FATHER

Last night my little boy confessed to me
Some childish wrong;
And kneeling at my knee
He prayed with tears;
"Dear God, make me a man
Like daddy-wise and strong,
I know you can."

I knelt beside his bed,
Confessed my sins,
And prayed with low-bowed head;
"O, God, Make me a child,
Like my child here,
pure, guileless,
Trusting thee with faith sincere."

We invite you to worship with us this Fathers Day at

The American farmer builds two things better than anyone else in the world. He builds the next generation, passing along a special kind of wisdom... respect for the soil, honesty, independence, and faith in the future. And he builds his land, leaving it better than he found it. That kind of building usually requires borrowed long-term capital. That's where we have helped for 60 years.
