Rucker Reunion Held In New Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs Rucker had the families of the late J. S. Ruckers and the late C. T. Rucker and Mrs. Rucker at their home at Ute Lake at Logan, New Mexico this weekend for a family reunion. This was a first get-together for these families.

It was a get acquainted occasion for many of these families whose ages ranged from 2½ to 80 years. This is something that we have tried to do, but never managed, and which we so thoroughly enjoyed.

Fishing, boating, swimming, motorcycle riding, hiking, talking, and just enjoying being a real family, began on Friday afternoon as the families began to arrive. By Monday noon most had to be on the way home for various reasons.

Twenty-seven Ruckers and offspring were present for the occasion. We were all unable to attend church on Sunday, so we just had our own worship service a little early, on Saturday night. The Gibbs Ruckers have a huge base in which we had our singing, etc.

Present to enjoy the fun and fellowship were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rucker of Richardson; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rucker and Donna of Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rucker and family of Clovis; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Rucker and family of Texico; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Whatley of Clovis; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nelson and Roger of Friona; Mrs. C. T. Rucker and Mary Pittman of Quitaque, and Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs Rucker of Broadview, the hosts.

Mrs. Dixie Eldridge of Sonora and Mrs. Edith Jacobson of Adrian accompanied the Rev. and Mrs. Aaron Mitchell to Quitaque last week. The ladies were guests of Gladys Stroup. The Mitchells drove to Whiteflat and visited his brother, Miss Stroup and Minnie Roberson made lunch for the ladies, then that evening Mrs. Gladys Wise and her sister, Mrs. Sue Berry of Tulia joined them for dinner.

Wednesday the ladies and Gladys visited the Bud Baileys. Mrs. Eldridge and Mrs. Jacobson are aunts of Bud. They also visited Mrs. Elwayne Turner and family. The ladies left Wednesday afternoon, accompanying the Mitchells home.

Mrs. Gladys Wise entered Central Plains Hospital in Plainview Tuesday. She had been ill all last week.

Jim Stroup remains in the Central Plains Hospital. He fell at the ValleyView Apartments, where he plans to live as soon as they are open. He received two hairline fractures just below the knee. According to reports, he is improving and is able to walk some, but he doesn't know yet when he will return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gregg of Amarillo spent from Friday until Monday morning with Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Morris. They visited the Quitaque and Silverton cemeteries.

Turkey Lions Meet

The regular meeting of the Turkey Lions Club was held Monday night, May 27, at Lanes Restaurant. The meeting was opened by Boss Lion Leroy Stone. Lion Loran Denton led the pledge of allegiance and the invocation was given by Lion Melvin Clinton.

Lion Secretary, Keith Green, then read the minutes of the Directors Meeting that was held at 7:00 a.m. The main item of discussion was how the Club could help fight the drug problem in the city. The next flag day will be June 14, and Lions Jay Eudy and W. D. Maxwell are responsible for putting the flags out that day.

Boss Lion Leroy Stone introduced the Governor of the Lions District 271, Lion William T. McMinn, who gave a good talk. He told about the work the Lions are doing over the district to serve mankind. He said the Hi-Plains Eye Bank had received 43 eyes from donors. Forty-three people can now see that were blind. The Crippled Childrens Camp is now operating at full capacity and more children will be able to go to camp this year than any previous year. Gov. McMinn said that 117 girls from Girlstown were given a new pair of shoes and a new coat at Christmas time because of the money that Texas Lions had given. Girlstown has a project to build a new dormitory and are in need of $50,000.00. Texas Lions are going to try to help with this next year. He said that at this time about two girls a day are being turned away from help due to the lack of space.

Boss Lion Leroy Stone then presented Gov. McMinn with 16 boxes of used clothing that the people of Turkey had given to Girlstown. Gov. McMinn said that Turkey was the only Lions Club in his district that had answered the call for clothing for the girls at Girlstown.

The meeting was closed by the Boss Lion, Leroy Stone.

Danny Mayfield of Fort Worth arrived Tuesday to visit his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John King.

Dickerson - Hunter Vows Exchanged In Saturday Evening Ceremony

Miss Rhonda Lee Dickerson and David Wayne Hunter exchanged marriage vows in a formal ceremony at 6:00 p.m. Saturday, May 25, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dickerson, at Silverton. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hunter of Flomot.

Officiating at the double-ring ceremony before a large fan-shaped arrangement of white gladioli and needlepoint English ivy flanked by twin candelabra entwined with English ivy was Earl Cantwell, minister of the Rock Creek Church of Christ.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white bridal crepe fashioned with a wide band of Venise lace at the high neckline, long, sheer bishop sleeves with deep lace cuffs, and bands of lace down the front bodice accenting the deep "V" opening at the neckline. A band of the same lace encircled her empire waistline, and her A-line skirt swept into back fullness. Her veil of imported illusion was attached to a bandeau of matching Venise lace.

MRS. DAVID WAYNE HUNTER

Her bouquet was a cascade of white rosebuds, daisies, orchids and wedding lace leaves carried atop a Bible that belonged to her late maternal grandmother, Mrs. Walter Watters. A shower of blue and white satin streamers fell from the bouquet.

To carry out bridal tradition, she placed a 1953 penny in her shoe, had in her bouquet the wedding ring of her late paternal grandmother, Mrs. Avie Dickerson, and added a blue garter.

Mrs. John Welch of Lubbock attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a floor-length blue eyelet gown styled with empire waistline, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Randy Hunter, brother of the bridegroom, lighted the candles. Guests were seated by Alva Joe Calvert of Flomot.

Billy Green of Silverton served as best man. Mrs. Wayne McMurtry was pianist and Miss Claudie Bunkley of Stamford was soloist.

A cloth, handmade by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Bryant Eddleman, covered the refreshment table at the reception which followed the ceremony. Misses Anita and Susan Hunter, sisters of the bridegroom, served the three tiered white wedding cake which was decorated with wedding bells and accents of blue. Punch was served from a silver bowl, and crystal and silver appointments were used.

Miss Phyllis Crow, cousin of the bride, presided at the guest registry.

Also assisting with the reception were the bride's aunt, Mrs.
