Snyder Lions Club Sweetheart Michele Anderson beat out 38 other contestants Saturday in Plainview to claim the Lions District 2T2 queen title.

Anderson's victory marks the first time a Snyder Lions chapter sweetheart has claimed the district queen title since Donna Davis Holt did so for the year 1967-68. Anderson will reign for the 1989-90 year.

In addition to her crown, Anderson will also be awarded two scholarships—one from the local Lions Club and the other from the state Lions. The state Lions queen will receive additional scholarships.

Anderson is now eligible to compete for the state Lions queen title against 14 other district Lions contestants May 12-14 at the Waco Hilton in Waco.

About 300 persons attended the District 2T2 convention Saturday. Lion dignitaries from all over Texas and Australia participated including Dr. Robert See QUEEN, page 9

Quake strikes Mexico City

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A strong earthquake shook southern Mexico this morning for about 30 seconds, cracking buildings, breaking windows and sending frightened people into the streets.

Ambulances raced around Mexico City, sirens blaring, but there were no immediate reports of injuries from the 8:35 a.m. (10:35 a.m. EDT) tremor.

The National Earthquake Information Center in Golden, Colo., said preliminary readings indicated the quake registered 6.8 on the Richter scale.

The epicenter was 40 miles east of Acapulco, about 200 miles south of Mexico City, seismologist John Minsch said.

The earthquake began as a small jolt and stopped momentarily, then buildings in the capital began swaying back and forth, with plaster cracking.

The tremor shook Mexico City at about the same time as the large earthquake that struck in September 19, 1985, killing at least 10,000 people and knocking down hundreds of buildings. That quake measured 8.1 on the Richter scale.

Today's earthquake knocked out power and telephone service in some parts of Mexico City and damaged water lines. Schools were evacuated to check for damage.

Many buildings in the capital were evacuated.

The tremor cut off power to Televisa, the nation's largest television network, for a few minutes.

Service in Mexico City's subway stopped temporarily to check for damage on the lines.

Both sides offer 2 perspectives of stabbing-robbery

A stabbing-robbery incident which occurred here last Jan. 20 was described from two perspectives Monday and Tuesday in 132nd District Court, the viewpoint of two victims of the crime and the viewpoint of the man who has admitted committing it.

Each was testifying in the state's case against Jorge Solis Serrato, under indictment here for attempted capital murder and aggravated robbery.

Serrato, indicted as Jorge Serrato Solis, has waived a jury trial and is having his case argued before 132nd District Judge Gene Dulaney.

The defendant's attorney, Javier Alvarez of Lubbock, indicated his client wished the case to be decided by the district judge.

Serrato is a 25-year-old citizen of Mexico who is charged with stabbing convenience store clerk Mary Ann Harris during a robbery of the Fina convenience store at 1003.25th St.

Harris took the stand Monday afternoon and, in emotional testimony, related how Serrato had approached her with a knife and struggled with her at least

Incentive to doctor due talks

Recruitment incentives to secure a family practitioner for Cogdell Memorial Hospital will be considered Tuesday during the regular April meeting of the board.

The session, moved from its regular Thursday date to avoid a conflict with the hospital auxiliary banquet, will begin with an evening meal at 6:30 p.m.

Administrator Tom Hochwalt said the effort to obtain a new family practitioner here is being handled "internally" rather than by using a professional recruitment firm.

His discussion Tuesday will center on exactly what incentives the board will agree to offer prospective doctors.

In addition, Hochwalt is scheduled to update the board on the effort to date to secure both a general surgeon and an internist for the Cogdell staff.

The meeting will include also the board's annual outside audit report. It will be given by Jerry Vestal, local CPA with Vestal and Company.

The board will hear also a report from Wilma Dillard, patient relations coordinator at Cogdell. She will review the past year's activity of her office, created in February of 1988.

Other agenda items will include a revision of the governing bylaws of the hospital to include the "indemnification" provision.

Under reports, the board will hear the medical staff and the quality assurance report from chief of staff Dr. Jim Burleson; the monthly financial report from Hochwalt; and an update on the application process to provide health services to TDC's Price Daniel unit.

Membership drive slated by chamber

The annual chamber of commerce membership drive will begin May 10 with a breakfast and conclude two days later, chamber directors were reminded Monday. Directors and Goldcoaters will compete against each other to see who can sign up the most members.

A coupon booklet featuring discounts offered by local businesses is being put together and will be distributed to new chamber members as well as out-of-town college students who register at Western Texas College. Twenty merchants had signed up as of Monday.

Directors also heard updates on upcoming chamber projects during their regular Monday afternoon meeting.

A Maines Brothers concert is planned for late May or early June at the coliseum. Herbie Figueredo, chamber president, said they are making an effort to bring a variety of entertainment to Snyder to please all tastes.

Moss also said that plans were already underway for the annual July Fourth celebration and that the usual $5,000 for fireworks was also being allocated this year. Joe Jackson is the chairman of the fireworks committee.

Plans are also underway for the upcoming AJRA National Finals and the White Buffalo Days celebration.

Several activities are also being planned in conjunction with the opening of the prison currently under construction near Snyder.

Moss stressed that the dates for these activities are tentative and won't be finalized for about a month.

TDC staff members and their families may begin arriving in Snyder around July 5. An open house at the prison is tentatively set for July 15.

Moss said that TDC officials have told him that no other town has ever had an open house in conjunction with the opening of a new prison. Moss indicated that TDC officials like the idea and are looking forward to letting the

Stenholm art honor to student

Steven Kellums, a junior at Snyder High School, was chosen the third place winner Saturday in the art contest sponsored by U.S. Rep. Charles Stenholm.

Kellums' painting work was chosen from an initial entry list of some 600 art works entered from eight regional shows held throughout Stenholm's 17th Congressional District.

For the next year, the watercolor painting, entitled "Winter Worship," will hang in Stenholm's Abilene office.

Kellums, who had two paintings chosen for the finals, was among four SHS art students whose work was selected for the contest's final round. Approx-

The national news media has started to appraise President Bush's first 100 days in office. As expected, the reviews are mixed about his pragmatic approach in the oval office.

Few are surprised that he has kept in touch with his roots. You may recall that the president's telephone call to a long-time friend in Lubbock put the Hub City in the national spotlight.

The president does like to stay in touch, and that has put a wide smile on the face of a secretary in the administration building at Western Texas College.

Verda Hardegree of Colorado City last weekend received a telephone call from Camp David and the operator asked for either Verda or her mother, Lois Rogers. The family relationship dates back to the 1950s in Midland when Bush was just getting started in the Texas oil business.

The president said he had just listened to tapes sent by Mrs. Hardegree several months ago. The president blamed the delay in responding to a mountain of mail—almost a half million pieces. But the president assured them that that kind of mail problem won't keep them from getting an invitation to the White House very soon.

WTC graduated its second Correctional Officer class last week, and a third is about to begin. By the time the Price Daniel unit opens in July, almost 100 correctional officers will have been trained locally.

An interesting sidelight to last week's graduation surfaced when a trim James Daniel Bass walked across the stage to receive his certificate.

The Snyder man applied for the first class but was rejected because of weight. But Bass was determined. Assisted by his wife, Rachael, Bass went on a diet and exercise program that resulted in the loss of 40 pounds by the time the second class submitted applications.

By the time the training was completed, the total weight loss was 45 pounds. At graduation, Bass deserved congratulations on two counts.

Anthropologist says ranch cult practiced wierd form of religion

BROWNSVILLE, Texas (AP) — A Florida anthropologist considered an expert in Afro-Cuban cults said the man who reportedly directed ritual human sacrifices near Matamoros, Mexico, is a psychopath who "will continue to be dangerous as long as he is free."

The killings, however, have shocked practitioners of a religion that uses human bones to gain magical power, Rafael Martinez said.

Adolfo de Jesus Constanzo, the 26-year-old, so-called "god-father" of a band of occult drug smugglers, practiced a twisted form of Palo Mayombe, a religion shaped by African slaves in Cuba, Martinez concluded this weekend after examining the gruesome evidence. Officials in Brownsville called Martinez in to assist in the investigation.

Although Palo Mayombe requires the use of human bones placed in a cauldron called the "nganga," practitioners of the religion do not normally kill to obtain the bones, said Martinez, who has researched such cults for 15 years.

The bones, when placed with other items in the nganga, are believed to afford the Palo Mayombe believer control over the spirit of the dead person from whose body they came.

"There was a human skull in that cauldron at the ranch," Martinez said, adding he also found in the nganga 21 wooden sticks, a turtle shell, animal parts, and other items typical of Palo Mayombe rituals.

Thirteen bodies found buried at the Santa Elena ranch 20 miles west of the border city of Matamoros two weeks ago are believed to have been victims of a group of smugglers, some who regarded Constanzo as their spiritual leader. Some of the bodies were mutilated with organs removed in apparent ritual sacrifices.

Mexican authorities on Sunday torched a wooden shack stationed in front of the burial site that contained cauldrons holding body parts. The shack, found with blood-spattered walls, is believed to be where the cult carried out its ritual killings. Cameron County Sheriff Alex Perez who was at the scene when the shack was burned, said they burned the cult "temple to show Adolfo de Jesus Constanzo we mean business."

The Mexican news agency Excelsior also reported that officials looked for more bodies at the site but found none.

For Constanzo and his followers, Martinez said, "The whole lifestyle was very psychopathic itself, murdering people that they considered enemies, smuggling marijuana and doing other illegal activities. There is psychopathy filtering down to their own ritual activity, and that is what you have."

In 15 years, Martinez added, he never has seen a murder associated with Palo Mayombe. Practitioners normally obtain the human bones essential to their rituals by robbing graves, smuggling them from the Caribbean or buying them from legitimate medical-specimen suppliers.

"Many practitioners of Palo Mayombe in the United States are horrified at what he has done," Martinez said.

"I think he will continue to be dangerous as long as he is free," Martinez said. "Very dangerous."

But he said the public does not need to live in fear of Palo Mayombe cults.

The cultural anthropologist serves as a consultant on Afro-Cuban cults for the Metro Dade County, Fla., medical examiner's office and teaches at the University of North Florida's Institute of Police Technology and Management. He met with law enforcement officials in southern Texas Monday to teach them about such cults.

Palo Mayombe, he said, should not be confused with Santeria, an Afro-Cuban religion that involves animal sacrifice and includes many believers who are law-abiding people.

"With the Palo Mayombe, that's a different story," Martinez said.

DALLAS (AP) — Sears, Roebuck and Co., the nation's largest retailer, has narrowed possible relocation sites of its merchandising group to three or four cities, including Dallas, sources say.

The sources said Monday that the Chicago-based retailer now has a "short list" of possible sites, but said Charlotte, N.C., has emerged as the leading contender. It could not be immediately determined what other cities were still under consideration, the Dallas Times Herald reported today.

Chief of police is indicted

TOMBALL, Texas (AP) — A Harris County grand jury has indicted Tomball Police Chief Durwood Kennedy on a charge of stealing about $1,500 from a department fund established to help the needy and fund Christmas parties.

Prosecutor Casey O'Brien said Monday that Kennedy, 55, a former highway patrolman who has been police chief of the Houston suburb for eight years, stole money from the Tomball Police Officers Benefits Fund on eight occasions between October 1986 and November 1987.

Some of the money went to pay off hot checks written by a family member, O'Brien said, and more went for newspaper subscriptions and the chief's membership in the American Association for Retired Persons. AARP dues are $5 a year.

The prosecutor said he thinks an unidentified Tomball officer provided the tip that led to Kennedy's indictment.

City Manager Don Taylor called the indictment "disappointing," adding that his faith in Kennedy is unshaken.

Taylor and Mayor Lee Tipton said Kennedy will be placed on leave with pay from his $36,000-a-year post and possibly sent to work in the city's public works section if an available slot can be found.

"Chief Kennedy is not a thief," Lawyer Randy McDonald, who represents Kennedy, said. "I knew him from when I was a prosecutor in the district attorney's special crimes (bureau), and he was invaluable to us in many investigations."

Dear Abby

Secretaries Vote for Time Off To Honor Them on Their Day

By Abigail Van Buren

© Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR READERS: Don't tell me tomorrow is National Secretaries Day again! Well, it is, and it's rather amusing to note that secretaries disagree broadly on how "their" day should be celebrated — if at all. For example, a Girl Friday in Tampa, Fla., wrote:

DEAR ABBY: I hate National Secretaries Day. My boss feels obligated to take me to lunch, and I feel obligated to go. He's a nice man, but all he talks about is himself. How boring! I'm sure there are many secretaries who would be thrilled to go to lunch with their bosses, but I'm not one of them.

NO NAME, PLEASE

A female certified public accountant led a workshop involving secretaries and their bosses. She asked secretaries what they wanted most from their bosses on Secretaries Day. Then she asked the bosses what they thought their secretaries wanted most on "their" day. There were 201 responses from secretaries, and 143 responses from their bosses.

Twenty-two percent of the secretaries said they wanted a day off with pay! Only 6 percent of the bosses said that's what their secretaries wanted most.

Concerning flowers: Only 7 percent of the secretaries said they wanted flowers. But 25 percent of the bosses said they thought their secretaries wanted flowers.

I've printed a "prayer for secretaries" (author unknown) several times, and have had numerous requests for a copy of same to be read at a retirement party for a devoted secretary. So clip it now; you never know when it might come in handy:

PRAYER FOR SECRETARIES

"Dear Lord, help me to do my work well; to have the memory of an elephant, the patience of a saint and the hide of a rhinoceros. And when the boss asks me to stay late to type a three-page letter that absolutely must go out today, and he doesn't get around to signing it until tomorrow, please help me to keep my mouth shut.

"Dear Lord, never let me lose my patience, even when the boss has me searching the files for something that is later discovered on his desk!

"Help me to have the knowledge of a genius, although my education is limited to high school and secretarial training.

"Help me to understand and carry out all instructions without any explanation.

"Let me always know exactly where my boss is and when he will be back, even though he never tells me when he leaves.

"And Lord, when the year ends, please give me the foresight not to throw out records that will be asked for in a few days, even though I was told emphatically, 'Destroy these — they are cluttering up the place!' Amen."

A Sacramento secretary who spoke for many wrote:

DEAR ABBY: Please print this message to my boss on National Secretaries Day, but please don't use my name:

If you want to show me how much you appreciate me, skip the lunch and flowers, and give me a raise.

P.S. What do you think is one of the most chronic problems of business etiquette confronting today's secretaries? The "his/her" identification! One must never assume that the boss is a male, that the nurse is a female, the police officer is a policeman or the firefighter is a fireman. I think you get the idea.

T-Bills' interests rates increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — Interest rates on short-term Treasury securities rose in Monday's auction after falling sharply last week.

The Treasury Department sold $7.2 billion in three-month bills at an average discount rate of 8.66 percent, up from 8.57 percent last week. Another $7.2 billion was sold in six-month bills at an average discount rate of 8.72 percent, up from 8.59 percent last week.

The rates were the highest since April 10, when three-month bills sold for 8.71 percent and six-month bills averaged 8.78 percent.

The new discount rates understate the actual return to investors — 8.98 percent for three-month bills with a $10,000 bill selling for $9,781.10 and 9.25 percent for a six-month bill selling for $9,559.20.

that just maybe North would have a black ace and perhaps the K-Q, K-J-10 or Q-J-10 of diamonds. It was probably a lot to hope for, but that was his excuse for bidding the slam.

Since the slam should be set, East-West did well not to bid six spades as a sacrifice. They also did well not to double, since they proceeded to misdefend.

West led the king of clubs, and East unhesitatingly signaled encouragement with the six-spot. West blithely continued with the ace of clubs. That made 12 tricks a cakewalk for declarer. He ruffed the second club and ran all his trumps, keeping dummy's remaining 10 of clubs as a threat card against East, who had to keep the queen. Unfortunately, to keep that club queen, East had to discard diamonds, and declarer eventually took the 12th trick with his lowly five of diamonds.

The right defense is tricky. A low club at trick two would not work, since a double squeeze would then develop, with West needing to save the club ace and East having to hold diamonds. As a result, neither defender could guard spades. But the spade queen played at trick two would cover all the bases. No doubt much perspiration would be produced as declarer played out his hearts, but the ultimate result would favor the defense.

Guest speaker was Detective Floyd Price, 22-year police officer, who spoke on home safety. Price also stated that as of Feb. 28, 1989, the cost of caring for 39,991 prisoners in the Huntsville

TDC unit was $40.25 per day at a monthly cost of over $48 million.

Banking options are featured at Stargazers

Stargazers Extension Homemakers Club met April 17 in the home of Mildred Rogers with Barbara McGee, assistant vice president at West Texas State Bank, as guest speaker.

McGee said, "Know your bank; don't be afraid to ask questions." She mentioned FDIC insurance fees and changes as well as types of accounts available. Phrases to be informed about included ownership of accounts, individual accounts, joint accounts with rights of survivorship, custodial accounts for minors, revocable trusts and P.O.D. accounts.

McGee also mentioned third party rights in death of owner, drawing against one's account, U.S. savings bonds and deposit boxes. She stated that deposit boxes may be examined by federal banking investigators.

President Joy Early presided. Roll call was answered by saying something nice about the member seated to one's left. The hint for the meeting was to place a hot muffin pan on a wet towel to keep muffins from sticking.

Club members donated to the National Aubrey Russell Scholarship fund. They also gave funds to Coins for Friendship which is used in Texas for the 4-H camp at Brownwood and Girls Town.

A report was heard on the Adopt-A-Highway program. Stargazers pick up trash on a two-mile stretch of Highway 350 toward Ira. Members said to think twice about throwing out trash, because picking it up is a huge job.

Plans for the fall bazaar were also discussed.

Rogers was hostess for the meeting. Visitors are invited to attend the next meeting May 15 at 7 p.m. to be held at 3117 Ave. T. Stargazers is the only extension club meeting at night.

Stamp Club members meet

The White Buffalo Stamp Club met recently in the TU Electric Reddi Room to discuss upcoming stamp shows in Lubbock and Dallas.

Bill Davies presented the program with a display of his favorite stamp collection, the 1938 Presidential Definitive Issue. President F.D. Roosevelt wanted to honor the 29 former presidents no longer living. Three other stamps honored Martha Washington, Benjamin Franklin and the White House.

Davies showed various ways of collecting and mounting stamps including mint, used, plate blocks, coil strips, print blocks, booklets and precancels.

Davies also introduced new terms such as safe paper, perfins, rotary press, and flat bed press.

The next meeting of the club is set for May 8. Anyone interested in philately is invited to attend.

Financial planning for retirement

CLEVELAND (AP) — Many people are surprised to discover they won't have the ready funds they expected when they retire, says Bert Zahn of National City Corp.

Zahn says steps can be taken before retirement to close the gap. He says people in their 40s and 50s should consider contributing as much as they can to tax-deferred savings plans.

"It makes more sense to pay these taxes after you retire when your overall income and tax rate will presumably be less," he says.

Another important retirement step, Zahn says, is to review the allocation of funds in your company pension account. "The closer you come to retirement, the wiser it may be to shift your assets into income producing investments instead of growth investments," he adds.

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company:

Public Notice

On March 14, 1989, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas an application which proposes to revise its Toll Restriction Tariff in Section 21 of the General Exchange Tariff. The Commission received the application as Docket No. 8700.

The application proposes to reduce the monthly rate for Toll Restriction residence service from the current $15 a month to $5 a month per residence access line. This proposed application will affect approximately 2,487 residence customers who presently subscribe to toll restriction. It is estimated that the proposed rate schedule will reduce the Company's annual revenues from this service by approximately $298,000, which is less than one percent of the Company's total intrastate revenues. If the application is approved, the effective date of the rate reduction will be set according to the Commission's Order.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A deadline to file motions to intervene has been set for May 30, 1989. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas at 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. # Iowa survivor describes explosion

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — A USS Iowa crewman who was in the gun turret that exploded and killed 47 sailors says he was waiting for its massive 16-inch guns to fire but the blast he heard "didn't sound right."

After the explosion, Kendall L. Truitt recalled Monday, he and 10 others in the bottom of the turret tried to radio sailors on the five upper decks but none answered.

"We knew that something was drastically wrong," said the gunner's mate 3rd class, who is from Tampa, Fla.

He said he then ordered the gunpowder magazine secured and the area evacuated.

The quick actions of the 11 and other Iowa crewmen were critical in preventing an even bigger tragedy aboard the World War II-era battleship, Capt. Fred P. Moosally said.

"I can't say enough about the hundreds of heroes who fought the fire and saved the ship," Moosally said. "God gave birth to 500 heroes."

The two spoke at a news conference several hours after a memorial service for the victims at the Norfolk Naval Air Station, the Iowa's home port.

About 6,000 mourners heard President Bush praise "the men behind the guns."

"They came to the Navy as strangers, served the Navy as shipmates and friends, and left the Navy as brothers in eternity," Bush said. Moosally, he and his wife, Barbara, consoled victims' families.

Navy officials have refused to speculate on the cause of Wednesday's blast that occurred during a gunnery exercise off Puerto Rico.

The Pentagon said it had no idea when an investigation would be completed.

"There are lots of theories floating around," Moosally said.

"Unfortunately, all the witnesses are dead."

Officials also said they haven't finished assessing the damage to the turret.

Moosally refused to give a definite answer to questions about whether the turret could be repaired. He said the battleship could operate without it if necessary.

The Iowa has three turrets, each with three 16-inch guns.

The captain said there were no indications of any problems with the guns before the blast.

The No. 1 turret had already fired its rounds, Moosally said, while in the second turret, the practice projectiles and five 110-pound bags of powder had been loaded into the right and left guns.

Moosally said a projectile was loaded into the center gun and the crew was loading powder behind it when the explosion occurred.

"That was my best turret," Moosally said. "The turret's senior chief was the most meticulous man I've ever met. You talk about training ... nobody in that turret did anything unless they were qualified. Of the 84 chiefs on the ship, he was No. 1."

He was referring to Chief Gunner's Mate Reginald O. Ziegler of Port Gibson, N.Y. Ziegler, 39, was the oldest victim.

The ship's weapons control officer, Cmdr. Robert J. Kissinger, said the guns had passed a rigorous inspection that morning. They had been fired last in early February, he said.

The powder also had been inspected before the exercise, Kissinger said.

Truitt said the 11 on the turret's bottom level were not sure what had happened immediately after the blast, but they "knew that didn't sound right."

DR. GOTT PETER GOTT, M.D.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: What are the symptoms of cat scratch fever? Sometimes when I play with our cat, she will scratch me. This is occasionally followed by a cold and diarrhea. Is this from our cat or another source?

DEAR READER: The cold and diarrhea come from another source.

Cat scratch disease is a harmless infection caused by a break in the skin from a cat scratch. The ailment is characterized by a pimple at the site of the scratch, followed by painfully swollen lymph glands near the pimple. If the scratch is on the hand or arm, the glands in the armpit may swell; if the pimple is on the leg, the glands in the groin may become uncomfortable. Fever, headache and malaise (feeling ill) may accompany the disease, which usually subsides within a few weeks. The antibiotic tetracycline may aid recovery. Rarely, patients may develop complications of cat scratch disease including encephalitis (brain infection) and osteomyelitis (bone infection).

To my knowledge, diarrhea and cold symptoms are unrelated to cat scratches. DEAR DR. GOTT: My 32-year-old daughter is a manic depressive. Three to four times a year she finds herself unable to cope. She just wants to "run away." Please don't tell me to talk to our family doctor. She just isn't any help. I need guidance.

DEAR READER: Manic depression, now known as bi-polar mood disorder, consists of cyclic emotional swings of excitement and euphoria alternating with depression. The condition probably has a biochemical basis and is easily treated with medicine, such as lithium, under medical supervision. The problem is getting patients to take the medicine; during the depressive period, they don't care.

Your daughter seems to know something is wrong, yet she may be afraid or unwilling to be seen by a professional. I suggest that you seek the services of a psychiatrist in your community, or look for help from another doctor who is familiar with mood disorders. Your family doctor, a community social service agency or a municipal mental health center can advise you where to find assistance. With the appropriate resources backing you up, you can encourage your daughter to get help rather than running away.

For more information, I am sending you a copy of my Health Report "Mental and Emotional Illness." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

Couple arraigned on alleged scam

BEAUMONT, Texas (AP) — A Virginia couple was arraigned in federal court on charges stemming from an alleged scheme to lure people to time-share resorts with false promises of valuable prizes.

David Allen Hagen, 39, and his wife, Annette Louise DeFusco, 27, both of Great Falls, Va., were arraigned Monday before U.S. Magistrate Michael Bradford on charges of conspiracy and mail fraud charges listed in an eight-count indictment. Hagen also is known as David Allen DeFusco.

The couple pleaded innocent to the charges. Bradford allowed the couple to remain free on $50,000 bond each. U.S. Magistrate Harry McKee of Tyler set the bonds April 14 after the couple surrendered to federal authorities in Tyler.

At the time, McKee asked Hagen to surrender his expired passport, which Hagen did Monday.

Bradford scheduled jury selection in the trial before U.S. District Judge Richard Schell to begin July 17.

The indictment accuses the couple of conspiring with Freedom Financial Corp., a Dallas resort company. The couple and Freedom Financial conspired to mail more than 26 million fraudulent advertisements in a six-state area, the indictment states.

U.S. Attorney Bob Wortham said the couple conducted business under a variety of names and received money for each person who responded to the mailings by visiting a Freedom Financial time-share condominium, authorities said.

The indictment lists 20 incidents in which authorities said residents in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Missouri, Arkansas and Kansas were misled into visiting Freedom Financial time-share resorts with promises of valuable prizes. In each case, the letters guaranteed a new car along with either $10,000 cash, gold bullion or a 45-inch screen color television, the indictment states.

Wortham said people visiting one of the seven resorts in Texas and Missouri instead received such gifts as commemorative books about the Olympics or redemption certificates. The certificates required people to pay shipping and handling charges that cost as much as the retail value of the prize, Wortham said.

In October, Freedom Financial Corp. pleaded guilty to conspiracy and mail fraud and paid a $1.5 million fine. The company also mailed about 2,000 restitution checks of $50 each to area residents who complained about the advertisements.

The case has gained national attention including a story on the television show "60 Minutes" and an article in the Washington Post about the couple's lavish lifestyle.

Former millionaire banker convicted

AUSTIN (AP) — A former millionaire banker faces up to five years in prison and a fine of up to $250,000 on each of 13 counts of bank fraud following his conviction by a federal court jury.

A federal jury took about an hour Monday before convicting Ruben Johnson, who oversaw the rapid rise and eventual failure of United Bank of Texas on charges involving kickbacks from contracting work on the bank's building.

U.S. District Judge James Nowlin will sentence Johnson, 59, in June following a hearing.

"I'm surprised and I'm disappointed in the verdict," Johnson said. "I'm sorry of course, as to the verdict."

Assistant U.S. Attorney Jim Blankinship, who prosecuted the case, said, "We're very satisfied with the verdict. I think the evidence was real strong."

"It's a demonstration by the jury that bank fraud is not going to be tolerated," Blankinship said.

The former chairman of the board of United Bank of Texas bought controlling interest in University State Bank in 1974 and soon became a major banking, development and political force in Austin. He presided over the change of the bank into United Bank of Texas, which became the fifth-largest bank in Austin, and moved the institution in 1981 to the 17-story United Bank Tower, which he developed.

Johnson was friend, contributor and lender to a number of top Democratic state officeholders, and was appointed by then-Gov. Mark White to the State Finance Commission, a post he later resigned.

The charges against Johnson alleged he received a 15 percent fee from a contractor for finish-out work done for the lavishly decorated bank in United Bank Tower, and for work done at two other bank locations.

Trial testimony details robbery-stabbing here

twice during the course of the robbery.

"I was afraid I was going to die," she testified, saying the fear she experienced that afternoon, "made my body numb."

Evidence produced by prosecuting attorney Ernie Armstrong included the hunting-style knife used in the robbery and the bloody sweat shirt worn by Harris that afternoon.

Testimony indicated she suffered a slash to her right arm and a puncture wound below her right breast which collapsed her lung and caused her to be hospitalized in serious condition for several days.

During their initial struggle, Harris testified, she fell to the floor. She testified Serrato said, "Easy, easy, like he was trying to calm me, then it looked like he got mad at me, and he started kicking me."

The incident was interrupted by Debbie Ashley, former payroll clerk for Line & Line Oil Co., owners of the store.

She testified Monday she entered the business a few minutes after 3 p.m. on Jan. 20 with the paychecks she normally delivered at that time.

Once inside, she said she was grabbed by the wrist by Serrato and slung into a Coke machine and air conditioner while he was holding the knife in her face.

She said she had seen Harris "lying face down on the floor and a man kneeling beside her. She turned her face around toward me and said, 'Help me, Debbie, he's trying to kill me.'"

After Serrato grabbed her, Ashley said, she started screaming, "Please, God, don't kill me! I thought he was going to kill me, and the only thing I could think of was who was going to take care of my kids, and I saw the knife and I was wondering where it was going to land."

Finally, the defendant saw a man driving up, let go of her and ran out the door, Ashley said, adding that she has had trouble sleeping and has been "paranoid" since the incident, avoiding small stores.

Both women identified Serrato as the man who assaulted them.

The defendant had his chance to tell his side of the story Tuesday morning. Speaking through an interpreter, Serrato described how he had been in the U.S. as an illegal alien since last September and had been working as a roofer in Midland.

He said the decision to rob the local store was made on impulse after he learned from a telephone call to his father in Mexico that one of his four infant children was ill.

"I had never in my life done something like this," he testified.

Serrato admitted that he and the store clerk had struggled at least twice, but he said he did not intend to harm her and claimed he had no memory of her actually being injured with the knife he wielded.

Serrato admitted he was "very drunk" during the incident after drinking beer at the Travel In Motel, where he and four other individuals were staying. The motel is located across the street from the Fina convenience store.

After he fled, he said he stumbled and, in the process, stabbed himself in the leg. He said he crawled into a trash dumpster to hide and, once inside, fell asleep.

When he awoke, he said he had "recovered" from the effects of the alcohol, and headed back to the motel. There, he said, he expected the police to be waiting for him.

"My conscience told me I was going to stain by education background, my degrees that I have," he testified.

Testimony indicated Serrato holds a teaching certificate in Mexico qualifying him to teach in the primary grades. He said he was employed as a teacher for a brief time before coming to the U.S. illegally "to make money for my family."

The living he made as a roofer, he said, was not sufficient to pay for his own food and lodging.

He said he and the other men had come to Snyder last January due to the winter conditions in Midland which had prevented them from working for the previous 15 days.

He said they were living on money loaned to them by the roofing contractor who employed them.

Testimony in the case was continuing at noon Tuesday.

families tour the facility. For children and spouses, he said, it will be the first time that they will actually be able to see where their dad or spouse works.

On May 5, the Scurry County leadership class will have its final meeting. Fourteen will receive certificates and a steak dinner is planned for 7 p.m. that evening at the ranch of Jess and Jean Everett. About 100 people have been invited, Moss said.

Moss also asked directors to support a resolution asking that the percentage of funds from the motel and hotel tax still be spent on tourism.

Moss also told directors that local businesses contacted during the regular chamber visitation period had indicated that they would rather see the chamber promote "shop at home" the year-round rather than just for Christmas.

Directors were receptive to the suggestion and agreed to study it further.

Moss also told directors that they were working on a proposal regarding changing billboards every year and that the dressing rooms in the coliseum were being upgraded.

Directors attending were Figueredo, Joe Coronado, Fran Farmer, Dr. Harry Krenek, Gary Landes, Cindy Banta, Joe Sentell and Bill Davies.

Not present were David Kattes, Billy Huddleston, M.L. Duke and Eddie Williams.

NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT MODIFICATION

In November of 1986, two classes, the first defined as all Mexican-Americans eligible to presently or in the future vote in elections for trustees to the Snyder Independent School District, and the second defined as all blacks eligible to presently or in the future vote in the elections for trustees to the Snyder Independent School District, were certified by the court in Malone, et al v. Snyder Independent School District, et al, Civil Action No. Ca-5-85-259, pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Lubbock Division. After lengthy negotiation, the parties to the above referenced lawsuit reached a settlement which was approved by the Court on October 15, 1987.

Under the agreement, a new method of electing trustees to the Snyder Independent School District was adopted. Four of the seven trustees were to be elected from single-member districts and the remaining three were to be elected at-large. Subsequently, and in accordance with the terms of the settlement agreement, a fifth single-member district was created to replace one of the at-large spots. By doing this, the trustee, Mr. Ygnacio Benitez, Jr., who was originally elected to single-member district one was placed in single-member district four. At his request, and believing that he should be allowed to represent those who elected him, the school board for the Snyder Independent School District voted to change the boundaries of the new single-member district one to include this trustee's residence as well as other surrounding property. No other changes were made.

Because the court was required to approve the original settlement agreement, it must also review proposed amendments to that agreement. A hearing will be held on the 24th day of May, 1989, in the United States District Courtroom for the Northern District of Texas, Lubbock Division, at 1:30 o'clock p.m. at which time the court will consider the amendment. Members of the above defined classes will be given opportunity to object to the change. Their objections must be written and filed with the Honorable Halbert O. Woodward, Judge, United States District Court, Room C-210, Federal Building, 1205 Texas Avenue, Lubbock, Texas 79401, Mr. Rolando L. Rios, Attorney for the Classes, 201 N. St. Mary's Street, Suite 521, San Antonio, Texas 78205, and Mr. Brian P. Quinn, Attorney for the Snyder Independent School District, 1722 Broadway, Lubbock, Texas 79401. All objections must be received by the court, Mr. Rios, and Mr. Quinn no later than the 17th day of May, 1989.

Since the court may wish to hold a hearing on any objection, anyone filing one must appear at the Federal Courthouse in Lubbock on May 24, 1989, at 1:30 p.m. and be prepared to present his contentions in open court. If he does not, the objection will be waived.

Winter and Rodriguez state bound

BROWNWOOD -- Snyder's Michael Rodriguez and Kevin Winter can book a trip to the Class 4A State Tennis Tournament in Austin. They are officially in.

The Tiger doubles team defeated Mike Compton and Keith Sherer of Leander 6-2, 6-3 this morning to win their semifinal round at the the Region I-4A tournament. They are scheduled to play either Binky Tubb and Danny Whitehead of Big Spring, or a team from Levelland in the championship match at 3 p.m. Win or lose, Rodriguez and Winter will advance to state since first and second place teams automatically qualify.

The Snyder athletes had reached the semis by beating Ricky Alley and T.J. Head of Hereford, 6-2, 6-4, in Monday afternoon's semifinals.

Several other players from District 4-4A have advanced to the quarterfinals this morning but it was not known whether they won there. Rocky Tubb of Big Spring was to play Clark of Borger while Sweetwater's Sue Lynn Hughes and Beth Bartlett were up against Melody Lowery and Jenny Wright of Brownwood. In the other girl's doubles match, Bishop and Byrch of Monahans were playing a team from Taylor.

District 4-4A girl's singles players Vicky Krhut of Monahans and Melissa Anderson of Lake View both lost in the quarterfinals. Losing in the first round was Ricky Villareal of Monahans in boy's singles.

Tigers look to streak again; changes in lineup are made

Snyder's district winning streak ended at six last weekend with a 4-2 loss to Andrews but Coach Albert Lewis has another one in mind.

"We'll just have to see if we can't put together another five-game winning streak," the veteran coach said after the game.

With that in mind, the Tigers go after win No. 1 today when they entertain San Angelo Lake View at 7 p.m. on Moffett Field. Snyder goes into the game with a 6-3 district record, tied with Big Spring for second place. The Chiefs of Lake View are 1-8.

Friday's Game: Andrews 4, Snyder 2.
Saturday's Games: Big Spring 5, Pecos 4; Fort Stockton 16, Sweetwater 6, Monahans 13, Lake View 1.
Tuesday's Games: Lake View at Snyder, Sweetwater at Big Spring, Fort Stockton at Andrews, Pecos at Monahans.

With six of the eight teams in District 4-4A still grouped within two losses of each other, each game is important. One key one, however, involves league-leading Fort Stockton and preseason favorite Andrews, who play tonight in Andrews. Fort Stockton is 7-2 in the district while Andrews is one of three teams tied for fourth place at 5-4. A Panther victory would make it tough for the Mustangs to live up to their early pick as the top team in the district.

Big Spring, at 6-3, entertains 1-8 Sweetwater in an afternoon game while Pecos and Monahans, both with 5-4 marks, meet in Monahans this evening.

Lewis has made some changes in the lineup tonight. Bert Otto will make a rare appearance on the mound. Otto, the Tigers' starting short stop this season, is 2-0 from the hill. It will be his first district start this season as pitcher.

Gilbert Hernandez will take over at third base as Randy Morris moves to short stop. In another change, backup catcher Mark Kuss will start at left field. Coaches are interested in checking the senior's hitting. They'll also look again at John Wright, who will be the designated hitter and bat for Hernandez.

The lineup then, in batting order, will have Toby Goodwin leading off and playing first base.

He'll be followed by Morris at short, Tommy Lane at center field and Wright as the designated hitter. Catcher Tracy Odom will bat fifth. In another change, pitcher-first baseman Bart Morton will take over at right field. He'll be followed in the order by Otto, Kuss and second baseman Jason West.

Snyder is 14-7 for the season; Lake View is 3-14.

WTC in third place at tourney midpoint

DENISON -- Western Texas College, led by Mark Burgen and Darrell Cofer, is holding close at the Region V Golf Tournament, being held at Grayson County Golf Course here.

Western Texas shot 446 over the first 27 holes to trail second place New Mexico Junior College by two strokes.

Midland College takes a commanding lead into the final 27 holes today. The Chaparrals shot 431 on Monday. New Mexico JC turned in a 444, followed by Western Texas with 446, Odessa with 450, Weatherford with 454, Grayson with 464 and New Mexico Military Institute with 471.

First and second place teams will advance to the NJCAA National Tournament.

"We're in good shape," said WTC Coach Dave Foster. "I think the final 18 will determine what happens. The course is not in good shape and there have been some tough breaks. It all depends on how the breaks go."

Western's Burgen and Cofer both shot 69s over the first 18 holes. Burgen finished with a 38 to tie with three others for early medalist honors while Cofer shot a 39 and is one stroke back.

Locked with Burgen at 107 are Al Ortiz of Weatherford and Shawn Duffy of Midland.

Other scores from Western Texas individuals included a 114 from Lance Jones, a 117 from Jeff Beal and a 119 from Jerry Whitten.

Race for No. 2 spot in SW Region tough

The pressure is on in the Southwest Region as three schools compete for runner-up rights to attend the prestigious College National Finals Rodeo.

The final Southwest Region rodeo begins Thursday in Stephenville, hosted by Tarleton State University.

Odessa College will take first place honors in the region this season. The Wranglers, who have won seven of the nine rodeos thus far, have a whopping 2,457.5 points.

The race is much closer for second place - which also qualifies for the CNFR. Coach Bob Doty's Western Texas College team is currently in second and won't be easily dislodged. The Westerners have qualified for the finals rodeo eight straight seasons - more than another other college or university in the region.

Western enters Thursday's rodeo with 1,410 points. A close second is Tarleton State with 1,348.5. Fourth is Sul Ross State University with 1,252.5, followed by Howard College with 1,177.5.

The figures are based on each team's best seven rodeos out of the nine already held. After the final rodeo in Stephenville, teams will compile their top seven scores to get season totals.

To improve point standings at Stephenville, the teams must better their lowest score of the seven best. As an example, Western's best seven scores have been a 150, a 290, a 90, a 310, a 210, a 195 and a 165 for a total 1,410. To improve that total, the Westerners must score over 90 points.

Tarleton's scores are a 130, 150, 190, 157.5, 180, 290 and 250. To improve on its 1,348.5 total, TSU must score more than 130 points.

In other words, Tarleton must score 191.5 points to catch Western Texas (130 plus the 61.5 difference between 1,410 and 1,348.5) - provided the Westerners don't score over 90 points. The task is not impossible. Tarleton has scored 290 and 250 points in the last two rodeos.

Coach Doty hopes the Westerners will have a good rodeo, and not be concerned with Tarleton.

"What we want to do is have about a 300-point rodeo and not worry about it," said Coach Doty. A 300-point rodeo from Western would mean Tarleton would have to score 402 to outdistance them.

Sul Ross' lowest score of its best remaining seven is a 110; Howard's is an 80.

Only two major leaguers drew 2,000 or more bases on balls in their career, Babe Ruth and Ted Williams.
