Q — Where can we sell glass?

A — We checked Friday, and there are at least two recycling centers in Lubbock which purchase beverage glass bottles, although none that we know of in Snyder. The price is from 1 to 2 cents per pound. Those open in Lubbock include Great Plains Distributors on the Slaton Hwy. and NATECO Metal Recycling at 508 N. University.

In Brief

55 wildfires

By The Associated Press
Firefighters joined by fresh crews were making progress against four wildfires that charred 15,700 acres in Utah, but weekend forecasts for lightning tempered optimism there and in Wyoming.

Forest and range fires have burned more than 10,000 acres of land in Arizona, and 14 new fires ignited Thursday from lightning strikes in New Mexico, bringing the total number of blazes burning to at least 55.

In south-central Alaska, the Swinging Dome Fire about 200 miles west of Anchorage grew to 11,000 acres and was fought by three 16-person crews, with another seven crews expected, state foresters said. Fires also charred land in California, Colorado and Georgia.

And though firefighters reported progress against some fires, the National Weather Service officials said they faced a weekend of continued heat and storms that could reignite blazes and cause new ones.

Electrical power was restored to St. George, in Utah's southwestern corner, after a brush fire caused a 24-hour blackout that left the city's 20,000 residents without air conditioning in 111-degree heat.

Economic bill

AUSTIN (AP) — A lawmaker says he hopes Texas would get a leg up in the economic competition with other states through a bill allowing cities to buy property with bond proceeds and lease it to private businesses.

But Rep. Pat Haggerty, who opposed the measure by Rep. Robert Junell, D-San Angelo, questioned the wisdom of permitting a city to "give all kinds of goodies" to attract business.

"Now the city of San Angelo can sell these bonds. You can go into another community where an established business is there — paying taxes, paying for its own building, paying for its own land," said Haggerty, R-El Paso.

"You can go in and say, 'Move to San Angelo. We'll make it tax free. We'll buy the land. We'll build your buildings,'" he said.

The measure falls under a constitutional amendment approved by voters in 1987 to allow public money to be loaned for economic development and diversification.

Cubans condemn officers

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A Cuban military court today condemned a former army general and three other former officers to death by firing squad for drug trafficking, the official Cuban news agency Prensa Latina said.

The tribunal handed out sentences ranging from 10 years to 30 years in prison to seven other defendants, Prensa Latina said in dispatches monitored in Mexico City.

The news agency said all were convicted of collaborating with Colombia's Medellin cartel, the world's biggest cocaine trafficking outfit, in a scandal that reached into the highest ranks of the military and the Interior Ministry.

They were found guilty early Thursday by the special three-man military tribunal, Prensa Latina said.

All the defendants are former military officers who were stripped of their ranks and thrown out of the Cuban Communist Party in June.

The tribunal gave the death penalty to former Division Gen. Arnaldo Ochoa, the alleged ringleader of the smuggling ring, and to ex-Col. Antonio de la Guardia, ex-Capt. Jorge Martinez and ex-Maj. Armado Padron.

Ochoa, 57, fought alongside President Fidel Castro in the Sierra Maestra in the 1950s and earned the prestigious Hero of the Republic of Cuba medal for his command of troops in Ethiopia in 1978 and in Angola in 1987-1988.

He was head of a group of Cuban military advisers to Nicaragua's leftist Sandinista government in 1985-1986.

Martinez has been identified as Ochoa's right-hand man. De la Guardia and Padron have been described as his chief collaborators.

The tribunal sentenced Eduardo Diaz, Antonio Sanchez and Alexis Lago to 30 years in prison. The prosecutor had asked for the death penalty for them.

Residents form neighbor 'watch'

By BOB CAMPBELL
SDN Staff Writer

The city's first Neighborhood Crime Watch program has been set up along the three blocks and 44 houses of Eastridge Drive in southeastern Snyder, with police hoping it will inspire other neighborhoods to take similar action.

Several Neighborhood Crime Watch signs have been put up, by city crews and at the city's expense, at various points around the neighborhood to let criminals know that if a family happens not to be home, the house is still being watched.

Also, "Operation Identification" stickers have been put on the doors and windows of numerous homes, to inform potential burglars that all items of value inside have been marked with identification numbers.

Police Lt. Steve Warren has conducted two organizational meetings, featuring slide shows about burglaries and other crimes, at the 4101 Eastridge home of neighborhood leader Ina Conyers, with nine residents attending the May 9 meeting and more than a dozen at a session last Thursday.

"A lot of us are new on the street, and it's a good way to get to know each other," Conyers said.

She said Eastridge residents have discovered more of a sense of community and are enjoying visits between families more now that a few leaders have gone door to door touting the program.

Warren said a primary problem in discouraging burglars, in particular, is the relative isolation in which many people live, with neighbors not knowing one another and therefore not being concerned with what happens next door.

The officer said he is available to hold meetings and discuss the program with any interested group, adding that it is probably the department's potentially most valuable method of discouraging crime.

Electric engravers are available at the police department to be used free of charge to mark property and thus make it harder to "fence" stolen merchandise, he said.

Miss Texas gown event due Friday

Preliminary winners announced from Thursday night's Miss Texas Scholarship Pageant in Fort Worth were Miss Southeast Texas, Rhonda Morrison, in the swim suit event; and Miss Haltom-Richland Area, Leah Kay Lyle, in the talent contest.

Rhonda Jo Horn, Miss Snyder, performed in the swim suit contest Thursday and will appear in the evening gown event Friday.

The 69 entrants at the contest are competing in three groups, each in a different category each night. Only one preliminary winner is announced nightly.

The pageant's Top 10 finalists will be selected Friday and announced Saturday prior to the crowning of the new Miss Texas.

Retirees 'staying' after Snyder visit

By JANA HARRINGTON
SDN Staff Writer

The concept of promoting Snyder as a retirement community is a relatively new idea, but already some success is being noted. Last summer, Richard and Betty Able, formerly of Cottage Grove, Ore., stopped briefly in Snyder on their way to visit relatives in Rotan.

They stopped to rest under the 30-year-old trees at the Trailer-topia trailer park and, three days later, returned to visit the Senior Center here.

That visit to the center "cinched the decision to settle in Snyder," says Mrs. Able, along with the "friendly people, nearby kin, sunshine and dry air."

On their visit to Texas, they say they were in search for a new home with no particular destination in mind. They had sold all of their belongings "except what would fit" in their travel trailer.

Mr. Able thought they might settle in Oklahoma, but his wife had her sights set on the Texas Hill Country.

Cottage Grove is 20 minutes from Eugene, Ore.—a good location, friendly people and beautiful country. But according to

Arson charges filed against two teenagers

Two young Snyder men were arrested Thursday on two counts of arson and two criminal mischief charges in connection with a rash of recent blazes to include a stairwell fire, a car fire and trash dumpster fires at the Park Village Apartments.

They are also accused in the breakage of a gas line behind the 4400 Ave. U complex.

Joe Garza, 19, of 2606 Ave. J was being held in lieu of $30,500 in bonds on the charges, and a 15-year-old juvenile had been charged with the same offenses.

A city police detective said the charges stemmed from a joint investigation between the police department and the fire depart-

The first fires occurred in the early morning hours Saturday when the contents of three trash dumpsters were ignited at 1:59 a.m. in the 4400 Block of U adjacent to the apartment complex.

After the dumpster fires had been doused, someone went to the area behind the apartments and hit or kicked a gas meter owned by Lone Star Gas Co. until a gas line broke, the detective said. The leak was reported to police around 3:44 a.m. Saturday.

The stairwell fire was reported that night, at 11:22 p.m. Saturday, and it kept firefighters at the scene for an hour, with a 25-

Larry Crabtree, in the Vernon Daily Record, noted that a newspaper columnist in Ohio is not overly fond of folks pulling up roots and moving to the Sun Belt. That same writer offered some suggested songs that those moving to the south might want to learn.

"If you're headed for the Sun Belt and want to fit in, you should learn some country standards that never seem to grow old in Dixie." He suggested the following:

"Get Off the Cook Stove, Granny, You're Too Old to Ride the Range." Another would be "I Met Her at the River, But She Wouldn't Come Across." He said a southern favorite is "Let's Get Drunk and Be Somebody."

Another tear-jerking tune is "She Broke My Heart an' I Broke Her Jaw." Another is "Gotta Have the Redneck Man, White Sox and All." You may remember hearing this classic, "I'm the Only Hell My Mamma Ever Raised."

Or you can just tune into your favorite country music station which sooner or later will play, "I've Got a Tear in My Beer," or "Waltz Across Texas."

Pender said, "Before I moved to Texas, I thought Hardin-Simmons was a law firm."

It was Powell who picked up a statement made by Yankee pitcher Whitey Ford at a roast for manager Billy Martin. Said Whitey, "I'm Billy's best friend, even if I don't like him."

San Marcos police chief has been suspended with pay

SAN MARCOS, Texas (AP) — San Marcos City Manager Larry Gilley says he will make another decision next Wednesday on the status of suspended Police Chief Myron Galchutt.

Gilley refused to give a reason for his action to suspend the chief.

He declined to speculate if dismissal is likely, but said it is an option.

"I want to ensure Mr. Galchutt is provided with all due process in this matter. Therefore, I will not elaborate on the specifics leading to my decision to suspend him," Gilley said.

Galchutt's lawyer, Bill McQuillen of San Antonio, said last week that he and his client are "basically on the defensive."

If Galchutt is fired, he will appeal the decision to a city civil service panel and to the city council. If the panel and the council uphold Gilley's decision, Galchutt will sue the city in state district court, McQuillen said.

McQuillen said the chief has been aware for some time that action against him was pending.

he proceeds with his decisions in this regard," Ms. Morris said.

City Council Member Bill Moore has said some officers privately blame Galchutt for poor morale, but the department has improved in recent years.

"There has been some dissent (among officers) over the past four years, and there remains some dissent," Moore said. "All in all, the best police department

Senate passes more bills

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Senate approved bills that would allow for the creation of a marine and fish habitat in Cameron County and a water conservation district in Collin County.

Both bills adopted Thursday will be sent to the House for consideration.

The fish habitat bill would allow for the inundation of a privately owned area in Cameron County known as Bahia Grande.

The bill specifies that the inundation would have no effect on the title or ownership of the surface or mineral estates in the flooded area.

The bill by Sen. Hector Uribe, D-Brownsville, would also prohibit the area from becoming a public waterway. It was approved by the Senate on a voice vote.

Rates headed down

DALLAS (AP) — GTE Southwest customers will be seeing reductions on their telephone bills in about two weeks but the utility says rate changes are likely to have a devastating effect on the company.

The Public Utility Commission in February ordered GTE to make an estimated $59 million in customer rate changes. GTE is challenging portions of that order in a lawsuit.

GTE said the rate changes will be retroactive to Feb. 23, the day of the PUC's order and will begin appearing on customers' bills July 19.

Most customers' basic local service rates and extended area service rates will be reduced about 17 percent, GTE said in a statement.

Customers in the Bangs and Weslaco exchanges will see increases in their rates because of growth in their area, a GTE spokeswoman said.

Monthly rates for touch-tone calling will be reduced by 50 cents, while rates for other custom calling features will decrease approximately 10 percent.

As an example, the average residential bill for basic local monthly service for a customer in Irving will be reduced from $18 to about $14.90; in San Angelo, from $10.40 to $8.60; in League City, from $17.55 to $14.55; and in Brownfield, from $10.15 to $8.40, GTE said.

The rate changes also will apply to local directory assistance calls and other services.

is a quiet police department. I know they are far better than they were two or three years ago."

Gilley said the department would operate under its existing chain of command during Galchutt's suspension, which puts police Capt. Dan Nelson in charge.

Teen-Ager Finds Lost Ring Decorating the Wrong Finger

By Abigail Van Buren
© Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I am in a quandary as to how I should handle the following situation: Last December, my daughter (I'll call her Bonnie) was involved in a single-car accident on our neighbor's lawn. During the accident, Bonnie lost her ring. It was a small sapphire, which is her birthstone.

At the time of the accident, Bonnie told the neighbor on whose lawn she landed that she had lost a ring with a blue stone in it. (We'll call the neighbor Mr. Jones.) He said he would keep an eye out for it in the spring after the snow melted.

Well, yesterday, Bonnie bumped into Mrs. Jones in the drugstore, and guess what she was wearing on her finger? Bonnie's ring! Bonnie said she was too flabbergasted to say anything to Mrs. Jones at the time, but our problem is how to handle this.

To complicate matters, Mr. Jones is a deputy sheriff with the local sheriff's department. This bothers me because I thought if anyone would be honest, it would be a civil servant.

What should we do — if anything?

SMALL TOWN IN OHIO

DEAR SMALL TOWN: Call the deputy sheriff and tell him that perhaps his wife was not aware that Bonnie had lost her ring last winter on their property during an accident. Then advise him that Bonnie had seen Mrs. Jones wearing the ring — and name the place and time.

After that, I doubt if Bonnie's ring will be "missing" much longer.

DEAR ABBY: It happened today. And it will happen again and again.

When a mother has lost a child in death — whether it was yesterday, last year or many years ago — if someone asks her how many children she has, what should she say?

If she includes the child she's lost, there are more questions to answer — then the person who has inquired looks as though she is sorry she asked. If the mother doesn't include the child she lost, was his or her life of no consequence — and not worth mentioning?

So how should the mother answer that question?
FAITHFUL READER
IN FLINT, MICH.

DEAR FAITHFUL READER: Obviously, only those who don't know the mother very well would ask how many children she has, so unless the mother is fully prepared to answer some follow-up questions about her tragic loss, she should count only those children who are living.

Neglecting to mention the child or children she has lost in death in no way diminishes their importance.

DEAR ABBY: Whenever a woman writes about her drinking problem, you recommend that she seek help from Alcoholics Anonymous, which is a wonderful organization. But, Abby, A.A. doesn't work for everyone. I speak from experience. I attended a few meetings and left feeling depressed and alone. Then I heard about a group for women called Women for Sobriety. They have weekly meetings, so I attended one. I felt so at home with these women and was able to open up with them far more easily than in the A.A. group with both men and women.

I have had a happy sobriety for six years now. Women for Sobriety concentrates on mind power, making the best of the present instead of dwelling on the past. Interested women can write for information to this address: W.F.S. Inc., P.O. Box 618, Quakertown, Pa. 18951. ## Two men plead innocent

BEAUMONT, Texas (AP) — Two men accused of being ringleaders in cocaine operations supplying East Texas and western Louisiana have pleaded innocent to federal charges stemming from a drug sweep that resulted in 33 arrests.

San Augustine store owner Dave Husband and Willie Ray Edwards entered the pleas Wednesday during formal arraignment in U.S. Magistrate J. Michael Bradford's court.

Husband and Edwards were arrested with 31 others during a June 2 drug sweep in the San Augustine area. Federal authorities said Husband, Edwards and Lenard Jackson of Houston ran drug operations that distributed up to 75 pounds of cocaine each week.

Jackson pleaded innocent to a charge of conspiring to distribute cocaine after his June 13 detention hearing. He is free on an unsecured $50,000 bond until his trial, scheduled for Aug. 7.

Husband, his son, David Neil Husband, and his brother, Buck Husband, each pleaded innocent to charges of conspiring to distribute cocaine.

Dave Husband also pleaded innocent to four counts of transporting illegal aliens and four counts of harboring illegal aliens.

He has been detained in the Jefferson County Jail since his arrest June 2.

Retirement reception et for Jarretts

A retirement reception honoring Ben and Netta Jarrett will be held Wednesday, July 12, in the Borden County School cafeteria.

Ben has been employed by the Borden Schools since 1962. He served as a teacher up until 1971 at which time he became elementary and junior high principal.

Netta joined the Borden School System in 1961. She served as the girl's basketball coach for her first year and also as the business teacher. From 1962 until 1989 she was the business teacher. Under her guidance, many students competed at the state level in UIL shorthand, typewriting and accounting. All are invited to attend.

The highest batting average ever posted by a National League rookie was .373 by George Watkins of St. Louis in 1930.

Chick Hafey of the Cardinals won the National League batting title in 1931 by a mere fraction. Hafey's final average was .3489 to .3486 for Bill Terry of the Giants.

New rites needed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Rev. George A. Stallings hates the sight of empty pews, and that's one reason he wants the Roman Catholic Church to allow a special rite for black Americans.

But a black bishop contends that Stallings, suspended as a priest for creating an unauthorized parish in Washington, could wind up with a church that is no different from any other evangelical congregation competing for members and dollars.

Stallings, who is black, said in an interview Thursday that the Catholic church is missing the boat in attracting blacks and other minorities because its hierarchy and traditions are too bound by European culture and dominated by white males.

It fails to evangelize — make converts — among blacks because it doesn't train anyone to do so, he said, adding that other religions are filling the gap.

"I have been to cities where the church was closed," Stallings said. "Black Protestants came in there and took over and now they are packed to the gills."

Stallings said he wants to create a separate African-American Catholic Rite, along the lines of the ethnic Eastern Rite churches. Those churches accept the authority of the pope, but have considerable autonomy in ritual and discipline.

The unauthorized service conducted Sunday at Stallings' Imani Temple showed at least one side of what the new rite would entail: The service combined the traditional Catholic Mass with African ritual and the foot-stomping, hand-clapping style of the traditional black Protestant church.

Baptists and Muslims also attended the service, held at Howard University Law School.

Stallings was suspended the next day by Washington Cardinal James A. Hickey and barred from performing the Catholic sacraments.

Stallings said the Catholic church must develop "an African-American Catholic liberation theology" to address social and political needs.

But Catholic officials, black and white, criticize Stallings for his methods and what they say are his unfair attacks on the church.

The logic of good defense

By James Jacoby

Here is a simple little common-sense defensive play, run-of-the-mill but worth noting anyway. South preempted with three spades, on very sparse values. Before being so rash, I would prefer to wait with the South hand until I was not vulnerable and my opponents were, but many modern players subscribe to "take-your-life-in-your-hands" pre-emptive bidding. North, who rightfully expected better cards from South, thought he had three-plus tricks to contribute, so raised to four.

Clubs were led and continued. Declarer ruffed, played a spade to dummy's ace, returned to his hand ruffing another club, and played the jack of spades. West won the queen of spades as declarer discarded a club from dummy. It's easy to see that West must now shift to a heart, but remember that you and I are looking at all the cards. How can West know to shift to a heart? In fact, West might well feel that there is no chance at all, since it would seem likely that even a free-wheeling bidder would certainly hold both red kings. But the rationale is simply this: If South holds the king of hearts, it will not matter what West plays. But if South has the diamond king and no king of hearts, then it is imperative for West to lead a heart right now. So West played a heart. Declarer had a choice of putting in the queen of hearts or rising with the ace and playing diamonds in the hope that the defender with the remaining high trump also held three diamonds originally. Neither play would work.

James Jacoby's books "Jacoby on Bridge" and "Jacoby on Card Games" (written with his father, the late Oswald Jacoby) are now available at bookstores. Both are published by Pharos Books.

One indicted for allegedly trying to employ a hit man

CLARENDON, Texas (AP) - A grand jury has indicted a Clarendon woman on a charge accusing her of attempting to hire a man to kill Donley County Sheriff Jimmy Thompson.

The Donley County grand jury returned the indictment Thursday against Alice Watson, 30, on a charge of solicitation of capital murder.

The indictment alleges Ms. Thompson attempted to hire an undercover officer from Amarillo to kill Thompson for $5,000. Investigators allege she wanted Thompson killed because she blames him for the deaths of two friends in an automobile accident.

Ms. Watson remained in the Carson County Jail at Panhandle in lieu of $50,000 bond.

District Attorney David McCoy said she was transferred to the jail in Panhandle because the Donley County Jail was full and because he advised Thompson to move her to another jurisdiction to eliminate the possibility that she might claim she was mistreated at the hands of authorities in Donley County.

Authorities alleged Ms. Watson originally tried to hire a local man on June 20, but the man informed Hedley Constable Blackie Johnson, who then contacted Thompson.

Abboud eyes 1st City

HOUSTON (AP) — The chairman of First City Bancorp. of Texas Inc. said he and other senior officers may try to buy back stock held by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. if the government agrees to give up its stake in First City.

First City said Tuesday that the FDIC had agreed to negotiate the sale of its 18.06 percent stake in the bank to either First City or to a third party.

And Chairman A. Robert Abboud hinted Wednesday the development has cooled First City's interest in a possible bid for troubled Texas American Bancshares Inc. and National Bancshares Corp.

"The posture we're taking is we've got (the stock buyback) on the table and we don't want to devote any attention to anything else," Abboud told The Houston Post.

Abboud confirmed Wednesday that he and other senior officers are among those interested in buying the 2.06 million shares of First City preferred stock now held by FDIC, plus warrants for another 1.03 million shares.

"(Management) might like to (buy) as well," Abboud said. "But we'll have to wait to see how things come out."

Some listings not accurate

NEW YORK (AP) — The Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature has more listings for Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis than any other living American woman, but many of her friends say most of what's written about her is inaccurate.

Mrs. Onassis, who turns 60 on July 28, is most often portrayed as "snooty, spiteful, greedy ... the original material girl," wrote Edward Klein, who interviewed more than 60 of her friends for a profile in the August issue of Vanity Fair magazine.

"The Jackie they know has managed to preserve her dignity through an ordeal by the press such as no other woman in this century has had to undergo, and she has also — whatever her faults — triumphed as a mother and as a professional person."

Won't be commissioner yet...

Owners put Finks on hold

CHICAGO (AP) - Jim Finks spent one endless day waiting to become NFL commissioner, but now faces what could be an endless summer.

The endless day was Thursday, when Finks spent 12 hours in a hotel near O'Hare Airport waiting for the expected unanimous vote of the owners ratifying the unanimous choice of a six-man screening committee. Instead, after a 6 hour, 25-minute meeting, a group of 11 dissident owners blocked the election by abstaining in order to get "further information" about Finks and other candidates.

Finks finished with 16 votes, three short of the 19 needed for election. Now he'll have to wait until the owners reconvene sometime later this summer. The owners will be given seven days' notice of a meeting by outgoing commissioner Pete Rozelle.

"This was not a vote against Jim Finks," said Norman Braman, owner of the Philadelphia Eagles and one of the three men who, according to several sources, led the revolt against the NFL's old guard that made up the selection committee. "We felt we simply did not have the relevant information necessary to make such an important choice."

"I still feel, speaking for the committee, that our candidate is definitely Jim Finks," said Lamar Hunt, co-chairman of the six-member group that unanimously recommended the New Orleans president and general manager for the job. Rozelle had held for 30 years.

Finks was not available for comment. Braman said the owners would now reconsider many of the candidates proposed earlier.

The finalists, in addition to Finks, included former Green Bay All-Pro defensive end Willie Davis, now a successful businessman; Robert Mulcahy, executive director of the New Jersey Meadowlands Authority; Paul Tagliabue, the NFL's Washington lawyer; former Democratic National chairman Paul Kirk, and the chief executive officer of a major corporation who asked to remain anonymous.

Braman said the main objection of the dissidents was to what he said was a lack of information from the screening committee.

Edberg leads McEnroe as...

Rain interrupts Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) - It's the third edition of the ultimate showdown. Whatever happens this time, it will make tennis history.

"I want it badly and Steffi wants it badly," Martina Navratilova said Thursday. "This is what you live for. It should be a great match."

"It" is the women's singles title at Wimbledon, something Steffi Graf holds and Navratilova wants back.

After Chris Evert's probable farewell to Wimbledon's ivy-covered walls and six rounds of toil and sweat, the goal is in sight for Navratilova and Graf.

John McEnroe, in the last four for the first time since 1984, met defending champion Stefan Edberg in the first men's semifinal today. Rain interrupted play as Edberg led McEnroe 7-5, 7-6 (7-2), with McEnroe leading in the third set 3-2 on serve.

rematch of last year's semifinal between two-time titlist Boris Becker and Ivan Lendl.

McEnroe's injured left shoulder was showing signs of improvement today.

"He's better than he was," John Matthews, trainer for the All England Club, said shortly before the match started. "I just finished treating him and he's in good spirits."

Canadians don't wait for checks

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) - This time, the line about the check being in the mail wasn't good enough.

Citing another late payday, the Vancouver Canadians, top farm club of the Chicago White Sox, walked out Thursday night rather than play a scheduled Pacific Coast League game against the Albuquerque Dukes.

"The reason for the walkout is delinquent salary payments out of Chicago," a statement signed by the players said. "We have in the past tried to resolve this issue through complaints to management and the Major League Players organization."

The walkout spiked "Bob Feller Night," but the Cleveland Indians' Hall of Fame pitcher was understanding.

"I wasn't paid on time, I wouldn't have played either," Feller said.

Canadians vice president and general manager Brent Imlach said in a telephone interview from Vancouver that the checks - due June 30 - had been mailed but apparently had been delayed by the July 4 holiday.

He said that, to his knowledge, it was the first time the checks had failed to arrive in time.

Not so, the players argued. "It has occurred for the past two seasons," infielder Jeff Schaefer said.

Ryan, Rangers blank Angels

by The Associated Press Nolan Ryan has never pitched a perfect game, but he had a perfect homecoming.

Ryan pitched a three-hitter for his 56th career shutout in his first appearance at Anaheim Stadium in nearly 10 years as Texas beat California 3-0 Thursday night.

A crowd of 37,867 gave Ryan a standing ovation as he left the bullpen following his pregame warmups.

Ryan, 42, pitched for the Angels from 1972 through 1979, leading the American League in strikeouts seven times during that span. Earlier in the day, he was selected for the All-Star team for the seventh time.

"It all turned out pretty well," Ryan said. "These fans have always treated me special. It was a special feeling. I was really pumped up after that reception."

The All-Star Game is scheduled July 11 at Anaheim.

Ryan, 10-4, walked two and struck out 12 in his fourth complete game and first shutout of the season.

Elsewhere in the AL it was Seattle 7, Minnesota 5; New York 6, Detroit 5 in 11 innings; Toronto 4, Baltimore 1; Oakland 3, Kansas City 1, and Boston 5, Milwaukee 4.

"The first couple of innings, I was too pumped up. I was rushing, trying to overthrow. It was only appropriate that I would walk the first guy," Ryan said.

"But then I settled down. I didn't feel as strong in the ninth as I have in other games."

Kirk McCaskill, 9-5, matched Ryan pitch for pitch until, with one out in the seventh, Steve Buechele hit his fifth homer.

The Rangers added two runs in the ninth on Ruben Sierra's 13th homer and Jeff Kunkel's RBI double.

82 are under par at Hartford

CROMWELL, Conn. (AP) - Bob Gilder has been in a slump. He hasn't won on the pro golf tour in six years or survived the cut in his last four events.

He didn't have much trouble in Thursday's opening round of the Greater Hartford Open. He wasn't alone.

Of the 152 golfers who attacked the rain-softened course, 82 broke par. A 1-under-par 70, an accomplishment at other tournaments, was good enough for only a 63rd-place tie at the Tournament Players Club of Connecticut.

Younger Wright won't seek his father's seat

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — The son of former Congressman Jim Wright, who stepped down amid an ethics scandal, says it wouldn't be right for him to seek election to the seat his father held.

James C. Wright III announced his decision Thursday, citing "personal, financial and geographical" reasons.

"It just wouldn't be right," the younger Wright said from Santa Fe, N.M., where he is an administrator in the state personnel department. "I am looking for a way to come back to Texas and I think I will, and I think I will someday run for public office, but it just wouldn't be right to do it this way."

Meanwhile, the man considered the Republicans' strongest candidate, television personality and physician Dr. Bob Lanier, announced he would be a candidate in the Aug. 12 race.

Lanier became the fourth candidate in the special election to replace the elder Wright, whose was Texas' 12th Congressional District representative for nearly 35 years.

"I have lived the American Dream and now it's payback time for me," said Lanier.

Lanier appears in his syndicated 60-Second Housecall program, which has aired locally since 1985. Lanier also has received an enthusiastic endorsement from Republican Sen. Phil Gramm.

The deadline for filing to enter the race is Wednesday.

Yacht race to Mexico turns into nightmare

HOUSTON (AP) — A man participating in a yacht race to Mexico was arrested and thrown in jail there after being accused of gunrunning — a charge he denied.

Bill White, 43, said he did have guns aboard his vessel, but he added that he had declared and surrendered them to Mexican authorities as required.

The Houston businessman's ordeal began during the 560-mile Regata del Mayab race from Galveston to Progreso, Mexico, which started June 9 with more than 40 sailboats. But the fleet encountered strong headwinds and high seas, and only about half reached the finish line.

White's 51-foot ketch, Black Coral, had engine problems and two sails were rendered useless.

"We started trying to get help," White told The Houston Post in a telephone interview from Merida, Mexico.

A Mexican Navy vessel found the boat about 200 miles from Progreso. White and his crew reached Progreso eight days after the race began.

When Mexican customs officials in Progreso asked if they had anything to declare, White told them about the three semiautomatic rifles, two pistols, follows by a day an announcement by former Democrat Jim Hunter, who twice lost races for Tarrant County sheriff, that he will run in the congressional race as a Republican.

Democrat Pete Geren, a former aide to Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, and Republican Laraine Bethke entered the race earlier and several other candidates are believed to still be considering running.

The 12th Congressional District, which includes all of Fort Worth and parts of Tarrant County, traditionally has been a Democratic stronghold.

But Hunter joins a growing number of Tarrant County Democrats who have either switched to the GOP or are seriously considering such a move.

"I was raised a conservative Democrat and have always been conservative in my views," Hunter said. "I think the majority of conservative voters in Tarrant County are Republicans."

GOP officials said last week that at least three Democratic judges plan to announce their intentions to switch parties at a July 14 news conference to be attended by Gov. Bill Clements.

Geren, 37, an attorney, picked up a key endorsement Wednesday from the Tarrant County Precinct Workers Council.

Opponents have said that Geren would have trouble attracting minority voters, but the Precinct Workers Council is one of the most influential political organizations among minority voters.

White, president of Sport Divers of Houston Inc., is a licensed federal firearms dealer. He noted he had heard about the recent disappearance in the southern Gulf of Mexico of a yacht with several wealthy Mexicans aboard.
Authorities impounded the guns, a practice followed in many countries, promising to return them when the boat left. But White was arrested when he went to reclaim the weapons in Merida. Three of his four crewmen who were still in Mexico also were arrested.

East Bloc, Gorbachev open Warsaw Pact amid friction

BUCHAREST, Romania (AP) — Mikhail S. Gorbachev and his squabbling East bloc allies today opened a Warsaw Pact summit that is expected to bring more arms control initiatives.

The publicity-conscious Soviet president was tight-lipped about his expectations for the two-day meeting in the Romanian capital. Asked by reporters what he expected, Gorbachev said only: "I'll tell you after we finish."

Gorbachev is attending the meeting with Soviet Premier Nikolai Ryzhkov and Foreign Minister Eduard A. Shevardnadze. Romanian officials said reporters would be allowed no access to them and the other Soviet bloc leaders during the closed-door meetings.

Gorbachev arrived in Bucharest late Thursday from Strasbourg, France, where he announced that Moscow and its allies could agree on unilateral cuts in Soviet short-range nuclear missiles in Eastern Europe if NATO is prepared to negotiate reductions on those weapons.

This meeting may produce numbers for those cuts.

The Western Alliance patched up a divisive row between West Germany and the United States over such negotiations six weeks ago. President Bush on May 29 proposed drastic reductions in conventional forces of both military blocs in Europe.

Speaking Thursday at a news conference in Washington, Bush spurned Gorbachev's call for swift negotiations on short-range nuclear missiles.

Bush noted that NATO leaders, at the summit in Brussels six weeks ago, agreed to begin negotiations on such weapons only after an East-West agreement had been reached to reduce conventional forces and reductions were actually under way.

"I don't want to get off the track by re-opening the short-range nuclear forces package," he said.

West Germany was pushing for quick talks on short-range nuclear weapons but agreed to delay them until after preliminary agreements are reached on conventional arms reductions at East-West talks in Vienna.

Bonn signaled, however, it hopes agreement will come within the year deadline proposed by Bush. Other Western nations call that optimistic.

Gorbachev said in Bonn last month that the Warsaw Pact summit could deliver a detailed response to Bush's proposals to reduce the armed forces of East and West in Europe to 275,000 on each side and agree on further cuts in weaponry and combat aircraft.

Romanian officials said the Pact will not announce a decision until after the summit ends Saturday.

Romania's tightly controlled state media announced no firm agenda for the meeting.

The state news agency Agerpres announced only that Eastern European delegations arrived to a welcome from President Nicolae Ceausescu, the East bloc's most resolute foe of Gorbachev's moves toward more democracy and market-oriented economies.

Just last week, in a speech pointedly distributed to foreign journalists covering the summit, Ceausescu rejected any return to private ownership and insisted, "We must take a firm attitude against any attempts to denigrate socialism."

"We think that the concern with a better development of socialism in various countries should not bring a negation or underrating of the might of socialism," he added, in a clear swipe at recent developments in Hungary, Poland and the Soviet Union.

Political reforms in those countries have divided the once monolithic East bloc, with Romania most staunchly opposed to change and East Germany, Bulgaria and Czechoslovakia also still dominated by orthodox communists.

A Western diplomat, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said a meeting was expected to be held on ideology Saturday after the Pact summit formally ends.

"Very little is expected to come out of it," he said, alluding to the deep divisions within the Soviet bloc.

Fire ants take toll on wildlife

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Fire ant populations being sustained by South Texas drought conditions are chewing away at white-tailed fawns and other wildlife, leaving them maimed, disfigured and even dead.

Since mid-April, the Wildlife Rescue and Rehabilitation has treated more than 170 white-tailed fawns and other young animals, the San Antonio Express-News reported.

But the fire ant siege continues, and so do the agency's daily treatments.

Young deer arrive with skins shredded and eyes swollen. A young raccoon suffered bites so severe that workers thought an eyeball was gone. Both paws were stripped of flesh.

Two turtles were brought in, their cracked shells filled with the ants. Also under treatment are two litters of skunks, two gray wolves and a red fox.

"The ants are literally eating the little animals alive," Lynn Cuny, director of the wildlife refuge, told the Express-News. "The fire ant problem is the worst I've ever seen. We're doing the best we can, but many animals are being lost."

"The fawns have been stung all over their bodies, but the damage is most severe on their eyes, nose and mouth," Ms. Cuny said. "Usually, the fawn's entire mouth becomes so rigid, because the skin is completely stripped by the ants, that it can barely suckle."

Arson charge filed locally

year-old woman who lived upstairs having to be hospitalized at Cogdell Memorial Hospital for smoke inhalation.

The most recent incident was Wednesday about 2 a.m., when the inside of a 1979 Buick owned by Charles Lieb was set on fire outside the complex.

Papers placed on the inside seat were ignited, but burned themselves out and fire trucks did not have to be dispatched.

The arson charges pertain to the stairwell and car fires and the criminal mischief charges, both misdemeanors, to the trash dumpster fires and gas line breakage, he said.

Minor thefts reported here

Randy Alford of West Side 66 at 2000 25th St. told police at 7:39 a.m. Thursday that some change had been stolen from a Coke machine.

Earl Anderson of Odessa told the sheriff's office at 9 p.m. Thursday that two Dunlop tires and two 10-hole wheels had been stolen in an incident near Fluvanna.

DWI charged

A 17-year-old male was arrested for DWI and being a minor in possession of alcohol at 12:31 a.m. Friday in the 3200 Block of College Ave.

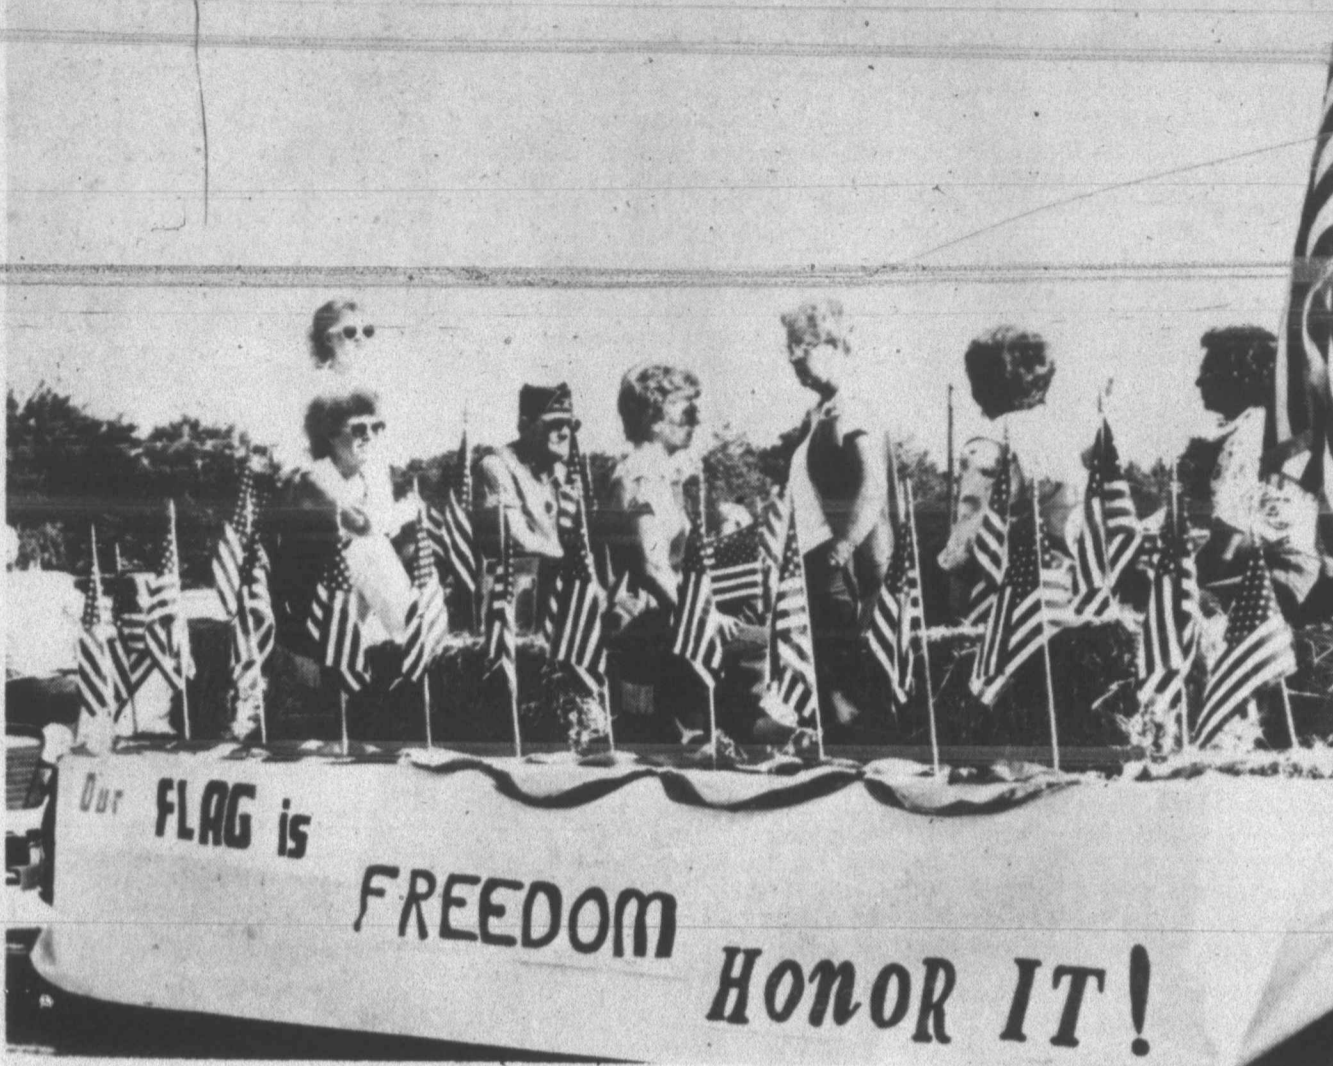

A 22-year-old was taken into custody at the same time for public intoxication.

Hospital Notes

ADMISSIONS: Eulalia Contreras, 1110 15th; Oleta Layne, Rt. 3 Box 91; John Sidney Lockhabay, 402 33rd.

FIRST PLACE—This float, created jointly by the American Legion and the VFW, won first place Tuesday during the annual Fourth of July Parade in Towle Park. The patriotic theme was particularly appropriate in view of the recent Supreme Court decision which now allows the American flag to be burned. (SDN Staff Photo)

One year later, city is still affected by store disaster

BROWNSVILLE, Texas (AP) — Community leaders today broke ground for a memorial to 14 people who were killed in the collapse of a three-story department store during a torrential rain a year ago.

Store owner, Bernard Levin, who was in the Amigo Store when it collapsed, escaped unscathed. Still, the thoughts of death and suffering remain with him.

"Naturally, I feel a little beat," Levin said Wednesday. "It's very hard for me to keep going. Like today, it poured down raining and I thought back to the Amigo Store."

All that remains at the site a year later is vinyl flooring, the tiles at the entrance and a gaping hole in the downtown business district.

At least 47 were injured in the July 7, 1988, disaster. The memorial, which includes a palm tree planted near the former store for each of the victims, was donated by the Rotary Club of Brownsville-Sunrise. The memorial also honors the survivors and hundreds of people who joined the rescue effort.

"For a brief moment in our day-to-day lives, everybody in this community stopped ... to climb upon a rock pile and rub elbows with some of the people that they pass on a day-to-day basis without ever stopping and saying 'Hi,'" Rusty Faulk, who was local disaster chairman for the American Red Cross, said at the dedication.

About 50 people attended the ceremony, which included speeches by city leaders.

Mayor Ygnacio Garza, who in the past year has also led the city through a hurricane and a series of drug cult murders at nearby Matamoros, Mexico, said people from out of town most often ask about the Amigo Store disaster.

"They remember how the community responded, how we worked together to save lives," Garza said.

Some survivors were severely injured. Yvette Lire, 14, of Brownsville, lost a leg. Jose Luis Gaytan, 32, of Valle Hermoso, Mexico, suffered brain damage while trapped in the rubble, and no longer is able to teach school, said Ernesto Gamez, his attorney.

Levin faces millions of dollars in personal injury lawsuits, with fellow defendants the city, Public Utilities Board and various construction firms and suppliers. Levin's attorney, Mark Blakemore, said 24 suits have been consolidated into one case, set for trial in Brownsville on Jan. 14, 1991.

No official report has been released to explain what caused the three-story structure to collapse in a storm that dumped two inches of rain on the city in 30 minutes.

For Mayor Ygnacio Garza it was one of a series of challenges in rapid succession, including Hurricane Gilbert, a flood of immigrants from Central America and mass murder across the border in Matamoros.

"The only true crisis was the building collapse," Garza said. "It happened so suddenly."

He said he remembers "thinking there's no way that anybody could survive, and going forward as if people had survived."

Dr. Lorenzo Pelly hitchhiked to the scene from Brownsville Medical Center.

"The first thing I saw there was a guy who had his face crushed between a parking meter and a car parked there on the street," Pelly said. "That man was dead, dead, dead. His face was squashed."

Pelly said the outpouring of volunteers from throughout the Lower Rio Grande Valley united the region, but he regrets the bickering among rescuers and the decision to dig instead of looking first for survivors.

Survivors were not located until hours later.

Retirees like look of Snyder

Mrs. Able, "We're Texans at heart, and we just didn't see enough sun there."

About their newfound home, Mrs. Able stressed their appreciation of the friendly, helpful staff and seniors at the Senior Center, a local drawing card for seniors.

Richard Able was born in the Lisbon community near Dallas, and Betty Able was born in Peoria, Ill., and moved to Houston when she was 13, remaining there most of her life.

The Ables have been in Snyder just over a year and have purchased a home at 201 Hickory.

Mrs. Able says that all the work their new home needed is now complete as they finished painting last week. The Ables plan to stay here indefinitely.

Mr. Able has a brother, Jack Able, and a niece, Betty Jo Hargrove, in Rotan.

Able is a retired insulator for Local Union 22 which was once located in the Houston area and is now centered in Pasadena, Calif. Mrs. Able is a retired secretary. At one time, she worked for the Interstate Commerce Commission.

They were married in Clute, Tex., south of Houston, in 1971. Retirees have been a booming industry for towns such as Roswell, N.M., that was once economically devastated because the government shut down Walker Air Force Base there 22 years ago.

The Roswell Chamber of Commerce has a retirement services division designed to lure retirees to Roswell. Since the program was formed in November 1986, approximately 330 retiree families have moved there.

The Snyder Chamber of Commerce, too, has a committee designed to attract retirees to this area. Jack Denman, former chamber president and current chairman of the Board of County Development, is head of the chamber's retirement effort. He lauded assistance from the Retirement and Tourism Committee and the help of chamber president Herbie Figueredo.

Since beginning its work early this year, Denman noted several retiree families have located in Snyder, and others have retired and decided to stay here.

One project currently related to seniors is the expansion of the Golden Terrace complex on 37th Street.

Obituaries

Ruby Butts

Services for Ruby Janette Butts, 71, of 2220 45th Street, are set for 11:30 a.m. Saturday in the Bell-Cypert-Seale Chapel with Rev. R. Virgil Mott officiating.

Additional graveside services will be at 10 a.m. Monday at Pleasanton Cemetery with Rev. Don Higginbotham, First Baptist Church pastor in Pleasanton, officiating.

Butts died at 8 p.m. Tuesday at her home.

She was born Oct. 14, 1917, in Medina County, Tex.

She taught school in the Leal Community near Pleasanton from 1943 to 1945.

Butts graduated from the University of Texas in 1947.

She worked as a home extension agent from 1947 to 1978.

She had lived in Snyder since 1951 and was a member of the First Baptist Church here.

Butts is survived by two sisters, Doris Butts of San Antonio and Vera Butts of Corpus Christi; one niece, Terry Ximenez; and one nephew, George Butts Jr.

Leonardo Navejar

MULESHOE—Services are set for 2 p.m. Saturday in the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church for Leonardo J. Navejar, 75, who died Wednesday in St. Mary of the Plains Hospital in Lubbock. Burial will follow in the Bailey County Memorial Park.

He was the father of Mario Navejar of Snyder.

Born in Uvalde, he moved to Muleshoe from Menard in 1955. He married Trinidad Lopez on Jan. 12, 1946 in Uvalde. He was a retired cotton compress employee. He was a World War II army veteran and a member of the Catholic church.

Survivors include his wife; four other sons, Daniel Navejar and David Navejar, both of Muleshoe, Mike Navejar of Shallowater and Alex Navejar of Lubbock; two daughters, Olga Briseno of Muleshoe and Maggie Flores of Lubbock; a sister, Natalie Flores of Muleshoe; 19 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren.

DR. GOTT PETER GOTT, M.D.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I have had pain in my arm and shoulder, yet X-rays are negative. My doctor tells me to exercise and use a heating pad. I want to play golf but wonder if this might be too much stress on the arm.

DEAR READER: Shoulder pain has many causes, of which only a few are diagnosable by X-ray examination. For example, calcium deposits, fractures, dislocations and certain forms of arthritis produce abnormal X-rays; soft tissue injuries — such as rotator cuff tears and chronic strains — do not.

While exercise and heat may be perfectly appropriate treatments for your pain, I am uncomfortable that the cause of your problem hasn't been identified.

I suggest you see an orthopedic surgeon for a diagnosis. Depending on the reason for your pain, other therapy might be more effective in reducing your discomfort and preventing any disability, such as a frozen shoulder. In some cases, a program of graded exercises, under the supervision of a physical therapist, helps. In others, more aggressive management — with anti-inflammatory drugs or ultrasound treatments — may be required. In a few instances, surgery (to repair the shoulder damage) may be necessary. An orthopedic specialist is your best bet.

Incidentally, any activity that causes pain is best avoided. Conversely, exercise that is comfortable will probably do no harm. Therefore, use your own judgment about playing golf.

DEAR DR. GOTT: My wife's grandmother and I have a running battle about high blood pressure. She will cook six medium potatoes in salt water and mash them in a pot, adding a whole stick of margarine and salt. She continues to salt everything else that goes on the table. While I really love her, I don't want to eat what she cooks. Should I just be quiet and take my chances?

DEAR READER: You're probably better off keeping your opinions to yourself and eating sparingly. Your wife's grandmother is unlikely to change her methods of preparing food, unless she is given convincing reasons to do so. Go easy on her mashed potatoes and share meals with her as infrequently as you can. Be thankful that she doesn't use butter in place of margarine.

You may be interested in learning that dietary salt is not bad for everyone. True, Americans probably eat too much salt. However, only patients with high blood pressure are harmed by it; most of us readily excrete extra salt. Hypertensives seem to be unable to get rid of excess salt in their bodies; the substance builds up, causing fluid retention and worsening of high blood pressure.

To my knowledge, no scientific study has shown that a salty diet causes hypertension. Most reports have concerned primitive tribes that eat very little salt. Since these people have a low incidence of hypertension in comparison to persons eating a typical high-salt Western diet, some scientists concluded that salt causes high blood pressure. However, other factors — such as exercise — may be more important.

Because Americans eat far more salt than they need, the prudent consumer should make an effort to cut down on salt. But unless a person is diagnosed as hypertensive, salt restriction is not necessary for good health. You can do a lot to improve family relations if you exercise moderation in your own diet and let your grandmother-in-law solve her own problems, with the help of her doctor. To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Eating Right for a Healthy Heart." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

ASTRO-GRAPH BERNICE BEDE OSOL

Your Birthday

July 8, 1989

In the year ahead you could be very fortunate materially in your arrangements with people with whom you have strong emotional bonds. There's a possibility something rather grand may transpire in this area.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Using excessive flattery in order to make another supportive of your views could produce results opposite to what you hope for today. Sincerity will be much more effective. Cancer, treat yourself to a birthday gift. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions for the year ahead by mailing $1 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Your prudence in the management of your finances might desert you today. Take care that you don't spend excessively in order to make an impression on others.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Do not make the mistake of underestimating your competition today in situations that have competitive elements. Be confident and self-assured, but don't get cocky.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Unfortunately, not everyone you'll have dealings with today will be as compassionate, sincere and generous as you are. To be on the safe side, keep your guard up.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) It could prove to be a sheer waste of time, energy and money to overindulge today in hopes of having a good time. Happiness cannot be bought, it's dependent upon your frame of mind.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Put your ambitious desires on the back burner today, because Lady Luck might not be as supportive of you as she usually is. Wait until she's in a happier mood.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Don't believe everything you hear today, especially rumors about the company for which you work. There's a possibility that some original misinformation may be grossly exaggerated.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) This could turn out to be a rather unlucky day for involvements that are of a speculative nature. If you're hoping to get something for nothing, you might just end up with nothing.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Guard against tendencies to expect more from others than you should today, because if your anticipations are disproportionate, you'll stand a good chance of being disappointed.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) An attitude in philosophy that suits a friend comfortably may not necessarily fit your requirements. Be your own person and originate, don't imitate.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Be as gracious as possible and extra mindful of your behavior in your social involvements today. A poor showing could leave a bad lasting impression that will be difficult to erase.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Something you'll do today might inconvenience another person, even though this individual may not be involved in your decision making. Be considerate of other people.

Joint service slated Sunday

Sunday's joint 8:45 a.m. worship service for both Grace Lutheran and St. John's Lutheran churches will be conducted at the Lutheran church, located at 5500 College Avenue.

Episcopal churches will be conducted at the Lutheran church, located at 5500 College Avenue.

Bishop Mark B. Herbener, who presides over the Northern Texas Synod for the evangelical Lutheran Church in America, will conduct the services.

Herbener, a native of Chicago, Ill., has pastored Lutheran churches in Texas from 1956-1986. He was named bishop the following year.

He has been involved in numerous community and church activities and has received numerous awards including the Distinguished Church Service Award in 1987.

He and his wife, Donna, have two children.

Dan Aykroyd takes arrest well

GASTONIA, N.C., (AP) — Actor Dan Aykroyd went from ghostbuster to speedbuster when he was stopped for driving 83 mph, but his demeanor would have made Sgt. Joe Friday proud.

Aykroyd knew the routine from his role in the movie "Dragnet." Just the facts, please.

"He said he'd become hypnotized by the road after driving so long," said state Trooper L.J. Pitula, who stopped Aykroyd about 6:40 a.m. Thursday, for exceeding the 65 mph speed limit on Interstate 85 in Gaston County.

Aykroyd, one of the stars of "Ghostbusters II," was one his way from Atlanta, where he was filming a movie, to his home in Massachusetts in his gray 1984 Mercedes. He told the trooper he had been driving for most of the night.

"He was absolutely 100 percent a gentleman," Pitula said. "He used no influence whatsoever."
