TOO MANY WRECKS ★★ ★★ ★★ ★★ ★★ ★★ ★★ ★★ ★★ ★★ ★★

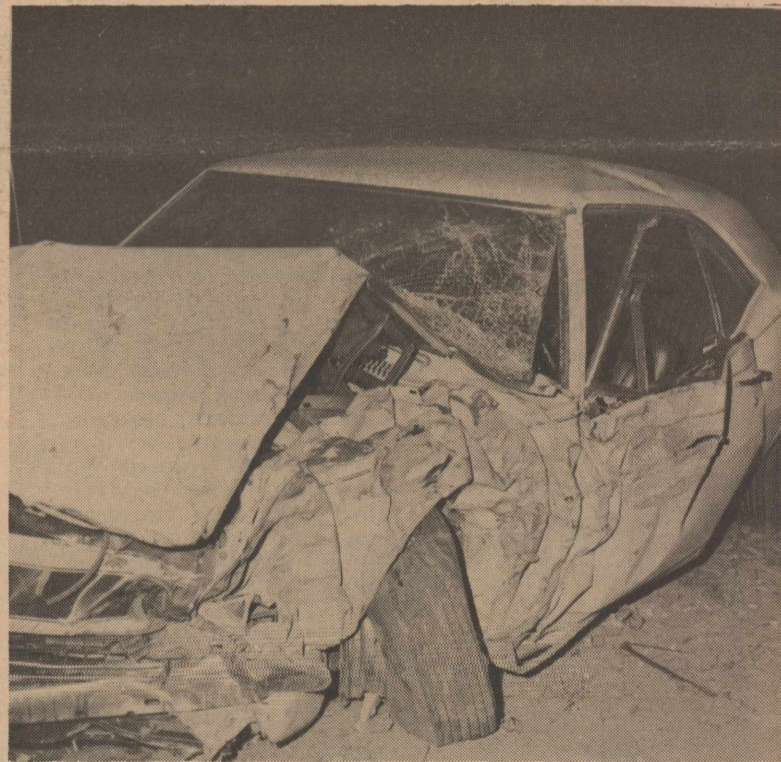

Dearest Mother,
 Today is your birthday--well past 80 and going strong--(Oops, there goes the fire whistle. It was a bale of cotton on fire at the gin.) Today is also a new year. When I think of your birthday and a new year, I'm made to think of a lot of other things. Write and tell me, Mother, how you've made all those around you love you so. Write and tell me, at your age, how it is that there is so many that want you in their home in the winter time and at Christmas, also why the grandchildren want you to play games with them. Why do the daughters-in-law always take up for you?
 Can you remember the times you played stick horse with me when I had run out of a playmate? How did you find the time and the energy? Then there were the games of dominoes, scrabble, 42, cross-word puzzles, and on and on.
 How, Mother, with a bunch of kids did you have time to keep chickens, a big garden, can a hundred cans of corn, peaches, pears, plums, jellies, preserves -- oh, those watermelon preserves!
 Mama, do you remember all those times, "Son" you would say, "I'll be so glad if I ever get you raised." And then you'd go on and rejoice with me over a horse race won, the birth of a new calf, a sow and her piglets, the catch of a big catfish, winning 1st prize with Rhode Island Red chickens, how much milk a new cow was giving and a new found nest of Banta chicks.
 How in the world did you accumulate so much knowledge about a boy? How did you know when to whip, when to love, when to brag and when to ignore? How was it that you could not hear a thing but smell tobacco smoke a hundred yards?

How was it if you raised a houseful, doctoring them yourself with coal oils, Castor Oil, Calomel, Black Draught, Epsom Salts and Vicks Salve?

1968 Buick LaSabre driven by Linda Katherine Mendola.

Camaro driven by Johnny Gilbert Sepeda.

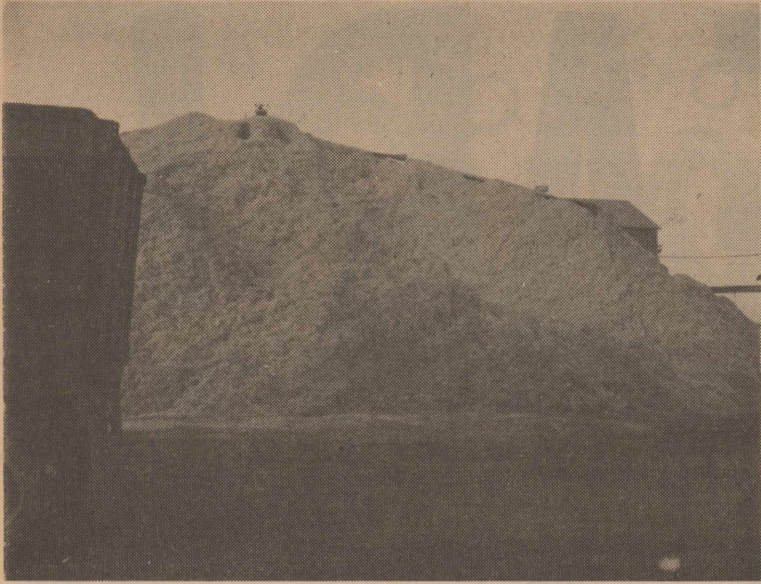

Lacerations, broken bones, and black eyes resulted in a two car, one pick-up and two trailer accident last Tuesday night just east of Seagraves at 7:30. There were no deaths. Linda Katherine Mendola, 16, failed to control speed on the 1968 Buick LaSabre she was driving when she attempted to pass two cotton trailers and a Chevrolet pick-up driven by Raymond Lester Shumake, age 25 years old of Seagraves, and struck a Camaro driven by Johnny Gilbert Sepeda, who was headed east. He received cuts, bruises, broken ribs, and possibly knee injuries. A passenger in the Buick was Jenny Gambrell, age 16 from Loop, suffered a deep leg laceration.
 Phil Upton, TDPS patrolman, estimated damages of $50 to the pick-up, $2800 to the Buick and $2000 to the Camaro. According to Upton, the Buick attempted to pass the low-boy trailers hauling ten bales of cotton, struck the rear end of the trailer, swerved in the east bound lane, hit the Camaro driven by Sepeda, then struck the pick-up and the trailers, partially un-loading the load. The injured were reported in good condition in the Seagraves Hospital.

2200, yes twenty two hundred tons of cotton seed - at the Co-Op Gin west of Seminole. There's a gin back there somewhere. The pile of seed measures 375 feet around and is approximately 40 feet high.

How was it that a woman past seventy learned to fish and became such an expert at it? How could you get up so early and take a grandson to the lake's edge and catch a pre-breakfast string and clean them. Yum-yum, what a breakfast!

There's no great mystery that your children loved you, that your grandchildren adored you, your great-grandchildren want to talk to you and your great great-grandchildren will hear about you. Happy Birthday on this January 1, 1970. May God's Blessings continue.

REPORT FROM BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

SCIENTISTS AT BELL TELEPHONE LABORATORIES HAVE DEVELOPED AN "INTEGRATED CIRCUIT" THAT CONTRIBUTES SIGNIFICANTLY TO THE MINIATURIZATION OF MODERN ELECTRONICS.

AN INTEGRATED CIRCUIT CONTAINING 20 OR MORE TINY TRANSISTORS AND SCORES OF OTHER ELECTRONIC COMPONENTS TAKES LESS SPACE THAN ONE CONVENTIONAL TRANSISTOR, AND BECAUSE THE MINI-CIRCUIT PERFORMS BETTER, IT IS MORE RELIABLE AND COSTS LESS THAN CONVENTIONAL ELECTRONIC PARTS, MORE SOPHISTICATED TELEPHONE SYSTEMS CAN BE DESIGNED.

"THE TINY SIZE OF THESE MINIATURE SOLID STATE CIRCUITS GIVES TELEPHONE DESIGNERS GREATER FREEDOM IN DETERMINING THE SIZE, WEIGHT AND SHAPE OF NEW TELEPHONES," SAID HARRY SAWYER, MANAGER FOR SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY.

"FOR EXAMPLE, THE NEW CIRCUIT IS USED IN THE TRIMLINE PHONE AND THE "ELECTRONIC" TELEPHONE PROPOSED FOR THE 1970'S".

HE SAID DESIGNING THE OUTSIDE OF A TELEPHONE TO FIT BULKY INTERNAL PARTS IS NO LONGER NECESSARY. THUS GREATER EMPHASIS CAN BE PLACED ON THE APPEARANCE, CONVENIENCE, COMFORT AND PROPER USE OF TELEPHONES-- AND TELEPHONE SYSTEMS-- IN THE FUTURE.

THE 10 COMMANDMENTS OF SAFETY

1 Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun. This is the cardinal rule of gun safety.

2 Guns carried into camp or home must always be unloaded, and taken down or have actions open; guns always should be encased until reaching shooting area.

3 Always be sure that the barrel and action are clear of obstructions.

4 Always carry your gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle, even if you stumble. Keep the safety on until you are ready to shoot.

5 Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger.

6 Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot.

7 Unattended guns should be unloaded; guns and ammunition should be stored safely beyond reach of children and careless adults.

8 Never climb a tree or a fence with a loaded gun.

9 Never shoot at a flat, hard surface or the surface of water.

10 Do not mix gunpowder and alcohol.

ON GROWING OLD

How do I know my youth is spent?
'Cause my get-up-and-go has got up and went.
But, in spite of all that, I can set up and grin
When I think where my get-up-and-go's been.

Old age is golden, I have heard it said,
But sometimes I wonder as I go to bed:
My ears in a drawer, my teeth in a cup
My eyes on the table until I get up.
Ere sleep dims my eyes I say to myself
"Is there anything else I should lay on the shelf?"

But, I'm happy to say as I close the door,
My friends are the same as in days of yore.
When I was a child my slippers were red
And I could kick my heels up over my head.
When I grew older, my slippers were blue
And I could dance or play the whole night through.

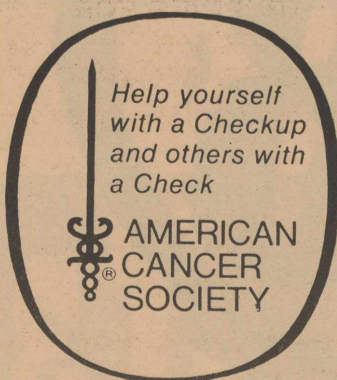

Now I am old, my slippers are black.
I walk to the corner and puff my way back.
The reason I know my youth is spent
My get-up-and-go's got up and went.
But I really don't care when I think with a grin.
Of all the places my get-up-and-go's been.

Since I have retired from life's competition
I busy myself with much repetition.
I get up each morning and dust off my wits
Pick up the paper and read the obits.
If my name is missing I know I'm not dead
So I eat a good breakfast and go back to bed.

HERE ARE TEN RULES OF LIVING

1. Keep skid chains on your tongue. Always say less than you think.
2. Make promises sparingly and keep them faithfully no matter what it cost you.
3. Never let an opportunity pass to say a kind and encouraging thing to or about somebody. Praise good work done regardless of who did it.
4. Be interested in others, interested in their pursuits, their welfare, their homes and their families. Let everyone you meet, however humble, feel that you regard him as a person of importance.
5. Be cheerful. Keep the corners of your mouth turned up. Hide your pains, worries, and disappointments under a pleasant smile.
6. Preserve an open mind on all debatable questions. Discuss, but don't argue. It is the mark of superior minds to disagree and yet be friendly.
7. Let your virtues, if you have any, speak for themselves and refuse to talk of another's vice. Discourage gossip. Make it a rule to say nothing of another unless it is something good.
8. Be careful of other's feelings. Wit and humor at the other fellow's expense are rarely worth effort and may hurt where least expected.
9. Pay no attention to ill-natured remarks about you; simply live so that nobody will believe them.
10. Don't be too anxious about getting your dues. Do your work, be patient, keep your disposition sweet, forget self, and you will be respected and rewarded.

Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Allen and their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mack Williams of Ft. Walton Beach, Florida, visited in Chilicothe, Texas with Mrs. Allen's parents and Mrs. Williams' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Tole, over the Christmas holidays. They also visited in Electra with Mr. Allen's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zaiack.

Progress Against Cancer
Thirty years ago one-in-five was saved from cancer, today it is one-in-three according to the American Cancer Society.

Members of the M. S. Doss Youth Center (and as Mrs. Doss says "Her children") presented Mrs. Doss with a painting of the late Mr. Doss for her Christmas present the night of December 23. Mrs. Doss is shown with the painting and above it is a painting of the M. S. Doss Ranch House.

Information From Social Security Office

BY DOROTHY FEAZELL

A VERY VERY HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL MY GAINES COUNTY FRIENDS! HOPE THAT THIS HOLIDAY SEASON HAS BEEN ONE OF THE BEST EVER.

NOW, LET'S GET BACK TO SOCIAL SECURITY WITH A VERY IMPORTANT REMINDER. THERE IS A SPECIAL PART OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY LAW THAT CAN BE VERY IMPORTANT TO FARMERS AND RANCHERS. SOCIAL SECURITY EARNINGS CAN BE REPORTED EVEN THOUGH THE FARM OR RANCH NET PROFIT FALLS BELOW $400 OR RESULTS IN A LOSS.

THIS IS POSSIBLE BECAUSE OF A PROVISION IN THE LAW PERMITTING FARMERS AND RANCHERS TO REPORT TWO-THIRDS OF THEIR GROSS INCOME FOR SOCIAL SECURITY PURPOSES PROVIDED GROSS INCOME IS AT LEAST $600. THE MAXIMUM WHICH CAN BE REPORTED UNDER THIS PROVISION IS $1600. THIS IS CALLED THE OPTIONAL METHOD OF REPORTING FARM INCOME.

SOME HAVE ASKED "WHY WOULD ANYONE WANT TO DO THIS SINCE IT JUST MAKES YOU LIABLE FOR MORE TAXES?" THE EXTRA TAX THE FARMER OR RANCHER PAYS WILL PROVIDE VALUABLE SOCIAL SECURITY PROTECTION FOR HIM AND HIS FAMILY IN THE FORM OF RETIREMENT, SURVIVORS, AND DISABILITY INSURANCE ---AND MEDICARE. IT PROVIDES A WAY TO MAINTAIN A HIGHER AVERAGE LEVEL OF EARNINGS ON THE RECORD, IN SPITE OF YEARS WHERE ACTUAL NET EARNINGS ARE LOW. I URGE ALL FARMERS AND RANCHERS TO THINK THIS OVER VERY CAREFULLY. THERE IS MORE TO IT THAN JUST AN EXTRA TAX.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION ABOUT REPORTING FARM AND RANCH INCOME UNDER THIS OPTIONAL METHOD VISIT YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY OFFICE IN ODESSA, TEXAS OR CONTACT ME ON ONE OF MY REGULAR VISITS TO THE GAINES COUNTY COURTHOUSE.

THE COST OF THE SOUND OF MUSIC

If you have a stereo tape recorder and stack of tapes in your car and don't take some basic theft precautions there's a good chance they won't be there in the morning.

And unless you take the time to mark your equipment and record the serial numbers the chances of ever recovering the stolen goods are practically nil.

The stealing of stereo tape recorders and tapes from automobiles is becoming a major headache to law enforcement officials in the Southwest, as well as insurance companies.

Because of the failure of car owners to protect their tape decks from theft, they are easy prey for the professional car thief and are being stolen at a fantastic pace.

For instance, in Austin, Texas, in 1965 there were approximately 20 stereo players and 200 tapes stolen from automobiles, according to that city's police department. Thefts skyrocketed to around 900 players and almost 6,000 tapes in 1968. This same rate of increase applies to practically every major city in the Southwest, or the whole nation for that matter.

C. C. Benson, manager of the southwestern division of the National Automobile Theft Bureau, says that the key to preventing the theft of tape players is for car owners to always lock their cars when leaving them unattended and mark their stereo equipment.

"Leaving cars unattended on dark, residential streets or apartment parking lots should be avoided as much as possible," said the NATB official.

"Also, don't advertise the fact that you have a stereo player in your car by leaving tapes in plain sight in the seats or in a box in the middle of the floor. These are things the thief first looks for."

The recovery rate of stolen players and tapes is only 10 to 20 per cent, says Mr. Benson.

"Autostereo player owners must mark both their players and tapes permanently and record these serial numbers and markings in order to have any real chance of recovery. Permanent, but inconspicuous markings greatly aid law enforcement officials in their recovery efforts."

Mr. Benson also pointed out that many car owners fail to take the trouble to protect their players and tapes properly because they aren't really worried about having them stolen. They expect their insurance company will pay for the loss.

"However," he said, "these people forget that the cost of insurance varies in proportion to the amount paid out in claims. This can ultimately only lead to the owner losing out. Also, there is always the possibility that if insurance companies continue to suffer huge losses due to these thefts that they will limit insurance coverage for stereo players and tapes."

These 900 stereo players and 6,000 tapes stolen in Austin in 1968 were valued at about $50,000 or more in replacement value, according to Mr. Benson. He added that there may have been more stolen that were not reported to police.

"Anyway you consider it, it's a lot of money to pay for music, especially music to entertain a thief," Mr. Benson concluded.

Texas does not have an open range livestock law. New Mexico does. An open range law states that drivers are responsible for hitting livestock on public roads. In Texas, this is not so. Owners of livestock are responsible for looking after their animals and not be negligent about letting them get out on highways, paved roads, or county roads.

Black cows and black horses are most difficult to see at night. Probably hitting a horse with an automobile is the worst livestock to hit because of the tendency of an automobile to run under them and them stick their feet and legs through the windshield or side window.

This article is being written to point out the great danger created by livestock owners when cattle guards blow full of sand, fences are not kept in good repairs, and electric fences become grounded out and are temporarily disconnected.

A driver of a car when hitting a hog nearly always loses control if the hog rolls underneath and lifts the wheels above road surface.

Please, Mr. Farmer, Mr. Rancher and Mr. Owner of livestock, do all within your power to keep your livestock penned and in their proper pasture.

Approximately $1500 damage was done in a fire to a trailer owned by Robert Williams at 2:00 p. m. last Thursday.

The Volunteer Fire Department was called out at 4:45 p. m. last Thursday off of the Denver City Highway and just past the old Phillips Camp. An oil pit was on fire.

MR. AND MRS. C. J. DANLEY, JR.

Couple Says Vows

A candelabra with white tapers entwined in greenery, flanked by large baskets of white gladiolas, decorated the altar of the First Baptist Church for the marriage vows of Miss Brenda Lee Slaughter and C.J. Danley, Jr. Rev. Gene Hawkins, Pastor, officiated the double ring ceremony December 20, 1969 at 8:00 p.m. Traditional wedding music was presented by Miss Carolyn Gowdy, organist and Lynn Garrett, vocalist.

Presented in marriage by her uncle, the bride wore a white lace over satin floor length gown, fashioned with a fitted bodice and tapering sleeves. The floral headpiece held a shoulder length veil of tiered silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white carnations with gardenias and roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Treve Mason, was gowned in a street length blue dress, fashioned with an empire waist. She wore a white carnation corsage.

Best man was Bill Ray. Ushers were Bruce Williams and Junior Franklin, who also served as candlelighters.

The reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was laid with a floor length white net cloth over satin. Crystal and silver appointments were used to serve the three-tiered white wedding cake, adorned with blue roses and copped with traditional miniature bridal figurines beneath an archway.

Serving in the houseparty were Mmes. Jack McCullough, Bobby Smith, Marshall Somers, and Robert Sneed.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico, the bride wore a blue crepe dress with a corsage lifted from her bouquet.

The bride is a senior at Seminole High School and will continue her schooling in Levelland where the groom is a freshman at South Plains Junior College. He is a 1969 graduate of Seminole High School. They will be at home at 208 North College, Levelland.

Out-of-town guests were from Andrews, Denver City, Odessa, Perryton and Hobbs, New Mexico.

AROUND TOWN By Jackie Squires

This has been a most happy and busy holiday season for us, from having our family and friends visit to attending the wedding of a young lady we watched grow up. Even the surprise of my teenagers being satisfied with (almost) all of their gifts and the sheer delight of my little grandchildren's faces opening their gifts were a sight to behold. Christmas is for children, especially little ones who think whatever Santa leaves is fine. Wouldn't it be nice (and simple) for us parents if that feeling would only last?? --- We attended the wedding in Odessa Saturday of ANN SMITH and EDWIN DYE. Ann is the daughter of our long time friends, NORMA and UNA SMITH. Una is the aunt of GLYNN CHANDLER. As I watched this lovely young lady walk down the aisle on her father's arm toward her handsome young groom in uniform, I thought "My goodness, it can't be! She was just a year old or less the first time I saw her, where have the past seventeen years gone? Time marches on but I wish it would slow down to a walk!--- Happy New Year, all, maybe the 70's will go at a slower pace. Reckon? --- CORA BAGGETTS calling and saying all of their children and grandchildren made it home for the holidays for a visit with she and BENNY, their daughter and family from Jal, New Mexico, MR. and MRS. WALTER ANDREWS and four children VICKI, ALLEN, CHARLES and RUSTY, their son, MR. and MRS. WINN BAGGETT and children, TRAVIS and TRICIA from San Antonio, another son, MR. and MRS. JOE (DEBBIE) BAGGETT and girls, BEVERLY and TERRY from Alvin, Texas and a friend of the girls from Midland, KAY FULLER. Joe and Debbie are also visiting with her parents, MR. and MRS. B. J. ELAM and will remain until after the wedding of her sister, JOHNNIE ELAM. --- CHARLES RAY went to Tishamingo, Oklahoma for a short visit with his mother, MRS. C. M. RAY. Mrs. Ray has been ill recently but is some improved. --- Do you believe this weather? One day it's spring-like and the next snow with freezing temperatures. We missed having a 'white Christmas' by just three days. --- BRYAN MASON coming over early to get my son, GARY, up to play in the snow. Snow is such a novelty in this part of the country it doesn't take much for the children to rig up a sled of sorts and have some fun. --- MARY SMITH trying to roll a poor old granny in the snow Monday evening - namely ME! --- The NEAL ATENS just out riding around the square Monday evening. --- Someone telling FAY EARL Monday her skirt was too long and her boots were too short. --- TOMMIE FOOTE, thinking it was at least 6:00 a. m. Christmas morning, arose and baked a cake, three pies and a big batch of peanut brittle, then discovered it was only 4:00 a. m.

The Melones are former "Seminolians". MARY JO SMITH says "Hi!" --- Asking what "Noel" meant in the office Monday - GAY FOOTE spoke up and said, "That's my daddy's name spelled backwards, "LEON". --- CHARLES and I dropped by the M. S. DOSS YOUTH CENTER Saturday to see the beautiful Christmas decorations the TAU UPSILON CHAPTER ladies provided. MR. and MRS. W. H. FELTNER were having their first stint at sponsoring. We readily agreed with Mr. Feltner that the M. S. DOSS YOUTH CENTER and the new BANK building were two of the things Gaines County could be proud of. --- SUE HOLLAND pays the nicest compliments. --- JOHN FREYBURGER calling Monday, giving us the weather report. Anyone wishing to know how the weather's a-doin', call JOHN. --- WAYNE and FAYE BRYANT attended the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of her parents, MR. and MRS. C. T. McKEOWN in Jal, New Mexico Christmas. The McKeowns were married December 24, 1919. After the celebration Wayne and Faye flew to Las Vegas for a holiday. Faye reported the shows were fabulous. The only thing that marred their trip was the return home after the snow storm hit. Renting a car in Albuquerque and driving 30 MPH all night finally made it home. LOOP NEWS

BY MRS. BUCK CUNNINGHAM

In a highway accident last week Johnny Sepeda, son of Mr. Joe Sepeda, was injured. Johnny's car was behind a car which hit a cotton trailer near the gin just east of Seagraves on the Loop Highway and Johnny's car hit the other car. He is hospitalized in Seagraves Clinic-Hospital with a broken breast bone, broken ribs, a knee injury and a broken ankle, but is in good condition and recuperating nicely.

Although many farmers completed their cotton harvest a few did not. The gins closed down for Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. A high wind Saturday slowed things down again and Sunday brought cold weather with rain and sleet. This Monday morning we have quite a blanket of snow with temperatures in the low 20's. It seems like winter has finally arrived after our unusually warm weather.

School will resume for the local school next Monday, January 5. District basketball play begins on Tuesday, January 6, when the Longhorns meet the Klondike teams in the Longhorn gym. The Klondike girls are defending State Champs and the game is a big one for both teams. In order to be ready for play the Loop teams journey to New Home on Friday, January 2, for games beginning at 6:30. Game time for the Klondike games Tuesday is 7:00 p. m.

One interesting fact from last year's basketball contests - the Klondike girls said their toughest competition in their trip to the State Championship was the teams within their own district so let's support our teams.

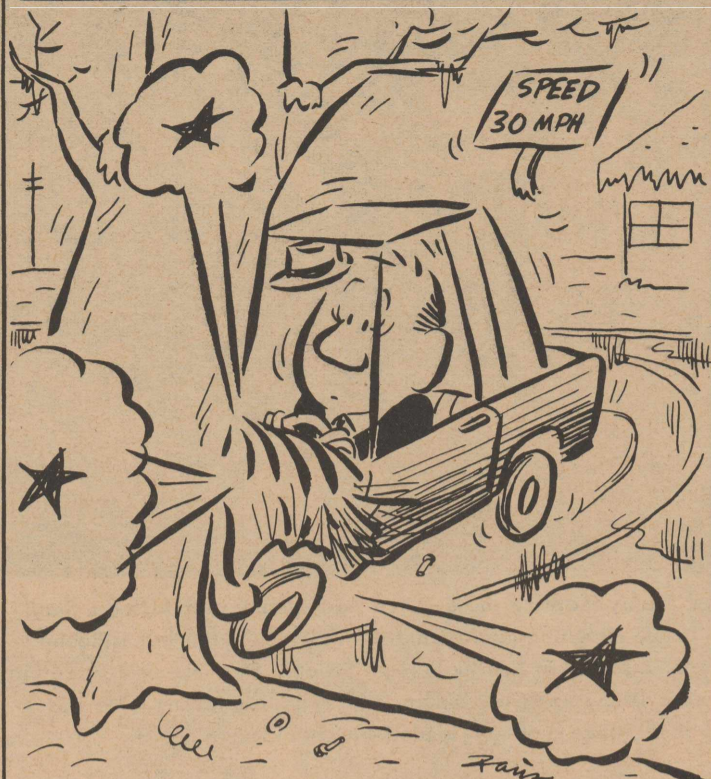

The Paul Caughron family had a brighter Christmas with the recovery of most of the articles stolen from their home the previous weekend.

Armondo Sepeda is on leave from the Armed Forces and is visiting with his father, Mr. Joe Sepeda, and other relatives. His orders are for service in Germany at the end of his leave.

Mrs. Ellaree Holladay is in the community visiting her sons. On Christmas Eve they all gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Chaffin, Brenda and Sherry. On hand for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Chaffin, Harold and Cynthia, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Holladay, Marcy and Tracy, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chaffin, Bobby and Leslie of Plainview.

HOW FAST IS TOO FAST?

UNDER POOR WEATHER OR ROAD CONDITIONS, EVEN THE POSTED LIMIT MAY BE UNSAFE. USE GOOD JUDGMENT!

INSURANCE INFORMATION INSTITUTE

237

While there is no excuse for driving above the posted speed limit, there are times when motorists should drive below it, according to the Insurance Information Institute.

Two occasions for motorists to reduce speed are: poor weather or road conditions.

The Institute reminds motorists that inclement weather--with its slippery roads and reduced visibility -- and hazardous road conditions make driving and stopping more difficult and dangerous. A speed that was safe under ideal conditions, suddenly becomes unsafe.

To avoid accidents, motorists are advised to use good judgment when driving under adverse conditions. Stay on the safe side and slow down.
