J's Jottin's

By J.E.

Mary Crofts called us to report that Ronnie Edwards of Eastland made a video tape of the general assembly at the All-School Reunion. Ronnie will record the tape for anyone who will take him a blank video tape. He can be reached at his place of business, E&E Kustom, 1713 W. Commerce, Eastland. Ronnie is a 1957 graduate of Cisco High School.

We are printing in this edition the final installment of the list of Exes who registered at the All-School Reunion. Our appreciation to Geneva Webb for typing the names and bringing them to us.

"Little Shop of Horrors" closed Sunday following a matinee performance which we attended. Great show! As usual, the CJC Theatre Department did an outstanding job. The second show of the CJC Summer Theatre season,

Broadway Magic, will run July 9-15. It will feature music from Broadway classics. The season's finale will be the popular musical Hello Dolly! Reservations may be made by calling 442-2589. If you've never had the opportunity to see one of the CJC productions, treat yourself. Go!

Word has been received here that William Parker underwent surgery at Hendrick Medical Center in Abilene recently. He is reported to be doing well, and he is in Room 5118.

MORGAN REUNION
The Annual Morgan Reunion will be held Sunday, June 24, 1990 at the Cisco Country Club.
All friends and relatives are invited to come early, stay late and enjoy the day. Bring your covered dish and plan to enjoy good food and visiting.
See Ya There!

Cisco Little League has invited the public to the Closing Day Ceremonies for the 1990 Little League Season. Ceremonies will begin at 6 p.m. on Saturday, June 23. Trophies will be presented to each player on the Major and Minor League Championship Teams. Following this, each player who participated in Little League this year will be presented with a Little League pennant. Ceremonies will continue with Sponsor Appreciation presentations. The winners of the Sticker Sales will be announced and awarded prizes. Closing Day Ceremonies will conclude with the announcement of the 1990 Cisco Little League All Star Team.

Cisco Little League wants to thank the players, parents and fans for making this season such a success. A special thanks to each of the team sponsors and to the many who have made donations to Little League this year. Also, a very special thank you to each of the coaches who have given so much of their time to their teams.

Reunion Questions & Answers

Some questions and answers about the All-School Reunion:

Q. How many attended?
A. Jeanne Rains, registration chairperson, reports that about 1085 exes registered for the All-School Reunion. Also 40 past and present teachers attended. About 1600 name tags were used that day.

Q. Which class had the largest attendance?

A. There was a sibling argument taking place that weekend—about which class had more in attendance—'43 or '49. Sorry Mary, Bill's class had 46 exes (not counting spouses and friends) and your class had 42 in attendance. The '43 class had the largest attendance of any class.

Q. How many ate Barbecue?

A. Arlene Fry reports that 644 plates of barbecue were served. Over 900 had made reservations, but the long line must have sent about 300 elsewhere. Oscars served these 644 in about an hour. Many people asked where the caterer was from. They didn't know we had our own "Oscar" right here in Cisco. Many complimented the meal.

Q. How many played golf?
A. A delightful time was had at the golf course where 74 exes and friends participated in the golf scramble on Saturday morning. Delbert Schaefer said they kept coming up till 10 a.m.; therefore, the scramble wasn't over until 1 p.m., even though it was only a nine-hole scramble. Seven teams had 8 members with other two have 9 players.

Q. What are we going to do in 1995?

A. Plans are already underway for the 1995 reunion. Emma Watts has agreed to be parade chairman. So classes—start planning a float for the 1995 reunion.
Also plans for the general meeting are being discussed—to find a place large enough for everyone—perhaps the football field.
Jean Fitzgerald spent many hours finding class representatives and getting the letters to them. She also spent a lot of time getting addresses to the correct persons. Then on Saturday of the reunion, when she was to be hostess to her class '49 in her home for a luncheon, she was in the waiting room at Humana Hospital in Abilene while Jim her husband was undergoing by-pass heart surgery. Thank you, Jean, for your many hours of work.

Junior and Senior High School facilities were in excellent condition. The maintenance workers had everything spick and span, thanks to Mr. Warren and Mr. Saunders.

The downtown Cisco area was clean, mowed, and weedless, thanks to a group of young men working Thursday and Friday. Mr. Moore and Mr. Boles, the citizens of Cisco appreciate the clean-up job.

An auditorium scene during the general meeting ... Former cheerleaders are returning to their seats after helping Carlene Spicer with the singing of "Varsity". People were seated on the floor in the front, standing along the walls, and in the hall at the back of the auditorium. There were people standing behind the stage and on each side of the curtains. Still several hundred people were unable to get into the meeting. Al Anderson set up a speaker outside so the program could be heard outside. (Pictures courtesy of Jim and Geneva Webb)

"CISCO"

(Sung to the tune of "I Left My Heart in San Francisco")
I left my heart in dear old Cisco-

From Texas hills it calls to me,

To be where Lobos in the field
Made Eastland Mav'ricks yield,

Our girls were tops in basketball - that ain't all -
Through spring and fall we pulled for Cisco -
All classes lived in harmony.

When I come home again - home to Cisco
Some long-lost friends will wait for me.

We've all come back to dear old Cisco
To have a ball and shoot the breeze;

To see the old familiar scenes
That haunted us in dreams the Senior trips, the proms - all these Memories

Have brought us home - back home to Cisco

To other folks it may seem small -
But when old friends can meet here in Cisco

It is the greatest town of all!
(Conceived by Sutton Crofts, written by Mary Crofts, and sung by the Crofts Family Quartet! - a tribute to Cisco - our favorite town!)

A Thought For The Day....

Our best lessons are sometimes taught to us by our failures. The best opportunities frequently come to us not in the sunny days of success but after fate has given us what first appears to be some very heavy chastisement. Yes, failure can be the most stimulating of all teachers, provided that we are willing to learn.

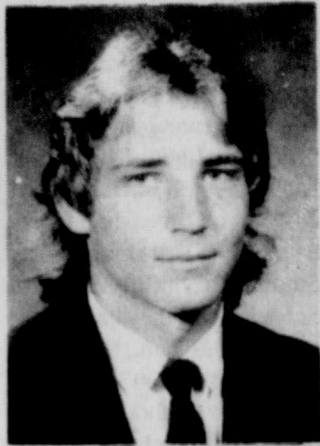

We like this quotation by Wilferd A. Peterson: "He who hopes to avoid all failure and misfortune is trying to live in a fairyland; the wise man realistically accepts failures as a part of life and builds a philosophy to meet them and make the most of them... He learns from the scientist who said, "at best, research is about 99% failure and 1% success and the 1% is the only thing that counts."

Remember, everybody, but everybody, makes mistakes. In order to master your own, put them behind after having learned from them...

BILLY HAMMOND

Army Reserve Names Top Scholar-Athletes

Jana Yowell and Billy Hammond were recently awarded the 1990 U.S. Army Reserve National Scholar/Athlete Award.

This prestigious award is presented annually by the U.S. Army Reserve to high school students who have shown outstanding ability in both academics and athletics.

Staff Sgt. Trevor E. Waite of Army Reserve Recruiting presented Cisco High School with a walnut plaque on May 17 honoring the students' commitment to excellence. The students received certificates.

Last year, teachers, coaches and administrators from more than 11,200 high schools nationwide chose some 20,000 students as Scholar/Athlete recipients, more than ever before.

The U.S. Army Reserve has presented the National Scholar/Athlete Award since 1981. Since then it has become a strong tradition in many high schools.

"Like the award it sponsors," said Sgt. Waite, "the Army Reserve also has an impressive tradition. It is the Nation's oldest federal reserve force. More than 280,000 members serve in more than 3000 units nationwide."

Dental Dialogue

by Cone C. Rice, D.D.S.

X-Ray Important Dental Tool

Q. What does my dentist look for on my X-rays?

A. X-ray examination is one of the most important tools a dentist uses to help you keep your teeth for a lifetime. X-rays also show signs of gum disease, which can lead to destruction of the jawbone and eventually tooth loss. Some kinds of bone cancer can be seen in X-rays long before there is a good chance of successful early treatment.

This column is presented in the interest of better dental health. If you have any dental questions you would like answered, please contact the office of Dr. Cone C. Rice 963 East Main Str. Eastland, Texas Phone: 817-629-3843

Do Smaller Schools Face Future Consolidation

With smaller school educators lobbying for their share of the state public education funds and larger school educators trying to hang on to funding which the courts have ruled is more than their fair share, school funding bills were sent by the legislature to the Governor.

While some educators were following a large school and media program of criticizing Governor Bill Clements for vetoing early funding bills, they may have overlooked some of the wording in the bills. We are told that one nearly overlooked provision in a vetoed bill would have resulted in some of those educators losing their jobs.

The bill reportedly would have forced the smaller school districts in the state, except possibly those at a great distance from another school, to consolidate. The metropolitan areas have a majority of the voters in Texas and probably three fourths of Texans are in school districts larger than the class A and AA districts. This gives small schools little clout with the legislature, and the larger schools should consolidate for better efficiency. And but for the Governor's veto, forced consolidation could have started this year, throwing the latest UIL classifying and district alignments into confusion.

With the possibility of such drastic changes which would have an enormous impact on the state's small towns coming so close, maybe small town residents should give the subject some thought and wonder if the next governor will veto such a bill. And such a bill could appear again in the next session.

We don't have the details of the vetoed bill and we can only speculate about what could happen. One possibility is that our area could end up with four larger or class AAA schools: Clyde-Baird, Breckenridge, Eastland-Ranger-Carbon, and DeLeon-Gorman; and four smaller or class AA schools: Albany-Moran, Cisco, Cross Plains-Rising Star-May, and Santo-Gordon-Strawn. Of course there are also other possible combinations.

CARBON NEWS

Is it ever hot and dry. It has not reached 100 degrees yet at my house but it is close. Oh what I would give for a good rain. Some farmers are still waiting for the rain to plant peanuts. I did see a little lightning one night in the distance, but the cloud never reached our area.

It seems fathers are not given the same recognition as mothers. We honor our mothers in all kinds of ways but when it's fathers day we just slightly mention them. I would like to say congratulations to all fathers of our land.

Comedy About Texas Life To Show At Majestic

A film called "Daddy's Dyin' - Who's Got The Will?" will show at the Majestic Theatre in Eastland from Friday, June 22 through Monday, June 25. Show time will be 7:30 each evening, with tickets $3 at the box office. This picture is rated PG-13.

In spite of the name, most of this comedy is about life-family life. It's a rollicking, Texas-sized comedy, involved with the state in a number of ways. The screenplay was written by a native Texan, Del Shores, who actually adapted it from his award-winning stage play.

The picture was filmed around Denton, with ample credits to Interns from the Film Department at North Texas Film Commission, the City of Denton, and others.

The story concerns a family called Turnover, and underneath the arguing and bickering the audiences sees, a family with the same kind of problems that bedevil families almost everywhere. But it takes the trauma of Daddy's dyin' and the battle of the will before the Turnover family is ready to face a basic truth - that blood really is thicker than water.

Gathering together at Daddy's house are Orville, Evalita, Sara Lee and Lurlene. Orville, the only son, is played by Beau Bridges. Orville is pictured as a standard-issue redneck - a man who drinks like there's no tomorrow and very little left of today.

Beverly D'Angelo is a free-spirited type, whose newest escapade is to become a country-western singer and whose newest boyfriend is Harmony, a hippie played by Judge Reinhold.

Other family members are portrayed by Tess Harper and Amy Wright, with Bert Remsen as the Dyin' Daddy.

There is a lot of country music in this film. Of special interest to Eastland County folk will be the gospel song "Precious Memories," which was composed in Cisco some years ago by J.B.F. Wright.

Q. The first few years of our marriage were just wonderful, but now we seem to be drifting apart because of heavy responsibilities. Are there ways that we can reach out to create a better relationship?
A. This sotry is repeated in most marriages. The partners must continually work on improving the relationship to keep it together. Dr. George Brazell offers some ways of bonding a spouse relationship.
- Spending quality time with each other.
- Be alone sometimes.
- Share ambitions in life.
- Repeat the marriage vows (to love, protect and have the spouse as the number one person in your life)
- Consumption of the marriage
- Share the joys of a home, automobile, and children.
Next time we will share some phrases that can enrich your marriage relationship.

Peanuts Are 'Red, Hot' Crop For Texas Producers

"We're not just talking goobers - we're talking America's finest goobers," Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower said here, applauding Texas peanut producers for their efforts to help diversify the state's agricultural industry.

"From direct marketing to international sales, and from market promotion to agricultural diversification, the Texas Department of Agriculture has worked closely with Mary Webb and the Texas Peanut Producers Board for the past seven years to find new markets for 3,300 Texas peanut farmers," Hightower said.

"Texas ranks fourth in the nation in peanut production, but we are rapidly assuming the top spot in marketing and promotion of peanuts," Hightower said. "Peanuts are grown in more than 100 counties in South, East, Central and West Texas. Texas farmers harvested almost 240,000 tons (476 million pounds) of peanuts last year - principally the Runner, Spanish, Virginia and Valencia varieties. In fact, peanuts are the state's seventh most valuable crop with annual cash receipts to farmers of approximately $120 million a year," Hightower said.

Hightower made the comments at a news conference at this Central Texas community near Stephenville where he joined with Webb, executive director of the Texas Peanut Producers Board, and several area peanut producers.

"At the Texas Department of Agriculture, we've worked since 1983 to widen and deepen the mainstream of agriculture in this state," Hightower said. For example, we're helping farmers and ranchers find new ways to increase their profits in the production of peanuts, cotton, livestock and other crops. We're also assisting enterprising farmers in their efforts to develop new crops, like pinto beans and exotic livestock, that will be part of tomorrow's mainstream.

production in East and Central Texas and create 60 new jobs to boot: A peanut processing plant under development in Morris County would employ 45 people and generate $35 million a year in new sales, and a peanut shelling facility in Lee County would employ 15 new people and generate sales of $2 million a year.

"In each of the last seven years, TDA's 'Taste of Texas' marketing specialists have joined with the Peanut Producers Board to promote the availability and nutritional value of Texas-grown peanuts. TDA marketing specialists meet with newspaper food editors, television personalities and radio hosts from Seattle to Miami and from San Antonio to New York City. These appearances are designed to inform consumers that peanuts are versatile as well as a nutritious and economical protein source. While traditional snacks are discussed and demonstrated, emphasis is placed on new and innovative main course dishes, salads, vegetables and breads, featuring peanuts.

"Promoting peanuts in the United States is not the only avenue TDA has explored for the industry. At MEXFEX '90, a major international trade show in Bahrain, Texas peanuts were represented by Comanche Peanuts. Later on the same TDA-sponsored trade mission, both Comanche Peanuts and Picosos' Peanuts participated in mini-trade shows in Dubai and

Disaster Deadline Approaches

Federal and state officials today cautioned all Texas residents and businesses suffering damages during the Spring, 1990 storms that July 1, 1990 is the last day to apply for aid in all of the 62 counties now designated eligible for assistance for three major aid programs.

These programs include Temporary Housing, Individual and Family Grant program and disaster loans available through the Small Business Administration.

"We realize that some Texas residents still are unable to get back into homes and businesses to assess damages," said Brad Harris, Regional Director of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). "Applications may be made before water recedes and complete damages are determined. This will speed the application process and an amended application may be filed at a later date."

Experienced operators are staffing the toll-free number, 1-800-782-6681, during the hours of 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. seven days a week.

Safe Driving Tips from Rhonda

Effects of drugs on driving: Alcohol is classified as a "Legal" Drug, but it is illegal to drink and drive. Even one or two drinks affect a person's ability to drive. Alcohol affects coordination. It is difficult to coordinate what your eyes are seeing with what your hands should be doing. Judgement is impaired. It is difficult to choose the proper alternatives that are so often presented while driving. (To be continued in next week's article)

Former Cisco Policeman Honored For Rescue

Recognizing heroes is nothing new to Midland.

Four police officers were singled out Monday, April 30 for recognition by a statewide organization were less acclaimed than the rescuers of famed toddler Jessica McClure, but their deeds were no less heroic.

During the early morning of Oct. 28, 1989, two teenagers in a stolen pick-up truck were speeding through the streets of Midland. Trying to elude police, driving the wrong way on Michigan Avenue, at Garfield Street the vehicle collided with another pick-up truck, driven by Michele Demaray.

The fuel line of the truck carrying the 23-year-old mother of three and her children ruptured and the vehicle burst into flames.

Four men risked their lives by entering the blazing vehicle and removing Ms. Demaray and her 18-month-old, 4-year-old and 6-year-old children.

The men, officers with the Midland Police Department, were honored for the rescue.

Gubernatorial candidate Clayton Williams presented each man with a Law Enforcement Officer of the Month Award and a check for $250, on behalf of Associated Texans Against Crime (ATAC).

"These men gambled and risked their lives to save the lives of others," Williams said before presenting the awards.

Sgt. Terry Garner, Officers Manuel Beltran, Jesse Robledo and Franklin Rice are the first Midland officers to receive the ATAC award.

Franklin "Lynn" Rice is an Eastland County native and has relatives here.

He is a former Cisco Policeman and Deputy Sheriff with the Eastland County Sheriff's Department.

The 'Roaring Ranger' Historical Marker

On June 8, 1990 a letter requesting permission to move a historical marker to a more appropriate location was presented to the Chairman of the Eastland County Historical Commission.

This letter has now been sent to the Texas State Historical Commission at Austin for review and comment.

For public awareness of this situation, the letter (excluding the beginning of formalities) follows this notice.

The Ranger Chamber of Commerce will meet Monday, June 25, 1990, 12:00 noon at Lillie's Coffee Pot, Hwy 80 West, in Ranger. The subject of moving the marker will be open for discussion and anyone having any comments or objections is invited to attend.

If you are unable to attend this meeting, but have comments or objections, you may submit them in writing to the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, P. O. Box 57, Ranger, TX 76470, by July 1, 1990.

Since 1967, when the marker was erected, Ranger has acquired The Roaring Ranger Museum, where pictures and artifacts are in abundance depicting the Ranger Oil Boom.

As the ROARING RANGER marker tells the "story", a more appropriate place for this marker would be in the outside fenced yard of the museum, where oil-field equipment of the "Oil Boom Era" is displayed.

Judge Bailey: . . .
At a May meeting of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, I made a motion to move the Historical Marker entitled ROARING RANGER.

After pointing out the several reasons the marker should be moved, vote was taken and motion passed unanimously.

This marker, erected in 1967 is at the intersection of US Highway 80 and West Main Street, which is the main access to the City of Ranger. It stands approximately 20 feet off the curbed street with no parking available.

Two good reasons to move the marker are set out in the guidelines in the OFFICIAL TEXAS HISTORICAL MARKERS GUIDELINES

AND APPLICATION FORM, under the heading Texas Marker Policies, Number 20, Relocation of Historical Markers.

(4) when better public access results.

We would like to also thank the maintenance of the Eastland Schools for having everything looking so good. We don't believe there is another school around with so much love and pride down through the generations to make homecoming as big a success as Eastland's. This is just another reason we are proud to say that we are graduates of Eastland High School.

Humid Heat Can Cause Hypothermia

The late spring of 1990 may well be remembered in some parts of the state as the time when torrential rains, flooding, high winds and lightning repeatedly brought death and property destruction. The Trinity River flood in May, for example, killed as many as 12 Texans. The extent of damage along the river's course through East Texas is still uncalculated.

But as if the ravages of violent weather were not enough, an early heat wave has combined with high humidity to pose a less obvious, but also deadly, threat to humans.

Health officials warn that heat stroke, or hyperthermia, causes about 200 deaths and thousands of illnesses each year in the U.S. the victims usually are the elderly, the very young, or people weakened by other illnesses, although prolonged heat stress can be fatal to anyone. Last year, as many as nine Texans may have died from excessive heat, although weather records for the state show that the hot months of 1989 were generally cooler than average.

Dr. Patti Patterson, Acting Associate Commissioner for Personal Health Services at the Texas Department of Health (TDH), said that high temperature alone is physically tolerable to most people. Combined with high humidity, though, heat can cause a person's natural cooling system, perspiration, to work overtime. "If a person fails to replace fluids and salts they lose during perspiration," Dr. Patterson said, "dehydration can follow."

The symptoms of dehydration include muscle cramps, dizziness, nausea, low blood pressure and headaches. "These are serious warning signs," Patterson said. "Anyone with these symptoms should immediately find shade, ventilation and fluids—preferably water—to drink until the symptoms subside." She explained that if fluids are not soon replaced, heat stroke can follow, causing sudden weakness, severe headache, disorientation leading to loss of consciousness, brain damage and death.

To avoid overheating, Dr. Patterson said, people should wear light-colored, loose-fitting clothing and drink more than their normal intake of water. Those with heart or respiratory conditions or people taking medications should be especially aware of early signs of physical problems.

"One of the best ways to know whether to take special precautions on a given day is to follow a local weather forecast. Although forecasts cannot be exact all the time, meteorologists are usually accurate enough to predict approximate temperatures and humidity," she added.

Forecasters often refer to a "heat stress index," a numeric table which reflects how hot the air will feel to humans. A heat stress reading of 105 degrees is considered very dangerous, yet it can occur while thermometer readings are still in the mid 80s.

Six Flags Numbers Are Up As Summer Season Begins

Six Flags Over Texas has begun its summer season with attendance figures up substantially despite record spring rains in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Park president Bob Bennett said more than 600,000 persons visited the Arlington theme park during the spring season which began in mid-March.

Bennett attributed the spring success to introduction of the massive Texas Giant wooden roller coaster and the celebration of Bugs Bunny's 50th birthday.

Cisco's Class of '41 Has Luncheon

Celebrating their 49th anniversary, the Cisco High School Class of 1941 held a luncheon June 9 at 11 a.m. at the White Elephant Hospitality Room. There were approximately 60 members and guests present.

Seated at the head table were the officers. Each was introduced by Bob Latson, Master of Ceremonies and super showman, and each responded with brief remarks. The are Pres. George Warfield of Rising Star, Sec. Kathryn Langston McCanlis of Hurst, Vicepres. Fern Hart of Cisco and Salutatorian Ruby Kent Latson of Abilene.

Warfield gave the invocation and Hart spoke briefly about her life and overcoming shyness. Fern graduated with a very high average. McCanlis spoke of being happy her class had a reunion and of her retiring from social work and the therapeutic value of happy remembering.

Bob and Ruby Latson were recognized as the King and Queen Lobo of 1941. Helen Donham of Rising Star was recognized as hostess and for the work she'd done organizing and arranging the meeting. Ruby Latson gave a short remembrance.

A committee was appointed to plan next year's 50th anniversary which will coincide with the Folk Life Festival in April. Committee members are Mary Elizabeth Slatton Sneed of Eastland, Jessie Mae Stewart Ruhards of Cisco, Geneva Isenhower Fetterby of Midland, Rosemary Huestis Frambro of Strawn and Bill Huffman of Houston.

Class pictures were made at the luncheon.

Members attended from many cities in Texas, from California, Nevada and Georgia.

Education To Be Featured On Southwestern Bell Directories

The increased desire to upgrade the Texas educational system is the inspiration behind the cover of the 1990 Southwestern Bell Telephone directory.

The new directory will be delivered in Cisco starting 6-27-90, said Dan Adams, Area Manager, of Southwestern Bell Telephone.

"Southwestern Bell believes that Texas has a bright future because its citizens care about children and their education," said Adams, Area Manager. "In our increasingly complicated world, new technology creates the need for bright minds — and new teaching methods so that our children never lose interest in learning."

The copyrighted photo titled "You're never too old" — by Austin photographer Stan Kearn — was taken as part of a photography contest conducted by Dr. Frederick Williams and the University of Texas to portray "The New Texas" theme.

It was selected to be shown as a part of the photography exhibit at the State Fair of Texas in 1987 in which Southwestern Bell promoted economic development.

The new cover will be featured on some 190 directories throughout the state reaching more than five million Southwestern Bell customers.

Mr. Adams said about 8,048 directories will be delivered to area residences and businesses. Delivery should be completed by 7-12-90.

Residential customers usually receive one directory. For additional copies, customers should call their Southwestern Bell Telephone business office. However, Mr. Adams requests that customers not call right away.

"If your friend across town got his directory before you received yours, you'll probably get on within a few days," he said.

This year, 61 white pages and 50 yellow pages make up the Cisco directory. There are 6,986 white page listings.

Local emergency numbers are listed in the front of the new directory.

Hearing or speech impaired customers using a TDD/TTY may contact the Customer Assistance Bureau to communicate their telephone needs. They may call toll-free 1-214-990-8152 during business hours for an immediate response.

Stealing electricity is against the law!

Stealing electricity is a felony.

Some people tamper with their electric meters to avoid paying for the energy they use. Stealing electricity is a felony offense in the state of Texas and violators will be prosecuted. West Texas Utilities' Current Diversion Department is working hard to help combat the growing problem of energy theft.

Energy theft is dangerous.

Not only is service theft a crime, but it is also very dangerous. Serious injuries can result from meter tampering.

A crime against you!

When someone steals electricity, they are not only stealing from WTU — they are also stealing from you, as a rate-payer. Just as shoplifting increases the cost of items you buy in the store, power theft increases the cost of your electric service.

WTU will prosecute.

Because we are concerned about the dangers and costs resulting from meter tampering, West Texas Utilities will prosecute energy thieves.
