Hart Family goes to Austin

Dale and Laura Hart traveled to Austin last week with family members to attend the 47th Annual Texas Department of Agriculture's Family Land Heritage Ceremony. The event was held on Wednesday, October 19, 2022 in the historic House Chamber of the Texas Capitol. A complementary BBQ lunch was served on the southwest lawn of the capitol prior to the main ceremony. Texas Ag Commissioner Sid Miller congratulated all the honorees for 2022. Dale Hart Farm & Cattle received a Certificate of Honor along with 42 other honorees.

The Family Land Heritage program recognizes family farms and ranches engaged in continuous agricultural production for 100 years or more. The program began in 1974 and over the past four decades, has honored more than 5,000 Texas family farms and ranches. Red Steagall provided the entertainment for the attendees and Dale & Laura also enjoyed a tour of the capitol.

Hart Farm & Cattle History

Lyman Henry Hart was born in Illinois in 1856. He married Lucy E. Hart and moved to Parmer County in 1919. They purchased 160 acres of land located 2 miles north of Friona on December 1, 1919. L.H. and Lucy had five children, Ida, Leon Henry, V.E., Charlie, and Lucy. They raised milo, sorghum, and other crops and raised their family on the Hart family farm.

After his parents' deaths, Leon continued to live on the Hart farm with his wife, Daisy Lee. Leon and his siblings acquired title to the land and later bought out his siblings. Leon and Daisy had two children, Othelia and Dale.

Dale acquired title to the land in 1972 and his father died in 1978. Dale and his wife, Laura Lee, married on October 8, 1954, and have four children. Karene (Hart) Bass, Holly (Hart) Campbell, Evelyn (Hart) Romero, and Jeremy Dale Hart.

Dale, age 90, and Laura, 85, continue to live on the original Hart land. Current farming and ranching operations include Registered Shorthorn Cattle, CRP, and native grassland. Their daughter, Holly (Hart) Campbell and husband Danny also live on the property. Dale and Laura feel very blessed to be able to call Friona home and live on the homeplace.

Felan Receives Prestigious Award

Sid Felan received the Armador R. Rodriguez Lifetime Achievement Award at the Juvenile Justice Association Fall Conference held on October 9-12, 2022 in Corpus Christi. Sid is the Chief Juvenile Probation Officer for Bailey and Parmer Counties. The Lifetime Achievement Award is a great honor. Nominations are received from all over Texas and are sent to the JJAT Board for their consideration.

Sid graduated in 1978 from Wayland Baptist University in Plainview with a BA degree. Immediately after graduation he worked as a Juvenile Probation Officer in Hale County. From 1982 to 1986 he worked in Baylor County and became the Chief Adult and Juvenile Probation Officer. From 1987 to 1989 he served as the Juvenile Probation Officer in Hood County. In December of 1989, he accepted the position as Chief Juvenile Probation Officer for Bailey and Parmer Counties.

Sid has announced his retirement, effective as of December 31, 2022, after 44 years of public service.

Business leaders predict DACA end will cause crisis

Dozens of business leaders, including several in Texas, are urging Congress to protect young immigrants who came to the U.S. as children, warning that the end of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program would exacerbate workforce shortages.

In a report published in The Dallas Morning News (originally in CQ-Roll Call), the leaders released a letter sent to congressional leaders and published as a full-page ad in The Morning News and other newspapers. They warn of serious workforce issues if a ruling by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 5th Circuit gutting DACA protection holds.

The ad included the logos of about a dozen Texas-based businesses or business organizations, including private equity firm TPG, the North Texas Commission, the Texas Restaurant Association, the Texas Nursery and Landscape Association, the Texas Retailers Association and the Texas Association of Business.

If the work permits of DACA recipients expire, the business leaders said, the U.S. could lose more than half a million workers.

"The worker shortage will get worse for the United States if hundreds of thousands of critical workers are stripped of their legal ability to support themselves and their families," the business leaders wrote. "That is the situation we currently face if this ruling becomes final, and it is the reason for our request today."

The U.S. House has passed a bill that would put DACA recipients and other young undocumented immigrants on a path to permanent residency, but the Senate has not taken up the measure.

PUC: No water disconnects during extreme cold

The Public Utility Commission of Texas last week adopted rules that prohibit non-municipal water and sewer utilities from cutting off service to customers during extreme cold weather emergencies.

"The new rules put the health and safety of Texans first during extreme cold weather emergencies," said PUCT Chairman Peter Lake. "This means Texans can focus on their family's safety during extreme cold and work with their water or sewer utility to make sure they pay their bills in a timely fashion."

Extreme weather in Texas is defined as "periods beginning when the previous day's highest temperature in an area did not exceed 28 degrees Fahrenheit and the temperature is predicted to remain at or below that level for the next 24 hours according to the nearest National Weather Service reports for that area."

The new rules came after passage of Senate Bill 3 in the last regular legislative session, in reaction to the disruption caused by Winter

Storm Uri in February 2021.

More than 79,000 dead on Texas roads since 2000

It is a grim statistic. Not a single day in Texas since Nov. 7, 2000, has passed without a traffic fatality. Since that date, more than 79,000 people have died in traffic crashes, according to the Texas Department of Transportation. That is roughly equivalent to the entire population of Cedar Park. For the past several years, about 10 people die daily in crashes across the state.

Texas Transportation Commissioner Laura Ryan and others are championing TxDOT's #EndTheStreakTX campaign, saying every Texan must do their part to drive safely and care about others.

"With the knowledge that, since the pandemic, people don't seem to view others around them as part of a community, and, that they care less about those around them, we are starting to identify the problem," said Ryan. "If we know there is a problem and we can identify that a big part of the problem is a lack of caring or apathy, then we also know the solution -- we must care more about those around us."

National Candy Corn Day

You either love candy corn or you don't, and if you do love it, this is the season when you can easily find this candy. October 30th is National Candy Corn Day and here is a fun recipe for you to try.

Candy Corn Fudge
werefarfromnormal.com

Ingredients

- 4 ½ Cups White Chocolate Chips – Divided into 3- 1 ½ cup portions
- ¾ Cup Heavy Cream – Divided into 3- ¼ cup portions
- 3 tsp Vanilla – Divided into 3- 1 tsp portions
- 3 Tbsp Real Honey – Divided into 3- 1 Tbsp portions
- Yellow Gel Food Coloring
- Orange Gel Food Coloring
- 24 Pieces of Candy Corn

Instructions

Line a 9x5 loaf pan with aluminum foil leaving some hang over the edges, this makes it easier to remove the fudge when it is done. Butter foil or spray with cooking spray. In a small or medium sauce pan over low to medium heat combine 1 ½ cups white chocolate chips, ¼ cup heavy cream, 1 teaspoon vanilla, and 1 tablespoon honey. Stir frequently until everything is well incorporated and melted smooth. Add in yellow food coloring a little at a time until desired color is reached (I used about 1/8 of a teaspoon) Stir until the color is consistent throughout the mixture. Pour the yellow fudge mixture into your prepared pan, spread it evenly, and refrigerate for 30 minutes. Repeat the same process again but for the second layer add orange food coloring. Pour the orange mixture over the refrigerated yellow first layer, spread it evenly across, and place back in the refrigerator for another 30 minutes. Repeat the process again for the white layer. Spread the white mixture evenly across the refrigerated orange layer. Place in the refrigerator for 15 minutes. Remove from the refrigerator and arrange candy corn in 6 rows of 4 across the top of the white layer. It will still be soft so you can gently press the candy corn into the fudge so that it stays in place. I like to leave about ½ an inch around the edge of the baking pan so that it can be trimmed off to create nice, neat edges for the fudge. Arranging the candy corn like this allows for each square to have a piece on top of it. If you want to cut the fudge into smaller pieces you can arrange more candy corn across the top. Place the pan back in the refrigerator and chill for at least 2 hours. When you are ready to cut the fudge remove it from the refrigerator and allow it to sit at room temperature for about 15 minutes. Use foil handles to lift it from the pan. Place on a cutting board and unwrap the foil. Use a sharp knife to cut the fudge. To get clean cuts wipe the knife with a damp cloth or rinse it between cuts. Cut into 24 squares and enjoy! Store in an airtight container in the refrigerator.

The Underrated Role of Auntie

On this Sunday afternoon I am at my sister Sara's home, watching her nestle her youngest grandson as he sleeps soundly on her shoulder after his afternoon feeding. Fred is my newest great-nephew. He joins the others of his generation who have given me another chance to snuggle, squish, and kiss chubby cheeks. Just this past week another nephew sent photos to his aunts and uncles about a new delivery arriving in next April.

My siblings and I had strong bonds with our parents' siblings. Our aunts and uncles wrote letters, flew or drove to Texas for visits, and hosted us on our family vacations. I learned from the best how to nurture this special family dynamic.

My nieces and nephews are more than physical extensions of my brothers and sisters. Christopher and Michael have been the boys I did not have. I spent their youngster time at ballparks or golf courses or halftime shows and drove cross country with each on epic road trips when they were college students. Our golf games, though few, are now famous for brotherly smack talk and their aunt pretending to be an Irish PGA commentator in the middle of their back swings. But the mundane history we share is my favorite. I am the one who taught them how to go to the back yard when everyone is in the front yard saying good-bye after a big holiday meal and hurl leftover burned rolls over the roof to land on the unsuspecting relatives. The art of the ambush is still a family tradition thanks to my auntie skills.

Early on, my nieces were the built-in family playmates for my two girls. Today, they are each other's confidantes. It is easy to see in them the best of my brother and my sisters. These beautiful adult nieces and I now share music and film appreciation, wickedly delightful senses of humor, heartfelt conversations about family relationships, favorite sports teams, and stories about their parents when we were brothers and sisters growing up in Snyder, Texas. I've also come to realize these "kids"—including my two daughters—are wise beyond years from where I was at their ages.

My niece Katie will leave in a bit to get Fred and his brother home to Dad for their Sunday evening routine. As she loads up her two little boys, I remember the times I put her in her car seat to take her home to her parents after Camp Katie in Gail America.

What did she remember today? That time I took her with me to Jackson, Tennessee, to watch her cousin Julie's college basketball team play. We stopped in Memphis, drove down Beale Street, and somewhere along the way her Aunt Sue Jane bought her a green bunny. She named that bunny B. B. [King] because of that little side trip.

Being a great-aunt reminds me that being an aunt continues to be a great gig.

Gas prices lower, diesel higher

By GasBuddy

Average gasoline prices in Texas fell 8.6 cents in the last week, averaging $3.17 per gallon according to GasBuddy's survey of 13,114 stations in Texas. Prices in Texas are 7.0 cents per gallon higher than a month ago and stand 13.8 cents per gallon higher than a year ago. According to GasBuddy price reports, the cheapest station in Texas was priced at $1.37 while the most expensive was $4.49 per gallon.

The national average price of gasoline has fallen 9.3 cents in the last week, averaging $3.77 per gallon. The national average is up 10.2 cents per gallon from a month ago and stands 41.2 cents per gallon higher than a year ago. The national average price of diesel has risen 4.0 cents in the last week and stands at $5.30 per gallon.

"Average gas prices have declined for the second straight week with significant declines in the West and Great Lakes having an oversized effect on the drop in the national average," said Patrick De Haan, head of petroleum analysis at GasBuddy.

De Haan added, "With oil prices struggling a bit after reaching $93 after OPEC+'s decision to cut production, many regions could see falling gas prices again this week as demand continues to decline seasonally, especially if more data points to a significant economic slowdown. While gasoline prices have seen a large drop, diesel prices have been somewhat mixed, with prices heading higher in the Northeast as inventories drop to extremely tight levels ahead of the heating oil season."

GasBuddy data is compiled from more than 11 million weekly price reports covering over 150,000 gas stations across the country.

Beer is on the Ballot

By Brett Hoyle, Pastor, First Baptist Church

Do you remember back when our state legalized the lottery system in the early 1990s. It was supposed to create windfall revenues for Texas education, thereby allowing the kids to have a better educational experience. Thirty years later, the Lottery has not raised the bar of education in Texas, or created an unlimited treasure trove of money for schools. In fact, what the lottery has done is fleece the poor with the enticement of striking it rich, and ruin the lives of many winners who did hit the jackpot, only to end up worse off than before.

In a very similar manner, alcohol sales in Friona is being pushed and promoted as a wonderful thing that will bring money back to town that is spent elsewhere, allowing businesses to profit from sales and the city to benefit from the sales tax revenue. One postcard I received proclaimed a Yes on issue one on the ballot in Friona would be a YES for kids and our community! Ironically, this flier that pushed voting yes for issue one on the ballot, neither mentioned that the vote was on alcohol sales, but used pictures of kids in a classroom and a football scoreboard to show that one's Yes vote would help the community tremendously. In reality, a Yes vote to legalize the sale of alcohol will not affect kids as the postcard picture portrayed, but will allow some kids an easier opportunity to obtain alcohol, sadly some kids will be abused by a drunk or alcoholic parent, and now it will be much easier to give Coors or Budweiser a portion of a family's income, instead of spending on needs of the kids and family.

As beer is on the ballot for Friona residents, understand that a Yes vote won't be all it is cracked up to be. Just like Obamacare was not the savior of health-care, the Texas lottery was not the silver bullet for education funding, the legal sale of alcohol in Friona will NOT be an amazing blessing for our community. The easier access to alcohol may make a few folks some money, but it will aid in the destruction of families, wreck havoc on marriages, plunge someone deeper into depression and addiction, or even lead to the untimely and tragic deaths of your kid or grandkid. You may not know of Dustin Campbell, Rex Thackerson or Belinda Miles, but chances are you do know people whose lives were ruined by alcohol or cut short just like theirs. Some mistakes cannot be undone, and alcohol is a great facilitator to help destroy lives, families, hopes and dreams, leaving loved ones with a massive wake or grief, what ifs and unanswered questions.

In all honesty, people will choose if they want to drink alcohol, which is not sinful if done so in careful moderation, but scripture is also very clear on the serious dangers of alcohol. Proverbs 20:1 says "Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler, and whoever is led astray by it is not wise." Friona residents will get to vote Yes or No to inviting alcohol sales into Friona. A No vote limits community access to alcohol, while a Yes vote creates easier access to obtain alcohol, fosters temptation toward drunkenness and will impact lives negatively.

Panhandle Parables

"Country Road, Take Me Home..."

By Jeff Procter, Minister, 6th Street Church of Christ

I love country roads, and I confess John Denver's song is a favorite. Now you too will be singing this song the rest of the day...you're welcome.

I remember the many times in high school riding my motorcycle all over the country roads from my grandparent's farm north of town all the way west to my house out on Parmerton Hill. There is something about wide open space and a little Honda 90cc trail bike my parents bought me from Dr. Alexander. In a word riding out there is peace.

On one occasion, riding lost in thought I got a long ways from home. I filled the extra little gas can that was an accessory on the Honda. At some point

I began to think (about the time my motor died) I need gas. So I filled up and decided I had better head home. I kicked the starter lever and nothing. Then I looked up to see a rather upset badger, teeth flashing all bowed up in the road in front of me, with growing fear, I kicked again and again as the badger began his approach. Finally, I got enough gas in the engine to fire it off. I revved the 90ccs and left before I found out the intentions of the badger. A little over a mile later I saw a familiar sight, my pickup. It was dad coming to make sure I hadn't had any trouble. He wasn't mad, just concerned. That day the country road took me safely home with my dad following close behind.

Country roads are the less travelled roads. They are the ones where the scenery is amazing and even has teeth sometimes. Jesus describes the road leading "Home" as being narrow and that few find it. I know that to be true both spiritually and in reality. I also know it is on that road that your Father is looking for you. Not mad, just wanting to make sure you get safely Home. I do hope that you know Jesus is the way. It is narrow, but oh how it is worth it. What road are you on? Take a little time and a back road with God, it refreshes the soul and gives strength in a time of need.

Leave Your Cares with God

By Teena Hughs

Sometimes life goes along swimmingly, and then, in the course of one day, things turn to tension. Such was my day today.

I have been dealing with a credit card issue since July. Feller and I had separate accounts with the same company. I paid his bill, but they credited it to my account, and you can't imagine what we have been through since then. I thought it was resolved months ago, only to find out today, it wasn't.

Then, we are studying Daniel in Bible study. We are at a point where sometimes there are no concrete answers, but sometimes differing answers can create tension.

Finally, the process for disaffiliating from the United Methodist Church is a six-month process in our conference. We have to have three listening sessions. We had a meeting with four other churches with the understanding that the meeting wouldn't be counted as one of the sessions; then, we found out it does count as one of the sessions. We were supposed to have a meeting November 6th, but it got cancelled, only to be rescheduled for that day today. I have a lot of work to get done in the next 10 days! I hope we can have the third meeting and the vote the same day, but our six months won't be up until February.

So, what do you do when your world gets turned upside down, especially when you thought things were actually running smoothly?

Well, one thing for sure, I am not going to lose sleep over any of these things. I am going to continue to pray, and just add the credit card issue to my list and ask Jesus to fix these concerns. Tomorrow, I am going to cancel a trip to Kerrville with friends and stay home and work on church issues.

High School Football

The Chieftains suffered their first district loss with 56-13 defeat on the road against #4 ranked Canadian. Friona falls to 2-1 in District 3-3A play and 4-4 on the season. The Chiefs will host Spearman Friday night with a playoff berth on the line. It will be Senior Night and players, cheerleaders, and band members will be recognized.

Junior Varsity Football

The Friona JV Chieftains also dropped their first district game of the season. They moved to 2-1 in district play after losing to the Canadian Wildcats and stand at 3-5 for the season. Jameson Daniels returned a kickoff 65 yards for a touchdown but the PAT failed. Bryer Stanberry caught two touchdown passes from Sigi Morales. The first covered 64 yards and the second was good for 35 yards. Morales passed to Stanberry for one of the 2 point conversions and Rafael Rocha ran for the other conversion. The Chiefs are on the road at Spearman this Thursday with a 5:00 p.m. start time.

Junior High Football

The 7th grade Braves lost to Canadian 58-22. David Tafoya scored on a 57 yard pass from Octavio Arias and Hector Aguirre ran for the 2 point conversion. Next, JD Villegas hauled in a 40 yard pass from Arias for a touchdown but the conversion attempt failed. Isael Guzman ran 36 yards for Friona's final touchdown and Arias ran for the conversion. Arias threw for 105 yards and 2 touchdowns. Guzman led team in rushing with 68 yards. The 7th grade Braves are 2-1 in district and 4-2-1 overall. They host Spearman this week. Kickoff is at 5:00 p.m.

The 8th grade Braves lost to Canadian 44-8. Iram Gonzalez scored Friona's lone touchdown on a 51 yard run and Jacob Gonzalez ran for the 2 point conversion. Gonzalez led the team with 59 yards rushing and Tony Diaz had an interception. The 8th grade Braves are 1-2 in district and 1-4-2 overall. They play Spearman at Chieftain Field this week starting at 6:30 p.m.

Leave Your Cares with God

By Teena Hughes

I am going to call all of my Bible study ladies and make sure all is well with them. Then, I am going to check my mail in the next few weeks for a letter from the credit card company to see how the issue is resolved. What else can I do?

Isaiah 41:10 tells me not to fear because God is with me; He is going to strengthen me and help me through these things. 1 Peter 5:7 tells me to cast all of my anxiety on Him because He cares for me. And, my favorite from Matthew 6:34: "Do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own."

The concerns I have tonight are going to be there in the morning, or maybe they won't be. God may fix all of them while I sleep; I hope He does!!! Either way, I am going to enjoy a good night's sleep with the windows open! God is giving me peace about these things, and that, along with a good night's sleep is going to allow me to work efficiently tomorrow. So, good night! I hope you will leave all your cares and worries with God, too! Take care everyone!!!

Darrell Robbins

James Darrell Robbins passed away on October 19, 2022 at Senior Care in Denton, Texas. He was born on November 15, 1934 to Nora (Baxter) and Miles Robbins and was so proud that his first great grandchild, Preston James Fitzpatrick, shares the same birth date as him. Darrell was the oldest of three children and has two sisters, Dorothy (Marvin) Massey, Coppell, Texas and Phyllis (the late Jim) McDaniel, Pierre, South Dakota.

Darrell excelled in sports at school in Friona, Texas and during his Senior year in 1953, set the Texas state track record in the 440 Yard Dash and on the Mile Relay Team. The day after high school graduation, on May 23, 1953, he married the love of his life Norma "Sue" Robertson. After their wedding they moved to South Dakota where they'd heard the land was vast and bountiful. For the majority of his years in South Dakota, he ranched outside of Blunt, South Dakota and raised his three sons there. Dewayne, Denton, Texas; Robbie (Cynthia), Mansfield, Texas; and Jeff (Monica), Colorado Springs, Colorado. After ranching, Darrell decided to go into the home construction business and built a beautiful home for his family in Pierre. In 1981, they moved to Denton, Texas, to build metal frame houses. He was a member of the Denton Church of Christ, and resided in Denton until his death.

He is survived by his wife Sue, three sons and two daughters-in-law, grandchildren: Tiffany Fitzpatrick, Ryan Robbins and Tyler Robbins; Monét (Trevor Hornsby) Robbins and Jennifer (Iain) Oswald; great-grandchildren: Preston and Olivia Fitzpatrick; two sisters, one sister-in-law Kay (John) Brown and numerous nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to a charity of your choice.

Martha Rebecca Hamilton

Martha Rebecca Hamilton, 92 of Georgetown, Texas, formerly of Friona passed away October 24, 2022 in Georgetown. Celebration of Life Services have been scheduled for 2:00 PM Saturday, October 29, 2022 at the First Baptist Church of Friona with Rev. Brett Hoyle, officiating. Burial following in the Friona Cemetery by HANSARD FAMILY Funeral Home of Friona. There will be no public viewing.

Habits and Health

Hopefully, coming out of a pandemic, people learned some good habits and importance of health. Our health affects our daily lives as well as the people around us. During the pandemic, some were able to accent on time to take better care of themselves while others were dealt even longer hours and stripped of time for themselves.

On Friday, November 4th at 10:00 AM, Bluebonnet Home Health and Hospice is sponsoring an event with a focus on "Stress Management and Self-Care". The event will be hosted at Legacy Pointe located at 201 E. 15th St. in Friona.

This is a free community event and open to the public. Refreshments will be provided by Bluebonnet and Legacy Pointe. Plans include the opportunity to network with others at 9:30 a.m. and the program will be presented at 10:00 a.m. Wendi Case, from Texas A&M Agri-life Extension, will be the guest speaker.

Come join us for an opportunity to learn more about stress management and self-care. The opportunity will also be here to network with local healthcare professionals, caregivers, and friends. Bluebonnet will be providing blood pressure checks. For more information, Call Rhonda Sanders, LMSW at (806) 247-0057 or Wendi Case at (806) 251-5120.

Commissioners approve requests for ARPA funds

Parmer County Commissioners Court met in regular session on Monday October 24, 2022 at 10:00 a.m. in the County Courtroom of the Parmer County Courthouse in Farwell, Texas. The meeting began with prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag and Texas Flag.

There were no comments from the public during the open forum. Minutes from the October 11th meeting were read and approved. Commissioners approved the payment of the accounts payables as presented by County Treasurer Sharon May. The Treasurer's Payroll Report was also approved. The District Attorney's Forfeiture Report, as presented by Charlotte Marrufo, was approved.

Rhonda Wilkins, representing the Senior Citizen Fellowship Center in Friona, addressed the Court regarding the financial difficulties the Center is having. Earlier in the month the group had asked the Friona City Council for financial assistance. The Council pledged $600 per month and the waiving of water and sewer fees. The Commissioners Court approved the use of ARPA funds in the amount of $28,000 for a 2-year period beginning November 1st. The Senior Center will have to provide receipts in order to receive payments.

Danny Campbell, Fire Chief of the Friona Volunteer Fire Department, presented a request for ARPA funds in order to purchase 2 thermal imaging cameras for use in fire fighting and rescue calls. The current camera is not reliable and could put firefighters in danger. Commissioners approved $16,736.00 in ARPA funds to purchase the cameras.

In other business, the Treasurer's Quarterly Report by County Treasurer Sharon May was reviewed and approved. Consideration of a burn ban for Parmer County was tabled until the next meeting. Currently there is no burn ban in effect for the county.

Parmer County Sheriff Eric Geske informed the Court that the Parmer County Law Enforcement Center is currently housing 22 inmates of which 9 are paying customers from Deaf Smith County. A contract with Justice Benefits Inc. for the SCAAP Program was approved. The company will monitor and facilitate reimbursement for Parmer County regarding the housing of federal prisoners including illegal aliens. The contract must be approved annually and can be modified every two years. As stated in the contract, Justice Benefits Inc. will receive 22% of the funds it collects for the county.

Next scheduled meeting is Monday, November 14th.

All meetings are open to the public. Information in this article is only a summary.

PD POL AD • TEXANS FOR DAN PATRICK

- ✓ Critical Race Theory uses skin color and gender to define and judge people by group. Dan Patrick believes this is prejudice and divisive, and he passed a bill to stop the use of Critical Race Theory in our public schools and he will stop it in our universities as well.
- ✓ Dan Patrick listened to families during COVID who were not allowed to see family members in nursing homes or hospitals, and Patrick passed a law guaranteeing families the right to see loved ones during a pandemic or public health emergency.
- ✓ After the 2021 winter freeze, Dan Patrick had every member of the Texas Public Utility Commission and the Electric Reliability Council of Texas replaced. And this new leadership is why Texas was able to keep power flowing during an extremely hot summer.

Break the silence. End the violence.

Domestic Violence Awareness Month (DVAM) was launched nationwide in October 1987 as a way to connect and unite individuals and organizations working on domestic violence issues while raising awareness for those issues. The purple ribbon has become one of the most widely recognized symbols in raising awareness of domestic violence.

Here are some facts: 44% of victims killed had taken steps to end abuse.

1 in 3 Texans will experience domestic violence in their lifetime. 62 of the 204 people killed had separated or ended the relationship. 5 million children witness domestic violence each year in the United States. A victim with a protective order is 80% less likely to be re-victimized. 1 in 4 men in the U.S. have experienced some form of physical violence by an intimate partner. There are 6,113 victims each day.
