Dogies come away with another victory

The Dogies started on their own 30 after the opening kick-off. After a nice drive down the field, Rankin picked off a pass at the 2 yard line to stop the drive. The Dogies ten held to get the ball back when Dylan Thomas knocked down a pass on 4th down totake over at the Rankin 15. Michael Munoz punched it in from 4 yards out and hen takes the ball in on the point after run to put the Dogies up 7-0. Rankin started at their 21 after the kick. Both teams moved the ball with some success but neither could get across the goal line so the halftime score was 7-0.

The Dogies kicked off in the second half and Rankin started at their 34. They drove down the field and scored from 24 yards out on a pass play to make the score 7-6. The Dogies take the ball at the 39 yard line after the kick and drive to the 20 yard line where they turn the ball over on a fumble.
