

BILL FAIRCLOTH

Bill Faircloth submitted his resignation last Wednesday as Manager of the Seminole Area Chamber of Commerce to become Manager of the Chamber of Commerce in Graham, Texas. He will assume his new duties August 9. Bill had been manager of the local Chamber of Commerce since June of last year.

Miss Perry was my history teacher. She was a great one for remembering your brothers and your sisters and would assure you immediately how few problems she'd had with them and what great things she was expecting of you. She was kinda the blustery sort. She'd keep you after class to brow beat you and eat you out and end up telling you how nice you were. (Actually, it would make you want to kill yourself for disturbing the class.)

I remember this one time when I went up to her during class and said, "Miss Perry, would you let me go see the coach, my leg is bleeding." "Whereabouts is your leg bleeding?" she asked. Answer - "My knee, Miss Perry." "I'll tell you, Mr. Woods," she said, "you're not gonna get out of this class for just any reason. Let me see your knee."

But, back to the story. We lived way out on the farm and my daddy kept this black stallion. He needed exercise, he said, so we used him from time to time to wrangle the other working stock. On this particular morning Ole Nigger had failed to kick me, bite me or throw me, but he did lunge at a post and cut my knee pretty bad. When I got to the house I changed clothes and went to school. My knee had started bleeding and it had run down into my shoe. It looked pretty bad and Miss Perry said to me again, "You can't get out of this class unless I see your knee."

I tried to get around where the young ladies and especially my friends couldn't see what was going on and I jerked up my pants leg. I lived to regret what happened next. Miss Perry fainted, coming to and mumbling "Go on, go on, go on" and fainting again. I wasn't really too sorry that she fainted but what I regretted most was hearing these fellows say from time to time, "Hey, Woods, show Miss Perry" CONT. P. 2

SCHOOL BOARD

In a special meeting Monday night the School Board hired Leslie McLaughin as 8th grade coach and teacher. Mr. McLaughin comes here from El Paso and will replace Jim Inman who has resigned and accepted a position in the Andrews School system.

Mr. McLaughin is 23 years old and married. After graduation from Crane High School he attended Sul Ross State College, South Plains College and Angelo State University. He graduated from Angelo State in 1970. While at El Paso he taught Physical Science and coached 9th grade football, assisted 9th grade basketball and coached "B" team baseball.

In other action the board granted permission for two student trainers to attend the student trainers school at Baylor University this weekend.

YARD OF THE WEEK was awarded to the Dayton Elam family Monday at 10:00 a.m. Mrs. Elam, Shelby, left, and Paul, right, accepted the honors from Don Cates, president of the Seminole Area Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. J. D. Mitchell, representing the Seminole Garden Club. This is the third year the Seminole Garden Club has sponsored the Yard of the Week and it has always been one of the highlights of the summer months.

E.L. SHORT APPOINTED TO COMMITTEE ON VENEZUELAN EQUINE ENCEPHALOMYELITIS

E. L. Short, State Representative, was appointed on a legislative committee to assist and study in any way possible the problems and solutions of Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis (VEE). This 7 man committee met in Austin July 20 and heard testimonies from the Animal Health Commission, doctors from the School of Veterinary Medicine of Texas A&M and the Texas Agricultural Department.

The following information came from testimonies: (1) The vaccine and the services are free to the horse owner. The federal government if paying the cost. (2) The county agents of each county are the designated official person for you to contact. (3) The animal health commission believes we need to vaccinate 90 percent of all horses to put a check and balance on (VEE). It is important that all of us cooperate with this program. There is over 10,000 horses dead in Mexico and over 700 dead in Texas. (4) Seventeen people in Texas are infected and 69 others are suspected of having (VEE).

The committee is making recommendations to the federal government that they spray the cities because the vaccination program is only a part of a solution. The mosquito is the carrier and any mosquito can transmit this disease by biting an infected horse then in turn infect a person or another animal. In south Texas counties that have received rain is where the great problem lies. Unless the drought breaks in this area and a new cycle of mosquitoes takes place Mr. Short believes that we will not have very many problems. Vaccinated horses are known to be fully protected after 14 days. It is important that we protect ourselves from mosquito bites until this outbreak of (VEE) is checked.

The symptoms to a human is like having a mild flu virus. The vaccine is in the experimental stages and is not available to humans. The disease is not known to affect humans as seriously as it does horses. There is no doubt that the vaccine is effective on horses. There is a number of cases similar to the following that has proved this point. A herd of 30 horses -- 27 were vaccinated and 3 were not. The owner considered the 3 animals the best he had and was afraid to give them an experimental type vaccine. They contacted (VEE). The 27 were saved.

You should contact your physician if you have unusual mosquito contact and or a summer flu. If you have a horse that needs vaccinating, call your veterinarian or county agent. Mr. Short expects the quarantine to be lifted on the movement of horses very soon.

your knee and see what happens," or "Boy, what legs!"

Miss Perry told me later that she never was able to stand the sight of blood and if I ever needed first aid attention, just please go on and not disturb the entire class.

Brownwood High School, history and Miss Perry are pleasant to think on.

LETTERS To the Editor

Dear Editor:

We have been busy moving to Los Alamos. We will be here possibly 30 to 45 days. So mail the paper to this address until I notify you otherwise.

This town is just beautiful, so clean. Mountains everywhere. We hope to spend lots of evenings fishing. We are drilling a steam well for this Atomic Energy Plant. Quite interesting.

MISS CHERYL ELIZABETH BARCLAY Formal Wedding

The altar of the First Baptist Church of Alvord, Texas was decorated with candelabra entwined with greenery and white blossoms for the candlelight ceremony uniting Miss Cheryl Elizabeth Barclay and Mr. Levon Curtis Franks, Jr. Rev. E. W. Kaylor, pastor, officiated the double ring rites at 7 p. m. June 26, 1971. Church pews were marked with white satin ribbons and lily of the valley. Mrs. E. W. Kaylor played traditional wedding music, including "Theme from Romeo and Juliet".

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Troy Barclay of Alvord, and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Franks of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma. The Barclays are former residents of Seminole.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a formal white empire peau creation overlaid with silk organza. The camelot sleeves of organza were triple banded with Venice lace insertion, sprinkled with tiny white silk roses and white velvet ribbon. Her chapel length veil fell from a Juliet cap of matching Venice lace. Her bouquet was a white orchid surrounded with glamelias and white satin streamers atop a Bible, a gift from her grandmother.

Mrs. Gary Redman, sister of the groom, served as matron of honor. She was attired in a floor length empire gown of Viva pink crepe with a contrasting floor length sash. Her headpiece was a flat crepe bow and veil of illusion in the same color as the dress. She carried a colonial nosegay of varied pink feathered carnations.

Maid of honor was Miss Pam Smith of Alvord, who wore a candy pink gown and headdress identical to the matron of honor. She also carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Serving the groom as best man was his father and Bruce Nivens was groomsman. The ushers were Neal Hachtel and Arvil Sisk. Miss Lisa Tackel attended the guest book.

Candlelighters were Miss Pam Smith and Mr. Neal Hachtel.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Barclay wore a dress of yellow crepe and an orchid corsage. The mother of the groom chose a blue alasken dress with pearl trim and an orchid corsage.

For a wedding trip the bride wore a light pink crepe pants ensemble and an orchid corsage.

For travel the bride wore a light pink crepe pants ensemble and the corsage lifted from her bouquet. After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Kingfisher, Oklahoma, where the groom is employed by Cities Service Oil Company.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents were hosts at a reception in the church fellowship hall. The table was covered with a satin and illusion cloth with tiny white doves and satin streamers around the skirt of the table cloth. The white triple tiered wedding cake was adorned with various shades of pink roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom under a tiny arch of pink roses. Pink punch and the wedding cake were served by Mrs. Jim Baird of Alvord and Mrs. Alan Barclay of Bowie.

Out of town guests were present from Magnolia, Arkansas; Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; Lake Charles, La.; Hobbs, N.M.; Urbana, Ill.; Chico, Bridgeport, Decatur, Denton, Alvarado, Forestburg and Houston.

Celebrate Anniversary

The tiered cake was made for the occasion by Mrs. C. C. Lippincott and Mrs. Randell Lippincott. VACATION - KINFOLKS STYLE!

Dear Kin, Friends and Unsuspecting,

This was the year that we were to tour Europe but time would not permit. Also, we had maybe thought on Mexico or Alaska but the banker did not smile on that. We would have considered Hawaii again but we are still making payments on that trip. Larry is in college and has added another financial burden.

After all, we have been wanting to see most of you anyway. This next Wednesday, say bright and early, we plan on leaving Seminole and visiting you. We might leave Tuesday night so we can eat breakfast in Ballinger. If you have not figured it out 'by now' we're a little short of funds. We are coming in the station wagon so we can be sure of a bed.

Just think how lucky you are. Jim, Judy and those beautiful grandchildren are in Georgia. Cindy is working at Sunset in Lubbock, Larry is in L. C. C. and Lindy wants to fish with his Dear ole' Grandma for a couple weeks. What if we all came? Of course, I realize how happy you are that we can 'make it'.

How much food you feed us is very important ----- What kind is very important!

It looks kind of 'like this' Ballinger, Brownwood, Ft. Worth, Dallas, Troup, Huntsville, Houston, Kerrville, Waco, and other points.

If your plans are not to be at home, please leave a note telling what motel or 'hotel' to stay in and where to eat. Your courtesy card would help. Thanks.

We rejoice every time we hear how well all of you are doing financially - keep us informed. A little proof would not be too bad.

Very sincerely,

Walter Lee Roy Woods

P. S. I'm serious.

We left Seminole at 3:30 p.m. and arrived at the counsellors' house (nephew, Ken Courtright) at San Angelo at 6:20 p.m. Menu: fried chicken, potato salad, fruit salad, iced tea, green salad, pie ala mode.

It's Thursday 9 a.m. and we're off to Ballinger, Texas and a visit with Granny Pearl. (30 years ago, I got the best Ballinger had to offer.) Noonday meal looked like this: roast beef, gravy, green salad, cantaloupe, green beans and potatoes, peach pie ala mode, iced tea and hot rolls. Granny Pearl still shakes a mean skillet.

It's 3:05 p.m. We're headed toward Brownwood Lake. 4:00 p.m. on the shore of Lake Brownwood visiting Super Grandmother. She's still "super" when it comes to visiting and cooking. After spending the night, we reluctantly left fledgling No. 4 and drove toward Cowtown.

Uncle Ward and Aunt Alice Collier welcomed us with open arms as we were accompanied by an honest to goodness rain. They gave us a tour of Ft. Worth, the Civic Center, Mid-Town Church of Christ (Where 3 congregations went together and have a membership of 3,000.) Being the outstanding hosts they have always been, the big pot and the little pot were put on.

Saturday a.m. we headed east once again, and with the Colliers visited and drove through the recently opened Animal World. (Advice: if you have vinyl top on your car - don't drive it through - rent one - it might be cheaper!) Also, it's worth $3 to see the animals. After a good dinner together, we parted company and drove to Troupe, Texas. Ah! The rain! The trees and crepe myrtles! They were all great, as long as you were in an air conditioned car. Seeing old friends, the Irwin Dickeys of Sam Houston College days, and such good friends! Even their young married sons had short hair. Such wholesome young families of great grandchildren, grandchildren, grandparents and parents get together for church. What can I say more? The food was good, the fellowship was better. Just think, an aunt (who is, I think, older than I am) a teacher from California with help from the rest of the kin was putting the finishing touches on a tree house for her great nephews. The house was 8 feet long, 6 feet wide and 7 feet high and was up in a pecan tree 14 feet from the tree house floor to the ground. Like many projects, there were more advisers than workers as the kin and friends gathered and sat on porch and steps and in the yard in the cool of the evening to see the project finished.

It's 4 p.m. and we've left the piney woods heading west for Waco, via Teague.

WRECK NORTHWEST OF SEMINOLE

A 1971 Chevrolet driven by Fred P. Landis, 43, of Midland and a 1970 Chevrolet driven by James Kent, 43, of Denver City were involved in an accident last Wednesday at 8 a.m. 12 miles northwest of Seminole.

According to Clayton Koonce, TDPS, Landis was going west and Kent south when they met at an unmarked intersection of a paved county road and a graded county road.

Both drivers were taken to Yoakum County Hospital where Landis was treated for facial lacerations and Kent a broken hip and head lacerations. Both cars were total losses.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gordon and Son, Jimmy from Cocoa Beach, Florida have been visiting with Mrs. Gordon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Tyson and Kevin of Loop. They also visited Mrs. Gordon's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Tyson and sons who reside in Midland, Texas.

BOB CLARK, agent FOR

Bob Clark is Seminole's agent for Southwestern Life Insurance Company. He offices in the newly decorated Moore Building at 201 South Main Street.

Mr. Clark is married to the former Miss Vicky Thompson and they have two sons, John Mark, 7, and James Matthew, 4. They reside at 613 S.W. 17th Street. They have lived in Seminole for the past 3½ years which meant coming home for Vicky. Bob is a newly elected City Councilman. He is on the board of directors for the Seminole Noon Lions Club, the Seminole Area Chamber of Commerce and is president of the Chiefs, a service organization of the Chamber of Commerce. Bob is a deacon of the West Side Church of Christ where he and his family are active members.

The theme "Happiness is What We Sell" is based on a survey made by the Life Insurance Industries which indicated that the problem with most insurance companies and agents was their profit of doom sales presentations. Life insurance today is designed more for the living. As a matter of fact 60% of all life insurance proceeds are paid in living benefits. Life insurance will always produce death benefits to families but aside from this it produces cash for college funds, down payment on homes, capital for starting businesses and emergency funds. These are "LIVING BENEFITS". Life insurance is also used for retirement purposes and estate planning to minimize or reduce federal inheritance taxes.

You can purchase life insurance from in excess of 1700 companies in the United States. The primary difference is in the use of insurance. The well trained agent could adopt various types of life insurance to fit specific individuals needs.

For your need of life insurance contact Bob Clark. Other than life insurance Bob can also take care of your hospital insurance. He is as near as your telephone.

THE OLD TIMER

Fish can't forget about our old ballgames. He was the pitcher on the Shafter Lake team and he had to tell Thomas Burrows what a thief I was back in those days. I would steal second every time and sometimes home plate. I was lead off man at bat and would tell the batter to not strike at the first ball, that I would steal second, then it would not be a force run and they had to put the ball on you. I could make it standing most of the time or slide underhead first and put my hand on the base. I was fast and did not fan out. I would knock the ball down instead of up and it would roll off down the third base line or the first base and I would out run it to first. It was the catcher that always got mad when you stole bases on him. I was 38 when I played my last ballgame in 1919 with Seagraves. We had always been jealous of each other. Seminole's team did not have a short stop and I just had to go and help them. I went to first the first thing and stole second, then went to home plate and squatted down to rest and here came the hind catcher with muzzle on, weighing about two hundred pounds. He was a R. R. fireman and he called me little shrimp. I sprung at him and got him by his Adam's apple and shut all his air off and he threw up his hands and was turning black in the face when they pulled us apart. It was either run or fight and you can't tell what you can do until you try. He was told so many times that a little shrimp whipped him that he transferred to the Slaton line.

The cowboys would always enjoy putting me on a pitching horse, get me to put on a pair of long shank spurs for they knew that I would spur him and make him pitch even if he was a gentle horse. So I was in demand on weekends to go out and help brand or dip and dehorn, but I was very fortunate, I never was pitched off but I pulled everything and if the horn had not been well leathered it would have pulled off. I would hold to that horn a-straddle of my arm looking for a soft place to fall but it was rock or a cactus bed or a steer's back as the horse always had his head right between the steer's hind legs.

I bought an interest in the Williams Brothers & Sims store in 1912 on the corner facing north on the Eddy Jameson corner in a tall two story building. The high winds would make it lean over east and many days I would have to go to lunch without locking my doors. It would be leaning so badly my doors would not shut. The day the bank was robbed in 1912 by two men I went to the Lone Star Hotel for lunch and did not shut my doors. It was robbed by Fuquay from Oklahoma and Bert Humphery from down on the border. Fuquay was killed in the sand hills near Monument that night which ended his bank robbing.

I always enjoy reading your paper and the many old pictures bring back many pleasant memories of the past and some were not so pleasant for there were times that we would wonder where our next meal would come from and something unforeseen would happen.

KRAZY DAY was termed a success by the merchants and the shoppers in Seminole last Thursday. Everyone was having a gay time from one end of town to the other. I think the customers were "Krazier" this year than they were last year. I enjoyed taking pictures of the participants. BILL FLIECHER, UNITED MGR., and ROGER COOPER, PRODUCE MGR. at PIGGLY WIGGLY, were the prettiest girls around that day. LOUISE ALLEN with daughter BRENDA WILLIAMS and only granddaughter TABATHA out seeing the sights. BESSIE SAMPLE never has any competition for the best decorated business. This year the theme for JO'S RESTAURANT was the Grand Ole Opera and a good time was had by all.

WAYNE and FAYE BRYANT toured the South recently and reported a most interesting trip. They visited the home of ole swivel hips himself, ELVIS PRESLEY, in Memphis, Tenn. and were fortunate enough to get a tour of the home of WILLIAM FAULKNER, Nobel Peace Prize Winner in Oxford, Miss. The beauty of the South with its old traditions made a great impression on the Bryants. Faye says everyone should go there sometime.

CLAUDE JORDAN and BULA MAE MARCHBANKS looking over the bargains at KELLEY'S yesterday.

While talking with BENNY BAGGETT the other day about CORA breaking both arms I told him of the time a 2000 lb. engine fell on CHARLES' arms, breaking them and crushing his right hand. He had to wear casts for several months. We got along just fine with me doing everything for him until it come time to brush his teeth and he always accused me of brushing hardest where he didn't have any. Benny said that was no problem for him and Cora, he just held the brush and made her jump up and down. Now, why didn't I think of that??

CAROLYN CALGER and MARGARET GUITERREZ having a cup of coffee at LOWRIE'S DRUG yesterday morning.

CHARLENE SHELTON recuperating from a tonsillectomy. That's a heck of a way to spend the last part of a vacation.

SANDRA BAILEY leaving on vacation for Six Flags. Bye, Sandra, we'll miss you.

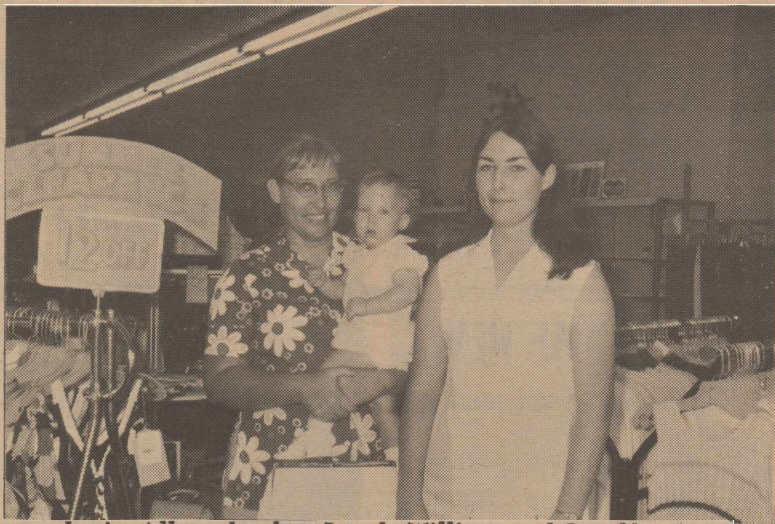

This message was on my desk yesterday morning, unsigned. ROUND TOWN SHOULD STAY AT HER DESK MORE AND NOT BE SUCH A ROUNDER. Personally, I think it was left by the Lions Club ace basketball star who's initials are JOHN THOMPSON.

Look out for me because I'll be seeing you AROUND TOWN.
