

Mr. Muleshoe

Well, boys, you can now go ahead and pay off those milk and coffee bills. I can announce that Mr. Rainey lost in the race for Governor. Mr. Jester is definitely ahead. The Young says he is still collecting bids made in the first primary—he doesn't insinuate anything, but privately he thinks some of you boys are a little slow. All except Ed Johnson. He says Ed came around right early and bought the coffee, possibly thinking in this way to stop a little of the ribbing.

Several times this column has had something big written up to roast people about, some critics to make. Before we could get the blistering editorial into cold type, however, before we could turn the pitiless spotlight of publicity on an evil in our community, a respect of duty on the part of somebody, we got the true facts in the case and found we didn't have a leg to stand on. The fine editorial went into what we fourth estaters call the "hell box." So we have just got into the habit of bragging on everybody and seldom have to change up or back water.

But there is one near evil which we can continually war on and that is the tendency to complacency on the part of our city—common to all towns. Muleshoe will grow if its business men make it grow. Dallas could have been surpassed by Fort Worth if a spirit of complacency had been allowed to continue. Dallas got on her toes and is still alert. Muleshoe has hundreds of natural advantages as a town, but we are in competition with other towns of the area and unless we are alert some town with half the advantages will run us ragged. We can go places here if we work at it. We can't do it by letting nature take its course.

Last week I said here that Roy Jordan wanted to know who was responsible for the drought. What I didn't say was that he looked pretty hard at me when he said it. Well, now you see the drought is broken, don't you?

Course, I don't claim any credit for bringing the rain, but Earl Ladd is different. He thinks an ad he has in this week's paper on "rain makers" has a direct bearing. Anyway it has rained even here in Muleshoe, we're going to make more than anyone would have predicted a few days ago and we ought to be mighty happy.

Alfalfa Mill Machinery Will Be Ready Jan. 1

Machinery for the alfalfa mill to be constructed here has been promised for delivery around January 1 by the manufacturers, Julian Lena, who is interested in the enterprise states. Installation of the mill originally was planned for the current season, but machinery has not been available.

Indications are, Mr. Lena said, that the mill be ready before next year's cutting begins. Julian and Charles Lena announced some time back that they were planning to build the mill. They have now acquired a suitable tract of land on which it will be located.

The tract adjoins the pens of the Muleshoe Livestock Sales Company, north of the railroad. Arrangements for a spur out to the site have been made, Mr. Lena said.

Teachers and pupils will assemble at Goodland gym to begin work, but no public program will be given at that time. All patrons of Three Way and Stegall are to come out Monday night, September 2, for a public program and get together. Mr. Homsley said, E. H. Boulter, Lubbock, deputy state superintendent, will be the principal speaker, and there will be a miscellaneous program of music and other entertainment. Visitors are expected at that time from Muleshoe, Morton, Lubbock, and other neighboring communities.

Visitors are welcome Monday morning, but there will be no program. Instead, teachers and pupils will get down to work.

Members of the faculty are: H. H. Homsley, superintendent; C. J. Auten, high school principal; Miss Effie Farmer, elementary principal and 8th grade; Mrs. Katherine Sanders, primary; Mrs. Paul Carmichael, second grade; Mrs. Lowe, 3rd grade; Mrs. Cynthia Pennell, 4th grade; Mrs. Myrtle Cook, 6th grade; Mrs. H. Mr. Homsley said the school expects an enrollment this year of 300. All of the Stegall pupils have transferred and will attend Three Way school this year.

Muleshoe Term Begins Sept. 4

Muleshoe schools will open next Wednesday, September 4, Supt. W. C. Cunningham announces. Buses will make their regular rounds on the morning of the 4th. Pupils of the grammar grades will register that day, as will high school freshmen. Pupils of the upper high school grades will register September 5, Mr. Cunningham said.

Faculty To Meet
A meeting of the faculty of high school and grade school has been set for Tuesday morning, September 3, at 10 o'clock in the high school building.

Pupils of the grammar grades will return to school on September 5. Regular classes are scheduled for Friday, September 6.

Considerable work has been done on the high school building in re-decorating and making ready for school opening, and buses have been placed in readiness for their opening runs.

Several teacher vacancies exist. The Journal will carry a complete list of the faculty next week.

Mrs. White Hurt In Bus Accident

Mrs. Maude White of Muleshoe was badly injured when the bus in which she was riding overturned on a steep stretch of road in Raton Pass Sunday night. Her husband, Norman E. White, was slightly injured.

Mrs. White is in a Raton, N. M., hospital. She suffered a fractured leg, shock and possibly internal injuries.

Bailey County Registered Dairy Cattle Owners Plan Show Entries

Bailey County men and club boys who own registered dairy cattle have begun preparations for entering the Farmer-Bailey County Dairy Show to be held in Farwell October 17, 18 and 19. Arrangements for Bailey County's participation in the show were made at a meeting at Oklahoma Lane recently, which was attended by P. W. Jones and Edward White, vocational agriculture teachers in Muleshoe high school, and W. C. Cunningham, superintendent of schools here.

The three entered Muleshoe's bid for the show next year, and were told the show will be held in this city provided proper facilities are provided for it.

The Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce has frequently expressed a willingness to back the show, and will undoubtedly provide suitable grounds and buildings by next fall. The Bailey-County Registered Dairy Cattle Show is open not only to club boys, but to breeders of registered dairy cattle in the two counties. Animals shown must be registered and the owner must have his certificate.

Divisions will include Jersey, Holstein-Friesians, Milking Shorthorns, and Guernseys. Classes will be arranged under each division, and the local men said about $750 will be distributed in premiums. Advertising to be used in the show catalogue is now being sold, and this will provide premium money.

Another division of the show will be the butterfat production contest. For club boys there is an award for "Club Herdsman" of $10. Boys will be judged on the attractive display of cattle, neatness of stalls, and good showmanship. A special award of $25 in four prizes is being made to club or non-club boys, whether or not exhibitors, who most assist in promoting dairying in Farmer and Bailey counties. There is a baby calf class for non-club boys and girls, to include any dairy calf of registered parents, to be exhibited by boys and girls not of club age. Ribbons will be awarded in this class.

Meanwhile we hear that Gracie, top heifer of the local club boys owned by Cecil Mardis, will lead the parade of fine Jerseys to the show. Gracie now has a fine heifer calf, which also will be shown. Ray Griffiths was the sponsor of this animal. Another cow which has dropped a calf since the local program started is owned by Earl Henry and sponsored by Dudley Malone, and will be on exhibit at the show.

Summer Drought Is Broken By Section-Wide Rainfall

New Citizen

A new citizen of Muleshoe is Marion F. Harris, who with his wife are moving here. He will represent Southwestern Life Insurance Co. in this territory and Mrs. Harris will be a teacher in Muleshoe schools. They came here from Lubbock.

ROYCE'S CAFE IS AGAIN OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Royce Garth, proprietor, said he Saturday after a two week's vacation. The cafe and the Spence Radio Shop during that time changed rooms in the Spence building.

Royce Garth, proprietor, said he has bought that part of the building he now occupies. The restaurant is newly decorated and in effect is a "new" eating place in Muleshoe.

Indifference May Defeat Bailey Road Paving Plan

Our rural friends will vote for the road paving bonds on September 10.

Will you, Mr. and Mrs. Muleshoe, will you turn out and vote and help put this over? Much depends upon the active support of Muleshoe people, for much of the voting strength lies in the city, and our farmer friends are looking to us to turn out in full strength.

The bond issue must have the approval of two-thirds of those who vote in this election. Can you spare the few minutes it takes to go to the polls and cast your vote?

You live in Muleshoe and Bailey County, and you believe in your city and county, can you afford to let this opportunity to help build our country go by simply because you can't take the time to vote?

The journal feels certain that more than two-thirds of the people approve of the issuance of bonds for paving. But indifference can cost us the great advantages to be gained by paving. The bond issue will go by default unless you and you go and vote for it and support it in every way you can.

Light Vote In Run Off Primary

About 1 out of 3 Bailey County voters took the time and trouble to vote in the run-off primary held last Saturday, August 24. Only 600 or so voted, whereas the estimated voting potential strength is about 2,300. It was less than half of the light vote cast in the first primary.

In general the county went along with the rest of Texas and district. The county gave Jester 470 votes to 177 for Rainey; in the lieutenant governor race the county went for House who was defeated, giving Shivers 288 to 239 for House; The present commissioner of agriculture, J. E. McDonald, won over R. E. McDonald in Bailey 341 to 263; the county gave Owens a lead over Beauchamp for judge court criminal appeals, 341 to 263.

In the race for representative in the Legislature, 120th district, the county gave I. B. "Doc" Holt, Lamb County, 346 votes to 277 for J. W. Jennings of Hefner county.

No county office was involved in the run-off primary, all having been decided in the first primary.

Bailey County people voted as follows in the governor race: Muleshoe—Jester 216, Rainey 64. Progress—Jester 14, Rainey 3. Fairview—Jester 20, Rainey 8. Mays—Jester 12, Rainey 6. Bailey Co. Boys At 4-H Camp

County Agent J. K. Adams and a group of Bailey County 4-H boys attended the annual 4-H Encampment for Extension District 2, held August 12 to 14 at the Army Air Field west of Lubbock.

Boys included Clifford Mardis, Chas. Brown, David Stovall, Bill Vinson, Vernon Thomas, Olan Parker, J. R. Henry and Jack Heald. Mr. Adams said 250 were present from all parts of the district. A group of state and local leaders were on hand to supervise the games and courses of instruction. Intense competition developed in the rifle matches and in playground ball, he said.

The general rain we have all been hoping for these long, dry dusty months, has come to the Plains country. From far and wide come reports of good rains falling Monday and Tuesday.

Bailey County and the Muleshoe territory received varying amounts, but nearly everywhere enough seems to have fallen to do the grain crops a great deal of good. In Muleshoe the fall was gauged by R. J. Klump, weather recorder, at 1.4 inches. The weather continues cloudy and misty as this is written Thursday morning.

The rain fell slowly, and penetrated the ground to a maximum depth. Many farmers said this was of more benefit than several hard summer showers they had received.

Much grain will make. Where the feed was in the boot or already headed out, it is given a good chance to go ahead and make grain. It won't be a full crop, but it will be several hundred per cent more than was made on dry land last year.

The moisture will allow early drilling of wheat land. Some farmers told this newspaper they believed a very large acreage again will be turned to wheat. Acreage planted to wheat the past year was perhaps the greatest in the history of this section, and the quantity of wheat shipped out of Muleshoe set an all time high this past harvest.

Five Inches Of Rain
T. W. Watson, who resides 2 1/2 miles northwest of Baileyboro, said about 2 1/2 inches fell at his place each night, and he estimated total rainfall there at 5 inches. He said much grain will be grown if frost stays off long enough.

Over Three Inches
George Wuertling, 16 miles northeast in the Pleasant Valley community, who was in to renew his subscription to The Journal, said 3 1/2 inches fell at his place Tuesday afternoon and night. The Branscum farm nearby had a big rain. A big lake in the neighborhood was said to have picked up water in it.

Van Rogers, 18 miles southeast of Muleshoe and 1 mile east of Circle Back, said he had 1 1/2 inches and that straight south of Muleshoe the fall was much heavier. Rogers said he will make a "short crop" of grain. He said a late frost will help.

Had 2 Inches
J. T. Maltby, 2 miles south of Progress and 1 1/2 west, said he had 2 inches of rain, which fell nicely and did a lot of good. He said that nearly 10 inches of rain fell at his farm in June, but they were hard, local showers and that the Tuesday rain did more good than all those rains together.

Goodland Gets Fine Rain
A fine rain fell in the Goodland community in two showers Monday and Tuesday. Mr. J. Holt reported about two inches of rain fell at his place.

Carl Pollard, who resides 1 mile north and a quarter mile west of Stegall, said about 1 inch fell at his place Tuesday night. Both these men said not too much grain will be grown in their neighborhood, especially if an early frost occurs.

RAIN AT BURRIS FARM
Mrs. Virgie L. Burris reports a rain of 1 1/2 inches fell at her farm southwest of Muleshoe the night of August 26. She said the rain of a week before, when 1 1/2 inches was reported in the Schuster and Fields neighborhood south of Muleshoe, amounted to about 3 1/2 inches at her place. We'd say that ought to be about "lay by" the feed crops there.

Texas Farmers In Better Condition Than At War I End

Texas agriculture is currently in a stronger financial position than it was at the close of World War I, according to Jesse M. Osborn, vice president Muleshoe State Bank, who has been designated by the Texas Bankers Association as Bailey County Key Banker.

Reports on the results of a national survey of bank lending in 1945 made by the Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association said that in Texas shows that farmers use only a fourth of the bank credit available to them. However, 55.2 per cent of the 398,183 Texas farmers did avail themselves of bank credit. The banks in the state which serve agriculture made $36,294 loans to $19,840 last year for a total amount of $267,950,000. In January 1, 1946, these banks had farm loans outstanding of $225,777,000. On the same date the banks had $737,701,000 additional for agricultural loans had the farmers needed it.

That the credit extended to the banks by their farm customers is a useful tool of agriculture is shown by a breakdown of these over-all figures, he added. Last year 177,161 farmers procured farm production loans in an aggregate amount of $192,859,000. Farm real estate loans were made to 6,890 farmers for a total of $17,470,000. On January 1, 1946, there were outstanding in the banks $99,337,000 in farm production loans and $17,379,000 in long-term farm real estate loans. Loans on crops in storage insured by the Commodity Credit Corporation were made by the banks to 35,789 farmers for a total of $57,621,000. A total of $108,861,000 in C. C. C. loans remained outstanding at the beginning of this year.

"The fact that Texas farmers have found it necessary to use only a small part of the bank credit available to them indicates that they are in a far stronger financial position today than they have been for many years.

"During the war years farm incomes have been high and farmers have wisely used their earnings to pay down debt and accumulate savings in War Bonds and bank accounts.

The high level of bank assets and the high degree of liquidity of the banks assure Texas farmers of ample bank credit in the future to meet all of their needs. At the end of last year, Texas country banks had an average of cash and United States Government Bonds equal to 80 per cent of their deposits. By contrast, in 1929, country banks in this state had cash and government securities equal to 42 per cent of deposits. The high ratio of liquidity is one of the most promising indications for the continued financial well being of our farm community.

Providing bank credit to meet the needs of agriculture for constructive purposes is only one of the services being rendered by the banks to their farm customers. Working with their state association and with the American Bankers Association's Agricultural Commission, the banks have been promoting a program which will result in many benefits to the farm community.

"One immediate aim of this program is to prevent post-war inflation. The banks are encouraging their farm customers to continue to save through purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds, and to avoid going into debt to buy farm land at high prices. The average price of farm land in Texas is now 38 per cent above the 1935-39 average. Bankers are watching this situation closely and are urging their customers to keep in a safe financial position.

"For the long-term, the banks are encouraging farmers to engage in well-rounded and diversified farm production, and are placing particular emphasis on conservation of the productivity of the soil. Another part of this program is concerned with the education of farm youth through sponsoring activities of 4-H Clubs and Future Farmers."

Army Definitely Identifies Body of Colin P. Kelly

Buried as an unknown soldier for more than four and a half years the remains of Captain Colin P. Kelly, Jr., Air Corps, who died December 10, 1941, in the Philippine Islands following a bombing operation which won him posthumous award of the Distinguished Service Cross have now been positively identified the War Department announced today through Colonel Edward V. Macatee, QMC, commanding officer, San Antonio General Depot, U. S. Army, San Antonio, Texas.

An exhaustive check and re-check of all available identification data resulted in establishing certain identification, according to Major General T. B. Larkin, the Quartermaster General, who is charged with administration of American graves Registration Service. The remains of Captain Kelly are now buried in the United States Military Cemetery Manila No. 2 at Manila, Philippine Islands.

"The painstaking care with which the remains of Captain Kelly were eventually identified is typical of the consideration given every case where there is a question as to identity," General Larkin stated. Remains are classified as unknown until we track down every available clue and make use of every method known to science. When remains are ultimately identified, there can be no question as to authenticity of identification."

According to Colonel Macatee, Captain Kelly was one of an eight-man crew in a B-17 aircraft which went out on a mission of bombing Japanese naval units on December 10, 1941. The aircraft crashed at Mount Arayat, about five miles east of Clark Field, Luzon, Philippine Islands, while returning from this mission. Six members of the crew bailed out. The remains which have now been identified at those of Captain Kelly, were found near the body of Technical Sergeant William J. Delehanty, of Brooklyn, New York. Identification of Sergeant Delehanty was made through the soldiers identification tags which he was wearing. There were no identification tags found on Captain Kelly's remains.

The remains of both men were first buried in the Post Cemetery at Fort Stotsenburg, Luzon, Philippine Islands. Subsequently reburial was made in the United States Military Cemetery Manila No. 2 at Manila, Philippine Islands, along with the remains of 89 other members of the armed forces.

While following the crash, the remains of Captain Kelly had been tentatively identified on the evidence of a Filipino who has heard an Army Sergeant say: "Why, that's Captain Kelly." The accelerated progress of the war made it impossible to conduct a complete investigation at the time.

When the war in the Pacific ended, identification data supplied by American Graves Registration Command Officers in the Philippine Islands were checked against records made during Captain Kelly's service in this country following his graduation from the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York.

His former widow, Mrs. J. Watson Pedlow, of Media, Pennsylvania, and his father, Colin P. Kelly, Sr., of Madison, Florida, also supplied the War Department with identification and information about Captain Kelly.

Careful study of the records and other available information resulted in accumulation of sufficient evidence for positive identification.

Patsy and Don Hardy of Dimmitt are visiting this week with Mr. and Mrs. Buck Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Forbes had as guests Sunday her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ross, and her brother John Ross wife and four children, all of Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Day and family, formerly of Muleshoe, now living at Modesto, Calif., arrived here Thursday for a 2 week's visit with relatives and friends.

Just Between Us Girls

So you're going to college. Maybe some of you have already had the experience, but for some this is your first term. You are all in a titter over it—wondering about your room mate—what she'll be like—about your room and a million other things—course you've been worrying for weeks about your clothes. Cause you just know mother isn't going to have them ready, but mother always manages, even when all the rest of the family has to be taken care of, too—and the first thing you know you are off.

You're a little quaky inside now after the take-off and the preparation of going—Feel a tiny-wee-bit homesick already—but shortly you're all busy again with registration and getting settled and meeting your new friends and the first thing you know the first semester is over. Silly to feel home sick with so many important things to do, isn't it?

I saw a couple of handy little gadgets the other morning at one of the stores—a small electric iron and electric toaster. The iron would be perfect for you college girls, or for anyone who makes frequent trips. It takes up very little space and we women always need something present at the last minute. And for those midnight snacks—that toaster might come in handy.

His Farm Fields Are Factories

U. S. FARMERS have made our fields into factories.

We live better than people in other countries because our farmers get more out of the soil.

The steel industry takes pride in the way it has helped bring about this improvement in farm practice. Tools of steel—from the plowshare to the giant combine—have multiplied in number and increased vastly in quality.

Fifty years ago the typical farm in America used about 3 tons of steel. Today the figure is nearer 17 1/2 tons.

That is a measure of the modernization of agriculture and an indication of the interdependence of steel and farming.

We no longer have separate "farm production problems" or "industrial production problems." We have but one set of problems for everybody.

If strikes, for instance, restrict the supply of farm implements and supplies through work stoppages, or make their cost prohibitive, America is out of gear.

Anything which tends in this direction is bad for the farmer—and finally for everybody. Farmers know it. Everybody else should know it.

Steel mills need all the scrap iron and steel they can get. The shortage is serious. Farmers can get extra dollars and help increase steel output by sending worn-out machinery, etc., on its way to the furnace. AMERICAN IRON AND STEEL INSTITUTE, 350 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, N. Y.

The Institute has printed a booklet STEEL SERVES THE FARMER. Write for a copy and it will be sent gladly.

Mrs. Cox Praises The Journal For Weather Reports

Mrs. Laura B. S. Cox, of Excelsior Springs, Mo., owner of land in the Muleshoe area, has written The Journal praising the paper's attempts to get accurate weather reports, and enclosing her subscription for a five-year period. Her letter follows:

Excelsior Springs, Mo., August 21, 1946.
Editor Muleshoe Journal, Muleshoe, Texas.

Dear Sir:—I have been planning on writing you a letter for a long time—just put it off.

I want you to know just how much I have appreciated your reports on weather. One knows it rains and hails on one section and misses the next, but when you come so near locating the section as you did when you reported hail on Johnston's land I almost knew our place had a little of something.

Want to tell you we had Mr. and Mrs. Claude Black in our town for a month and Mr. Woodrow Glascock for some two months and they were just as much interested in the weather reports as I am. Just hope other people take the time to tell you they do, too. Again my thanks. See you are asking for more money for The Journal I have always taken whatever paper Muleshoe printed. Guess I will as long as I live, so here is my check for $10 for five years from Jan. 1947 to Jan. 1952.

Will be seeing you a little later. Hope you have had a general rain this week.

Very respectfully,
LAURA B. S. COX,
716 N. Dunbar Ave.

Farmers Ask 40c Cotton This Fall

ATLANTA, Aug. 25—Southern cotton farmers, representing states from Oklahoma to the Carolinas, voted to establish minimum price of 40 cents a pound for cotton and $100 a ton for cotton seed.

These prices, plus "whatever else we can get," would be on 15/16ths middling cotton o.b. Memphis, Tenn., and on "no grade" seed at the nearest warehouse. Shortly after voting the floors under lint and seed, the group voted to name Georgia's agriculture commissioner Tom Linder as chairman of a committee to work out means of enlisting the cooperation of all cotton growers.

Action by the farmers followed an on-the-floor discussion of prices by farmers in which they asserted that unless the price of cotton is increased production would decrease rapidly.

In each case, the farmers declared they could not afford to take the risk of planting at present prices and each told of reducing acreage or getting out of the cotton business altogether.

Value of Cover Crops

Effect of Winter Cover Crops on Yields of cotton on eroded land, Guthrie, Okla.

KIND OF COVER	Percent Yield Increase
Wheat (12-year average)	17
Vetch (12-year average)	31
Winter Peas (8-yr. average)	32

A cover crop may be defined as a crop grown for the purpose of protecting the land from the action of the weather. Quite often a cover crop also provides good fall, winter and spring grazing and may serve the purpose of a green manure crop when turned under in Spring. For instance, small grain, vetch, or winter peas may be considered cover and grazing crops during the winter and green manure crops during the spring. In this case the same crop covers and protects the ground in the winter and improves the physical condition and fertility of the soil when it is plowed under.

Paving Awaits Engineer Maps

A city paving program in Muleshoe will get underway just as soon as preliminary work can be completed, Julian Lenuau, Mayor, told The Journal Wednesday.

Mayor Lenuau said a certain amount of re-stripe must be un-wound before any program of the size contemplated here, and which presents as many engineering problems, can be undertaken.

Roberts Engineering Company is now preparing grade and drainage maps of the entire city, and when this work is completed, the city commission will be ready to talk turkey.

Mr. Lenuau said the maps will show just where curbs and gutters must go on every street and in every block in Muleshoe, so that even if paving is not done in front of one man's home, the curb and gutter still can be placed with accuracy.

The voters here approved a $25,000 bond issue to help finance street paving. The city is to pay one-third and property owners on each side one-third each of the total cost.

Good quality paving is contemplated by the city dads, and when it is placed they want it to be permanent, or as nearly so as can be provided.

Sudan Paving Completion To Be Celebrated

Muleshoe was visited Tuesday by a caravan of Sudan people in 15 automobiles and our people were invited to attend the celebration Friday and Saturday there of the completion of 62 blocks of city paving and 36 1/2 miles of farm-to-market roads.

The visitors toured the four blocks of Muleshoe paving, stopped on Main street and Rev. M. A. Walker, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Sudan, spoke briefly extending the official invitation to the celebration. The cars were gaily bedecked and many of the visitors wore Indian or western regalia.

A group of girls sang for the Muleshoettes. The delegation was headed by C. E. Wiseman, Sudan druggist, who said all towns in the territory will be visited on the trip, including Spring Lake, Earth, Morton, Whiteface, Levelland and many others.

Vet Housing Discussed Here

Earl Kerr, Lubbock, locality expediter for the Veterans Emergency Housing program addressed members of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce at its Friday meeting, telling them how to go about getting a program started here.

He suggested that a goal be set up for Muleshoe, showing the number of veterans homes needed, and he said that when that is done materials to build the homes will be channeled into this territory. In this way the community will get its share of new construction.

Lumbermen present said twenty-five veterans already have applied for materials to build homes. Chas. Lenuau, president of the Chamber

Howdy, Folks: It won't be long now till schoolbells will be ringing.

Well do we remember the happy days of our life in school. We especially remember the honor system. That's an educational plan where the teacher has the honor and the students have the system.

We really got the most good from the school of experience. We didn't get a sheepskin; just had our removed. The class yell was "ouch."

In the school line-up, perhaps the first grade teacher is one of the most important. She knows how to make the little things count.

Of course the secret of teaching is pretending that you knew all your life what you learned that afternoon.

Some one said that a teacher is a textbook wired for sound.

When we went to school it wasn't the school we disliked, it was the principal of the thing. Anyhow, we know you'll like our electrical and refrigerator repair service. Call us.
