DISTRICT COURT CONVENES HERE MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20; PRESENT INDICATIONS FOR HEAVY DOCKET

There have been 21 new civil cases and three criminal cases docketed for the coming term, and it is reported the grand jury will have a considerable quantity of evidence to hear in determining how many indictments are yet to be turned in. ## Mrs. Weaver Heads Red Cross Work In Bailey Co. For Year

Mrs. J. C. Weaver will head Bailey county as chairman for the Red Cross society this year, according to an announcement made last Tuesday by County Judge J. E. Adams, and she will begin her campaign for local memberships Armistice day, November 11.

It is Mrs. Weaver's plan to also appoint a chairman in every principal community of each school district of the county where the membership drive will also be carried on for the week beginning with Armistice day. Each chairman will be expected to keep the funds raised in their respective districts, using it to answer the calls of needs from people of their communities. These calls will also be augmented by the supply of clothing held at the depository at the court house in Muleshoe, being sent here by the national Red Cross organization, as well as some furnished by local citizens.

"The Red Cross society has in the past been of great aid to Bailey county and all appreciative citizens should be glad to chip in their membership of $1.00 each year," said Mrs. Weaver who, in her canvas, will be assisted by several other workers.

SHEEP AND CATTLE ARE NEXT IN GOVERNMENT CONTROL PLAN

Two Fires During Week, Both Caused From Gas Vapors

The general monotony of municipal routine was interrupted twice during the past week by fires, the first one occurring Friday afternoon when Bill's Hamburger shop submitted to conflagration. Bill's owners, proprietors having gas installed, and in some manner a leak sprang in the gasoline piping to an outside tank while being moved, quickly vaporizing inside the building, it exploded, blowing the tank inside the structure. Several people in the building at the time of explosion suffered singeing of hair and eyebrows.

The fire department quickly responded and put out the flames, though they were materially hindered in quick action by the crowds that massed around the structure and people leaving their cars in the street impeding the passage of the fire engine and action of the fire boys.

Sunday night about 8:30 o'clock the furniture building occupied by Wm. Windfield and family caught fire from explosion of a gasoline stove, severely damaging the inside of the structure and burning much of the furniture and household goods. The building belongs to J. D. Newman and was not insured, but Windfield's household goods carried a policy.

At the time of the Windfield fire the alarm siren failed to respond because of being frozen by the icy mist falling, but fortunately some of the fire boys were in a local drug store and received a telephone call from central, others were notified by phone and the fire engine quickly rushed to the scene averting a more serious disaster.

COTTON GINNED IN COUNTY

There were 1,928 bales of cotton ginned in Bailey County October 18, as compared with 1,363 bales of the same date last year.

Farmer country's ginning record of same date was 1,928 as compared with 950, according to statistics released by the Census Bureau, Washington, D. C. Muleshoe gins have turned out to date 1,856 bales, which is about 600 bales more than this time last year.

Turn Again To Tomb of Unknown Soldier

November Eleventh

Armistice Day - 1933

ARMISTICE DAY PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, through the favorable acts of Providence, the United States of America was permitted victory in large measure at conclusion of the World War, and has since that time taken a commanding and important place among the nations of the world, and

WHEREAS, the signing of the Armistice pact among contending nations on that memorable day of November 11, 1918, was an advent of gratitude and has ever since been a day of rejoicing, Therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, and it is so requested and ordered by the undersigned Mayor of the City of Muleshoe, that due reverence, observance and patriotic consideration be given Armistice Day, November 11, this year, by all citizens of this municipality; that all business concerns of every kind be closed; that all labor of every possible kind be released and annulled; and that all people so order their plans and thoughts that the day may be properly held in their thoughts and actions as one of the memorial days of the nation.

Respectfully,
A. P. Stone, Mayor,
Municipality of Muleshoe, Texas.

Senator Woodward Makes Announcement For Attorney Gen'l

Senator Walter C. Woodward, of Coleman, last Saturday, authorized confirmation of reports that he would become a candidate for attorney general in 1934.

In a statement, Senator Woodward said: "I am going to make the race for attorney general to succeed Attorney General Allied, whom I am quite sure will make the race for governor. In fact, I am now a candidate for that office."

"There are two essentials necessary to qualify a lawyer to successfully serve as attorney general. One is integrity, the other legal ability. Having had more than 25 years experience in the active general practice of law, during the last 10 years of which I have served as a member of the state senate, and having devoted much of that time to a study of state affairs, I have confidence in my ability to serve as attorney general of Texas, with credit to myself and honor to my state."

NEGRO KILLED AT OLTON

Pete Dismuke, reported bad negro, was killed on the Len Irvin farm south of Olton last week by J. J. Moses, tenant.

Dismuke, had been arrested for drunkenness, and upon being searched, there was found a check for a bale of cotton which he is reported to have admitted stealing from the Burrow gin there.

Going back to the farm, he began abusing Moses, making a threat on his life and reaching for his hip pocket, whereupon Moses hit him on the head with a baseball bat.

Apparently the negro was only temporarily dazed as he went to the well with a waspian for water to wash the gash on his head. A few minutes later he became sick, dying Sunday afternoon. Sheriff Len Irvin was on the place during the fire. Moses was arrested and released under bond. Dismuke is said to have killed a man near Tulsa last year.

TWO CANDIDATES FOR LODGE

At the regular monthly meeting of the Muleshoe Masonic lodge to be held Tuesday night of next week there will be two candidates to receive honors of the Master's degree.

A feature of the meeting will be a big oyster feed, and all members are urged to attend. The lodge will be called to order in the third degree at 6:30 o'clock p. m., and work of conferring will start at 7:00 p. m.

Visiting members in the community at that time are extended a cordial welcome to attend.

TO TEST SEED FOR FARMERS

Lubbock, Texas, Nov. 6.—O. L. Beene state seed analyst, has returned to his station at Texas Technological College, from the offices in Austin. He is to continue his work in determining the percentage of germination of seed raised on the South Plains and advising planters in relation to crops.

FARMERS MAY PROCESS CORN FOR OWN USE WITHOUT TAX

The farmer who processes corn for his own use, such as when he cracks it for feeding purposes, is not subject to the processing tax which became effective Nov. 5.

The regulations stipulated that any processing in the field, except drying and cleaning, would be subject to the tax, which is 28 cents per 50-pound bushel, provided the grain processed is for sale.

Such operations were described as follows: "Milling or other processing for market (except cleaning and drying) including cutting, grinding, cracking, breaking by machine or other means and custom milling for toils, as well as commercial milling."

"Cutting, grinding, cracking or breaking corn not in the form of flour for feed purposes alone" is specifically exempted.

The Skeleton Of T. H. White Was Found Last Sun.

The partial skeleton of T. H. White, aged farmer, residing about four miles north of Sudan, was found Sunday by Ewing Halsell and "Red" Murrell, in the masher pasture, near the Halsell ranch in Lamb county, about seven miles north of Sudan at the foot of a sand hill.

White disappeared from his home a little more than a year ago, according to report, leaving about 4:00 a. m., and had not been heard from since. Most of the body was missing, a part of the vertebrae, some other smaller bones, and in a nearby thicket the skull was located.

It is said the body was identified by his wife, who recognized the shirt he wore as one she had made, cap and overalls were also found, and a gun ticket taken from the overalls bearing the name of T. H. White was recovered. His purse containing two five cent pieces and a dime were badly decomposed from the elements.

An inquest was held late Monday afternoon at Sudan by Meade F. Griffin, county attorney, and Len Irvin, sheriff, at which time two of White's sons were questioned, it being decided he came to his death through unknown causes.

White had lived in that community about five years. Report indicates there is no doubt as to the identity of the remains found in the pasture as being those of the aged farmer.

Members of Legion Start Campaign For Used Clothes, Toys

Members of the post American Legion will be prepared to answer all calls turned in at Gupton's grocery store or at the Muleshoe Cleaners & Dyers shop Friday and Saturday this week with a truck to gather up any old clothing and toys people of this community have to donate to the Good Fellowship movement instigated by the Legionnaires.

The ex-soldiers want all the useable old clothing people have to give to the needy of this community during the coming cold winter months. There are plenty of worthy people in this section who can use such clothing and will be glad to receive it.

Also, there are lots of children who may have little or no Christmas presents. Nearly every home has some toys that children have grown tired of and discarded. They may be broken some and part of the paint knocked off, but that makes no difference, arrangements have been made to have all clothing thoroughly cleaned and all toys repaired before they are given out.

The first of next week members of the Ladies auxiliary will canvass the town for clothing and toys. It is suggested that no delay be made in gathering up such as will be given to the committee will not be delayed in its activities.

METHODISTS HAVE COTTON CROP

Members of the Methodist church here have sponsored the growing of 20 acres of cotton on land donated by some of their group for the church.

Five acres of this planting was plowed up under the federal government reduction plan, two bales have already been picked, and it is expected to pick about two more bales.

The money received from the sold cotton will be applied on the salaries of the pastor and presiding elder.

The price paid for gold by the U. S. advanced 10 cents last Saturday, or $327 an ounce, while it is 59 cents above the world quotation.

Kiwanis Club Takes Action Against The Fake Ad Schemers

The principal theme of discussion at the Kiwanis meeting last Friday was the number of fake advertising schemes now being pulled off in Muleshoe and the pitiful manner in which some business men ignorant of their lack of advertising knowledges become in them. Some local business becoming so much interested in some of these fake schemes as to be lending their assistance and personal time in accompanying and assisting in the canvassing of the slickers who work the graft.

It was the consensus of opinion expressed by members present that such fake advertising should be stopped in Muleshoe, and the matter was referred to the committee on public affairs, composed of Cecil Tate, Jess Osborne and J. B. Waide, Jr., to appoint a committee of local business men to which every advertising scheme would be referred to before being partaken of by any local business men, proprietors of all business concerns of every kind being asked to adhere to the committee's rulings as a matter of their personal protection.

The censor committee system is now being operated exceptionally successfully in many other towns in this area, and it is believed will mean the saving of several hundreds of dollars in Muleshoe on fake advertising.

At this meeting H. L. Konars, of Amarillo brought greetings to the club and Pat R. Bobb explained the workings of various NRA movements, one of which he is county director.

County Judge Adams stated the North and South road committee was still active and still hopeful of eventually being able to consummate the improvement of that road from Muleshoe to the south county line.

The city tax rate at Amarillo has been reduced two cents on the $100 valuation while the assessed valuation of property has been reduced 20 per cent.

Trades Day Was Attended By Big Crowd; Good Bill

The Trades Day event held in Muleshoe last Monday, while not attended by quite as large a crowd as common because of the cold weather, yet was one of the best of its kind ever held here. That which was lacking in number made up in zest and interest in the various entertainment features programmed.

The treasure hunt, an innovation on the program, was participated in by more than 60 people whose inquisitive natures lured them on in solving the mysteries of the hidden treasure, going from one vague clue to another a little more enticing and enlightening, yet gradually approaching the coveted spot where the $5.00 basket of merchandise was concealed. Several of the participators negotiated the devious pathways of treachery and evaded the numerous pitfalls of the adventure, but G. C. Neeldham, farmer, of the town was the first to cover the trail with a correct checkup of all the various code stations and obtained the a. a. r. d.

There was a good attendance at the picture show during the afternoon and night, and a good picture enjoyed by the patrons.

Business men generally throughout the town report good patronage, and satisfactory sales of special trade offerings. Some merchants declared for an exceptional day of trade.

L. J. Burge won the sword for putting the most baseball trousers, a half-bushel measure pitcher's distance.

Lamar Witte won first place in the boys bicycle race, Spencer Beavers winning a close second.

Another new feature on the Trades day program was the boring and wrestling matches late that afternoon. Building Brown, of Clovis, N. M., met "Bad News" Mangrum, of Amarillo, who was to be a four round bout, but Brown eliminated his worthy opponent in the second round with a knock-out blow on the back of the neck which "knocked him for the final count of 1-1."

Pat Corbett, of Clovis, N. M., met Sam Cook, local mat artist in a wrestling match for three falls. Cook taking the first fall in 1:10 minutes, Corbett won the second in 1:45 minutes, while Cook came back to annex the third in two minutes flat.

The Parkville orchestra furnished music throughout eleven o'clock, a night there was the usual street dance. Notwithstanding the cold weather, there were 70 couples tripping the pavement until about eleven o'clock when the fingers of the orchestra members froze out and "Home, Sweet Home" was played.

All local advertisements remain in this paper for the time specified or until ordered out. In case of errors or omissions in local or other advertisements, the publisher does not hold himself liable for damage further than the amount retained by him for such advertisement.

FAKE ADVERTISING

This is the time of year when fakers, grafters and slickers of various kinds visit the Plains. They come here at harvest time and money becomes more plentiful this section is never disappointed in the visitations of this class of people, and Muleshoe is no exception.

There have been plenty of these traveling men with their fake advertising schemes already come to Muleshoe, some of them successfully putting over their pet schemes which, in the main, profits no one but the fellow who puts it over. Occasionally, some of these advertising schemes bear merit and are worth while in a measure, but it is a well known fact by business men who know what real advertising is that 90 per cent of them have practically no value at all.

It has always been the policy of the Journal to protect local business men against all unworthy advertising schemes possible, frequently doing so at the expense of its own business. Already this fall the Journal office has turned down more than $300 worth of business from various fake advertising schemes which it deemed inadvisable for local business men to participate in. The Journal is could have used this business very nicely, needed the profit from it, but as a matter of principal refuses to be a party to any such graft.

Some of these schemes were put over anyway by their perpetrators, and in some instances liberally patronized by business concerns who unwittingly became the victims of the slickers, but the printing of none of them was done in Muleshoe.

The recommendation of the Kiwanis club to appoint a committee to pass upon all advertising schemes presented here before being patronized by local business concerns is a splendid idea and should receive unanimous support. It will mean saving of hundreds of dollars to these business men.

LIKE OLD TIMES

It took just such a shakeup as this country has been going through for the past three years to bring it around to the point where its citizens could particular field to cover. But if it is true that newspapers are what their readers make them, then there is much to be said for the reading public in the smaller communities.

In communities like Muleshoe there is little in the way of yellow journalism. Small town papers do not tolerate sensationalism. The newspapers of other smaller cities and towns are remarkably free from radical news and doctrines, for the reason that the people in these communities are sound in heart and thought, and they do not want lurid news or scandal of any sort. If the smaller newspapers are what their public makes them, then they are certainly appealing to a pretty sound and sensible public.

NO TIME FOR RASHNESS

Threats of farm strikes, and industrial upheavals in many centers of population, must surely impress the average Muleshoe citizen with a realization of the fact that this is a mighty poor time for such affairs. Violence never yet won a victory over economic conditions, and it isn't going to now.

No matter how soured a man may have become as a result of conditions through which the world has been passing, if he will shake the scales from his eyes and get out in the open, around, and read a little more he will be convinced that we have made progress on the road to normal conditions within the past several months. But there is an element now, as always, who want to change things over night. They are the same ones who want to have their own way in everything.

Most generally they are known as members of the "rule or ruin" class. And it is this class which is now seeking to foment greater unrest and dissatisfaction all over the country. It is a time for earnestness, not rashness; for peaceful study of the proper methods of overcoming our problems, not for increasing them by radical argument and revolutionary action. We are getting out of the slump—and we are getting out. But the more rashness and violence displayed the longer it will take us to do so. It takes time to change conditions such as the world has been passing through. It is to be done over night. So if you, loyal 100 per cent American, turn a deaf ear to the agitator and trouble-seeker. Keep cool and everything will come out your way.

BIBLES AND DEPRESSION

It should interest everybody around Muleshoe to know that there is at least one business the depression hasn't hurt. That is the publication and sale of Bibles. Sales in 1932 were 98 per cent greater than in 1931. Publishers report that 1933 will be as good as last year.

When he is prosperous the average man thinks he can take care of himself and do a good job of it. He wants little advice; he is not humble, and he doesn't appear to have much time to give to his own shortcomings. But when times are bad he turns some where for help to get him out of the pit of despair and to rid him of his worries. He goes back to the Bible, from which he'll probably depart very shortly after prosperity again comes his way.

But that is neither here nor there. The fact remains that more Bibles are now being sold than ever before, and that a Bible reading nation is a long way from being down and out.

WHERE TIRES GO

At sometime or another the Muleshoe man who has occasion to buy auto tires wonders where the old ones go. Most people believe they are salvaged by the tire factories and the rubber reclaimed.

But a writer in a New York paper says not. He points out that America exports about 50,000,000 pounds of old tires yearly to Mexico, China, Spain and Portugal, whose people get additional "mileage" out of them—as footgear.

Jaunty Journalettes

Our idea of an optimist is the Muleshoe man who still refers to his auto as a "pleasure car" even when he's changing tires.

The brave Muleshoe husband who brags about setting his foot down at home usually takes his shoes off when he gets in late to keep from waking his wife.

One reason why romance lasted a great deal longer in Muleshoe during the good old days was because a bride looked much the same after she washed her face.

Our advice to all Muleshoe motorists is to so live that when they do have a wreck people will say it must have been due to poor brakes instead of poor booze.

We know several Muleshoe citizens who at some time of the year will match their rheumatism against the weather man any day in the week.

It has now definitely settled that the Muleshoe man who said some time ago that "prosperity is just around the corner," works in a round-house.

Have you ever noticed that the only alibi some Muleshoe men have when they make a mistake is that mistakes occur in the best regulated families.

Another good way for Muleshoe parents to teach their children not to lie is not to lie to their children.

A scientist says kissing is safer than shaking hands, but how many young folks around Muleshoe kiss for safety?

What most Muleshoe citizens would like is a prosperity that would act more like a father than a prodigal son.

About all the average Muleshoe man expects his wife to be is a sweetheart, an audience, a good cook and a nurse.

Pavement Pickups

A recent young married man in Muleshoe remarked the other day that says he has heard that the federal government would keep on getting liberal with its money, for sometime next year probably he and his wife and the baby (yet to come) might want to take a trip to Europe and it would be nice to have Uncle Sam finance the journey.

Leonard West, bright young man, says he has heard that the federal government is about to give a woman so long as she won't argue against her.

Harry McCray says he is positive that face powder has knocked more men cold than gun powder ever did.

"The honeymoon is over," says Richard Rockey, "when he discovers that a perfect complexion doesn't make the coffee taste any better." Richard's not worrying!

Franklin Delano is pretty smart, according to John Lacy who says that U. S. gold coins are supposed to contain 23.5 grams of gold per dollar. A $10 gold coin would contain about a half ounce of gold, which according to present gold prices would now be worth about $15. But the government was quite particular to gather in all the gold money before boosting the price so no one could melt up their hoarded gold and get the 50 per cent profit that would come from present prices.

Constable Bartley who never shows any particular interest in women, was quite particular to gather in enough to ask if anyone ever thought what a team Sister Aimee and Sally Rand would make in vaudeville.

Jack Aldridge was asking K. K. Smith the other day what they called it when a man had two wives. "Polygamy," replied K. K. "Then that man was very particular to gather in enough to one," retorted Jack. "Monotony, I guess, according to Hollywood rules," replied K. K.

Now that the government "buy now" campaign is on, Alex Paul says it's wonderful how much money one can save now on the things they can't afford to buy.

Booster Bob Brown has been lately seen coming and going to the bank more frequently than common. Folks observing the frequent trips decided he must be doing a real land office business since times are getting better, so one of them decided to find out. Stopping him on one of his return trips, he queried: "Been putting some money in the bank?" "No," replied R. L. "Then you were drawing some out or borrowing some?" "No, not that either." "Well, what are you doing going to the bank so often?" "Oh, just filling my fountain pen," replied the busy booster.

Andy Hicks, rancher, living a few miles west of town, last week was telling an interesting experience he had just a few days before the first fall frost came. It seems Andy has a pet honey bee that was sipping the honey from some wild flowers in a pasture near the house. There were also several steers grazing in that pasture, and, accidentally one of them while nipping up a bunch of grass that had some flowers growing in it also swallowed the pet bee. First the bee was very angry and thought to sting the inside of the steer; but being full of honey decided to first take a nap and afterward do the stinging. But imagine the surprise when the bee it awoke to find the steer was gone.

Million Trees Planted

More than 1,000,000 trees have been planted along the state highways in beautification efforts during the last ten years.

STOP GAS PAINS! GERMAN REMEDY GIVES RELIEF

Acting on BOTH upper and lower bowels Adierka washes out all poisons that cause gas, nervousness and bad sleep. One dose gives relief at once. Western Drug Company.

SNAP SHOTS

A hog's squeal is the only part of him that isn't used, while that is the only part of a gangster that ever proves useful.

Another trouble with the country is that very often "the voice of the people" is nothing more than one per cent telling the other nine per cent what to do.

They say travel broadens one, yet a Pennsylvania woman gained 25 pounds while serving a six months jail sentence.

The best way to show one's sympathy for America's jobless is to quit buying articles that provide jobs for men in other nations.

Ever hear about the bridegroom who placed a piece of his wife's first cake under his pillow and then dreamed that he was working in a rock quarry?

Some parents don't try to bring up their children any more. They just try to keep up with them.

The best state of life to live in is the state of solvency.

If the way of the transgressor is hard, why is it so many people follow it?

When all is said and done, a nose on the grindstone is worth two in the air.

One reason there were so many great leaders in the old days was because a man didn't have to "yes" the fellow above him to hold his job.

WAIDE TO COLLEGE STATION

J. B. Waide, Jr., Bailey county farm agent, left early last Saturday morning for College Station, where he is attending a week's meeting of county farm agents who are being instructed by leading officials in the plans of operations for agents to be effective during 1934.

Enlisted Under Banner "I Serve" School Children Help the Needy

In 1933 there were 6,840,000 members of the Junior Red Cross in the public, private and parochial schools of the United States. They ranged in years from the twelve-year-old in grammar school through the senior classman in high school, and numbered about equally between boys and girls. Like the adult organization—the American Red Cross—every race and creed have equal rights under the Junior banner "I Serve."

These boys and girls have aided in a magnificent degree in the huge unemployment relief work the American Red Cross has been carrying on for several years. Through funds they contributed, hundreds of schools were enabled to give free lunches to children of the jobless; they have collected and distributed clothing; in their manual training classes they made thousands of toys; extended Thanksgiving and Christmas cheer to the veterans in hospitals, the aged, crippled and sick in their communities. One of their major works was the making of thousands of garments in their sewing classrooms from the cloth furnished by the Red Cross. They aided in many communities in canning surplus vegetable and fruits for winter stores for the needy. Two outstanding works of mercy were the distribution of thousands of Christmas greeting cards in braille writing for the blind, and the children's toy party given in Ellsworth and Auburn, Maine, following devastating fires which made several hundred families homeless, and destroyed all of their household possessions. The children had been reclothed, but it occurred to Red Cross workers that they had lost their valuable possessions, too—their dolls, books, wagons and other playthings.

Junior Red Cross members in ten cities were telegraphed about this state of affairs, and immediately there came rolling in great bundles of gifts for the children of the two Maine towns. A great toy party was held, and each child received at least three gifts, candy and ice cream to revitalize, and the occasion was gay and festive with balloons and other decorations. "As the twig is bent, so the tree is inclined" might well be the motto of the Junior Red Cross. Since the days of the World War, when the children of America were rallied under its banner so that they might also participate in sustaining the morale of the Army and Navy, millions have reached their maturity, and are today found enlisted as members of the adult organization. Their interest in their fellowman, inculcated in the school days when they were Junior Red Cross members, has made of them substantial and helpful citizens today, when the nation is battling the greatest economic depression in history.

Dr. Brown, State Health Man Warns Against Winter Heat

Austin, Texas Nov. 9.—With the cold months here, it is again in order to advise regarding inside temperature. Undoubtedly thousands of homes are constantly overheated during the winter. In fact, there are many families who tolerate an indoor temperature in the cold months to which they would and do strenuously object in summer. Such persons not only are uneconomical with the fuel, but are endangering their health as well," states Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer.

"People enjoying an overheated temperature become soft and with bodily pores behaving however, imperceptibly as they do in summer time, the system is at a decided disadvantage in defending itself against the sudden change from a tropical or sub-tropical heat to the penetrating cold.

"Consequently colds, bronchial troubles and pneumonia, taking advantage of the situation, step in and do much unnecessary, and not infrequently, fatal damage. You will agree that this is entirely too high a price to pay for a few extra degrees of unneeded heat.

"For example, a certain family typical of many hundreds, has again started on its annual program of colds and sore throats. However, this does not alter its affection for super-heat. Sixty-eight to 70 degrees in the health temperature. A thermometer kept within that range, plus proper humidity, is a great health safeguard. More than are doing so need to erect it. What does your thermometer read?"

Be proud of your home town.

METHODIST PASTOR GOES TO CONFERENCE CLOSING WORK

Rev. E. C. Raney, pastor of the Methodist church here for the past two years left Wednesday morning for Clarendon where he will attend the annual session of the Methodist conference.

Rev. Raney stated before leaving that while the year's work had not been nearly all a minister could wish for, yet there had been progress made along all lines for which he was indeed grateful.

The final report of the church shows there were 16 additions to the church during the past year, including four adults received on profession of faith. There were three infant baptisms.

The sum of $333.00 was raised on conference benevolences, $22.00 for district work, $41 for kingdom extension work, the total finances raised by the church for all purposes being $2,283.00, and some returns yet to be received from the cotton crop now being harvested by the church membership.

There are three active League organizations with 45 members, while the church membership totals 254.

Swain, federal engineer for the Bureau of Roads.

Only 63 per cent of Texas, state highways are improved at all, according to Col. Lee Ashburn, head of the Texas Good Roads association, and only 23 per cent are paved. Only nine per cent of the local roads are improved, but a tiny fraction are paved. Thirty-eight states have better highway systems, yet only eight direct as much gas tax revenue away from road work as Texas. Nearly three-fourths of the other states surpass Texas in the development of local and lateral roads.

RFC TO BE MORE RIGID IN ITS FUTURE ACTIONS

Fat R. Bobo, local administrator for the RFC, returned last week from Big Spring where he attended an RFC school of instruction, administrators from 70 different counties over the state being present.

Mr. Bobo says the state committee has made a closer ruling as to dispensing funds in the future than during the past, which will also mean a more intimate investigation of real conditions by local administrators before relief is accorded those applying. In no case must that relief exceed $20, while for a single person $5 is the limit, and $10 to $15 will be the average sum for each family.

In giving work to applicants it will be budgeted, and should a workman obtain work other than from the RFC it will be deducted from his personal budget.

Mr. Bobo says Bailey county has plenty of unemployed, but very few who are actually in distressed condition.

WALLACE GOES TO LITTLEFIELD

P. K. Wallace, cotton grader for the Texas Cooperative Cotton association has moved his office from here to Littlefield, occasioned by government requirement of personal supervision of cotton farmers warehouse receipts on cotton to be obtained from compresses.

BIBLE ADVISES DEATH FOR THE KIDNAPER

John Public should feel no sting of the conscience in dealing quickly and with the extreme penalty in cases of murder and kidnaping.

Even in Bible times and in the Word itself there are strong admonitions and advice for society to follow in protecting itself against those who prey upon innocent persons.

In Numbers 35, verses 30-31, we find:

"Whoever killeth any person shall be put to death. . . . Moreover, ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is guilty of death, but he shall be surely put to death."

And in Deut. 24, verse 7, we find strong advice in connection with kidnaping:

"If a man be found stealing any of his brethren. . . . and maketh merchandise of him or selleth him; then that thief shall die"—Clovis News-Journal.

Ford Lays Off Men To Comply With The N. R. A. Movement

Henry Ford, prominent automobile manufacturer, is apparently lining up in part with the NRA, with which he has been in controversy since its inception. Ford claims since he shortened labor hours he has established his $5 minimum wage back in 1914 he is now still offering labor a better proposition than is the NRA program.

Last Saturday officials of the Ford Motor Co. announced that in order to comply with their interpretation of the provisions of the NRA automobile code, weekly layoffs would be instituted in the Rouge plant at Dearborn, to bring the workers within the maximum 35 hour average working week specified in the code.

This will be accomplished, a spokesman for the company said by laying off 9,000 men for a seven day period next week, following it with one week layoffs of 9,000 other workers in succeeding weeks until each will have reduced his working time since last September when the code was signed by seven days.

"The company is taking this mandatory step in compliance with the prohibition against work in this country," a spokesman for the Ford company said.

The Rouge plant has been in operation on a five-day, 40-hour work week for some time, and officials said that the contemplated layoffs will reduce the average work week for all to 35 hours by the first of the year. The last official employment figures placed the number of workers at the Rouge plant at 45,000.

Referring to the step the Ford spokesman said, "We don't want to do it but the law requires it."

The revised automobile code approved by President Roosevelt on August 27, under the heading "hours" reads in part:

"It is made a provision of this code that employers shall so operate their plants that the average employment of all factory employes shall not exceed 35 hours per week. It shall be necessary at times to operate for substantially longer hours, but no employe shall be employed for more than six days or 48 hours in any week, and all such hours shall be absorbed in such average."

First Winter Blast Brings Rain, Sleet Frost and Freezing

The first blast of winter struck the South Plains country sometime Thursday morning of last week, residents of this section being awakened with chilly sensations, and, upon looking out of windows, discovered a misty rain falling which, frequently during the day, contained sleet, and several times during the day and night changed into snow; but not sufficient to show on the ground.

The temperature dropped several degrees and there was a general scurrying for overcoats and heavier clothing. Coal jumped into demand by delinquent householders who had failed to have their bins supplied, and several extra thousand feet of gas were consumed by those using that fuel. Reports coming in from various points indicate the cold spell was general throughout this entire area, rainfall running as high as two inches at some places north of here, while still farther north there was more or less snow.

No one has any objection to the coming of wintertime, as it has been expected for sometime past. Cold weather was delayed this year more than a month longer than last year. Cotton picking is temporarily held up because of the dampness; but wheat growers are enthusiastic, as the moisture insures the well starting off of that particular crop.

Friday night was considerably colder. When householders awoke Saturday morning it was to look out upon a beautiful snow white frost, the first of the fall season, apparently everything was glistening under the rain-snow. There was also plenty of thin ice and the mud in roads was stiff from the freeze.

Sometime Saturday night the thermometer began taking a tumble, dropping as low as 22 above zero, accompanied by a fine sleet mist, and Sunday morning everything was icy. The day was cloudy and misty, and Sunday night there was enough snow to show well upon the ground the following morning when the sun came out but with indications of fairer weather.

TRIPLE WEDDING

The Methodist parsonage was the setting for a very unusual affair last Saturday evening, when three couples from Enochs were married by Rev. E. C. Raney, who used one ceremony for the three contracting pairs.

Miss Ida Bell Ray became the bride of Howard Cox. Miss Evelyn Vanlandingham became Mrs. James F. Beck and Miss Vera Nicholson was married to Jefferson D. Caloway.

The large room was made festive for the occasion by a profusion of late fall cut flowers.

Guests for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burkhead, Miss Mildred Burkhead, Jim Cook, Mrs. Elvin Smith, Miss Mozelle Alsop, Messrs. Raines Sparks, Ray Buzard, Harry McCarty, also, Mrs. Raney and Ethel Clure.

Immediately following the ceremony, the young people left for a short trip in New Mexico, after which they will return to their respective homes near Enochs where the young men are engaged in farming.

HEATING OF BULKED COTTON LOWERS THE VALUE OF FAT

In recent experiments at both College Station and Lubbock with the harvesting of cotton mechanically, it was found that the cotton should be dry and practically free of green leaves and green unopen bolls, and the harvested cotton should not be placed on damp ground for any great length of time prior to ginning. Cotton which had not fully matured and which contained a high percentage of moisture in the form of green leaves and green unopen bolls when piled in the field was damaged by heating, the temperature in some cases being as high as 140 degrees F. This resulted in the destruction of the germinating power of the cottonseed and the fat content of the seed was lowered. Furthermore, the grade of the lint was lowered from 1 to 4 grades and the strength of the fibre was reduced as much as 33 percent. Matured handpicked cotton stored in the field at Lubbock sweated slightly but apparently was not damaged by heating.

PROGRESS HAS BOX SUPPER BIG SUCCESS FOR CHURCH The box supper given at Progress last Friday night was a big success in every way, according to report. There was a big crowd present and a good program. A feature of the program was the solos played on a carpenter's saw by Rev. Lloyd Jones, pastor, the music rendered by Walter and Edgar Hardage, of Oklahoma Lane, also, the orchestra music by Parsons aggregation. There was also other music, readings and various literary stunts, as well as a contest for the prettiest girl and the ugliest boy present. A large number of boxes containing choice culinary products of the women was brought, all selling well, the proceeds going to the Methodist church. METHODIST CHURCH Sunday School 9:45 a. m. At 11:09 a. m. Rev. E. W. Jennings will preach. He is well known in the community and yof will be grateful for an opportunity to hear him. Remember, the leagues will meet at 6:30 p. m., next Sunday instead of 6:45 p. m. At 7:15 p. m., the choir will give the service so much talked of and announced—a service in story and song, "The Lost Boy and a Lost Coin." This is something new and different having a story read, intermingled with some good music along with the same sentiment and air. The women will meet on Monday, when they are having their week of prayer this week. The midweek meeting will be at 7:30 Wednesday night, studying the next Sunday lesson for the Sunday school. The choir meets Thursday night. The pastor will leave for conference Wednesday and be there for the opening early Thursday morning. While there has not been accomplished this year all we wanted to see, the Muleshoe charge will have a report better than some others in some respects, and as good as many in all departments of the church work. We have tried to carry on all phases of the work on an equal basis while some seem to specialize in one or two lines of the work and rather neglected other parts. We do not know what the conference will bring, but we are grateful to any person who has in any way helped in the work or in a financial way. Also we would not forget many personal kindnesses rendered. —E. C. RANEY, Pastor

BROWN BACK FROM BIG FAIR R. L. Brown, realtor, returned last Sunday night from a three weeks trip into northern climes, being spent principally at the World's Fair at Chicago, which he declares was "some big show" and would take anyone at least three months for glimpses to say nothing of giving it all a good look over. While on this trip he took occasion to go on to Three Oaks, Michigan where he consulted with members of the Warren & Son firm relative to opening up some more of their ranch land near here in small tracts, for which there is now considerable demand. Returning, he stopped for a day at Exelsson Springs, Mo., where he visited with old friends.
