Nell's Notes

"I have a God whose name is love,
Who fills all space, below, above,
One who impels me to adore,
Him by the great and boundless store,
Of love he shows for me, and when,
I know he loves the sons of men,
I'm sure he sends no pain or fear,
For love brings peace and hope and cheer".

Lights at Christmas time represent Christ as the Light of the World.

People in Ireland leave a candle burning in the window to light the way for the Christ Child on Christmas Eve.

Martin Luther was perhaps the first man to use lights on a Christmas tree. He put lights on his tree to represent the glory and beauty of the stars above Bethlehem on the night of Christ's Birth. Churches in our country hold candlelight services on Christmas eve.

Bright lights of red and blue and green, at all these homes, can now be seen: George Clark, Franklin Thompson, Marty Martin, Robert Pitts, Claude Burkett, Horace Morgan, Charlie Clayton, and Ward Pendleton.

Received a very nice Christmas card from Rev. J. A. Bell, former pastor of the First Methodist Church. Rev. Bell has many friends here that are always glad to hear about him.

In olden days people used thorned shrubs to fence in their livestock. This inspired Joseph F. Glidden of De Kalb, Ill., to design the first barbed wire in 1873. Barbed wire brought an end to open range and made it possible for ranchers to have their own land enclosed. Now, today, collecting barbed wire is a hobby but the seventh grade, under the supervision of Mr. Roland Rose, is a special project to see how many kinds they can find. At the end of the school year it is to be donated to Fort Belknap by this class. Anyone having a piece of wire that this class should use please contact Mr. Rose or a 7th grade student.

Don't forget the Country and Western Show, Monday, Dec. 19, at the school auditorium. Come out and enjoy the music.

JUST A LITTLE WORLD OF CHRISTMAS By Alwana Burch

There are many kinds of love but the love we show for others always tops the list. Such is the story of Audra and Thomas Wilkinson. It began Christmas, in 1953 when Thomas placed the Santa Claus up on the roof along with one string of lights. Knowing this would never do, to leave Santa up there, alone looking a little lost, he added the sleigh and reindeer, too. Each year afterwards the Wilkinsons have added a little something extra to this little world of Christmas. Audra found patterns for all the figures and with the touch of a saw and some paint she made these little figures almost come to life. For instance, the carolers and the organist look almost real as the organist sways to and fro and the strains of music fills the air. As you pass their home, the lovely music catches an ear but what catches your eye is Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus sitting around the pot-belled stove. There's a happy contented cat nearby, just warming and keeping an eye on Santa's boots. Santa is soaking his tired old feet after his long journey across town calling on all the children.

The stove you see is a stove Audra received for a birthday gift to replace the other one. The first stove was over fifty years old and held a very special place in the hearts of many people.

The Mrs. Santa that you see, was added last year (doesn't she look like Audra) and how she is holding a baby Santa in her arms.

There are so many different colors of lights all around the house and upon the roof and are so pretty running down the eaves of the house. These lights can be seen as you come into town from any direction. This is Thomas's department for he is very adapt in working with electricity. Each year all of these lights and wires are checked and mended or replaced. So if you see him upon the roof, don't be surprised, for at Christmas time, he's up there quite often.

There are so many little figures that catch the eyes of children and grownups, too, in this yard, like the dog riding a bicycle, the snowman and so many others but most of all it is the feeling of welcome as you enter the Wilkinsons' home and visit with them. As you listen to their experiences and enjoyment they have had in the past thirteen years at Christmas time making and getting these things ready to put out for others to enjoy. You realize that for them it has only been a labor of love. This you can see by the smile on their faces and the light in their eyes. In a small town such as ours, where all of our lives are so closely woven and shared together, the greatest gift of friendship and love. This is what Thomas and Audra Wilkinson are expressing in their "Little world of Christmas."

PTA Hears Welfare Worker

The Newcastle Chapter of the PTA met in regular session on December 8 in the school auditorium, with Mrs. John R. Bullock president, presiding.

The invocation and a short devotional was given by Rev. Jerden Davis.

Mrs. Hibbitts fourth grade class then presented a Christmas program.

Those participating and their parts were as follows: Rob Thresher played two piano selections, Sonny Sloan a poem, "Too Small," Jerry Williamson a poem, "What Do You Suppose," Michele Begley, Ricky Clayborn, Claudette Paisley, Wayne Carr, Felda Brightman, a poem "Five Senses."

In conclusion the group including those mentioned and Jim Bob White and Kenny Choate sang three songs.

During the business meeting minutes were read, the room count won by the fourth grade, and Mrs. Irene Creel was presented a past presidents' pen.

It was also announced that a clock for the gym had been ordered and is on the way. It is being paid for by the Newcastle PTA, Farmers National Bank, and the Newcastle Fire Dept.

Mrs. Joyce Bullock and Mrs. Nelda Williamson gave the delegated report of the State Convention held in Austin last month.

Mrs. Betty Wooldridge, special guest, gave a talk on "Who Are the Disadvantaged and Why". Mrs. Wooldridge is well informed on this subject as she is an employee of the Welfare Dept. in Graham, so she was able to bring out many interesting points for the audience to think about.

After the meeting adjourned coffee, punch, and donuts were served in the homemaking dept.

Presbyterians Plan Live Nativity Scene

The Olney Cumberland Presbyterian Church will present a live nativity scene for the second year, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, December 21, 22, and 23 on the church lawn from 7 to 9 p.m. each night as a community worship service.

The project, originally sponsored by the women's group of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, attracted over 2,000 people last year and proved so successful that this year is it being enlarged to include the entire congregation.

Area residents have a special invitation to see the project this year. The church is just west of the Olney Hamilton Hospital.

Mrs. Clester Evans, chairman of the church's Christian Education committee and a member of the Board of Elders, spearheaded the project.

This year the church Worship Committee with Edwin Key as chairman, is formally directing the three nightly performances.

The presentation will be on the East lawn of the church and will be centered around the manger scene with the Star located on the roof of the church. The Star was designed and made by Mrs. Millie McCharen as her gift to the project.

Last year the live animals included a cow, a donkey, a Sheppard dog, a group of sheep, and to the delight of most youngsters, the "Little Black Sheep" - and this year a repeat appearance is planned. The animal committee with Thurman Mahler, chairman, includes Mike Mahler, G. G. Dunaway, Dwight Hamilton, and Elo Hausler.

The cast of human characters last year came mainly from the congregation of about 75 acting members, but occasionally to provide a rotating cast every 30 minutes on those cold December nights a few friends volunteered to participate.

Two casts are named for each night and alternate at 30 minute intervals.

Angels have a prominent position in the nativity scene with the smaller angels standing in the manger near Mary and the baby.

This year the angel Gabriel will be added with high school girls taking this part. A "host" of angels will be located on the roof of the church building.

Elaborate robes for the kings and shepherds are being collected by Mrs. V. F. Burnes, wardrobe chairman.

Seasonal and appropriate worship music was selected and arranged and taped last year by Frank Hinson.

THE BIG INCH

The ruled box above is a one-inch ad. It measures one column wide by one inch deep. It costs advertisers 60c

It looks kinda lonesome by itself.

But look at it this way.

What you get when you buy a one inch ad in the Newcastle Register is not just a single inch of space in the paper, but one inch multiplied by 500 copies.

So you are really buying 500 inches, which at 75 inches a page would be more than 6½ pages of printed newsprint.

That's a mighty big chunk of space for a cost of only 60c.

And that price includes delivery to the reader's mail box. Just imagine the cost of reaching all those Register families by postcard. It would amount to $20.00 just for the postage. But the Register does it for a mere 60c per insertion.

And . . . ask about our sliding scale? The more advertising you run, the less per inch it costs.

So you can see that a little one-inch ad is really a pretty BIG inch when it's advertising space in the Newcastle Register. And the figures show that it's the most effective and economical way possible to let people in this area, know that you have wares and services that they could use.

Call 4771 and let Janelle Moody show you how a little BIG inch can wake up sales for you.

Cheeses complement each other as well as a variety of vegetables and fruits. This dessert from the Borden Kitchen, for instance, combines three popular cheeses—cottage, Neufchâtel, and Roquefort. Delightful in itself or as a ring around citrus fruit. Or be inventive and serve it with tomato, cucumber, celery pieces, pickled beets, carrot sticks, or other nibblers.

Dessert Cheese Ring (Makes 8 servings)

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 cup cold water | 1 (8-oz.) package Eagle Brand Neufchâtel cheese |
| 3 tablespoons (3 envelopes) unflavored gelatine | 1 (3-oz.) package Napoleon Brand Roquefort cheese |
| 1 cup orange juice | 1 cup (1/2 pint) heavy cream, whipped |
| 1 cup (8-oz. container) Borden's large or small curd creamed cottage cheese | |

In the top of a double boiler combine water and gelatine; let stand 5 minutes. Place over boiling water. Cook until gelatine is dissolved; stir constantly. Stir in orange juice; cool thoroughly. In large electric mixer bowl combine cottage cheese, Neufchâtel and Roquefort cheeses; beat until smooth. Gradually add gelatine mixture. Beat on low speed until mixture is smooth and evenly blended. Set bowl into ice water. Stir mixture until slightly thickened. Fold in whipped cream. Turn into a lightly oiled 1-1/2-quart ring mold. Chill about 3 hours, or until firm. Unmold onto serving plate. Fill center with orange and grapefruit sections or assorted fruits of your choice.

Vegetable Salad With Verve

The Borden Kitchen tossed together this salad with three-fold creativity: a variety of vegetables, a marinade with gusto and, like Roquefort Cheese Beets, pleasing new partners.

Spicy Marinated Vegetables (Makes about 2 cups marinade OR enough for four 1-lb. cans drained vegetables)

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 cup vinegar | 2 cups (one 1-lb. can) sliced carrots, drained |
| 1 cup salad oil | 2 cups (one 15-1/2-oz. can) small whole wax beans, drained |
| 2 teaspoons sugar | 2 cups (two 8-oz. cans) Brandywine fancy button mushrooms, drained |
| 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt | 2 cups (one 1-lb. can) sweet peas, drained |
| 1 tablespoon PLUS 1 teaspoon dehydrated parsley flakes | |
| 1 tablespoon PLUS 1 teaspoon dehydrated sweet pepper flakes | |
| 2 teaspoons dehydrated instant minced onion | |

In a medium-size bowl combine vinegar, oil, sugar, garlic salt, parsley flakes, pepper flakes, and minced onion; blend well. Turn one can well drained vegetables and 2/3 cup marinade into a small bowl; mix until vegetables are coated. Cover dish tightly. Repeat with remaining three vegetables. Refrigerate 4 hours, or overnight if possible; mix occasionally. Drain before serving.

Roquefort Cheesed Beets (Makes 4 to 6 servings)

- | | |
|---|---|
| 2 cups (one 1-lb. jar) Green-wood's Harvard beets | 1 (1-1/4-oz.) package Napoleon Brand Roquefort cheese |

Refrigerate jar of beets about 2 hours, or until thoroughly chilled. When ready to serve, coarsely crumble Roquefort cheese over chilled beets.

Tart-sweet mince meat makes the most of all meats—lamb, pork, or, as here, a magnificent baked ham. When sauced with mince meat and colorfully studded with cherry halves, a plain ham becomes precisely the party-perfect entrée a cook seeks when her thoughts turn to entertaining. Made the Borden Kitchen way—with mince meat ready right from the jar—even the hostess can find time to enjoy her own party.

Baked Ham with Mince Meat Sauce

- | | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| 1 (6-lb.) smoked ham, butt end | 1-1/3 cups (one-half 28-oz jar) None Such ready-to-use mince meat |
| 1 (10-oz.) jar currant jelly | 1/2 cup port wine, optional |
| | Maraschino cherries, optional |
| | Whole cloves, optional |

Heat oven to hot (400°F.) Place ham on a large sheet of heavy aluminum foil; wrap tightly, folding ends securely. Place on rack in shallow roasting pan. Bake in hot (400°F.) oven 1 hour and 30 minutes or about 15 minutes per pound. In a small saucepan, mix well jelly, mince meat, and port wine. Cook over medium heat until mixture boils; stir occasionally until jelly is melted. (This will yield 2-2/3 cups sauce.) Remove ham from oven and unwrap carefully. Return unwrapped ham to rack in roasting pan. Lower oven temperature to slow (325°F.). With sharp knife score ham in a diamond pattern. If desired, secure a cherry half with a whole clove or food pick in each diamond. Spoon 1/3 of the mince meat sauce over ham. Return to oven; bake about 45 minutes or until glazed. While baking apply 2/3 cup sauce in two applications. Heat remaining mince meat sauce and serve with ham.

Give A Gift Of Life This Year

By Blood Program Reporter

Perhaps the most important and most used word during this Christmas Season is the word gift. What better gift than a pint of blood.

Many persons will be receiving the gift of blood this Christmas season. Without it they perhaps would be unable to enjoy this Christmas and with it will be here to enjoy many more.

Blood is a gift to our neighbors, friends, relatives and yes, even strangers, that cannot be bought in a store of any kind.

But, is the most important gift we can give.

If you are able to and have not given blood in the last sixty days, why not make your Christmas and that of someone else happier by giving a pint of blood now. When you go to Wichita Falls to see the lights, go earlier and go by the Red River Red Cross Blood Center at Fifth and Broad and give a pint. That will be the most important gift you give this Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dodson and Keith of Wichita Falls visited here over the weekend with their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. E. More and Mrs. Foly Dodson.

Mr. Bud Helm of McLean, Va. spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. R. H. Helm and visited in Graham in the home of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dan B. Orr.
