Now that the school boards have been elected and men elected to serve in the official city family in Stanton, the voters can look forward to the primaries. Offices from justices of the peace to U. S. Senator will be nominated in the May primary. In races requiring run-offs, the voting will take place in early June. It will be necessary to take your registration receipt along when visiting the polls. So voters have about three weeks to locate the receipts in case they have been mislaid.

Spring has been having a very tough time getting started. As a matter-of-fact, one oldtimer said recently that this might be the year Spring would be missing from the calendar. He predicted that winter weather would just change to summertime, and that would be the end of that situation. The beautiful weather that came with Monday this week makes me feel like Spring is really here this time to stay. I actually think it is now safe to put the cold weather wearables away.

In Saturday's city election two sets of circulars, maybe more, made their appearance as last-minute political propoganda. I have long advocated that anything a candidate had to say should be said through the local paper. I invited all candidates to make use of the paper to send their messages to the people. I am glad that my hands are clean of the writing or printing of any of the circulars distributed here before the election. I wanted MRS. S. W. WHEELER, a fine woman I worked with in her husband's recent campaign for a seat in the Texas Legislature, to know the facts above. I sincerely hope that the people of Martin County have seen the last of circulars. The newspaper wishes to again invite all candidates for county and state office in the election coming up in May, to use the columns of "THE OLE RELIABLE." There is no substitute for an outstanding award winning newspaper.

The annual Cancer Crusade for funds will start next Monday in Martin County, and the campaign for money to help fight the nearly always fatal disease will continue through April 30. TOM ED ANGEL is head of the Martin County Cancer Unit. He has a number of able assistants lined up to help in the drive. MRS. MARVIN STANDEFER and MRS. JIMMIE SAWYER are serving this year as co-chairmen. They advised the newspaper this week that the drive in the business section of Stanton will open on April 13, and that the house-to-house drive will be held on the evening of the 20. MARY PRUDIE BROWN wrote a fine article about the coming cancer drive, and it appears elsewhere in the newspaper.

Martin County farmers will be delighted when the soil temperature gets just right for planting. The erratic weather experienced in this area during the past few weeks has caused the time table to get out of balance. Maybe the light winds and penetrating sunshine will improve the condition of the soil so that planting may be permitted real soon. We should all hope so.

Band Concert Scheduled Monday Night

The Stanton Instrumental Department will present their spring band concert. It will be on Monday night, April 13, at 8:00 in the High School auditorium. The concert will consist of three parts. The Beginner, Cadet, and High School Concert Bands will participate. Some of the highlights in the concert are "Hogan's Heroes," "Windy," "Dedicated Overture," and "Festivo."

Tickets may be bought from band members, at the rates of 25 cents for student tickets, and 50 cents for adult tickets. Money made will go toward sending the High School Marching Band to San Antonio, where they will march in the "Fiesta Flambeau Parade."

Philosopher Gives Some Real Hard And Concentrated Thought To The Strike Problem

(Editor's note: The Martin County Philosopher on his grass farm on Mustang Draw, considers the strike situation this week.)

Dear editor:

According to all the newspapers I've seen out here lately, everybody is in a turmoil over strikes and what to do about them, and I'll get to that later, but first I'd like to point out that things are not all bad.

For instance, when a neighbor asked me why I wasn't at work, I told him I keep up with the news, and was fully aware everything was at a standstill on account of the New York mail strike. My hands were tied.

They were tied again when the air controllers fouled up the airplane schedule, and by the time this gets into The Stanton Reporter, they may be tied by half a dozen other strikes. If I miss any, let me know.

However, I realize everybody isn't as adaptable as I am to work stoppages, and I notice that the politicians across the country are attacking the problem from every angle you can manage with a speech, without ever getting around to an answer.

I have thought the problem over carefully and have a suggestion.

Like things are now, nobody knows when the next strike will break out. Nobody knows in the morning whether his entire activities will be paralyzed by nightfall. If the airlines aren't struck, the tractor companies, the public schools, the fire department, newspapers, television stations, the long-skirt designers, the kindergartens, the colleges, and maybe even, right in the middle of the season, baseball itself.

Therefore it seems to me what Congress ought to do is to establish a National Strike Week. Set aside one week out of the year, probably in the spring, when the sap is rising, when everybody who's going to strike, strikes.

During that week everybody ought to throw his hat in the air and quit, and the last one off the job is a rotten egg. Yours faithfully,
 J. A.

Gospel Teaches Of Strength In Christ

In many places in the New Testament there are verses of passages that stand out superbly. They offer the concentrated expression of a great fact, a great experience, an exhortation to righteousness, and Christian living, or an inspirational incentive of encouragement, and uplifting power.

One in particular, expressed all the reality and power of the Gospel experience, the fact of what belief in Christ, and the acceptance of His message of salvation can do for man. It is found in II Corinthians: "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold all things are become new."

What does it mean to be "in Christ?" Scholars say it is as if it referred to the place in which one lives. Christ is the environment of the new man in precisely that sense. "If you love Me," said Jesus, "keep my commandments." To live in Christ is to seek the guidance of His spirit, and to follow His example.

This passage, too, contains the clear, effective expression of the nature and meaning of salvation. Too often, salvation is made a matter of safety and redemption in some experience beyond this life, without much reference to moral and spiritual reality.

But here the implication and meaning are plain. Salvation is a matter of new life in Christ. It is a moral and spiritual experience of regeneration. God's will and God's provision in Christ and the Gospels is that here and now, for each of us, there can be a new life and a new creation.

Seeds From The Sower

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

When Alexander, later called "the Great," began preparations for a mighty military movement, he gave away his possessions. One of his men protested, "You are giving away everything you have."

"Everything," replied Alexander, "but hope."

There was another leader who had given away everything. But instead of wretchedness there was blessedness. He said in Psalm 39:7, "Lord, my hope is in Thee."

His hope was not in merchandising. It is tragic for a nation to lose its trade. But what shall it profit a nation to gain the whole world and lose its soul?

His hope was not in matriculation. An education is essential. "But," said Teddy Roosevelt, "to educate a man in mind and not in morals is to educate a menace to society." The heart of education is the education of the heart.

His hope was not in militarism. There must be military security. But if our spiritual security does not match our military security our nation will fall into helpless obscurity. No nation falls without unless it first falls within.

His hope was in the Lord. Only He can undo our tangles, solve our problems, forgive our sins, make happy our hearts and keep us safe. Life with the Lord is an endless hope, but life without the Lord is a hopeless end.

Weathermen Talk New Tornado Warnings Arrivals

About forty weathermen, civic leaders, law enforcement, and Civil Defense officers, from six counties gathered in Big Spring Friday afternoon, to discuss methods of dealing with the most dreaded phenomenon of spring and summer—the tornado.

The Big Spring - Howard County Civil Defense hosted representatives from Martin, Mitchell, Dawson, and Midland counties.

W. D. Berry, director of the Big Spring CD, presented a film illustrating the correct method to prepare for the worst when a tornado strikes.

Jim Lumme, chief meteorologist at the U. S. Weather Bureau in Midland, spoke on his bureau's capability to detect tornadoes with radar. He said that at this time capability is not flawless, and reports from observers are still important in detecting stormy weather.

He also mentioned that Texas had more tornadoes numerically than other states, because of its size, but that Kansas has a proportionately higher rate on strikes.

Berry then produced a year-year study of twisters which shows that April, May, June, and July, are by far the months in which more tornadoes strike in Texas.

Both Berry and Lumme said that reporting procedures have improved much in recent years, so it appears that the tornado rate has increased when it actually has not.

Berry said that when a tornado is sighted, the observer should first contact the local police department, which will then dispatch officers to confirm the report and distribute the information to local radio, and television stations, and newspapers for broadcast. In the event that some other agency is informed of the tornado first, the police should be the next to receive the report, so that proper Civil Defense measures can be taken. Any variance in this procedure could result in the loss of critical time for those in the twister's path, Berry said.

If you care enough, cancer can be conquered. "Fight cancer with a checkup and a check," says the American Cancer Society. Give generously.

Mayor Arnold Marshall and County Judge Lee Porter, were also on hand to welcome visitors to the conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Avery, 302 Cimmaron Street, Midland, announce the birth March 18, of a daughter, Melissa Gaye, in Midland Memorial Hospital. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Britton, and Mrs. Lottie Avery of Stanton.

The new baby weighed eight pounds, and 14¹/₂ ounces.

Farm & Ranch Review

Texas Catfish Farmers Organize — A brand new organization, Catfish Farmers of Texas, came into being in late March at a meeting held at Texas A&M University. Don Carr, Eagle Pass, was elected president; W. B. Harris, Columbus, first vice president; Joe Surovik, Liberty, second vice president; Arthur Stehling, Fredericksburg, secretary, and Jack Griffin, San Antonio, treasurer. Board members representing every section of the state, were also elected. Texas now ranks fourth in the Nation, and the catfish industry is growing faster than in any other of the producing states, reports Wallace Klusmann, extension wildlife specialist.

Cedar Apple Rust — If you find your cedar trees covered with a slimy orange substance, they are infected with a fungus disease known as cedar apple rust. Jerral Johnson, extension plant pathologist, says the organism is rather unique, in that it lives for two years on cedar, and one on apple trees. Chemical controls have not proved effective, but by removing the galls before they mature, prevention of the jelly-like substance can be achieved. If the substance has formed, it can be washed away with a high pressure stream of water, says the pathologist.

Alert For Screwworms — With the arrival of spring and warmer weather, screwworm cases can again become a problem. Producers are urged to step-up their inspection programs and reporting systems.

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

The 1970's is supposed to be the decade of the environment, and it takes only a quick look around to see the need for improvement in air, water, land, noise, and light pollution, says the Texas State Department of Health.

An inescapable blight on our environment, is in the area of solid wastes. The litter and the rubble of our society it seen everywhere as a product of the American way of life.

Three factors influence the growing refuse problem: 1. Population increase; 2. Urbanization, and 3. Affluence.

The "throw-away" container is seen everywhere. It's hard to envision 48 billion cans and 28 billion bottles, but that's how many are produced annually in this country. Virtually all are discarded.

One junk automobile doesn't seem much of a problem, but we have to cope with seven million a year — along with 100 million tires, and some 20 million tons of paper. The nation's garbage collection bill is $2.8 billion annually. An average of almost one ton of refuse is thrown away per person in Texas each year. The state average is about five pounds per capita per day, and the figure is rising slowly.

In Texas a total of 26,000 acres of land are used for solid waste disposal. This is equivalent to 41 square miles. Put another way, this is equal to a strip of land a mile wide stretching almost from Houston to Galveston or from Dallas past Fort Worth.

Solid wastes, once collected, can be treated in three ways. They may be incinerated, disposed of in a landfill (buried), or composted into a useable soil conditioner.

Open pit burning, which pollutes the air, has never been a satisfactory way of disposal. Regulations of the Air Control Board, no longer permit open refuse burning by cities of more than 5,000. Cost of incineration is quite high, using equipment with proper air control devices.

Composing plants are in operation, and may serve a growing need in the future, but only limited operations are seen now.

This leaves sanitary landfills as the most promising means of solid wastes disposal. In this method, refuse is dumped into a pit, compacted, and covered each day with dirt. Marginal land is reclaimed by sanitary landfilling for parks, golf courses, and other uses.

The Texas State Department of Health has had an active solid waste program since 1944, primarily of an advisory and educational nature, to help Texans meet their refuse problems each day.

The Beta Sigma Phi City Council met Tuesday, April 7, at the Martin County Library with President LaVelle Reid presiding.

Mrs. Margaret Hemphill, chairman of the Permian Basin Cystic Fibrosis, spoke to the council about sponsoring a the USDA's Agricultural Research Service say farmers often may not suspect hog cholera, because of the length of time between possible exposure to hog cholera, and signs of the disease. Because of lengthy "incubation" period, this is a particularly treacherous means of hog cholera spread.

Meeting closed in regular form. Refreshments of sandwiches, chips 'n dips, and cold drinks, were served by the hostess, Peggy Sorley, to Gene Nowlin, Maxine Kelly, Marilyn Glaspe, Crystal Webb, Bonnie Faye Sorley, and Dorothy Smith.

County Agents Column

By BILLY REAGOR
County Agent

Some folks swear by pesticides, others swear at them. Usually the difference in the two is their understanding of them and how they are applied.

Whether or not pesticides harm men, animals, plants, fish, and wildlife depends largely upon one person — the user, points out County Agent Billy Reagor.

By following a few simple rules of safety when using agricultural chemicals, especially pesticides, trouble can be avoided. Reagor offers these suggestions for their same use. Follow all label directions and safety precautions. The manufacturer is required by law to properly label his material. The label clearly states what the pesticide is to be used for and how. Also precautions for the applicator's safety when applying the material are listed.

All agricultural chemicals, especially pesticides should be stored under lock and key and in their original containers. If for any reason, the original container is not used, then properly label the substance.

No. 1 Lenorah Epley, ¾ mile south of production, is 1,320 feet from north and west lines of the section.

No. 2 Lenorah Epley, one mile east, is 1,320 feet from south and west lines.

John L. Cox, Midland operator, plans No. 1-C Meek, an 8,500 foot project, ¾ mile southwest of production in the Playa region, 600 feet from north, and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 3, block 35, T-1-S, T&P survey, six miles northeast of Stanton.

United States Smelting, Refining & Mining Co., No. 3-4-1444 Hutto, stepout in the WAM, South field, plugged at total depth of 7,527 feet, 933 feet from south, and 660 feet from west lines of the north-east quarter of section 4, block 31, T-1-S, T&P survey, five miles east of Big Spring.

inute, advise the county agent. Don't guess, he warns, what is in the unlabeled bag or bottle. It could be a costly one.

Dispose of containers in a safe manner. Guard against drifting of sprays or dusts. Make sure they do not drift into an area where they will be harmful.

And remember, says Reagor, when you encounter trouble with pesticides, about the only person you can blame is yourself.

Marshall Abernathys Live In Big Spring

Mrs. Marshall Waneal Abernathy, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Waneal Abernathy, Jr. are making their home in Big Spring, at 1514-A Sycamore St., following their marriage here March 27, and a wedding trip to San Antonio.

The Rev. W. H. Uhlman officiated for the 8 p.m. double ring ceremony in the First Baptist Church.

The bride, the former Joy Luan Louder, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy James Louder. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall

Waneal Abernathy, of Hughes Spring, are parents of the bridegroom.

Greenery and candles formed an arch for the kneeling bench, with matching arrangements in the church windows.

Pat Pierce of Clyde, organist, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Jones, vocalists, provided the wedding music.

David Abernathy of Lackland Air Force Base, was his brother's best man.

Mrs. Charles Burnsed of Big Spring, was the matron of honor.

Rosalyn Louder, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid. Debbie Donelson of Littlefield, cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer, Raymond Phillips of Big Spring, and Stanley Louder, brother of the bride, ushered. The groomsmen were Don Horton of Big Spring.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white peau de soie, designed with long lace sleeves with beaded scalloped edges. A rolled collar repeated the lace trim, which also outlined the high rise waistline. A small beaded lace hat held the veil of French illusion overlaying a full cathedral-length train. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, and lace streamers centered with a lavender orchid.

The bride's attendants were dressed alike in A-line, street-length orchid knit, designed with rolled collars. Their headpieces were orchid and pearl flowers, and petals with matching veils. White gloves completed their ensemble, and each carried a long stemming iris with ribbon streamers.

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church. Members of the house party were Mrs. Cliff Hazelwood, Mrs. Prentiss Hightower, Mrs. Karl Herzog, Mrs. Eddie Odom, Mrs. Earl Blocker, Mrs. Louis Roten, Mrs. Lyle Mackey, Mrs. P. M. Bristow, Mrs. Raymond Phillips, Pam Williams, Nancy Phillips, and Sherry Phillips.

The bride is attending Howard County Junior College, and works in the college library. The bridegroom, a graduate of The University of Texas-Austin, is employed by Cosden Oil and Chemical Co., as a chemical engineer.

The Launching Pad

By NEAL ESTES

Congratulations go this week to DAVID K. WORKMAN, JR., Stanton High School senior, upon being tapped as one of the 29 outstanding students in the area served by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. DAVID is the son of MR. and MRS. DAVID WORKMAN, this city, and is one of the finest lads we have ever had the privilege of knowing. He will be among those honored at a banquet to be held on the evening of April 24, in the Hotel Scharbauer ballroom in Midland.

I just couldn't let the paper go to press this week without saying that it is my belief that HOWARD JENKINS, one of the three newly elected city councilmen, will do and act just as he says he intends to do on the city panel. JENKINS says and he said to me in person at the time he announced that he would put his name on the ticket that he would be "his own man." There is no reason for him to be otherwise. He polled 162 votes, ran second, and a lot of good and considerate friends voted for HOWARD the past Saturday. He is rightfully proud of every vote he received, and I predict he is going to make Stanton a good councilman. One of his three sons, HOWARD CLARK, worked for this newspaper for several months, and he made us a very diligent and concerned employee before entering the military service of our country.

BOBBY McCORMACK, reported wounded in Vietnam this week, is a brother of the late ALTON McCORMACK who worked with us here in the newspaper for a number of months. When ALTON left Martin County he was killed accidentally in a California truck accident. He was one of the best young men I ever knew and his brother BOBBY, has the prayers of the entire community in wishing for him a complete recovery.

MAYE and SMITTY SMITH have a new daughter, their first, born in Big Spring, and the birth announcement appears in this issue of the paper. MICHAELLE LEIGH is the new arrival's name. She is not only chief topic of interest around her own home, but in the homes of her maternal grandparents, MR. and MRS. GLENN GATES, and her paternal grandparents, MR. and MRS. FLOYD SMITH. SMITTY has always been one of my favorite young men, and his wife is one of the sweetest girls ever reared in Stanton.

The circulation family at the newspaper continues to grow. It is with a great deal of pride that we acknowledge the reception of the many renewals, and addition of new subscribers to the paper each year. If you are one of the few who live in this community not getting your hometown or adopted hometown newspaper, why not sign up for a subscription today.

Holland-White Vows Solemnized April 7

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Welland W. Atchison, was the scene of the candle light double ring wedding ceremony of Doris Marie White, and U. S. Army Specialist 5th Class Bobby Joe Holland on April 7. The marriage vows were said in the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, with the Rev. Claude Woods of the Stanton Church of Christ officiating. Miss White is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanton White, of this city. Holland is the son of Mrs. Dick Madison, also of Stanton.

The bride and her attendant descended the winding stairway into the living room of the home. Her father presented the bride in marriage, before an altar of matching candle trees of avocado tapers, and winding English ivy and greenery at the fireplace. Miss White was attired in a bridal gown of pure silk peau de soie, and imported re-embroidered Alencon lace, and enhanced with flowerets of Guipure lace. Full, elbow-length umbrella sleeves were scalloped at and fitted to the wrists. A molded Empire waistline by tiny jeweled crystal beads. The slim controlled skirt front and sides were of A-line fashion, and the back fullness formed a carpet-length train. Scallops at the neckline and hemline complemented the gown. Her matching veil, a mantilla of imported Alencon lace, was mounted over an open coil, accented with crystal beads, and fell in folds down the train. She carried a bouquet of streaming ivy, and bows centered with white roses atop a satin covered Bible.

Don Bizzell, brother-in-law of the groom, served as the best man. Miss Debbie White served her sister as maid of honor. The maid of honor wore a carpet-length gown of apple green brocade satin and Empire fashioned. The shaped neckline and hemline were scalloped. Her shoulder-length green veil of silk illusion, fell from a satin band. She carried a nosegay of looped, streaming English ivy, entwined with apple and avocado bows and ribbon.

Candlelighters were Roy Madison, brother of the groom, and Wayne Atchison, cousin of the bride, both of Stanton. After the candlelight ceremony, a reception was held in the country home. Members of the house party were: Marty Harrell, Vicki Burchett of Big Spring, and Doris and Dora Walraven of Midland. All are cousins of the bride. Attending the guest register was Miss Ann Cook.

The bride's table was covered with a white linen and lace table cloth. A cake, tiered and decorated with apple rosebuds and ivy, topped with a bride and soldier figure, was displayed. Lime punch, and an arrangement of greenery, and a basket of rice bags decorated with bows and flowers, completed the arrangement.

The couple will reside temporarily in Stanton, before returning to Kaiserslautern, Germany. In December the couple will return to the United States, at the termination of the bridegroom's tour of duty with the U. S. Army.

Miss White, a 1969 graduate of Stanton High School, is presently employed at the Martin County A. S. C. S. office in Stanton. Holland is a 1966 graduate of SHS, and is currently serving with the U. S. Army in Germany.
