

Hermleigh to have general "Clean-up Day" Monday and Tuesday

Dr. Rosser Assures Scurry County Of Hospital

Mrs. C. S. Suddath, Inadale.

Winner of First Prize in Subscription Contest.

Mrs. Suddath is an Arkansas lady by birth but was reared and educated at Greenville, Texas. She was married July 4th, 1919, to Mr. C. S. Suddath who was a Leonard, Texas, man. Mrs. Suddath with her husband came to this part of the country from Cisco, Texas less than a year ago settling at Inadale, where her husband manages the Berry Lumber Company.

Among the many things which Mrs. Suddath is especially fitted for is selling subscriptions to a local paper. She carried her home town and community nearly 100 per cent for the Herald during the subscription campaign which has just closed, and is now wearing the diamond ring which was offered as first prize in the contest.

Inadale, the 'little city' of the Scurry County Plains, has a very choice location. It is on the strip known as the 'divide' and is as pretty to look at as most any part of Texas Plains country. The soil is very fertile and is settled up by a very thrifty group of farmers.

If it can not be had by bond election for the entire county, Snyder is determined to have a Hospital for Scurry county people. At the Luncheon Club in Snyder Wednesday, Dr. Rosser made public his plans to build the Hospital.

About $35,000.00 is necessary to erect and properly equip the institution, Dr. Rosser thinks, $8,000.00 of which is already in hand. The Dr.'s proposition to the city of Snyder was that if the town would raise $16,000.00 he would take care of the rest. This practically assures the county of getting a sanitarium.

The building which is to be fire proof and modern in every way will be located between the Manhattan Hotel and the First Baptist Church, south of the square.

Major Kimzey is very enthusiastic over the progress the Herald is making. He has even offered to guarantee the editor to those who have not subscribed. Thank you Mr. Kimzey.

Mr. Suddath, manager of Berry Lumber Company reports that business in general in Inadale is growing every day due to the good agriculture of the community.

Inadale has two cotton gins, the Inadale Gin Co., and the Acme Co. These gins are making plans to install new and modern ginning machinery and are ready with first class equipment to care for the next year's cotton crop. There are at least three good groceries and a number of garages with other business connections in the 'little city.'

Inadale has good roads, homes, churches and abundance of fine water.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Named "Clean Up" Days In Hermleigh

The High School and all the Churches Are Asked to Lend This Move Their Support. Every Body Urged to Work

The local Chamber of Commerce in session Tuesday night voted to stage a move to clean up the streets, allies and vacant lots in town. Monday and Tuesday the 13th and 14th, were selected as the days for the clean up. Each individual is being asked to clean up his own premises and to pick up all cans and rubbish and pile it within easy reach of the open street for the trucks which will run Wednesday morning. Every body in town is especially solicited and urged to co-operate in this effort.

The three Gins Co., represented at the meeting Tuesday night by Messrs. Terry, Tucker and Roemisch, offered to furnish trucks and men to haul off every thing which they find piled up for them on their suggested routes—the front streets. It will be a reasonably light thing for each individual to get his rubbish sacked and piled out within reach of the trucks. The trucks will make all the front streets and expect to find your sacks piled there. The city council will pass an ordinance later requiring that this be done, and then we will have to furnish our own trucks. Now, we can get it done free.

We are expecting hundreds of people in town on the occasion of our big "Water Tower Celebration" and we do not want to feel embarrassed by any physical appearance of the town and, moreover, the insanitary condition of our streets, allies and vacant lots is greatly endangering the health of our people. If typhoid were to break out half of our people might die before the epidemic could be checked. This 'clean up' which includes a better system of sewerage, is absolutely forcing its self upon us. Response to this action on the part of every citizen is not too much to expect, and a good response will be greatly to the credit of the town.

There is scriptural injunction which it might be well to remember in connection with this "clean up campaign": "Cleanse ye first the inside of the cup and the platter, that the outside might be cleansed also." Good morals is the greatest essential to the well being of any people, and is today considered society's greatest asset. Be not weary in well doing, for ye shall reap if ye faint not."

An Apology

We regret very much that we overlooked the important matter of announcing the coming of the Santa Fee Agricultural Demonstration Train to Snyder today, in our last week's issue. We were thinking that this issue would go into the mail in time to make this announcement, and consequently neglected to publish it last week. We had the data for it from Mr. Willis, and certainly regret that we allowed our hurry to cause us to overlook this, such an important matter.

In our rush we also so overlooked three adds, one for Victor Longbotham, one for Sligh Grocery and one for Dr. Ward.

City Council Doing Constructive Work

The City Council is to be strongly commended for their wisdom and hard work in an effort to put the town on a better civic basis. One might safely predict that if they get sufficient moral support from the citizens of the town they will prove the greatest asset to Hermleigh that anything else has or may ever prove. 'Stay in there Council Men' and lets' us all pull together for a town of 1200 in Hermleigh within two years. It is to the very best business interest of all who live here to see things go.

4-H Club Meets

The 4 H Club girls of this community met for the second time this year at the school building last Wednesday afternoon.

The girls worked with the Demonstration Agent on several of the articles of sewing and instructions were given for further work in sewing. A general round table discussion of stitches, seams, etc. was appreciated by all.

Although our work to present date has been primarily in sewing, plans are being discussed and the gardening and poultry projects are being started.

We are looking forward to the best years work we have ever had.—Club Reporter.

Junior C. of C. Recommended

Mr. Evans, Sec. of Scurry County Chamber of Commerce, and Judge Holly were in Hermleigh Monday.

Scurry County has two C. of C. organizations and the editor is encouraging that each local rural community organize a junior C. of C. This is both practical and beneficial. The work no doubt is but a short time in the future.

Dr. and Mrs. Ward were called to Paris this week to the home of Mrs Ward's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ross who are considered very feeble.

Water Tower Soon To Be Completed

Our water sytem is soon to be completed and then comes the big celebration for the people of Hermleigh community. The tower will be erected on one of the highest points of altitude in this county and from which the water runs one way to the Colorado river and the other way to Brazos river, and will stand over an hundred feet in height. It can be seen for miles, Invitation to attend this big celebration is extended to every one who can see this huge tower.

The committee which was appointed to suggest plans for the celebration are suggesting that the business houses all close at 10:00 o'clock and begin the program of the day with a general handshaking which will culminate in the big community basket lunch—plenty for everybody. The afternoon will be taken largely by a speaking program, in which we hope to have some State representative, and a big 'opening the season' ball game, if a park can be arranged for. After the ball game every body will go home and do their chores, and come back for the big, mile high' bonfire and the 'sky high' water spout. Good music and other means of entertainment will be connected with each part of the program throughout the day. Every thing named above will be a special feature of the "whole day" program.

John Anderson and family of Ralls, Texas, are Hermleigh visitors this week, guests of Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Hudson. They will possibly locate here, it is thought.

J. J. Henry made a business trip to Abilene Sunday.

Mrs. L. B. Rea, City

Winner of Second Prize in Subscription Contest.

Mrs. L. B. Rea, Mildred Chorn before her marriage, pretty young bride of several months and well known all over the county, was the winner of the second prize in our contest which closed last Saturday.

Mrs. Rea was reared here. She graduated from the same school which she entered at the age of seven. She is a regular attendant at the same Sunday School class which she has attended regularly all these years.

She was married last June a year ago to Mr. L. B. Rea who, too, was born and reared here. The happy twain have known each other all their lives. Mr. Rea is the son of B. Y. Rea, a prominent farmer and banker of Hermleigh, and Mrs. Rea is the daughter of J. I. Chorn a prominent citizen of the community.

Among Mrs. Rea's virtues is the fine virtue of energy. Her time is all usefully employed all the time. She did fine work in the contest and for which the HERALD is deeply indebted to her.

Our Appreciation

Our subscription contest closed quietly yet with much enthusiasm at 5 o'clock p. m., Saturday. The office here was the scene of much intense interest at about 4:45 o'clock when the points were counted. Mrs. Rea's points totaled 10,800 while Mrs. Suddath's total as then handed in was 11,125. Mrs. Rea made use of her other fifteen minutes bringing in 500 more points. Mrs. Suddath began to feel the approach of defeat when her husband, who was holding back a bunch of subscriptions, came to her assistance at the last minute holding his watch in his hand. The closing minute showed the points to stand: Mrs. Suddath, 11,525. Mrs. Rea, 11,300. Miss Hoskinson, 4,475 and Miss Seal, 2,050.

The contest between Mrs. Rea and Mrs. Suddath was about 50-50 all the way through, as it was at the close. These women worked hard and faithfully, they were as enthusiastic as if working for a much greater prize. The spirit of fairness on the part of each contestant was commendable, indeed. They succeeded in doing a fine work for the Herald, and for which we are deeply indebted to them.

In addition to our appreciation of the work done by these contestants, we wish to express our appreciation to the people of Hermleigh, the German school community, Inadale and Pryon for their special interest manifested in their buying the subscriptions, without which the contest would have failed. Hermleigh, the German school community and Inadale, went almost 100 per cent for the Herald, while the office at Pryon was not so well represented, but when we take into consideration that a great many of the Pryon people get their mail on route 2 out of Hermleigh, Pryon was well represented. The list was short at China Grove but is not chargeable to Miss Seale. We have never gotten acquainted with the China Grove people and which we think had something to do with results of the contest there. In these places where the people have a better chance to know us, the subscription list was heavy. And in addition to this, as Miss Seale reported, the China Grove people have been receiving the paper regularly with a stamp on it each week and many of them considered themselves subscribers. We hope to out live this and carry China Grove as we have carried these other places. We are thankful to those at China Grove who lined up with us during the campaign.

The result of the contest exceeded our expectation. Our circulation will now run near 500. We consider this exceeding fine, and especially so when we consider that it was thought an impossible thing to circulate a paper out of Hermleigh growing.

Golden Fleece in Spain
Since the downfall of the Hapsburg monarchy, King Alfonso XIII of Spain has held the undivided mastership of the Order of the Golden Fleece. This is one of the prime knightly orders of Christendom, and was founded in 1429 at Bruges by Philip III, duke of Burgundy. In 1713 the Austrian branch of the Hapsburgs claimed participation in it. Now the Spanish Hapsburg is supreme, once more.

Scenes About Even for Loquacity and Silence

In New York a radio announcer, who has a record with ten hours' voice reporting of a convention, but who is not a talker, is a woman who was admonished by a Youkers judge for talking for 35 years? In the words of another judge, who listened for 20 minutes to a woman in Queens: "Madam, it's a terrible death to be talked to death."
Straws like this fly thick in every mind, and to offset them the Laconian must search diligently. Yet he is not unrewarded. His heart leaps to read of the foreman of a jury who listened diligently to all the evidence and speeches but could not perform his duty because, as it developed when the jury was locked up, he understood no English. The Laconian sets that beside the youth who was questioned all night by detectives, holding his silence unbroken, and in the morning scribbled: "I am deaf and dumb."

O!!

"They tell me you and Jack plunged yesterday."
"Yes, and we were both stripped too."
"Stripped?"
"Yes, we both bought 1,000 shares of Hoo in '21 at par. The bottom dropped out and we're both cleaned."

Skull Used as Argument

Using a skull as an argument, J. S. Clarke, a labor member of the Glasgow corporation, induced the other members to appropriate $14,000 for the purchase of a portrait of Mary Queen of Scots. Clarke declared the skull was an authenticated one of a soldier killed in the battle of Langside, now a residential part of Glasgow, where the army of the Scots queen was defeated. He insisted this to emphasize the advisability of buying the portrait, which had been in the possession of the earl of Morton's family for nearly 350 years and for which there had been offers of from $300,000 to $500,000. The painting is by a famous contemporary French artist—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Lesson for February 12

JESUS PICTURES THE KINGDOM OF GOD

LESSON TEXT—Mark 1:14, 15, 16

GOLDEN TEXT—The Kingdom of God will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
 PRIMARY TOPIC—How God's Kingdom Grows
 SENIOR TOPIC—How God's Kingdom Grows
 INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How the Kingdom Grows
 YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Growing Kingdom of God

I. Jesus Preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom of God (Mark 1:14, 15)
 1. The time
 After the voice of John the Baptist was still because of his imprisonment Jesus took up the message.

2. What He preached
 It was the gospel of the kingdom of God. Since "gospel" means "good news" the good news which He preached was that Christ had come to establish His Kingdom.

3. How He preached
 He said: Repent for the Kingdom is at hand. The King was then ready to set up His Kingdom if the Jews would receive Him.

II. Jesus Pictures Four Classes of Hearers (Mark 1:16-20)

1. The place—the seaside (v. 16)
 He was obliged to enter a boat to escape the pressure of the crowd.

2. Why He taught in parables (v. 12)
 It was not until the rulers had set their hearts against Him that He employed the parabolic method.

3. The parable of the four kinds of ground (vv. 13, 14, 20)
 Observe that the seed and the sower are the same in all these instances but the results are entirely different determined by the condition of the soil.

(1) The Wayside (v. 14, 15)
 The wayside means the track next on by the roads of animals and the feet of men. Because the soil was unbroken and unsoftened the seed could not get below the surface therefore was devoured by fowls which represent the agents of Satan (v. 15).

(2) The stony ground (v. 5, 6, 16, 17)
 Stony ground means stones with a thin layer of soil upon them. Under such conditions the seed springs up quickly and is soon scorched because it has not much depth.

(3) The thorny ground (v. 7, 18, 19)
 In this case the ground is good but has thorns in it. It is mellow and has depth but has not been cleaned of the thorns. The thorny ground hearers of this age are: (a) Those who are so immersed in worldliness, business and anxious care that the good seed cannot mature; (b) those who are rich. The effect of riches is often to blind the spiritual perception—test those who are running after the pleasures of life. All these things choke the Word.

4. The good ground (v. 8, 20)
 This ground differs from all the rest. It is soft and mellow, deep and moist therefore is capable of bringing forth fruit in varying degrees of abundance.

III. Jesus Pictures the Growth of the Kingdom (Mark 1:21-24)
 1. The parable of the candle (v. 21, 25)
 The bushel stands for the cares and material things of life and the bed for ease and comfort.

2. The parable of the growing grain (v. 26, 29)
 (1) The attitude of mind of the gospel preacher (v. 26, 27)
 He should with the utmost fidelity cast seed into the ground—preach the Word and leave results to God.

(2) The processes of the spiritual life are gradual (v. 28). It is "first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear."
 (3) The consecration of the spiritual process (v. 29)
 Despite the difficulty under which sowing is done, we can be assured of a harvest time.

3. The parable of the mustard seed (v. 30, 34)
 (1) The unimportant beginning (v. 31)
 2) Its vigorous growth (v. 32)
 The greatest power on earth today is that which had its inception in the preaching of the gospel.

(3) Its lodging capacity (v. 32)
 The birds which lodge in the granaries represent the children of the evil one who find protection and food in that which was inaugurated by Jesus Christ.

Worship God
 First worship God. He that forgets to pray bids himself good-morrow or good-day.—T. Randolph.

Serving God
 God is better served in resisting a temptation to evil than in many formal prayers.—William Penn.

At The Churches Last Sunday

Regular church services were conducted Sunday morning with special P. Y. P. U., and church service at the evening church hour. The First Baptist Church had a special service Sunday night, and the League service at the Methodist church Sunday evening was very fine. Miss Raintold of the High School faculty who Superintends the League, is an excellent worker with the young people. Church work and interest seems to be on the incline in Hermleigh of late.

Elder Glasgow of Merkle filled his first appointment with the Church of Christ here as their pastor Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock hour. He also conducted services at Piron in the afternoon.

The community sing-song at the First Baptist Church Sunday, under president Werner, was well attended. There were several out of town visitors. The music was unusually good, it was thought by all present. Next first Sunday there will be another special occasion of this sort, an old men's quartet, led by J. B. Etheredge, will sing.

Timely Suggestions By County Agt C. C. Willis

Often times in the history of the development of any country, minor projects get the spotlight of public interest and shadow the propositions of greater value to rapid growth and development. Natural resources are our greatest assets and the development of them or always the greatest field for united effort. By all comparisons the soil is by far the greatest natural resource that Scurry county has. When one says that terracing is actually a "million dollar project" for Scurry County, it may sound unreasonable and foolish, but when one considers 350,000 acres in cultivation in the county, and that $3 per acre increase in yield would make a million dollars per year, he can appreciate the significance of terracing. If every acre were terraced this important fact would be realized. Theory, practical experiments and demonstrations all show this.

The Commissioners Court foresees the value of this work and are anxious to see it go over, for they consider it the biggest project in Scurry County. The value of this work is too great for a man to wait longer to do his terracing, but should do everything he can to hold all the water which falls on the ground this year. If you can not terrace put the rows on a water level so as to hold all the water that falls. Bettering the quality of livestock is now a possibility of great development, and should not be overlooked. Poor livestock is one of the poorest investments we have, whereas, good livestock is one of our best assets.

How Genuine Works of Art Got by Official

Did you ever hear of dealers who have tried to pass off genuine antiques as fakes? In Italy there are strict laws against the exporting of works of art by old masters. A dealer in Genoa appeared one day at the export office with a shipment of bas-reliefs that looked like Della Robbias.

The official opened fire on him for attempting to send them out of the country. The dealer grinned, took one of the bas-reliefs out of the box, and with a knife scraped off the apparently aged back in one place and showed that it was made from new clay. Scraping in another part, he showed the mark of a modern factory of ceramics.

"Just to fool these smart Americans!" grinned the dealer. The official also grinned and O. K.'d the shipment. It went through and came to the United States. Every other bas-relief in that shipment was a genuine antique. - Edwin Le-fevre, in the Saturday Evening Post.
