State competition...

One-act wins 2nd

Snyder High School's 21st appearance at the state UIL one-act play contest garnered a second place win Friday in Austin.

Snyder's "Blood Wedding" was chosen first runner-up. The first place play was Gregory-Portland's "I'm not Rappaport." Named third among the eight plays qualifying for state was Rockwall's "Children of a Lesser God."

Snyder students also won best actor and best actress honors for the Class 4-A competition.

Coy Berryman as Leonardo was chosen best actor and Kristi Mize in the role of the mother was named best actress.

In addition, Amber Adams as the bride was named to the all star cast; and Corey McDaniel as the bridegroom was chosen for honorable mention to the all star cast.

Director Jerry Worsham called it "the hardest competition I think we've ever faced."

"I really think the judge had a hard time choosing between us and Gregory-Portland," he said.

The performance Friday in the Performing Arts Center on the University of Texas campus marked Worsham's 19th one-act play to qualify for state competition. This record includes 11 first place wins.

He said the one-act cast is expected to arrive back in Snyder around 6 p.m. Sunday. A hometown performance of "Blood Wedding" will be scheduled, but a date has not been set as yet.

The following lists individual honors won by the one-act troupe. See PLAY, page 14A

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Necessity may be the mother invention, but frustration is often the father of success."

News from the Middle East tends to make headlines almost daily. These stories bring to mind the old adage, "Necessity may be the mother invention, but frustration is often the father of success."

Irate countrymen quickly tried and convicted all three Americans. They were sentenced to death in the newly imported electric chair from Huntsville.

The first one was marched to the chair and asked if he had any last words. He said, "I'm a graduate of the University of Texas law school and this is the worst possible travesty of justice."

The executioner pulled the switch, but nothing happened. The superstitious authorities then conferred, and finally released the Texas lawyer.

The second man was then marched to the chair, and was afforded the same opportunity to speak. "I am a graduate of Baylor University divinity school and I will forgive you of this foul act, even as God forgives you."

One again, the switch was thrown, but to no avail. Once again the countrymen decided to release the Texas minister.

The third man was marched to the chair and given to opportunity to speak. "I am a graduate of the Texas A&M school of engineering—and if you'll connect that white wire over there to the red one, this gizmo will work 100 percent better."

Principal Jim Erwin said some second graders at East Elementary were asked to complete the following sentence: "My mother cooks the best..."

One youngster offered: "My mother cooks the best...she can."

Eric Floyd's nickname is "Sleepy." But he shares the record for most minutes played in an NBA game, 64, posted in a four-overtime game in 1987.

Rare birds are flood victims or fly coop

DALLAS (AP) — Gone with the wind — and water. That's what happened to 14 rare birds at the Dallas Zoo during a severe thunderstorm that raked the city.

Four other birds also were reported missing, although zoo officials held hope that they might return or be found elsewhere.

The swelling of nearby Cedar Creek during a power-packed storm that drenched Dallas early Friday morning flooded the zoo's Bird Valley. The exhibit is a sunken area where about 40 birds were kept in cages.

About 20 birds, caked with mud but otherwise unhurt, were evacuated by zoo workers after it was learned a flash flood had swept through the city-run zoo.

The other birds already were dead, killed in a rush of water.

"Three of the bird cages were basically destroyed," said general curator Ron Kagan. "It was quite catastrophic."

The dead birds were four partridges, two seriema chicks, two impeyan pheasants, two spoonbills, two peacocks and two birds of the Edward's pheasant species.

The missing birds are a congo pea fowl, a Jackson's hornbill, a blue-winged kookaburra and a pied imperial pigeon.

Kagan said there is no way to place a monetary value on the birds.

"It's very sad that anything was lost and, certainly, it makes no difference if they were rare or endangered or expensive or not," Kagan said.

Zoo spokeswoman Dawn McDonough said the flood was the first at the zoo in at least 10 years.

"This was one of those natural disasters that there's really no preparing for or controlling," McDonough said.

Tea set Thursday at hospital

Cogdell Memorial Hospital joins with hospitals across the state in celebrating Texas Hospital Week, May 7-13. This observance is centered around the theme, "Hospitals—At The Heart of the Community."

In conjunction with this special week, the hospital auxiliary will host a tea for all hospital employees and staff physicians and their employees on Thursday, May 11, from 1-30-3:30 p.m. in the doctors lounge at the hospital.

"Cogdell Memorial Hospital provides important services to the community but we also rely on the support of area residents and community organizations," said Tom Hochwalt, CEO.

"We think that the 1989 hospital week theme reflects the interdependence of the hospital and the community."

"The hospital team of employees, volunteers, medical staff members and the board of managers work together to serve the needs of patients and visitors," Hochwalt said.

The nation's first Labor Day parade was held in 1882 in New York.

"Hey, I appreciate what you're trying to do, but I'm in a very deep depression."

Since 1905...

And we're just getting started!

Good things don't just happen—they require planning and teamwork. These two ingredients were part of an effort in 1964 to secure a coliseum for Scurry County. Commissioners appointed five men—Stanley Noah, Fickas Bell, John Boren, W. A. McGlaun and Cullen Toombs—to secure information about a coliseum. When the data was obtained, the community went to work and residents now enjoy one of the most modern facilities in the area. Snyder National Bank has been proud to be a part of community projects for more than 60 years.

Since 1905, Snyder National Bank has played a vital role in the progress of Snyder and Scurry County. But we've just begun, and the future of our area looks bright...

When something has to be accomplished in Snyder, you can always count on SNB. For more than 84 years, our people have rolled up their sleeves and gone to work. Service is what SNB is all about. We want you to be a part of the Snyder National Bank family.

Kilroy's parents unveil anti-drug committee

SANTA FE, Texas (AP) — The parents of a University of Texas student slain by cultist drug smugglers in Mexico are starting what they hope will be a national effort to fight illegal drug dealing and drug use.

James and Helen Kilroy on Thursday announced formation of a committee called Make a Responsible Commitment — or MARK — named after their son, Mark, who was abducted from a Matamoros, Mexico street during a spring break trip. Mark's body was found buried in a shallow grave on a ranch near Matamoros, Mexico, the victim of a drug smuggling cult that believed human sacrifice would protect their drug operation.

"We want to let everybody know there is a lot of outrage in this country against drugs," James Kilroy said. "The only way to do that is to try to unite all the organizations — churches, clubs, anybody. There will be change only when the people demand it."

The Kilroys appeared before a group of about 600 people at a town meeting they had called.

"Drugs cross state lines," Kilroy said. "Drugs are a problem defeating our nation."

Helen Kilroy said she hoped her son's death would serve as a rallying point.

"I think every parent, brother and sister see their brother, sister or son in Mark," she said.

Ex-resident promoted to sergeant

George Yeilding, a native of Snyder, was recently promoted to the rank of sergeant in the Big Spring Police Department. He was selected on the basis of performance through a competitive exam.

The sergeant's exam consisted of a written portion to determine his knowledge of law enforcement procedures, local, state and federal laws, as well as department policies. He also met before an interview board which evaluated his ability to translate laws and procedures under supervisory conditions.

Yeilding, a graduate of Snyder High School and Western Texas College, has been in law enforcement for nine years. He has been with the Big Spring Police Department since November of 1987. He holds an intermediate and instructor's certificate in law enforcement and teaches in the criminal justice department at Howard College.

Yeilding has numerous police schools to his credit and has patrol, criminal investigation, and civil process experience.

He is the son of Ralph and Ann Yeilding and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Autry of Snyder. He is married and has one child.

Christmas card arrives 11 years late

AMSTERDAM, N.Y. (AP) — Alfred Puglisi thought it strange to receive a Christmas Card in May — and stranger still that it was from Christmas 1978.

Puglisi received a Christmas card on Monday that was originally mailed from Hallendale, Fla., in December 1978, according to the earliest postmark.

FBI involved in book search

Nathaniel Briggs of New Hampshire patented a washing machine in 1797.

GALVESTON, Texas (AP) — The FBI is investigating the disappearance of at least 80 rare books from a collection at the Moody Medical Library at the University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston.

Library officials would not disclose what is missing from the collection, the current value of which was not immediately known. The Houston Chronicle reported that in 1972 the collection was valued at $1.5 million.

Dr. George T. Bryan, vice president for academic affairs at the medical school, indicated Friday that the investigation is focusing on some suspects, but he declined to elaborate.

The Chronicle reported that at least one library employee has taken a polygraph test.

Head librarian Emil Frey said he didn't have a list of the missing books, but medical school sources told the newspaper that they were from the library's 18,000-volume rare book collection.

With a capacity of 250,000 volumes, the library is named for Galveston's Moody family. The family's philanthropic Moody Foundation is a chief library benefactor.

The Foundation donated $1 million toward the $2.8 million construction cost of the library in 1972 and has given more than $600,000 to the university for the purchase of rare books.

"A lot of these are very old books. There are medical books, medical history books, and all kinds of maps," said a Moody Foundation spokesman who requested anonymity. "They are some of the oldest medical books around."

Some of the books in the collection are on loan from the foundation, he said.

Medical branch Chief of Police Maurice A. Harr directed inquiries about the book investigation to the school's public affairs department.

Ritchie makes Master Sergeant

Tim Ritchie of Snyder has recently been promoted to the rank of Master Sergeant in the National Guard. He received 34 state and federal awards during his 16 years of service which started in the U. S. Navy during the Vietnam War.

After his honorable discharge from the USN in 1974 he was transferred into the inactive reserve only to be reactivated in 1980 when he joined the National Guard.

Ritchie served six years with the National Guard and is not an instructor in the Defense Against Nuclear, Biological and Chemical Warfare with the 4166th United States Army Reserve School in Lubbock.

He is the co-owner of Scurry County Abstract Company which provides title insurance in Snyder. He is a volunteer in the Lone Buffalo District of the Boy Scouts of America and the Snyder Neighbor Sharing which makes home repairs for the elderly.

No deaths from crash

CANCUN, Mexico (AP) — A tourist plane carrying up to 17 foreign tourists crashed afternoon in the jungles of the Yucatan peninsula after an engine failed, but officials said there were no deaths.

Diego Acosta, commander of the Red Cross in Cancun, said army troops in radio contact with the pilot early Saturday said some of the passengers were injured. There was no word on the seriousness of the injuries.

The three-engine, British-made Aerocozumel plane flying from the archeological site of Chichen Itza to the island resort of Cozumel crashed into the jungle about two miles outside the Playa del Carmen airport, about 25 miles south of Cancun.

An eight-year Petrolite veteran, Giddens represents the company's line of oil field specialty chemicals and services in his Snyder sales territory.

Giddens and his family reside at 3709 Avenue U in Snyder.

Bill explained

HOUSTON (AP) — A thrift bill in Congress contains a provision that would require banks to bail out affiliates, but it exempts the non-Texas banks of Chemical Banking Corp. and First Interstate Bancorp.

The exemption would mean Chemical and First Interstate would not have to pump money into their Texas affiliates, the Texas Commerce banks and First Interstate Bank of Texas.

Although the amendment doesn't mention Texas Commerce or First Interstate of Texas by name, it comes close.

Grace Lutheran Church would like to thank all those who came out Saturday to the Bazaar. The winners on the raffles were:

Tigers fall in 11 innings...

Panthers outlast Snyder, 8-7

FORT STOCKTON - Snyder's Tigers were one out away from clinching a berth in the Class 4A post-season playoffs. Now, they'll have to try to do it the hard way.

Fort Stockton, after chasing Snyder through the first six innings, got the tying run on a balk call, then outlasted the Tigers through four more innings to win 8-7 here Friday night.

The loss dropped Snyder into a three-way tie with the Panthers and Andrews, which slapped Lake View 14-4. All three teams have 9-4 district records now. In Friday's other game, Monahans stung Big Spring 9-6.

The Monahans victory over Big Spring was the one Snyder fans wanted to hear. With a win over Fort Stockton, the Tigers would have automatically been locked in the playoffs. Now, however, the situation comes down to Tuesday's action. Snyder plays in Big Spring at 4 p.m. In other key games, Fort Stockton visits Pecos and Andrews is at Monahans. If the home teams win those games the district would wind up in a five-way tie for first place. At best, the situation will leave two teams tied for first place, who will have to play an extra game to determine 1-2 seeding into the playoffs.

The star of Friday's contest here was clearly Fort Stockton pitcher Aaron Ramirez, who improved his record to 5-1. Ramirez pitched the entire 11 inning ballgame and got stronger as the contest went on. The right hander retired the last 10 Tiger batters in order - including seven by strikeout. He gave up just one walk.

Still, Snyder touched the Ramirez-led Panthers for five runs in the top of the second inning. John Wright led off with a single. Two outs later, Toby Goodwin reached on an error. Another error on a Bert Merritt-hit ball pushed Wright and Goodwin home for a 2-0 lead. Jason West followed with a triple to score Merritt. Yet another error on a bad throw put Randy Morris on base and scored West. The Tigers got their final run of the inning when Tracy Odom singled reached on a single. Snyder coaches replaced a tiring Dollins with Lee Fletcher in the fourth stanza and he responded by getting the Panthers out three-up, three-down. He also got some insurance in the sixth when Morris rapped Ramirez for a one-out, two-run single for a 7-4 advantage.

Fort Stockton regained one run in the sixth when Sadler was hit with a pitch, took third on a single from Joaquin Banda and scored on a basehit from David Borrego, 7-5.

In the seventh, Craig Borrego walked and Felix Hernandez scurried to first on a Tiger error to give the Panthers momentum. It appeared that Snyder would hang on, however, when Fletcher fanned Victor Hernandez and caused Villa to ground out. That wasn't the case, though.

Valenzuela was able to clip off a single, scoring Craig Borrego and leaving runners on the corners. Sadler then stepped into the box but Fort Stockton got the tying run before he took a swing. Fletcher made a move to third to keep courtesy runner Pete Martinez close and was called for a balk. Martinez walked home, tying the game at 7-7.

Snyder put up its last challenge in the eighth when Odom rapped a two-out single to send baserunners Goodwin and West around the bags. A good throw by Sadler in left field got the ball to catcher Felix Hernandez in plenty of time to get Goodwin coming home, though.

The Tigers went three-up, three-down in the ninth, 10th and 11th innings. Ramirez struck out the side in the 11th.

Fort Stockton mounted a threat in the 10th when a walk, a single and an error loaded the bases. Fletcher was able to get Victor Hernandez to pop up to Morris at third, ending the inning.

The Panthers came back strong in the 11th. Villa walked and Valenzuela followed with a single. Sadler then punched a basehit to score Villa and call a halt to the ballgame.

The win stopped a three-game victory streak for Snyder and left the Tigers at 17-8 overall. Fort Stockton is 13-8.

Both teams were credited with 10 basehits. West punched a triple and a single while Odom and Wright had two singles each for Snyder. Otto, Goodwin, Merritt and Morris added one basehit apiece.

No Fooling! It's Time To Air Condition!

By DONALD C. McMILLON

It is a month past April Fool's Day but we're not going to take advantage of the situation and make some ridiculous proposition. We are however, going to propose that you install LENNOX central air conditioning in your home now. We'll even explain why we think this is the best time of year to install air conditioning.

No fooling, it is the best time of the year to air condition. Our installation work is at a slower pace at this time of year and we can give you installation complete attention without worrying about getting it in before hot weather begins. This means a savings on labor costs for your home and a better installation. Then too, you'll be ready for those hot days that could start as soon as this month.

You can afford a LENNOX central air conditioning system for your home. Quite different from many other consumer products, the cost of air conditioning systems have come down in the past few years. Over half of all central air conditioned homes are owned by families with incomes below $18,000 a year; and a third with incomes below $15,000. And with our exclusive payment plan you'll find that financing will be a relatively small expense in your total budget.

You and your family will discover a new way of life with LENNOX central air conditioning. Surveys show that families report longer, relaxed sleep, less dirt and dusting for house cleaning, lack of heat rash with the new baby, keener appetites, the pleasure of summer entertaining, and clean refreshed air for the allergy sufferer, to mention just a few. It will mean a new zest for family life for you; an investment for your home that will pay off in comfort and relaxation.

Most probably, if you have a gas forced air furnace system, it will be a simple matter to install a LENNOX system in your home. Our engineering and installation departments are experts at custom-fitting the equipment to your home so that every room is healthfully cooled. LENNOX's outstanding reputation for quality equipment, and Snyder Heating and Air Conditioning's experience in engineering and installation skills will give you the best system for your investment dollar.

Why not call 573-1753 today and ask for a free survey of your home for a LENNOX system. There's absolutely no obligation and we'll have the entire system installed before hot weather begins.

For a FREE SURVEY of your home for a LENNOX air conditioning system, call Don McMillon at 573-1753, Snyder Heating and Air Conditioning (Serving the Rolling Plains Since 1951). Ask about our 100% Finance Plan and our VISA and MASTERCARD Program.

Seattle eliminates Rockets

by The Associated Press
After five first-round sweeps, the NBA playoffs are getting a steady dose of excitement.

Two games went into overtime Friday night, and a third was decided at the buzzer when Nate McMillan threw a long inbounds pass to Derrick McKey, who banked the ball in for a 98-96 Seattle victory over Houston.

The outcome sent the Super-Sonics into the second round Sunday against the Los Angeles Lakers and eliminated the Rockets, who tied the score 96-96 on a 3-pointer by Sleepy Floyd with one second left.

Two other series are now tied 2-2 as Atlanta defeated Milwaukee 113-106 and Cleveland edged Chicago 108-105, both in overtime. Milwaukee is at Atlanta and Chicago at Cleveland on Sunday, with the winner of the Bucks-Hawks series advancing to play Detroit and the Bull-Cavaliers survivor meeting New York.

McMillan, at 6-foot-5, had to throw his inbounds pass over Houston's 7-5 Chuck Nevitt, but once he got the ball away cleanly, the 6-9 McKey had a mismatch over 6-2 Allen Leavell.

"They executed the play the way you draw it on the board," Floyd said. "You just have to take your hats off that they got the shot they wanted."

"I knew I didn't have time to bring it down and go back up so I made up my mind to shoot it when I got it," McKey said.

Houston coach Don Chaney took the blame for the McKey-

Leavell mismatch.

"I put out a quicker guy, expecting a shooter," Chaney said. "I should have inverted. I take full blame because I took off Buck Johnson and inserted Leavell."

Down 92-83 with 6:25 to play, the Rockets outscored Seattle 13-4, including Floyd's 3-pointer with one second left in regulation. Seattle went 5:05 without scoring during Houston's rally.

Dale Ellis shed a brace that protected his broken nose and scored 26 points, 17 in the second half, for Seattle.

Akeem Olajuwon led Houston with 24 points and 13 rebounds.

Cavaliers 108, Bulls 105

Cleveland escaped elimination despite 50 points from Michael Jordan, who missed one of two free throws that would have given Chicago a three-point lead with nine seconds left in regulation.

Larry Nance, who has been bothered by an ankle injury, scored 27 points, and Mark Price, hobbling with a pulled groin, added 24 for the Cavaliers in a game that had 34 lead changes and saw neither team lead by more than six.

Ron Harper broke a 99-99 tie at the start of the overtime and Price followed with a 3-point basket before Nance gave the Cavaliers a 107-101 lead.

The Bulls never caught up, although they got within two in the final seconds. They had a chance to force a second overtime, but Charles Davis and Craig Hodges missed two 3-pointers as time expired.

Brad Daugherty's two free throws with four seconds left forced the game into overtime after Jordan missed one of two.

Jordan scored 11 of Chicago's last 13 points in regulation, but missed a fadeaway jumper at the last second of regulation play.

"We rely on Michael a lot," Coach Doug Collins said, "but he's only human."

Hawks 113, Bucks 106

Atlanta also dodged a bullet when Jack Sikma missed one of two free throws with three seconds left in regulation. Sikma, who led the NBA in free-throw shooting in 1987-88 and made 90.5 percent this season, missed the first of two free throws, then hit the second, tying the game at 98-98.

Ricky Pierce hit a basket before fouling out to give the Bucks their last lead, 100-99, in overtime.

Levi holds slim lead at Nelson

DALLAS (AP) - It all depends on the putter, Wayne Levi says.

"If I putt well, I can win. If I putt just mediocre, I probably won't," Levi said Friday after he took a one-stroke lead into an overnight suspension of play for the second day in a row.

His putting was only mediocre in the delayed second round of the $1 million Byron Nelson Classic, but Levi hit all 18 greens in regulation and got out of it with a three-under-par 67.

That put him through 36 holes of this storm-disrupted tournament at 129, 11 under par.

"Three under is respectable," he said. "I could have shot two or three lower, but I just didn't make the putts."

That, however, could be excused, suggested Levi, who matched the course record on the TPC at Las Colinas with an opening 62.

"It's hard to come off a 62. It's hard to settle yourself down," he said.

It was even more difficult for officials to get a round completed.

Thursday night, 60 men were stranded by darkness after overnight storms delayed the start of play for four hours.

More severe storms, with 100 mph winds, dumped 2½ inches of rain on the course Thursday night, producing a two-hour delay Friday morning and eventually stranding nine men on the course.

None appeared to have a chance of overtaking the leader. They were scheduled to return at daylight Saturday to complete second round play, with the third round scheduled later in the day.

Levi, winner of eight titles in a 13-year career, has not made a bogey in the tournament.

Availed matchup crumbles as Sox out-hit Rangers, 7-6

by The Associated Press

Unlike their last tangle in Texas, Roger Clemens and Nolan Ryan didn't have their hot stuff.

"It was a pitchers' duel over there and it was a hitters' duel here," Mike Greenwell said after driving in three runs with his fifth and sixth homers - the first off Ryan this year - in leading the Boston past Texas 7-6 Friday night.

With the score tied 3-3 in the seventh inning, Boston's Ellis Burks hit a run-scoring single to chase Ryan. Cecilio Guante's wild pitch with a runner on third made it 5-3 and Nick Esasky followed with a two-run single.

"Everybody was on edge because of what's been said and what's been written since the game in Texas," Ryan said. "I'm disappointed it was blown out of proportion."

Ryan, 3-2, allowed three hits over eight innings and struck out 11 last Sunday, beating Clemens' 2-1 on Steve Buechele's two-run homer.

"Both games were great for the fans," said Clemens, 4-1. "The fans came out the winner all the way around."

In other American League games, California beat Toronto 5-3, Oakland beat Detroit 5-3, Minnesota beat Cleveland 3-2 in 12 innings, New York beat Chicago 7-5 and Kansas City beat Milwaukee 5-4 in 10 innings.

Angels 5, Blue Jays 3

Jim Abbott allowed four hits over 6 1-3 innings to win his second straight decision as California won for the eighth time in nine games.

Abbott, 2-2, struck out four and walked four. Greg Minton allowed one hit over 1 2-3 innings and Bryan Harvey finished for his fifth save.

Athletics 5, Tigers 3

Dave Stewart won his sixth game without a loss and Glenn Hubbard had a two-run single in a four-run first as Oakland won for the eighth time in 11 games.

Stewart allowed seven hits in the 6 2-3 innings. Dennis Eckersley pitched a hitless ninth for his ninth save in 10 opportunities.

Baker to propose more nuke talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State James A. Baker III will propose to the Soviet Union next week in Moscow that the superpowers reopen negotiations in June to sharply reduce strategic nuclear weapons, U.S. officials said.

Baker will suggest the Geneva talks basically pick up where they left off in November, when they were recessed with about 30 percent of the work completed on a treaty to reduce U.S. and Soviet arsenals by 30 percent to 50 percent.

But Baker does not intend to outline to the Soviets the position the United States will take on specific issues at the bargaining table, said the officials, who spoke Friday on condition of anonymity.

"Essentially, we are looking for continuity and keeping arms control on a fast track," an official said.

The negotiations had been tentatively scheduled to resume in mid-February. But President Bush, after taking office in January, ordered an indefinite postponement while the administration reviewed U.S. arms control and weapons policies.

The proposal to resume talks the third week in June and a decision to try to maintain the momentum that produced agreement on some weapons ceilings resulted from the review.

The negotiators have some tough problems to grapple with, though. Among the unsettled issues are whether to try to restrict mobile missiles and how to verify such elusive weapons as cruise missiles fired from airplanes and submarines.

Meanwhile, a senior aide to Baker said the administration had ruled out any deal with the Soviets to impose a coalition government in Afghanistan.

John Tyler, 10th president of the United States, was born in 1790 in Charles City County, Va.

Alleged killer pleads innocent

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (AP) — A winery worker pleaded innocent to killing his wife, two daughters and four others, while his fellow inmates raised $900 for another daughter who survived the bloody rampage.

Ramon Salcido appeared glum and unshaven in a heavily guarded courtroom where he entered his innocent pleas on the seven murder counts Friday.

He also pleaded innocent to three counts of attempted murder and denied a special circumstance allegation that could send him to the gas chamber.

One of the attempted murder counts is for an attack on Salcido's 3-year-old daughter, Carmina. Her father allegedly slit her throat during the April 14 killing spree in the bucolic wine country north of San Francisco.

Concern for the little girl prompted hundreds of prisoners at the Sonoma County jail, where Salcido is being kept, to collect $900 during two "days of peace" Wednesday and Thursday.

"These guys dug down to every cent they literally had in their pockets. They are going to go without cigarettes and other basic necessities because they want to reach out of their anger and despair and direct something positive to Carmina," said the Rev. Bob Gutleben.

Gutleben runs Covenant Connection, a non-denominational ministry to inmates and ex-convicts. He said 90 percent of the jail's 690 prisoners participated in the collection and the two-day pledge of non-violence.

The fund-raising idea came from an inmate counseling group run by Gutleben. He noted the inmates normally have an unofficial code calling for the maiming or killing of child murderers.

"I've had enough of violence; and what was done to her was pure evil," said Gabriel Menjou, 42, an inmate serving time for forgery. "I wanted her to know that men don't have to be mean and cruel, but to know that they can be loving, kind and caring."

Sheriff's deputies have been concerned about Salcido's safety since he was captured in Mexico on April 19. He was brought back to the county jail the next night, where a furious crowd of 200 people shouted, "Kill him."

Weather stripping was added to his cell door to prevent inmates from slipping harmful items inside. Authorities also put up a large metal plate to keep other inmates from looking into Salcido's cell through an interior window.

Granbury residents dig out from storm

GRANBURY, Texas (AP) — Residents of two subdivisions battered by tornadoes dug Friday beneath the fallen timbers of their homes, gathered scattered belongings and waited for the lights to go back on.

As many as four tornadoes ripped through the small community southwest of Fort Worth Thursday night during a bout of thunderstorms that is blamed for five deaths elsewhere in Texas.

The Hood County Memorial Hospital treated 22 patients for minor storm-related injuries. Three remained hospitalized Friday.

Hood County Sheriff Edwin Tomlinson said at least 15 trailers and homes were destroyed in the storm, with about 200 others damaged. He said damage estimates were expected to reach the millions of dollars.

Beauchamp makes dean honor list

Lance Beauchamp has been named to the Dean's List in Mercer University's School of Engineering for the winter quarter.

A 1990 graduate of Mercer University, Beauchamp is concentrating in mechanical engineering.

His parents are John and Alisha Sumpter and Abel and Grace Beauchamp.

To attain the Dean's List, a student must receive a grade point average of 3.10 or better while enrolled in a regular program of 12 or more academic hours.

School, where a shelter was set up for evacuees, Red Cross officials estimated the number of homes and trailers destroyed was greater.

"We are looking at 65 trailers and homes totally destroyed," said Red Cross spokesman Richard Hensley. "We are bringing in more Red Cross personnel to survey the damage and try to get a better handle on that."

"Four tornadoes touched down here last night," said Liz McClung, who said she, her husband and two children rode out the storm with her parents in the hallway of their home.

Bunky Barrow said three twisters hit the area at 10:10 p.m.

"It happened then. That's when our clock stopped," Barrow said. Tomlinson said it was difficult to tell who was right because damage might have resulted from one tornado dipping down from the clouds several times.

"I've seen things like this before," the sheriff said. "Lots of little twister tails can come down from the clouds and strike at random."

Bricks from the front of the Oak Trail Baptist Church had been ripped off by the force of the storm and hurled through plate glass doors.

"I don't know where we're going to meet Sunday," said Carl Johnson, church pastor.

Part of the church's steeple was found across the street.

The storm knocked down power lines in the two subdivisions, Lake Oak Estates and Oak Trail Shores.

Iraqi defense minister dies in crash

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — Iraq's minister of defense, Gen. Adnan Khairallah, was killed in a helicopter crash while traveling from the Kurdish city of Mosul to Baghdad, state radio reported Saturday.

The radio broadcast a statement by President Saddam Hussein announcing that Khairallah, his 50-year-old cousin, died when the helicopter went down during a sandstorm Friday.

Khairallah had been with Hussein and their families two days earlier on a tour of the northern Kurdish region, a scene of ethnic strife.

Saddam said only one person survived the accident, but further details on the accident were not immediately available.

City hall sets health testing

City employees and family members will have the opportunity to participate in a cholesterol and blood pressure screening Tuesday at city hall.

Testing will be from 7:30 until 8:30 a.m. Cogdell Memorial Hospital staffers will administer the cholesterol test while Home Health Agency personnel will monitor the blood pressure test. A fee of $6 per person is asked. For accurate results, individuals should not eat prior to the tests.

The program is part of the "Wellness at the Worksite" program sponsored by the Home Economics Committee of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Each person participating in the program will complete a computerized health risk appraisal inventory. This inventory will be evaluated and returned to the participant.

For more information, contact Kathy Roberts, county extension agent for home economics, at 573-5423.

In addition, arrests warrants have been issued for local individuals, who have until Thursday to pay their bonds or face arrest.

Coordinator for the cardiac arrest is Mark Estes at WTSE. For more information, contact him at 573-5441.

Girl who must live away from sunshine to undergo surgery

DALLAS (AP) — The most critical week in the four years Wendy Thomas has been alive — and one that most likely will determine how many years longer she will live — begins here Sunday.

Wendy, the girl from Athens, Texas, who is doomed to a life away from sunshine because of a rare disease, will check into Children's Medical Center of Dallas, where she will have all the skin replaced on her face over the next few days.

The young girl is a victim of xeroderma pigmentosum — a disease in which exposure to sunlight causes her skin to develop tumors. There is no cure for the disease that affects less than one person in a million.

"But every day they're making progress," said Wendy's mother, Jackie Thomas, who acquaints herself as best she can with latest medical efforts to battle the rare and usually deadly disease. "We hope one day someone will call us and say they have a cure."

Meanwhile, Mrs. Thomas said she and her family can only invest their prayers and practically all of their money in hope of giving their daughter more of a future. She always will have to wear broad sunbonnets and ride in sun-shaded vehicles when she goes outside, but Mrs. Thomas hopes to make her young daughter's life as normal as possible.

On Monday, Wendy will undergo surgery that will remove all of the skin on her face and scalp.

Then two days later, she will have a large patch of stretched skin taken from her abdomen and grafted onto the barren areas. A skin pathologist will stand alongside the surgeon to make certain all of the tumors' roots are removed.

She had undergone surgery in February in which a skin extender was placed inside her abdomen to create the stretched skin for her new face.

"We've been trying to get her prepared for it," Mrs. Thomas said. "Right now, she looks nine months pregnant. So I keep telling her that we'll take that skin off and put it on her face, then she won't have a big belly."

"She's been talking about it herself, and getting real excited."

The Dallas dermatologist who is performing the surgery has told the Thomases that Wendy may be able to leave Children's in 10 days — if things go perfectly.

There is hope, provided from an unexpected source. The Thomas family was contacted by a 40-year-old man who underwent the same kind of extensive skin graft and has lived without developing new tumors.

Three months ago, Mrs. Thomas said she feared she never would be able to talk with those who have XP, and their relatives, to find out more about what is ruining her daughter's life. But publicity about Wendy's plight brought calls from across the nation from a handful of others in her predicament, as well as a small shower of gifts from sympathetic strangers.

Mrs. Thomas has become particularly close with the mother of a 28-year-old female patient, exchanging letters and family pictures.

She also is fond of a man in Cheyenne, Wyo., who has a similar form of cancer as Wendy. He calls for progress reports on the Texas tot, and has sent her two large bottles of Vitamin C.

"The first time, Wendy wouldn't drink any of it, so he went out and searched and found a tasteless Vitamin C," Mrs. Thomas said.

One-act play wins 2nd place

Carpet bids before court

Bids to recarpet the county courthouse and two buildings in the Cogdell Memorial Hospital complex will be considered Monday in county commissioners court.

After recently rejecting bids to recarpet the first two floors of the courthouse because of bidders' confusion about specifications, the commissioners decided to expand the project to include all four courthouse floors and Cogdell's Medical Arts Building and Doctors' Clinic. The expanded bid is expected to reduce the price of carpeting.

Other business in the 10 a.m. meeting will be a request for a budget amendment for the district attorney's office and a discussion of bids for sealcoating rock for county roads.

Scurry County Folks...

By Shirley A. Gorman

From instructors asking her if she was in the right classroom to being accepted as "one of the guys," Joy Feist of Snyder has managed to make inroads in a program thought of as "males only."

She enrolled in the Golf Course and Landscape Technology (GLT) program two years ago. She remembers she was so nervous that she chewed gum constantly and was too shy to say much of anything for the first few weeks of class.

Since that time, however, this determined young woman who is divorced and the mother of a soon-to-be six-year-old daughter has succeeded not only in proving herself but also in carving her own niche in what is traditionally thought of as a "man's world."

Feist enrolled in the WTC program in the fall of 1987 and will graduate next Friday with the rest of the GLT students who are also finishing their two-year program.

She is the first woman to earn a GLT degree at WTC, but she is not the first woman to take the course work. Feist said that Sally Jordan, who recently opened her own landscaping business along with partner Derwin Price, was so glad to see her that when she first saw her, she said, "Oh boy, another female!"

Feist notes her first few days in the program were not easy, however.

Prior to enrolling at WTC, she had not met any of the instructors. She also didn't start until the second day of classes.

When she showed up for her first day, she remembers that her instructors and fellow students alike questioned if she had walked into the class by mistake.

To offset these doubts, she said she was both capable and willing to learn.

The "ice finally broke" about two weeks after classes had started. Feist said she was out with some friends when she ran into several of the "guys from the program." It helped that they could relate to each other outside of the classroom, she said.

Now, she said, the 35 or so men in the program treat her "like a sister." In the beginning, they were too protective, she said, always insisted on doing her share of the "hands on" work.

"I had to prove myself," she said. "My instructors, while being very supportive, have not cut me any slack."

Recently, several members of the GLT program traveled to Milwaukee for an American Landscape Contractors Association field day. WTC and Richland College were the only schools from Texas to compete.

Feist and her partner, Theron Knapp, placed second in irrigation assembly and Feist's irrigation design garnered fifth place honors.

The trip took nine days in all and Feist said that the waitresses in the restaurants where they ate were always surprised to see her "surrounded by men."

Feist has also attended two Oklahoma turf grass conferences. She said these meetings are very important because they get students together with potential employers.

She has worked here with GLT's James Eby's Landscape System company putting in an irrigation system. Among the things she helped to do were level beds and prepare the grounds for planting.

She has also worked both full time and part-time for Colorado

ABOUT TO GRADUATE—Joy Feist will graduate Friday from the Western Texas College golf course/landscape technology program. For the past two years she has been studying and receiving "hands on" training in an area that has usually been considered to be "a man's world." However she has "proved herself" and is carving her own niche in the golf course and landscape technology field. Feist recently said that she gets along fine with her male counterparts and referred to them as her "big brothers." (SDN Staff Photo)

While WTC's instructors and students in the GLT program have long since accepted Feist, she said she does not always fare as well when attending GLT conferences. Some men at these conferences say "no women," others say "maybe" and still others are supportive.

Regardless of what attitude she faces, Feist says she is determined to make it on her own in a field she has come to love. She went into the program primarily interested in landscaping but soon found that she likes golf course work also.

During the past few weeks she has been interviewing for a variety of jobs in her field.

This week she has accepted a job as assistant grounds maintenance at Western Texas College.

A few days ago, she was also one of four GLT students to receive an "outstanding student award."

When Feist graduates this Friday, she will be qualified in four areas, golf course management, landscape contracting, irrigation management and parks and recreation.

She will also hold an associate degree in applied sciences.

Feist took 17 hours her first semester, but that is considered "light" compared to the 21-23 hours which she usually takes.

"That's what everyone usually does," Feist explained. "The idea is to get through as quickly as possible."

Feist said she first became acquainted with the GLT program about four years.

Two years ago, living in Abilene and in need of a new career direction, she thought of WTC's GLT program. That is when her parents, Joyce and Bill Barnes of Snyder, came to her rescue.

"My parents are great. I could never have made it without them. They gave me two years to get See JOY, Page 4B

Library now offers educational videos

The Scurry County Library has received an award-winning collection of PBS programming including "A Walk Through the 20th Century with Bill Moyers," "Nova," "I, Claudius," and Alistair Cooke's "America."

The videos were purchased through the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation Library Video Classics Project, a nationwide project to make the tapes available to public libraries at a 90% discount off the retail price.

John E. Corbally, president of the foundation, states, "Until now, most libraries could usually afford only moderately priced feature films. Our support is making the best programs in the arts, sciences and humanities available to everyone with a library card."

Scurry County Library received a matching fund grant from the MacArthur Foundation, also. Matching funds locally were West Texas State Bank, Snyder Lions Club, Snyder Rotary Club, American State Bank, Golden K Kiwanis, Dr. and Mrs. John O'Banion, John Jarrell, Kiwanis Club, Olney Savings and Loan, Bruce Kallemeyn, Evelyn Davies, Atheneum Study Club, TU Electric, Hugh Boren, Jack Gorman Jr. and Carmen McCown.

A program guide to describe the offerings will accompany the videos, and all series (except "The Jewel in the Crown") include complete public performance rights to allow in-library and community group showings.

Other titles included in the series are "American Short Story," "The Constitution: That Delicate Balance," "The Ascent of Man," "The Brain," "Civilization," "Life on Earth," "The Heart of the Dragon," "Great Performances," "Heritage: Civilization and the Jews," "The Living Planet," "The Story of English," "American Playhouse," "Planet Earth," "The Shakespeare Plays," "Vietnam: A Television History" and "The Jewel in the Crown."

Check-out policies for video cassettes are as follows:

—Video cassettes will circulate to anyone 18 years of age or older with a valid Scurry County Library card.

—Videos may be checked out for two days at a time to regular patrons. Videos to be used in school for school purposes may be circulated for one week. The librarian must give approval for longer periods.

—Two videos per family or teacher may be checked out at one time. If teachers need more than one, the librarian must give approval.

—Reserves may be placed a week prior to desired show date by teachers and community groups for PBS and educational films only.

—There will be a $1 fine per day for late returns on videos.

After South had opened one diamond, his jump to three no-trump over partner's one-level response showed an unusual hand — a solid six or seven cards in his minor suit, and scattered stoppers. Careful Charlie had fudged a little (his suit was not solid), but he had plenty of extra high-card points. When North invited with four no-trump, Charlie went right to six no-trump. That turned out to be a much better choice than six diamonds.

Declarer won the ace of clubs and led the queen of spades. West took the ace and continued with the 10 of clubs. Charlie won the king in dummy as East discarded a spade. Charlie now cashed the A-Q of hearts and continued spades. West followed to the second and third spade while East, who had discarded a spade on the king of clubs, let go a heart on the third spade. When declarer played the king of hearts, West followed with the jack. On the fourth spade East threw another heart and West discarded a club. Charlie now had a complete count. West had started with three spades, three hearts, five clubs and therefore only two diamonds. East originally held three spades, five hearts, one club and therefore four diamonds, and he was holding on to all four of them. Even if East held the diamond queen, finessing would not help declarer, since the queen was not going to fall. His only chance was that the queen would be doubleton with West. So Careful Charlie played out the A-K of diamonds, dropping West's queen and making his slam.

HEART HEALTH

Light exercise for 45 minutes a day is as good as 2 hours of hard exercise in preventing heart disease, reports a federal study of 12,000 patients. Light exercise includes gardening, home repairs, walking, hoeing, weeding and pushing a lawn mower. The moral: do your own 'home work' instead of paying someone to strengthen his heart.

Bulbs can withstand severe temperature

NEW YORK (AP) — Can the drastic temperature changes of winter hurt spring flower bulbs that were planted in the fall?

Spring-flowering Dutch bulbs will usually withstand extreme cold, snow or early warm spells, according to the Netherlands Flowerbulb Information Center here.

Don't try to cover early sprouting bulbs, horticulturists advise. Adding mulch or more cover will only cause more gardening work and a short freeze won't do lasting damage, they say. Some bulbs, such as snowdrops, crocuses and early rock garden narcissi, are supposed to bloom in early spring.

An unseasonable warm spell may cause some bulbs to bloom earlier than anticipated but in most cases this won't damage the bulbs.

'Diet for a Happy Heart' undergoes revisions to aid health

NEW YORK (AP) — "Diet for a Happy Heart" by Jeanne Jones has been revised with updated recipes, information and full-color photos.

The cookbook includes a chart that Jones uses to revise recipes so that they are lower in calories, cholesterol and sodium, but with the same taste and texture of the dish. The "Nutrition at a Glance" chart is designed to help answer questions about basic nutrition.

The 154-page cookbook ($17.95) is part of the 101 Production series of books, published by Ortho Information Services. For information, contact: Ortho Books, Box 5047, San Ramon, CA 94583, or call 1-415-842-5537.

Alienated children

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Children whose parents die of cancer often feel abnormal, says a University of Rochester clinical psychologist.

"These kids may feel alienated and have a tough time getting along with their peers who have not lost a mother or father," says Michael Henrichs. "Little worries bother them, such as, 'Who's going to tuck me in at night?'" More overwhelming concerns, such as believing they are somehow responsible for a parent's death, also plague them."

Henrichs, founder and volunteer director of Kids Adjusting Through Support, thinks special programs which bring these children together can help them overcome their feelings of being different.

BREAKFAST SETS PACE FOR ENERGY

A breakfast-skipper is somewhat like a car running on empty.

A well-nourished person, like a well-lubricated engine, works more efficiently.

Proper choices from the basic food groups of meat, milk, fruits and vegetables and cereals and grains should provide an individual with about one-fourth of the recommended daily amounts of protein, calories, vitamins and minerals.

These nutrients are essential for energy, maintenance and body repair.

Persons who regularly eat a well-balanced breakfast can perform more efficiently, concentrate on the day's schedule and are less tired after a busy day.

Other benefits include:
—Breakfast participants have more nutritionally balanced diets than breakfast skippers.

—Kids who eat breakfast are better nourished than students who skip breakfast.

—Breakfast participants have higher intakes of calcium that is derived from milk, as well as phosphorus and riboflavin — all nutrients essential for strong bones and teeth.

—Breakfast participants tend to maintain normal weight levels and are less likely to be overweight or underweight.

—Breakfast participants are energetic and can concentrate on school-related tasks, while breakfast skippers often tend to be irritable, restless and listless.

—Breakfast eaters have a better late-morning problem-solving ability.

—People who eat breakfast regularly have more energy at the mid-part of the day than breakfast skippers.

—The habit of eating breakfast on a regular basis often is associated with a vigorous older age.

Scientists trying for 'seeing' robots

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Scientists have been trying for years without much success to create "seeing" robots.

Recently, however, researchers at the University of Rochester achieved two advances. The "Rochester Robot" now can judge depth and can maintain a steady image of a moving object.

While robots are commonly used to perform routine tests again and again, the Rochester team wants to create a robot that can interact with its environment, as people and animals do. Vision is a basic, necessary tool.

Eventually, the team hopes the robot will be able to respond to and manipulate objects in its environment, such as balloons and toy trains.

King's nose used to measure a yard

LONDON (AP) — A yard, which equals three feet or 36 inches, was originally measured as the distance from an English king's nose to the end of his thumb. The measurement was first made more than 800 years ago and the king in question was Henry I, the youngest son of William the Conqueror. He ruled from 1100 to 1135. In 1866, England established the yard as the length of a specified bronze bar kept in Trafalgar Square at a temperature of 62 degrees Fahrenheit. In the United States, a yard is defined as 0.9144 of one meter.

Personal income is growing unevenly

WASHINGTON (AP) — Personal income is growing at an uneven pace in America's cities, with the fastest growth along the East Coast and the slowest in oil-producing states, a government report shows.

Twenty-three of the nation's 318 metropolitan areas in 1987 registered per capita income growth at least 2 percentage points above the national average of 6 percent, the Commerce Department reported Thursday.

Seven of those cities were in New England; six were in the Middle Atlantic region; five were in the Southeast.

Income in 60 metropolitan areas, meanwhile, grew at a rate that was at least 2 percentage points below the national average. Forty-one of those areas were in the oil-producing states of Alaska, Colorado, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Texas and Wyoming.

"A lot of growth in New England is driven by services and high-tech industries," said Kathy Albettski of the department's Bureau of Economic Analysis. "The slow growth was driven by the weakness in oil."

The fastest growth rate was recorded in the Visalia-Tulare-Porterville region of California, but that was largely because incomes there were relatively low to begin with. The area's per capita income rose 9.7 percent to $12,968, a level still well below the national average.

It Is Better to Give What Charities Want to Receive

DEAR ABBY: I am the director of a charity and would like to ask your help in eliminating what I find to be a costly and frustrating problem — inappropriate giving. I am sure that human-service providers everywhere would be grateful if you'd ask your readers to consider the following guidelines when making a donation:

1. If it doesn't work, please don't donate it. Most programs do not have funds available to repair TVs, toasters, clocks, etc.

2. Please call first. Some programs are unable to accept certain items, and you will save yourself frustration.

3. Please don't be angry if we say, "Thank you, but we cannot use clothing right now." If you are giving because you want to help, you should be happy our residents are clothed, not angry that you may have to spend an extra five minutes contacting other programs.

4. Please never just leave items outside our door. In many areas this violates the city codes and contributes to poor neighborhood and community relations. Besides, we want to meet you, and thank you personally for caring.

5. Please don't use this shelter as a dumping ground. Some shelters spend over $200 a week hauling away useless items that are in poor condition.

6. Please don't become angry if we can't pick up your donation. For many of us, transportation is a dream of the future.

7. Please remember us at times other than Christmas. It's miserable to be living in a car in 100-degree weather, too.

8. Please remember that human-service providers are always grateful for your generosity — our programs and our clients depend on it — but we need your cooperation, too, in order to best utilize what you have to offer. Sometimes the best donation you can give us is a little of your time. We never have problems finding a use for that.

Thanks, Abby, and to all of you who make our lives brighter by donating to programs like ours throughout the country. We need you!

VICKY LYSEK, SHELTER DIRECTOR, ALLENTOWN, PA.

years and I trust your judgment. I am a 50-year-old single parent of an 11-year-old daughter. I am presently planning to be married in the not-too-distant future. I am not planning to have a large wedding, but I do want to be married in a church with my family and close friends present.

My mother has stated that because I am a single parent, I cannot, in the eyes of God, walk down the aisle of a church.

I will not wear a white wedding gown — I've selected an ivory-colored gown with a matching shoulder-length veil.

My mother is presently giving me a very hard time about my "right" to walk down the aisle. Please print your answer.

CONFUSED AT 38

DEAR CONFUSED: Never have I heard (or read) that a single parent may not walk down the aisle of a church to be married. Your clergyman is better qualified than your mother to tell you what is (and what is not) appropriate "in the eyes of God." Consult the clergyman of the church in which you plan to be married.

DEAR ABBY: The letter about the habit some people have of saying "you know, you know, you know" brought back some memories of my childhood.

When I attended Franklin Elementary school on Goethe Street, Mrs. Mortimer, my English teacher, told the class she was trying to break the "you know" habit in some of her students. I will be 82 years old this August, so that habit is nothing new.

I have enjoyed you for years in the Boca Raton News. Keep up the good work, Abby.

ELMY IN BOCA RATON, FLA.

DEAR ELMY: Thank you. Keep reading, Elmy, and I'll keep writing.

DEAR ABBY: We have a family problem I have never seen in your column. There are six children in our family, and the eldest (I'll call him Ted) is getting married soon.

For the last eight years, Ted and his brother (I'll call him Gene) have not spoken to each other — this being Gene's decision. Gene has excluded Ted from every family event and will not speak to him — even if they are in the same room.

The problem is that our mother wants Ted to invite Gene to his wedding, because we are "family." Ted doesn't want to hurt our mother, and yet he feels that Gene's presence would ruin his wedding day since Gene wouldn't talk to him there anyway.

Please, Abby, what is your advice? NOT EXACTLY THE WALTONS

DEAR NOT EXACTLY: It's understandable that Mother devoutly wishes to see her sons bury the hatchet — providing it's not in somebody's skull. But unless the brothers have made peace with each other, Mother should not ask Ted to invite Gene to his wedding.

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who is also a neighbor. She comes over for coffee every morning after she gets her kids off to school.

A few months ago, she started off with, "I'm going to tell you something, but you've got to promise on your word of honor you won't tell a soul." So I promised.

Well, I wasn't prepared for what she told me. It seems she is having an affair with a friend of her husband's. She says she has no major complaints about her husband, but she never really knew what love was until she and this man found each other. (He's also married.)

How I wish she hadn't told me. We're really not that close. She never asks me for advice; she just wants to talk. Abby, I really don't want to hear any more about her romance, but I don't know how to shut her up. I feel very guilty keeping this from my husband, but if I told him, he'd never let her in our house again. By the way, this lady is in church every Sunday! How do I handle this?

A GOOD LISTENER

DEAR LISTENER: Quit listening and start talking. Tell your neighbor you don't want to hear any more about her affair, and if she feels a need to talk about it, she should see a family counselor, or better yet, talk to her clergyman. This woman needs to see the error of her ways before she wrecks two families.

DEAR ABBY: Is there a discreet way to find out if a dating partner has been circumcised?

I am a young woman who intends to remain celibate until I marry. I have recently learned from the various medical literature that there is a much higher risk of cervical cancer and vaginal infections in some women whose husbands have not been circumcised, so this is very important to me.

Obviously, this is much too personal a question to ask a casual date, but I don't want to wait until after a serious relationship has developed to learn that it could be a problem.

Can you help me? PERPLEXED IN QUEENS

DEAR PERPLEXED: I know of no way to discreetly ask a man if he has been circumcised. But since you regard it as a legitimate health concern, bring up the subject should you develop a serious relationship that could lead to marriage.

Without asking the gentleman a direct question requiring a "yes" or "no" answer, ask him how he feels about circumcision. His response will probably tell you all you need to know.

What teen-agers need to know about sex, drugs, AIDS, and getting along with their peers and parents is now in Abby's updated, expanded booklet, "What Every Teen Should Know." Send your name and address, plus check or money order for $3.50 ($4 in Canada) to: Dear Abby's Teen Booklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054. (Postage is included.)

Chief will work to defeat appointment

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Bill Clements' regent appointee who cast the decisive vote in firing Southwest Texas State University President Robert Hardesty says if the Senate doesn't confirm his appointment, it will be because of politics.

"I really don't care. I think education is vital to us and I want to help, but if they don't confirm me, it would be a political denial," George William Worth told reporters Thursday.

Sen. Chet Edwards, D-Duncanville, chairman of the Senate Nominations Committee, however, said he doesn't think Worth is qualified to serve on the Texas State University Board of Regents, which oversees Southwest Texas State, because of Worth's vote on Hardesty.

"I am convinced Mr. Worth should not be confirmed," Edwards said.

Astro-Graph By Bernice Bede Osol

May 7, 1989

Interesting developments are in the offing that portend increased earnings for the year ahead. What transpires could come about rather suddenly.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Conditions in general continue to look favorable for you today where financial developments are concerned. There are indicators showing you should be able to improve upon what is already advantageous. Taurus, treat yourself to a birthday gift. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions for the year ahead by mailing $1 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) There is something you can do better than most signs and that is to juggle several assignments simultaneously with relative ease. Your remarkable gift will be utilized today.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) It will be obvious to your friends that you're pretty good at keeping secrets today and this is why confidential information that is not revealed to them may be told to you.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Today you are likely to feel more comfortable with people who don't take themselves or life too seriously. Let the worriers concentrate on one another and try to resolve the unresolvable.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Substantial personal gratification will be gained today from situations where you use your mental prowess to meet and overcome challenges. The brain is mightier than the brawn.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Sometimes it isn't too wise to offer advice to another when it isn't solicited. Today, however, if you have suggestions that can help a friend, speak up.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) If someone invites you to participate in a joint venture today, don't reject it before studying it in depth. The proposal could be a good one.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Today you might have to decide an issue where the alternatives appear to be of equal value. Slant your judgment toward the recently successful.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) This is a good day to talk things over with co-workers in order to resolve misunderstandings. Productivity will improve when better communications are established.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) A recreational break today could serve as a healthy release to the tensions which have been building up. Set adequate time aside for a fun activity.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Give priority today to the types of activities that include both family and relatives. You're likely to have much more fun with your kindfolk than you will with outsiders.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) There isn't much that is apt to escape your attention today. You'll be both curious and a quick study, and what you learn you'll be very eager to share with others.

Good things could happen for you in the year ahead through people with whom you have established solid relationships. Friends will bring you into the act when propitious things develop for them.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You may be more sensitive and defensive than usual regarding your positions and opinions today. If you make statements without thinking, you might unintentionally say something that will be difficult to retract. Major changes are ahead for Taurus in the coming year. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today. Mail $1 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) A companion's carelessness and extravagance could prove to be expensive for you today if you're not careful. Don't be duped into an arrangement where you pay for another's mistakes.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Decisions made out of spite today are likely to cause you additional frustrations instead of giving you the satisfaction of getting even. Have malice towards none.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Patience might not be your strong suit today, especially if you have to attend to an unpleasant assignment. If you perform poorly, what you do may have to be done over later.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) There's a possibility you may encounter someone in a social setting today who will arouse your animosity. Be careful not to say anything you could regret later.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Generally speaking, you're looked up to and admired by your peers, but today you may pull off something in public that could diminish the luster of your image. Be mindful of your behavior.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) People who aren't in complete agreement with you today are apt to experience your wrath. Coming down too hard on the wrong guy may teach you a lesson you'll not readily forget.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Business conditions could be a bit more complicated for you today than they appear to be at first glance. Move cautiously and take nothing for granted.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Even though it's likely to be your wisest course of action, making compromises or concessions will be difficult for you to do today. Don't expect the other guy to yield if you don't.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Try not to delegate tasks today to anyone whose talents or capabilities you doubt. It's imperative that the person and the assignment mesh properly.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) If you find yourself in an unpleasant spot today, it can probably be traced back to your own decisions and actions. Think all of your moves through carefully.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Do not attempt to bluff your way through critical career matters today. If you do not have something of substance to back you up, it's best to be quiet and not make waves.

In 1967, motorists in Sweden began driving on the right-hand side of the road, instead of the left.

Recruiting tactics, if illegal, may be penalized

AUSTIN (AP) — Improper recruiting would be a criminal offense under a bill finally passed Friday by the House.

The bill, which already has passed the Senate, won House approval with no debate. It was placed on the local and consent calendar, which generally is reserved for non-controversial measures. The bill now goes to the governor.

"That's the first major piece of legislation I've seen go by like that," one lawmaker told Rep. Pete Laney, D-Hale Center, sponsor of the bill.

Improper payments to a student athlete would be a third-degree felony under the measure. That charge is punishable by two to 10 years in prison and a fine of up to $5,000.

A student who solicits or accepts money or gifts in exchange for attending a college and participating in intercollegiate athletics there would face misdemeanor charges.

Supplies threatened

WASHINGTON (AP) — Consumer advocate Rod Leonard is still nipping at the Agriculture Department for operating a popular export subsidy program while the U.S. wheat supply drains away.

Leonard is executive director of the private, non-profit Community Nutrition Institute, which joined several other consumer groups last fall in seeking a suspension of the export program until 1989 harvest prospects became clearer.

But USDA shrugged off the request and continued to operate the Export Enhancement Program through the winter. Leonard repeated the request on April 3 in a letter to Agriculture Secretary Clayton Yeutter.
