City Council Approves UR Phase Two

Mayor Breaks Tie In Close Council Vote

The Stanton City Council approved Phase Two of the Urban Renewal program as outlined for the south and southwest sections of town at a meeting Monday night.

The special session was held immediately after approximately 50 persons showed up for the hearing which included a discussion of the plan in the Martin County Courtroom.

Mayor S. W. Wheeler voted to break a two-two tie on the question of the approval. He cast his ballot for approval and the Phase Two operation had the green light.

Councilman Ed Robnett was absent when Sam Houston and Albert Johnson voted against adoption of approval and Councilmen Delbert Franklin and Jull Reid voted for the program. It was then that the mayor broke the tie.

City Secretary Harvey White said the plan would go into effect "as soon as the red tape is unbound."

The area included in Phase Two runs roughly down an alley beginning immediately behind Henson's Grocery at the corner of Highway 80 and College Street to a point eastward to Convent Street. From Convent Street the boundary dips into St. Theresa then goes back to Convent and on to Bell, the last city street in the southwest part of Stanton.

From Bell Street in the south the area line goes to the Lamesa highway. Two northerly blocks from the original alley starting (Continued on page 8)

Homemade Heating Unit Causes Fire

A resident in south Stanton found out the hard way early Wednesday morning that his homemade heating system wouldn't work.

The Stanton fire department answered an alarm to the scene of the fire on Cemetery Road at 6:25 a.m. Smoke was rolling from the house and it was thought an electrical short had caused the fire. Not so at all. When the power was cut the real cause of the blaze was discovered.

A tin tub containing hot coals resting on the floor was identified by firemen as the fire starter. A small amount of water killed the flame and the homemade heating system removed to the outside—a flat failure.

Plans Being Readied For Rock Show

Guy Brown, chairman for the first Martin County Gem and Mineral Show to be held in the county, advised the newspaper Wednesday that plans are progressing for one of the finest initial exhibitions to be seen in this section of Texas.

Texas Electric Reduces Rates Here

Texas Electric Service Company has submitted a proposal to the city council for both a voluntary reduction in electric service rates in the City of Stanton and an increase in street and alley payments by the company to the city and it has been accepted.

The principal changes proposed and approved by councilmen in rates are a reduction in the rate applicable to residential customers, additional promotional features to encourage increased residential use in winter months, and the addition of a new rate for all-electric homes. All residential customers using more than 65-kilowatt-hours in a month will be benefited. These changes will result in a reduction in excess of five per cent in the annual revenues from customers of the company on residential rates.

The rate adjustment made by the company in 1963 was proportionately larger for the below average residential user. The benefits under the new rates are proportionately larger to the above average residential customer such as those with summer air conditioning in their homes.

Other proposed changes in rates will reduce the minimum bills under the large general service rate and bills for some public schools. No electric service bills will be increased by the revised schedule of rates.

Cecil Bridges, manager of the Texas Electric Service Company said: "The rate reduction is a continuation of the long-established policy of Texas Electric Service Company to voluntarily reduce electric rates from time to time as conditions permit."

The street and alley rental payments to the City of Stanton are presently based on 2 per cent of the gross revenues received from the sale of all electricity within the corporation. (Continued on page 8)

By NEAL ESTES
Lung cancer stilled the voice of singer NAT KING COLE this week in a California hospital. The velvet-voiced Negro native of Birmingham, Alabama was 45 at the time of his death. COLE owned a unique singing style and his gentle personality made him one of the entertainment world's finest stars. NAT'S father was a Baptist preacher and she gave her son his early training in music. COLE was tagged "KING" while performing in a night club in Chicago one evening. A man in the audience walked up and placed a gilded cardboard tiara on his head and was called NAT KING COLE. The numbers your writer thought were COLE'S best include: "Ramble Rose," "Mona Lisa," and "Those Lazy, Hazy, Crazy Days of Summer." Truly, the fine singer was a credit to his race and a good dedicated American.

Stanton voters will get their first dividend because of having paid their 1965 poll tax at the election here Saturday, the 27th. The dividend being their right to vote. A $125,000 bond issue is up for consideration by the qualified, property owners who have poll receipts. The municipal election and the school board elections will soon be on the agenda.

It is the studied opinion of your writer that men elected to state offices in Texas should serve faithfully and well in the place they have been chosen for by the Texas voters. I have nothing but disdain for a man who starts running for a higher office a few short months after getting a nice majority at the ballot boxes for the office he now holds. Let's get on with statehood in Austin and forget the personal political ambitions for awhile. I'm very proud that WAGGONER CARR is adequately running the state's law office and apparently is content to leave the other elected notables to do the "politicizing."

Very little is being heard of smiling HHH these days. PRESIDENT JOHNSON, recovering from a cold, and running the shooting hot war in Viet Nam, has his hands full without listening to the critics who raised Cain with him for not sending the native of Minnesota to CHURCHILL'S funeral. It might astound some of our readers to learn it but we pray for LYNDON JOHNSON daily. One thing for sure about LYNDON—he is a man who will change his views if the emergency arises. On that score, HHH is untried.

The old show business legend of deaths coming in threes took another stride with the passing of NAT KING COLE. So far in 1965 three show business personalities have died, and all were from the music world—JEANETTE McDONALD, ART KASSELL, and COLE.

Congratulations are in order again this week for J. EDGAR HOOVER and the FBI. HOOVER'S agents seized four persons on charges of conspiring to blow up the WASHINGTON MONUMENT, the STATUE OF LIBERTY and the LIBERTY BELL. Three Negroes and one white Canadian woman were arrested in New York City. A quantity of dynamite and blasting caps was discovered, a part of a cache being accumulated by the conspirators as part of the plot to destroy the famous American historical landmarks. GREETINGS:

The Future Farmers of America organization is playing an outstanding role in assuring the future progress and prosperity of our State and Nation.

The importance of agriculture in our State increases as Texas progresses, and it is vital to our well-being that we train skilled farmers and ranchers to provide a plentiful supply of food products in years to come.

Big Spring Skeleton Is Identified By Chemists

Texas Department of Public Safety chemists have identified the skeleton of a man found about two miles from Big Spring as a former Big Spring State Hospital patient.

The man was Enrique Pascale, 34, of El Paso. The patient has been missing from the hospital since Jan. 9 when he left wearing little or no clothing. Hospital officials say they have been looking for him since. Speculation was that the man, a former tuberculosis patient, died of exposure, but there had been no ruling in his death. Temperatures that night of Jan. 9 were in the 20s.

The DPS chemist identified the man from fingerprints taken from his withered left hand. The man's body was found a mile and a half to two miles south and west of the hospital — a month and a day after his disappearance. Hospital officials said he was a harmless, inoffensive patient who had been on furlough on numerous occasions. He had been in and out of the hospital since 1948. He was readmitted Aug. 15, 1963. In May 1964, he walked off from the hospital, returning voluntarily three days later.

Hospital officials said his mental illness prevented orienting himself as to directions and said a person in this condition may walk around in circles. The man's body was found in a rough country near a dry salt lake.

Bible Comment—

Jesus's Prayers Gave Simon Peter Added Strength

There are some men so settled in their ways that they seldom change under any circumstances. Their attitudes and reactions are so predictable that we could easily foretell their course of action in many situations. They are very necessary in our society but also they are usually very dull, unimaginative people who are not interesting to talk to. Not much ever happens to these people. And then there is the other type, the unpredictable person. He usually is a man of superior intelligence and ability with many interests and a vast store of energy. Such a man was the apostle Simon Peter. Extremely impulsive, very intense, he was always ready to risk everything on the outcome of a great adventure. When his plans seemed to fail, Peter was also very gloomy and disappointed. Although his name was Simon, Jesus called him Peter "the Rock." This nickname was a symbol of the thing Peter became as he grew older and more active in the new church. Peter did not realize some of the weakness inherent in his impulsive personality. But Jesus did. He saw through the tendencies to boast and Peter's burning desire to be first. So Jesus prayed for Peter and those prayers became the sources of Peter's strength and his salvation. Peter bragged that he would not deny Jesus. He vowed he would not, even though everyone else might do so. But it was a penitent Peter who humbled himself by weeping later when he broke his vow, not once, but three times. We must always remember that the Christ who prayed for Peter, prayed for all of us. He too, can be our salvation and strength.

Mrs. J. E. Falls of Snyder, returned home Wednesday afternoon after visiting a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Eiland, and her brother, Guy Eiland, and Mrs. Eiland.

Miss Margie Richards entertained a group of friends with a dinner Tuesday at her home. Margie, who was formerly deputy county clerk, left Thursday for Lubbock, where she reported for active service in the WAACs. The menu consisted of roast and gravy, mashed potatoes with grated cheese, green beans, cauliflower, vegetable salad, olives, pickles, hot biscuits, and cherry cream pie with hot tea. Those present were: Irene Barker, Kathleen McCreless, Erlene Peters, Nina and Bernice Cason, Sammie Laws, Mrs. W. E. Milam, and Mrs. P. M. Bristow, II.

S Sgt. "Buck" Henson, stationed at the Amarillo Air Field, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henson, here the first of this week. Buck is in the physical training department at the air field. Having been a stellar football and baseball player in his high school days, and high school coach following his graduation at Howard Payne College, makes him fit admirably in this section of the training course.

Following several months going along without a regular pastor, relying on pastors from various points in West Texas to fill the pulpit on Sundays, the Baptist Church in Stanton held its first services Sunday with a regular pastor officiating. Rev. Charles Torrence of Hamlin, is the new preacher. He and his wife are occupying the Baptist parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Priddy, Jr., were down from Lubbock to spend the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Priddy. John F. is finishing his training at the Lubbock Army Air Field and due to get his wings soon.

Henry Hazlett writes in Newsweek: "The Federal government is spending 167 times as much in a single year as it was in the year before we entered World War I. Will every President, every year, be expected to think up more and more functions for the Federal government to take over from the private sector to the 'public sector,' until there is no private sector or initiative left?"

Agriculture - Our American Heritage

When Columbus landed in America, he never realized that he had discovered a continent so vast and so full of riches. Riches in terms of raw materials, minerals, and millions of acres of fertile soil. After the colony of Jamestown was established in 1607, the people didn't take advantage of the food nature had provided for them. In the winter of 1609 the whole colony nearly starved, and the remaining survivors abandoned Jamestown for relief ships. Unlike the people of Jamestown, the people of the Plymouth Colony worked hard and through help from the friendly Indians grew food and provided adequate shelter for their families. They used the talents God had given them to harvest the many benefits of nature. Although the Indians had been using the land and raw materials for many years, these people paved the way for the freedom and the many benefits we now enjoy. They opened the door to a new country and to a new way of life, and agriculture, our American Heritage, was the key that opened that door.

The spark that brought agriculture back to life came with the invention of the gasoline engine. At the turn of the century many inventions had already been made to aid in harvesting and planting crops. These new inventions coupled to gasoline power rejuvenated the whole industry. New industries created by agriculture seemed to be booming all over the country. World War I put a tremendous strain on the farmers, and much study was devoted to ways of increasing production. After the war the whole country was involved in a terrible depression that completely wiped out many farmers. From that time on the people that remained on the farm became very aware of the fact that good management was the key to success. The government began programs to aid in soil conservation and experimentation, and within a few years agriculture was reaching new heights in production and quality.

Today the modern farmer is constantly having to compete for his livelihood. Agriculture, whether farming or ranching, is a highly complex and very demanding occupation. The number of farms and ranches is continuously decreasing, but the size is constantly increasing. The use of new and improved methods is a prime factor in good management. Yes, agriculture has come a very long way, and through agriculture our country has proved itself to be great in every respect.

The future of our country will directly be affected by the progress we make in agriculture. The future of agriculture will be in the hands of the youth of our nation, and it will be up to us to strive for improvement in every phase of agriculture. The challenge is ours to make of it what we can through labor and God's help. Our forefathers set the example for us to follow, and through their hard work and sacrifices life has been made much easier. They fought and died for the country they loved and for the one thing that helped make our country great. They believed in agriculture, and they believed in our American Heritage.

Whooper Has Surgery For Broken Wing

Ganus, a young male whooping crane, may fly again, thanks to the first known successful operation ever performed on a whooper.

The U. S. Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife said the young crane was placed under an anesthetic and underwent a three-hour operation for a compound fracture of the upper bone of the right wing.

Dr. James Creed of the school of veterinary medicine at Colorado State University wired the fracture together by inserting a stainless steel wire and pin into the wing. Ganus, so named because he was found in Canada and flown to the United States for treatment, is one of only 50 whooping cranes in the world. Forty-two are at the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge in Texas and seven are in the Audubon Park Zoo in New Orleans.

Officials said the wing would have been amputated in normal practice on another bird. But they said because of the near extinction of the species, the operation was attempted.

A whooping crane needs both wings for balance in mating.

The bird now will be flown to the Monte Vista Wildlife Research Station in Colorado where a U. S. Interior Department spokesman said the bird would "convalesce."

Glasscock Schools Talk First Building Since '37

Glasscock County Independent School District has an election for Saturday to issue $175,000 bonds for a school plant improvement project.

The improvements include the construction of six new elementary classrooms and an additional office, enlargement and improvement of the present high school auditorium, remodeling of the high school heating system, modernization of lighting in the elementary school and other improvements.

The bond issue would require a raise in taxes.

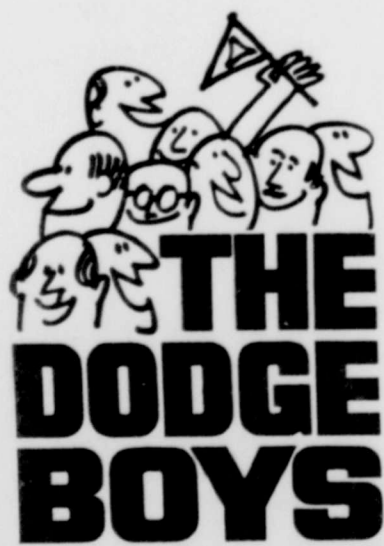

If voters approve the bond issue, the construction will be the first since 1937 when the high school was built. The elementary school was erected in 1930.

Voting will be in the Glasscock County courthouse, Lee's Community Club House, the Community Hall at St. Laurence and R. T. Duncan residence.

Official Memorandum

By JOHN CONNALLY
Governor of Texas

AUSTIN, TEXAS

GREETINGS:

Special observance of increased emphasis on our education system has been marked annually for fifteen years as Public Schools Week in Texas.

During this period, parents are encouraged to visit the public schools, and all citizens are urged through special programs to recognize the tremendous importance of our system of education. Our goal is to make Texas public schools the finest in the Nation, and to achieve this our citizens are urged to take an active interest in the school systems and to cooperate with their school boards, superintendents, principals and teachers.

Never before in our history has there been a greater need for educated leadership. As we rush to train young people in science and technology to keep pace with world events, it is also important to remember that our public schools will furnish our tomorrow's leaders with the basic human, moral and spiritual foundations necessary for more advanced training and knowledge.

THEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the period of March 1-5, 1965, as PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK
in Texas.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 28th day of January, 1965.

(SEAL) JOHN CONNALLY
Governor of Texas

Library Lines

MRS. RALPH CAFFEY,
Librarian

The library has had some special visitors recently. The fourth and fifth grade classes of Mrs. Christine Steward of the colored school, came in to learn about the library and how to use it.

Brownie Troop No. 404 with Mrs. Clyde White and Mrs. Calvin Cook as leaders, were also recent visitors. Any group is welcome to come in, a call first would help however.

Anyone interested in federal aid to education, would appreciate the recent publication the library received from Representative George Mahon entitled "The Federal Government and Education."

Life magazine has just published a special newsbook about the unforgettable Winston Churchill, giant of the century. It contains in color the pump and grandeur of the funeral and the epic of his extraordinary life and times. This will be of value for research papers.

The library has need of information concerning the whereabouts of a research paper prepared by Dorothy Hamilton in years gone by. The material would be of invaluable help to present students if anyone happens to know where this paper might be found. The library phone number is SK 6-2472.

Last year during the open house of the library, some money was given for some shelving. After finally determining what type was most needed, Mr. Tommy Hursh has been good enough to donate his labor and time to build them. Soon they will be ready for placing books in them and will surely help the overcrowded sections in some areas. Our greatest need now is getting all the books on the shelves catalogued so students can easily locate the books they need.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

Education still rates top priority in the state capital. But it was viewed in a new light after Gov. John Connally revealed his program to the State Legislature.

Connally took the suggestions of his Committee on Education Beyond the High School that a strong coordinating board be created to administer state colleges and universities. He adopted its plan to put public junior colleges under that board and then told the Legislators the state would assume full financing of instructional costs of junior college academic programs.

Three Board College System — Real surprise in Connally's approach to higher education came in his proposal that all existing college and university boards of regents be abolished and the higher education institutions be re-grouped into three systems.

Even this idea held an added surprise, since Connally recommended establishment of an agricultural and technical university in San Antonio, to serve all of South Texas.

Under the three system approach, there would be a University of Texas System composed of the University of Texas in Austin, Texas Western College, Arlington State College, North Texas State University, Texas Woman's University, University of Houston, Texas Southern University and all medical and dental units.

Texas State University System would consist of A&M University, Texas Technological College, Prairie View A&M College, Tarleton State College, Lamar State College of Technology, Texas A&I College, and the proposed San Antonio university.

A State Senior College System would include Midwestern University, Pan American College, East Texas State College, Sam Houston State Teachers' College, Southwest Texas State College, West Texas State University, Stephen F. Austin State College, Sul Ross State College and Angelo State College.

Adult Illiterate Classes — Going for higher education to the most basic sort of education, Connally told the Legislature that 13 per cent of the citizens in Texas over age 25 are functionally illiterate. He recommended that this situation be met with a program administered by the Texas Education Agency under the Poverty Act. It would offer basic education courses in public schools to at least 10,000 functional illiterates each year.

Governor also asked that vocational and technical education programs in public schools and junior colleges be stepped up to meet coming employment requirements.

Teacher's Pay — Connally by-passed a bill by TSTA designed to raise minimum teachers' pay by $45 a month. Instead, he endorsed a plan already in form of a bill by Sen. Jack Strong of Longview. It provides for stair-step raises, with sizable pay increases for experienced teachers, and ups maximum teachers pay some $650 a year. His recommendation that teachers be allowed to take summer graduate work at state colleges and universities, free of tuition, received big applause.

Water Planning — Connally adopted the Texas Research League's design for a master state water plan and expanded powers of the Water Development Board. Next day, he requested a $290,000 emergency appropriation to get the project underway.

He also asked the Legislature to pass bills enabling the Water Development Board to make loans for local development of underground water resources.

Other Recommendations — Governor Connally came out strong for driver education programs in all schools, to be directed by the Department of Public Safety.

He urged passage of an Industry Safety Act; a one-cent cigarette tax increase in 1966; abandonment of the state property tax in seven years; support the pooling bill to authorize the Railroad Commission to provide for pooling of separately-owned oil and gas interests in a common reservoir; poll tax repeal; and legal rights for women.

Then he asked the Legislature to revise the 1963 Election Code and take out the provision denying the right to vote to those who move their legal residence from one county to another during the six months prior to an election.

Last, but not least, Connally recommended that election laws be changed to provide that the Governor and other state officials run for four-year terms, instead of two-year terms.

House Committees — Speaker Ben Barnes re-assigned Rep. Bill Heatly of Paducah as Chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations and Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas to the House Committee on Revenue and Taxation. One of the most-thankless jobs, chairmanship of the Congressional and Legislative Districts Committee, went to Rep. Gus F. Mutscher of Brenham.

Rep. Dick Cory of Victoria will head the State Affairs Committee. Rep. Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville was named chairman of the Committee on Commerce Manufacturers. Representative Pipkin also is vice-chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

Rep. Bill Dungan of McKinney was named Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee; Rep. Bill Clayton of Spring Lake, Chairman of the Aeronautics Committee; and Rep. Menton Murray of Harlingen, chairman of the Committee on Conservation and Reclamation.

Liquor Bills — Rep. Jake Johnson of San Antonio offered three rivals to the bill backed by Texas Restaurant Association to legalize the sale of two-oz. bottles of alcoholic beverages to diners.

Johnson introduced a n "open saloons" bill, a straight across-the-bar drink measure and a small bottles bill for bars serving no food.

Two other legislators, Rep. Paul Haring of Goliad and John Traeger of Seguin, offered bills which would make it illegal to buy liquor for anyone under 21.

House Redistricting — First measure to redistrict the Texas House of Representatives has been unveiled by Rep. V. E. (Red) Berry of San Antonio.

Berry wants to take 20 House seats away from rural areas and give them to the metropolitan areas. Under his bill, Harris County would get eight more representatives; Dallas County, six; Bexar County, four; and Tarrant County, two.

Bill would match incumbent representatives from five districts in 1966 (if they want to stay in office): Jim Nugent of Kerrville vs. Terry Townsend of Brady; J. E. Ward of Glen Rose vs. Tom Holmes of Granbury; Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline vs. Jim Markgraf of Scurry; Lloyd Guffey of El Campo vs. Otha Birkner of VanVleet; and Renal Rossen of Snyder vs. Roy Arledge of Stamford.

Berry aimed at 63,500 population per district, with a 10 per cent maximum variation.

AG Opinions — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has issued these opinions:

Jasper County commissioners court has no authority to call an election to abolish Jasper Hospital District. County attorneys can represent themselves on trial of misdemeanor charges in other counties.

Classroom Teachers Association of Dallas is exempt from payment of franchise taxes as non-profit corporation limited to advancement of education.

A legislator employed on the Toledo Bend Project cannot receive his salary as an elected official but is not precluded from drawing expenses as a member of the Legislature and Texas Legislative Council.

Short Snorts — Rep. Gus Mutscher has introduced a proposed constitutional amendment to revive the Veterans Land Program, which will expire at the end of this year. . . . A bill by Sen. Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo, requiring the labeling of all meats imported from foreign countries and "knowingly" offered for sale in Texas, was passed by the Senate with little objection. . . . Senate Committee on Agriculture approved a proposal by Sen. Bruce A. Reagan of Corpus Christi to exempt oleomargarine made from milk made from the 10-cents a pound tax on colored margarine. . . . A bill by Rep. Dick Cory proposes that county commissioners courts be given authority to

We Need Our Immigration Laws

There are those in national power who are attempting to temper with our existing immigration laws. To do so would be to further open the gates to more unskilled individuals and create more unemployment in this country. Rep. John Dowdy, (D Texas) has charged that the proposed changes would be about the sorriest thing this nation could do at this time. The President's proposals have been sent to Congress. Rep. Dowdy said the proposed changes would allow immigration from the new emerging nations on an equal basis with people from northern Europe. The new African and Asian nations have a shortage of skilled labor and a surplus of unskilled labor. For that reason, it is unrealistic for the administration to recommend admission to this country of individuals when we are sending personnel abroad to try to train people in the new nations in the various skills. The people of Japan allow no immigration at all. Other nations recognize the wisdom in selective immigration for many reasons. For example Australia bars anyone of non-European ancestry. Great Britain even restricts immigration from the Commonwealth countries, including Trinidad. Our poverty program, as recommended by the administration is going to drain this country substantially before it accomplishes a dent in the ground and to bring in unlimited numbers of unskilled people to further draw aid checks from the government treasury would be regrettable for both this country and the immigrants.

FARM REVIEW AND FORECAST

Texas farm and ranch land prices reached a record high of $94 an acre in 1963. This, said Boyd Andrews, extension resource development specialist at Texas A&M University, was an increase of 10 percent over the average price in 1960.

He added that a recent study by the resource economics section of A&M's Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology points out other interesting facts. Due to the vast differences in soil types and locations, sale prices ranged from $20 to over $1,000 per acre.

While land prices moved upward, the net farm income was declining. Thus requiring a larger investment for a smaller return. A popular view expressed to the study group was that the low net farm income does not justify the existing high land prices, Andrews said.

But a closer look at the dominant sources of demand for agricultural lands may help explain the situation, the specialist added. First, he said, the average net farm income can be misleading. Many farmers and ranchers receive a far greater return than the average indicates. This group is capable of adjusting rapidly to incorporate technological advances and financially able to bid up the price of land to gain a larger economic sized unit. The strong demand for strictly agricultural land comes almost entirely from this group, Andrews said.

removal of machinery and junk from the feedlot or barnyard; the dehorning of cattle when young; the use of sand for truck bedding to prevent slipping; the use of partitions to separate cattle, sheep and hogs of different sizes and light feeding of livestock before loading them.

Livestock travel best, he said, on a light fill and properly shrunk cattle will get a better reception at the market due to a better dressing percentage. And last but not least, he suggests that the drive to market be done carefully and kept free of sudden stops.

During this season, when weather conditions are not always the best, taking care of the little things can add dollars to the selling price of a load of livestock, he says.

Approximately 500 home economists in teaching, research, extension, business and homemaking are expected to participate in the annual meeting of the Texas Home Economics Association in Austin, February 26-27.

This word comes from Mrs. Gladys Kolander, state home demonstration agent at Texas A&M University, and first vice president and program chairman for THEA.

General theme of the conference will be "The Leadership Challenge in Home Economics."

IRS Requires SS Numbers On Returns

Don't forget to list your social security number on your federal income tax return. The law requires it. If both husband and wife have income, they each should list their number on a joint return. If only one has income, only his number is required.

Administrative Officer Gene McCleskey of the Internal Revenue Midland office said social security numbers are being omitted on some returns. Taxpayers should double check to make sure that social security numbers are complete and accurate.

Omission of the number will delay processing of your return. This is time-consuming and inconvenient for you and the government.

If you do not have a number, ask the nearest Internal Revenue office or Social Security office for application Form SS-5. Application Form SS-5 may also be secured from most local post offices.

What must be a unique survey was recently conducted by Lloyd's Bank of London. It had to do with the use that was made of 100,000 paper clips. It revealed: 14,163 twisted or broken during phone calls; 17,200 used to make temporary clothing repairs; 5,434 as toothpicks, 5,308 to groom fingernails; 3,196 as pipe cleaners; 19,143 as chips in card games; thousands dropped on the floor and swept away. Only 20,000 were used to clip papers together.

Even though 1965 is well underway, there's still time for consumers to evaluate shopping habits and then improve, says Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, extension consumer marketing specialist.

Keep alert to what local markets are featuring. Plan weekly menus to include as many "specials" as possible. Remember the regular prices so that specials can be readily recognized.

If storage room is available, buy featured foods in quantity if your family can use them.

In planning menus and shopping for food, keep the family's nutritional needs in mind. Plan ahead for what you need and want. Keep the menu plan flexible so you can include special sales at the grocery store.

Prunes Listed As February Bargain Item

Prunes are one of the bargain items this month.

There was a time when prunes were a fruit mainstay during the winter months, because they stored so well. Prunes today are taking on a new look. They have begun to come to market in brilliantly colored coats — and in attractive boxes and packages. They have become tenderized and tempting, says Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Extension Service consumer marketing specialist.

More prune juice is now on the market, and prune purées, prune fillings and other products from the fruit are available for favorite coffee bread or rolls. Truly, prunes have "come into their own," says the specialist.

Consequently, the fruit which was plentiful most of the time — and quite low in price — has become more in demand. It has offered variety for menu planning. That fact, added to a few years when the supply was just normal, kept the price a little higher. But now there's an excellent prune crop again. Last year's crop ran to over 165,000 tons, compared with an average-size crop of 135,000 tons.

So look for a bargain in prunes and put them on your shopping list often, the consumer marketing specialist says.

Veterans Administration Information Service Dallas, Texas

(Editor's Note: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning their government provides for them through Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.)

Q — A veteran dies and principal and contingent beneficiaries named in his NSLI policy are deceased. The proceeds of his NSLI policy are paid to the veteran's estate. Is the widow liable for income tax payment on this same money after she inherits it?

A — Yes. The money which the widow receives for the estate has lost its identity and would therefore be taxable.

Q — Upon my discharge from the Armed Forces, I received a lump sum disability severance payment. Will I have to pay this back to the government if I am awarded VA compensation for the same disability?

A — The law requires that VA monthly compensation payments be withheld until the amount recovered is equal to the amount of disability severance pay you received.

Q — Where should I write in case my VA benefit check is not delivered on time?

A — Wait sufficiently to be sure that the mails have cleared, then write to the VA Regional Office having your claim file. Always include your full name, if you are a veteran, or the deceased veteran's name if it is a death claim, and your claim number. Do not write to the Treasury Department because that office cannot reply. Your letter will be forwarded to the VA, which delays the answer.

Big Spring Rodeo Dates Scheduled

The 32nd annual Big Spring Rodeo and Cowboy Reunion will be held in Big Spring, May 19-20-21-22, 1965, according to Charlie Creighton, president of the Big Spring Rodeo Association.

Producer of the shows this year will be Jiggs and Elra Beutler, veteran rodeo producers from Elk City, Oklahoma. The five major events will be saddle bronc riding, bareback riding, bulldogging, bull riding, calf roping and girls' barrel race.

Keep both red and white wine vinegar on your kitchen shelf. You'll find the white variety is particularly good to use in marinades for cooked vegetables to be served as relishes or salads.

The wings of a roast duck do not make an adequate serving portion. If you don't serve them, let them enrich a poultry or meat stock.

Baptist Christian Life Workshop Set For Austin

Texas Governor John Connally will be the major speaker for the eighth annual Texas Baptist Christian Life Workshop when it meets March 15-17 at the First Baptist Church of Austin.

Sponsored by the Christian Life Commission of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, the workshop will delve into the theme "Christianity and Political Action" and will feature addresses by the governor, State Senator A. M. Aiken, State Representative George Cowden, and Justice Zollie Steakley of the Supreme Court.

Meeting in Austin for the first time, the workshop will give Texas Baptist an opportunity to get a first-hand look at the state government and moral issues facing Christian citizens in Texas, said Texas Baptist Christian Life Commission Secretary Jimmy R. Allen.

Much of the program will be devoted to small group discussions of key moral issues facing the state, said Dr. Allen of Dallas.

Discussion groups will talk about such issues as higher education, literacy, vocational training, problems of the aging and of dependent children, alcoholic beverage control, legalized gambling, crime, capital punishment, human rights, and equal employment opportunities, said Allen.

Following briefings by Sen. Aiken of Paris, Rep. Cowden of Waco, and Judge Steakley, those attending the workshop will visit sessions of the state Senate and House.

The president of the Texas League of Women Voters, Mrs. Maurice Brown of Waco, will speak on the strategy of local participation in politics; and a U. S. Information Agency official, Lloyd Wright, will speak on world-wide dimensions of Christian Citizenship. Wright is a former Texas Baptist public relations director.

Other major addresses will be delivered by James Ralph Scales, president of Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee; Dr. William Pinson and Dr. William Greenlee, both professors at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth; and Dr. Allen.

Gov. Connally speaks March 17 on "The Challenge of the Future."

Bass Restock Deadline Set

Texas seeking black bass for restocking private water areas were advised by Marion Toole, inland fisheries coordinator for the Parks and Wildlife Department, that their applications must be received by the department by April 1. The deadline for catfish, crappie and sunfish is August 1. The address is John H. Reagan Building, Austin, Texas.

Toole said department personnel need to process each application to determine adequacy of the area recommended for restocking.

The inland fisheries coordinator said approximately 90 percent of hatchery production is used to stocking public waters.

JAKE HODGES and JOHN GRAVES were down-town the other morning after the newspaper was circulated and JAKE wanted to know what a Moon Pie was. We asked JOHN, an old East Texan, to explain and the definition GRAVES offered HODGES quick as a wink was the best we have heard. For the sake of good community relations we have elected to keep JOHN'S definition among the three of us.

A tornado struck JOHN GRAVE'S hometown the other day. Garrison, near Nacogdoches, was battered but no loss of life reported. The same twister belted Timpson and Caldonia too. TEX RITTER, the cowboy singing star, is from Gary, near Timpson, and once wrote a song: "Tenaha, Timpson, Bobo, and Blair." It's a real gasser. RITTER'S song narrates the times in East Texas when people used to keep butter in the well on the northside, raised their own frying chickens, milked the family cows, and fattened Poland-China porkers so they could "eat high on the hog." The title TEX put to his song also gained widespread prominence as a lucky term spoken to a pair of box-built ivorys with small black dots just before being turned loose by hopeful players of a game of chance. And we might add that many a Moon Pie has also been consumed during these sporting sessions among the colored gentry of the Piney Woods country.

THE PHYSICIANS HOSPITAL & CLINIC has just secured and had installed a badly needed kitchen stove. ZELLA GRAVES, hospital administrator, advised us of the new addition to the kitchen equipment this week. The purchase of the stove was made possible through donations made to the Hospital Equipment Fund. By-the-way, a contribution to this fund will be accepted with graciousness and appreciation by the local hospital. If you care to memorialize an individual or if you want to do something real nice for a personal friend instead of sending a gift make a contribution to the fund. The money is always wisely used for something beneficial to the operation of the local hospital.

If you have not made a contribution to the Heart Fund and feel like this is a worthy cause mail a check today to any one of the volunteer workers. MRS. DOYLE EDMISTON or PAIGE EILAND will welcome your check or any member of VIRGINIA HOUSES sorority will pick it up. We have whipped polio for all practical purposes—so why not start helping conquer heart trouble by helping build a research fund.

THE Texas teachers are concerned over the type of bill the Legislature will pass concerning their profession. Almost everyone realizes our school teachers are under paid and we have found little opposition to pay raises, even if more taxes must be collected to bring the raises about. Our teachers are too important to be side-tracked. My sister is a school teacher and a good one and I hope every qualified teacher in Texas benefits from the best possible legislation this present body of representatives in Austin can come up with.

We should all pause awhile to give thanks for the moisture falling in our section in the past few days. We need more rain — lots of it — but in our anxiety for more let us not forget to be grateful for what we have received.

Howard County 4-H'ers Win Steer Grand Championship

Maxwell and Mark Barr, young Howard County 4-H Club members, won the grand championship of the Junior Steer division at the big San Antonio Fat Stock Show Saturday.
Their 930-pound medium weight Hereford, which took the championship in its own division, went on to win the coveted purple in the final judging.
This was the first big winning of the Howard County 4-H youngsters have scored so far in this year's show competition.
Red Letter Day
It was a red letter day for Howard County boys and girls at San Antonio. In addition to the championship in medium weight steers, the grand championship in the Hereford division, the county club's group of five Herefords was rated best of the show in that competition.

Other Howard County winners included a fourth place heavyweight Hereford steer, shown by the Barr brothers, a fifth place for heavyweight shown by Delores Lankford, fifth place and ninth place for medium weight Herefords shown by Robbie Haney and a sixth place medium weight for Martha Robinson.
Happy, Excited
As happy and excited as the youngsters was J. C. Sale, widely known Stanton Hereford breeder.
The Stanton man bred the calf which won the Barr boys their purple ribbon, as well as the calf which took first place heavyweight honors.

Debra Stanley, Seminole, showed this calf. All of the steers which placed in the list above through the fifth places are Sale's bred animals.
Miss Robinson's sixth place winner in the medium weight, and the ninth place animal shown by Haney were not from the Sale's herd.
However, he was elated when four of the five calves rated as best of the show were from his stock. The fifth place animal was bred by Robinson.
"Mighty Pleased"
"I feel like I had a part in helping the kids take these honors," said Sale, "and it makes me mighty happy."
He said competition was exceptionally stiff at the show.
The Barr brothers are consistently heavy winners in the Howard County Show.

THANKS TO STANTON FARMER Surprise 'Legacy' Awaits Bracero's Widow

By FRANK DAVIS
The legacy left by a Martin County bracero who died last October came to light Saturday.
And the Stanton farmer who found the money — $389 in bills tucked between two rotting mattresses — intends to see that the inheritance reaches the Mexican national's widow.
Joe T. Russell of Midland, manager of the Basin Growers Association which contracted for the bracero last spring, recalled assigning him to T. D. Barnhill of Stanton. His name was Domingo Juarez.
According to Russell, the bracero was a n "awfully good worker." Barnhill was satisfied with his work as a water hand and happy that periodically Juarez would send money to his wife and family in Mexico City.

Later, during the investigation by a Labor Department representative from Big Spring who concluded that Juarez had died in his sleep of a heart seizure, Barnhill became aware of something he thought unusual.
Bank money order receipts for money sent by Juarez to his wife did not add up closely enough to the amount Barnhill knew he had been paying the man.
"I'll bet Domingo has kept money hidden in the house," Barnhill told Russell.
But an exhaustive search of the barracks-type dwelling a mile and a half southeast of Stanton was fruitless. Meanwhile, the Mexican consul at Marfa contacted the widow—after some delay because she had moved to a different address—and passed on her request that her husband be buried in Stanton. She told of being sick and of the older children being out of work.

Months passed. It was not until Friday that Barnhill again thought of Juarez. He was cleaning out the deserted bracero house, after selling some cots and mattresses to a buyer from Lamesa. Barnhill picked up the two cast-off mattresses and the money — mostly fives and a few tens — was there.
Mrs. Juarez will receive a bank money order in her name for $389 just as soon as Russell can verify her present address with the Mexican consul at Marfa.

TSTA Bill To Give Teachers $405 Increase

The Texas State Teachers Association special letters to city school superintendents and county superintendents this week says that the battle to substitute a ten-year program for the "45 in '65" plan continues in Austin.
In a press release, submitted to the newspaper by Beryl D. Clinton, the release claims the following:
1. The Governor's bill would provide an average of only $184 per teacher raise for the next school year.
2. It would require that the combined local districts of Texas pay 70 per cent of this increase instead of the usual 20 per cent.
3. To attain this 70 per cent local financing, 20 per cent of the cost of textbooks and 20 per cent of the retirement matching deposits for salaries.
The next meeting will be February 24.
