Seven of the eight South-west Conference teams lost football games Saturday. Only Texas Tech saved the day—one-in-gth of the day—for the state. Tech hammered out a fine 52-0 win over visiting Iowa State. I don't like to see high scoring games but in view of the seven other losses by conference clubs it looked impressive and revealed some of the strength the Red Raiders undoubtedly possess. Definitely, Tech must now be considered a top favorite. It wouldn't surprise me if they won the championship. Iowa bounced TCU 24-9; Missouri whipped SMU 21-0; USC downed Texas 17-13; Syracuse defeated Baylor 7-0; Purdue slipped by A&M 24-20; LSU liked out Rice 13-7; and Oklahoma State clipped Arkansas 7-6.

The Office of Economic Opportunity, one the alphabetical categories of the JOHNSON administration, ought to be abolished. The simple way to do away with this titanic albatross is for Congress to fail to provide funds for it. A mid-west job corps center was instructed to falsify the records to indicate it had more enrollees than it did. In a report to the House Education and Labor Committee the investigator said that WILLIAM P. KELLY, OEO top man, ordered the action. Other reports of strange goings on, such as ordering gun scope for a Houston class, is enough to make the tired taxpayer want to put down the tools of his craft and hunt the secluded shade of a hippie love-in, where some "government" gimmick will pay the bills.

Guest of Dr. Woodrow, was Dr. Robert Sower. Guests of Arthur Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Anderson, and Mrs. Wilson.

Stanton - Courtney Homecoming Slated

READY FOR ACTION—The entire squad of Stanton Buffaloes pictured above will be ready for action here Saturday night, Sept. 30, when they tangle in a homecoming contest with the McCamey pigskin warriors. The visitors are definitely the pre-game favorites but with many loyal fans in the stands, and the fire of affection burning brightly in the minds and hearts of the ex-students from Courtney and Stanton High Schools, the Bisons might turn in a victory. Coach Tom Blackwell says: "Although McCamey is supposed to be real tough, the members of the coaching staff think we can take them." Game times is 8 p.m. on Saturday night.

Red Cross To Collect Gifts For Victims

The Martin County Chapter of the American Red Cross will accept used clothing for shipment to the South Texas flood area.

Shipment of the clothing from the Stanton to the disaster area will be handled by the Seventh Day Adventist Church. Persons wishing to donate clothing are asked to bring it to the vacant building next to Deavenport's or to call 756-2212 for pickup of clothing by the local Scout troop.

Tornadic Winds Rip Cotton Trailers Here

Tornadic winds whipped across Martin County Tuesday evening and at 7 p.m. either destroyed, partially destroyed, or moved approximately 18 trailers parked at Guitar Gin two miles west on U. S. Highway 80.

One and one-half inch of rain fell following the big blow which found City Police Chief Jake Bruton right in the middle of the thing. Bruton had been assisting a team from the Texas Department of Public Safety in checking the movements of a reported tornado between Midland and Odessa was parked near the gin property, when a second, high wind velocity windstorm blew in from the northwest. Bruton advised DPS in Midland of his plight and started to return to Stanton. Two or three "loose" trailer rolled from the gin yard across the highway.

Bruton said it looked like fifteen or twenty and as Tennessee Earnie Ford would say: "I was as caught as a cat with a long tail in a roomful of rocking chairs."

The Stanton officer said the highway appeared to be full of rolling trailers.

No injuries were reported. Property damage had not been estimated at press time.

Chief Bruton contacted the Big Spring police department and advised them to notify the T&P that traffic moving to Midland over the rails would need to proceed with caution because blowing objects had been deposited on the main line following the heavy blow.

The tornado Chief Bruton originally set out to watch as the Martin County anchor man failed to strike ground in the area.

Stanton caught one inch plus of rain and most of the county received some rain during the disturbance.

O'Neal Test Potential Producer

Southwestern Natural Gas Inc. of Midland No. 1 O'Neal, a former dry hole in Martin County, has been potentiated as an addition to the Glass, North (Wolfcamp) pool.

It is five miles southeast of Patricia, 660 feet south and east lines of labor 25, league 259, Borden County School Land survey.

From perforations between 9,390 and 9,536 feet, it flowed 219 barrels of oil, gravity not reported, through a 24-64-inch choke after the pay section was acidized with 1,000 gallons and fractured with 60,000 gallons of fluid and 120,000 pounds of sand. Gas-oil ratio was 800-1 and surface pressure registered 180 pounds.

Champlin Petroleum Co. originally drilled the hole and plugged it at 12,118 feet in 1960.

F. W. Holbrook of Midland No. 1 King, County explorer, is installing a pump for final testing.

The project yielded 40 barrels of new oil and 20 per cent water on the swab through perforations at 4,070,188 feet which were washed with 500 gallons of mud acid and fractured with 5,000 gallons of fluid. No time was reported for the checking.

Total depth is 4,312 feet with 4 1/2 inch casing set on bottom. Indications of possible production came on a two-hour drillstem test at 4,057-81 feet with recovery being 150 feet of oil- and gas-cut mud and a gallon of free oil.

No. 1 King is 10 miles southwest of Stanton 467 feet from south and 567 feet from west lines of J. L. Veazey survey, abstract 997, in the Azalea multipay field, three miles northwest of the Germania (Grayburg) area.

4-H's Saluted During National 4-H Club Week

Some 200 4-H boys and girls in Martin County and their activities and programs will be in the spotlight during National 4-H Club Week, September 30 - October 7, says County Extensions Agents Mildred Eiland, and Billy Regaro.

There are about 76 thousand 4-H's in Texas with more than 2 1/4 million boys and girls enrolled throughout the nation.

"4-H, A World of Opportunity" is this year's theme with activities focused on local, state, national and international achievements of the head, heart, hands and health program.

Locally, says Mrs. Eiland and Regaro, 4-H Week activities will emphasize the opportunities 4-H offers the boy or girl 9 to 19 years of age. Exhibits and displays will feature the work of current 4-H members and will be accented by the green and white four-leaf clover emblem. Several events and activities are planned to encourage youth to join 4-H.

Meetings planned for the week are: County 4-H Council - 9:30 a.m. September 30; Stanton Community 4-H Club, 1:30 p.m. September 30; Grady Community 4-H Club, 4:30 p.m., October 2; Stanton Senior 4-H Club, 7:00 p.m., October 2; Flower Grove, 3:30 p.m., October 3; Stanton Junior High, 9:30 a.m., October 7. Other clubs are, Friendship, Valley View, Ranchhands, Do and Learn, and Sunshine. These meetings are open to any interested boy or girl.

4-H combines the best of learning and fun, points out Mrs. Eiland and Regaro. It offers a wide variety of projects and activities which emphasize "learning by doing" and rewards the boy and girl for personal growth and achievement.

Young people may choose their own individual 4-H projects from some 100 to 100 offered, adds Mrs. Eiland and Regaro. These range from the traditional beef calf, poultry, gardens, foods and clothing to automotive, career exploration, photography and baby sitting. The young scientist may choose a project in entomology, electricity, conservation or others. And there are projects too, for the young owner of dogs and horses.

Boys and girls like 4-H for the many activities and projects it offers groups and clubs, says the agents. Clubs may select such worthwhile activities and projects as community beautification, safety, health, recreation, leadership and conservation. Volunteer adult leaders help guide and advise members of community and neighborhood 4-H Clubs.

Speaking of adult leaders, National 4-H Club Week also provide an opportunity to give the volunteer leaders a well-deserved "pat on the back, points out Mrs. Eiland and Regaro. More than 25 dedicated citizens of Martin County give their time and skill in assisting 4-H boys and girls and in promoting 4-H Club work. Not only do they assist at 4-H Club meetings but they also help with pro-

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

BY MICHAEL A. GUIDO

The school of suffering produce rare scholars, and David was one of the graduates. He taught in the sixth Psalm what he learned in suffering. David was troubled because of his transgressions, and he cried, "Have mercy upon me, O Lord." No man ever found the pleasures of sin like the pictures of sin. But in his trouble he turned to the Lord. When Adam sinned he went into the woods. When King Saul sinned he went to the witch. To what or to whom do you go? Only the Lord can make you a master of sin and a servant of righteousness.

They are and are precious to the Lord. When did you last weep for your sins?

Beyond the tears there is the triumph, and David testified, "The Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping. The Lord will receive my prayer." The Lord always receives the prayer of a repentant person, and he who had been a victim to sin became a victor over sin. Are you a victim or a victor? "Thanks be unto God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ"—I Cor. 15-57.

Red's Corner

By RED GIBSON

As noted in this corner previously, the reading public is entitled to a break. Someone has to work up the courage to tell the newspapers that even the best of human interest stories grows stale after repeated use.

In an effort to bring freshness to the newspaper scene, we herewith offer some suggestions for stories we would like to see.

CAIRO — It was a proud day for John Ahrens, his first day on the police force.

Swinging his nightstick with a flourish and smiling a cheery good morning to everyone — but always alert — he walked by the bank on his first tour of the beat. Suddenly, three armed men dashed out of the bank and ran right into the new patrolman. Ahrens grabbed his pistol and began firing. Unfortunately, in the excitement he shot himself in the foot. Ahrens passed out and the robbers escaped.

ELDORADO — After Mrs. Tom Green sent 11 children through college she decided that she might as well join the parade. "No point in letting my kids be smarter than me," Mrs. Green said.

So, at the age of 74, Mrs. Green enrolled as a freshman at State U. nine years ago.

She plugged along through the years, picking up two courses each semester. Last semester she enrolled for three courses, the final three needed to complete her degree.

Today, at graduation ceremonies, Mrs. Green was absent. The extra load was too much for her and she made two Fs and a D.

BAIRD — When they gave Kenny Henson the runty calf they told him it would never be a show animal. But 10-year-old Kenny, wise in the ways of animals, knew that love can work wonders.

Kenny spent every afternoon brushing and talking to the calf, which he named Sally. Sally seemed to understand.

Last week, a year after he got Sally, Kenny took her to the state fair.

Judges said unanimously that Sally as the ugliest calf that had ever been seen of the fairgrounds.

DECATUR — Mrs. Bessie Provine, a widow, dreamed of a skull and crossbone flag last week, so her used her last $2 to buy an Overseas Sweepstakes ticket on a 1,000-to-1 shot named Pirate's Hope.

The race was held on the day Mrs. Provine was to be evicted from her apartment for nonpayment of rent. One hour before the deadline for eviction she heard a knock at the door. A Sweepstakes messenger. She dared not hope so. She threw open the door.

There stood the landlord. His watch was a hour fast.

NEW YORK—A large landscape painting hung in the Les Bennett home for years, drawing the admiration of everyone who saw it. Last month, a visitor noticed that from a certain angle a signature — it looked like "Rembrandt" — was visible under the paint in the lower right corner.

Art experts scraped off the layer of paint with the landscape on it this week. Underneath was nothing but a piece of canvas that Bernie Rembrandt of Brooklyn doodled on before he gave up his art lessons and sold all his supplies to a landscape painter.

LEADVILLE — For two hours the master mechanic leaned over the fender, trying to find out what was the matter with the little old lady's car.

The little old lady, who had stood behind the master mechanic, humming softly, for the entire two hours, timidly pointed to a loose wire and asked: "Could this be the problem?"

"Of course not, lady," replied the master mechanic. "That wire is supposed to be that way."

Nevertheless, the little old lady reached over and gently touched the wire.

Nothing happened. That wasn't the problem.

Prairie Chicken Hunting Planned

For the first time in 30 years Texas sportsmen are preparing for a prairie chicken season to be held on October 14-15 in three northeastern Panhandle counties, according to Wildlife Supervisor Jack Parsons of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Texas prairie chickens, protected with a closed season since 1937, have increased sharply during the past three years in Lipscomb, Hemphill and Wheeler counties prompting biologists to recommend a limited harvest of surplus birds.

Sportsmen interested in trying their luck during the short two-day season may contact the Chamber of Commerce in Higgins, Canadian or Wheeler for hunting information.

Representatives from Martin County joined 1,000 other Texas homemakers recently for the 41st annual convention of the Texas Home Demonstration Association in Fort Worth.

Attending the state meeting were Mrs. Sarah Barnes, Mrs. Norwood Holloway, and Mrs. O. D. Green.

Walter Richter, director, Southwest Region Office of Economic Opportunity, was keynote the conference on Tuesday, telling of "The Significance of the Other War." Mrs. Florence W. Low, assistant director for home economics, Texas A&M University board of directors, and Mrs. J. E. Waggoner, THDA chairman, Tarrant County.

Other talks and topics included Mrs. Wilmer Smith of Wilson, president of the National Extension Homemakers Council, speaking on "The Home a World of Concern," and Dr. Alice Wonders, chairman, Division of Philosophy and Religion, Texas Wesleyan College, telling of "Family Portraits for the Middle East."

Dr. Carl C. Winter, guest lecturer for General Motors, closed the conference, speaking on "Today's Youth and Tomorrow's World" at a Wednesday evening banquet.

The two-day session featured a training workshop on 4-H, family life, safety, citizenship, health and recreation. Recommendations from these meetings will be taken back to the counties by those attending the state convention and carried out by the approximately 36,000 THDA members throughout the state.

Examples of proposed recommendations include home demonstration club members assuming citizenship responsibilities through study of new state legislation, clubs' studying the services for the mentally retarded, clubs' encouraging and supporting community and state agencies whose programs assist families, and clubs' emphasizing driver education for youth and improved traffic safety legislation to legislators.

In citing the accomplishments of the THDA, Mrs. Low pointed out that "during 1966, the 36,000 club members in 1,709 different clubs provided help in the development of homemaking skills to 265,395 homemakers not enrolled in clubs — an average of about eight assistances per club member."

Mrs. Low also emphasized that 74 outstanding 4-H Club girls have received THDA sch-

Sneaky Spider—'Brown Recluse' Is A Problem

An innocuous-looking little spider named "The Brown Recluse" has recently been found to be even more dangerous than the long-feared "Black Widow."

The Brown Recluse has become enough of a health problem — several deaths and a number of serious bites — to become a subject of a research study and a recent report published in the Medical News Section of the Journal of the Medical News Section of the Journal of the American Medical Association.

The spider tries to steer clear of humans — hence its name — but because it like to hide in dark recesses of buildings, it comes under inadvertent human assault in bedding, shoes and other places where it seeks daytime refuge.

The Brown Recluse has been found in at least 13 states in the South, Southwest and Midwest, and is thought to be moving into other sections of the country. Because of the spider's tendency to retreat into wadded-up newspaper or blankets or other dark areas in daytime, it easily could be transported north by vacationers to states where it has not yet been seen.

The spider may bite without the victim being aware of it. There is little early pain associated with a bite. Unlike the Black Widow, both males and females can inject venom.

Pain may be felt in two to eight hours, followed by inflammation of the skin, blistering, hemorrhage and ulceration. Of the Brown Recluse's bite, one researcher told JAMA News: "Several deaths have been attributed to this spider. Our data indicate a biological poison much more potent than known snake venoms, and probably more toxic than venom from the Black Widow spider." Exactly how the venom acts remains to be determined. Treatment involves injection of a medication over a period of days and in more serious cases hospitalization.

Commodity Credit Corporation stocks of cotton this year will be priced to permit current crop cotton to move freely into the market.

This assurance, minus details, was given by USDA officials September 21 to Donald A. Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

Johnson and others had spent the better part of two weeks in Washington with USDA officials and interested Congressmen attempting to prevent a recurrence of the situation which existed in 1966 when CCC minimum resale prices on cotton stapling less than an inch caused some 800,000 bales of such cotton to enter the government loan program.

Production of the short staples in 1966 fell about one million bales below consumption, but CCC sold about 1,800,000 bales shorter than an inch.

"This kind of thing forces current crop cotton into the loan and deprives producers of markets and possible market premiums for their production," Johnson said, "and we are happy to have assurances from USDA that this will not be permitted to happen this year."

The key to moving current crop cotton into the market instead of into the government loan is of course to keep CCC minimum resale prices well above loan prices. How this is to be accomplished in 1967-68 will probably be revealed by the Department in its next catalog of CCC cotton for sale, expected about September 25, Johnson said.

"Production of the shorter staples this year is again expected to fall far below the market demand," he continued, "and with CCC cotton priced above loan values we can expect all or virtually all of our 1967 production to sell somewhere above the loan."

The latest word from Washington is that 1968 cotton program details may be announced on September 29, but most likely will not be out until about October 6.

Recent reports that the Department had settled, or was about to settle, on a program without mandatory diversion and with voluntary diversion up to 35 per cent of allotments at a payment rate of 5 cents may have been premature.

A purely voluntary diversion program of this kind was the August "shirtsleeve" hearings. And the fact that none of the alternatives discussed earlier proved too popular may well be the reason for the Department's casting about for something different.

Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., who has been in Washington several days during the past two weeks, says it should be made "abundantly clear" that the final decisions on a 1968 cotton program have not yet been made and that this is merely a new wrinkle in USDA thinking.

Johnson said the Department did put out feelers to various sections of that country to get reactions to such a program and that reportedly they were pleasantly surprised at the results.

Bible Comment—

Christians Earned Name In Wicked City

The principal setting of the scenes and events of the New Testament, especially the Four Gospels and the life of Christ, was in Palestine.

But a broader setting involved a great part of what was then the known world as the number of disciples increased.

The city of Damascus, for instance, to which Paul was journeying when his conversion changed his whole life, is said to be the world's oldest city. Its origin dates back to as long before the birth of Christ as our times has been since Christ's birth. It has been said that it was a city before Babylon began.

Damascus was the royal city of the results.

However it is understood now that at least one member of the House Committee on Agriculture turned thumbs down on any cotton program for 1968 which does not have required acreage diversion as a prerequisite for participation by producers.

So the form of the 1968 cotton program is still very much up in the air, Johnson thinks.

A 5-cent voluntary diversion payment with no mandatory diversion, under the terms of the Agriculture Act of 1965, would require that the price support payment on the domestic portion of each producer's allotment (65 per cent) be raised to about 13.6 cents per pound, assuming the loan base for Middling inch cotton is left at 20.25.

The price support payment in 1967 is 11.53 cents and the acreage diversion payment, both voluntary and mandatory, is 10.78 cents.

The law requires that the loan rate plus price support payment provide producers with at least 65 per cent of parity on the maximum acreage they are permitted to plant.

In 1967 the maximum permissible planted acreage was 87.5 per cent of total allotments. But if there were no mandatory acreage diversion in 1968, the loan level plus price support payment would have to equal 65 per cent of parity on 100 per cent of allotments.

Blending the diversion and price support payment rates in 1967, on a farm which elected to divert the maximum 35 per cent, gives an overall average payment of about 11.27 cents per pound of projected yield.

Applying the same calculation to the type program so widely discussed recently, with a price support of 13.6 cents and a 5-cent voluntary diversion payment, would show an average per-pound payment of 10.59 cents, less than 3/4 of a cent below 1967.

Again, whether such a program ever sees the light of day is anybody's guess. But the mere fact USDA gives it serious consideration may indicate a reasonable concern in Washington for maintaining producer income at or near the 1967 level, Johnson believes.

USDA is said to be "guessing" that a purely voluntary, 5-cent payment program under normal conditions would bring about production of about 14 million bales. This projection assumes no change in regulations which govern skip-row planting of cotton.

It is also made assuming producers who choose to forego the diversion payment would be permitted to plant any non-allotted crop on 35 per cent of their cotton acreage.

of Syro; there are numerous references to it in the Old Testament and the records of the wars of Israel. The single New Testament reference is in connection with the conversion of Paul. But it is interesting that a group of Christian disciples were already there, bringing the new life of the Gospel to the oldest of all cities.

It was a different challenge that Christianity met at Antioch, about three hundred miles north of Jerusalem, in a very new city. Antioch was then a city about half a million people on the great line of trade between east and west. In its splendor it aspired to surpass all other cities of that ancient world.

But with all its wealth, culture and pagan grandeur, Antioch had a sinister distinction. It was the wickedest, most licentious city of its time. Yet it was here in Antioch that the disciples were first called Christians.

START CLUB MEETING WITH SUPPER FROM FREEZER

When the next club or committee meeting is scheduled at your house, invite the guests to come early for a supper that can be enjoyed while the agenda is discussed. With convenient frozen prepared foods that require only defrosting or heating before serving, it takes little effort to provide a meal that's festive and tasty.

So that the meal will not interfere with the program, limit the selection of food to a few items. Frozen main dish pies—available in a choice of sizes and fillings including chicken, turkey, tuna and beef—are an excellent choice. For dessert, consider a rich and filling frozen cake, pie or other pastry.

The menu illustrated above features individual Beef Pies, topped with sour cream and frozen chives after baking, and Pineapple Cheesecake Torte, made quickly and easily by stacking two pineapple cheesecakes together.

A library can have every book that has been printed on the shelves, but unless the people enter and check them out, they might as well be at the bottom of the sea. The library is valuable for the school student's use, but it can also be a source of pleasure for the older and younger patron — if they will only enter and borrow.

Our library's circulation has dropped considerably since the beginning of school, which is to be expected at the first of the school year. Many more adults should make an effort to read. Mold A Contrast In Color

Play it cool when the weather's warm—make quickstep desserts that sit in the refrigerator until it's time for sweets. One idea from the Borden Kitchen is this two-tone gelatin-yogurt mold. One layer's rosy (thanks to Swiss-style strawberry yogurt); the other's a delicate orange (mandarin orange yogurt). Highlight yogurt's fresh fruit flavor with a garnish of plump strawberries and mandarin orange segments.

School Bus Safety Measures Highlighted

Seat belts and bus drills may help cut down on school bus accidents, according to the American Academy of Pediatrics which recently took a close look at school children, buses, and accidents — and didn't like what it found.

Every day of the school year, which is just getting under way, some 16 million children are transported by school bus over city streets and rural highways, according to the Academy. Current injury rates for these children are 75 percent higher than they were in 1960, notes the physician's group, "an increase all out of proportion to the increase in the number of children transported in school buses."

In an official statement by its Committee on Accident Prevention, the Academy urges pediatricians across the nation to check the school transportation equipment in their own areas and see that it meets minimum standards. Milky Ways With A Cobbler

Probably the oldest and most traditional food Americans still enjoy is corn bread, specially this buttermilk version. It's made into a cobbler crested with shredded old-fashioned Cheddar cheese and pie-sliced apples. But the making is modern, notes the Borden Kitchen. Just unwrap the cheese and it's ready for shredding; the apples come ready-to-use right from the can.

Hasty Cheese Cobbler

- (Makes 8 servings)
- 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
 - 1 cup yellow cornmeal
 - 1/4 cup sugar
 - 2 teaspoons baking powder
 - 1/4 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
 - 2 eggs
 - 1 cup Borden's Butter-milk
 - 1/4 cup soft shortening
 - 2 cups shredded (one 8-oz. pkg.) Wisconsin Old-fashioned Cheddar cheese
 - 2-1/2 cups (1 lb. 4-oz. can) Pie-Sliced Apples, drained
 - 1/4 cup firmly packed light brown sugar

In a medium-size bowl, sift together flour, cornmeal, sugar, baking powder, salt and baking soda. Add eggs, buttermilk and shortening; beat with rotary beater about 1 minute, or just until dry ingredients are well moistened. DO NOT OVERBEAT. Pour mixture into a greased 9 x 9 x 2-inch baking pan. In a medium-size bowl, lightly mix cheese and apples together. Gently spread over corn bread mixture. It is important to spread mixture to sides of pan. Sprinkle brown sugar evenly over cheese mixture. Bake in a moderate (375°F.) oven, 40 minutes or until firm and golden brown.

The Rebel-Hardtop, Wagon, Sedan or Convertible, V8 or 6—is everything we think a car should be.

Before you pay more for an intermediate, make sure you get as much.

Ambassador. The car with air conditioning as standard equipment.

Air conditioning has been around for a long time, but so far only a few companies—the people who make

Rolls Royce for one—have had the good sense to include it in their cars at no extra cost.

We're another.

We just don't understand why someone should be asked to pay a lot of money for a luxury car and then be asked to pay over $300 more for the luxury of air conditioning.

Introducing the Javelin.

Although we've always had the reputation for making sensibly priced, well-built cars, we've never had the reputation for making hot, sporty cars.

We'll soon have the reputation for making hot, sporty cars.

The front and rear bumpers on the Javelin are massive. Unlike thin blade bumpers, these give the car a rich, racy look.

The side windows on the Javelin are solid sheets of curved glass, without vents to break up its fast lines.

The Javelin SST comes with wheel discs, special exterior trim, reclining bucket seats and a woodgrain steering wheel, all standard.

And all for a lower price than the other sporty hardtops.

CONGRATULATIONS

MR. and MRS. GRADY GARDENHIRE will observe their Golden Wedding anniversary with an open house at their home, 801 St. Paul Street in Stanton, from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday, October 1. I send my personal congratulations to this fine couple. The wedding picture will be found on page one and the story on the event is published elsewhere in this issue of the paper.

WE can look for the wags to get loose following announcement of the wedding of the RUSK girl and her husband, the Washington Negro. It could be that their first born will be a boy and the old American game of Cowboy and Indian will have to be changed to Cowboy and Negro.

GOING further with the humor, I think of the story of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. The apple was the baited fruit in that story. The white-skinned blond from Georgia, the temptress in this case, could have used a peach to trap the ebony tinted man while they rode horseback together in Washington Park. Georgia is the peach state, or used to be.

I talked with a brass-collar Democrat the other day who argued that the RUSK character married the Negro for political reasons and to help LYN-DON keep the colored vote. If his argument is valid, then perhaps, like WALTER JENKINS, the strange one, DEAN RUSK got the short end of the stick.

SHS News

By PUG DEAVENPORT

The spirit of Homecoming has swept the students of SHS into a flurry of activity. Preparation and planning by the Student Council, pep squad, and faculty in conjunction with the Stanton - Courtney Exes Association, guarantees a week of activities to be enjoyed by all. Class meetings were held last week to elect nominees for Homecoming Queen. Representing the seniors will be Jane Hodges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Hodges of Stanton. Jane is a four year member of the pep squad and is presently serving as treasurer. She was chosen as class favorite her junior year and has participated in FTA, FHA, and basketball. Junior representative is Linda Adams, a member of FHA, FTA, and pep squad. Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buster Adams, Route 1, Stanton.

Sophomore LaWanda Glaspie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Glaspie, Jr., West Stanton, attended Courtney schools until her eighth grade year. At Stanton Junior High she was cheerleader and class favorite. She is currently participating in FHA and pep squad. Last year she was chosen freshman class favorite and girl in the cutest couple. Freshman nominee, Sandra Kay Chandler, graduated from Grady Junior High as valedictorian. She participated in basketball, and worked on the annual staff there. She was chosen as freshman alternate to the Student Council this year, and is a member of FHA, FTA, and pep squad. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Chandler, Lenorah.

The exes will vote for the queen during registration on Saturday. Dress-up days for Homecoming week were designated by the Student Council with both students and faculty participating. Leisure was the mood on Monday, Sweater Day, with girls having permission to wear pants. Tuesday was assigned as Mardi Gras, with costumes varying from Arabs to Angels. Sophomores, juniors, and seniors dressed up in their best Wednesday for Dress-up Day, as the freshmen went through the miseries of Freshman Initiation. Fish girls were required to wear no make-up, have hair ratted, wear huge earrings, and wear an ice cream cone hat. Fish boys wore make-up, suspenders, and parted hair in middle. All freshmen wore a shirt with the school song on back, unmatched shoes and socks, and pushed peanuts and carried books.

Pioneer Day was set aside for Thursday. Friday is school color day with a "Whisper Contest" added as an extra attraction. The tenth person to whisper Beat McCamey to a secret mystery person will be awarded as cash prize at the Pep Rally.

School will be dismissed at 2:30 Friday, so students can gather wood for the bonfire to be held that night. Any person with old lumber and tires is asked to contact a high school student for a bonfire contribution.

The third annual Homecoming parade will begin at 3:45 Saturday afternoon. Floats representing the classes and the high school band will be on hand along with other floats and decorated cars. Committee members working on the senior class float are: Sue Walker, Nealu Ferguson, Robert Haggard, Luan Louder, Sandra Merrifield, Cathy Hazlewood, Pam Williams, Rhonda Reid, Margaret Uhlman, Jane Hodges, Sherry Avery, Linda Henley, Linda White, Martha Bradshaw, Steve Hall, Don Burns, and Terry Franklin.

Junior float committee include: Dianna Mims, Cyndi Clements, Trudy Powell, Bill Wilson, Dennis Brantley, Gall Coates, and Pug Deavenport. Sophomore committee heads are: Cindy Cain, Neida Wells, Becky Fryar, Daria Dowden, LaWanda Glaspie, Debra Robinson, and Mary Merrifield.

Working for the freshmen are: Gayle Haggard, Kay Hankins, Debbie White, Marty McArthur, Susan Vest, Patricia Haislip, Cathy Woodrow, Shirline Warren, Bobby Hull, Bill Pardue, and Harold O'Brien.

The Pep Rally will be held at the high school at 4:30. Competition will be held among the classes for the spirit stick. Speeches, skits, routines, and introduction of players have been planned. Everyone is urged to come and boost the Buffaloes on to a victory.

The Buffs will meet the McCamey Badgers in the big game at 7:30 Saturday night. The Coming Home Queen, sponsored by the Exes Association, and Homecoming Queen will be announced during the half-time show. Following the game, a reception for the Exes will be held in the cafeteria. A dance for students will be held in the gym. Music will be furnished by an aera band. Plans for the dance were arranged by the Student Council.

The first FTA meeting of the year was held Tuesday. Officers are Johnny Louder,

The junior 4-H leaders in Martin County should also be commended, adds the agents. They devote their spare time and use their 4-H experiences to assist the adult volunteers in making 4-H the outstanding youth organization which it is today.

4-H offers many opportunities for the youngster who is interested in preparing for the difficult, challenging tasks which lie ahead. Now is a good time to join 4-H, says Mrs. Eiland and Reager. Clubs throughout the county are reorganizing for the new year and new clubs are just starting.
