Chinese officials continue crackdown

Criticism of United States intensified

BEIJING (AP) — Authorities today banned the student and worker groups that spearheaded the pro-democracy movement and stepped up criticism of the United States for "rumor-mongering" and sheltering leading dissident Fang Lizhi.

In stepping up its crackdown on dissent, the government warned that leaders of the independent groups who refuse to surrender will be arrested "and dealt with severely." It ordered Fang's arrest on Sunday.

As a result of the army's assault on unarmed protesters to clear Tiananmen Square, U.S.-Chinese relations have plunged to perhaps the lowest point since diplomatic ties were restored a decade ago.

The government-controlled media today accused the Voice of America, which has reported the hundreds of deaths in the city center a week ago, of false reporting and distortion. Official media claim no one was killed on the square.

Authorities have launched a massive propaganda campaign aimed at convincing the populace that soldiers were the victims of a rampaging mob and that foreign reports of troops opening fire on unarmed crowds are lies.

The country's official trade union today urged workers to eradicate independent labor groups, which sprung up as the student-led movement for a freer China gained momentum and found support among workers and intellectuals.

Official media told people to study senior leader Deng Xiaoping's speech Friday that praised the army for crushing the 7-week-old pro-democracy movement. Deng claimed the movement's leaders intended to turn Communist China into a capitalist republic.

National television repeatedly showed scenes of one man, identified as a leader of an independent labor union in Shanghai, who had apparently been beaten and was being held at gunpoint by police. His face was swollen so badly he could barely open his eyes.

Broadcasts also showed the arrests of dozens of other people, many described as "thugs" who took advantage of the movement to commit crimes during protests that hit more than a dozen Chinese cities.

The propaganda assault and heavy troop presence in Beijing have ended nationwide protests that broke out after the capital was invaded.

'Surplus' decision question mulled by commissioners

A 30-minute discussion on the disposal of surplus county equipment Monday morning ended with county commissioners agreeing that the full court should make the final determination on what is surplus equipment and what is not.

Pct. 3 Commissioner C.D. Gray Jr. last week had proposed to trade two roadgraders, a 1977 John Deere and a 1987 Caterpillar, and two 1974 Chevrolet pickup trucks for a new, air-conditioned 1989 roadgrader, and the other commissioners Monday gave numerous reasons why they turned down the proposal.

Pct. 4 Commissioner Ted Billingsley said the proposal, including a tentative offer from a manufacturer to give $15,000 in value for the '77 John Deere, was unacceptable to him because the machine could be resold for about $60,000.

"I can't ever vote for that, giving the county's equipment away," Billingsley said.

Noting that the transaction would have left Pct. 3 with two roadgraders, Pct. 2 Commissioner Tommy Pate said it "takes three machines to drag a road" and that having only two would require too much "back-tracking."

Pct. 1 Commissioner Duaine Davis said it takes his road and bridge crew four days to grade all of his dirt roads after a rain, with the roads usually having dried by the fourth day, and that he could not get over all of them in four days with only two machines.

Gray responded that two machines would be sufficient for his precinct and that he still considered one of his three machines to be surplus equipment.

Local dirt contractor Billy Grimmatt attended the 10 a.m. meeting at Gray's request and told the court that his roadgraders average 1,000 to 1,500 hours of use per year, combined.

Rain possibilities remain in outlook

From Local Wire Reports
The Snyder area has a 40 percent chance for additional rain showers both Monday evening and Tuesday.

The outlook is part of possibly severe thunderstorms forecast Monday night for much of the northern half of the state, with a flash flood watch in effect.

Rainfall was recorded in Scurry County Saturday with Snyder receiving some .80 of-an-inch. Other rain amounts around the county included .65 of-an-inch at Hermleigh; .80 of-an-inch at Ira; .60 of-an-inch at Dunn; and .80 of-an-inch at Fluvanna.

Mostly cloudy to partly cloudy skies are forecast here through Friday with temperatures expected to be generally below normal.

Daily highs through the period are forecast in the mid to upper 80s.

Early Monday, thunderstorms extending from the Panhandle into North Central Texas produced heavy rain and high winds. Several tornadoes were reported in the Panhandle.

A tornado that touched down shortly after midnight about 7 miles north of Clarendon did an undetermined amount of damage to several buildings in the small town of Howardwick, a Donley County sheriff's spokesman said. No injuries were reported.

A wind gust of 76 mph was reported in Wichita Falls as the storm passed through about 3 a.m. Authorities said there were no early reports of injuries or property damage.

Other parts of the state were reporting mostly cloudy conditions.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 57 degrees in Marfa to 83 degrees at both the Corpus Christi Naval Air Station and Harlingen.

Southeast breezes were dominant across the state with northwest breezes following the passage of the thunderstorms. Winds were in the 10 to 20 mph range but were much stronger and gusting near the more intense thunderstorms.

Tax rate projected for 2 rural schools

Property owners which help fund the operation of Hermleigh ISD could see a tax decrease this fall while those within the boundaries of Ira ISD face a possible increase.

Both possibilities are based on "effective tax rate" information provided to the two schools by the Scurry County Appraisal District.

The effective tax rate is a calculation of what the two entities would have to charge to generate the same amount of taxes as last year based upon current year values.

Hermleigh ISD saw its tax value increase slightly while Ira lost some $4.9 million from its tax roll.

As a result, the appraisal district figures Hermleigh ISD could charge just over 93 cents per $100 valuation next year and still raise the same amount of taxes it did last year, when a rate of almost 97 cents was in effect.

At Ira, an increase in the rate is projected, going from 92½ to almost 98 cents.

Ira ISD still enjoys by far the greater tax base, however, due to oil and gas production in the area.

ISD signup is extended

In an effort to attract more students, the enrollment period has been extended into Tuesday for physical education, health and English language arts classes offered to Snyder High School students.

The classes are part of Snyder ISD's summer school which began Monday at the junior high.

Cost of these classes is $50 per one-half credit.

A one-half credit will be offered in P.E., health and language arts with classes meeting through June 30. A full credit will be given for language arts classes meeting through July 21.

The class times are from 7:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m.

Home health office to stage open house

Cogdell Home Health Services, a longtime branch of Cogdell Memorial Hospital, has moved its offices from inside the hospital to across the street to Suite G of the Medical Arts Building at 5202 Trinity Blvd.

An open house will be held from noon to 4 p.m. Tuesday to acquaint the public with the new location.

The office provides nursing services and home health aids to Cogdell patients after they are dismissed.

"Cogdell Home Health Services provide skilled nursing care in the home," director Sandra Galyean, a registered nurse, said Monday. "The home visits are based on Medicare, Medicaid or private insurance guidelines."

"General guidelines require that Home Health patients be home-bound, that is, unable to leave the home and have a medical need that only a nurse can provide. The services also provide for assistance with personal care of bathing, but the patient must have a skilled nursing need, also."

Galyean said she and the five staff nurses and two aides "do not replace the physician" but follow a medical treatment plan designed by a physician.

Q. — How much "legislation" did state legislators handle during the recent session?

A. — Almost 8,000 bills or resolutions were filed, state officials say.

In Brief

5th child shot

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — A 4-year-old has become the fifth Florida youngster shot this month while they or companions played with guns, but an aide said the governor was reluctant to put a gun-safety bill before the legislature this week.

Silvio Pierre was listed in very critical condition at Tampa General Hospital today after shooting himself in the chest Sunday, police and hospital officials said. Hospital spokesman Marc Kutash said the boy was in surgery for nearly seven hours.

Probe begins

DALLAS (AP) — The graduation of a student whose record at Dallas Carter High School included forged attendance reports and as many as 16 unexcused absences is under review, Dallas school administrators said.

The student was one of five who initially were approved to graduate last Friday on the condition that they make up unexcused absences by meeting with teachers.

Suspect shot

HOUSTON (AP) — An armed suspect shot by police during a drug raid that netted 300 pounds of marijuana from a northwest Houston home was recovering today at Ben Taub Hospital.

Jose Refugio Orduna, 33, was shot in the left side Sunday by narcotics officer L.D. Scott when he ran toward officers with a gun and refused Scott's order to stop, police spokesman J.C. Mosier said.

Orduna was reported in critical condition following surgery Sunday night, but had improved to fair and stable condition by this morning, a hospital spokeswoman said.

Dear Abby

Sound of Silence Is Music To Ears of One TV Viewer

By Abigail Van Buren

Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I just read the letter signed "The Clicker in Palm Springs," the man who said, "While watching TV, I regularly use the mute button to tune out the commercials — but my wife says if I watch the programs, I ought to listen to the sponsor's commercials."

I think that man should look for a new wife. A woman who is that susceptible to TV commercials should not be left alone in a shopping mall with a credit card.

I agree with The Clicker. Those TV commercials are so offensive that permitting them to be heard in our house is considered blasphemy. If we didn't have a "blab-off" remote on our TV, I wouldn't have a TV in the house.

LARRY C., LA CONNER, WASH.

DEAR LARRY: Not everybody agrees with you. Read on:

DEAR ABBY: I am in complete agreement with the wife of "The Clicker in Palm Springs." Obviously, Abby, you have never had to tolerate this situation.

Have you ever tried to concentrate on reading the newspaper when there is someone in the room turning the TV volume up and down constantly? I live in the same house with such a person and am tempted to ram the "remote" into his inconsiderate ear. My deepest sympathy goes to The Clicker's wife. She may have been trying to tell him something in a nice way before she killed him.

Police locate missing woman

CLEVELAND (AP) — A woman who was missing after leaving her 3-year-old daughter May 25 near the San Jose, Calif., airport is hospitalized in Cleveland after identifying herself to police in suburban Lakewood.

Michael Ellen Hart, whose daughter, Natalie Juanita, apparently was abandoned, was taken into custody after she telephoned police late Sunday afternoon.

When she called, Ms. Hart also disclosed that she had left her other daughter, Gabriel, 3 months, at a Texas airport, police said. Police traced Gabriel to Houston.

Ms. Hart and Gabriel had been missing from her Cleveland home since May 25 after Ms. Hart and the two children flew to Southern California. Police in Cleveland and in San Jose had been looking for her.

Lake's opening delayed

GRAND PRAIRIE, Texas (AP) — It would be hard to picnic at the new Loyd Park on the northwest shore of Joe Pool Lake.

About 10 picnic tables, a transformer and about 200 feet of road are under water, and the extremely wet conditions are expected to delay the targeted opening date for the new lake.

The Dallas-Fort Worth area lake, in the works since Congress authorized its construction in 1965, can't open as scheduled later this month because of a problem no one could have anticipated: the lake has gotten too much water.

"We don't think it will get any better any time soon," Sally Werst, public affairs officer for the corps of engineers, told the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. "Before these last rains, our hydrologist predicted it would take three weeks to release all the floodwater."

About 50 feet of a road at Lynn Creek Park, on the lake's upper northwest shore, also is under water.

The lake, which straddles southwest Dallas, southeast Tarrant and northern Johnson and Ellis counties, originally was scheduled to open last summer. Now there has been too much rain and the opening — bumped to this spring, then early June, then mid-June — is set for July.

No board work likely for gays

DALLAS (AP) — In a controversy church members say is dividing their congregation, a group of Methodists has voted to deny homosexual parishioners participation in their church governing board.

Members of Oak Lawn United Methodist Church, located in the heart of the Dallas gay community, voted Sunday more than 3-to-1 against five separate propositions supported by the gay rights group Affirmation. The organization is composed of church members.

"It seems that the Discipline (the Methodist Church's rule book) makes a clear statement about the practice of homosexuality being incompatible with Christian teachings," said church pastor the Rev. Milton Gutierrez.

Wyndal Early, church business manager, said the congregation voted 224-68 against allowing the congregation's annual conference — including the charge conference — to be open to all members.

The congregation's charge conference reviews policy decisions and selects its governing board.

It voted 222-69 against a resolution calling for "Christian outreach and evangelism to all the residents of the Oak Lawn community, including people of all colors, young couples, gay men and lesbians."

Actor, comedian kept awards show lively

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Actor Dudley Moore tripped on his words and joked about all the standing and sitting during the Eighth Van Cliburn International Piano Competition awards ceremony.

But after Sunday's event, it was the couple of dozen people who gathered around Moore and a piano on stage in an empty concert hall who had the biggest laugh.

"I saw something you did on Saturday Night Live — it was a spoof," said pianist Van Cliburn, namesake of the quadrennial competition, as he urged Moore to demonstrate his musical abilities.

Without further prompting, Moore, who holds degrees in music and composition from Oxford University, sat at the concert grand piano and performed a satire understandable in any language.

As he played a musically eloquent piece, Moore gestured across the keyboard and jolted around on the piano bench as he made fun of classical performers.

Cliburn doubled up in laughter, and competition winner Aleksei Sultanov, who does not speak English, couldn't contain his chuckles during the several minutes of Moore's sarcasm.

In the year ahead it looks like you will be drawn into a brand new social group. Initially, you might feel you don't fit in, however, with time, this thought will be completely dispelled.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Domestic duties and responsibilities should be given top priority today. After you've attended to them you won't feel guilty if you take the rest of the day for yourself to do what you want.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Compliment a person today who truly deserves it, even though it may be an individual who never takes time to pat you on the back when you've done something noteworthy.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your financial prospects look rather encouraging today and you should come out in the profit column, although there is an indication that you could have done better.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Follow your noble instincts today and keep everything you do out in the open. If you attempt to do something coy, no matter how small or harmless, it is apt to boomerang.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Gentle tactics aren't likely to be too effective in your business dealings today. In order to produce desirable results, you may have to be more firm while remaining fair.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Try to accept people with whom you have important dealings today for what they are instead of trying to make them over in your mind. If you treat them tolerantly, they, in turn, will be tolerant of you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Forego taking sole credit today for something an associate had a hand in bringing about. There is ample room in the spotlight for both you and the other guy.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) You'll be a constructive and respected counselor today to those who come to you for advice. Your pleasant, philosophical outlook will bring order out of chaos.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Instead of assuming something is factual, just because another says it is, it is best to check things out for yourself. Your evaluations of situations are apt to be far more accurate.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) In a partnership arrangement today, it might appear as if your counterpart doesn't have your best interest at heart. Later you'll discover that just the opposite was true.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) If you are not mentally self-disciplined today, it could seriously hamper your progress by reducing your initiative. When it's time to work, think work and produce.

Mascot's death sparks cat fight

HOUSTON (AP) — Plans to replace the University of Houston's cougar mascot that died last month is creating a cat fight among animal rights activists and students.
 Roland Smith, vice president for student affairs, said he expects school administrators to decide by mid-September whether to replace Shasta, the 9-year-old cougar that was put to sleep May 28 because of kidney failure.
 Animal rights activists, however, say the school should not get another live mascot.
 "We feel it's not appropriate for an institution of higher education such as the University of Houston to condone keeping a creature ... for amusement. It conveys the wrong idea to the student body," said Sean Hawkins, a UH student last semester and current president of the Houston Animal Rights Team.

When the great Jack Dempsey began his boxing career in 1914 he fought under the name of "Kid Blackie."

Scientists support more research

AUSTIN (AP) — State officials are studying whether to help fund Texas A&M's cold fusion research, a move researchers would welcome.

"It's like when they first got the automotive engine to work," said John Bockris, a senior professor of chemistry at Texas A&M. "All chitty, chitty, bang, bang. We're in that stage. Who can say whether a smooth Rolls Royce will come of it?"

"I'm convinced something is happening, whatever it is," said Oliver Murphy, assistant director of the Center for Electrochemistry at Texas A&M. "We've been going at it almost three months now by siphoning funds from other projects. Some (government) money should be thrown at this. Not billions of dollars, but millions at least."

Rossanna Salazar, a spokeswoman for Gov. Bill Clements, said state officials are studying whether to help fund the research at Texas A&M.

Encouraging signs

By James Jacoby

The player in third position has the responsibility of guiding the defense by expressing his attitude toward the opening lead. If either the opening leader or the dummy is going to win that first trick, then a high card by third seat expresses encouragement, a low card no interest. The defender's decision is based upon more than just his strength in the suit led. He must judge whether the defenders' best interests are served by attacking another suit.

East had nothing in spades and therefore played his deuce. West was not sure which minor suit to switch to, so he tried an apparently safe trump. Declarer won the ace, came to his hand with a spade and played the nine of hearts. East won the king and led another spade, but West was out of trumps. So South scored five heart tricks, two spades and the ace of clubs to make his contract.

It's obvious that West should have continued spades despite his partner's discouraging deuce, but East should also have done better. East should realize that West can be leading only from a doubleton spade (with three or more he would have selected a different opening lead), and so should flag an encouraging six-spot on the opening lead. When a second spade is played at trick two, declarer can no longer escape losing another trick. As soon as East wins the lead, he gives West a spade ruff, and the contract is down one.

Demos have head start for seat

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Democrats have a head start on filling the congressional seat Jim Wright is vacating, Republicans say.

"You cannot attack Jim Wright," said Brian Epstein, a Republican political consultant. "Anywhere in Texas, his name is mud, except in the Congressional District 12."

More than 527,000 reside in the 12th District, and political strategists say Democrats hold an edge because of a solid bloc of minority voters that averages 30 percent to 40 percent of the voter turnout.

Wright announced his resignation under the glare of an ethics investigation that resulted in allegations of 69 violations of House rules.

Gov. Bill Clements can set a date for a special election not less than 36 days after Wright resigns from the House. Wright indicated that would happen by the end of June.

The 12th District seat is one of three formerly Democratic seats to be filled in upcoming special elections. Claude Pepper of Florida died May 30 at the age of 88, and Majority Whip Tony Coelho of California announced last month he would resign rather than face an ethics investigation similar to Wright's.

But Republican officials say they will focus their efforts elsewhere.

In early going at CNFR...

McLanahan scores 72

BOZEMAN, Mont. — Western Texas College's Denny McLanahan scored a 72 to take over second place in the early going of the bareback event at the College National Finals Rodeo here this morning.

McLanahan, a sophomore from Canadian, was the only one of eight students entered from WTC to compete early today. He was holding down second place after 17 contestants. There were about still 40 to compete in the first go-round.

McLanahan will compete in the bull riding during Tuesday's slack performance and Coach

Bob Doty said he has an opportunity to do well in that event also.

"Denny drew a real good bull. He's capable of getting a lot of points," said Doty.

It may be tougher for another WTC roughstock rider, Michael Gaffney.

"Michael's bull is a young bull. Michael scored a 64 on him at Big Spring (Howard College NIRA Rodeo) earlier. Hopefully, the bull will buck better up here," said Doty.

Other roughstock riders for WTC are Kenny Taton and Jim Blain Kenney. They do not compete until Tuesday evening when the rodeo holds its first official show. Doty said he did not know anything about the horses Taton or Kenney drew.

Also competing here from Western are Ray Brown and Clyde Himes in the steer wrestling and calf roping, Russell Merchant in the steer wrestling and Bryan Davis, who will team rope with Kenney. Each of the eight WTC students can accumulate individual points but only McLanahan, Gaffney, Taton, Kenney, Brown and Himes can compile team points.

The rodeo runs nightly through Saturday.

Pistons dunk Lakers; control series 3-0 now

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — The Detroit Pistons, with guards Joe Dumars, Isiah Thomas and Vinnie Johnson again virtually unstoppable, took a 3-0 lead in the NBA Finals Sunday with a 114-110 victory over the injury-ravaged Los Angeles Lakers.

The two-time defending champions led for much of the game, but they couldn't overcome the hamstring injuries that sidelined starting guards Magic Johnson and Byron Scott.

Johnson had one assist and no points in five minutes while Scott didn't play, but their teammates showed the heart that has taken them to the Finals eight times in this decade, winning five titles.

Dumars, Thomas and Vinnie Johnson, who combined for an average of 23 points apiece in the first two games, were magnificent again for the Pistons. Dumars scored 31 points - 21 in the third quarter - Thomas had 26 and Johnson 13 of his 17 in the fourth quarter, including a three-point play with 6:11 left that broke a 98-98 tie and put Detroit ahead to stay.

James Worthy had 26 points and 42-year-old Kareem Abdul-Jabbar 24 points and 13 rebounds for the Lakers. Abdul-Jabbar, playing the final year of his 20-year career, matched his season high in scoring.

Dennis Rodman grabbed 19 rebounds for the Pistons.

In Game 4 at the Forum on Tuesday night, the Pistons will be going for the fifth 4-0 sweep in championship series history.

Sunday Silence won't get crown

NEW YORK (AP) — Easy Goer and Sunday Silence. Like Ali and Frazier, Nicklaus and Palmer, Notre Dame and Army, this was a rivalry that got folks riled.

It sparked regional pride, the East for Easy Goer, the West for Sunday Silence.

Even after his chance for a Triple Crown was dashed by Easy Goer in the Belmont Stakes, Sunday Silence's trainer, Charlie Whittingham, pronounced: "This was a great day for racing."

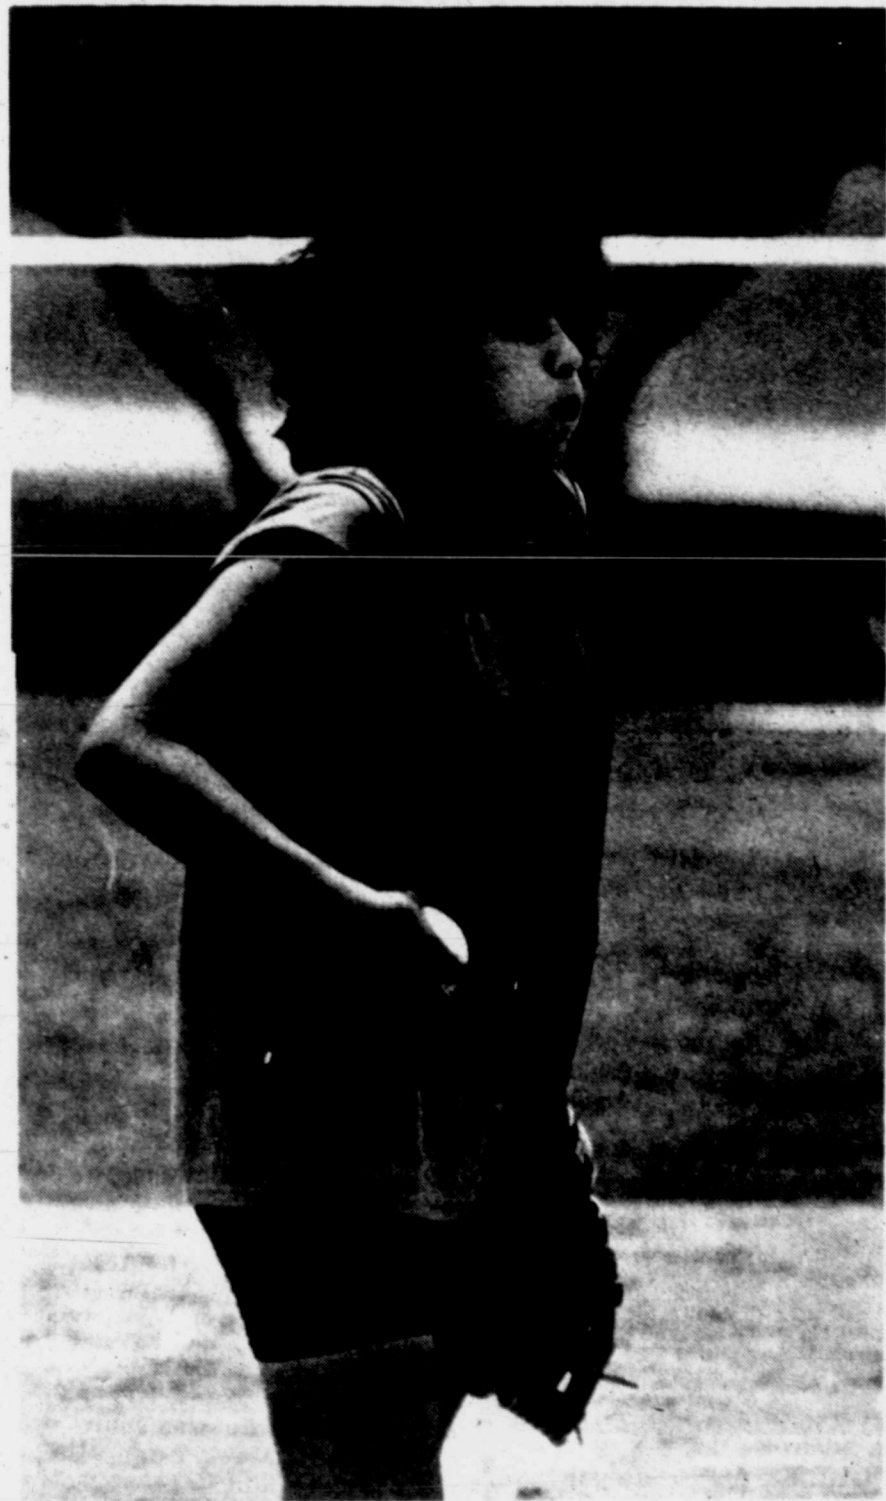

New York's normally blasé racing fans turned Belmont Park into a celebration of horse racing Saturday. The roar began when the gate was rolled into place for the 121st Belmont Stakes, and it was deafening as the horses entered the post.

There were 64,959 in the stands, the biggest Belmont crowd since Affirmed and Alydar drew 65,417 in 1978.

When the bell rang for the eighth race, the French horse, Le Voyageur, broke on top and led through the first mile. At the half-mile pole, Sunday Silence was second by a length, and Easy Goer was moving up. With a quarter-mile left, Easy Goer made his move on the outside, and the big crowd roared. He was 4½ lengths ahead of Sunday Silence going in to the stretch, and he won by eight.

His time for the 1½ miles was 2:26, second in Belmont history only to Secretariat's unbelievable 2:24.

By finishing second, Sunday Silence won a $1 million Triple Crown bonus, but instead of becoming the 12th Triple Crown winner, he became the 12th horse - and third in this decade - who came to Belmont with a chance at the sweep only to fail.

'Aging' fighters meet once more in lucrative bout

LAS VEGAS (AP) — Sugar

Ray Leonard and Thomas Hearns, a pair of flashy welterweights with unlimited futures when they first fought, meet again in a lucrative rematch that almost certainly will end at least one career.

Seven years and nine months after Leonard stopped Hearns in the 14th round of a classic battle for the undisputed welterweight title, the two aging fighters return to the ring at Caesars Palace for a scheduled 12-round fight for Leonard's World Boxing Council 168-pound title.

For Leonard, 33, the fight is a chance to add another $13 million to his already bloated bank account while seeing how much of his once remarkable skill he retains.

For Hearns, it's his last chance for vindication, and perhaps his last hurrah as a fighter.

"Thomas has to win this fight," said Emanuel Steward, his longtime trainer and manager. "If not, he's finished as far as boxing goes, pure and simple."

Leonard, a 7-5 favorite when the two first met Sept. 16, 1981, enters the ring a 3-1 favorite this time. The fight, which will be televised on pay-per-view and closed circuit, is scheduled to begin about 7:45 p.m. PDT.

Leonard, who has fought only 33 rounds in four fights since the first Hearns bout, is coming off a less than spectacular ninth-round knockout of Donny Lalonde, who knocked Leonard down in the fourth round with a right hand.

Unlike the Leonard of old, he fought flat-footed against Lalonde, though he showed good hand speed and power.

"If the Ray Leonard who fought Donny Lalonde fights Monday night, he will get flattened," said Angelo Dundee, who worked Leonard's corner before splitting with the fighter in a contract dispute before the Lalonde fight.

Leonard, whose only defeat in 36 professional fights was to Roberto Duran nine years ago, refused to discuss what a loss would mean to his career.

Hearns, though, freely admitted that a second loss would be difficult to take.

Chang brings French Open win to America

PARIS (AP) — For 34 years, the red clay of Roland Garros has been quicksand for American tennis hopes.

The jinx ended Sunday as 17-year-old Michael Chang beat Stefan Edberg to win the French Open, fighting off 10 break points in the fourth set for a come-from-behind 6-1, 2-6, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2 victory.

He is the first American to win the French Open men's title since Tony Trabert in 1955. He is also the youngest male player ever to win a Grand Slam singles title.

Chang's victory capped a historic weekend at Roland Garros. On Saturday, 17-year-old Arantxa Sanchez beat top-seeded Steffi Graf to become the youngest French Open women's champion and the first Spanish woman to win a Grand Slam event.

Chang said his accomplishment hadn't sunk in yet.

"It's hard to think about it, it just doesn't click in my head," said the 15th-seeded Chang, of Placentia, Calif. "It's definitely a great honor and achievement. At the moment, it's definitely the highest achievement I could ever have in tennis."

Grady gets first tour win with Westchester

HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — Wayne Grady didn't let his first PGA Tour triumph take things out of perspective.

"This doesn't mean I'm a lock to win the U.S. Open" this week in Rochester, N.Y., Grady said after his playoff victory Sunday in the Westchester Classic.

"This doesn't mean I'm going to go out and win 10 tournaments in a row. I'm not that kind of player. I'm not a streak player. I don't do anything brilliantly, but I don't do anything badly."

"I'm just a good, steady player and I'm glad to have my game back," the 31-year-old Australian said after his uphill, three-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole had beaten Ronnie Black.

Grady, who started the final round in a three-way tie for the lead, had to rally for a place in the playoff on the wind-swept Westchester Country Club course in the northern suburbs of New York City.

Black, playing in front of him, birdied the 18th hole to complete a round of 68 and go seven under par for the tournament. Grady promptly bogeyed the 16th and 17th to drop from the lead alone to one behind.

"Nothing like a couple of bogeys to wake you up," he said. And he rapped in a six-foot putt on the final hole of regulation to finish at 277 and force the playoff. He had a closing 72.

Tom Watson came on with a 68 that included a double bogey on the first hole and missed the playoff by a shot.

Brummett hurls WSU to NCAA baseball title

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — That wasn't Orel Hershiser on the mound for Wichita State. It only seemed like it as Greg Brummett made the College World Series his as much as Hershiser owned last year's postseason.

Brummett held Texas to six hits for his third victory of the Series as Wichita State won 5-3 Saturday for its first NCAA championship.

"I didn't think he was the best pitcher we faced all year," said Scott Bryant, the designated hitter and starting pitcher for Texas. "He threw a great game. He didn't give us much of the plate to hit the ball. His slider was breaking hard away from you. He did what he had to do at the right time."

And by doing it, Brummett, 18-2, was named CWS Most Valuable Player. He is one of seven pitchers to win three games in a national tournament. Brummett allowed six hits, four walks and just one earned run as he struck out six.

"I thought today he was a very outstanding college pitcher," Texas coach Cliff Gustafson said. "I have had a great deal of respect for his style since I watched him last year at the College World Series. I thought he would be a very effective pitcher against us, just his style of pitching, and he was. He was everything today that I was afraid he would be."

Wichita State became the first team not from California, Arizona, Florida or Texas since 1966 to win the CWS.

Texas, 53-18, is a believer after a pair of unearned runs and a two-run homer by Pat Meares gave Brummett all the cushion he needed to lift the fourth-seeded Shockers, 68-16. The Longhorns were the second seed of the tournament.

Falwell reports...

Moral Majority has been disbanded

LAS VEGAS (AP) — The Moral Majority is being dismantled after a decade of leading religious conservatives out of the political wilderness, but analysts said the effects of its lobbying efforts will endure.

"There are those that are saying we are witnessing the end of the religious right," said the Rev. Richard Neuhaus, director of the Center on Religion and Society in New York. "I do not think this is the beginning of the end. To paraphrase Churchill, 'This is the end of the beginning.'"

Television evangelist Jerry Falwell, founder and chairman of Moral Majority, announced Sunday that the organization will be disbanded Aug. 31.

The once feared lobbying group, which raised $69 million and helped elect three Republican administrations since its founding in June 1979, had accomplished its mission of politicizing religious conservatives, Falwell told a meeting of the Religion Newswriters Association.

"I feel that I have performed the task to which I was called in 1979. The religious right is solidly in place, and like the galvanizing of the black church as a political force a generation ago, the religious conservatives in America are now in for the duration," he said.

Neuhaus, a Lutheran theologian, said Moral Majority's ability to bring Christian fundamentalists out of an isolationist stance and into public policy debates was "a major development of lasting consequence."

"While the work of Moral Majority will go on forever, the Moral Majority organization is no longer needed," Falwell said.

An average of 2 million to 3 million people either donated money or subscribed to the organization's newspaper over the last decade, according to Mark DeMoss, a spokesman for Falwell.

At its height during the 1984 presidential election, the group raised $11 million. DeMoss said revenues this year are expected to drop to $3.5 million. The organization has a dozen employees in Washington.

Falwell said the disbanding of the Moral Majority is part of his continued withdrawal from politics to devote more time to his

The school district's net taxable value is now figured at $97.7 million while Hermleigh's is estimated at $34.8 million.

Last year, Ira ISD's value was calculated at $102.7 million while Hermleigh's was $34.1 million.

The effective tax rates are calculations provided by the appraisal district as part of "truth in taxation" laws in Texas.

The actual tax rates for both school districts will be set this summer as budget planning is completed by governing boards for each.

ministry at Thomas Road Baptist Church and Liberty University in Lynchburg, Va. He resigned as president of Moral Majority in November 1987.

Moral Majority's work will be taken over by the lobbying groups of religious conservatives it helped pave the way for, such as the American Coalition for Traditional Values, Concerned Women for America, the Rutherford Institute, the Freedom Council, and the American Family Association, Falwell said.

Much of the political agenda of the religious right — including making abortion illegal, allowing tuition tax credits for private schools and silent prayer in public schools — remains unfulfilled.

But Falwell credited the Moral Majority with registering "millions" of voters and leading religious conservatives in electing Ronald Reagan, defeating a dozen liberal U.S. senators in 1980, re-electing Reagan in 1984 and electing Bush last year.

The service has a registered nurse on call 24 hours a day for its patients.

Freda Murray and Joe Ann Deavers are the other two R.N.'s on the staff. Licensed vocational nurses are Nelda Baze, Alice Alderete and Beth Fleming, who is also the office manager. Harriet Hill and Mae Cole are nurse's aides, and Becky Eaton is the office assistant.

Other services are occupational therapy, physical therapy, medical social work and home photo-therapy for newborn infants with jaundice.

1 of 3 wreck victims still listed as serious

A 44-year-old Carlsbad, N.M., man who was injured in a pickup truck accident early Saturday near Snyder was listed in serious condition with chest injuries

Children may face bleak future

HOUSTON (AP) — Many children of illegal aliens who have been granted amnesty will have trouble finding legitimate work or attending college because of a flaw in immigration laws, experts say.

Children who arrived in the United States after the amnesty cutoff of Jan 1, 1982, are considered illegal aliens, even though one or both parents may have qualified for amnesty.

Amnesty advocates say that unless immigration laws are changed, the situation will force many to graduate from high school to settle for menial labor jobs, where they risk being arrested and deported.

"They will be a sad group of young people in terms of opportunities available to them," said Vanna Slaughter, director of the Catholic Charities immigration counseling services program in Dallas, told The Houston Post.

U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service officials said they have no estimate of how many children are in the predicament of being illegal aliens while one or both of their parents has obtained legal immigration status by qualifying for amnesty.

The U.S. Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 offered amnesty to qualified illegal immigrants who entered the United States before Jan 1, 1982. Qualified applicants can obtain permanent residency and, after five years, apply for citizenship.

Monday morning at Lubbock General Hospital in Lubbock.

Bobby Haynes was one of three Carlsbad men to be injured in the one-vehicle rollover at 6:30 a.m. Saturday 21.4 miles west of Snyder on the Lamesa Hwy., and he was transferred to Lubbock by a helicopter from the Lubbock hospital.

Ted Moore, 43, was held over the weekend at Cogdell Memorial Hospital for observation of head injuries and was expected to be released Monday, a hospital spokesman said.

The pickup driver, 35-year-old David Ingram, was treated for a leg injury and released Saturday.

Traveler has wreck injury

A 37-year-old Las Vegas, Nev. man was injured in an early Monday motor vehicle accident and was being held for 23-observation of a shoulder injury at Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Charles A. Taff was brought to the hospital by Snyder EMS Ambulance Service at 12:30 a.m. Monday, a hospital spokesman said.

The commissioners said all four precincts currently own 14 roadgraders, with an average value new of more than $100,000 each.

Gray agreed to sell the two pickups in the county's fall auction of surplus equipment.

Obituaries

Jared Medrano

Graveside services for Jared Anjel Medrano, 36 days old, were Monday at 10 a.m. at Hillside Memorial Gardens.

Rev. Cary Moore, pastor of Assembly of God Church, officiated.

Jared was born in Lubbock on May 5 to Joe and Debra Medrano of Snyder.

He died Friday at St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock.

He is survived by his parents; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cayetano Medrano; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E.H. Kenney; and a maternal great grandfather, Ray Melchor, all of Snyder.

Florence Phillips

SLATON- Services are set for 10 a.m. Tuesday at Englund's Funeral Home Chapel for Florence Elkins Phillips, 89, who died Saturday in Cochran County Memorial Hospital in Morton.

Graveside services are set for 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Snyder Cemetery.

Born in Snyder, she moved to Morton in 1964. She lived in Slaton from 1970 to 1985 before moving back to Morton. She was a member of the Westview Baptist Church in Slaton. She was also a teacher and a retail clothing clerk.

Survivors include two daughters, Jane Huckabee of Morton and Nellie Jo Powers of Bartow, Calif.; a sister, Frances Keane of Slaton; seven grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

Haile Selassie, the last emperor of Ethiopia's 3,000-year-old monarchy, died in Addis Ababa in 1975. He was 83. His death came almost a year after his overthrow in a military coup.

George Bush turns 65 today

WASHINGTON (AP) — George Bush turns 65 today, only the 13th president in U.S. history to hit that milestone while in office.

Friends and experts say they don't expect his new status as senior citizen to slow down Bush, a trim non-smoker who jogs and plays tennis regularly.

"I've known him for a long time and I've never seen him look better," says White House physician Burton Lee. "Aging is different in all of us and certainly exercise retards it."

Dr. T. Franklin Williams, director of the National Institute on Aging, says, "I don't know anything at all about President Bush's medical history, but just to observe him from a distance I would predict he has 25 or 30 good years ahead of him anyhow."

Bush appears to have both the actuarial tables and genes on his side.

The president's mother, Dorothy Walker Bush, is 87 and living in Greenwich, Conn. His father, the late Sen. Prescott Bush, died in 1972 at age 77.

Bush is just one of 4,000 Americans turning 65 today — and for that matter, every day of the year.

There are 31 million Americans 65 or older now and there will be 35½ million by the end of the 1990s.

A growing segment of them are living to truly advanced old ages. Williams said the number of American centenarians, now around 25,000, will exceed 100,000 by the turn of the century.

Perhaps because he followed the oldest president in U.S. history, Ronald Reagan, little attention has been paid to Bush's age.

He is 13 years younger than Reagan, who was 77 when he exited the Oval Office.

More doctors join unions

BOSTON (AP) — Labor organizers say more and more doctors are joining the ranks of several unions nationwide — a trend that could change the rules by which medical professionals play.

Before doctors take the lives of others into their hands, they take a Hippocratic oath to act "with purity and with holiness," a mandate that raises ethical questions about whether a doctors' walkout would, say, stop a parent from rushing a sick child past pickets and into an emergency room.

Still, does that oath deprive doctors of the right to protect their own interests, financial and otherwise?

Union proponents and medical ethicists say no — up to a point.

Dr. Sanford A. Marcus, president of the Union of American Physicians and Dentists, said his Oakland, Calif.-based consortium has 50,000 members and is growing. He said members, affiliated through a number of offshoots around the country, are working together to advocate the rights of both physicians and their patients.

"The entire field of health care financing and distribution is being stood on its ear in these times," Marcus said. "The rules ... are going to change an awful lot."

Since the mid-1980s, membership in health maintenance organizations has risen around the nation. The prepaid medical plans generally employ specific doctors and hospitals that provide reduced rate care to HMO members.

Actress explains how she made it through trial

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Miss America Bess Myerson, who was acquitted of divorce-fixing charges last year, made it through her trial by reading, playing the piano, taking long walks and turning to God.

She also got a boost from the regular subway riders who were on the train she rode daily for more than 12 weeks to the federal courthouse in Manhattan, Miss Myerson told Ladies' Home Journal.

"After a while it became like a clubhouse. As they got off at their station, they would give me thumbs up. They'd say, 'I wish you luck,'" Miss Myerson said in the magazine's July issue.

Miss Myerson, who is Jewish, said religion helped her through the ordeal.

DR. GOTT

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Please provide information on aplastic anemia. What are the symptoms and will the situation reverse itself?

DEAR READER: Aplastic anemia refers to a condition in which the cells in the bone marrow stop producing new blood cells. This results in a decrease in red blood corpuscles (anemia), as well as a reduction in circulating white blood cells (leukopenia) and platelets (thrombocytopenia).

This disease is serious because blood cells play a vital role in maintaining health. Aplastic anemia is an uncommon consequence of acute viral illness (especially in children); in such cases, the bone marrow usually recovers and the situation reverses itself without treatment. Similarly, certain drugs (notably, tranquilizers and anti-convulsants) cause bone marrow malfunction; once the drug is withdrawn, the marrow cells recover.

However, some forms of aplastic anemia do not cure themselves. In particular, leukemia and acute toxic poisoning (organic phosphates, for example) require treatment, usually with bone marrow transplants from suitable donors. Some tumors, especially of the thymus gland, can cause aplastic anemia.

Patients with this type of blood disorder may experience fatigue, pallor, hemorrhage, serious infections and heart failure.

Patients with aplastic anemia should be under the care of hematologists. Such specialists can diagnose the cause of the affliction and offer appropriate therapy. To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Blood." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm an 80-year-old female and have trouble with saliva flowing from the left side of my mouth. It seems to be getting worse all the time. What can I do about it?

DEAR READER: Drooling can be due to diminished strength of the lip muscles, as in patients who have had strokes, or to an increase in the production of saliva, as a result of foreign material (such as dentures) in the mouth. I suggest you see your dentist to discover the cause of your problem. If the dentist is unable to help you, request a medical examination by your doctor. I am sure that the two professionals working together can solve your problem.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Postal workers in Ohio would like to wear white cotton socks during the summer months. We feel they would be healthier and cooler than the 100 percent synthetic fiber knee-length black or blue ones now available. Do you have any documentation to support our theory?

DEAR READER: No, I don't. However, in a situation like this, I see no reason why the postal workers cannot decide this issue for themselves. Rather than formulating guidelines for a dress code, the postal authorities ought to be spending their time more appropriately figuring out how to get the mail delivered.

People are beached by restrictions

By The Associated Press

Perfect beach weather, you say? A great day to grab your towel, shades, sunblock, the latest best seller and head for sandy shores?

Just when you thought it was safe to go back in the water, a virtual sand trap of rules and regulations awaits, governing such things as your oceanside attire, what you pack in your cooler, even whether you can toss a Frisbee.

You think Fido might enjoy a romp in the waves? Sorry, but an informal survey of beach restrictions on both coasts and some inland beaches shows that most ban dogs, at least during the summer.

"Frankly, people just don't want to put their beach blankets down next to a pile of deep doo-doo," said East Hampton Supervisor Tony Bullock on New York's Long Island. Horses are prohibited, too.

Wayne Shattaway, a lifeguard at Jacksonville Beach in Florida, which even hired a dogcatcher to patrol the beach, said dogs can sometimes be aggressive to strangers.

"Right now Rotweilers and Dobermans are the popular dogs here. If there was just poodles on the beach, it wouldn't be a problem," he said.

Bottles and glass containers are banned virtually everywhere, restrictions on cans are almost as rampant, and if you're toting anything stronger than soft drinks, that's likely to be forbidden, too.

Frisbees are banned at Hilton Head Island, S.C., Long Island, Virginia Beach, among other places.

Foreign wheat sales are subsidized

WASHINGTON (AP) — Export subsidies have been almost as important as rain to the American wheat farmer in recent years.

Since Congress authorized the subsidies in the 1985 farm law, the program has cost more than $2.5 billion and has accounted for about two-thirds of all U.S. wheat sold to foreign buyers.

According to one Agriculture Department analyst, the subsidies provided by the Export Enhancement Program, or EEP, may have boosted the U.S. price of wheat by as much as a fifth through the larger volume of shipments.

The Soviet Union and China have been the biggest beneficiaries of the subsidized sales, but about two dozen other countries also have shared in the program.

Soviet wheat purchases under EEP since the program began totaled 17.1 million tons through May 5, representing 28 percent of the 60.6 million tons shipped to all countries designated for the cut-rate grain.

China, with purchases of 12.3

million tons, has accounted for about 20 percent of the EEP wheat total.

A metric ton is about 2,205 pounds and is equal to 36.7 bushels of wheat.

Under the program, private exporters can sell wheat (or other designated commodities) to an eligible country at prices lower than otherwise would be charged.

The main purpose of EEP is to allow U.S. grain to compete with subsidized exports by the European Economic Community, the 12-nation trading bloc that is also known as the Common Market.

MEETINGS LIKE THIS RAISE YOUR CAR INSURANCE RATES.

Why do insurance premiums keep going up? One big reason is the incredible cost of repairing or replacing cars damaged in accidents—over 33 million last year alone. In the last 10 years, the average cost of repairing damaged vehicles has gone up 93%, while the cost of replacing a car has gone up 126%.

Why is it so expensive? Let's start with the cost of replacement parts. The cost of your car—if you bought it as replacement parts—would be two to four times more than the cost of a whole new car.

And speaking of new cars, their average price has gone up from $6,379 to $14,389. That should give you an idea of just how much is paid—out of your premiums—every time an accident results in a "totaled" car.

At State Farm, we believe that ways must be found to keep these expenses from forcing premiums to go up. That's why our researchers sit down face to face with automakers to help them design stronger, safer, easier-to-repair cars. And why we helped found I-CAR, which trains body shop people in the latest auto repair techniques.

State Farm is there, every day. Finding more ways to help protect our policyholders from the causes of rising premiums. So we can keep insurance affordable.
