

Dear Mother,

I know Mother's Day is past but I also know this - That your day will never pass in the lives of your six children, twenty-one grandchildren and all the great-grandchildren.

Awhile back one of the boys was telling what a fisherman their grandmother was. "Your grandmother fishes? How old is she?" "Why, I don't know" was the answer. "She must not be very old", he was told.

You may make a few believe 79 or 80 but I know better. And that is wonderful. A many a time I've played with my kids when I had rather not - but would remember the times you read to me, played marbles with me, rode stick-horse with me and stayed right with me when an older brother was getting the best of me and saying "Don't give up, you'll whip him." And I did, too.

Then those conversations we use to have - just ours- just me and you-no one could listen in on them. They could not because we only moved our lips. I never remember feeling sorry for you because you were deaf-you had so many more things going for you than people that could hear.

The games you played with me and my children and what a disgrace to cheat. I'll never forget how surprised you looked when I caught you practicing POOL shooting. Your answer, "No 8 year old child is going to beat me playing pool." My kids loved you for it.

It always kind of hurt me that you could use either hand-you helped make a poor writer out of me and some of mine - you never subscribed to this theory, "It is a RIGHT HANDED world." You did not have to - you used both.

It's too bad you never told me you loved me better than the other kids - I loved you MORE than any mama in the world.

Love,
#5 and his

P. S. Never in my life will I forget how I made the little trick or treat on Halloween go over his trick or treat spell and finally in disgust he said, "you old deaf fool." (I played like I was deaf - you watched.) You laughed at me till the tears ran off your cheeks. Mother, if only I can always turn a tragedy into a 'code to live by.'

CLEAN UP - FIX UP WEEK UNDERWAY

Police Report

The above picture shows the pick up, tool boxes and jacks recovered early Tuesday morning.

Through the cooperation of every segment of the police system $1800 worth of tools, 23 new tires and $650 worth of weed killer have been recovered. Monday night the city police, sheriff, and highway patrol converged on a house located on SW Ave. F and 8th St., the residence of Rex Austin, and found 23 new tires that had been stolen from the Richard Heinkel Warehouse, a Chevron Wholesale/Retail Distributorship, 12 miles south of Midland. There were 29 tires originally taken.

In other action 2 tool boxes with tools, one tool cabinet, and jacks were recovered that had been stolen from Stewart & Stevenson. One tool box still had the name of Marvel Quarrels, an employee, on it.

A pickup that had been borrowed from Jayroe Car Lot was used to transport the tools. Charles Sims, age 36, from Seminole, along with Donald Colvett, age 19, and Rex Austin were in custody of the Midland Police Tuesday morning. $5000 bond had been set for 2 of the 3 men.

Bill Ellyson, of Red Barn Chemical reported a burglary of weed killer on May 7, 1969, valued at $2350.00 stolen from the Loop store. Eleven 5 gallon containers of Fumazone were recovered when children playing in an empty house in Lubbock reported the material to the police. Eight cases of Atroazine, valued at $1710 were not recovered.

The All Sports Banquet was held Monday night at the Gaines County Park by the Booster Club. In Tennis the award winner had to be Barbara Bramlett, a perennial state winner. In basketball Danny Whisenhunt received the outstanding award for best Hustler and having the best spirit on the basketball squad. Outstanding in volleyball was Judy Barnett and Marva Freeman. In football, Larry Cottrell received the 'Fighting Heart' award; Randy Dulin won the 'Golden Helmet' award and Dennis Briggs was a 2-time winner.

Mayor Clarence Wright, along with the Councilmen, Bill Webb, Raymond Patton, Karl Don Hughes, Ed Pullam, and Bart Walden, invite every resident of Seminole to place their rubbish, old trees, old clothes and discards of any kind in the alley where they will be picked up. This will help clean up our town. "Seminole looks better than a lot of towns, but we have a long way to go. Please help," said Mayor Wright.

$15,000 Fire

In the background can be seen the burned band instrument truck and in the foreground the small bus which was used for judging teams, golf teams and other small group activities. Note the dark spots on the school bus, representing tar falling from the roof.

Vacation Time

Ready for a vacation? Rayford Bates? Local Businessman??? H&D Food???

Last Wednesday at 4:20 P.M. the Seminole Volunteer Fire Department was called to the Seminole School's bus barn. It seems that a weed burning crew from the school was using a butane rig, burning around the fences and the building. Sponge rubber, used for high jump pits and pole vault pits, was stored in the corner of the building and caught fire. Tar and sealer from the roof caught fire and dripped through on buses, causing an estimated $15,000 to $16,000 damage.

Damage to one bus was estimated at $600, another at $1,000 and another at $1500, plus $3,000 damage to the band instrument truck. The estimated damage to the building, given by Ross Moore, was $9,000.

Firemen quickly removed four buses, saving a much greater loss.

Editorial

Did any of you read that story about some of the protesting students going to the doctor and having shot gun pellets removed? It's about time that somebody pulled the trigger. I hope some of the professional protesters get so loaded down with gun lead that they will be ashamed to be seen in public.

Did you hear over the news about the Union Theological Seminary Students protesting and striking until the churches pay cash demands made on them by an element in our society.

I want to protest against protesters. I want to protest against any or everybody that wants to eat but does not want to work.

Include Garage In Clean-Up Job

Is your garage one of those where the family car "used to" be kept? If so, says the American Insurance Association, it is one of many of a kind.

Today's standard-size passenger automobiles and station wagons frequently won't fit into garages built two or more decades ago. As a result, many garages today are used to store things in — old furniture, boxes, papers, tires and other items of little or no value.

"Include cleaning out the garage among your Spring Clean-Up projects," says the Association. "By doing so, you will not only eliminate a potential fire hazard, but create valuable, clean storage space."

From the "Police Beat" West Texas Times:

"Where is Your Child Right Now?"

I hope it's not becoming "old hat" for this column to ask where your child is from time to time in this space. As many of you know, there was quite a ripple when those juveniles were nailed with o others in a crack down on narcotics last week.

Not only should you ask where your child is, but what type of activities are they involved in? It's better to be a firm parent today, than to be a sorry one tomorrow.

What we are trying to say is, that we all have a terrific job to do in being a parent. We must consistently be on the job in order to see to it that these young people receive the right guidance in life.

SPORTS

The defense stars of the Juniors and Sophomores classes of the Powder Puff game. They won 14-6.

PINK PANTHERS WON 14-6

The Mod Squad (senior and freshman's) was stopped in the first quarter and third quarter of the powder puff football game last Thursday by the Pink Panthers (juniors and sophomores).

This was supposed to have been a girl's power puff football game? or flag football? Sometimes the girls tackled the ball carrier and then grabbed the flags. For the Panthers it was the running of Vicki Wallace, Susan Sanders, and Brenda Van Winkle that turned the tide. Van Winkle acted as a decoy as Wallace and Sanders stepped off the yardage. Outstanding for the Mod Squad was the punting of Kathy Farmer, and the defense of Linda Oats, Vicki Ray and the running of Marva Freeman.

The first quarter was scoreless but 17½ seconds deep in the second quarter Vicki Wallace scored 6 points on a double reverse play. The double reverse still worked for the Pink Panthers as Van Winkle scored from 45 yards away. Van Winkle looks like another Bob Hayes of the Dallas Cowboys. The extra points were good and the Juniors and Seniors lead at half time 14-0.

The outstanding play during the 3rd quarter was when Kathy Farmer kicked for the Mod Squad, 40 yards? Marva Freeman would not be denied in the 4th quarter, she threw a pass to Kim Dearing good for 25 yards and with 3:03 left in the game ran for another 25 yards. The final score Pink Panthers 14 Mod Squad 6. (Ooh! Ooh! Some of the girls must be sore today.)

I protest when people go dirty and stay dirty if they have an opportunity to clean themselves up and will not. I want to protest when people will bring children into the world and will not love them, take care of them and a lot of the time refuse to let anyone else have them to see that they get the proper care. I protest those who gripe about taxes but will not vote. They gripe about our doctors but would not give 10¢ or attend one meeting to get more. They fuss about our schools but would not go to see their child's teacher. They stay mad at their home town and refuse to pave the street in front of their house. Along with this I join Mr. W. Edwards: " In recent years we have heard and read a lot about protests. My reaction has been, count me out on all this protest business. But I have changed my mind.

(1) I protest the employment of teachers in tax-supported schools who advocate the precepts of Karl Marx, V. I. Lenin and Fidel Castro (2) I object to a tax structure that takes up to 50 per cent of the income of some families through direct and indirect taxes and allows millionaires to pay little or no income taxes. (3) I object to paying taxes for the support of people who are able to work, but refuse to work. (4) I disapprove of our country giving financial assistance to other countries that support avowed enemies of the United States. (5) I protest efforts to secure more tax funds for church schools. While the Supreme Court denies religious exercises in public schools, it permits public funds to be used in schools that major on religion. (6) I protest the protester who (under the pretext of protesting) resorts to abusive language, destruction of property, theft, and injury to innocent people. I protest all protesters who merely protest for the sake of protesting. Some people have found it easier to protest than work; easier to protest than attend classes."

SEAGRAVES NEWS

BY MRS. E. G. THORNTON

Thursday night, May 15, the Cultus Club met in the Hob Nob Room where they had reservations at Hemphill Wells on 50th Street. Mrs. Bob Andrews is the president for 1968-69 and 1969-70. A short business meeting was held, where the members voted on the amount of a scholarship to be given to a senior girl. A style show was presented to the audience which was enjoyed by all members. Those present were Mmes. Bess Allen, Johnny Sartin, Claudia Jordon, Grace Smith, George Shumake, Jr., Bob Renfroe, O. P. Williams, Sanderson, Matchett, Jackie Tudor, Bob Andrews, Jerrell Al Allen, Mozelle Perry, N. B. Fields, Lorene Moore, ; special guests, Mrs. Renfroe, mother of Mr. Bob Renfroe, and Miss June Smith, daughter of Mrs. Grace Smith. June told the club about her future plans for the work with the American Red Cross in Vietnam. She will leave July 6 for Washington, D. C. and then to Vietnam for her assignment. June is now teaching in McWhorter Elementary School in grade two.

The family of N. A. Moore was present at church this Lord's Day. We are remembering this nice family in our prayers, since the passing of their loved one, Mr. N. A. Moore.

The fifth grade was oriented by the Junior High School Principal and teachers for their role as sixth graders next year. This was Friday, May 16. These 93 students are eagerly awaiting their promotion.

Friday, May 16, the entire student body of the elementary school met in the Junior High for their Awards Assembly. Many parents were present as was the superintendent, Mr. Gerald Shelley. Mr. Charles A. Johnson was master of ceremonies for the lovely occasion. The entire student body, parents, teachers, and administrators were happy for the many boys and girls who did so well in representing our school at the U. I. L. meet in Wink and those who were outstanding in their work for the past year. This is an annual affair and eagerly looked forward to with much interest.

Mrs. Bannie Bonham is hospitalized in the Seagraves Clinic and Hospital at the writing this news. She is some better but still very ill. Let us remember her.

Mrs. Florence Smith returned home from Monahans where she visited with her daughter, Mrs. Connie Bean, and Mr. Bean and her granddaughter, Melanie.

Friends and acquaintances were happy to know that Miss Arline Harris, 1724 13th Street, was the winner of first place with her poem "Sandstorm" which was judged best in the South Plains Writers Association on Saturday.

Word was received here that Mrs. Allie Joe Roye, age 44, who was living at O'Donnell, was killed in a car accident. Mrs. Roye has lived in Seagraves and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Herbert Roye, still lives here. We regret this message. Mrs. Bob McDaniel is also related to the deceased. Mrs. McDaniel runs Kathy's Kindergarten and it was closed on Monday for the funeral which was in O'Donnell at 10:00 A. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hart attended the funeral of his step-mother in Amarillo Sunday at 5:00 P. M. We give our sympathy to this family.

The farmers are hoping that 'Old Mr. Sunshine' will send his warm rays on the 'Great South Plains' for several weeks now so that the earth will warm and send forth our crops. Some old timers say this has been the wettest May in many years.

Mrs. Margaret Josserand does not mind showing her lovely home. Several teachers visited with Mrs. Josserand last Friday and enjoyed looking at her lovely antiques. Mrs. Josserand is the mother of the school nurse, Mrs. Roy Wicker. Those visiting were Miss Shirley Winsett, Mrs. Ron Edmondson, Mrs. Will Lee Clark and Mrs. Grace Smith.

The last meeting of the 1968-69 year for Delta Kappa Gamma was held in the Yoakum County Bank on Thursday, May 15. Cleo's catered the evening meal and about 53 members were present. The meetings will resume in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hulsey have been taking their vacation for the last two weeks. They went to DeLeon where both have friends and relatives. Mr. Hulsey works for Santa Fe Railway and Mrs. Hulsey is the bookkeeper for the Low Housing Units.

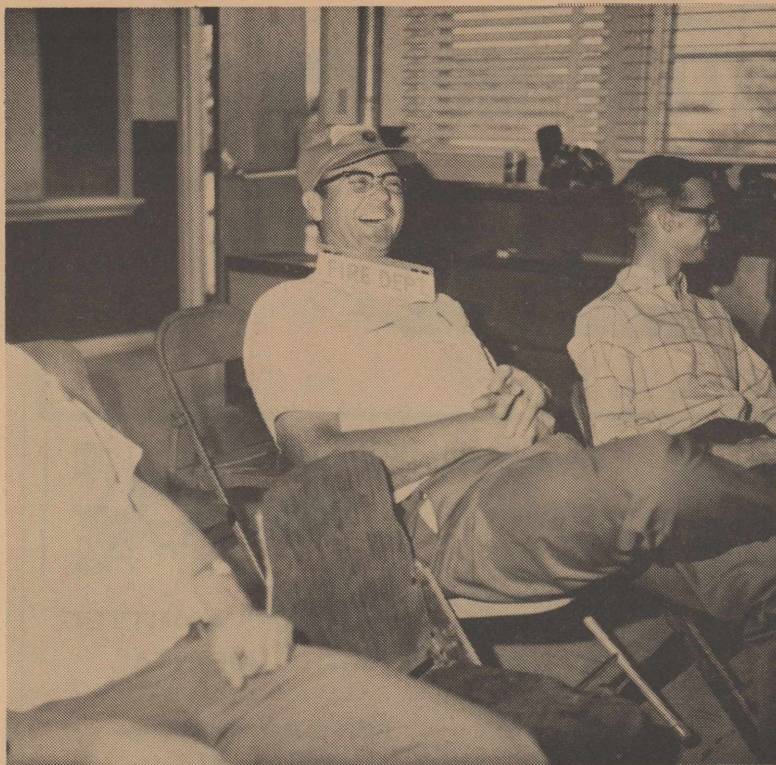

Mrs. Glenda Grimes and Mrs. Arcola Martin will join the teaching staff for the 1969-70 school year. Mrs. Martin will teach English in junior high. She is graduating in May from the College of the Southwest in Hobbs. Mrs. Martin did her practice teaching in the junior high here and we are proud she will be working with us next year. Mrs. Grimes has taught in the elementary grades before she took time out to increase the number of girls in her family to three. Mrs. Grimes will replace Mrs. Faulkenberry in grade one. Mrs. Faulkenberry resigned to devote full time to the little daughter she adopted. We'll miss you, Mary K., and will welcome Glenda back.

The Little Leaguers are in full swing. It is a real thrill to pass the several practice fields and find them putting their little hearts into the work.

We're looking forward to seeing the kind of flower garden Mrs. Johnson will plant in the nice bed which Mr. Chat Johnson prepared for her last week in the front yard of their home.

Mrs. Gilbert Cole is confined to her home with a terrible cold. We will be looking forward to her recovery soon. We miss you, Helen.

We are glad Charlie Bob Hunt is back home. He did work in Fort Worth. He is now opening a fertilizer business in Loop.

Wesley Barnes, Jr. had to wear this sign during class last Thursday night. "I know I'm a fireman but it's hard for the other firemen to believe."

TO THE 1969 HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES
DEDICATED ESPECIALLY TO MY DAUGHTER

My child, tonight you graduate from high school! I'm wondering, as I look back over your life and mine, do you feel that we, your parents, have failed you through your young years, or do you feel that we have done the best we could in your interest?

Did we help you enjoy the pleasures of childhood or were we too busy trying to supply you, and ourselves, with material things?

Then, when you were old enough to go to school and you had homework, as well as other little responsibilities around the house, did we teach you that work, too, is important? Did we teach you that as we go down this road called "life", if things are to go well for us, we must each carry our share of the responsibilities at hand? And to not try to shove a responsibility to someone else when it is rightly yours?

Did we teach you financial responsibility? That what you get, you must earn? Or did we let you grow up thinking, as some do, that the world owes you a living. If we did the latter, you have a hard lesson to learn.

Did we teach you moral and spiritual responsibilities? If we did not teach you these while your school teachers taught you the 3-Rs then we failed you bitterly. No one is happy who does not practice good moral standards. And if we have not taught you spiritual responsibility then we have, indeed, failed you bitterly! These other things deal only with this life, but responsibility to God deals with eternity as well. And where we spend the countless ages of eternity is much more important than how much wealth, education, or fame we acquire in this life.

If we have failed you in any way, we are truly sorry. But don't let our mistakes be a stumbling block to you or cause you to feel that they are an excuse for you to make the same or similar mistakes. Instead, let our mistakes be stepping stones to a better life for you. Profit by them by not making the same mistakes yourself.

We have tried to lead you in a reasonable, respectable, spiritual, and intelligent way of life through childhood, adolescence, and into adulthood. Now we must retire into the background and, unless asked for advice, we must let you make most of the decisions for your life, yourself, as you walk down that long winding path called "your future".

"That Kind of Marriage"

Then there was the cheap little wedding band, hastily selected and probably not paid for. A simple little band of diluted costly metal. Yet for these two, this band was vested with the hopes that it would in some way lend legitimacy to the union.

And Louise's dress . . . bargain basement blue . . . perhaps handled by many and rejected, but right for her. I could not help but wonder how long before it would be carried out with the garbage . . . for it was not the kind of dress that would be carefully folded, wrapped in tissue, gently placed in a box, tied with a ribbon, put in a safe place. I knew Louise would never show it to a daughter and say proudly, "This was the dress in which I was married." IT JUST WASN'T THAT KIND OF WEDDING!

So Larry and Louise GOT married, bravely trying to inject an atmosphere of beauty into a shaded situation.

At the close of the service, with hollow words I pronounced them man and wife according to the laws of the State of Texas and under my breath I breathed a prayer that God had already united them in holy matrimony. What else could I do? Denounce them with scathing words of rebuke . . . why they were never more conscious of their wrong than at this moment.

After the pronouncement I bade Larry kiss the bride. The way they embraced . . . how can it be described . . . at best it was an anti-climax. It was not fraught with anticipation . . . there was something a little too common, usual and desperate about it.

As they left, Larry's father nudged Larry and embarrassed-like pointed to Larry's left back pocket. No doubt he had tutored Larry about paying the preacher. He reached into his pocket and pulled out his wallet and stuttering began to ask, "Er, how . . ." I interrupted and told him to keep his money, that I didn't want it or need it. Now I'm certainly not averse to people showing their appreciation in this way . . . but how could you take money from kids like that?

I shook their hands and bade them God-speed. When Louise took my hand and said "thank you" I felt a tremor of fright and clutching desperation in the grasp.

Throughout the whole affair Larry's mother uttered not a single word.

Can't you just imagine what a wonderful honeymoon trip they must have had. A ride back home in the crowded cab of a pick-up truck . . . Larry, Louise, and Larry's parents.

THE STORY YOU HAVE JUST HEARD IS TRUE . . . ONLY THE NAMES HAVE BEEN CHANGED TO PROTECT THE INNOCENT. Is that what I should say? Is that the right phrase? Perhaps I should have said, "THE NAMES HAVE BEEN CHANGED TO PROTECT THE GUILTY!"

THE CHRISTMAS SEAL MOBILE DETECTION UNIT IS SCHEDULED TO BE HERE MAY 23

The Christmas Seal Mobile Detection Unit of the West Texas Tuberculosis Association will be in Seminole on May 23. The x-ray unit is being sponsored by the Tau Upsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, Pink Ladies and the Evening Lions Club as a community health project.

Many other abnormalities besides TB are detected by this means. On the last trip to Seminole, a total of 540 x-rays were taken. 2 cardio-vascular abnormalities, 5 TB suspects and 12 other chest problems were pin-pointed. The $1.50 pays for the film and the developing. The West Texas Tuberculosis Association bears the cost of having the film read and reported to each one in the survey.

A post card is mailed to those having a normal chest film. The ones who have an abnormal reading are notified by a first-class letter which urges them to contact their private physician or the local health officer for further examination.

Everyone is urged to keep the card with the number of their x-ray film and the date taken. These films are stored at the office of the Association, and can be made available to physicians on request. An old film can be valuable for comparison purposes if some trouble develops in later year. Children under 12 years of age are too small to be x-rayed on this type unit, but every adult is urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

The Unit will be located at the Courthouse Square from 9:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. and 2:00 P.M. to 6:00 P.M.

Hello,

The teacher with the Christmas wish for peanut butter is: Miss Loretta Ritten, C.M.R. #1, Box 939, A.P.O. S.F. 96529. She says if beggars can be choosers, would you please make it crunchy.

I've decided there isn't a citizen, in the younger generation of Japanese, that doesn't wish to study English. I've got 3 two hour sessions. Can't decide if my favorite is a girl with a master's degree in music or a young fellow in his last year of medical school. The big problem for them seems to be our usage of colloquialism and rate of speaking. They learn the words in the class room, but not how to speak fluently. Japanese sentence structure is in reverse of English, which also tends to confuse. The private battle to learn their language is still in progress, very slowly.

We made a little trip to Sasebo, last Saturday, as Ernie had signed up for a golf tournament. While he golfed, the little one, a friend of Jon's and our language tutor and I played tourist. The little one enjoyed the shopping area most, as we went to the top of one of the department stores and let them spend an hour or more on all the rides. Many parents send their children to the roof to play while they do their shopping. Really, it quite handy as Mom doesn't have to fret over little ones complaining while she tries on a new kimona. There are all sorts of rides, games, ice cream, coke and chairs for parents to collapse in, once the shopping chore is ended.

We also took a boat ride out into the bay. It's a national park, known at 99 Islands. It was most interesting to watch the people collecting sea weed for the evening market. They use a long bamboo pole with a hook to collect it. The commercial fishermen place rows of poles, up right. When the tide comes in it carries the kelp in, as the tide goes out the seaweed remains wrapped on the poles. Leaving it a simple matter to collect. Lots of farmers fish for a bit of extra money in the winter season.

Best regards to all,
Ernie, Eunice and family

Information From Social Security Office

BY DOROTHY FEAZELL

An estimated 4 million young people in the country will be going to work for the first time this year. Many of them, H. P. Thomas, Odessa Social Security District Manager, said, will be trying out their wings in summer jobs. He reminded young people to apply for a social security card before they go job hunting. "You'll need the card to show to your employer," he pointed out, "so that your earnings can be reported to your individual social security account."

Your earnings during your whole working lifetime will be credited to the account set up for you under that number and will be the basis for figuring the benefits payable to you and the family you will someday have.

Over 2.2 million disabled workers under 65 are now receiving monthly payments, along with more than 1 million of their dependents. Many of them are under 30 and some are still in their teens.

He cited the case of 19-year old Bob Heffernan. Less than a year after his graduation from high school in 1967, Bob had both legs broken in an accident. He underwent four operations in the more than five months he spent in the hospital.

Last November, his doctor suggested that he get in touch with the social security office to see whether he might qualify for social security disability benefits.

His part-time work after school and during summer vacations had given him enough social security credit to qualify for payments. A person disabled before he is 24 needs credit for only 1 1/2 years out of the 3 years before he became disabled.

The monthly checks will come to Bob Heffernan for as long as he is unable to work. In the meantime, he is eligible for job training and counseling.

To get a social security card, stop by the social security office at 516 First National Bank Building in Odessa. Beginning April 21, office hours will be from

Dear Daughter,

Although you've finished college and are doing your graduate work I'm afraid there are many things concerning people and their talk that you do not understand.

This Charley character that you refer to may have been the marble champion of the little town of Anson and the smaller community from which he came and no doubt has some sort of reputation. In all probability, he played 'keeps' with poor kids that could ill afford it.

I've seen Anson Jones many times and I do not recall him having said one word of this Charley whatever his name is.

The game I refer to was played by young men, boys and older men. This was a gentleman's game. It's known as 'nine marbles.' I doubt seriously that he's ever heard of it.

It seems that when a fellow acquires a reputation in any field that some punk is always trying to take a step off an established pro, whether it be boxing, golfing or shooting (marbles). I won't go to the trouble at this time to re-establish the rules of the game. They've been in public print.

I doubt that he will make his brag again. Meet him in competition? Certainly! Although I doubt the wisdom of such competition.

I've received letters, telephone calls and word of mouth of some would be champion but they seldom show. Tell him if he's interested that I'll even room and board him but he'll have to furnish his own second.

I hope he can understand the moral of the following story. Mr. Grantham, who lived in the bend on the Salt Fork of the Brazos in Stonewall County, told me this story. This kid, who was 21 years old, had already killed one man. I was hoping he wouldn't come in my place that evening, but he did.

I was running a general store with a bar in it in New Mexico. The store had a concrete floor. It was in 1893 or 1894. Visiting me in the store for supplies was a well known gunman and gentleman. We had about finished our visit when this young man swaggered in. His gun was hung low. He tried to look mean. His first words were, "Ha, I've been hoping to run into you and one of us is leaving Ft. Sumner with a much better reputation."

The gunman pled for the boy's life and made a mistake when he reminded the young man that he hadn't shaved but twice. The young man went for his gun. He never cleared leather.

A 45 spoke. The young man hit the floor on his face. The place was filled with smoke. There was hushed silence. Death was nearby. Something peculiar happened. Instead of a set look on the gunman's face, he shouldered his supplies and left my establishment with a smile on his face.

We stripped the shirt from the young man. No bullet holes. He was bleeding from the mouth. We looked in the back of his head and his neck but could not find a bullet hole. We removed his pants. He had not been shot in the lower part of his body. He moaned and groaned. We washed his face off. The young man was alive. Someone said, "look at his boot." The boot heel was gone. A gentleman, knowing his great advantage, shot into the concrete floor. It ripped the boot heel from his boot. He simply had knocked himself out when he hit the floor.

I appreciate the invitation to play marbles with Charley Middlebrook but tell him I think it best to stay in Anson.

Four groups participated: The A Cappella Choir, as shown above, the Men's Glee Club, Barbershop Quartet and the Girls' Glee Club. "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" as presented by the A Cappella Choir was most outstanding. Selections by the Men's Glee Club included: "Poor Lonesome Cowboy", "The Water is Wide", "Ezekiel Saw De Wheel", "Yellow Bird", "Going Out of My Head", "Scarborough Fair" and "Pore Jud". The Barbershop Quartet, composed of Doug Bailiff, Tom Keyes, Lloyd Barker and Craig Wall sang "Aura Lee", "I Want A Girl" and "Seeing Nellie Home". Other Selections presented by the A Cappella Choir included: "Beautiful But Truthful", "Drunken Sailor", "It's All Over Me", "When the Saints", "Mame Medley" and "I Will Wait For You". The Accompanists, Mollie Melone, Lynda Shults and Sammie Hill, are all seniors and will graduate this year.

L. G. Miller said, "The mother weights at least 400 pounds, the baby colt (foal) 25 or 30 pounds, but at 2 days old they always run out in front of the mother." The colt rant back and forth, back and forth for the News cameraman with the mama anxiously a-watching over.

AROUND TOWN

By Jackie Squires

WARD COLLIER sent the poem I asked for about his tie. Because he's such a "sharp" dresser, his friend, WILLIAM B. KELLETT, now deceased, composed this poem:

I LIKE 'EM RED
Some may long for the soothing touch
Of lavender, green or mauve,
But the ties I wear must possess the glare
Of a red hot kitchen stove.
The Books I read, and the life I lead
Are sensible, sane and mild;
I like calm hats, and I won't wear spats,
But I want my neckties wild.
Give me a wild tie brother,
One with a cosmic urge,
A tie that will swear and rip and tear,
When it sees my old blue serge.

Some may say that a gent's cravat
Should only be seen not heard,
But I like a tie that will make men cry
And render their vision blurred.
I yearn, I long, for a tie so strong,
It will take two men to tie it;
If such there be, just show it to me
And whatever the price I'll buy it.

Give me a wild tie brother,
One with a lot of sins
A tie that will blaze in a hectic haze
Down where the vest begins.

STEVE HALEY saying Monday they have room for more paintings at his office. Any artist wishing to display his work is welcome to bring it down. ---IMA GENE SAVELL saying at Jo's Restaurant she has about worked herself to death since I sent that S. O. S. for JIM week before last. (Now do you believe in the power of the press, JIM?) In all honesty I must say she worked hard before she got the message. Anyone running a cafe works hard. Now do I have to wash dishes, IMA GENE?---EMERIE GEORGE going to Hobbs Monday to have lunch with her daughter. ---JAY JOHNSON of Curly's 66 Station saying
