ENGINEER H. N. ROBERTS WILL HANDLE $8,000 WATERWORKS JOB AUTHORIZED BY FEDERAL GOV'T

Plans Call For A 50,000 Gallon Reservoir, New Well, Additional Pumps and More Main Line.

At a special meeting of the City Commission held last Friday morning it was decided to complete contract with the Federal government in the matter of its authorization of $8,000 for extending and improving the municipal waterworks system.

Among the improvements to be made will be digging another water well, buying and installing another well pump and motor, building a 50,000 gallon storage reservoir, purchasing and installing one 200 gallon per minute pump and another pump of 350 gallon capacity, building a well house and a pump house, and building an addition to the City hall.

While application for federal funds was made in the sum of $6,375.00 the grant was made for $8,000, it being understood the difference was occasioned by a too low wage scale being figured in the application for funds. It is understood that $1,910 of the total sum will be in the form of actual grant and not to be refunded, the balance will be paid back from waterworks revenues obtained in 20 equal annual payments of $46.75 each with four per cent interest, bonds for the project being authorized and issued by the City Commission.

Monday a letter was received from R. A. Thompson federal state engineer approving the city's request for the appointment of Harry N. Roberts as engineer to be in charge of the project. Mr. Roberts is well and favorably known here and the Commission is happy to obtain his services.

The next step in the project will be the working out in detail of plans and specification of the various phases of the project and submitting them to the federal state engineer for approval.

Following approval, bids will then be let, subject to state engineer's approval, after which contracts may be signed and work begun. It is thought now it will be at least 30 days or more before work can actually be started.

The wage scale under the FWA rulings provides that common labor shall receive 40 cents per hour, truck drivers from 45 to 55 cents per hour, skilled labor from 50 to 85 cents per hour, while foremen will be paid at the rate of $1.00 per hour.

In this issue of the Journal D. W. Danielson makes announcement of his candidacy for re-election as County Commissioner for Precinct No. 2. His statement is as follows:

Mack Bell Is Out For Commissioner In Precinct No. 4

In this issue of the Journal, J. M. (Mack) Bell makes announcement of his candidacy for the office of County Commissioner, Precinct No. 4, subject to action of the Democratic voters at the coming July primary.

Mr. Bell has been a citizen of Bailey County since 1925, and previously has served two terms as County Commissioner from this precinct. He states he knows full well the numerous and various duties required of a Commissioner that he is well acquainted with the responsibilities connected with this office; and that he is offering his full and whole-hearted services to the citizens of Bailey County fully confident of his own ability and also because of his past experiences from this precinct. He is desirous of giving them his excellent service.

"I appreciate the confidence placed in me the last few years and have tried to serve the people in an honest, fair and impartial manner.

"The past few years have been handicapped to a great extent as to finances due to the depression; but feel like I have fulfilled the obligation as a commissioner as good as any one could, considering the economic conditions have been.

"Hard times have made it difficult for most of us to pay taxes, and as a consequence, the county funds have been low and we could not do as well as we would like to have done had times been normal.

"I have always worked to keep taxes as low a figure as possible, keep public improvements up to standard so that the public would be a fair deal. I believe in dollar's worth of service for your cent.

"I have graded many miles of new roads and I have been commended in harmony with keep school bus routes in good condition of experience should be in any business, and I believe I can serve the people in the future than I have ever done in the past.

"I have been organized into Bailey County 16 years, before it was organized, and I have seen it develop from what was a cattle country to its agricultural importance. I am firm and all my interests are in the future of the county.

"I am in advance to assure the county upon my return to this office that I will merit your confidence in my work for the best interest of the county and the general, in the future as I see it."

—D. W. DANIELSON.

Plainville Loses Motions In Light Municipal Plant

Plainville, in Federal District Court last Friday, lost three motions filed in the suit brought by the Community Power and Light Company to restrain the city from constructing a municipal power and light plant.

In overruling the motions, which attacked the validity of the suit, Judge Wilson announced the setting of the case for trial on its merits January 26 at Lubbock.

Plainville attacked the suit in which Judge W. H. Atwell had previously granted a temporary injunction on the following grounds:

That the case was without jurisdiction.

That the court should be dismissed for want of equity.

That the Texas Utilities Company for which the Community Power & Light Company sued as bondholder should have been a party to the suit.

The sum of $22,000 is to soon be expended on paving the public driveways at Tech college, Lubbock.

Brooks Hi-Jacked Saturday Night Is Now Recovering

R. S. Brooks merchant at Progress, who was hi-jacked about one o'clock Saturday morning, is reported recovering from his wound and able to be up again. He was struck over the head with a revolver while examining the oil in an automobile.

About one o'clock Saturday morning Brooks was hailed from bed by a man who claimed his car was out of gas and he wanted some more. Putting on his clothing, Brooks went out to service the car, finding it scarcely held four gallons he became somewhat suspicious. He was asked to examine the oil in the car and during this examination was struck over the head with the butt end of a revolver, alleged to have been previously taken during the same night in a Bovina hardware store robbery.

Brooks grappled with the robber who succeeded in getting away and jumped into the car where another man and woman were in waiting and made good his escape. Brooks was able to get into the house and secure his own gun, but the hi-jackers by that time were out of range.

There was a big bump raised on Brooks' head from the blow of the weapon, the skin also being slightly lacerated. For the following three or four days he suffered considerably from effect of the wound, and it was feared by some the skull had been fractured and there was internal hemorrhage which might bring serious results. When Brooks was struck both rubber side grips from the handle of the weapon were broken and the revolver was knocked out of the assailant's hands. It was found later and is now in Sheriff Cook's possession. Cook also has in his possession the oil gauge of the car which Brooks retained, the car being later partly identified by the gauge being missing.

Sheriff Jim Cook was notified following the hi-jacking act and given a description of the men and car. In company with Farwell officers he later that night arrested Jack Dooze of Farwell and a man by the name of Jack Stewart, whose alias is alleged to be Leo Parks, Clovis, N. M. A woman said to be Dooze's wife was also taken, but later released.

The two men are being held in the Farwell county jail on a pending trial. District court of that county now being in session. It is understood charges have been lodged against them for their alleged connection with the Bovina robbery and which hearing may be had before the Brooks case is heard.

Valuation of Bailey County Land Remade From $1.50 to $8.00

Bailey County Commissioners' court last week completed revaluation of farm lands in this county, five different classifications having been made. In precinct three the classifications were as follows: No. 1, $5.50 per acre; No. 2, $4.50; No. 3, $3.50; No. 4, $3.00; No. 5, $1.50.

In precinct one, two and four the classifications were $6.00, $6.50, $4.00, $3.00 and $1.50 per acre.

The reclassification was made that a more equitable valuation of the land might be obtained. While in some instances taxes will be raised on particular tracts yet it will be lowered on others, so that the aggregate valuation will be approximately the same while each land owner will come near paying his equitable part according to valuation.

It is stated there is no idea of the Court either raising or lowering the valuations in this county for tax purposes, and such taxes will be assessed as is only required to meet the estimated budget of county expenses. County and tax raters will be assessed the valuations in this county for tax purposes, and such taxes will be assessed as is only required to meet the estimated budget of county expenses. County and tax raters will be assessed the valuations in this county for tax purposes, and such taxes will be assessed as is only required to meet the estimated budget of county expenses.

Extension Department work in this section, has been appointed president of the Bank of Cooperatives, one of the new units of the Farm Credit Administration, with headquarters at Houston.

Mr. Evans is well and favorably known here and his advancement to this position meets with the approval of his many friends and acquaintances in this section.

O. G. Tompkins, county agent of Lubbock county, has been appointed district agent to succeed Mr. Evans.

ANOTHER STEW AND ANOTHER PIG WAS NOTHING NEW

July. Ill. Jan. 15—William Mathes made another trip to court today. The charge, as usual, was drunkenness.

"There's no use fining me, Judge, because I haven't any money," Mathes spoke up. "However, I have a fine pig I will bring you."

Judge John Nicholson consulted his records and found Mathes previously had promised to pay to the court in lieu of fines two pigs, three turkeys, seven chickens, two ducks, 12 dozen fresh eggs, nine watermelons and eight muskmelons, none of which had been delivered.

So Magistrate Nicholson sighed, fined Mathes $3, told him to pay when he could, and sent him home.

Want Kiwanians To Sponsor A Baseball Tournament For I. L.

At the regular weekly meeting of Kiwanis club held last Friday the club was presented with a proposition to sponsor a junior baseball contest to be held here in the near future under Interscholastic League auspices for Bailey County. It was also suggested the Muleshoe High school girls basketball team should be given some tangible recognition for the constant winning of games during the season's playing. Both matters were referred to the proper committees for recommendation.

The location of the Production Credit Association, recently ordered by the elected directors for Muleshoe, was discussed, it being the consensus of opinion expressed by club members that Muleshoe being the most centrally located point for such an organization that due protest should be made against any effort to locate it elsewhere.

R. L. Brown, well known local civic-minded citizen, included in some sardonic slinging, a few maxillary causticities and some chin excursions relative to better economic conditions and urging that citizens here take advantage of the bettering condition for making a bigger and better town of Muleshoe.

One of the important matters to be discussed at the special legislature meeting to be called in New Mexico early in February will be the Arizona plan of collecting delinquent taxes, which provides such may be collected over a period of 10 years, five per cent being paid semi-annually with no interest, provided current taxes are not in arrears.

The $32,000 Methodist church building at Happy was gutted by fire last week. Stoves had been left burning and gas leaks are supposed to be responsible for the conflagration.

Charles Clements For Re-election As 64th District Judge

The Journal authorized to announce Charles Clements as a candidate for re-election as District Judge in the 64th Judicial District, subject to action of the Democratic primary in July.

Most of the citizens of Bailey County know Judge Clements quite well and his many friends will be glad to learn he is running for re-election to this important high office.

The Judge says it has always been his constant aim to render efficient service in his capacity on the legal bench. He has always been devoted to his task of judgeship, ever ready to try any cases appearing on the docket and with as little expense as possible to the county where he holds court.

He declares his belief in the proper enforcement of the law and says he has invariably been fair and impartial in all his rulings, most of his cases having been upheld and affirmed by the higher courts. In his directions to Grand and Petit juries and in his charges, especially to young men charged with crime, he says he has always endeavored to make his suggestions and admonitions of a constructive nature, encouraging and helpful to all who heard him. Numerous voters of this county have served in his court and know of his work.

Judge Clements states he is 48 years of age, vigorous in health, honest in his ambitions and without a blemish upon his name. He was former district attorney of this district, knows the law, and feels with his past experience as a judge is now even better qualified to do more efficient work in the future. He states he has made his own way from the bottom up, and feels his past services cause him to be deserving of re-election, and assures the voters of this district that they will make no mistake in permitting him to continue his duties in this capacity.

"The support of all people will be sincerely appreciated," said Judge Clements. "I assure you I will continue to so act and conduct myself as to hold the confidence and respect of all good citizens. I am busy most of the time in the trial of cases, but will endeavor to see all before the election. I will thank you for anything you may say in my behalf and greatly appreciate any suggestions you may make in my favor."

R. G. (Boss) Shannon, last of the convicted Charles F. Droschel kidnapers, and who was given 60 days under heavy bond to wind up his financial affairs before beginning a life sentence in penitentiary, returned last Saturday to Leavenworth, Kansas, to begin his toil.

Texas has an industrial payroll of $156,000,000. New England, of approximately the same size and population, has an industrial payroll of $1,100,000,000.

11 KINDS OF MONEY

Scarcely as money has been in Muleshoe for the past two years. Few people around here stop to realize that there are 11 different kinds of it being issued, to say nothing of the various counterfeit brands that show up now and then. Folks realizing that for all practical purposes one dollar is as good as another often fail to scrutinize money very closely.

The different kinds of U. S. money include federal reserve notes, national bank notes, silver certificates, gold coin, United States notes, subsidiary silver gold certificates, federal reserve bank notes, minor coin, silver dollars and treasury notes.

At present the total amount of United States money in circulation is approximately $5,743,000,000, of which more than one-half is in federal reserve notes. Silver coins constitute a relatively small portion of the money in circulation, but this will be considerably increased under the recent proclamation of President Roosevelt, which provides for the coinage of a limited additional amount.

The administration's monetary policies are attracting much attention just now among financial and economic experts. The layman knows little of what it is all about, and inasmuch as the experts are in thorough disagreement it seems that they don't know much about it either.

CARS AND FEET

Muleshoe citizens who once feared that the use of motor cars was going to make people forget how to use their feet now seem to have been wrong in their surmise. While motoring was something of a novelty and the ease of covering great distances in a short time was still a source of surprise, people preferred motoring to walking. Lately motoring has come to be regarded as a means of transportation rather than as a recreation in itself. People now use cars to take them somewhere quickly, then get out and walk for pleasure. That seems to be the explanation of reports from some of the national parks that, during the past summer more tourists than ever before parked their cars in the places provided and took to the foot trails, tramping at leisure where a year or two ago they would have driven at the speed limit. It is a wise division of service between cars and feet.

THE PIONEER SPIRIT

It's easy for those who have to criticize those who have not. It's easy to say there is something wrong with the old pioneer spirit in America, but to prove it is a different matter.

In a broad sense the pioneering work has already been done. But if you will look about you will find many men and women around Muleshoe carrying on under trying conditions as faithfully and uncomplainingly as did their pioneer fathers and mothers. For more than three years they have labored in the face of difficulties and handicaps, and yet there is little criticism heard from them.

That is proof of the fact that the old pioneer spirit which enabled our forefathers to progress despite all handicaps is still alive, and still manifested in the sons and daughters of today. It was the spirit that built America. That has made America great, and it is the same spirit that is going to keep it so.

Along with numerous other elections to be held this year, there will also be a municipal election for Muleshoe, at which time a mayor and two commissioners will be elected or some or all of those now serving returned to office. This is a very important election for the family of people calling this town their home, and it is not too early now for interested citizens and voters to be casting about in their minds for suitable people to head our city government another two years.

January 31 is the 1st day for paying poll taxes. Last year, while considered an off year, yet there were a number of matters came up for vote of the people and many could not participate because they had not paid their poll taxes. It should not be so again this year. There are going to be vital questions for solution by the voters, so be sure to have that little receipt tucked away in your pocket before the month ends.

Jaunty Journalettes

One can tell whether a Muleshoe man is normal at 45. If he is, he begins to think old age is caused by a lack of exercise.

It is said that some Muleshoe men who have a deep bass voice when down town have a very weak tenor when around home.

Middle-age is that period in a Muleshoe man's life when he has a 50 year old brain, a 20 year old appetite and a 90 year old stomach.

When the average Muleshoe citizen consults you about his plans he doesn't want your opinion. He wants your approval.

The Muleshoe who used to duck from home to escape helping with the house cleaning is also the one who does the same thing during canning season.

There is an old saying that people get what they pay for, but a Muleshoe merchant tells us that all people don't pay for what they get.

There may be some dumb people around Muleshoe, but we don't believe any one of them would send for a veterinarian if a horse happened to kick their wife.

The dangerous part about a Muleshoe boy falling in love with a pretty pair of ankles is that they have to marry the entire girl.

Talk is cheap. Almost any Muleshoe married man can go home at three o'clock in the morning and get a long lecture for nothing.

SNAP SHOTS

The middle-class is the one that isn't poor enough to be exempt from income tax nor rich enough to ignore it.

There's nothing that reduces the size of a big man like having his income cut off.

Under the blessed guarantee of free speech smooth tongues are still smoother.

A scientist has found a means of propelling an auto with sugar instead of gasoline. Politicians have been operating on the same principal for years.

It's a strange world in which consumers are expected to rejoice at signs that prices are rising.

It's easy now days to be a champion. Just select some fool stunt nobody is dumb enough to do.

There was more horse sense on the highways in the old days, but most of it belonged to the horse.

Dad's pants are no longer cut down for little Willie. Sister needs them nowadays for "shorts."

Nature might have become worse. She didn't give the stomach authority to decide what shall go into the head.

The common people are the ones who aren't figuring out a way to make these new laws feather their nests.

Farmers are again supposed to plant too much this year so they will be sure to have some to turn under.

One can judge the severity of the weather by the thickness of the fur and the severity of the times by the thickness of the sandwich.

Pavement Pickups

From reports nearly the entire Muleshoe male population is planning attending the Fan dance at Clovis, Saturday, and if reports are true, it's going to be hard to keep some of these roosters from off the first four rows of seats. Manager Harwick is going to need a Gatling gun if he does.

Mrs. Ray Griffiths: "Sonny, what are you doing in the pantry?" Sonny: "Putting away the jelly, mother."

Mrs. J. C. Weaver says now is the time to keep the chin up, and in the case of the woman who has a double chin, just one of them will do.

Dr. Matthews, who is quite a student of natural history, wants to know if animals can't talk to one another how does the wolf know where the stork has fixed things for him?

"We used to call them tax collectors," says John Rogers, "but now we call them 'turnip bleeders,' because it's darn hard to get blood out of a turnip."

Life is full of mysteries. The other day some one asked Schmittee, of the corner drug store, why it was that dogs always have good teeth but one never hears of them using the kind of toothpaste they advertise over the radio.

Bill Wingfield says it's a mistake to believe that a chin store is a place where they sell wedding rings.

O. N. Robison says he is afraid the farmers are not going to get permanent relief until the government orders a plow-up of every third market speculator.

Chet Lane was wondering the other day if the time would ever come when the Lord would get tired of forgiving us of our trespasses. For the sake of some politicians he is hoping his Honor will hold on until the elections are over this year.

METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. The pastor will preach on some suitable theme at 11:00 a. m. The leagues and evening services will be at the usual hours. The women meet each Monday. Mid-week meeting held Wednesday night. The choir will meet at the parsonage this week, if it meets. It has not been meeting for a few weeks, and seems to be badly scattered.

We had a good service Sunday morning. At the evening hour we dismissed to go and hear Rev. Jenkins, at the Baptist church, and while not getting to hear him we had a good address by a visitor. Therefore, we may have to give ourselves another invitation to go to the Baptist church.

The quarterly conference last Sunday afternoon was a successful one. The Elder was delayed in arriving, and the attendance was not so good as when held at the preaching hour.

METHODIST MISSIONARY MEET

The Methodist Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. S. C. Beavers, Monday afternoon with the hostess, our new president, presiding.

The devotional was given by Mrs. E. C. Raney, who chose Luke 6:38 as a Scripture lesson. She made a short talk on "Mercy and Love." Prayer was read by Mrs. J. C. Weaver.

Mrs. Beavers made a short address, after which she appointed a parsonage committee for the year, Mesdames Harold Weyer, A. F. Stone and J. F.

Wallace were appointed. A motion was made and seconded, the Missionary society be divided into two circles, by locality. The motion carried unanimously.

Next Monday will be given as a general meeting and discussion of social plans for the year. All ladies of the church invited to attend.
Mrs. Stone dismissed the meeting with prayer.—Reporter.

Girls Basketeers Runners-Up In The L'field Tournament

Littlefield won first place in the girls basketball tournament held there last Friday and Saturday, the Muleshoe team being one of the runners-up for final games.

There were 18 competing teams entered in the tournament, the outstanding teams playing being Littlefield, Shallowater, Muleshoe and Happy. Shallowater came out with second place, while Dimmit annexed the consolation game. Muleshoe girls team played in the semi-finals and was one of three teams competing for first place. Muleshoe team had previously beaten Littlefield in two games.

During the course of the tournament Muleshoe also played the teams from Dimmitt and Spade, winning both, the first in a score of 42 to 28 and the second in a score of 27 to 24. The game with Littlefield was 21 to 33 favoring the host team.

After the tournament, coaches of the 18 teams selected the first and second teams of all tournament good players. Twila Farrel, of the Muleshoe team being voted the best forward on the first team, and Ruby Sterling, of Muleshoe being voted best guard on the second team.

Several other members of the local team received votes and honorable mention in the voting. Muleshoe girls go to Sudan Friday night of this week for a game with the High school team, which game will probably be returned the following Friday night in playing here. It is also anticipated that Muleshoe girls team will go to Goodland Saturday to play in the three day basketball tournament going on there Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

POULTRY

KEEP DISEASE OUT OF POULTRY FLOCK

Infection Can Be Spread in Many Ways.

If your neighbor gives you a chilly reception when you transmit your chickens pens unvisited, do not feel offended. He merely is following one of the first rules of poultry sanitation. An all too common method of spreading infectious diseases in poultry flocks is by visitors to the flock who may have come from other flocks where diseases are present, declares Dr. Charles Murray, chief of the veterinary investigation section at Iowa State college.

Doctor Murray's advice is as follows: "Never discuss your neighbor's disease situation with him in your own or his poultry pens."

"Never permit a buyer of poultry, a peddler of remedies, or a culler to visit your poultry houses or pens unless he disinfects his shoes or slips on a pair of overshoes you have for him. "Keep never purchased stock or that which has returned from shows, fairs, or egg-selling contests in quarantine several weeks before placing it in the home flock."—Hoard's Dairyman.

Maintenance of Proper Body Weight Important

According to the agricultural extension service, University of Missouri, pullets frequently lose weight after two or three months of heavy egg production and if prompt attention is not given, they are likely to cease laying and molt. If taken in time, this condition can usually be corrected without serious loss in egg production by giving a supplementary feed of moistened fattening mash some time during the day, preferably at noon, until the pullets have regained the weight lost because of rapid laying.

The following mixture fed daily at the rate of three to five pounds for 100 pullets will usually produce the desired results: Mash—six pounds corn meal, three pounds shorts and one pound dried milk.

The daily feed of this mixture should be moistened with enough water to form a crumbly mash and fed in the mash feeders or long troughs so that each pullet can get her share. If skim milk is available, it should be added and if prompt attention and the dried milk may be omitted.—Missouri Farmer.

English Egg-Laying Contest

"The national" egg-laying contests at Milford, Surrey, England, is said to be the world's largest egg-laying competition, with 3,311 outlets of various breeds competing. The eighth month has just been concluded. In that period 405,914 eggs have been laid, an average of 127.4 per bird. A pen of 12 Black Leghorns at present is highest, with 1,528 eggs to their credit, an average of 152.3 eggs per bird in the eight months of the "trials," as they are designated in England. A Single Comb Rhode Island Red pullet leads the individual bird record of special and first-grade eggs with a total of 213 of such grading. Another Red pullet has the best record over all birds with 218, 36 of which, however, were below the required two ounces in weight.

Timely Poultry Hints

Mangel feed do not rank as high as poultry feed as in the past. Some poultry men believe that the feeding of mangels injures the hatchability of the eggs. Possibly the hens that fill up on succulent mangels do not have room for the green feed which contains the vitamins that improve hatchability. We find that alfalfa is about the finest green feed for hens and believe that every poultry man should plan on raising or buying a few loads each year for winter storage for the poultry. Carrots seem to be a more useful succulent feed than mangels and a lot of carrots can be raised in a small space in the garden.

Winter Laying

To insure winter laying, on which so much depends, early-hatched pullets are important. Chickens reared in the early spring with ordinary attention develop into sturdy robust stock and mature satisfactorily for autumn production. "White Wyandottes," "Buff Plymouth Rocks" and "Rhode Island Reds" are breeds that have established their reputations as winter layers. Being of the middle-weight class, they are also able to produce fine, plump birds for the table.

Breeding Hints

Males should be placed in the breeding pen so as to give them plenty of time to accustom themselves to new surroundings and will also allow about 60 days for the birds to be mated and in production before eggs are saved for hatching purposes. Too much time cannot be spent in selecting these breeding males. Before turning them in to the breeding pen be sure that they are vigorous birds with proven performance, and conform to the standard of the breed.

Interscholastic League Extends Its Athletic Program

Playground ball for boys and girls, tennis in four divisions, volley ball, junior track and field events and the regular track and field meet for Class B and Class A high schools, as well as the rural pentathlon, are all to be included in the athletic program for the Interscholastic League meet next spring, according to Joe H. Owen, recently elected director of athletics for the League in this county.

"Here is a plan," he said "which offers physical development as well as wholesome recreation to every boy and girl in the public schools. The matter of winning should be stressed but not stressed too much. If you don't win this year, you are getting good training for winning next year or the next. Make a beginning by getting in the game, and then see what happens."

"The new issue of the constitution and rules is being distributed from the state office of the league, and the schools expecting to participate should get a copy at once. All of the contests are described therein and rules given in great detail. Also, the eligibility rules, some of which have been changed, should be studied carefully. "There is nothing which makes school more attractive to children than participation in healthful sports and games. We need not only one hundred percent membership in the League, but one hundred percent participation."

Interscholastic Rule On Essays Is Changed This Year

The essay writing contest in the University Interscholastic League has been changed this year to allow essay contestants to qualify for next higher meets on up to and including the final state meet, according to Mrs. Blanche Dodgen, who has been chosen Director of Essay Writing in the Interscholastic League of this county.

"Subjects for the contest will be furnished as heretofore by the State Office. The topics, according to the Constitution and Rules, are all to be within the range of the study, observation and experience of the average pupil. The contest is in writing, that is, composition, and does not involve any special research into public questions, as is the case in the debate and extemporaneous speech contests.

"In previous years the rules have provided that the winning essay in the county meet be forwarded to the district meet for judging, and that the winning essay from the district meet be forwarded to the state meet for competition with the winning essays from other districts. This method has been changed, and instead of the essays being forwarded, the winning contestant in the county meet goes in person to the district meet to compete in this contest with other county winners. The district winners then go to the regional meets, and the winners in the regional meets qualify for the state meet, and participate in rebate privileges on the same basis as contestants in other contests scheduled by the League.

"It is believed that this change which gives successful contestants an opportunity to advance from one meet to another will greatly increase interest in essay writing."

BAPTIST NEWS NOTES

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.

Preaching services at 11:00 a. m.

B. T. S. meets at 6:30 p. m.

Preaching services, 7:30 p. m.

Tho' a bleak cold morning dawned Sunday, Jan. 7, there were 130 enthusiastic Sunday School attendants who assembled at 9:45 for an interesting study on the birth of Jesus. Our Sunday School, under the leadership of Byron Griffiths as superintendent, is enjoying a gradual but steady growth.

The preaching service at 11:00 a. m. was well attended. Rev. Jenkins, the able pastor, bringing a helpful message on "God's Plan of Financing a Church."

In the evening our B. T. S. met at 6:30 with a good attendance in all Unions from the Primaries through to the adult department. We urge that our people assemble promptly at 6:30 p. m. that our time may all be utilized to the best advantage.

Preaching attendance was good, but we are asking for a larger crowd for our evening service. Rev. Jenkins issues the warning to those who should be in the evening services and are not there, they are liable to receive a personal call from him, so any who fail to attend the evening services, Rev. Jenkins will interpret that as an invitation for a visit from him. We invite you to attend our evening services. Subject for last Sunday night was "Into the Deep Life With Christ." What it would mean to this church for its membership to launch out into the deeps with Christ only God can know. We know a life wholly surrendered to Christ for service can be felt throughout a community. We are longing for more lives to go out into the deeps with Christ.

Our week of study for the Sunday School was postponed until Monday 15th, on account of Mr. Keys not being able to be here until that date. We are expecting you in this class.

The members of the Sunday School are requested on next Sunday to bring some kind of food to be sent in a car to Buckner Orphan's home. If you have an extra tin of feed it will be acceptable. For full information you may see Rev. Jenkins. Be sure and remember the date.

Don't forget you are always welcome and urged to be present at our Wednesday prayer services, as well as all the other services of the church.—Reporter.

THE PRICE OF BUSINESS SPEED

Banking Institute Speaker Says That Bank Failures Followed Business Failures

CHICAGO, Ill.—Many appear to think that failures occur only to banks, but the complete story of business shows that failures of American banks have followed the failure of business enterprises, and have not been a cause of those failures, Dr. Harold Stonier, National Educational Director of the American Bankers Association, declared in a recent address here before the American Institute of Banking.

"It is true that we have had more failures in our banks than in the banks of a number of other countries," he said. "It is also true that we have had more failures in drug stores, grocery stores, railroads, and in every other type of business enterprise. At the same time, it must be said that we still have left after all our failures, more drug stores, more grocery stores, more railroads, and more banks than any other country."

People do not realize, he said, that we have in excess of 108 banks which have been in existence over a century and we have more than 2,000 banks which have been in existence over 50 years.

"In other words, we have more banks over 100 years of age than any other country—we have more banks over 50 years of age than any country in the world," he declared. "The American banking system has not fallen down—it is not in danger of decay. Such failures as it has experienced are due to the price we pay for too rapid development of business enterprises, but that is the American spirit."

U. S. GOVERNMENT GREATEST BANKER

Runs Fifty-two Financing Institutions With Investment of Two Billion Dollars—Thirty-nine Agricultural

AMERICA'S biggest banker today is the Federal Government, which is now operating fifty-two financing institutions, says Professor John Hanna of Columbia University in the American Bankers Association Journal.

"Forty of these are owned entirely by the Government," he says. "In twelve more the Government has already a two-thirds interest. Thirty-seven are intended to be permanent. Twenty-five of the permanent ones and fourteen of the temporary ones are agricultural."

"The capital stock held by the United States in these banks has a total value of $1,380,000,000. The Government's total investment is nearly $2,000,000,000. Resources of these institutions exceed $3,000,000,000. In addition the Government has detailed supervision over fifty-one mortgage banks, operating under Federal charter.

"The Government also supervises 4,600 local agricultural loan associations with Federal charters. All this takes no account of the relations of the Government to the twelve Federal Reserve banks, nor of the authority recently given to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to buy preferred stock in national and state commercial banks.

"The President has ordered the consolidation of the agricultural credit agencies into the new Farm Credit Administration, says Professor Hanna. He expresses the opinion that before the consolidation of the agricultural financing agencies to such machinery had been created to administer the financing institutions which the Government either owns or supervises.

"Existing institutions represent a considerable differentiation of function and any consolidations should be preceded by a careful survey of the actual activities of the various institutions," he continues. "The only consolidation the Administration has announced is that of the agricultural credit agencies in the Farm Credit Administration. As a permanent solution this arrangement is too closely bound up with politics.

"A better scheme would be to create a finance corporation under Federal charter to take over either the agricultural finance activities of the Government or all its leading agencies.

"The Government's financing and banking activities should be kept severely apart from subsidy and other planning for raising the prices of farm products. One is business, the other is major political policy. The advantages of the corporation over bureau control for the business functions are real and significant."

Railroad Legislation

A RECENT state legislative bill provided that a track man carrying a bell by day and a lantern by night should lead all railroad trains across grade crossings; that conductors must smile when answering questions; that it would be a misdemeanor to serve eggs more than one day old on pullman cars; that trains be required to stop at any time when flagged by hitch-hikers, and that trains crossing rivers wider than twenty-five feet, be equipped with lifeboats and life preservers. This one did not pass.

"HIGHEST TEST" AND anti-knock at the price of ordinary gasoline

THAT'S OUR STORY and we are sticking to it

The support of motorists like yourself made 1933 the peak year in the history of the Phillips Petroleum Company...

Deeply grateful for this ever-expanding preference, our pledge to the motoring public is continued with renewed emphasis—"Highest test and anti-knock at the price of ordinary gasoline."

This is the greater value made possible by our position as world's largest producer of natural high gravity gasoline.

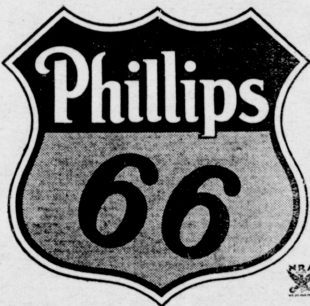

Please consider these facts before you buy your next tankful of gasoline: Phillips 66 at regular price contains tetra-ethyl lead, the anti-knock fluid formerly used only in premium-priced motor fuels. In addition, it is always correctly matched to your weather by the scientific principle of CONTROLLED VOLATILITY, pioneered by Phillips.

And its high test (gravity) is so high, that without fear of comparison we publish its rating in plain figures, below.

I particularly invite new car owners anxious to protect their motors to Phill-up with Phillips 66. You can confidently expect faster starting on freezing days, and finer performance and more mileage on every day in the year.

President, Phillips Petroleum Company

The Dean Liquor Law Declared Void In Trial Case Filed

Admittedly for the purpose of having the Texas prohibition enforcement statute, the "Dean Law" declared unconstitutional, habeas corpus proceedings were brought last Friday before District Judge W. W. McCrory, in San Antonio, to obtain release from custody of E. W. Rickard, 48.

Rickard was charged before Justice of the Peace John R. Snook with possessing one pint of whiskey for the purpose of sale and also transportation of the pint, in violation of the Dean law.

Rickard's counsel, Leonard Brown and J. Franklin Spears, as soon as Rickard's bond was set by Justice Snook at $500, took their client before Judge McCrory and filed an application for his release, setting out that he was illegally restrained of his liberty, as he was arrested under the Dean law, which is "unconstitutional and void."

Judge McCrory allowed Brown and Spears to sign Rickard's bond and Rickard January 26 as the date for hearing the application for habeas corpus on its merits. He informed the attorneys that he would throw no stumbling blocks in their way toward taking the case on up to the Court of Criminal Appeals, so that it can be definitely decided whether the Dean law is constitutional.

The application for habeas corpus alleged:

That said complaint purports to charge a violation of the Dean law of the state of Texas and that said law in its entirety was repealed by the repeal of the 18th amendment to the constitution of the United States.

It is also alleged that the proper prosecuting publications were not given according to law and no publications in some counties of the state.

IS THE FAN DANCE VULGAR OR IS IT A FORM OF ART?

Some people who have seen the Fan dance at the Chicago World's Fair pronounce it vulgar, in fact blame New York refused to allow the dance.

Miss Sally Rand, the most famous exponent of the fan dance, says the dance is art and is patterned to resemble the movements of a bird.

Miss Bobby Young, who will perform the sensational World's Fair dance in Clovis says, "I certainly agree with Miss Rand in that the fan dance is art and not vulgarity. A similar form of dance was performed by the ancients."

The World's Fair Fan dance will be presented in the stage attraction "A Century of Progress, Revue" with Don Pablo's Victor Recording "Rumba" orchestra at the Lyceum theatre, Clovis, N. M. Saturday matinee and night.

For obvious reasons no one will be allowed to sit in the first four rows of seats nearest the stage.

After formation of the three regional organizations a state convention will be held at some central point.

Dances, banquets and other entertaining features are being worked out which will make the convention a gala affair outside of the business and organization sessions.

Meat Processing Tax on Hogs Off Up To 800 Pounds

The small farmer was given a break last week when the Department of Agriculture passed a rule permitting a man to sell 800 pounds of hog meat during the course of a year without having to pay the government processing tax.

In granting this exemption to the "little man," the government has made it possible for the farmer to kill a few hogs during season for home consumption, then realize a little revenue by selling whatever excess meat is on hand, without paying a processing fee. Heretofore, hogs could be killed only for use by the farmer's family, and none could be sold without paying the fee.

Records must be kept on the hogs that are killed, and the number of pounds of meat secured, but it will not be necessary to make a report unless sold. On any amount between 800 and 1,400 pounds, the processing tax will be paid only on that in excess of 800 pounds. If more than 1,400 pounds are sold during the year, no exemption whatever is allowed.

Martin Jones, of Amarillo, who appeared before the Department of Agriculture in behalf of this measure, is largely responsible for its passage.

MURRAH BIRTHDAY DINNER

T. H. Murrah was greatly surprised when a group of people from Progress got together and came to his house last Sunday.

He had been noting that a certain group of people had been giving birthday dinners for different ones among themselves. He had been invited to several and liked them. The last one he attended he made the remark, "I have a birthday January 15, but don't suppose anyone will remember it."

Last week we decided to surprise him. Sundry families gathered at J. M. Murrah's home and went in a group to T. H. Murrah's, where we unloaded the dinner which we had brought.

In the group there were: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Swanson, and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hogan and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Murrah and family, Mrs. L. R. Bartley and two daughters, and Miss Ruby and Doc Wilhite. Each one carried something already prepared for the big dinner. After removing our coats the gifts were presented.

Mr. Murrah looked through and unwrapped them. He picked up one package about 12 by 8 1/2 inches. Everyone began to laugh. He took one paper off and another appeared. He spent about 15 minutes unwinding paper, everyone laughing. In the center he found a 5c cigar and a note that read, thus: "To Uncle Hill from your friends, Marie and Auden Smith."

After a good laugh, we ate dinner in picnic style. We all enjoyed the dinner. The men assembled themselves in the croquet yard for the rest of the afternoon, the ladies turning the kitchen into a beauty parlor, and the young folks going in the parlor for a radio program. A. L. Swanson had to buy the easy chair by the radio so he could operate it and torment the rest of us. We soon became tired of him and six of us took leave for a walk down town and took pictures.

About 5:00 o'clock p. m. we all said "So long," and returned home with another day's experience, left on the pages of time and memory.—Reporter.

YEARNING STOMACHS AND COTTON SPITTING MONDAY

There were plenty of yearning stomachs and cotton spitting was strictly in order last Monday when Deputy Sheriff T. E. Arnold and Custodian Alex Paul cleaned out the vault in the sheriff's department and destroyed the accumulation of liquor taken in various ways since the May term of District court last spring.

There were 400 bottles of home brew beer and about 15 gallons of corn whiskey of varying grades, colors and kicks that were crashed against the curbing and their contents allowed to spill into the gutter.

The odor of the flowing liquor is said to have permeated the atmosphere for several block away quickly traveling a crowd of men who recognized their favorite flavor. One man is said to have attempted to swipe a quart jar of especially good colored whiskey but Arnold's quick movement toward his right hip caused him suddenly to change his mind.

There were plenty of masculine citizens standing about licking their chops as the inspiring fluid floated away and sank in the dirt. One man is said to have attempted to get down upon his knees and lap up the aromatic fluid, but was prevented by officers.

The more happiness you give the more you have left.

Pleistocene Collection
The Los Angeles (Calif.) museum has the most complete representation of the skeletons of Pleistocene animals. The bones were recovered from the Rancho la Brea, within the city limits of Los Angeles. This asphalt pit is the greatest repository of prehistoric animal remains known to modern science.

Educated and Uneducated
It has been pointed out that a fundamental distinction between the educated and the uneducated mind is that the first or anyone with even a partly trained mind, tries to find out his faults and correct them. The uneducated fellow usually tries to hide his. It is clear enough which of the two will go faster and farther.

KNOW WHAT THEY WANT!
Particular women are those who know what they want in the way of Dry Goods and general Ready-to-Wear, and who don't take somebody's word for it that substitutes are "just as good."
This firm does not deal in shoddy stuff just because it is cheap. We handle dependable, staple goods of quality, much of it being well known brands, nationally advertised, which the manufacturer stands squarely behind and which we are proud to sell to our customers.
We have builded our business very largely by catering to—and pleasing—particular women. When you buy any article at this store there is never any question as to the value you are receiving for the price paid for it.
If you are among those particular women who want to be sure they are getting real quality commensurate with the price they pay we invite you to do your buying here.
