

3-year-old boy...

Rites pending for drowning victim, July 4th tragedy

Services were pending Wednesday morning for a 3-year-old Snyder boy who died at Cogdell Memorial Hospital Tuesday afternoon after attempts to revive him from a drowning incident failed.

The youth was discovered in the Pal-O-Mar swimming pool located at 314 E. Hwy.

Police said Justin R. Milton was reported missing by his mother, Tammy Milton of 4400 Ave. U, No. 5B-8, who was at the pool on a family outing.

This report came at 1:16 p.m. and two Snyder police officers responding to the call found the youth unconscious in the pool.

He was taken by ambulance to the hospital, where he was pronounced dead at 3:52 p.m.

The boy was born April 15, 1986.

Survivors include his mother, of the home; his father, Greg McGaha; maternal grandmother Sharon Robbins of Snyder and paternal grandparents J.W. and Jane Hicklin of Fort Worth and Mack McGaha; maternal great grandparent Calvin Vickers of Snyder and paternal great grandparent Francis McGaha of Snyder; seven aunts, six uncles and several cousins.

Soviet crash

MOSCOW (AP) — Defense Minister Dmitri Yazov had no explanation today for why Warsaw Pact defense forces failed to detect and shoot down a runaway MiG-23 jet fighter that crashed into a house in Belgium, killing a man.

In an interview with Tass, Yazov said investigators were en route to Kolobrzeg airfield in Poland to find out why the MiG's pilot bailed out after takeoff on a training mission, leaving the jet to fly pilotless for 560 miles.

From Poland, the investigators will fly to the crash site and discuss compensation for the death and damages with Belgian officials, the official news agency said.

"It is difficult to say why it was not shot down, why it was not detected," Yazov said. "A large-scale investigation should be carried out."

The defense minister said he believed an engine malfunction immediately after takeoff on the training flight prompted the pilot to eject.

"As the pilot himself explained, the afterburner spontaneously switched off during the takeoff and the plane began to decelerate," Yazov said.

Flag standoff

AUSTIN (AP) — A group of disabled Vietnam veterans and students planning to burn American flags wound up in a July 4 confrontation on the steps of the Texas Capitol.

The two dozen disabled veterans had marched 212 miles across West Texas to Austin to voice outrage over reductions in veterans' medical and educational benefits.

The two dozen University of Texas students gathered to burn several United States flags to protest conditions for the homeless and the United States' role in South America.

Their chance meeting was tense, with authorities saying violence was narrowly averted.

"I'm burning this flag for 213 years of history," yelled one student who later refused to identify himself.

"You're here because someone fought to give you 213 years of history," replied Robert "Grizzly" Beggs, a veteran from San Angelo confined to a wheelchair.

At first, the Concho Valley Vietnam Veterans thought the television cameras were on to hand at the Capitol to record their arrival.

North won't go to prison

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge today gave Oliver L. North a three-year suspended prison sentence and fined him $150,000 for his role in covering up his involvement in the Iran-Contra affair.

U.S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell placed the former National Security Council aide on two years' probation and ordered him to perform 200 hours of community service administering a new program to help inner-city youth avoid involvement in drugs.

Gesell cited North's distinguished career as a Marine officer before he became a staff member at the White House during the Reagan administration.

He told North that during the Iran-Contra affair "I don't think you were a leader at all." He said North was "really a low-level subordinate who was carrying out the instructions of a few cynical superiors."

North, who has said he will appeal his conviction on three counts, had faced a maximum of 10 years' imprisonment and fines totaling $750,000.

Pronouncing sentence, Gesell told North:

"Along the way you came to accept the view that Congress couldn't be trusted... that the fate of the country could be left to a small inside group not elected that was free to act as they chose while publicly professing to act differently."

But Gesell said that even though North was following orders, "you're not the fall guy for this tragic breach of the public trust."

The judge said North failed to understand "how the public service has been tarnished" by his activities.

North remained at the defense table for a few minutes after Gesell concluded the sentencing. He then walked over to his wife, Betsy, who was sitting in the front row, kissed her on the cheek and whispered in her ear. The two then smiled broadly.

The 45-year-old retired Marine lieutenant colonel was found guilty May 4 of aiding and abetting the obstruction of Congress by helping write a false chronology of a 1985 arms shipment to Iran. He also was convicted of destroying sensitive government documents and accepting a $13,800 home security system from arms dealer Richard V. Secord.

North testified at his trial that he acted at the direction of his superiors.

Man indicted for hitting police car

A 25-year-old Snyder man was indicted Monday for aggravated assault on a police officer in connection with a June 18 roadblock collision at 16th St. and Ave. I.

Mike M. Martinez of 807 16th St., one of seven criminal defendants to be indicted, is accused of ramming a city police car driven by officer Randy Leverich.

Martinez was also arrested for felony DWI that night, and he was indicted on that charge Monday as well.

Other true-bills issued by the county grand jury included two against men accused of breaking into a home in the 500 Block of 28th St. and appropriating property belonging to Foy Dennis.

Gary D. Barrientez, who had not been arrested, was indicted for burglary of a habitation and Leroy T. Rivas, 35, of San Angelo was true-billed for felony theft in connection with the taking of some wall graphics valued at several hundred dollars and a 19-inch Sanyo television set from Dennis' home.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "It's not the liberty we have, but the liberty we take that causes most of the trouble."

The July 4th celebration in Snyder was another giant success. The chamber's effort in providing an incentive for folks to stay home and enjoy a relaxed and safe Fourth is to be applauded.

There are lots of things on the agenda before summer comes to a close and the first school bell rings. This weekend, Snyder will be represented in the Miss Texas Pageant by Rhonda Jo Horn, the current Miss Snyder.

On July 10, members of the economic development committee will attend a regular TDC board meeting which will be a historic event. Gov. Bill Clements will attend the meeting, the final meeting of the TDC board. The agency will broaden its oversight responsibility and will become known as the Texas Department of Criminal Justice. The department becomes operational on Sept. 1 and Gov. Clements will appoint a nine-member board.

The hospital on July 16 will hold an open house of the new TDC wing at Cogdell. TDC employees will report to work on July 17. TDC employees and families will be feted at a barbecue on July 21, followed by an Open House at the Price Daniel unit on July 22.

Also on tap is the Scurry County rodeo June 20-22 followed by the AJRA National Rodeo Finals Aug. 7-12.

It's a hot, dry and busy summer. But we're hoping there are no more days like last Sunday. The temperature read 111 with a wind chill of 104.

Judy Moss, wife of chamber manager Bill Moss, pulled off a double-whammy last week. She planned a surprise send-off for Miss Snyder and enlisted her husband's help.

At the same time, she planned a surprise birthday party for Bill Moss and enlisted the assistance of Miss Snyder. Bill and Rhonda showed up at the party thinking it was in honor of the other.

Art winners are reported

The Snyder Palette Club's annual July 4th art show attracted 136 entries with "best of show" awards given in four categories.

Betty Youngkin has the "best of show" entry in the professional division; Shirley Kellar of Idalou in the amateur division; Melissa Williams in the student division; and Sandra Browning in the photography division.

Judge for the event was Ruth Jackson.

The following lists winners in individual categories. —Professional Original Landscape: Laverne Lee, first and honorable mention; Myrtle Joiner, second and honorable mention; and Betty Youngkin, third.

Reagan hurt in riding mishap

SIERRA VISTA, Ariz. (AP) — Former President Reagan was recuperating today from scrapes and bruises after being thrown by a bucking horse during what he called "my own private rodeo."

The 78-year-old Reagan was flown to Fort Huachuca's Raymond W. Bliss Army Community Hospital after the spill at a ranch in the northern Mexico state of Sonora, said his spokesman, Mark Weinberg.

After four hours of treatment,

Reagan returned to the ranch, where he has been vacationing since Saturday, officials said.

Although Reagan did not suffer any serious injury, doctors suggested he stay at the hospital overnight, officials said.

Reagan declined, so doctors assigned the hospital's chief nurse, Lt. Col. Paul Farineau, to accompany Reagan back to the ranch that's owned by William Wilson, a friend and former U.S. ambassador to the Vatican.

The former president plans to celebrate his wife's birthday there on Thursday before returning to his Los Angeles home at the end of the week, Weinberg said.

Capt. Juan Lopez, a U.S. Army doctor who examined Reagan, said he planned a follow-up check today in Mexico.

Lopez said he told Reagan to stay away from stressful exercise for the rest of the week.

While at the hospital, Reagan made jokes and did not complain of any pain, Lopez said.

The spill occurred Tuesday morning.

"The horse Reagan was riding bucked wildly several times on a rocky downhill slope and eventually stumbled," Weinberg said.

The spokesman said Reagan is "an excellent rider and he held on quite a while." He said Reagan joked that the accident was "my own private rodeo." In a telephone interview from Los Angeles, the spokesman said that he didn't know if the horse suffered any injuries.

King Edward VII of England was crowned in 1902, following the death of his mother, Queen Victoria.

DR. GOTT

PETER GOTT, M.D.

Transmitting viral illness to humans

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Can humans get leukemia from cats? Our daughter was diagnosed with acute non-lymphatic leukemia and played a lot with a cat that tested positive for feline leukemia.

DEAR READER: Cat leukemia is caused by a virus that is common in felines and, to my knowledge, transmitted to humans. Nonetheless, there is a lot of current interest in a transmissible viral cause of some human cancers and leukemias. Therefore, I wouldn't automatically shut the door on the possibility that your daughter's condition may be related to the cat's disease, however unlikely that association may be. To date, feline leukemia has not been shown to affect humans. To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Viruses and Cancer." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I've had a CAT scan, MRI and stress test for chest pain. Nothing shows positive. My doctor says I have chest strain and has even recommended a heart patch. Nothing helps. I don't want to depend on medication but don't want the pain either. Can you help?

DEAR READER: Probably not. Chest pain can accompany many different diseases, involving the lungs, heart and chest-wall structures (ribs and muscles). Your doctor, through a series of sophisticated tests, appears to have dismissed the common causes of chest pain, notably diseases of the heart and lungs. By a process of elimination, you have been left with a diagnosis of "chest pain of unknown cause, possibly muscle strain." Without questioning you directly and examining you, I cannot second-guess your doctor.

Nonetheless, you are certainly entitled to another opinion. Ask your doctor to refer you to an internist (a diagnostic specialist) or to the medical clinic at a teaching hospital. When it comes to difficult diagnoses, too many doctors are not like the proverbial cooks who spoil the broth. If you keep searching, sooner or later you will be examined by a physician who can pinpoint your problem. I think it's important for any patient who is frustrated by the inexactitude of medical science to request additional opinions, rather than putting up with discomfort.

DEAR DR. GOTT: What would cause my nose to get very cold about 3 p.m. and stay that way for the rest of the evening? I'm a healthy 65-year-old female with no other problems.

DEAR READER: Although a cold nose is usually due to exposure to cold weather that constricts arteries in the skin, circulatory disturbances can cause arterial constriction even in a warm environment. Ask your doctor to help you identify the reasons for your peculiar symptoms.

DEAR DR. GOTT: What is your opinion of a self-action tanning cream available commercially? I'd love to have a tan but get freckles when I sit in the sun, even though I have a dark complexion and have dark hair.

DEAR READER: Tanning lotions usually are pigments that darken the skin. They produce their effect without the benefit of ultraviolet light. To my knowledge, they are safe, except for people who occasionally exhibit allergic reactions to the compounds and develop rashes from their use.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm a 52-year-old female with hyperlipidemia. I avoid all dairy products. Do calcium tablets really work? I'm going through menopause and am very concerned about osteoporosis. Would you recommend calcium tablets for me? If so, what kind and how much?

DEAR READER: Hyperlipidemia, excessive blood cholesterol and triglycerides, is usually aided by the reduction of saturated fats in the diet. Patients with this common condition can often lower blood-fat levels by drastically curtailing their intake of eggs, red meat and dairy products.

Such foods are nutritious, despite their high fat content. Therefore, fat-conscious consumers must learn to substitute other nutritious products in place of eggs, meat and dairy items.

Grains are a good choice to make up the protein in prohibited meats and eggs. Also, fish and poultry supply plenty of natural protein.

It's more difficult to find food that naturally supplies enough calcium to compensate for diets poor in milk and cheese. For people worried about insufficient calcium intake, the easiest alternative is calcium supplements in pill form.

Dietary calcium is not the single most important factor in preventing post-menopausal bone deterioration; the female hormone estrogen, exercise and genetic considerations also play vital roles. Nonetheless, most experts agree that calcium pills are useful, what's more, they're safe and inexpensive.

Because calcium is absorbed into the body only in the presence of vitamin D, many calcium preparations contain the vitamin. About 250 International Units of vitamin D is sufficient for the average woman who eats a balanced but dairy-free diet. To help prevent osteoporosis, the average post-menopausal woman should consume about 1,500 milligrams of supplementary calcium.

In my practice, I recommend the following: two "Os-Cal 250 + D" and two TUMS antacids a day. Since each TUMS contains 500 milligrams of calcium, this translates into the 1,500 milligrams of calcium and 250 IU of vitamin D.

Ask your doctor if this supplemental calcium plan would be appropriate for you. Don't forget that you will need professional advice about the other factors I mentioned: estrogen and exercise. To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Understanding Cholesterol." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

Fisherman gets 3 pound piranha

JAMESTOWN, Ohio (AP) — A fisherman who cast his line for a catch he could sink his teeth into instead reeled in a fish that could sink its teeth into him.

The three-pound piranha Greg Dell'Aria caught at a stone quarry near this southwest Ohio town later devoured every goldfish in a bait shop tank where Dell'Aria had stored the fish.

"He's got teeth as big as your bottom ones," the 32-year-old fisherman said last week.

Dell'Aria said he and some friends were fishing for bass on June 26 when he caught the piranha in about three feet of water. "It blew my mind; I'll tell you that," he said.

Dell'Aria put the piranha in a tank at a friend's bait shop to keep it alive. But the friend's wife had a baby the next day, so the bait shop was closed for three days.

When Dell'Aria's wife finally picked up the fish four days later, she was told that "it ate all of his goldfish — cleaned him out," Dell'Aria said.

By then Doug Maloney, fish management supervisor for the state Fish and Wildlife District 5 office in Xenia, confirmed that the fish was indeed a piranha.

"They were really surprised," Dell'Aria said. "Everybody was saying piranhas don't get that big. But I guess if they get old enough and people feed them enough, they do."

The fish and wildlife experts theorized that someone bought the piranha in a pet store and released it into the stone quarry.

The piranha lived for several days in a beverage cooler filled with water before it died. Dell'Aria says he will have his catch mounted.

President Ford escaped an attempt on his life in 1975 when Lynette "Squeaky" Fromme, a disciple of Charles Manson, attempted to shoot the chief executive in Sacramento, Calif.

The bidding guides the lead

By James Jacoby

Oh, if we could only rub a lamp and have a genie materialize to tell us the right opening lead! Even though there's no genie handy at the table, listening to the bidding can be a great substitute. In today's deal there is no lead that defeats the game, but the un-inspired club lead allowed declarer to take more tricks than most other tournament competitors.

When South responded with one no-trump, which in North-South's methods denied holding a four-card major, North jumped to three diamonds. Now three hearts could not be a suit so was interpreted as showing good stoppers in that major. Since North had a double spade stopper, he felt quite comfortable in now bidding three no-trump. When West led a club, there was nothing to the hand but to knock out the diamond ace and take 11 tricks.

Even though a heart is the best lead, our choice based on the bidding would be a spade. Although East was not able to overcall at the one-level, he still might hold five spades to a high honor, plus an outside entry. (No one would rush to overcall vulnerable with a broken suit and meager high cards.) A spade lead will hold the contract to 10 tricks, unless West decides to make the daring play of unblocking the queen of spades in the hope that East holds the jack. Then it's back to 11 tricks, the same score that resulted from a club lead.

Railey's children leaving state with legal guardians

DALLAS (AP) — The two children of former minister Walker Railey, who police say is still a suspect in the near-fatal choking of his wife, are moving to Arkansas with their legal guardians.

Mrs. Railey is in a chronic vegetative state in a Tyler nursing home.

FDIC's interest may be sold

HOUSTON (AP) — First City Bancorporation of Texas is negotiating for the sale of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.'s investment interest in the Houston-based bank holding company, says Chairman A. Robert Abboud.

First City and the FDIC are seeking to redeem the FDIC's interest or sell it to a third party.

The FDIC participated in the $1.6 billion reorganization of the old First City entity in April 1988 by providing $970 million. A group of investors led by Abboud then purchased First City and the FDIC bought about 2 million shares of the new company's preferred stock and a warrant to buy 1 million additional shares until 1993.

That situation has created confusion about the FDIC's relationship with First City, Abboud said Tuesday.

Abboud said the sale of the FDIC's investment in First City would give the company greater expansion flexibility.

He said the FDIC would realize a return on its investment of about 50 percent if the sale were made now.

"The sale of the FDIC's investment will eliminate all such confusion and misperceptions and serve the best interests of all concerned — First City, its shareholders, its customers and the FDIC."

First City operates 20 banks in 62 Texas locations and several others out of state.

John and Diane Yarrington, who had been close friends with Railey and his wife, Margaret "Peggy" Railey, were granted custody of the two children following the 1987 attack that has left Mrs. Railey in a vegetative state.

Yarrington, 48, last year had resigned his position at First United Methodist Church in Dallas, where he had served as minister of music under Railey, who had been the large Dallas church's senior pastor.

Yarrington will become minister of music at the Pulaski Heights United Methodist Church in Little Rock, Ark., according to The Dallas Morning News.

Ryan and Megan Railey will move with the Yarringtons to Little Rock in August.

No one has been charged in connection with the attack in which she was injured at her home, but officials say Railey is still considered their prime suspect.

Railey has surrendered his ministerial credentials and moved to California.

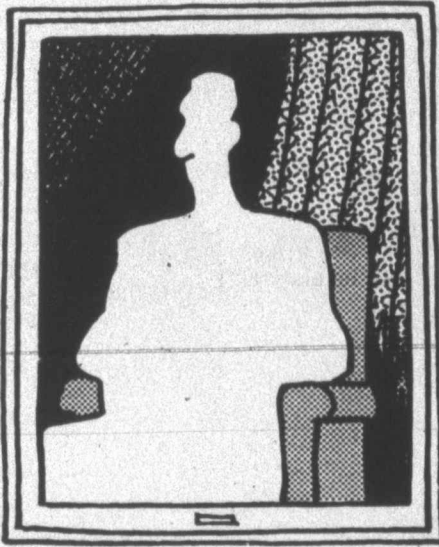

Yarrington also had served as an adjunct professor at Southern Methodist University.

The Great Fire of London broke out in 1666, claiming thousands of homes but only a few lives in the several days it burned.

PARADE ENTRY--Just like the old days, this family enjoyed a buggy ride during the annual July Fourth parade and celebration held at Towle Park.

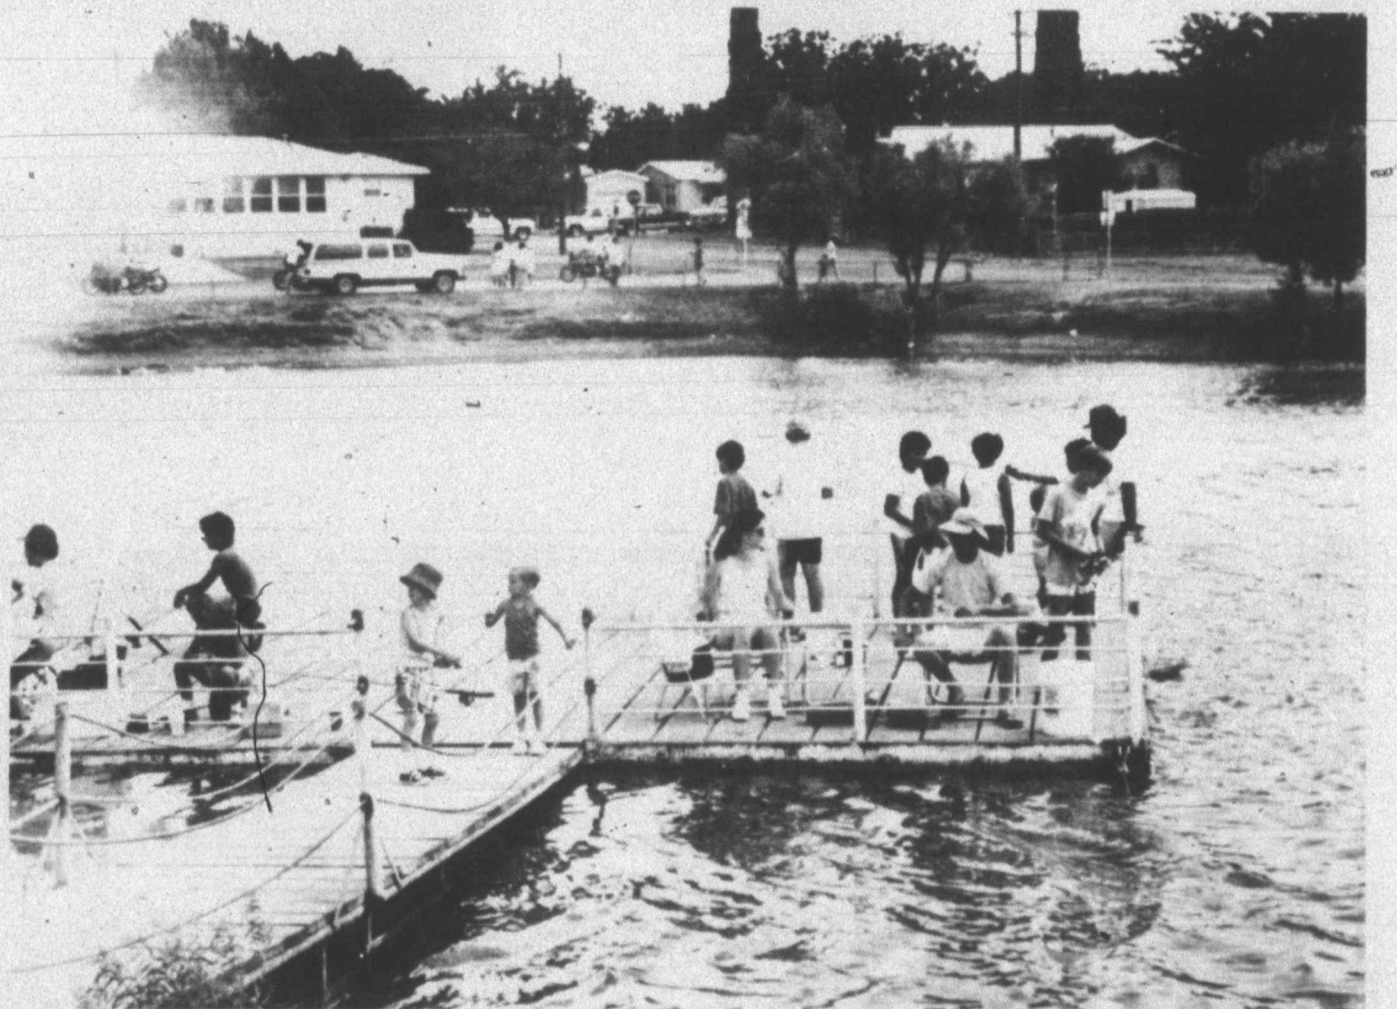

AHHH!--Charlie and Sharon Streetman and sons, Joseph, 8, and Jess, 2, have just moved to Snyder and one of the first things they did was to enjoy the celebration at Towle Park. Streetman will be the assistant warden at the Price Daniel Unit in Snyder when it opens later this month.

July 4th holiday fun

'DESPERADOS'--The Kiwanis Club operated this version of the new Price Daniel Unit to be opened in Snyder later this month at Towle Park during the annual July Fourth celebration. "Desperados" were jailed throughout the day.

FISHING FUN--Youngsters enjoyed fishing at Towle Park Tuesday during the July Fourth holiday. Some participated in the Jaycees sponsored fishing rodeo and others just fished for fun.

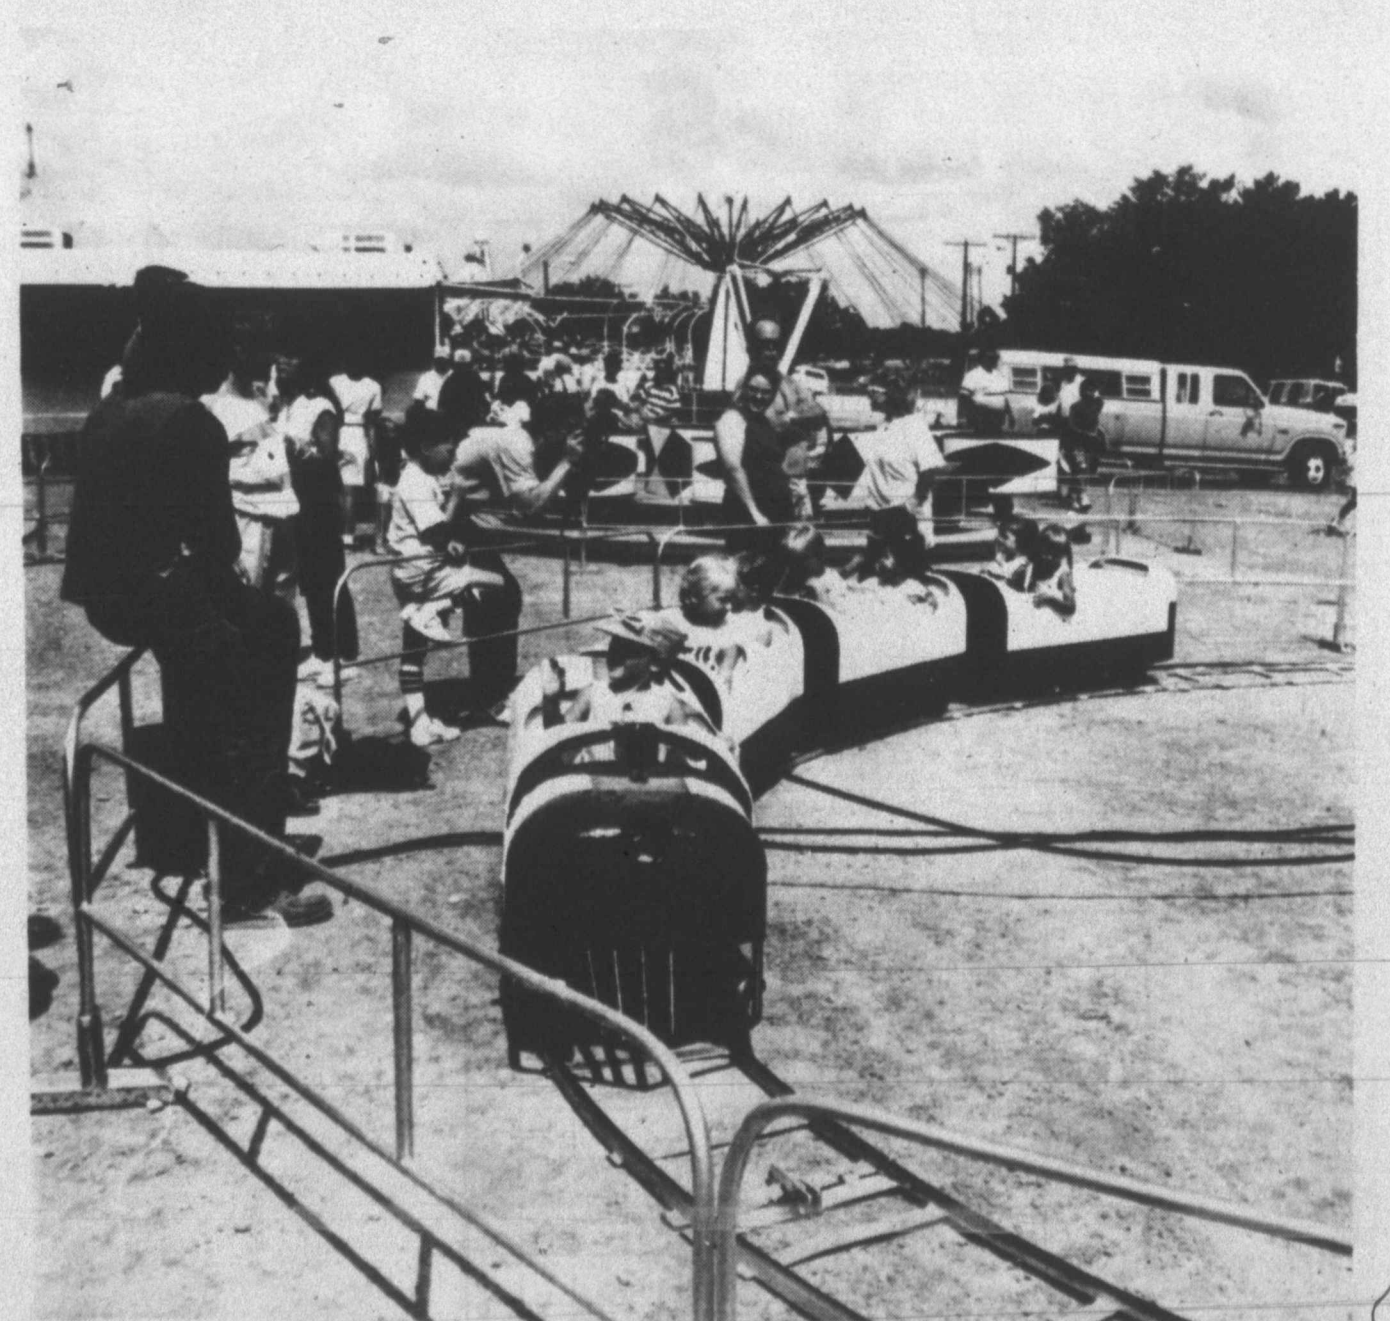

WHAT A DAY!--Tuesday's July Fourth celebration at Towle Park offered something for everyone. At left is Robby Huestis, 10, who got to throw a cream pie at Penny James who was behind the sign. The Lucky 13 organization sponsored the event.

Outguns unseeded American...

Lendl reaches Wimbledon semifinals

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) - Ivan Lendl reached the semifinals of Wimbledon for the fourth consecutive year today, beating American Dan Goldie 7-6, 7-6, 6-0.

Lendl, the top seed in the tournament he yearns to win most, needed six set points to take the opening set from the unseeded Goldie in a 10-8 tie-breaker. He then took the second-set tie-break 7-4 before rolling through the third.

Lendl will play for a spot in the finals against the winner of a later quarterfinal between two-time winner Boris Becker and another unseeded American, Paul Chamberlin.

John McEnroe was playing Mats Wilander before a packed Centre Court, with the winner of that match advancing against the winner of a meeting between defending champion Stefan Edberg of Sweden and eighth-seeded Tim Mayotte of the United States.

The women's semifinals are Thursday, with Steffi Graf against Chris Evert and Martina Navratilova against Catarina Lindqvist.

Lendl, who needs Wimbledon to complete his Grand Slam title set, served 21 aces, and Goldie had to limp through the final two sets after apparently injuring his left leg.

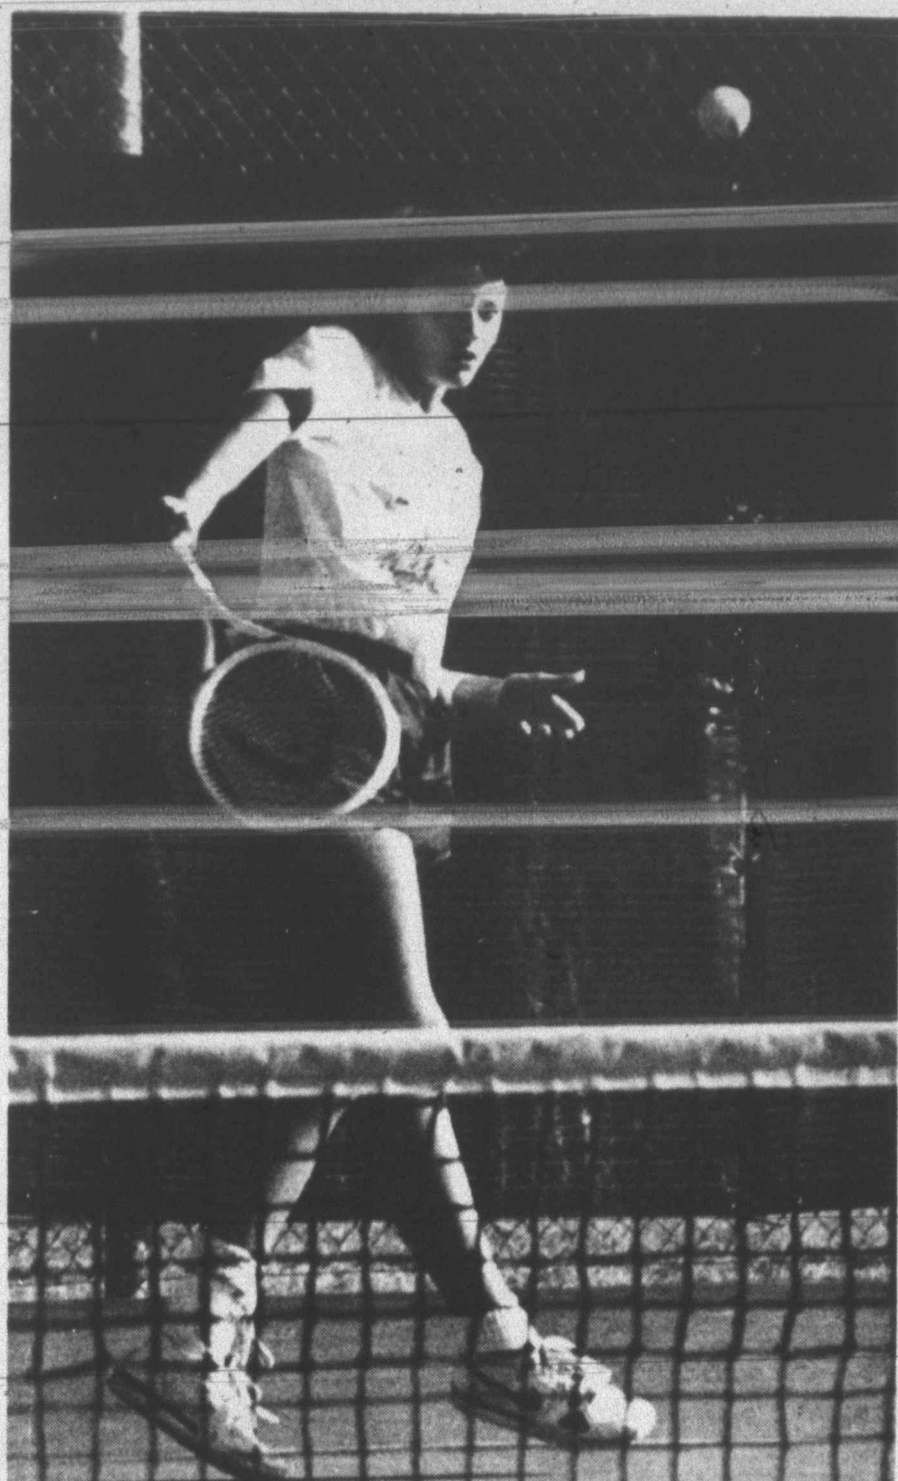

Neither player lost serve through the first two sets, with Lendl overpowering the American with his serve. Goldie managed to hold serve despite increasing problems with his leg, which was examined during several changeovers by a trainer.

By the third set, Goldie could hardly move, losing 14 points in a row at one stretch as Lendl closed out the match with little resistance.

All of the set points for Lendl came in the tie-break, which Lendl led 6-3 at one point. Goldie saved two set points on his own serve, then Lendl double-faulted on the third. Goldie saved two more set points before Lendl finished him off with an ace and a passing shot off a service return as Goldie dived for the ball.

The second-set tie-break was not quite that dramatic.

'Fourth' net tourney winds up today with doubles title matches

Play in the Fourth of July Tennis Tournament concluded in all but three divisions here Monday and Tuesday.

Mixed doubles and men's 35 doubles were to wrap up the action this morning at the junior high courts. The other unfinished match, 16 boy's singles, came down between Stephan Peiser and Christopher Lewis of Sweetwater, and will be finished in Sweetwater.

The annual tournament was sponsored by the chamber of commerce and under the direction of Snyder High School tennis coach Charlie Chrene.

Perennial tourney champ Larry Wiggins of San Antonio was to play Snyder's Gary Bingham in the men's 35 singles this morning and was to team with CeCe Wiggins to play Michael Rodriguez and Lori McFarland in the mixed doubles finals.

Wiggins defeated Bingham 6-2, 6-4 earlier in the week to capture the men's open singles crown.

Chrene and Abilene's Gerald Johnson combined to win the men's 35 doubles by defeating Merle Blosser of Lubbock and Howard Sterling 6-3, 6-1 in the finals.

Local talent won the men's open doubles as Martin Lechuga and John Griffin teamed to beat Lewis and Peiser of Sweetwater, 6-2, 6-1. Griffin also made it to the

Angels hammer Texas, 5-2

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) - The California Angels have hit almost as many home runs as any team in baseball, but their team leader doesn't even rank in the American League's top 15.

The Angels once again demonstrated that their power deserves respect Tuesday night as Jack Howell hit a two-run homer in the third and Tony Armas had a three-run shot in the ninth, giving California a 5-2 victory over the Texas Rangers.

The two homers raised California's total to 73, one less than the major league-leading New York Mets.

"The great thing about it is that we don't even have anyone among the league leaders," Manager Doug Rader said. "Everyone is contributing. I can't fathom us winning too many games without home runs."

Howell's 10th homer kept the Angels in the game against Kevin Brown, 7-5. Armas then hit his sixth homer for the victory that moved California within one-half game of AL West leader Oakland.

Armas got his chance when Chili Davis, who leads the Angels with 11 homers, drew a two-out intentional walk after Wally Joyner had doubled with one out and moved to third on an infield grounder by Brian Downing.

"This was my biggest hit in a long time," Armas said. "The last two years, I haven't played regularly. I'm not satisfied with that, but I'm pretty happy now."

"There was no other choice," Texas manager Bobby Valentine said of his decision to walk the switch-hitting Davis. "Sometimes it works, and sometimes it doesn't. Kevin hung a slider to Armas and got hurt because of it."

The intentional walk was the only one of the game for Brown, who struck out seven while going the route for the sixth time in 16 starts.

"I've got no excuses. It was just a bad pitch," Brown said. "You can't throw anyone that pitch and expect to get him out."

Willie Fraser, 2-4, earned the victory after replacing starter Mike Witt at the start of the seventh.

Witt squandered his early 2-0 lead by allowing Steve Buechele's RBI double in the fifth and Julio Franco's run-scoring single in the sixth. That was Franco's 61st RBI, tying him with teammate Ruben Sierra for the league lead.

Aid to athletes

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (AP) - The top administrator of the NCAA says he's in favor of giving additional aid to athletes to help with travel from home to campus and to go toward a spending and clothing allowance.

The stipend, however, would be based solely on need, NCAA executive director Dick Schultz said.

Daughter Chooses Deception As the Easier Price to Pay

By Abigail Van Buren
© Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I have a bone to pick with you. A young woman who had been previously divorced wrote to say that she was anticipating a second marriage. She said her fiance knew about her divorce, but he asked her not to disclose this fact to his parents. Because of this, you told her you thought her fiance was "adolescent."

Abby, before judging the young man, you should have considered that there may have been other facts of which you were not aware.

When I first started dating, my father forbade me to date anybody in whose family there had been a divorce. As you can guess, that eliminated a lot of boys.

When I went away to college, I fell in love with Steve. He told me that his favorite aunt had been married briefly when she was 17, and then divorced before marrying a very fine man. When it came time for Steve to meet my parents, I asked him not to tell my dad that his favorite aunt had been divorced, so of course he never did.

Steve and I have been happily married for 15 years. My father died last year, and at his funeral I confessed to my mother that Steve's favorite aunt had been divorced, but I never told Dad. Mom said she thought I had acted wisely because if Dad had known, it would have completely changed his opinion of Steve. Then Mom confided that during all the years she and Dad were married, she had kept from Dad the fact that her own brother had been married and divorced!

I'm glad my husband didn't judge me as an "adolescent" for trying to spare Steve and me the anguish my father would have caused us had he known the truth about Steve's favorite aunt.

HAPPILY MARRIED:
DEAR HAPPILY MARRIED: If, as your mother stated, your father's opinion of Steve would have been "completely changed" had he known that Steve's favorite aunt had been divorced, it doesn't say much for your father. (Since when is a person responsible for the deeds of his relatives?)

It's also interesting that your mother, during all the years of her marriage, kept from your father the fact that her brother had been divorced. (Why, pray tell, should one's divorce be regarded as a dark and dirty secret?)

There is nothing wrong with revealing the truth. Hiding it is deceitful, and therefore shameful.

DEAR ABBY: My fiance and I are getting married this fall, and we are having a problem with the guest list.

My fiance plans on inviting his boss and his boss's wife. I plan on inviting a very good friend of my family's who is also married. We just learned that my fiance's boss is married to our friend's ex-wife, and these two women do not get along with each other at all!

How do we keep from hurting any feelings and keep everybody happy?
AN ALBANY COINCIDENCE

DEAR COINCIDENCE: Invite whomever you want, and if two of the guests do not like each other, it will be their problem — not yours. Of course, if you are having a sit-down wedding dinner, seat these two women as far from each other as possible.

Chavez supports UMW strike

ST. PAUL, Va. (AP) — The United Mine Workers' strike against Pittston Coal Group Inc. entered its fourth month today after the union garnered support from its newest ally, United Farm Workers' President Cesar Chavez.

"Your struggle is our struggle," Chavez told more than 5,000 striking miners and supporters during a labor rally Tuesday. "And your victory is our victory and victory for every worker in this country."

Chavez said the UMW's commitment to non-violence during the strike and the use of passive labor will be on the UMW's side as long as non-violent tactics persist, Chavez said.

"We've got the whole country on our side now," UMW Vice President Cecil Roberts said. "We're winning this strike."

Roberts based his optimism on the growing support from organized labor, including UMW members from other companies in Appalachia and the Midwest who have walked off their jobs in sympathy strikes.

The UMW's president in Virginia, Jackie Stump, said he could tell who has the edge in the strike by comparing his face with Pittston President Michael Odom's.

"Look who's smiling," Stump said, flashing the crowd a wide grin. "Mike Odom, he hasn't smiled in two months."

The union employees have rejected the company's take-it-or-leave-it contract.

Grand jury indicts seven

37th St. was indicted for DWI in connection with a June 11 arrest.

Jack Elrod, who is reportedly in the custody of Ohio state authorities, was indicted for forgery by passing in connection with the alleged March 14 of a $300 fraudulent check on the account of Robert B. Law Auto Repair.

Dan R. Aycock, who had not been arrested, was indicted for hindering a secured creditor in the alleged Aug. 1, 1988, transference of some accounts receivable that had been pledged as securities to Snyder National Bank.

Vicente Villa Jr., 36, whose last reported address was 1409 31st St., had been in jail on a DWI charge and was indicted for escape because he allegedly walked away from a county work detail on July 1. He has not been apprehended.

Fireworks said cause for four grass blazes

Fire units were busy during the July 4th holiday to include runs made to four grass fires attributed to fireworks Tuesday and early Wednesday.

The fires were from 9:50 to 11:55 p.m. Tuesday five miles southwest of Snyder off FM 1611 on property owned by Craig Merritt; from 10:13 to 11:30 p.m. Tuesday at Huffman Ave. and Ave. N; from 10:20 to 11:20 p.m. Tuesday at Andress Ave. and Ave. M; and from 10:44 p.m. Tuesday to 12:15 a.m. Wednesday at Hwy. 208 and Brick Plant

Rd.

A car owned by Peggy Dodds was heavily damaged by fire after units responded to a call from 9:50 to 11:55 p.m. Tuesday a half-mile east of Ira, and a grass fire at Eighth St. and Ave. Q occupied firemen from 3:38 to 4 p.m. Monday.

A fire at a 2005 Ave. M house owned by Lewis Molina kept firefighters busy from 11:22 p.m. Monday to 12:45 a.m. Tuesday.

The extent of the damages was not reported.

Cabbages apparently are for kings, not babies. According to the Beech-Nut Nutrition Corp., cabbages and brussel sprouts are not good for babies because they can interfere with the infant's ability to use the essential mineral, iodine, necessary for growth.

Pedro Villa and Lisa Garza are the parents of a baby boy weighing 5 pounds, 9 ounces born at 5:29 a.m. Monday in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Vandalism involves paint

Pamela French of 2603 25th St. told police at 6:47 a.m. Monday that someone had poured paint on her vehicle.

Malcolm Rainwater of Submergeable Pump Equipment Co. at 2507 25th St. reported at 1:25 p.m. Monday that a rock had been thrown through a window at the company.

Pedro Cuna of North Ave. N told sheriff's deputies at 12:30 a.m. Tuesday that a battery had been stolen from his residence.

Jim Bridges of Roscoe told the sheriff's office at 10:45 a.m. Tuesday that a 27-inch Zenith television set had been stolen from a relative's house east of Inadale.

Snake bite has man hospitalized

A 34-year-old man was arrested for public intoxication at 11:06 p.m. Tuesday at the Beacon Lodge motel on the southeastern edge of Snyder after officers went there to quell a reported disturbance involving two men.

A 16-year-old girl came to the police station at 11:23 p.m. Monday and filed a misdemeanor assault complaint against a 17-year-old girl who she said had hit her at Towle Park.

A 32-year-old Snyder man was listed in stable condition Wednesday at Cogdell Memorial Hospital after receiving treatment for a rattlesnake bite on the middle finger of his left hand.

Robert Jimenez of 2011 Ave. N was reaching under his mobile home for some aluminum pipe when the 4-foot-long rattler bit him, he told hospital officials.

A friend killed the snake, and Jimenez was brought to the hospital by private vehicle at 7:40 p.m. Monday.

Teens have minor injuries following vehicle rollover

Three Snyder teenagers suffered minor injuries but declined medical attention following a one-vehicle accident 17.8 miles south of town on County Road 3214.

The Department of Public Safety said the accident happened when a 1984 Ford Bronco driven by 16-year-old Rachel C. Wilson of 2901 Ave. U was northbound and went out of control on a curve at 10:30 p.m. Sunday, spinning around once and coming to rest on its right side.

Suffering apparent injuries but declining treatment were 16-year-old Denise Thompson of 2902 El Paso Ave., 16-year-old Alfred Beaver of Rt. 1 and 17-year-old Corey McDaniel of 3101 40th St.

Two other passengers were not injured, a DPS trooper said. They were 15-year-old Lesa Ward of 2800 34th St. and 17-year-old Tommy Reeves of 2905 42nd St.

A Snyder man was injured in a 12:44 p.m. Tuesday accident at 25th St. and Ave. R, where a 1969 Volkswagen driven by Abel Garza Jr. of Arah Rt. was in collision with a 1980 Chevrolet driven by Bessie Fish of 3110 Ave. U.

Garza's car had to be towed, and he was treated for minor injuries and released at Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

At 5:11 p.m. Monday in the Wal-Mart parking lot, a 1986 Pontiac driven by Roberto B. Molina of 2207 Merrill Ave. was in collision with a 1984 Ford pickup driven by William F. West of Box 21.

An unattended 1988 International truck owned by Exxon Chemical Co. of Midland struck a parked 1973 Ford pickup owned by David Strunk of 416 34th St. at 9:46 p.m. Monday in the 400 Block of 34th.

At 11:30 Saturday 13.8 miles southeast of the city on FM 1606, a 1977 Chevrolet Blazer driven by Robert Rios of Hermleigh ran into a culvert as Rios attempted to turn onto 1606 off County Road 4125, the DPS said, reporting that the driver was uninjured.

ASTRO-GRAPH
BERNICE BEDE OSOL

Your Birthday

July 6, 1989

July 5, 1989

In the year ahead you're likely to have better earning powers than you did last year. However, there is also a chance your extravagant urges will be greater as well.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) It's best not to lend your resources or something you wish to an acquaintance who you know only in a casual, social way. This person could be a bad investment. Cancer, treat yourself to a birthday gift. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions for the year ahead by mailing $1 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) The way you dress and your personal demeanor may be of more importance than you realize today. People you'll be involved with are likely to judge you on your appearance.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Guard against tendencies today to negatively judge people and events before all the facts are in. Your attitude could create complications for yourself as well as for others.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Don't let your pride or ego draw you into involvements or activities today that can be afforded by your friends but not by you. Know when to say, "No."

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You're still in a good achievement cycle, so be sure to target meaningful objectives for yourself. You can do impressive things if you have the will and desire to do so.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Generosity is a virtue with which you are well endowed. However, be careful today to avoid the error of giving more to a person who has no right to ask.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) It looks like you are going to have to be firmer and more obvious if you're hoping a friend will take care of a long-standing obligation owed to you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) In a career development today there's a possibility you might succumb to pressure from another and make a decision where the end result will benefit the other guy, but not you.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) It's not apt to work out too well today if you attempt to lay burdens on others that you should be carrying. Even if they do lend a helping hand, there's a chance they'll gum things up.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You might come in contact with someone socially today who is not as appearances lead you to believe. This is a captivating individual, so don't be taken in by charm.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Make every effort to keep promises or commitments that you have made to loved ones today. You'll feel guilty later if you let someone down who truly believes in you.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) A close associate you're depending on might not comply with your wishes today, due to uncertainty of your motives. Be frank and forthright when dealing with others.

In the year ahead there is a possibility that something rather profitable could result from a venture that starts out as a hobby or sideline. You may have a secret partner in this enterprise.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You should do rather well in your commercial affairs today, especially if you conduct your business along traditional lines using methods that you know from experience always work effectively. Trying to patch up a broken romance? The Astro-Graph Matchmaker can help you to understand what to do to make the relationship work. Mail $2 to Matchmaker, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) A disgruntled associate might attempt to throw a roadblock into your efforts today. Don't let this upset you, because you'll have no trouble finding an equally effective alternative.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) This may be a day when the emphasis will be placed on unexpected developments. Be ready to move swiftly if an opportunity pops up from out of the blue.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Your ingenuity could be a shade more luminous today than your companion's. Everyone is likely to fare better if you use your bright ideas instead of theirs.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Continue to keep your focus on goals that have promising potential. Lady Luck is still your staunchest supporter in these areas.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Your greatest gains today are likely to come from a partnership arrangement. It involves a person who has been rather lucky for you previously.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Sell imaginatively today if there is something you are trying to promote for a personal profit. However, by the same token, don't depart from the facts.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) When it comes to working out an agreement today, you should be able to strike an advantageous bargain, provided you don't get careless and overlook the obvious.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Strive to be materially aware today without being selfish or grabby. If you let events run their course, there's a chance you could reap rewards in two areas.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) In managing matters today that require good social judgment, you're not apt to miss a trick. However, this enviable talent might not extend to your financial affairs.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You could be luckier than usual today where your worldly and material interests are concerned. Chance may play a big role in tilting advantageous trends in your favor.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Let the pronouncements of gloomy companions fall on deaf ears today. Tune them out and tune in on the pitch of your more positive pals.

Authorities ask for custody of 2nd child

HOUSTON (AP) — A prosecutor and judge may testify in a custody case against a woman whose first son died after her live-in boyfriend suffocated the toddler with pepper.

Harris County authorities are asking that permanent custody of Patty Hoy's 6-month-old son be given to a relative of the baby's father.

Ms. Hoy, 23, on parole from her five-year sentence in the death of her first son, has a new boyfriend and a new baby boy, born last December. The infant was removed from Ms. Hoy in March and is living with relatives, said Assistant District Attorney Karen McAshan.

State District Judge Robert Baum has scheduled a trial for today.

Neither Ms. Hoy nor her new boyfriend, who fathered the child, are charged with any criminal offense and the baby was not injured. But Ms. McAshan said the baby is "in the middle of a feud between the mother and boyfriend and in danger because of their actions."

Ms. McAshan said she is not seeking the termination of Ms. Hoy's parental rights but is asking that custody be given to the relative. She said termination requires a stronger legal test and a specific act toward a child.

Assistant District Attorney Chuck Rosenthal, who prosecuted Ms. Hoy previously, said he wants to testify in the custody case against her. State District Judge Michael McSpadden, who presided over the trial, also may testify against Ms. Hoy.

At the end of her 1987 trial, McSpadden chastised Ms. Hoy for being more concerned about her former boyfriend, Raymond Coffey, than about her 2-year-old son, Christopher Kalmbach. Evidence showed that Ms. Hoy knew Coffey had been abusing Christopher.

The boy died after Coffey poured black pepper down his throat to discipline him for repeating a vulgar word.

Man held after calling 911 to surrender

LA GRANGE, Texas (AP) — A man arrested after he called an emergency phone number and told a dispatcher he had killed his grandparents was being held in lieu of $1 million bond.

Keith Anthony Sanders, 21, was charged Monday with two counts of murder in the shooting deaths of his grandparents, Wilbern and Selma Voelkel, Fayette County Sheriff Vastine Koopmann said.

The bodies were found by Fayette County sheriff's officers at the couple's farmhouse near Round Top, about 85 miles northwest of Houston, a short time after Montgomery County officers reported what Sanders had said in a call to a 911 emergency line.

Koopmann said the Voelkels each appeared to have been shot once in the face with a shotgun, which was found at the house.

"We didn't know anything about it until we got a call from Montgomery County and they told us he'd called over there, and we went out and found the bodies," Koopmann said.

The sheriff said he did not know the age of the victims, but estimated they were in their 70s. Koopmann said there had been no reports that they were missing.

Sanders lived with his grandparents, Koopmann said.

Authorities said they do not know the motive for the killings. Koopmann said no items were taken from the Voelkel home except for their car, which Sanders usually used.

Poet Walt Whitman died in Camden, N.J., in 1892.

Tainted dirt said replaced

AUSTIN (AP) — So many of the curious and sympathetic have come to see the ailing Treaty Oak that authorities posted a security guard on the street near the tree to direct traffic.

Some of the well-wishers continue to leave gifts, either as a symbolic gesture of support or with the fervent belief that they can somehow effect a change.

Among the items left recently are get-well cards, chicken broth, a copy of Joyce Kilmer's "Trees" poem and a pair of steel-tipped, black leather shoes.

Estimated to be about 500 years old, Treaty Oak was poisoned in what police describe as a ritual act. Paul Stedman Cullen, 45, of Elroy has been charged with felony criminal mischief in connection with the poisoning.

Authorities are using a number of methods to try to save the tree, that will include spreading a thin compost mixture of sewage sludge called "Dillo Dirt."

Officials announced over the holiday weekend that all soil tainted by the poisonous herbicide dumped around the tree had been replaced.

Dirt containing the herbicide Velpar was replaced Monday morning with 22 cubic yards of donated planting soil, said city forester John Giedraitis.

"We are out of danger as far as soil contamination goes," said Giedraitis. "What we don't know about is the level of contamination within the tissue of the tree."

Also on Monday, workers dug holes to hold 65-foot-tall poles that will support tall shade screens on three sides of the oak.

Officials want to relieve summer stress on the 65-foot-tall tree.
