Valley Teams Split With Happy In District Opening Games Here Tues.

The Valley High basketball teams wound up their non-district schedule when they drove over to Idalou last Friday night for a pair of games. It turned out to be a good night as both teams won. The Valley girls in a good close contest defeated the Idalou girls 43-40, while the boys also had a good game. The Patriots won that one by a score of 59-52.

In the girls contest Valley led all the way. The score was 12-8 at the end of the first quarter, 20-17 at halftime, 30-26 at the end of three periods. Scoring-wise, the Lady Patriots were led by Lisa Herrington who marked up 11 points. Peggy Shannon and Jenny Clay scored eight points each, Paula Lipscomb netted six points, Mary McNary scored five points, Jendy Turner added three points and Angie Eudy added two points. At the end of the non-district schedule, the Valley girls stand at 12 wins, 7 losses.

In the boys game, which was close all the way, the Patriots had to come from behind to win their game. Idalou was ahead 19-14 at the end of the first quarter and still owned a three-point, 35-32 lead at halftime. Valley went ahead at the end of three quarters 44-43 and went on to win 59-53. Kenny Chandler racked up 26 points to lead all scorers in this one. Terry Brittain had a good night when he canned 16 points. Freshman Rickie Fuston made six points, Kirk Proctor and Greg Ramsey made four points each, and Rod Carpenter made three points. Friday night's win brought the Patriots wins to 12 against 5 losses as they wound up the non-district schedule.

Tuesday night the Valley teams hosted the teams from Happy for four games with the Valley teams winning three of those four games. In the first game of the get-together the Valley JV girls took a 21-19 win over the Happy JV girls. In the second game of the evening the Valley JV boys took a 27-22 win over the Happy JV boys.

The next game of the evening was the varsity girls affair which was the first district game for both teams. This contest turned out to be a bit of a contrast, as you might say the Happy girls won the first half and the Valley girls won the last half of the game. Both teams were struggling to put points on the board and at the end of the first period of play Happy led 10-4. This trend continued into the second quarter and Happy led 17-11 at the end of two periods of play. Happy's girls scored first in the third quarter to make the score 19-11, and then the Valley girls caught fire and went on a scoring spree and in a little over three minutes scored 10 points and went ahead 21-19. Happy tied the score at 21 all and Valley scored two more buckets to lead 25-21 at the end of three quarters of play. Happy tied it again at 25-25 but that was the last time they were even as the Valley girls went on to score a 35-27 win in their first district game. Paula Lipscomb scored 12 points to lead the Valley girls to victory. Jenny Clay got nine points, Angie Eudy scored six points and Mary McNary, Peggy Shannon and Lisa Herrington each made two points.

In the varsity boys game, which was the only game of the night that the Valley teams lost, Happy took a 10-point lead over Valley in a game that found Valley ice cold. The final score was 46-36. The first quarter was close with Valley getting on the board first and running a 4-2 lead at the beginning, then the Cowboys came back to tie the score 4-4. The score was tied again at 6-6 and 8-8, but Happy went on the lead 10-8 at the end of the first quarter. From that point on, Happy led all the way, holding a 24-17 lead at the half, 35-25 ahead at the end of three quarters and although the Patriots pulled within six points midway of the fourth quarter. Valley could never close the gap any closer after that. Although the Valley boys could not get their shots to fall, the Happy shooters were hitting from all over the court, and Valley was doing a pretty good job of defending Happy. Valley got the shots off but they just wouldn't stay down. Kenny Chandler scored 15 points for the Patriots, Terry Brittain hit for seven points, Rod Carpenter scored six points, Jon Davidson, four points, Kirk Proctor and Greg Ramsey, two points each.

The boys in the striped shirts whistled Kenny Chandler into foul trouble fairly early in the game causing him to have to move outside his normal shooting ring and he simply wasn't hitting from that far out. Later in the game Kirk Proctor fouled out of the game and Happy lost one due to fouls. All in all, the loss was a bitter one for the Patriots to take, since it was the first district game; but there are other games to come, of course.

The Valley teams go to Nazareth Friday night of this week for two more district games and there will be a JV girls game which will begin at 4:45 p.m. Tuesday night of next week. Valley goes to Silvertown for three games beginning at 4:45 p.m. The varsity girls and varsity and junior varsity boys games will be played there.

Elsewhere in the district Tuesday night, both Nazareth girls and boys won over Silvertown, leaving Nazareth and Valley girls tied for the district lead, and the Happy and Nazareth boys tied with one win each.

Visitors in the Gaston Owens home Sunday were her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Watkins and Melanie of Canyon.

Blankenship Station - Grocery Robbed

On Sunday evening, January 14, two Mexican males were arrested by an alert Motley County Sheriff after Briscoe County Deputy Sheriff Johnny Butler sent out a description of the suspects over the radio. The men had worked for some time in the Quitaque area. They stopped at Blankenship's for gas and while one man had Mr. Blankenship busy, the other robbed the station, taking the money bag from inside the station. The cash money, $107.00, was recovered, but Mr. Butler told The Tribune they threw away checks totaling around $700.00. If anyone sees any of these checks, they should report it.

One of the men was a Mexican national and the other had no papers at all. Both were jailed at Matador, then picked up by Briscoe County deputies.

Is Biblical Prophecy Coming True?

By Doug McDonough
 Herald Staff Writer
 Warning a crowd of some 350 of the dangers from the influence and power of multinational corporations, a Guymon, Oklahoma farmer and retired Air Force lieutenant colonel charged that the leaders of these corporations are striving for a limited one-world government.

Speaking at a meeting in the Hale County Agriculture Center, J. C. Lewis said two organizations, the Trilateral Commission and the Council on Foreign Relations, are working toward a one-world government by "controlling energy, food and an international monetary system. How far along are they? They have said that it will be formed by 1980 and that's probably true and it may come sooner than that."

He explained that the Trilateral Commission, with a total of 200 members from Western Europe,

Japan and North America including 65 from the United States, is influencing the direction of American policy through economic, political and national media control.

"One of the first members of the Trilateral Commission when it was formed in 1973 was Jimmy Carter. There are 18 members of the Commission in major positions of his administration," Lewis said.

The Council on Foreign Relations was organized in 1922 and currently has between 1,600 and 1,800 members "and the same leadership as the Trilateral Commission," said Lewis.

He pointed out that every president since World War II, with the possible exception of Lyndon B. Johnson, and every man who has gained the presidential nomination from the Republican and Democratic parties in the last 50 years, except Johnson and Barry Goldwater, have been members of the CFR.

Lewis noted that there was little surprise at many Supreme Court decisions since the justices had been appointed by presidents who are members of the CFR. He said six House members, including Tom Foley, head of the House Agriculture Committee, and five senators are members of the Trilateral Commission.

Specifically charging that David Rockefeller and the Rockefeller family controls many of the nation's major banks including three of the top four, industries and energy companies through interlocking directorships and stock ownership, Lewis quoted a House subcommittee report that said that the Rockefellers are now at a point where they can exert control on the nation's and world's economy.

The Rockefeller controlled Chase Manhattan Bank, second largest in the nation behind Bank of America, does business in 120 countries and has 50,000 affiliated with $1 trillion alone, he charged.

Lewis also asserted that 70 percent of the top 130 industries in the nation have interlocking boards of directors. "That means that competing industries have the same directors and that leads to price fixing," Lewis also feels that unions are "selling their workers down the drain" for cheap foreign labor.

Lewis said many of the nation's corporate leaders are moving the nation toward a totalitarian government by gaining control of education, news media and some type of national police force.

Listing the progress of this control, Lewis said three major foundations have, in a large part, gained control of higher education through major college grants and authoring textbooks in agriculture and economics.

Concerning the control of the news media Lewis said, I'm not talking about the local newspapers, radio and television stations. By and large they are doing an outstanding job. Not so on the national level."

Lewis pointed out that national television networks in many cases have ignored the American Agriculture Movement including in-

SLEUTH EYES CLUES ON KEEPING JOB AFTER GRIEVANCE FILED

Pawtucket, R. I. — Walter Dale Cates has been a policeman for eight years—the past two as a detective in the identification bureau—and wonders from week to week whether he will stay there in a job he enjoys.

Because he got the job, the Fraternal Order of Police filed a grievance on grounds he was given it over others with more seniority. When the job was posted, eight men applied, seven of them senior to Cates.

Police Chief Joseph C. Roy said Cates was given the assignment because of "his demonstrated ability to find and identify people and 'definitely' had enough expertise to be kept on the job. The chief commented that several detectives said he is the best man in years to hold the job.

Another superior officer described Cates as "an eager, willing and intense worker."
 The FOP grievance subsequently went to arbitration, when Peter Blum of Hartford, Connecticut, arbitrator, ruled that the city had violated seniority provisions of the police contract. Blum ordered the city to give Pitm. Robert Morris, who had training in that field, a 30-day trial period in the post—an order Chief Roy ignored for several months.

Morris has been in the bureau for several weeks, working with Cates and Dets. William Elliott and Joseph Mello. Morris said he took the assignment because the FOP won its point, but indicated he may be going back to the uniforms division on the night platoon soon. "I like the work, but I'd rather be out in the field," he said.

Cates, 36, said the bureau is a busy one, working closely with detectives, processing persons charged with crimes, and fingerprinting civilians who need them for job applications. He said the job requires a desire to do things properly. He said experience gained working in the bureau will remain through his police career, regardless of future assignments.

Cates began furthering his education the first year on the job under the incentive program. In the process he took a basic course in fingerprints with Inspector Hugh Frayne of Lincoln Police, a former head of the State Police Bureau of Criminal Identification, and followed that with an advance course in latent fingerprints at the Providence Police Academy.

Later he and Mello took a 26-week course in criminalistics at URI. He earned an associate degree in law enforcement and a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Salve Regina College.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Edna Taylor Sunday were Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Traweck of Matador and Vivian Merrell.

Smith - Fuston Vows Solemnized In Home Ceremony

Miss Renee' Smith became the bride of Rex Fuston in a candle-light double-ring ceremony at 3:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon, December 30, 1978, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale L. Smith at Quitaque. Danny (Salt) Jones of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth performed the ceremony before a mantel banked with lemon and leather leaf greenery and an arch of yellow tapers accented with a yellow satin bow.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Billie Fuston of Turkey, Texas.

The bride descended the stairs on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. The staircase was accented with yellow satin ribbon and bows. She wore a floor-length gown of white eyelet, designed with a gathered capelet edged with eyelet lace attached to a scooped neckline on the fitted bodice. The flared skirt was accented at the hemline with a ruffle edged with eyelet lace. It was tied at the waistline with a wide eyelet sash which formed a bow in the back. She wore a picture hat and carried a lace-covered white Bible which belonged to her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Don Garrison of Silverton. The Bible was carried by the bride's mother and other family members in their own wedding ceremonies. It was topped with a colonial bouquet of white daisy poms.

The bridal gown was made by the mother of the bride.

In further carrying out bridal tradition, she wore as something old a gold heart-shaped necklace given to her by the bridegroom. As something old, she wore a star sapphire and diamond ring belonging to her friend, Mrs. Terry Bomar. Her aunts, Mrs. George Reed and Mrs. Gerald Smith, placed in her shoes sixpence minted in the years of birth of the bride and her bridegroom.

Miss Shonda Smith of College Station, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a floor-length dress of yellowingham check in design similar to that of the bridal gown. She accented her attire with a yellow picture hat and carried a small colonial bouquet of white daisy poms accented with yellow satin ribbon.

Hal Fuston of Turkey, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man.

The traditional "Wedding March" was played at the piano by Miss D'anna Smith, sister of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a mauve knit street-length dress for her daughter's wedding and added a corsage of white cypripedium orchids.

The groom's mother was attired in a berry knit street-length dress and also added a corsage of white cypripedium orchids.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The colonial bouquets of the bride and her attendant were used as the centerpiece on the serving table which was covered with a white silk illusion cloth edged with Chantilly lace over yellow underlay. The three-tiered cake was decorated with yellow roses and topped with white satin bells. The cake and yellow punch, coffee, nuts and mints in the shape of roses were served by the sisters-in-law of the bride and groom, Mrs. Gene Fuston, Mrs. Dan Fuston and Mrs. Mickey Smith, all of Turkey. Silver and crystal appointments completed the service.

Miss Devona Smith, sister of the bride, was in charge of securing signatures for the guest book.

Others assisting with the reception were aunts of the bride, Mrs. Gerald Smith of College Station, Mrs. George Reed of Silverton, a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Max Garrison of Canyon, and brothers of the bride and groom, Shane Smith of Quitaque and Greg Fus-ton of Turkey.

Misses D'anna and Devona Smith distributed rice bags tied with yellow ribbon.

The bride chose a navy nylon suede dress accented with a yellow sweater for her going away costume. She added a corsage of white daisy poms tied with yellow satin ribbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Fuston are at home in Turkey where the bridegroom is engaged in farming and other business interests.

HIGHTOWER ELECTED CHAIRMAN OF THE TEXAS DEMO DELEGATION

Congressman Jack Hightower of the 13th Congressional District has been elected the Chairman of the Texas Democratic Delegation for the 96th Congress.

"Although Texas has lost a sizeable amount of seniority with the retiring of George Mahon, Bob Poage, Olin Teague, Omar Burleson and others, we have gained new members who are aggressive and innovative in their ways, and they too are dedicated to serving the best interests of Texas. We will be a force to be reckoned with," Hightower said after his election.

"The stronghold of Texans, with their 20 Democratic members, meets weekly in a regular forum to discuss pending legislation that is of importance to each member's district and to the state as a whole. Collectively members of the Texas delegation serve on every major committee in the U. S. Congress and are considered to be one of the most effective and cohesive delegations in the Congress. I am grateful to have been chosen to lead them," Congressman Hightower said. Hightower, who serves a 33-county area of Texas, including Hall and Briscoe, is fresh from another major appointment, having been named to fill the traditionally Texas seat on the House Appropriations Committee vacated by retiring Congressman George Mahon of Lubbock.

On Tuesday, January 9, The House of Representatives and The Senate House organized. In the House, Secretary of State Steve Oakes called the House to order at 12 noon.

The first order of business was that of electing a speaker. Since there was no opposition to Bill Clayton for this office, the first session was supposed to have been nothing more than a routine matter for his election; however, it turned out to be a 3-hour debate over the method that should be used in electing him.

Representative Bob Close of Perryton submitted a resolution calling for a secret ballot in the election of the speaker. Representative Close gave some very good reasons for using this method. The reasoning was that a speaker could not use his many powers to punish those that voted against him for speaker if it was done by secret ballot. I voted to table his motion along with 110 more representatives for a record vote.

Many people in the 66th District and friends of Bill Clayton asked me how I would vote for speaker. I advised them I was for Bill Clayton. If I had voted for a secret ballot, it would have raised considerable doubt in the minds of those I had told that I was for Clayton. Basically, I am opposed to anything being done in secrecy that affects government.

I would like to be totally accessible to every citizen in the 66th District. If you would like to contact me, you may do so by writing or calling one of the following:

The House of Representatives went into session at 2:30 p.m. on January 15, to act as a jury concerning whether Donald M. Cartwright should be seated in the House. Cartwright, a Democrat from District 57H, San Antonio, was challenged by his Republican opponent, Mr. Kae Patrick. A number of charges were levied against Cartwright that had to do with some minor offenses when Cartwright was a juvenile. The House voted to seat Cartwright by a vote of 136 to 2. The opinion of most members was that it was nothing more than an effort to embarrass Mr. Cartwright.

Just had dropped on my desk a news release from Representative John Wilson, LaGrange, Texas. Wilson is announcing for the position of Speaker of the House for the 1981 session. Bill Clayton was elected for an unprecedented third term to serve the present 66th Legislative Session. Clayton recently announced that he now has 90 signed pledges for the 1981 Speakership. Not all members are Clayton supporters but his overwhelming majority of supporters that voted 137 to 8 for his reelection shows how strong he stands with members in the House. Ask anyone in the House why they support Bill Clayton. The answer is "Bill's word is his bond and he is fair even to those opposing him." Even the liberal element that opposes his conservative philosophy highly respects him as Mr. Speaker.

Invitations to every kind of event are sent to legislators every day here in Austin. If you fail to get from four to five daily you have been slighted. Almost 100% of the invitations come from lobbyists trying to get the ear of a legislator. For instance, I have had invitations for one breakfast, two luncheons and four evening receptions and buffets all for the same day. What they really need down here is one coordinator that will serve similar to the United Fund so you will just get hit up one time instead of so many times separately. They might also have their Chamber of Commerce serve as a clearing house for suggested dates for meetings. The Pampa Chamber of Commerce and other chambers on the High Plains have helped coordinate meetings. I gave this suggestion to one local person and they plan to follow through.

In the past I have been most critical of the fact that far too much legislation is introduced and far too much is being passed. Last year, over 4,000 bills were introduced and about 900 became law. Each year there seems to be an increase. January 14 an effort was made to place some restrictions in the RULES on the number of bills introduced by each Representative. I voted against the restriction because I believe every member should be heard without limitation but I'm sure I will vote "No" on many of the bills. To date there have been 378 bills introduced in the House and 125 in the Senate. Corrective legislation and new laws are essential in an expanding society but far too many laws are introduced for the purpose of giving certain special interest some undeserved advantage.

Representative Bob Close of Perryton asked me to co-sponsor HB 370 which I did. The bill should not be controversial. It will do nothing more than permit County Commissioner Courts to authorize payments for the expense of an autopsy and cost of transporting a body from one point to another. It isn't difficult to see why legislation of this nature is needed.

We might mention that Representative Bob Close of Perryton is one of the most highly respected Legislators down here.

Should you want a copy of any legislation that you read about, please call my office 512-475-3883 or write to me at P. O. Box 2910, Austin, Texas 78769. You may also dial TOLL FREE 1-800-252-9693 and get information on the status of any bill in which you

Who'd want to invest in a bunch of revolutionaries?

They didn't exactly look like winners.

But then our revolutionary army beat the British at Saratoga in 1777.

And people recognized Washington's men as an army, rather than a band of renegades.

So faith was won as well as a battle. And investments in our government's securities started picking up.

It took courage to take stock in America back then. But it paid off.

And it can do the same for you now.

Just join the Payroll Savings Plan, or buy U. S. Savings Bonds at your bank. There's no safer, easier way to build your savings.

So, buy the specially designed Bicentennial Series E Bonds.

Those brave revolutionaries would be proud.

Series E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4 1/4% the first year). Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.

THE AG SIDE
Presented By DANNY FUSTON

The American Farmer's ability to combine education, technology and hard work into unrivaled productivity can be as important to the future as our military capacity has to the past. Depressing prices paid to farmers for his product for his profit therefore making his profit margin non-existent or slim could inhibit the recipe of past success, his initiative to continually improve his production. Low farm prices encourage producers to shorten input. Poor profit margins increase the possibility of over-worked land, and under managed farms which in the end could turn our best producers to more profitable pursuits. If we lose over a period of time our best farmers due to lack of profit in a given number of years, we might find our greatest strength in the world, our agriculture go down the drain. The consumer should take this into consideration when he writes his congressman.

Farmers Union Planning Fly-In At Washington

Turkey Local Farmers Union board of directors met January 18 to elect members to go on the Washington Fly-in February 4, which is about the date American Agriculture's Tractorcade will be arriving in Washington.

The Fly-in date has been changed due to not enough members participating to get special rates on airlines and in hotels.

Farmers Union will have a National Fly-in February 26. This date will probably be more effective since this is just before farm programs are made. Farmers Union members will meet with the Washington Staff for a one-day briefing for all farmers across the nation.

Virgil Blakney was elected to go on this fly-in. The board of directors also appointed a nominating committee for new officers and it will report at the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spittler of Jamestown, Ohio have come to Turkey to spend the winter visiting with friends and relatives. They have recently retired and because they formerly lived in Turkey, they decided to secure an apartment at the Turkey Hotel and make an extended visit. Mrs. Spittler is the former Eula Mae Lane, sister of Leon, John, Boyd and Bill Lane of Turkey. So they have a large number of relatives with whom to visit in Turkey.

GIRL SCOUT COOKIE SALES TO BEGIN FEBRUARY 2

What has become an annual American tradition — Girl Scout Cookie Sales—will begin in Caprock Girl Scout Council on February 2, 1979 according to Mrs. Buster Owens, president of the board of directors.

Caprock Girl Scout Council Brownie, Junior, Cadette and Seniors will be selling cookies door to door for $1.25 a box the first two weeks in February. This year Mint, Chocolate Chip, Scot-Tea, Savannah, Country Oat, Chocolate and Vanilla Creme Cookies; and Cheddardette Crackers will be available.

Every penny earned from proceeds of the cookie sale will remain in the council to benefit girls. Funds support troop activities, help local girls participate in national and international Girl Scout events, purchase equipment, camperships, and this year, finance building improvements at their resident camp, Rio Blanco, located near Crosbyton. Awards for cookie sellers include one and two week cookie scholarships to attend camp or other council-related activity, T-shirts, posters, patches and certificates.

Girl Scouts from Bailey, Briscoe, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Dickens, Floyd, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Lynn, Lubbock, Motley, Parmer, Swisher, Terry and Yoakum counties will participate in the cookie sale. The sale ends February 18, 1979.

Guests in the Allen Brummett home over the weekend were Mrs. Connie Rice and children, Timmie, Ronald, Tonya and Tammie

The Senior Citizens are proud to have been able to contribute $1,032.70 toward the purchase of a new fire truck.

Next meeting will be at 6:30 p.m. January 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Conner and girls, Gina and Lori, spent Sunday, January 14, at Rock Creek, attending a gospel meeting led by Jim Bullock of West Monroe, Louisiana. HOW WOULD YOU ANSWER?

Yes ___ No ___ Though I do worry, I feel there's a way to prevent it.

Yes ___ No ___ Sometimes I antagonize people because of my actions or attitude. I know there must be a way to correct this.

Yes ___ No ___ It seems contrary to reality, but I feel that real happiness is something apart from wealth, power, or fame.

Yes ___ No ___ There must be a practical way of raising my family in a better world.

A "yes" answer to any of these questions is definite proof of God's concern for you. God talks to man by making him "feel" and "know" of a better way of living. You feel discontent about present conditions, you sense "something better," somewhere.

That's God talking to you. Listen to him. Come to church this Sunday. Read His Living Word in the Bible. This could be the chance you've been waiting for.

People who need glasses are apt to find the world pretty fuzzy without them. What appears as only a blur without their "specs" swings into sharp focus, once they've put them on.

If only there were glasses we could don quickly when we need to put ourselves, our problems, our successes and our failures into proper perspective! But that kind of lens has yet to be devised.

We all have moments when we seem to be groping and nothing comes clear. We wonder where we are going and, perhaps, why. We have such moments whether or not we go to church on Sundays—for the Church will not give us spectacles, rose-colored or otherwise, with which to view the world. But . . . the Church does teach us of God's world, it does teach us the meaning of Faith, it does show us life in its proper light.

Try going to church. If you do, you may find your "inner vision" getting a great deal sharper.

KIKER'S KORNER

CATTLE MAY NEED SUPPLEMENTAL VITAMIN A

Drouth conditions and a lack of green forages often lead to vitamin A deficiency in cattle. Thus producers may want to supply a supplemental source of vitamin A for cows grazing dry, bleached pastures with little or no green hay or silage this winter.

Vitamin A promotes growth, stimulates appetite, aids in reproduction and lactation, keeps the mucous membranes of respiratory and other tracts in healthy condition, and makes for normal vision.

Deficiencies of vitamin A during pregnancy may cause cows to abort or give birth to dead or weak calves. Extreme deficiencies may also impair the ability of cows to conceive. Bulls receiving insufficient vitamin A show a decline in sexual activity and semen quality.

Carotene, which supplies vitamin A, is contained in all green parts of growing plants. Good pastures always provide liberal and rich supplies of carotene and thus have a high vitamin A value. However, vitamin value decreases after the plant's bloom stage and much of the carotene is destroyed in hay by oxidation during field curing. The degree of greenness in a roughage is usually a good index of its carotene content, but hay over one year old (regardless of color) is usually not an adequate source of carotene or vitamin A.

The vitamin A requirement of breeding, growing and finishing beef cattle can be met by carotene in feedstuffs such as green pastures, grass or legume silages, hay not over a year old, or by supplementary vitamin A either by intramuscular injection or orally.

Growing and finishing steers and heifers require 1000 International Units of vitamin A per pound of dry diet; pregnant heifers and cows, 1270, and lactating cows and breeding bulls, 1770.

The intramuscular injection of emulsified vitamin A at the rate of one million units apparently provides sufficient vitamin A to prevent deficiency signs for two to four months in growing or breeding beef cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eudy spent the weekend in Claude visiting in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Field. The occasion was the second birthday of their granddaughter, Nancy. They were joined there for their visit by another daughter, Karen Eudy of Fritch, and her friend, Doug Phillips of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. James Monk of Plomot joined Mr. and Mrs. Michie Maupin of Turkey Sunday for a trip to Brownfield where they visited with T. N. Monk, brother of James Monk and brother-in-law of Michie Maupin. Mr. Monk is a patient in the Brownfield hospital and is seriously ill.

Mrs. Hazel Robinson returned home Thursday, January 14, from a six-weeks vacation trip in Arizona and Las Vegas, Nevada. She spent three weeks in Chino Valley, Arizona, visiting her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Melton. While there, they visited friends and made a sight-seeing tour of the state. She spent three weeks in Las Vegas, Nevada visiting a niece and her husband, the Lewis McAninch family.

She reports a delightful vacation, only hitting the ice enroute home.

Question: My employer told me I should check my W-2 carefully this year. Why?
Answer: This year, for the first time, the W-2 is being used to report your wages to the Social Security Administration as well as to report your income to the Internal Revenue Service. The benefits you receive from social security when you retire, become disabled or die will be based on the F.I.C.A. wages reported on your W-2. RESOURCES, SERVICES NEEDED FOR HANDICAPPED CHILDREN
In One Minute You May Help In Changing The Life Of A Handicapped Child

One of the objectives of the Region XVI Education Service Center is to enhance educational services to handicapped children in cooperation with the local school district in the top 26 counties of the Texas Panhandle. To help meet this objective the Education Service Center is trying to locate service agencies and resources to add to its existing resource directory. This information is made available to parents, medical and educational personnel, and any other interested persons.

The Service Center is interested in identifying agencies, clubs, civic and religious groups, individual volunteers, service organizations, etc., that offer any of the following services to handicapped children (ages 0 through 21): AID—Equipment, Financial Assistance, Housing, Information/Referral, Language Interpreter, Legal Provide Transportation and Volunteer Help. SERVICES/TREATMENT—Camping Programs, Day Care, Foster Care, Halfway Houses, Homebound Programs, Mental Health Care, Physical Health Care, Residential Facilities & Respite Care Facilities. COUNSELING—Drug Abuse, Genetic, Parent/Family, Psychological & Vocational Counseling.

HIGHTOWER INTRODUCES EMERGENCY FARM STABILIZATION BILL

United States Congressman Jack Hightower lost no time in his effort to aid the American farmer as he submitted the "Emergency Food and Fiber Supply Stabilization Act of 1979" shortly after swearing-in ceremonies during the first day of the new Congressional Session.

THERAPY—Chemical, Occupational, Physical, Psychological & Speech Therapy. EDUCATION/TRAINING—Infant Development, Job Placement, Language Development, Sheltered Employment, Social/Recreational Development, Survival Skills Training, Vocational Training, also Parent, Regular, Remedial & Special Education. ASSESSMENT—Audiological, Educational Medical, Psychiatric Psychological, Visual & Vocational. And any others not listed.

If you know of a resource in your city or county, please take one minute of your time to write the name of the organization, telephone number, city (address if you know it) and mail to Region XVI Education Service Center—ATTN: Nick Travis, P. O. Box 30600, Amarillo, Texas 79120 or call collect 806 376-7463 and the information can be delivered over the phone.

The Educational Service Center will then be responsible for contacting the agency or service provider and gathering additional details for inclusion in their directory.

Handicapped clients include those who are Visually Impaired, Hearing Impaired, Deaf and Blind, Orthopedically Handicapped, Health Impaired, Mentally Retarded, Emotionally Disturbed, Language / Learning Disabled, Speech Handicapped, Pregnant or any other types of disabling or handicapping conditions.

Hightower, beginning his third term representing the 13th Congressional District, took the oath of office standing beside the two new members of the "West Texas Team," Congressman Kent Hance of Lubbock representing the 10th District and Congressman Charles Stenholm of Stamford who represents the 17th Congressional District.

"I am confident that the trust of the West Texas delegation will be to present a forceful and united team as we seek solutions to the problems of our area of Texas," Hightower noted. Collectively the three serve a perimeter that encompasses 82 Texas counties.

Hightower pointed out that the bill he had introduced was similar to the legislation he had introduced last year during the 95th Congress. During remarks introduced into the record Hightower stated, "The House defeated the basic concept of this legislation last year and as a result many farmers had to sell out and go to town to find jobs to support their families."

"This means more pressure on the urban job markets, loss of income for our rural areas, and more farmland in the hands of corporate and foreign investors."

The Texas agricultural spokesman stated that though farm prices had increased over the last year, they had not increased enough to bring farmers out of the hold of several years of low prices.

The Hightower bill would place the decision of price and set aside in the hands of the farmer. "If the producer wants full parity, one-half of the acres for that crop must be held out of production." The guaranteed price is scaled downward according to the amount of cropland held out of production. Noting the need for austerity in government spending, Hightower spoke to the taxpayer cost in the proposal. "It will cost the taxpayer no more than current farm programs. The higher the target price, the less the farmer produces. The less produced, the higher the market price. The higher the market price, the less budget exposure for the tax dollar."

Hightower summed up his remarks by telling the Congress that the farmers that walked the halls of Congress would be back.
