PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

VISIT A PUBLIC SCHOOL
MARCH 2 thru 6!

A few days ago a Fort Worth woman, recently moved to Dallas, took a shot at a man she thought was GORDON McLENDON, candidate for the high office of U. S. Senator from Texas. McLENDON is opposing RALPH YARBOROUGH. I do not know McLENDON. I only know SEN. YARBOROUGH slightly. There is no political propaganda to hand out here but I do appreciate the statement given to the FBI by radio station owner and candidate McLENDON when he said and we quote: "I want to know if she, like LEE HARVEY OSWALD, is not part of that ultra-left wing element which seeks to destroy anything in its path by whatever motive." Just a few months ago we saw our American president shot down—and we have the sorry spectacle of JACK RUBY'S trial in Dallas for the killing, in broad daylight in front of millions of tv viewers of the supposed - to - be assassin — and now we have another "importee" going into Dallas from Fort Worth and trying to shoot up a candidate for the high office of U. S. Senator from Texas. The only reason anybody has been able to figure out to this hour WHY the late PRESIDENT KENNEDY was in Texas on a tour was to bring about peace between the warring Democratic factions. Our late chief is gone but the bickering between the high moguls in Texas continues. The international communist-inspired conspiracy that robbed America of a president has apparently pulled out the guns again. With a former Democratic secretary to the majority taking the "fifth" and with a guy who voted against prayer in public schools heading up an "investigating" committee on the KENNEDY killing, what can you expect? Wake up America!

Senator Speaks At Joint Lions, Rotary Meeting

We will have a story on the arrival in Stanton of two new doctors to be associated with the PHYSICIANS HOSPITAL AND CLINIC next week. ALLEN FISHER, D.O. and SUE FISHER, D.O. will arrive in Stanton this week end and be officially on the staff of the local hospital on Monday morning.

March 2 is Texas Independence Day. We trust those native born Texans and all transplanted Texans find this a day to brush up on our state's colorful and illustrious history. Several snide remarks have floated out of Washington, D. C. about Texas and Texans recently and some of them were made by officials high in government. Let us reason together and not forget that "TEXAS, MY TEXAS" is still our state song and not "The Yellow Rose of Texas." Let us also remember that we owe no living person an apology for being proud of those great patriots that fought and died at the Alamo. Let us also be thankful for the (Continued on page 8)

Chapman Attends Insecticide Meet

Carlton Chapman, Big Spring, flew to Washington, D. C. Sunday for a meeting with Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman, and Dr. B. T. Shaw, Dr. Sloan Jones, Dr. E. F. Knippling with the agricultural research division of the department of agriculture.
The meeting will be for planning, with representatives of the Food and Drug Administration, an effort to have the Texas cotton belt area designated for a pilot program in which new insecticides will be available for cotton producers.
The planning meeting has grown out of a movement started in Big Spring in 1953 when Chapman was chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Agriculture Committee, which resulted in petitions bearing more than 200,000 signatures being sent to Washington requesting release of insecticides to control the ravages of the beet army worm and tobacco bud worm.
The petitions were later circulated in all cotton producing areas of the United States, where insects have become an economical problem, and have drawn almost unanimous support.
Gov. John Connally, Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Sen. John Tower, Congressman George Mahon, Graham Purcell, W. R. Poage, Joe Kilgore, Ed Foreman, and others interested in cotton insect control, have backed the effort and most of them will be present at the meeting set up by Congressman Mahon.
"Incidentally," Chapman said, "Gov. Connally signed the endorsement the day he (Continued on page 8)

The 1964 observance will mark the fourteenth straight year Public School Week has been set aside and observed in Texas.

Car Inspection Deadline Near

"April 15th is the deadline for several things, one of which is having your motor vehicle inspection certificate on your car," warned Major Leo E. Gossett, Commander of the 49 county West Texas Region of the Department of Public Safety.
All motor vehicles are required to display a valid inspection certificate on or before the April 15 deadline. Those who fail to comply with this law are subject to a fine of not less than $1.00 and costs, or more than $200.00 and costs.
Motorists in this area are encouraged to go to an official inspection center soon and have this safety inspection made in order to avoid delay as the deadline nears.

Governor John Connally has issued a special proclamation in recognition of Public School Week, the content of which appears elsewhere in this paper.
The Student Council will be serving as host group in the Stanton High School, and schedules will be prepared for parents wishing to visit in their child's room.
Superintendent Beryl Clinton is mailing invitations to parents in the district, urging them to visit the schools during Public School Week.
Other schools in the county are also inviting the parents to visit classrooms at any time during the week.
Superintendent Elwyn Bass of Grady School stated that his classrooms will be open to visitors, and that an open house is scheduled at the Grady School on March 17 in connection with the regular Parent Teacher meeting. Time (Continued on page 8)

County Judge McCoy Issues Statement

County Judge Jim McCoy has authorized The Stanton Reporter to make the following public statement for the benefit of all contractors anticipating turning in bids for hospital repair.
"The published notice to contractors appearing in the previous issue of the newspaper stating that bids for repair work on the local county owned hospital would be opened on March 9 is to be disregarded.
"Due to circumstances beyond control the commissioners court will be unable to review the bids by the advertised date and too, it will allow the prospective bidders more time to submit their bids.
"Watch the columns of the paper for further notice as to the time, date, and place the commissioners court will receive, and open the bids for consideration."

Curing Poverty

The alleviation of poverty has been a human objective since civilization began. But such a strategic goal must be accomplished by a tactical plan—that is, a method of achieving the desired end.

Henry Hazlitt, one of the clearest writers on economic matters, in a Newsweek article says: "The way to cure poverty is not through inflation, 'share-the-wealth' schemes, and socialism, but by precisely the opposite policies—by the adoption of a system of private property, free trade, free markets, and free enterprise. It was largely because we adopted this system more fully than any other country that we became the most productive . . ."

"The way to combat the remaining pockets of poverty is to keep this system; to reduce government intervention instead of increasing it; to reduce government spending and punitive taxation—in brief, to increase the incentives to the initiative, effort, risk-taking, saving, and investment that increase employment, productivity, and real wages."

It may be that direct government spending of tax money, as is being proposed, is needed in a few distressed areas—but that should be only for a strictly limited time because it can bring only limited and temporary results.

Over the longer period, the natural economic weapons Mr. Hazlitt advocates are precisely the ones we must depend on to do an effective and lasting job.

Health And Safety Tips

From The American Medical Association

Someone sick in your household? Most people who get sick are cared for at home. Only a comparative few become ill enough to require hospitalization. Almost everyone at some time is required to care for a sick friend or relative. Usually care is required for only a day or two, perhaps a week. Sometimes a chronic, long-term illness involved.

Do you know how to care for someone who is sick? There are two primary points to remember — Keep clean and keep cheerful.

Sanitation is highly important around the sick room.

The amateur nurse must remember to wash his or her hands often. Clothing should be laundered frequently and thoroughly. Used towels and cloths should be handled carefully.

The sick person needs a cheerful nurse to help the invalid keep up his morale while getting well. A long, solemn face won't be very good for the patient.

Equally important is a third point — Don't try to diagnose and prescribe. The attendant should obtain careful orders from the doctor, especially with regard to medications.

Sometimes cold packs relieve discomfort, sometimes hot packs are better. Let the doctor decide. Write down his instructions for care and for giving medicines, to avoid error.

Rearrange your household so that the patient has a room to himself, if at all possible. The room should be thoroughly cleaned, and then kept clean and neat.

Ask the doctor about the patient's diet, and follow his directions. Food served fresh and hot, in an appetizing manner, will stimulate the appetite. Avoid laxatives and enemas except on direction of the doctor.

There are home nursing services in many communities today. If you anticipate lengthy care of a patient at home, a nurse is available to come to your home and demonstrate proper methods for home care. You can learn about their availability through your doctor or local health department. Many communities also offer courses in home nursing that are very helpful.

No one wants to be sick. Proper home nursing care can do much to speed recovery.

Lumpy jaw, a serious problem in cattle, is now believed to be affected by heredity, according to research at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station. The work shows that heredity has much to do with the animals' ability to resist the organism causing the disease.

Beef, Pork In Good Supply

Liberal supplies of both beef and pork offer continued good buys at meat counters this week, says Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, extension service consumer marketing specialist.

Smoked pork cuts are featured at many stores, and ham is a good choice. Prices of smoked ham do not fluctuate as much as prices of fresh pork cuts, so compare before buying, the specialist says.

Hams offered in most retail stores today are the fully-cooked type and the cook-before-eating hams. The cooked hams can be served cold or may be reheated. Canned hams are cooked and may be reheated or served cold according to taste preference.

There is no great change in supermarket vegetable supplies from a week ago. Cooking greens — including mustard, turnip greens and collards — are moderately plentiful. Make good use of the turnip as well as the tops, the specialist reminds.

Plentiful vegetable choices this week also include carrots, cauliflower, celery, acorn squash, sweet potatoes, and red potatoes. Supplies of canned corn remain at record levels, and canned tomato products also are plentiful. It's a good time to stock the pantry shelves with these two items.

Quality varies on a decreased but adequate supply of bananas, apples and medium size oranges. Fresh dates are available, and pecans continue plentiful. Avocados are featured in some stores.

Bible Comment—

The Greatness And Power Of Love

The most complete and perfect exposition of the nature, meaning and application of love in daily life is found in Paul's first letter to the Corinthians.

Paul begins by contrasting love with things that men men of good will today is These include fluency and power of speech, the gift of prophecy, wisdom to understand mysteries, a strong faith, and even sacrificial charity. But without love, all these things mean nothing. It is in such terms that Paul reveals the greatness and power of love.

Then he turns to an exposition of love by what it is and what it does. It is kind and long-suffering. In love, there is no place for envy, no place for pride or boasting. Love is never self-seeking. It is the mark of the highest and finest discipline in life. Love has as its allies righteousness and truth, endurance, faith, hope — all of these are the very essence of love.

Love, too, is persistent; it never fails. When prophecies and eloquence are done, and whether not there be knowledge, love will continue, for love is the true goal of all divine purpose and human endeavor. The things that abide are faith, hope and love, but the greatest of these is love.

The greatest task before men of good will today is the conquest of hate. We must do all in our power to end violence, cruelty, and terrorism. But after we defeat the forces and designs of evil, we shall still be far short of a real victory unless we overcome hate with the power of love.

Philosopher Sees Little Promise In New Type Cow That Produces 2 Calves A Year

(Editor's note: The Martin County Philosopher on his grass farm of Mustang Draw starts out on one subject and winds up on another this week.)

A while back I read an article about a farmer who discovered one of his cows was violating the rules of nature, she was having two calves a year instead of one. Not twins, but a calf every six months.

A neighbor of mine said he was very interested in this, if he could raise twice as many calves a year with the same amount of feed and cows, he could clean up. He hoped some of the stock would be available soon.

I'm afraid it won't work out that way. I mean, while it's true for example that man has perfected hybrid grain where he can grow two ears of corn where one grew before, what this has resulted in is not richer corn growers but two government storage warehouses where one stood before.

It might be possible to develop a breed of cow that'd produce two calves a year, but she'd be doing a mighty lot of extra work for nothing, because the two wouldn't bring any more than the one, after all the ranchers got switched over to the new type.

It's sometimes hard to figure out what progress is. I was reading just last night about an expert who was trying to explain to some idealists that it's impossible for new nations in Africa "to leap suddenly from tribal conditions to twentieth-century governments and economies." It's going to take time, he explained.

I guess what he means by this is that new nations which are now accustomed to fighting tribal wars every month or so will have to grow up and learn that modern man now saves up his wars and puts them all together in one major one about every 20 years. It's neater that way and makes history more compact.

I didn't really mean to get started in this direction this week, but there are times when progress seems to consist of getting up in the morning and seeing how many problems you can ignore. I was under the weather for a week and during that time discovered there aren't half as many problems as I imagined, which is a good thing, because now that I'm back on my feet I've discovered there aren't half as many answers to the problems that remain.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Freeze Fish In Ice
To keep fish fresh in a freezer, try putting them in a pan of water first and freezing the entire tray. Next run some warm water over the pan. Out will come the cake of ice—fish and all—in foil and pop it back in the freezer. The frozen water will seal the flavor in.

Bufs Win District Basketball Title

Bufs Outgun Crane, 90-84

Using a go-go-go offense as if they had invented it, the Stanton Buffaloes Friday night walloped the Crane Golden Cranes, 90-84, in the Midland Lee gymnasium for the right to represent District 7-AA in the state-wide basketball playoffs.

The two teams had tied for the district championship with 7-1 records. Enroute to the win, the Buffaloes established a team scoring record for the Lee court and combined with the Cranes to set an overall scoring mark for the gym. The previous high one-team total was scored earlier this month by Midland Lee in an 83-62 romp over Abilene. The gym record was 145 points from the same game.

Showing amazing consistency, and coming up with unexpected bench strength, the Buffaloes managed to stave off a torrid fourth-period rally by the Cranes after building up a 69-59 lead at the three-quarter break.

During the third period, three of the Bison regulars exited from the action via the personal foul route. But the reserves, including a pair of freshmen — Allen Springer and Buddy Shanks — came through in the clutch and the Buffaloes managed to fend off the surging Cranes.

The biggest lead of the ball game was an 11-point edge 87-71 late in the final period. The point which put the Buffaloes out of reach was scored from the charity line by Stanton's Donnie Thompson.

Score by periods:
Crane 21 21 17 25—84
Stanton 23 23 21—90
Officials: Pete Creasey, Midland, Lou Turlo, Odessa.

Crane led all scorers, pouring 10 of 15 shots from the field through the hoop and hitting on eight of 12 from the foul line for a total of 28 points. Six-one and one-half Mike Robbins also scored 22 in the losing cause while Bob McKay chipped in with 13 and Richard Hayes meshed 11.

Thompson, six-foot sharpshooter for the Buffaloes, paced the winning cause with nine of 15 from the field and four of four from the 15-foot line for 22 points. Ronald Hartsell, five-11, was next high with 18 points, Larry Merrifield canned 17 and Mickey Allen and James Lewis each scored 13 in the winning cause.

The Buffaloes hit a remarkable 49.3 from the field in the strange surroundings and connected on 22 of 27 charity tosses for an 81.5 per cent average. Crane hit 46.3 per cent from outside, but had a measly 57.9 per cent from the charity line on connections of only 22 of 38 attempts.

BATTLE FOR REBOUND—Two Cranes, Conrad Lee (41) and unidentified player, battle Stanton's James Lewis (15) for rebound in playoff game at Midland Lee gym Friday night. Stanton beat Crane, 90-84 for right to represent District 7-AA in state playoffs.

ON FIRING LINE—James Lewis (15) fires away for Stanton Buffaloes during playoff game at Midland Lee gym Friday night for right to represent District 7-AA in state playoffs. Guarding for Crane Golden Cranes is Conrad Lee while Mickey Allen (14) watches progress. Stanton won, 90-84.

- But Buffs Defeated By Comanche

Stanton lost the Class AA bi-district play-off to Comanche Monday night in Abilene by a score of 69-59.

The Indians won the right to compete in the regional tournament and Coach Doyle Edmiston's players 24-game victory sweep came to an end. The Buffs need not apologize for their season's performance. The local basketball club turned in the most successful season in more than 15 years. The coaches and players deserve the plaudits of the town.

Ronnie Hartsell was high point man in the Comanche game with 22. James Lewis notched 19 points and Thompson tabulated 18 points for the Buffaloes.

In a conversation with Coach Edmiston the request was made by him that the newspaper thank the sports enthusiasts for their loyalty to the team and their backing.

The newspaper, upon behalf of the community, wants to thank you, Coach Edmiston and your fine assistants for bringing the team along in such a manner as to cast honor, good sportsmanship, and distinction to our town and county.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

Congressional redistricting is the prime topic of conversation at the state capitol.

U. S. Supreme Court shook up officials with a landmark ruling in Georgia's apportionment case. Court proclaimed that congressional districts must be as nearly equal in population as is feasible. On October 19 a federal court in Houston held essentially the same thing in a Texas case. It declared that unless the state legislature straightens out present unequal districts immediately, all Texas congressmen must run at large (statewide).

Texas congressmen, state legislators and top state officials are keeping their fingers crossed, as they await the Supreme Court's final decision in the Texas appeal. Main hope is that the court will delay the requirement of at-large elections this year and leave present districts intact since the election process already is under way. This would give the Legislature a chance to draft a redistricting bill in regular session next year.

These principal developments followed the Georgia case decision:

1. Attorney General Waggoner Carr filed a new brief asking a full hearing of the Texas appeal. He argued that "indescribable chaos and confusion" would result from statewide election of congressmen this year.
2. Gov. John Connally requested a study of redistricting by Texas Legislative Council. Such a study would necessarily include drafting of model bills. (Equal population for Texas' 23 districts would call for 416,000 in each.)
3. Texas congressmen themselves launched plans for special federal legislation to preserve present districts until the regular legislative session in 1965.

Governor Connally has made clear that if the Supreme Court affirms the Houston court ruling, he will call a special session immediately to try and bring some order out of the "indescribable chaos" referred to in Carr's brief.

Whether the Legislature would pass a suitable redistricting bill in a special session is a serious question.

Redistricting issue definitely is going to figure in the governor's race. Connally already has been criticized for not calling the legislators in to work on the problem months ago. Issue also will be raised in some district contest as challengers charge incumbent legislators with failure to handle the matter in the regular session last year.

New Highway Maps Out — Brand new colorful 1964 official Texas highway maps now are available on request.

Texas Highway Department has made every effort to produce a more readable and convenient map. Type faces are bolder, and the national standard system of highway symbols has been followed in nearly all instances. Almost 7,000 miles of farm-to-market roads were deleted because of increasing complexity of the Texas highway system. Communities of less than 250 are not shown.

New map includes Ranch Road No. 1. It's the four-mile loop in Gillespie County leaving from U. S. 290 to the ranch home of President Lyndon Johnson.

Free maps may be obtained from the Travel and Information Division of the Highway Department in Austin.

Oil Allowable — Railroad Commission ordered prorated oil wells to continue on a 25 per cent of capacity allowable in March. But even though February production at 29 per cent averaged an estimated 2,557,662 daily production, and although March will contain two more days than the 29-day February, production will be less.

Commission's staff predicted production will be down about 6,000 barrels a day. Reason, according to some members of the oil industry, is that increased production from new wells is more than offset by under production from old wells.

Garner Park Safe — Executive Director J. Weldon Watson of the State Parks and Wildlife Department dispelled the rumors that Garner State Park at Uvalde will be closed. He said Garner is the most-used in the state parks system, and there is no thought of closing it.

Parks and Wildlife Commission announced that plans and specifications are being developed for extensive improvements at Davis Mountain State Park.

Beaumont Court Candidates Gain Stay — A ruling by Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr gave candidates for associate justice in the 9th Court of Civil Appeals in Beaumont until March 2 to file.

The late Judge W. T. Neill of that court died on February 7, four days after the filing deadline. He was the only candidate for the post.

Higher Education — Governor Connally's Committee on Education Beyond the High School held the first of a series of closed-door sessions in which it hopes to produce a policy recommendation on higher education by August 31.

Chairman H. B. Zachry of San Antonio said the most debated issue at this meeting was the need for a single strong coordinating authority for all public higher education in Texas.

Water Projects Spurred — State Water Development Board approved an $8,200,000 loan and a $2,100,000 purchase agreement for Green Belt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority, which covers Childress, Quanah, Clarendon, Crowell and Hedley.

Green Belt authorities hope to gain a peaceful settlement of notices of appeal filed by Collingsworth Water Conservation District No. 1 and the W. J. Lewis estate, which owns most of the land which would be covered by the proposed Green Belt reservoir.

Water Development Board also approved a master agreement with the Sabie River Authority for purchase of an undivided interest in storage space of the Toledo Bend Reservoir for $15,000,000.

On the same day, W. E. "Buck" Tinsley of Austin was appointed chairman of the board by Governor Connally. Tinsley has been acting chairman for several months since the resignation of Marvin Nichols of Fort Worth.

Distributive Education — Texas Education Agency said it expects more than 800 high school students from across the state to gather in San Antonio on February 28-29 for the 18th Annual Youth Leadership Conference of Distributive Education Clubs.

"Distributive Education" is a plan wherein high school students attend class in the mornings, and put their knowledge to practice in afternoon.

Tourist Spending in Texas Tops Record — Tourist spending in Texas climbed to $532,000,000 last year, breaking all previous records.

To help keep the tourist dollars rolling in, Texas Tourist Development announced invitations to 36 leading travel writers to take a 1600-mile tour of points of interest in the state. Tour will take them to Six Flags Over Texas, the LBJ Ranch, San Marcos, Aquarena, San Antonio, Hill Country guest ranches, Corpus Christi, Padre Island, McAllen, Reynosa, East Texas parks and forests, Lufkin, Nacogdoches, Houston, and NASA's Manned Spacecraft Center.

Attorney general has ruled that the agency may use its funds to advertise by radio, television, billboards and other media, as well as newspapers and magazines. While it can use newspapers and magazines of national circulation only, no such limitation applies to selection of radio, television or billboards.

Dredging Rule Altered — State Parks and Wildlife Department modified its controversial order permitting shell dredging within 300 feet of live oyster reefs. It authorized Executive Director J. Weldon Watson to order dredgers to move away from reefs anytime they see evidence of "serious siltation damage."

At the same time, the department reversed another controversial decision authorizing net fishing in St. Charles, Port and Copano Bays. Use of trammel nets, drag seines, strike nets, and gill nets now are prohibited in the waters.

State Rep. Robert Eckhardt of Houston and Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston demanded new hearings on the dredging hassle. Eckhardt, attorney in a lawsuit to nullify the October 24 order which struck down a long-standing 1,500-foot-from-reefs limit for the dredgers, also seeks an appeal.

Courts Speak — State Supreme Court ruled the Port Arthur school district, in constructing an elementary school on its land within the City of Groves, must comply with Groves building ordinances. Decision upheld the Court of Civil Appeals in a long controversy.

Trial of Filiberto Salinas, former Starr County deputy sheriff, charged with absentee ballot irregularities in 1962, was set for March 23 in county court at law here. Alonzo Hinojosa, an ex Starr County road foreman, pleaded no contest to one of nine counts involving a similar alleged offense, and was fined $400. State contends they had migrant workers sign absentee ballot requests.

Liquor - By - Drink Vote Sought — A San Antonio lawmaker, Rep. Jake Johnson, has called on executive committees of both Democratic and Republican parties to submit to a May 2 vote whether the sale of mixed drinks should be legalized.

Come what may with the referendum (which would have no binding effect), Johnson plans to try again in the Legislature next year — if he is re-elected — to pass a local option bill permitting open sale of liquor over the bar.

Party spokesmen had little comment to make on the referendum proposal beyond noting that both executive committees are due to meet here on March 9. A horse race betting vote was taken on petition in 1962 — and the issue defeated.

Short Snorts — Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association President E. Bruce Street announced a special drafting subcommittee is developing a preliminary outline on a pooling bill which protects interests of the small operator and royalty and mineral owners in forming drilling units. . . . Applications of these proposed banks will be considered at a March 5 meeting of the Texas Banking Board; Granbury State Bank, Guaranty Bank of Lubbock, First Bank and Trust Company of Austin and Texas State Bank of Abilene. . . . More Texas Ducks Soar Northward

The best potential breeding population of ducks in several years will leave Texas' sprawling waterfowl wintering grounds this spring for their northern nesting areas.

Official surveys show that the general southward migration increase last fall has been maintained in the interim by good water and food conditions mainly along the Gulf coast where the bulk of the waterfowl spend the winter.

"Therefore," said Al Springs, wildlife coordinator for the Parks and Wildlife Department, "if the improved nesting conditions prevailing last year continue this summer, we naturally may expect an equal or even better duck crop for the 1964 fall harvest."

Springs credited comparatively tight flyway hunting regulations, based on modern management techniques, for sustaining the upward population trend.

He stressed that the season length and bag limits still were restricted last fall. However, there was some relaxation to justify the duck hunter's taking down his favorite musket and trying a shot or two at some low-flying ducks.

The possession limit was doubled from four ducks to eight and the daily bag limit on mallards was raised from one to two.

In fact, the comeback of the popular mallard was described by Springs as "a very promising development." He said the latest mid-winter survey indicated a substantial increase in the Texas mallard population.

Pintails, teal and widgeons were up slightly but scaup totals were "way off," said Springs. He said the comparatively lower numbers could

'64 Corvair Monza by Chevrolet

Some cars do best on the highway. Others seem tailor-made for city driving.

Then there's Corvair—that gets along just great most anywhere. Swishing along a highway. Scurrying around in traffic. Or wading through a soggy trail.

Take highway driving. Corvair's got a bigger new engine with horsepower up nearly 19% in the standard version. But in case figures don't impress you, just wait until you head a Corvair for some far-away places. You'll get the message.

Take city driving. Corvair's trim size, light steering (because the engine weight's in the rear) and flat cornering make anything from rush-hour driving to parking a cinch.

Take back-road driving. The weight of Corvair's engine bearing down on the rear wheels gives them remarkable gripping power on most any surface, whether it's loose, solid, dry, wet—or even snow covered.

Something else you can take note of, too: There's no radiator to overheat or run dry. No hoses to check or replace. No need for antifreeze. The engine's air cooled.

Beginning to sound like a car you can really warm up to? Then there's only one thing left to take a ride in one at your Chevrolet dealer's.

MARCH 2nd thru 6th!

WE of Martin County and especially those of us who call Stanton home are proud of our District 7-AA basketball champions. It was about fifteen years ago when the Buffaloes checked out their last championship flag. Our authority for that fact is a two-fold one — BENNY WELCH and the files of the OLE RELIABLE STANTON REPORTER. Our live conversation with BENNY was much more revealing and vivid than the cold type we found in the back issue of the newspaper. BENNY remembered most of the squad members who brought basketball honor and glory to SHS. The locals went to the state tournament after winning the district, bi-district, and regional, and there the lads turned in good performances before being eliminated. Just for old times sake we want to call the roll of the players on the team that went to the state fifteen years or so ago. Here they are: LEROY (RED) GIBSON, EARL and GERALD KOONCE, KENNETH HENSON, BOBBY McCLAIN, JAMES TUNNELL and FRED CHURCH.

BOBBY BAKER, for 20 years a senate employee, onetime page boy, and now reported to be worth more than two million dollars—personal fortune—made or acquired while on the government payroll, hid behind the fifth amendment while appearing before the U. S. Senate Committee investigating the "hi-fi" present giving guy this week in Washington. BAKER resigned last October. His salary at the time was reported at $19,600 a year. Now follow West Texans—how about that?

J. A. WILSON, local merchant, has been doing business in this area for many years. He is a successful businessman and he has seen good times and bad times but he never broke out a crying towel when the cash register didn't ring as often as it did in better days. WILSON has operated a store through storms, droughts, near hurricanes, a pair of depressions, through two or three wars, and in days of prosperity. He never was one to send off to a mail order house for a phonograph record titled, "Over the Hill to the Poorhouse" and sit around and listen to it play while the birds built roosting places in the ceiling of his store. He bought wisely in the market, sold at a fair margin of profit, and advertised in the newspaper. By-the-way, thanks MR. WILSON for telling MAC the kind of a good paper you think we are operating for the people of Martin County.

JUDGE JIM McCOY advised us this week that since a member of the McCOY clan has been selected as one of the jurors in the JACK RUBY trial in Dallas that he saw no possibility of the case being transferred out to Martin County. We are kidding of course.

CONGRATULATIONS to the STANTON HIGH basketball teams and their coaches. The boys and girls groups both won district championships. That's simply grand.

THE REBEKAHS will sponsor a Mexican Supper Saturday night. The meal will be ready about 5 p.m. The charge will be only $1. Be sure and patronize the ladies and help them make the supper a successful financial venture.

MRS. FLOYD SORLEY told us the other evening that she missed the paper while in the local hospital. We will remedy that this week. We intend to start leaving some free copies up there for distribution to the patients.

MRS. JOHN GRAVES expressed personal appreciation for the news items carried in the local paper about PHYSICIANS hospital activities. Thanks MRS. GRAVES and it was nice of you to pass a compliment along for the local press. We do try and do our level best.

Carolyn Cline Bride Of Richard Barnes

Wedding vows were said by Miss Carolyn Jo Cline and Richard Barnes in a double ring ceremony beneath an arch of greenery in Calvary Baptist Church in Colorado City at 7:30 p.m. on February 15. Rev. Neil Rogers officiated.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cline of Lorraine, a mother of the groom is Mrs. I. T. Barnes of Stanton.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white brocade suit and carried a bouquet of gardenias on a white ribbon.

Wedding music, "The Bridal March," "Forever," and "Always," was played by Mrs. Neil Rogers. Mrs. Wayne No-well of Colorado City, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of red silk and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Best man was Johnny Barnes of Stanton, brother of the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church. The bride's table was laid in white linen cloth and lace net. Appointments were of silver.

For traveling the bride wore a beige linen shift with brown accessories.

The couple will live in Stanton, where both are employed.

Local TSTA To Meet At Grady March 3

The local Martin County Texas State Teacher's Association unit will meet at Grady, in the Grady Cafeteria on Tuesday, March 3.

Tentative program will include a one act play to be presented by the sixth period drama class of Stanton High School.

Also slated is installation of officers.

All teachers in the county are urged to attend the meeting.

Chapman

(Continued from page 1) was shot, November 22. But he has kept up with the move and is behind our efforts.

Chapman met with a group in Kansas City recently, in which producers not peculiar to the Plains area were present, and who reported difficulties in getting effective insecticides. It is a problem all over the nation, he said.

Major chemical company representatives attended a meeting in Lubbock last Thursday and Friday. Chapman, who attended, said they assured him that effective chemicals, already tested and proven, would be released to cotton producers if approved by the department of agriculture and a special dispensation obtained for their use.

"The insecticides used for control in all crops," Chapman said, "affect only five per cent of the total land area of the United States." Only one in 28 persons owning land is a bona fide farmer or ranchman. Yet this small area may suffer terrific economic losses if insects cannot be controlled.

The tobacco bud worm and beet army worm have migrated to all cotton areas of the nation, and insecticides formerly used are no longer effective. The insects have developed an immunity to them, Chapman continued.

"The meeting next week is the climax to a year's work," he said. "We feel that the economy of the cotton producing area of the Plains, as well as other areas, will depend upon the outcome of the meeting. The establishment, somewhere in the Panhandle, of a research center for testing the effectiveness of new insecticides will be determined by the action of the FDA in allowing the release of the chemicals."

Schools

Principal Leslie Hays, Jr., of Courtney Schools, said Courtney classrooms will be open to parents, friends, and other interested persons during Public School Week.

There are three divisions in our local school: Elementary, Junior High, and Senior High. J. M. Yater is principal for the elementary and junior high schools, and Bill Johnson is principal for senior high. (There are 47 teachers in the Stanton school system, including three girls coaches and five boys coaches.)

The student body keeps busy participating in sports, civic affairs, and recreation in the school system. Each of these activities is sponsored by an adult teacher or coach. The school provides the students with a gymnasium, auditorium, band hall, agriculture building, homemaking department, science laboratory, and library.

Two cafeterias in the school system provide hot lunches for the students and teachers daily, and Superintendent Clinton announced that the cafeteria will also be open next week to anyone wishing to have lunch at school.

Principal Bill Johnson stated that due to the teacher's meeting in Midland, there will be no school on Friday, but regular classes will be in progress from March 2 through the 5th, and parents are invited to visit at any time.

A planned tour of all county schools will be sponsored under the direction of County School Superintendent, Jim McCoy.

The tour will begin at Stanton Elementary School at 9:00 a.m. and persons interested will tour all schools, either by car or bus, having lunch at Grady, and finishing the tour with an afternoon visit to the Flower Grove school.

Everyone is invited to make the tour, and perhaps through the visitation, suggestions will be forthcoming that will improve the educational opportunities for the children of Martin County.

Official Memorandum

By JOHN CONNALLY
Governor of Texas

AUSTIN, TEXAS

GREETINGS:

Special observance of increased emphasis on our education system has been marked annually for fourteen years by a Public Schools Week in Texas.

During this period, parents are encouraged to visit the public schools, and all citizens are urged through special programs to recognize the tremendous importance of our system of education. Our goal is to make Texas public schools the finest in the Nation, and to achieve this our citizens are urged to take an active interest in the school systems and to cooperate with their school boards, superintendents, principals and teachers.

Never before in our history has there been a greater need for educated leadership. As we rush to train young people in science and technology to keep pace with world events, it is also important to remember that our public schools will furnish our leaders tomorrow with the basic human, moral and spiritual foundations necessary for more advanced training and knowledge.

WHEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the period of March 2-6, 1964, as PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK in Texas.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 16th day of December, 1963.

JOHN CONNALLY,
Governor of Texas.
