"Buffalo Roundup" Will Be Sold Tuesday, Nov. 2 Only

Subscriptions to the 1972 Buffalo Roundup will be sold on one day only this year. On Tuesday, November 2, annual staff members will accept advance payment of $6.25, assuring these subscribers of receiving an annual. Anyone not paying in advance can take a chance on buying one of the extra annuals ordered when they arrive next Spring. Annuals at that time will sell for $7.30.

On Monday preceding the advance sale of annuals, elementary and junior high students will be given notes to take home explaining the advance price and delivery price. High school students will attend an assembly program presented by the annual staff in which they will be urged to take advantage of the reduction in price and assure themselves of receiving a 1972 yearbook.

to the point

BY BUDDY NORVILLE

We have a new barber at our house. He cut his first head of hair Sunday afternoon (and I hope his last). Brenda and I were relaxing (if watching the Dallas Cowboys is relaxing) when Scotty, who we thought was taking a nap, came into the living room and asked, "how do ya'll like my hair?" We liked his hair fine, but we liked it better on his head.

I didn't know he had so much hair until I saw it on the carpet beside his bed, and under his bed, and on his bed, and in the hall. His head looked like a cat I had one time that had a case of ring worms.

Brenda tried her best to comb it down over the patches, but there was just no way to improve the situation short of shaving his head. We very sternly reprimanded Scotty and then laughed it off. Only we couldn't quite decide if it was a laughing matter or not. I seem to recall a similar stunt his dad pulled in his boyhood days, (he got more than a reprimand!)

I received some depressing news from my hometown of Munday, Texas, the latter part of last week. The 66-year old Munday Times went under, its owner taking voluntary bankruptcy.

The people and merchants of Munday had taken it for granted that the Munday Times could exist on news and subscriptions alone. But, they were certainly wrong. (Today, the money taken in for subscriptions hardly pays the postage, much less the paper it is printed on). The merchants of Munday, Texas took the attitude, "we're the only merchants in town, we don't need to advertise!" So they didn't, and the publisher took a loss. But the whole town suffered a greater loss in the long run.

Have you ever watched a small town die? People begin to move to the city, business after business close their doors, the newspaper ceases to exist, then the schools close. By then the town is dead.

This brings me to my point. As many of you know, I do not own the Stanton Reporter. If I did, I would be like that man in Munday, Texas, I would have gone broke the first month I was in Stanton. I do not want to see the same thing happen here in Stanton that happened in Munday. If the Munday Times couldn't make a go of it on 1800 subscriptions, we can't make it on 1200.

The owners of the Stanton Reporter want Stanton to have a newspaper, but right now they are wondering if Stanton wants one or not.

The people of Munday were in deep shock for a while after they heard what had happened. A town meeting was called at once to discuss the situation. Those attending the meeting decided unanimously that Munday simply could not do without a newspaper. Aaron Edgar, former publisher of the Munday Times (he sold out to the present owner in 1965), was drafted to put out a newspaper somehow. A call to the Texas Press Association revealed he could not see the log of the Munday Times until the financial mess was cleared up. The citizens of Munday witness the birth of the Munday Courier, and just about all had a hand in putting it out.

It's amazing what people can do when the chips are down. Well, all I want to say now is, "support your local merchants who support your local newspaper."

I don't guess my little letter two weeks ago had any effect on anyone. Not a single person wrote a letter to the editor. What's the matter with you people who want a school, or maybe you don't want a school. I wanted some opinions from the public at large, I received nothing. Are you afraid to speak out for what you believe (for or against?) Maybe you don't believe in anything, but yourself. Compared to the rest of this world, your self is nothing but a grain of sand.

Think about the children in school. Think about a school building in Coahoma that collapsed. A building similar to our Junior High School in every respect (except it was newer than ours). Would your conscience let you rest if that happened here? Well, it could, believe me.

I want some letters, I want to know how you (the voters) feel about this issue.

Annual Fun-Time Set For Saturday

The Halloween Carnival is moving up town this year! Seriously, the Booster Club Carnival will be held downtown Stanton. The usual place was not available this year, so the Booster Club was forced to make a change. The building occupied by Jones Hardware and Tiny's Novelties are the sites for this year's Carnival. The alley between the two buildings and the one directly across the street will be used for the outside games, such as football throw.

The Carnival will begin at 7:00 p.m. Saturday, October 2. The usual games, booth Buffalo Bingo will be present again this year.

The carnival is the major fund - raising activity of the Booster Club, held annually. Bill Coggin, president of the Booster Club, announced there will be plenty of prizes and plenty of fun to be had by everyone.

Come out and enjoy the Carnival. Bring a little happiness into the life of your children. Bring them too.

TRICK OR TREAT—It's that time again. Watch out for those spooks and goblins (and bears).

Check Costumes Close For "Trick Or Treat"

Halloween is the time for "trick or treat" but you should take special care to read labels on the costumes you children may be wearing when they comb the neighborhood.

This advice comes from Mrs. Mildred Elland, who says that fabrics from which costumes are made should be treated so they are not inflammable.

"Some costume fabrics are highly inflammable and so therefore are dangerous when worn near flames," she cautions. "Halloween is often a time for toasting marshmallows and roasting weiners, so be sure your children are safe."

Mrs. Elland suggests you also check labels on synthetic play wigs. And, halloween masks should not have offensive odors which may irritate a child's throat when inhaled.

Let your children have fun—but safely.

STANTON LIONS' CLUB NEWS:

From The Lions' Den

Mr. Shelby Parnell from the Big Spring State Hospital was the speaker for the Lions Club Tuesday noon. Mr. Parnell is a counselor in the alcoholic treatment center at the hospital. He said that the Big Spring Hospital is the number one treatment center in the entire state of Texas.

The facilities for treating alcoholics have grown from 10 beds in 1955 to 200 beds at present. A separate building altogether is used by the treatment center.

Mr. Parnell defined an alcoholic as living a way of life that has created the use of alcohol in harmful quantities. It is a sickness, that harms the cell structure of the human anatomy. Alcoholism is no respecter of persons, everyone is a potential alcoholic.

He said they were not doing 'nothing' in the area of treatment of alcoholics. They are doing something in Big Spring, with good results.

Judy Costlow and Mike Adams were recognized as Citizens of the Month by Lions Club President, Jim Conner. Lion Conner presented each with a certificate signifying the honor.

The Wagners took the Landers to all the down town sights and the United Steel Building and many factory outlets. "It was a thrill and a visit Herman and I will always remember just seeing such lovely sights that surround Pittsburgh and that great big city and buildings. And Herman and I met and visited with Herman's niece and her family, Sgt. and Mrs. Hile, Sue, Tina, Michel, and Herald all from Michigan. The Hiles spent four days with us at Mr. and Mrs. Wagner's before going to other parts of Pennsylvania."

Here's A Good Idea...

Here are some tips and ideas on how to save time, money and your temper on many do-it-yourself projects. You may want to keep this information handy for future reference.

From the Painter's Notebook

When painting stairs, make it a two day job. Paint even numbered steps one day, odd numbered steps the next. This way you'll be able to use the steps throughout the painting project.

Make nail holes around the inside rim of the paint can you're using. When you wipe the excess paint off your brush, the paint will run back into the can.

Next time you find yourself painting a room, cut up a raw onion and leave it in the room. The onion absorbs the paint odor and the paint does the same for the onion.

Cleaning Tricks

Wash windows with a mixture of 1/4 cup cornstarch in a half gallon of warm water. It works! ... A wad of aluminum foil dipped in cold water will clean chrome car bumpers just great.

Try putting paste wax on your chrome bathroom fixtures. The fixtures won't spot.

A wet paper towel sprinkled with automatic dish-washing compound makes a fine oven cleaner.

Refinishing Tips

You don't have to be an expert to do a good refinishing job—on anything. But, just as with any repair project, it's important to have the correct tools and materials for the job.

When staining wood always apply the stain "with the grain" of the wood — never against. Character and shading can be added by varying the time and quantity of stain used.

Minor body damage on the family car such as scratches, dents and rust spots can also be corrected by the do-it-yourselfer. Such items as auto body putty and Production sandpaper help to make such repairs a lot easier.

For any sanding job, including those on boats, several tools are helpful: (A) the portable belt sander which uses abrasive cloth belts; (B) the disc sander utilizing abrasive discs; and (C) the oscillating sander which makes use of coated abrasive sheets.

The Coated Abrasives division of the 3M Company, a leading producer in the abrasives field, has produced three new booklets covering: (1) refinishing of furniture, (2) minor auto body repair, (3) boat maintenance. Free copies of each are available by contacting local retailers where sandpaper is sold.

The Outdoors

Grass clippers, shovels, hoes and pruners should be sharpened regularly. File tools while they are clamped in a vise. . . . If your small boat needs an anchor, try this: take an empty plastic bleach container and fill it with mortar. When the mortar hardens, there's your anchor. Tie the anchor rope to the handle of the jug.

END WASHDAY HANG-UPS

WITH A FLAMELESS ELECTRIC DRYER!

How many times have you dreaded seeing washday roll around—because of rain, blue northers, dusty winds or hundred-plus sunshine?

These are hang-ups you wouldn't have to face if you owned a flameless electric clothes dryer. You'd just move the clothes from your washer into the dryer, turn a dial and forget about the weather.

And you could dry clothes any time of the day or night.

If you were drying permanent press clothes, many would come out ready for wearing. Which could save you lots of ironing.

An electric dryer really makes sense. It costs less to buy. Only one energy source is needed. And it saves you hours of work for pennies a load.

See your appliance dealer soon about a flameless electric dryer.

Soil Conservation News

MARTIN-HOWARD-MIDLAND SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT

We do not appreciate water until the wells run dry. Only nature makes water and there will be no more than exists today. This alone makes the conservation of our water resources mandatory. We must plan and conserve this resource for the future.

Agriculture has so far had first call on the water supplies and has been the principle user of water resources. But this is rapidly changing. Increased use by industry, recreation and urban users is demanding a high share of this resource. The time in the near future agriculture could be called on to justify its use of water. In some areas, a high priority than agriculture direct water to other uses.

As the population increases, so does the demand for water. Total consumption of water per person now is about 100 gallons per day. By 1980, it is estimated this will rise to 150 gallons per day.

Wheat that goes into the loaf of bread requires 115 gallons of water to grow. It takes 65,000 gallons of water to process one ton of finished flour. One gallon of gasoline requires 7.10 gallons of water in the refining process. These examples show the tremendous need for water. To supply all industries now and in the future will require careful planning.

What about agriculture? Each cutting of alfalfa hay requires some 325,000 gallons of water to grow it. One acre of cotton requires some 800,000 gallons to mature one crop. Some citrus and vegetable crops require a million or more gallons of water per acre per season. Brush and weeds on our grassland in Texas waste about 145 million acre feet of water annually. This is 40 per cent of the state's total use. Irrigation users account for the greatest use of water today.

What can be done? A lot. The Martin - Howard - Midland Soil Conservation District is actively fighting the problems of water conservation. The supervisors are conscious of the fact that water sustains life and that our future generations are dependent upon our wise use and planning of this great resource.

One of the most effective practices of water conservation on cropland is the use of parallel or standard terraces. Terraces hold rainfall upon the slopes and spreads the water evenly over the field. Contour farming with the terraces further helps to distribute the water between terraces.

Another practice that is saving millions of gallons of water annually is controlling undesirable brush on our grassland. Brush control and followup grazing management allows the better grasses to become established and productive. A good grass cover is very effective in reducing runoff of water.

A properly designed and operating irrigation system is important to any water conservation project. Irrigation water waste is widespread. Too often too little or too much water is applied resulting in poor water efficiency. Timely applications with the right amount of water applied each time is needed with each irrigation system. The district objective is to have a conservation irrigation system on each farm where there is irrigation.

A special project to get more conservation education taught in our local schools is now being planned. The supervisors want each boy and girl to receive training in the importance of our resources. This training early in life will shape their thinking and attitudes for the future.

Conservation of our water resources is at a critical point. No longer is it just a farmer's or rancher's problem. It now belongs to all—rural and urban. Remember, you can live longer without food than water.

Many severely disabled WW II veterans apparently are not aware that VA provides funds for the purchase of automobiles, and for repair or replacement of special adaptive equipment for these vehicles.

Job Corps Has Openings Now

There are now openings in the Job Corps for young men and women between ages 16 and 22 who are not in school, and unable to find adequate jobs. Norman Zachry, interviewer of the Texas Employment Commission said this week.

"Job Corps strengthens basic educational skills, and offers a wide range of vocational training in job skills which are in demand today," Mr. Zachry said. In addition, personal development is encouraged through sports, music, hobbies, student government and recreation.

Enrollees in this residential training program receive room and board, medical and dental care, work clothing, a nominal allowance and other benefits.

Texas Employment Commission interviews and screens applicants for Job Corps openings and sends the applications to Job Corps headquarters for selection and assignment.

Capon Show Set For November 13

The annual Martin County Capon Show is scheduled for Saturday, November 13, 1971 at the county show barn. The capons will be weighed in by 6:00 p.m. on Friday. Judging will begin promptly at 8:00 a.m. on Saturday. The birds will be classified into heavy and light singles and trios.

A sale will begin at 1:30 p.m. with Eddie Owen of Big Spring auctioneer.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock - based cotton producer organization, is objecting to the lack of changes in the 1972 cotton program as announced in Dallas October 18 by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

PCG objections and the reasoning behind them were expressed October 22 in a letter to Agricultural Secretary Clifford Hardin from PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson. The text of the letter follows.

"We have studied the announced provisions of the 1972 cotton program and find we are not entirely in agreement that they are all in the best interests of cotton producers and the cotton industry.

"We commend your decision to increase the minimum price at which Commodity Credit Corporation stocks can be sold in competition with cotton held by producers. The new 110 per cent of the loan, as opposed to the previous 110 per cent of the loan minimum, will give us a little better opportunity to benefit from market price fluctuations in the future, and we appreciate being given that opportunity.

"On the other hand, as we have indicated to you previously, we feel (1) that the level of the 195 cent loan should be raised and (2) that there should be either a reduction in the required 20 per cent set - aside for cotton or else permission to plant cotton on set - aside acres.

"These actions under current conditions are needed to give producers added price protection in the market place and to give our cotton customers in this country and abroad greater assurance that U. S. farmers in 1972 will produce adequate supplies to meet their needs. Without each assurance they have no choice but to protect their investments by planning in the direction of other fibers. At least one maker of bed sheets has indicated already that consideration is being given to a shift from 50-50 polyester-cotton blend to a 65-35 blend for this very reason.

"In the light of present market conditions the level of the loan may not appear to be of great significance," but this situation could change rapidly. Producers know this and therefore desperately need an increase in the 'floor' under their prices, if they are to secure the necessary financing for increased cotton acreage.

"All cotton people have long been concerned that a higher loan level sometimes encourages increased cotton production in competing foreign countries. But such is not now the case. World market prices are such that the danger of stimulating foreign production lies not in the U. S. loan level but in giving foreign producers confidence that they will not produce enough cotton to supply its export markets. The Cotton and General Economic Review, published in Liverpool and widely read throughout the world, commented prior to announcement of 1972 program provisions 'On present indications the USDA intends neither to raise the basic acreage allotment nor to ease the set - aside regulations and will rely upon current market values and a modest increase in the loan to effect an expansion of plantings.'

"Of greater significance, however, from the same paragraph is the following: 'Recollection of events last spring, when high prices were already a foregone conclusion, engenders little faith in such a policy. Farmers in other producing countries should now be actively encouraged to aim at a bumper 1972-73 crop and will manifestly face little price risk in doing so.'

"Without a 'modest increase in the loan' as referred to above, and with confirmation of this respected writer's suspicions that there would be no increase on base allotments or relaxing of set - aside requirements, we must conclude that foreign producers will in fact aim at a bumper 1972 crop.'

"We cannot conceive of any better evidence than the foregoing that the program provisions announced for next year are seriously lacking in their prospects for avoiding effects detrimental to the U. S. cotton producer and the U. S. cotton industry.

"As you know it has been reported that the 1972 program is a 'tentative' program and that changes may be made following the planting intentions survey in January. And we are grateful for this indication that the Department is not locked in on a program which we feel is not in the best interests of U. S. cotton producers. But at the same time we would point out that late January or early February program revisions will be too late to inspire additional plantings on many U. S. farms and too late to deter expanded acreage in many competing countries.

"If U. S. cotton producers are to be given the price protection and other incentives necessary to increase production; if U. S. textile mills are to have any assurance at all that adequate, balanced supplies will be available to meet their demands; and if foreign cotton producers are not to be given strong and logical reasons for acreage increases, changes in 1972 cotton program provisions are required at the earliest possible date."

STANTON, TEXAS

TEXAS SAFETY ASSOCIATION President J. U. Parker, Houston, presents Governor Preston Smith with a special honor from the statewide safety organization. Parker explained to the Governor that a resolution praising Smith was passed during TSA's 32nd Annual Texas Safety Conference. The resolution honoring Governor Smith commended him for his "untiring efforts and personal leadership in the fight for a safer Texas." It also praised the Governor for what was termed "outstanding contributions to the fields of traffic and occupational safety in Texas."

Halloween Night Of Children's Fun

It might be said that Halloween is the night children's spirits rise to some good fun. But parents should see to it the "good times" are not at someone else's expense says Mrs. Mildred Elland, County Home Demonstration Agent.

When older children go out on their own at Halloween, parents should know where they plan to be. Remind children to be courteous at doors when asking for treats. Older kids should also remember that destruction or harassment of younger children is not part of the Halloween spirit.

Younger children should never go "trick or treating" alone or even with a group the same age, Mrs. Elland continues. Street traffic, older children and the unfamiliar look of a darkened neighborhood can be too much for a small child to handle. A parent or teen-age brother or sister should accompany the younger set.

Children of all ages should wear light colored clothing — or that which reflects light for safety.

Instruct all "goblins" to bring home their treats rather than nibble as they go. Then, parents can check over the loot; sometimes there may be goodies that are not edible.

When ghosts and witches prowl at Halloween, there are some dangers that don't involve the supernatural. But when parents take a few precautions, the annual trek for treats is fun for all.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

I'm writing due to your article in last week's Reporter on Football Talk.

First of all, our team is just a small school team, and you can't expect them to play like professionals. As for their fumbling, even professionals do that, two of our professional teams set a record just week before last on fumbling, so I say a small school team can certainly be forgiven for fumbling.

Second, I believe sportsmanship is much more important than winning any game, and I understand Coahoma cursed our boys all through the game plus hitting them in the back. I have never heard such about our boys, so in my estimation our boys beat them by 100 points, because sportsmanship is worth that much.

Third, no matter what our team does they should be supported fully. If they are going to be criticized for doing their best why should they even care what they do? I'm for our team and will stand behind them win or lose.

Sincerely,
Evelyn Stone

Philosopher Cites Evidence Viet Nam Is Up To Normal

Editor's note: The Martin County Philosopher on his Crabgrass farm on Mustang Draw thinks he has discovered something, his letter this week claims.

Dear Editor:
Correct me if I'm wrong, which means if you think I'm wrong keep quiet about it, but I have been putting together a lot of things I've been reading in the newspapers and seeing on television in the last few months about Viet Nam and I believe I've figured out something that has escaped President Nixon.

This is not to criticize the President, after all when you have inflation and Congress on your hands, not to mention two jobs to fill on the Supreme Court, wage and price freezes, the value of the dollar, balance of payment worries, a trip to China and Russia and a daughter with a foot in a cast, there are some things you're bound to overlook.

But as I understand our position for the last ten years through four different presidents, our sole aim in Viet Nam has been to get that country on its feet, politically and economically, so it can go about its business in a normal fashion, the same as any other country.

I believe that situation has now been reached. That country is now as normal as the rest of the world. I'll cite the evidence: (1) It's operating on borrowed money and going deeper in debt all the time. (2) Inflation is just as bad there as it is anywhere else. (3) Its farmers are the lowest paid group in the country. (4) After the last election, the winner's opponents claimed the election was rigged. (5) The use of dope is widespread. (6) Traffic is just as snarled in Saigon as it is in any city in America, France, etc. (7) Hospital costs are out of sight. (8) Crime is soaring, and finally (9) and this is the clincher, the overwhelming evidence that South Viet Nam is as normal as the rest of the world, its college students are rioting.

I don't know how we did it, but it now looks like South Viet Nam is on a level with the rest of the nations of the world and we might as well come on back home.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Crane Fumbles to Victory Over Buffs

By BUDDY NORVILLE

The Stanton Buffaloes continued their losing ways Friday night, dropping their second district game to Crane, 32-0.

Crane came down intent upon losing to Stanton, as they gave up several fumbles to the Buffaloes, but the Buffaloes could not generate an offense.

It was the same victory for

the visitors in District 5-AA action against no defeats. Crane will meet Coahoma soon and the winner of the game should go on to be the District Champion.

The opening minutes of the first quarter gave spectators the impression that it might be Stanton's ballgame as they forced Crane to fumble on second down on their own 22.

Curt Howard got number one of at least three recoveries for the Buffaloes.

Rick Wilson made good yardage on keeper plays running from the option-type offense. But the Buffaloes stampered was halted on the Crane 12 and Stanton saw their big chance to score fade away.

Crane quickly moved the ball out to the 20 on a run by Ronald Holland. Crane stepped on out to the 44 by picking up two more first downs. Randy Daniel lost the football on the 50 and Chipper Coggin gathered it in.

Wilson made six on first down when he tried right end, then cut back to the middle of the field. Armando Pios lost six on second down and the Buffs were faced with a third and ten. An incomplete pass to Paul McCallister set up a fourth and ten. Wilson passed to Gay Posey, who fought for nine yards—one yard short of a first down.

The Buffalo defense held Crane to only 5 yards and forced them to kick on fourth down.

Stanton played determined football for two plays. Dwayne McMeans and Rios got a first down. Then the Buff offensive surge died on the 37 of Stanton.

A ten-yard punt, off the toe of Rick Wilson, gave Crane excellent field position on the Stanton 47.

Crane moved to the Stanton 10 in only 5 plays. But Curt Howard found another loose football and Stanton was spared a touchdown.

McMeans pulled Stanton out to the Crane 43, where Wilson lost 6 on second down and threw an incomplete pass on third. Wilson's kick was blocked on fourth down and Crane took over on Stanton's 29.

Crane drove to score in four plays only they fumbled in the end zone and Stanton recovered for a touchdown.

Stanton, however, gave it right back to Crane on first down. Four plays later, Stanton's first mistake put 6 points on the board for Crane. Leon Jeffery bucked over from the six for Crane's first score. The try for PAT failed.

Crane held Stanton and Wilson was forced to kick. Wilson got off another short kick and Crane set up shop on Stanton's 25. Crane fumbled on Stanton's 19 where Curt Howard grabbed up his third recovery.

Wilson took to the air and Crane intercepted, setting up their second touchdown. Leon Jeffery got his second TD, this time on a 10-yard romp. He tried running the PAT, but failed, Crane 12-0.

The half ended with Crane ahead by 12 points. The difference in the first half was Crane's ability to take advantage of Stanton's mistakes and Stanton's inability to cash in on Crane's errors.

Stanton received the kick off and immediately fumbled the ball to Crane on the 25. Crane scored in three plays with Glenn Everett going the final 10. Terry Neal kicked the PAT, 19-0.

Stanton drove to their own 49 where Wilson attempted a pass on fourth down, but threw incomplete. It took the Stanton offense 15 plays and 2 Crane penalties to move them the 37 yards.

Crane's Ricky Daniel shocked the Buffaloes with a 51-yard dash for paydirt on first down. And the Cranes commanded a comfortable 25-0 lead with 5 minutes still to play in the third quarter.

Tim Maynard intercepted another Wilson pass in Stanton's next possession, and Stanton's third mistake set-up Crane's last touchdown. This time Jeffery went 36 yards to score. After a ten yard gain it appeared Jeffery was stopped, but then he battled free and raced on in the score. At least 10 Buffaloes had a hand on him as he went past. Neil's kick gave Crane a 32-0 lead.

The fourth quarter saw the Buffs get two fumbles from Crane. But getting them and doing something with them proved to be something different altogether. Stanton controlled the ball most of the quarter, but couldn't score.

Stanton will take on McCamey, also winless in District play Friday night at McCamey.

7th Undeclared, Roll Over Crane, 14-0

After the opening kick-off, the Stanton 7th grade Buffaloes drove the field against the Crane defense. After 10 plays, which saw the Buffaloes drive to the 10 yard line, the Buffaloes carried the ball for six points. The 7th and 8th grades traveled to McCamey this week.

Crane, but the determined Buffalo defense would not allow the Cranes to move the ball. After Crane's fourth down punt, the Buffaloes again marched the length of the field, where Terry Smith went around left end from 15 yards out to hit pay dirt. Nicky Irvin successfully made the extra points by following the blocks of Roger Owens and Joe Dean. After this the Buffaloes seemed content to stop the Crane offense and settle for a 14-0 victory.

The 7th and 8th grades traveled to McCamey this week.

Cancer Society Memorial Program Getting More Popular

An indication of the growing popularity of the American Cancer Society's Memorial Program was given today by Mrs. John Rouech, Memorial Chairman of the Society's Martin unit.

Mrs. Rouech said that Memorial gifts to the unit totaled $156 during the fiscal year which ended on August 31. "The rapid growth of memorial giving is due to a keener public appreciation of the fact that more tools are needed in the fight against cancer," Mrs. Rouech stated.

She pointed out the research against the disease has progressed so rapidly that there has not been enough money available to follow up on the many new leads which have been uncovered in recent months.

"Research against cancer has widened tremendously, and most scientists now believe that the disease will be conquered before many more years have passed," she said.

Mrs. Rouech said that the memorial gifts received by the local unit of the American Cancer Society are made not only as remembrances of those who have died of cancer, but frequently in honor of happier events, such as anniversaries and birthdays.

"Some donors," she said, have established the habit of making memorial gifts at regular intervals during the year.

Every memorial gift is acknowledged with a dignified white card naming the person in whose honor the gift is made. This card is sent to the person designated by the donor. It does not state the amount of the gift.

Mrs. Rouech said that the process of making a memorial gift is simple. The only information needed is the name of the person honored and the name and address of the person to whom acknowledgment should be sent. Special envelopes are available at the American Cancer Society, Box 656, Stanton, and can be obtained by calling 756-2200.
