Two injured when car overturns on curve

A one car accident on highway 24 at Cribb Station Creek in the Proffitt community about about 11:30 a. m. Sunday. The car, traveling east, enroute home to Fort Worth, when the driver, Miss Gifford, lost control of the car on the curve and overturned according to Pete Stephens, who was on the scene.

Two occupants of the car were injured, one seriously. They were taken to the Graham hospital by Morrison ambulance. The small foreign car was demolished.

Double Ring Ceremony unites local couple

Miss Sheila Rae Nestor of Olney and Jimmy Charles Brown of Newcastle were united in marriage Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the home of Rev. and Mrs. James R. Ward at 1015 West Elm. Olney, who is pastor of the Proffitt Baptist Church. Rev. Ward read the vows of the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Reith of Olney and attended Olney High School. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brown of Proffitt and a graduate of Newcastle High School.

The bride wore a lovely pink linen suit and carried a bouquet of gardenias. Mrs. Jerry Berkholtz of Graham was matron of honor. She wore a lovely white silk dress and carried a bouquet of white and pink gardenias and mums. Mr. Jerry Berkholtz was best man.

Those in attendance were the immediate families of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Reith and small son, Buddy Nestor of Olney, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brown of Proffitt, Henry Estel Brown of Wichita Falls, and Miss Catherine Deahl of Arkansas.

Rev. and Mrs. Ward were hosts at the reception held in their home with Miss Catherine Deahl presiding at the brides book. The table was laid with a lace cloth over pink, centered with a bridal bouquet of pink flowers. A pink and white wedding cake with punch was served to those mentioned.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for Lubbock where Jimmy Charles will attend Texas Tech.

A thunderstorm early Wednesday night brought about one-half inch rain. It was not the kind of rain we were looking for. We need a chunk mover, and we need it now.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Wilson attended a family reunion in Weatherford Sunday. He reports that everything went along nicely until about lunch time—when a Methodist preacher showed up. Bryant said he began to wonder if the food was going to hold out, especially the fried chicken. He said he thought preacher was named Johnson, and he was accompanied by Drury Moore. The Wilson's report a very enjoyable occasion.

Contract let for two historical markers in Young Co.

The state contract for making the Official Texas Historical Markers commemorating the Texas Civil War period for Tonkawa Scouts, C.S.A., and for Indian Raid on Elm Creek, C.S.A., in Young County has been let by the State Building Commission. This announcement was made by the Texas State Historical Survey Committee and the State Building Commission, which are jointly responsible for their erection. The markers are made of cast aluminum with Swedish steel effect for durability and appearance. There are four sizes of these markers erected by the State Building Commission with research and inscriptions prepared by the Texas State Historical Survey Committee. The official Texas Historical Medallion appears at the top with the inscription below. Young County will have two of these types.

The Official Texas Historical Marker for the Tonkawa Scouts is 27" x 37" in size and will be erected near old Fort Belknap near Newcastle. The following information appears in the inscription: "By the time of the Civil War, Texans knew the horrors of Indian warfare. Hostile tribes made a business of stealing horses, cattle, women and children. The paths they followed in the bright Comanche moons were marked by fires and ruin. The Tonkawa tribe, by contrast, sought friendship with the Texans. They became valued allies in the Civil War, scouting against hostile Indians and watching for signs of Federal invasion. Old Texas Indian fighters, who once had fought the Tonkawas, asked for Tonkawa scouts in the war. Along the frontier defense line from the Red River to the Rio Grande, commanders valued them so much they fed them at their personal expense when necessary. A few Tonkawa scouts were more useful than two or three companies of regular soldiers. They could stalk enemies better than bloodhounds.

The Tonkawas paid, however, for their Confederate loyalty. On October 25, 1862 near present Anadarko, Oklahoma, hostile Indians attacked the Tonkawa camp, killing 137 men, women, and children out of 300. When the Tonkawa chief Castile later requested a tribal home in Texas, they were located at Fort Griffin where they remained until 1884. They were then removed to Oklahoma.

The official Texas Historical Marker for Indian Raid on Elm Creek is 18" x 28" in size and will be erected on State Highway 24 approximately one half mile east of Proffitt Road near Newcastle, Texas.

The following information appears in the inscription:

Indian troubles continually plagued the Texas frontier in the Civil War, with great loss of lives and property. One of the most serious raids occurred near this site on October 13, 1864, at the Fitzpatrick Ranch Comanches killed seven ranch people and five Confederate soldiers. Six

LOOK UP before you LIFT UP!

When installing a TV antenna, make sure it will safely clear overhead electric lines

When you're putting up (or taking down) a TV antenna, play safe by keeping it well away from power lines. Antenna masts are conductors of electricity, and if a mast should come in contact with an electric wire while you're holding it, a serious accident could result. Be careful also to avoid running guy wires or lead-in wires over or close to electric lines. And always try to locate your antenna where it will clear electric lines if it should fall in any direction. By following these precautions, you can help prevent needless accidents.
