association is sponsoring her Reception, and the public is invited.

The Eastland County American Cancer Society announces that Loretta White will serve as County Chairman, and Lyllia Sue Mehaffey as Co-Chairman. All the towns and some of the communities in the County will have local Chairmen, and will all be working together on common goals. One of these goals is to raise contributions of $15,000, which will be distributed into various areas of need. A special Eastland County Crusade will be held the week of April 5 through April 12.

CISCO

Several hundred people turned out for the "Open House" at the Hilton Park and Community Center on Sunday, Feb. 23. All seemed delighted with the work in progress. Hosts for the event were Hilton Board Members Dick Wooley, Bobby Smith, Jo Ann Cermin, Barbara Pope, Michael Moore, Brad Kimbrough and Mayor Eris Ritchie. Visitors toured both the upstairs and downstairs, noting how the various rooms are being finished. The project is now over 50 percent complete.

There will be no contested races in the election of a Mayor and two councilmen for the City of Cisco on April 5. The Official Ballot will list Joe Wheatley as the only candidate for Mayor and Alen Masters and Arlie K. Whitley as candidates for Places 1 and Places 2 in the Cisco City Council. Mr. Wheatley is the owner and manager of Cisco Lumber and Supply Co., Mr. Masters is a Vice President of the First National Bank, and Mr. Whitley is in the oil business. Mayor Eris Ritchie announced some months ago that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

The Cisco Civic League has given the City of Cisco $800 to build wheelchair ramps on the corners of 7th St. and Conrad Hilton Ave. The city hired Bill Rucker of Rising Star and Ollie Moran of Cisco to do the work, and they are presently constructing them. City Manager Mike Moore says he is very pleased with the Civic League, and that more ramps will be built in the future at other corners.

A series of special seminars has begun at First Baptist Church for the benefit of teenagers, according to Rev. Harry Garvin. The meetings will cover such topics as dating and others of special interest to young people. The youth gatherings take place at 7 p.m. on Wednesday and 6 p.m. on Sundays. Video tapes are shown, followed by discussion. All young people from the area are invited to attend the seminars. They are very interesting.

GORMAN

The members of the Students of Texas Against Narcotics and Drinking (STAND) in Gorman have placed cans in the various businesses in town in an effort to raise money to send Gorman students to a Drug Prevention Conference in Georgetown in July, 1986. The members of STAND will be participating in other types of fund-raising projects during the spring, and they need your help to fight the war on drugs and alcohol. Contributions will be deposited in Olney Savings in DeLeon. Contributions may also be sent directly to the STAND Account, Olney Savings Inc. Box 36, DeLeon, Texas, 76444.

RISING STAR

A large crowd attended the annual Awards Banquet held Feb. 20 in the school gymnasium. They enjoyed a menu consisting of sirloin steak, baked potato, salad and dessert prepared by the Senior Class of the school, assisted by parents and sponsor. Miss Rising Star was crowned and a number of awards were given for community achievements. For Governor Bill Clements, a candidate for the same office, was the featured speaker, and he outlined the program he would follow if elected. "No new taxes" was one of the main themes, with assurances of careful financial management.

Singles Corner

Where do I go from here?

This is a question of direction. If one were to be taking a trip and looked at a road map or asked questions of direction, he would get the most direct route. That route looks good on the map from directions, but neither will tell of the detours or reroutes. These some time are unpleasant or even painful.

A goal of direction in a new life, (beginning again) does have painful or unpleasant side trips or detours. They sometimes seem to much to handle. It's easier to stay put and not change. That's not really possible. Change has already taken place. The idea now is to take that change and use it to your advantage.

As you take a look at your past life, change that has come about was gradual and or natural. Going from home with mom and dad to marriage was safe. But going from marriage to a single life feels unsafe or insecure. You feel left out on the side of the road, with the rest of the world passing you by. Well, that's not so, except if you let it be. Get on that road all by yourself. Set your direction, get going. If a detour comes along, it'll be bumpy unpleasant and whatever else, but it can be a growing experience. From a change of address to a change of vocation.

Seek help from others, they some time can point you in the right direction. Ask God for guidance, He is always there and will listen and help. Just let go and let God have His way in your life.

Becoming suddenly single is not a road most of us want to take, but you have to take the journey. Make it a journey of learning and expanding your horizons. Again remember one is a whole number.

'Understanding Cocaine' March 12, In Abilene

The West Central Texas Council of Governments will sponsor a seminar entitled, "Understanding Cocaine," on March 12, 1986, at Embassy Suites, 4250 Ridgmont Drive in Abilene.

The program will focus on pharmacology, early detection of cocaine use, symptoms of addiction, and treatment options. Cocaine traffic in the region will also be discussed.

The seminar is open to the general public. Registration fee is $15.00 which includes materials and lunch. Participants must pre-register by March 10, 1986.

Lady Wranglers Beat Grayson To Win Title

An 86-to-57 victory over Grayson JC here last Saturday night enabled the Lady Wranglers of Cisco Junior College to win the championship of the northern zone of the Texas JC Athletic Conference basketball race.

Two games remained on the schedule and both were to be played this week to conclude the regular season. The Lady Wranglers were to play Grayson in Sherman Monday night and Ranger JC in Ranger Thursday night. Both games were part of the twinbills with men's teams and the Lady Wranglers were due to play at 6 p.m. and the men at 8 p.m.

Valerie Burnett scored 38 points to lead the Lady Wranglers to the win over Grayson. A sophomore post from Azle, Barnett shot 18-of-24 from the field and added two free throws. Good passes on fast breaks enable Barnett to make many of her points.

The Lady Wranglers had a 10-point lead at half-time. They broke up a Grayson press effort in the second half. Cara Cranford and Barnett each had eight rebounds, and Karen Dawson had seven assists.

Coach Ronnie Hearne's team were 8-0 in conference and 20-4 for the year in winning their second successive title. The victory in the last game of the season at home enabled the Lady Wranglers to keep their home record spotless for two seasons.

Monday Night Game Is Won By CJC Ladies

The Lady Wranglers ran up against stronger competition but were able to score a 53-to-43 victory over Grayson County JC in a conference basketball game at Sherman Monday night.

Valerie Barnett, who scored 38 points when the two teams played in Cisco last Saturday night, was held to eight points when Grayson put two guards on her most of the Monday night game. Jeannia Nix was the game's top point maker with 17, and Cara Cranford had 11 points.

The Cisco team had only a three point lead at half-time. Coach Ronnie Hearne reported that his team didn't seem ready to play and that Grayson was playing better than in previous meetings between the two teams.

FAITH BALLARD

Reception To Honor Faith Ballard Friday

A reception honoring Faith Ballard of the Eastland County Extension Office, will be held Friday, February 28 from 4 until 6 p.m. at the Eastland National Bank Community Room. The reception will be hosted by the Eastland County 4-H Adult Leaders Association.

Miss Ballard has been with the County Extension Office in Eastland since October 1983. She has been actively involved with the 4-H of Eastland County and is truly responsible for increasing the 4-H enrollment from 212 in 1983 to 322 in February, 1986. She will be leaving Eastland and Eastland County for job placement at the District 7 Research Station in San Angelo. Faith will work with the 4-H and Home Economics in Callahan, Irion, Mason and Sterling counties.

The 4-H Youth Leadership has come along way in Eastland County since the arrival of Faith B. Ballard. Many goals and dreams have been reached, but there are still many to come. Faith has stood by the youth of this county and guided their activities to top ratings in leadership activities.

In May of 1985 Faith was nominated for the "Rookie of the Year" award with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. She has been a member of the District 8 4-H Agents and Association and was elected to district reporter for the Texas 4-H Pipeline 1984.

She attended the 1984 national meeting in Chicago and assisted in the promotion of the 1985 meeting. She is a member of the Texas Association of Extension Home Economist. She has also been a member of the Texas Home Economics for 7 years. She has been actively involved in many other committees for the T.A.E.S.

Faith also served with the Eastland County Fair Association and helped organize the first ever 4-H Petting Zoo, during the County Fair.

In July 1985, Faith applied for the "Golden Clover Award" from the Texas Association of Extension 4-H Agents. One of the questions asked on the application was, "What has been your most rewarding experience in 4-H work?" Faith replied, "Being advisor to the Jr. Leaders Association and Adult Leaders has been a joyful experience. I've watched them grow and develop into strong organizations.

After short guidance they have progress into self-sustaining units. Youths have taken hold and grown into fine leaders, able to make decisions on their own. One young lady achieved a goal this year (becoming a state 4-H council member) a goal that was only a dream away. It fills me with such pride to see her elected, and knowing I had a small part in her success. If I can only keep 4-H'ers reaching for the stars and dreaming, I've accomplished a major step on the ladder to their success!"

The entire county is saddened to be losing Faith B. Ballard, especially the youth of the county. They feel that they are not only losing an advisor but a very dear friend. Faith stated she hoped that she could keep 4-H'ers reaching for the stars and dreaming and she will. Many will reach for the same stars that she reached for and will dream of becoming someone just like Faith B. Ballard. A star reaching for the stars...

Texas weather has done it again, broken all records Tuesday and Wednesday. Can you imagine 100 plus at McAllen? Today (Friday) is back to normal freezing this a.m. Just maybe, the fruit trees will not be killed. The rains two weeks ago have caused the grass and weeds to get green and the grain fields are so pretty. Lets keep our fingers crossed for more rain soon. Speaking of the warm weather last Sunday we drove over in the pastures and believe it or not the cows were standing in the water, to get away from the heat flies in Feb.!

We are thankful that there is no serious illness in our community. Mr. Hulén Smith is still at Dallas but is doing very well.

Ruby Weathermon is having tooth trouble and making trips to the dentist.

We are happy to welcome the Danny Weeks family to Putnam. Danny bought his grandparents, the George Weeks' house. He is planning to move a trailer house on vacant lots west of the house, and eventually use the house as a warehouse for supplies for business he plans to operate. The Weeks come from Dallas and Venezuela.

Mrs. Marie Lewis celebrated a birthday last week. Her daughter's family, the Alton Whites from Kilgore, her son, Buddie Maxwell and Ruth of Abilene and her brother, Dub Fisher and Irene from Baird helped her celebrate.

Maxie Solomon went to Cisco one day this week and met with her granddaughter, Sherri Holman from Mansfield.

Mrs. Ollie Burnam and Jo Ann Collinsworth went to Clyde last Sunday for dinner. They also visited at the rest home at Baird. Also visiting Ollie this week have been the James Isenhower family of Coleman.

Dianna Heidelberg of Lake Breckenridge and Retha and Bill Brown of Weatherford. Visiting the Milton Donaways last weekend were their sons, L.C. of Albany, Doris Lee and family of Canyon and Warren and family of Brownwood.

Hubert Harris of Waco was visiting in Putnam one day this week. Hubert lived in Putnam and was in the class of '62 at the high school, along with Hubert Donaway.

Visiting Mrs. R.B. Taylor over the weekend were Dr. Randy Kunze, Sylvia and Derick, Stephanie and Dustin of Fort Worth, Bill and Dorothy Taylor of Weatherford and Homer Taylor of Sweetwater.

Mrs. Taylor visited the I.G. Mobleys Monday evening and also visited Mrs. Naomie Heyser and Mrs. Bonnie Farmer and little Zack Green, along with his parents, the Daryl Greens and sister, Ashley.

The quilters met at the Community Center on Tuesday. Mrs. Merle Guyger of Cisco is one of the quilters. She lived at Putnam for many years and was a teacher at Putnam school, Merle Reed.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
 The children of Mrs. Eldridge (Rutherford) Kennedy of Clyde honored her on her 80th birthday with a reception at the Putnam Community Center. There were three sons and one daughter present. They were Kenneth of Marble Falls, Delmus of Abilene, Dale of Trent, Mary Boyd of Clyde. Also three sisters and one brother helped her celebrate. About 50 other relatives and friends attended. DWI ARREST
 Gary Johnson of Cisco was charged with driving while intoxicated after his arrest at 1:25 a.m. Sunday in the 700 block of Hilton Avenue, according to a Cisco Police Department report. Moran National Bank Elects Board Of Directors

Two new directors and 12 advisory directors were recently elected to the Board of Directors of the Moran National Bank in Moran, according to Mike Parsons, bank president.

Elected as directors of the bank were Dr. James B. Montgomery and Mike Jones. The two new members of the board will be joining Board Chairman Ross Montgomery and Parsons as new directors.

Named as advisory directors of the bank were Randy Hudson, Jamey Collinworth, Brad McCollum, Sam Snyder, Morris D. Snyder Jr., Steve Waller, Robert Montgomery, Mike Alexander, Ronnie Nail, Don Tidwell, Craig Pruet and Bob Tidwell.

The following officers of the bank were also named: Mike Parsons, president; Mike Jones, executive vice president; Maurine McCollum, vice president; Gwen Taggart, cashier; Brad McCollum, bank officer; Steve Waller, loan officer; and Jana Kitchens, assistant cashier.

"We are pleased and excited by the addition of our new directors and stockholders," said Parsons. "This places over 98 percent of the common stock of the parent company of Moran National firmly in the hands of Shackelford County residents. I guess it is safe to say we are fully home-owned and home-operated by people of Shackelford County."

Parsons explained that a large block of Moran National Bancshares, Inc., common stock was recently sold to the current directors by former directors Phillip Harrison of Eastland, Bill Harrison of Cisco, Mike McCormick of Gorman, and Jerry Warren of Gorman.

Moran National Bancshares, Inc., is the parent holding company of the Moran National Bank.

Parsons stated that he was pleased that much of the stock that came available through the sale was purchased by Moran National Bank employees.

"It is very gratifying to know that our employees are supportive of the bank and its future," said the president. "When the stock became available, several of the employees of the bank got together and purchased over one-third of the stock being offered."

"From a manager's standpoint, I believe you cannot achieve any greater efficiency in an organization than having your employees own a part of the company."

Board Chairman Ross Montgomery commented that he felt that Moran National "now has one of the most well balanced board of any bank in the area." Montgomery said that each of the new directors will lend expertise in the areas economics, investments, energy, agriculture and the banking industry itself.

"We are quite proud that each of the new directors accepted a post on the board of directors."

Parsons stated that banking has entered into a new era, and coupled with the recent downturn of the economic condition of the area, banks and bankers must now have diversified and knowledgeable directors and managers.

"Community banks such as Moran National must continue to serve the needs of their communities," said Parsons. "With the addition of these new directors and advisory directors we feel we have the best of both worlds. The background, knowledge and experience of each of these people should enable the bank to adjust to changes in the banking industry and continue to grow and prosper."

"In addition, since these new directors are the friends and neighbors of our customers, they will provide effective guidance in meeting the needs and services of our community."

Dr. James B. Montgomery, one of the new directors, lives in Dallas but has strong ties to the Moran area. He is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Elliott, longtime Shackelford County residents. He is also the brother of Ross Montgomery, the bank's board chairman.

Dr. Montgomery is an orthopedic specialist who heads the orthopedic residency program at Southwest Medical School in Dallas, a part of the University of Texas School of Medicine.

Montgomery and his wife Nancy have two children. He is a graduate of Texas Christian University and the Southwest Medical School, and has served as the sports surgeon for various U.S. Olympic teams.

Mike Jones, currently the executive vice president of the bank, joined Moran National in 1985. He was formerly president of Home State Bank in Trent and has 11 years of experience in the banking industry. Jones and his wife Kay, have two children and recently purchased a home in Moran.

Jones is a native Anson, Texas, and attended Texas Tech University. He is also a graduate of the Texas Tech School of Banking and the East Texas State University school of banking operations.

The 12 advisory directors also bring a wide and varied background of experience to the bank.

Jamey Collinworth is vice president at Moran National. He is a graduate of Albany High School and Texas A&M University with an ag finance degree. He is married to the former Charlotte Perryman of Baird.

Randy Hudson of Moran is an independent oil operator and a graduate of Moran High School, Cisco Junior College and Texas Tech University. He and his wife Amy have three children.

Robert D. Montgomery recently moved to Moran to join his brother Ross in the operation of Montgomery Brothers Ranch. He is a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin with a general business degree.

Ronnie Nail is a life-long resident of Albany, having attended Albany schools, and later Cheshire Academy in Connecticut, the University of Texas and McMurry College. Ronnie and his wife Diana have three children. Nail is involved in ranching, investments and aviation, having been recently appointed as the airport manager for the new Albany Municipal Airport.

Craig Pruet is an independent oil operator from Baird. He is married to the former Becky Fox of Albany, and the couple has three children. Pruet attended Texas Tech University as an agriculture economics major.

Brothers Don and Bob Tidwell are both Albany natives and independent oil producers. Don attended McMurry College and Texas A&M University. He and his wife Margie have two sons.

Bob Tidwell is a graduate of Southwest Texas State with a degree in business administration. He and his wife Pam have three children.

Steve Waller is a graduate of Albany High School and Texas Tech University. He is currently serving as a loan officer for Moran National and he and his wife Susan and their son recently moved to Moran.

Morris D. Snyder Jr. and his wife Cynthia are Moran residents. Snyder is a farmer and rancher and graduated from Moran High School in 1971. He also attended New Mexico Military Institute and Texas Tech University.

Brad McCollum is an officer at Moran National and is a stock farmer. He is a graduate of Tarleton State University with a degree in animal science.

Mike Alexander is a graduate of Cooper High School in Abilene, where he and his wife Suzanne still live. He holds a degree in finance from the University of Texas and is manager of JMA Cattle Company of Abilene. He and his family have ranching interests in Shackelford, Jones, Taylor and King Counties.

Parsons concluded by saying that he again wanted to thank all of the new directors for their support of the bank.

"We would also like to wish the former directors of the bank the best of luck in the future, and thank them for their service over the past three years."

WORD OF GOD

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble: I will deliver him, and honor him.

With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation. Psalm 91:14-16

The Cisco Press

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR,

As I walked from the Taylor County Court-at-Law I recalled a line from Dickens' "Oliver Twist". When the King's Officer informed the Parochial Beadle that the law held that he was the head of the house and therefore responsible for the misdeeds of his wife, the Beadle replied that in that case, "The law must either be a bachelor or stupid."

Eighteen years ago a young man of my acquaintance married a much older woman who totally dominated his life. She kept dogs in the house and ignored his objections that their baby girl played in the stry dogs or cats injured by cars but neglected medical treatment for their daughter and the four children by previous connections. She left doctor bills unpaid.

School officials often threatened him because the children were not regular in school. This though he left for work about 1 a.m. and ended his shift around noon. The mother-in-law lived with them and the father-in-law eventually died in a veterans mental hospital. He saw his wages go for such things as feed for more than 20 dogs at times. More went when the stepon ran afoul of the law and was committed to Rusk and Big Springs mental hospitals where he now is.

One step daughter married and brought her husband and children to live with them. The son-in-law "helped out" one night by killing a deer out of season and throwing the trimmings into the alley. A neighbor reported it and the man of this story was arrested at work though he didn't even know the deer had been put in his freezer. The J.P. fined him $225. "because it was found on his premises".

After two more husbands and four children, he ordered the younger couple out on their own but soon another stepdaughter brought in a young man and began presenting him with more mouths to feed.

Meanwhile the mother-in-law, sick and old, was released from Eastland hospital with the advice that she put in a nursing home. However, the young man bowing to his wife's wishes, kept the old woman for a few more years. When his wife took his pay and left without notice for days, weeks or months at a time, he cared for the children and lifted the mother-in-law in and out of bed, clean her, etc. When she died a stepdaughter cursed him for refusing the high priced funeral a Sherman high pressure mortician sold her on.

Before her death the mother-in-law bought his daughter a horse though he insisted that they had neither pasture nor feed money. Then his wife bought another horse with money from her fathers estate. After the Taylor-Jones Co. Humane society complained about the horse's being underfed he tried to get someone to buy them. His wife got very nasty with any who came and insisted (rightly so) that the horses were not his.

When his daughter quit school and married he decided to separate. His wife had left supposedly to go to the laundry but as many times before went to Nashville where she ran up what was for an hourly employee a fantastic phone bill but never talking to him. He had no money for renting nor lawyers fee but moved to his sisters house. His stepdaughter and her children living in his mobile home were sent money by his wife supposedly to feed the animals but did not. Instead, she left him a note saying she would be gone with her boyfriend. At least she had taken her four kids with her. As he gathered a few of this things, the sheriff's officers arrived and arrested him for cruelty to animals. The horses were impounded.

He explained to the J.P. that he tried to water the horses before going to work but like any animals tied, they upset their water containers. He hated to tie them but they would break out, plague the neighbors and become a hazard on the highway.

Meanwhile the wife came into J.P. court and informed the Justice that the horses indeed were hers. Though they were underweight to the point of starvation she claimed it was his fault for not caring for them the last four days. Heeding her plea that she would properly provide for her horses, the J.P. ordered the horses continue in the care of the veterinarian for three more weeks and then be turned over to her. He told the man he could go.

Incredibly, the man was reading the paper when he saw that a warrant had been sworn out for his arrest by the Humane society. He contacted the sheriff and was informed that he must post bail or be jailed awaiting trial. His parents provided the bail money but nevertheless he had to suffer the embarrassment of being booked and spending hours waiting for the papers to be processed.

At his trial the judge heard the J.P. state that he had turned the horses over to their owner and heard one witness testify as to the estranged wife's unequivocal claim that the man had no say as to the horses. None-the-less, Judge John Saringer found the man "Guilty as charged", fined him $200. plus costs and stated that he considered that the man was "Trying to shift responsibility to his wife."

Whether "His Honor" is prejudiced as some are in favor of women or just considers his court a means of extracting cash from any available working stiff one can only wonder. Obviously, if he believes in woman's lib he does not consider that any responsibilities attach there-to.

Though defense is expensive, one must fight an unjust charge. Often attorneys fees exceed the probably fine. As the law functions in Taylor County they prefer never to investigate the situation surrounding a charge, indeed, the little evidence one is able to present in court is ignored. Another less learned at great cost is that it is unwise ever to let one's attorney talk him into letting a "fair" judge decide a case without a jury. Obviously a number of citizens are not all likely to have a judge's unsuspected prejudices.

The case has been appealed but the question in my mind is whether one goes with Dickens Beadle that "The law must be a bachelor or stupid" or simply that Judge John Saringer has proven himself to be? For equal justice under the law, the Republican nomination. Ciscoans present included Mr. and Mrs. Doug Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Sutton Crofts, Mr. and Mrs. Jammie Fry, Dr. and Mrs. Allen McGinness, Ruth Pugliese and Paul Brashear.

Our scouts report that there are many, many out-of-town people who attended to hear Mr. Clements. And the ex-governor made a fine talk, we were informed.

CofC MANAGER Don Shepard attended a meeting devoted to studying economic development activities for this West Central Texas region at Abilene last Thursday night. Mr. Shepard plans to spend a week or two soon on trips to points in the D-FW area and elsewhere to study economic matters and explore possibilities for things of local interest... See by the papers that Ed Baird of Abilene, formerly of Cisco, was honored last week as one of the top 75 producers for his insurance company. The 75 agents were flown to Seattle where they and their wives were entertained for several days. The Bairds, by the way, still have their home in Cisco and spend weekends here occasionally.

LET'S KEEP it quiet so as not to cause any embarrassment. It's nobody's business that Supervisor Frank Young of the city street department forgot about last Saturday being Saturday. Otherwise, he wouldn't have got out of bed early, shaved and slicked down his hair and went to work. He checked in a few minutes before 8 a.m. as usual and after a time he wondered why nobody showed up - until he happened to look at a calendar and noticed that it was Saturday.

CHAIRMAN Arlie Whitley and his Cisco Country Club golf committee planned to meet Tuesday night to make plans for the 1986 tournament program at the CCC. Announcement will be made about the program in the very near future.

The committee includes Bennie Nichols, Vandell Weathers, Steve Thomas and maybe some others.

The golf greens at the CCC are real nice for this time of the year. Mr. Ed Wende has been looking after the golf course since the resignation of Bob Bennie and until the new man takes over March 1.

'Servant Of Two Masters' Delightful

By Duke Dixon

Opening night at the CJC Laguna Dinner theatre was a treat. From the beginning, which was an introduction of cast and the parts they were to play, until the last laugh, I was thoroughly entertained.

Mass confusion began at first and stayed that way throughout the entire play. Even the program was in step with the confusion, indicating an intermission between acts to help the confused. Didn't help though. The players were delightful. One does have to pay close attention to catch all the one liners.

If you wish to be just plain entertained and want to spend a delightful evening then don't miss "A Servant of Two Masters."

Reservations can be made by calling 442-2567 between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. or 442-2589 after hours.

Jubilee Parade Selects Theme

"Happy Birthday, Texas" has been selected as the theme for the 1986 Cisco Frontier Jubilee Parade.

Organizations, groups, individuals - everyone - is invited to take part in celebrating Texas' 150th birthday. Divisions include floats, automobiles, bands, marching, and performing groups, riding clubs, a children's division and more.

For more information or to enter, contact Emma Watts at Cisco Junior College, (817) 442-2587, extension 112.

Garden Theater have been "upped" a bit this year. This has been due to the fact that the 1985 Texas Legislature placed a tax on school events.

You've probably noticed the hike in taxes on auto license plates. They've just about doubled.

THREE CISCO members of Beta Upsilon Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, the teachers' sorority, attended a statewide meeting in Fort Worth last Saturday, and Mrs. Stanley J. Pirtle of Cisco was among honorees as a former chapter president. Attending with her were Mrs. Bernice Carter, and Mrs. Billy Joe Taylor of Cisco and Mrs. Bruce Coleman of Ranger.

The group attended a luncheon meeting at the University Christian Church. Mrs. Taylor is the local chapter president.

Mrs. Pirtle recently played the part of Ma Ferguson, former governor of Texas, in a special historical program staged by the local chapter. In their skit, Mrs. Pirtle as Ma Ferguson conducted a press conference and was interviewed.

Miss Jessie Sim, international president, was among those attending the Saturday meeting.

ABILENE TV Station KRBC (Channel 9) had a photographer and reporter here Sunday for the Mobley Hilton open house and his report was on the 10 p.m. news Sunday night... Mrs. Lela Lloyd, local retired teacher and author, is working on a book about the Mobley Hilton that she expects to finish and have on sale by the time the old hotel is opened and dedicated next October... A good many folks who attended the Mobley Hilton open house also went to Mr. Dan Wester's building to see the progress he has made in building a restaurant in the second floor. The hand-rail for the stairway, by the way, came from the Mobley Hotel.

CJC Dinner Theater Season Opened Monday

"The Servant of Two Masters", a classic comedy of the commedia d'el arte period, opened here Monday at the Roof Garden Theatre of the Laguna Hotel. The play ran in "preview" performances Monday through Wednesday, and is being presented in a dinner theatre format Thursday through Saturday. Directed by Carroll Price-Brown, the play is being staged by the Cisco Junior College theatre department.

Briefly, the story takes place in old Venice in the mid-18th century at the engagement of Pantalone's daughter, Clarice, to the Widow's son Silvio. We meet Beatrice, who comes to Venice disguised as her brother, to look for her fiancé, who was Caarice's fiancé who was killed in a duel - by her fiancé. The standard melodramatic mix-ups are furthered by Trufaldino who keeps Beatrice and Florindo apart by apprenticing to both of them.

During dinner theatre productions of this offbeat comedy, dinner will be served between 7 and 7:45 p.m. Curtain time is 8 p.m. For reservations call (817) 442-2567 between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. or 442-2589 after hours.

Olympic Torch Runners Invited

Prospects for olympic torch bearing runners to appear in Cisco in early July were discussed at a meeting of the Cisco Sesquicentennial Committee at a meeting Monday morning, according to Chairman Eris Ritchie.

Plans call for runners to start at El Paso and to carry a flaming torch to the Astrodome in Houston, arriving there for the start of Olympic Summer Games in July, Mr. Ritchie said. The runners are due in Abilene July 2 and in Fort Worth on July 4.

Details of the Cisco visit by the runners are to be worked out. The state committee has advised Chairman Ritchie that it is possible for the runners to include Cisco as part of their itinerary. The committee approved plans to extend an official invitation to the runners.

Plans will be announced at a later date as details are worked out, Mr. Ritchie said.

Capacity Crowds Applaud Nostalgia Night Shows

The 12th annual Nostalgia Night program staged by the Music Department of Cisco Junior College last Friday and Saturday nights at the Laguna Corral Room was outstanding entertainment. That was the opinion of capacity crowds both nights.

The program featured Director Tim Jones' CJC Stage Band and a group of Wrangler Bells directed by Nicki Harle.

The evening opened with dinner being served and the menu featured chicken coron bleu with all the trimmings. Servers were a group of students, including Cheryl Casey, Ramon Castro, Beulah Cummings, Dusty Deitiker, Janet Glenn, Ramon Lopez, Paula Mann, Paul Martin, Sylvia Partin, and Brenda Roberts.

The first part of the nostalgia program was staged by the Belles in a number of dance routines. The Belles performing included Leslie Alford, Amber Berryman, Debbie Crockett, Karen Fisher, Ginny Hardy, Anissa Morris, Paula Potter, Vera Sweat and Patty Toler.

The band played such old favorites as Alley Cat, All of Me, Avalon, Embraceable You, Hello Dolly, Sentimental Journey. And Director Jones, a master with a trumpet, delighted the audiences with his rendition of Sugar Blues and Star Dust. Members of the stage band taking part, included Shawn Alsop, Olaf Emblem, Charles Fisher, Libby Hardy, Ed Hunger, Laura Hutchens, Chuck Johnson, David Luna, Andy May, Wayne McMillan, Delbert McNeil, Paul Means, Darwin Modgling, Rene Porras, Cheryl Romo, Larry Search, Craig Warren, Pam Welch and Paul Wright. Special performers were A.J. Luna and Kirk Thaxton.

Paul Wright of Monday, drum major of the band, was applauded for playing the piano and singing "Jesus' Love."

Friday night, Natalie Urban of Cisco, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Otto Urban, was presented a birthday cake, and Mr. and Mrs. Neal Edwards of Breckenridge were given an anniversary present.

Saturday night's anniversary honorees were Mr. and Mrs. Coy Searcy of Wylie. The birthday honoree was Betty Haight of Cisco.

Abilene's KTAB Television had a cameraman and reporter at the Friday night program. He taped a program that will be presented on their regular weekly Big Country Reported show. His program will deal primarily with the CJC Belles.

The crowds are too large for the roof garden and were moved to the Corral Room.—JWS.

NOTICE

The citizens of Cisco will not be allowed to burn trash or grass in the city limits of Cisco until further notice. Due to the dry weather conditions caused by low humidity and no rainfall and due to the equipment trouble the Cisco Volunteer Fire Department has experienced recently the dangers are too great.
