Terra Cotta CowBelles CATTLE CHATTER

by Alice Allen, President Message from American National CowBelle President: We are through the halfway mark for the 1974 year, and the many problems we faced at its beginning are still with us; some have worsened. I could continue on and on with the gloomy picture, but I am forced to recognize the sunshine spread everywhere by the cattlemen.
 You are stalwarts to stand by your husbands, to share the worries of operation, the joy of new calves in the field, the concerns of the fluctuating market, the interest of health and well-being of the family, the need to be thrifty and cautious in buying, and the planning and preparation of food. Why do we stay in the cattle business?
 Many of you feel as I do: to be close to the land is satisfying.

The sunshine you CowBelles spread is enveloping many and I am deeply impressed with your efforts and unity. Your many accomplishments through warm friendship are contagious.
 Texas, although organized for only two years, boasts of 1600 unaffiliated members and set its goal for 2000 by the end of the year. I listened to their committee reports.
 Their accomplishments are many;
 their interest in beef promotion high. Texas CowBelles will have much accomplished by the end of the year.

Several CowBelle Locals and TAP sponsored a Beef Display in Sunset Center Mall July 11-12-13.
 Each day from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m.
 CowBelles and TAP representatives were on duty in the mall to hand out Beef Promotion material and talk to interested persons about different methods of cooking beef. Beef recipes were given away, also instructions on how to choose good beef cuts at the market. There was a drawing for the several cuts of beef on display.
 The beef was contributed by Glover Packing Company.

Terra Cotta CowBelles sponsored a program and refreshments for the blind in Swisher County Tuesday, July 8, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the parlor of the First Methodist Church in Tullia.

Terra Cotta CowBelles also entertained at a breakfast for the Plainview Chamber of Commerce Thursday, July 10. This was another attempt to put BEEF before the people.

Until our next CowBelle column, remember to keep serving BEEF for the finest nutrition available to your family.

This week we would like you to try a recipe from a Beef Cook-Off Finalist you all know from Happy. Some of the best cooks in the world live right here in the Panhandle and they use BEEF as their main ingredient.

Miss Chadwick Is Shower Honoree

Miss Laquita Chadwick, bride-elect of Bob J. Watson, was honored with a bridal shower Saturday, July 6, in the Community Room of the First National Bank in Quitaque.

Crystal and silver appointments were used to serve the refreshments of punch and cake. The cake was trimmed with orchid, and was baked and decorated by Cheryl Merrell, a classmate of Laquita.

The table was centered with an arrangement of orchid flowers and flanked by tapers in crystal holders.

Among the gifts received by the honoree were a set of cookware from the hostesses, silverware, China, blankets, Corningware, sheets, pillowcases, towels, pillows, a set of glasses, two homemade quilts, one made by Mrs. P. T.
 Clark of Turkey, grandmother of the bride-elect, and one made by 1/2 tsp. basil leaves, crushed 1 tsp. salt

 1/2 c. apple wine

Combine tomato juice, water, beef bouillon, basil, thyme, salt and pepper. Boil 1 minute. Rinse liver in cold water. Drain on a paper towel. Cut into serving pieces.
 Heat skillet. Melt margarine and add liver pieces. Saute on both sides. Add onions and celery and cook until transparent. Add tomato mixture and simmer, covered 15 minutes. Add wine and simmer uncovered about 5 minutes, basting, until liver is tender and sauce is slightly thickened.
 When liver simmers, cook the rice using directions on the package.
 Drain rice in a colander and keep over hot platter and make a nest in the center. Arrange liver pieces in the nest and ladle on the sauce. Garnish platter with fruit such as baked apple slices, pineapple, spiced peaches, etc. Serves 4 to 6.

Now that you've retired, put your savings to work.

Trade your E Bonds for H Bonds

Bought a lot of Series E Savings Bonds over the years? Well, you probably want to keep your nest egg intact. But retirement is the time when you need some extra income.

Here's how to get that income. Just exchange your E Bonds (in cash value amounts of $500 or more) for Series H Bonds. H Bonds pay out interest every six months by Treasury check mailed right to your door, and at a rate averaging 6% annually when held to 10-year maturity.

Just the thing for retirement, when you need steady income coming in.

You'll get a tax break on the exchange, too

When you exchange your E Bonds for H Bonds, your tax liability on your accumulated E Bond interest continues to be deferred. Right up until the H Bonds are cashed or reach final maturity (there's an optional 10-year extension privilege after original maturity).

The result? You get more for your money in the exchange. And when your H Bonds are redeemed, and you finally pay your deferred E Bond tax, it's at your lower post-retirement rate.

Get income as it's earned Steady, dependable income. Twice a year. Or, if you prefer, get interest checks every month. Just buy an H Bond a month for six consecutive months. That way, you've got a regular income guaranteed.

Purchase $500 to $5,000

Your banker has exchange (as well as new purchase) applications for H Bonds. At face values of $500, $1,000 and $5,000. There's an annual purchase limit of $10,000 ($20,000 with a co-owner), but this won't apply if you're trading in E Bonds.

H Bonds. A good way to make sure your money won't retire when you do.

Take stock in America.

Buy Series H Bonds—now averaging 6% when held to maturity of 10 years.

Mrs. J. A. Taylor was taken to Floydada Monday two weeks ago. She was unable to stand. They x-rayed her there and found she had a broken hip. She was transferred to Neblett Hospital in Canyon where the break was verified. The hip was already knitting and she did not undergo surgery. She is in room 18, and will be glad to receive letters or cards from her friends. It was here General Grant raised the Yankee flag after the city of Vicksburg and the Mississippi River had been captured. It was the turning point in the war between the states. They found the history in visual form very interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Monk were hosts for an ice cream supper at their home Saturday evening. The ice cream was enjoyed on the patio in their beautiful backyard, with gleaming ripe peaches hanging from the trees in the orchard a short distance away.
