Outstanding 4-H adult volunteers recognized

Orlando De La Garza

The honorees were: Brown County, Gina Goforth; Burnet County, Bill Felps; Callahan County, Tammy Ivy; Coke County, Orlando De La Garza; Concho County, Daniel Lange; Irion County, Allen Drennan; Jones County, Keith Porter; Lampasas County, Tina Loeffler; Llano County, Gary Howell; Mason County, Randall and Peggy Brown; McCulloch County, Teresa and Darrel Keese, and Heather Jo Ashton; Menard County, Wanda Martinez, and Dora Wright; Mills County, Jana Edington and Brandon Bartek; Nolan County, Mike Hart; Runnels County, Kenneth Fischer and Kim Castleberry; San Saba County, Bucky and Tana Lusty, and Autumn Castro; Schleicher County, Luann Shipman; Sterling County, Wendy Justiss; Taylor County, Pete Welch, and Colby Caton; and Tom Green County, Janice Trees and Mark Barta. Branham said the 4-H Youth Development Program offers many projects, activities and events tailored to support and enhance volunteer participation and adult involvement in young people's lives.

"This banquet is our unique way to show these individuals who are so important to our success, the appreciation they so justly deserve."

Honorees are nominated from counties in the district, Branham said. Finalists are then chosen by a committee comprised of area electric cooperative personnel and AgriLife Extension officials.

The banquet has been sponsored from the beginning by the rural electric cooperatives serving the 23 counties in AgriLife Extension's District 7 in West Central Texas.

Orlando De La Garza of Bronte was among 29 adult leaders honored at the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service's annual District 7 4-H Silver Clover Recognition Banquet in San Angelo.

The event, celebrating its 48th year, recognized the volunteers for their role in the success of AgriLife Extension's West Central District 4-H youth program, said Garry Branham, AgriLife Extension 4-H specialist at San Angelo.

"Outstanding volunteers are the key to the long-running success of our entire 4-H program," Branham said. "Their dedication and commitment are what make 4-H members successful in the myriad subject areas the program encompasses."

Meet the Longhorns set for Monday

Coke County Roping Club minutes posted

A meeting of the Coke County Roping Club was held at the arena in Bronte Sunday evening, July 19, 2015 at 6 pm with 10 people in attendance.

Bartley Murray, President, called the meeting to order at 6:10 pm. Members attending were Corey Virden, Dryden Virden, Chris Guzman, Tyson & Jenny Baker, Shawn Berryhill, Jordan Berryhill, Katie Austin, and Bartley and Jennifer Murray.

Murray opened the meeting by asking for a motion to approve the minutes from the previous meeting held on June 21, 2015. Roping Club members include Katie Austin, Terry Austin, Jenny and Tyson Baker, Shawn Berryhill, James Brunson, Ron Cooper, Kerwin and Rosie Denton, Roger Graves, Chris Guzman, Wendell Lee, Drew and Bailey Leeton, Cory Lloyd, Mary McMullan, Marshall Millican, Bartley and Jennifer Murray, Alonzo Robbins, Brandy Virden, Corey Virden, and Shane Webb.

Jennifer Murray made a motion, seconded by Shawn Berryhill to approve the minutes.

Murray then asked for the Secretary/Treasurer minutes from Katie Austin. Katie Austin reported she made a deposit of $2,458.00 into the Coke County Roping Club account and explained that the account would be moving to the First National Bank of Sterling City in Bronte.

Next, Murray explained that Nick Arrott was the current designated lawyer for the club. Arrott will be assisting the club in receiving not for profit status.

Jennifer Murray explained the club's options of going LLC or non-profit. Jennifer explained that the not for profit form was not filed, but the club can file it for $25. Next, Jennifer discussed that if the club files non-profit, it will need a board of directors. It was suggested to make the current officers the board of directors. After discussing the options with attending members, Shawn Berryhill motioned, seconded by Corey Virden, to move forward with filing the non-profit paperwork and make up the board of directors with the current officers.

Then, Bartley Murray motioned, seconded by Jenny Baker, to keep Nick Arrott as the club's lawyer.

The discussion then moved to a proposed insurance policy received by Mary McMullan. Attending members discussed the exclusions of the policy. Jennifer Murray raised concern of the exclusions of participants and animals. The quote was around $655 annually. Bartley Murray will check on the exclusions and report back. Jennifer Murray explained that with non-profit status, the members will be covered, but Bartley Murray suggested the club still purchase a policy.

Murray next explained the background checks on each of the officer team members. There was one issue with a background check. Murray contacted the club's lawyer and had a Private Investigator do another round of background checks. Said issue was confirmed to be valid. Bartley Murray will contact the individual and explain the issue. Re-election for the vacant office will occur at the next meeting, August 16, 2015 at 6 pm.

The discussion then moved to rewording the bylaws to fit non-profit regulations. Jennifer Murray explained that the bylaws would stay the same; the wording will just be revised.

The meeting moved to other business and Jennifer Murray read an email from Bailey Saunders. Bailey brought up the idea to host a goat roping and Great-grandparents include Dennie and Sharon Braswell of Bronte, Floyd and Charlotte Blackburn of Bronte, and Jesse and Elaine Ensor of Wingate.

BBQ during Bronte's Homecoming. Attending members agreed this would be a great opportunity. Jenny Baker suggested the group also have a dummy roping. Bartley Murray will talk to Corey Lloyd about providing goats for the goat roping. Murray motioned, seconded by Shawn Berryhill, to host a goat roping, BBQ and dummy roping September 26 (time TBA). Katie Austin suggested contacting the fire department about cooking. Chris Guzman and Corey Virden will get the chute for the goat roping. The goat roping will be $10/team. Shawn Berryhill is checking on portable bathrooms.

Murray then noted the parking lot of the arena was shredded by Terry Austin and grubbed by Cody Brosh. Katie Austin mentioned deep plowing the arena. Katie Austin also School Spirit! The 2015 Steer Spirit Quilt has been designed and completed and is ready to be claimed by some lucky winner in the '64 Study Club Scholarship Fund drive. Orange and black and the Steer logo make a real spirit statement. Each year the club provides scholarships for graduates of RLHS. The quilt fund raiser is one of the most important projects of the year. The Spirit quilt will be on display at all home Steer games: September 4, (Paint Rock); September 25, (Homecoming-Highland); October 2, (Garden City); and November 6, (Water Valley). The quilt will also be on display at the Robert Lee Street Affair on Saturday, September 19, 2015. Further fundraisers include two $50 gift certificates from Wal Mart and a $25 gift certificate from Sam's. The quilt has been hand crafted under the direction of Debbie Haveman, with appreciation also to Shirley Davidson, Stephanie Haveman and Johnetta Lawrence. The quilt will be keepsake piece. There will be four drawings for the Spirit quilt and the gift certificates at the downtown Christmas celebration in December.

It's Magic! On Wednesday, August 5, the Amazing Mr. K entertained a crowd of 65 people at the large rec hall in Robert Lee. Mr. K's show emphasized heroes, beginning his show with honoring the four branches of the military and continuing with support of local heroes. Several guests from the audience including Kodi Drennan (above) participated in the many skits which entertained all. Mr. K (Gary Kelton) and his wife, Glenda, "enjoy coming to the small towns." This is the second year that the Coke County Library has hosted Mr. K. The library is able to bring Mr. K each summer through book sales and donations, so the people of Bronte and Robert Lee who support the library are greatly appreciated. If you have missed Mr. K's shows in the past, you can catch him again next summer when he returns to entertain the kids, both young and old, to mark the end of the summer reading program.

Sheep/Goat event set for San Angelo

By Steve Byrns

What organizers tout as the largest, most comprehensive sheep and goat production educational opportunity in recent times is coming to fruition. A diverse and changing sheep and goat industry will highlight two back-to-back educational opportunities in San Angelo on Friday and Saturday, August 28-29. (Texas A&M AgriLife Communications photo by Steve Byrns)

The venue is actually two events set back-to-back on August 28-29 in San Angelo, said Marvin Ensor, Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service regional program leader in San Angelo.

He said the first of the two is the 42nd Annual Sheep and Goat Field Day conducted by and on the grounds of the Texas A&M AgriLife Research and Extension Center located just north of San Angelo. That event starts with registration at 8 am, followed by the program from 9 am to 1 pm August 28.

The second event is the first ever Texas Sheep and Goat Expo set from 2 pm to 8:30 pm, also on August 28, and again on August 29 from 7 am to 4 pm at the San Angelo Fairgrounds.

"The Texas sheep and goat industry is undergoing tremendous change," Ensor said. "And the AgriLife agencies, AgriLife Extension and Texas A&M AgriLife Research, are staying abreast of those changes. The industry is as diverse now as perhaps it's ever been, so we are offering these events that will specifically target this diversity."

The annual Sheep and Goat Field Day is a long-standing tradition of the AgriLife center dating back to the 1970s. The field day is generally scheduled the first Thursday of each September, but Ensor said both events complement one another so well that planners opted to move the field day to coincide with the expo as a convenience to participants.

The expo is to be a premier state-level event with emphasis on demonstrations and hands-on activities that will follow the center's August 28 field day. Activities on August 29 will start early at the San Angelo Fairgrounds with a chuck wagon breakfast followed by concurrent sessions featuring the various management and marketing techniques specific to wool breeds, hair sheep, club lamb production and meat goats.

Commercial businesses will exhibit new equipment, products and services at both events.

"Both these programs will be packed with information," Ensor said. "We'd like folks to first attend the center's field day that touts work being conducted there, including the extensive flock guard dog work being done, work on using juniper in deer feed to limit the problem of feral hogs eating much of it, insight into factors affecting lamb prices, the latest in prescribed fire management and some very interesting wool garment work. After a sponsored lunch at the center, activities will move to the San Angelo Fairgrounds for the start of the expo.

"It will be a full two days, and participants can take part in any or all of both events. We do hope they will take advantage of both programs though, as we have never offered such an opportunity before."

Ensor said expo presenters will include AgriLife personnel, Texas A&M University faculty, veterinarians, Texas Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratory staff, agribusinesses and area ranchers.

The concurrent expo sessions will include: Wool Sheep Session; Hair Sheep Session; Club Lamb Session; and Meat Goat Session.

The AgriLife Center sheep and goat field day is free including the lunch there.

Call Myra Marsh at 325-653-4576, ext. 237 for pre-registration.

... CCRC Minutes

mentioned asking Corby to put his sheep in the pens to eat the weeds down and also to remind him to rebuild fence.

The discussion then turned towards the next meeting. At the next meeting, members will discuss getting donations for the Homecoming event. Jennifer Murray motioned, seconded by Bartley Murray, to make a minimum of a $50 donation for a banner, name in the program, and the paper. Any donation less than $50 will get their name in the program and in the paper.

The next meeting will be Sunday August 16, 2015, at 6 pm.

At 6:57 pm, Jennifer made a motion, seconded by Corey Virden, to adjourn the meeting.

At 6 pm on August 16, 2015, the Coke County Roping Club met at the arena in Bronte. President Bartley Murray called the meeting to order at 6:03 pm. Members present were Bartley and Jennifer Murray, Tyson and Jenny Baker and Bailey Leeton.

Minutes of the July 19, 2015, meeting were approved following a motion by Bartley Murray and a second from Jenny Baker.

Jennifer Murray informed the members that FNBSC requires the club's EIN number and minutes of the meeting detailing who may sign on the account. Bailey Leeton made a motion to have the club's president, vice president and secretary/treasurer on the signature card. Tyson Baker seconded the motion and it passed. Bailey Leeton made the motion to only require one signature on a check, seconded by Jenny Baker. All were in favor.

Bartley Murray reported on his conversation with the adjoining landowner regarding the connecting fence and the possibility of him grazing animals on the CCRC property.

The domestic not for profit paperwork will be filed by Nick Arrott and the club authorized Katie Austin to deliver the filing fee to Arrott.

A discussion was next held about the upcoming "horseless" goat roping set for September 26, 2015. Bailey Leeton and Tyson and Jenny Baker will be responsible for providing the rules. Jenny Baker and Jennifer Murray will handle the advertising, with Bailey Leeton providing the flyers for the event. It was stressed to make sure "horseless" was prominent in all marketing materials.

The books for the event will open at 7 pm with the adult/12 & under roping beginning at 8 pm. At 7:30 pm, a 5 & under ribbon pulling will be held, followed by a 10 & under goat tying and kids dummy roping. The goats will be staked. Prizes for the evening were discussed.

Bailey Leeton will talk with the Bronte Volunteer Fire Department about doing the evening's barbecue as a fund raiser for that organization. If the BVFD is not interested, other groups will be approached.

A Halloween Playday has been tentatively scheduled for October 31, 2015, at 1 pm at the arena in Bronte. In addition to kids and horses in costume, a "trunk or treat" is being discussed.

Jenny Baker nominated Bailey Leeton to fill the vacated rodeo co-chair position. Bartley Murray seconded the nomination. All were in favor.

The next meeting is set for the third weekend in September.

2015 Property Tax Rates in EAST COKE COUNTY HOSPITAL DISTRICT

This notice concerns the 2015 property tax rates for EAST COKE COUNTY HOSPITAL DISTRICT. It presents information about tree tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual tax rate for the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers start rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate:

Last year's operating taxes	$556,602
Last year's debt taxes	$0
Last year's total taxes	$556,602
Last year's tax base	$128,602,818
Last year's total tax rate	$0.432807/$100

This year's effective tax rate:

Last year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$555,837
÷ This year's adjusted tax base (after subtracting value of new property)	$117,198,090
= This year's effective tax rate	$0.474271/$100

(Maximum rate unless unit publishes notices and holds hearings)

This year's rollback tax rate:

Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property and adjusting for an transferred function, tax increment financing, state criminal justice mandate, and/or enhanced indigent healthcare expenditures)	$555,837
÷ This year's adjusted tax base	$117,198,090
= This year's effective operating rate	$0.474271/$100
x 1.08 = this year's maximum operating rate	$0.512212/$100
+ This year's debt rate	$0/$100
= This year's total rollback rate	$0.512212/$100

Statement of Increase/Decrease

If EAST COKE COUNTY HOSPITAL DISTRICT adopts a 2015 tax rate equal to the effective tax rate of $0.474271 per $100 of value, taxes would increase compared to 2014 taxes by $9,734.

Schedule A - Unencumbered Fund Balance
