

JANA KING

'Music City' singer still a Snyder girl

By BOB CAMPBELL
SDN Staff Writer

That pretty woman who sings in the Nashville Now Singers and sometimes tells the television audience that she is "Jana, from Snyder, Texas," was a Snyder High School cheerleader named Jana Bullard before she became one of the hottest back-up and studio singers in Music City.

A 1971 SHS graduate, she earned an education degree from Texas Tech University in Lubbock and taught high school and junior high choir for three years in Lubbock, Amarillo and Richardson, then parlayed her budding career as a jingle singer in the Dallas area into success in the same type of work in Nashville.

In a telephone interview last week, the former Miss Bullard, now Jana King, said her memories of growing up in Snyder as the daughter of J.C. "Jake" and Pat Bullard are still vivid. She asked about school district business manager Lee McNair and his wife, Debra, a teacher at North Elementary School, emphasizing that Debra was one of her best friends in high school.

Her parents are now in Jakarta, Indonesia, where Jake works for the Maxus Corp. oil company.

Her mother worked for the city as a bookkeeper, and she lived here from the time she was "a few weeks old," she said.

In addition to being an SHS cheerleader, she was on the volleyball team and in the choir, graduating the year before choir teacher Bill Lyon came to Snyder.

Lyon taught Jana's sister, Sheri, who now lives in Houston along with their brother, Joe. Lyon has had periodic contact with Jana through the years and says now that the sisters "were both good singers."

King, Jana says, "is a professional name that was my married name, and I kept it."

She started singing for the TM Co. in Dallas, doing call letter jingles for radio and television stations, and progressed to doing back-up work and jingles for major artists and companies in Nashville in 1981.

She has also worked for Don Caldwell Studios in Lubbock and plans to work with producer Billy Stull of Amarillo at the Norman Petty Studio in Clovis, N.M., she

DPS expects 34 fatalities

The Texas Department of Public Safety will have all available troopers patrolling the state's highways, hoping to curtail traffic accidents during the Labor Day weekend.

It is estimated that 34 people will die as a result of a traffic collision during the 78-hour Labor Day period, which begins at 6 p.m. Friday and concludes at midnight on Monday, Sept. 4.

"The more we can do to get people to buckle-up, slow down and not drink and drive, the better off all motorists will be, and therefore be aware of possible traffic problems," said a DPS spokesman.

The department is encouraging motorists to make sure they are aware of weather conditions if they are planning a trip. They should also make a thorough check of their vehicle, including seatbelts, tires and brake fluid, to insure a safe trip.

"We believe safety awareness does make a difference," said Joe Milner, DPS director. "So far, no traffic fatality has been reported anywhere in Texas for June 13. If this holds up, it will be the first time since 1977 we have had a day with no traffic deaths in Texas. Let's make it happen again this Labor Day."

The Snyder Jaycees will operate a travelers' rest stop at the abandoned Chevron service station on the north side of U.S. 84 at Hermleigh 24 hours a day from 6 p.m. Friday to 6 p.m. Monday with soft drinks, coffee, donuts, snacks, cots and restrooms to be provided free.

Rodeo set to begin 3-day run

Some of the top young men and women in the sport of rodeo will be in Snyder this weekend for the third annual AJRA Rodeo, under the sponsorship of Western Texas College.

The three-day event begins Friday at the Scurry County Rodeo Association arena on W. 30th St. Performances will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday and 1:30 p.m. Sunday.

Tickets are $4 for adults and $3 for students.

Sammy Smith and Western Texas will provide the stock. Joyce Kincheloe is the rodeo secretary. Bob Doty, assistant agriculture professor and rodeo coach at WTC, is the rodeo director.

A number of reigning AJRA champions will be among the contestants entered in three age divisions. Also competing will be several WTC rodeo students.

Contestants are entered in three age groups: 16-to-19, 13-to-15 and 12-and-under. There will also be a special 8-and-under division.

Standard AJRA rodeo events include calf roping, barrels, team roping, bull riding, bareback riding, steer wrestling, ribbon roping, breakaway roping, goat tying and pole bending.

Approximately 200 contestants have entered the rodeo.

Snyder also hosts the AJRA National Finals Rodeo each August.

Proceeds from this weekend's event will go to the WTC rodeo scholarship fund.

Bush strategy is aimed at stemming drug flow

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Bush's national drug strategy will budget up to $260 million in economic and military aid to Colombia, Bolivia and Peru in an attempt to stem the flow of cocaine at the source, an administration source says.

The final version of the president's plan, which he will unveil in a nationally televised speech Tuesday night, will be much like the draft proposed by drug czar William J. Bennett, according to another source.

It will be tough on users, heavy on law enforcement and call for a new emphasis on treatment, the source said.

But it won't threaten states with a loss of federal highway funds if they don't impose strict anti-drug laws, as Bennett's draft had proposed, and it won't include the $25 million National Drug Intelligence Center, said the source, who spoke on condition of anonymity.

The other administration source, also speaking on condition of anonymity, said Wednesday that Bush's strategy will call for $250 million to $260 million in economic and military aid for the three main cocaine producing countries — Colombia, Bolivia and Peru.

Also Wednesday, Sen. Joseph Biden, D-Del., unveiled "debt-

Psychiatric testing ordered for Bakker

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — PTL founder Jim Bakker was ordered to undergo psychiatric testing at a federal corrections facility today to see if he is competent to continue his trial on fraud and conspiracy charges.

U.S. District Judge Robert Potter ordered Bakker's trial suspended in its fourth day after a psychiatrist testified in a brief hearing that Bakker suffered hallucinations and was cowering in his attorney's office this morning.

"He was lying in the corner of his attorney's office with his head under a couch, hiding," Dr. Basil

Jackson testified in the brief competency hearing out of the jury's presence. "He was expressing thoughts that someone was going to hurt him."

Jackson, who has been treating Bakker for nine months, said Bakker suffered hallucinations after breaking down Wednesday when a witness collapsed while being cross-examined.

"Mr. Bakker reported that when he left the courthouse, suddenly people outside took on the form of frightening animals which he felt were intent on destroying him, attacking him and hurting him," Jackson said.

Bridge collapse injures at least 14 in Maryland

LAUREL, Md. (AP) — A bridge being built over a major roadway collapsed during rush hour this morning, raining debris on commuters and injuring at least 14 people, state police said.

One woman was critically injured in the collapse of the Route 198 overpass over the Baltimore-Washington Parkway, which came while workers were pouring concrete, said Maryland Police spokesman Chuck Jackson. U.S. Park Police Deputy Chief Richard Kusick said four of the injured were in a car that was crushed under the overpass. Another of the injured was in a second car that was hit by debris, while the other nine were construction workers.

Authorities were trying to determine if anyone else was trapped, he said.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Hereditry is called hand-me-down genes."

At the retirement reception for junior high principal Charles Anderson, the staff landed a few playful jabs at their former hard-nosed boss.

One presentation was a large box of "memos" written by Anderson to staff. It caused Supt. Dalton Moseley to muse that the school may be able to reduce the budget for paper.

When Anderson got the microphone, he recalled several incidents over his 32 years in education. One included him as driver of a school bus in an accident that got him "promoted" to junior high coach.

Admitting he knew little about football, Anderson said he put the biggest and fastest on the field and went undefeated. Not long after that, he was given a choice between high school drama and sixth grade.

Anderson said he told the superintendent to go ahead and hire that unknown who probably wouldn't amount to anything. That unknown was Jerry Worsham who has gained state-wide recognition for SHS in speech and drama.

Anderson said he had been going through boxes and notes and other items from his years with the school district. Included was his most unusual work order turned in just like requested:

"Please rush...the air conditioner in Lab D does not work. They have shut the door because of sex education and are not getting any circulation at all."

Anderson once assisted a second grade teacher on a field trip to the museum. He received several thank you letters from the students.

One said, "I was sick and did not get to go (to the museum) this year. I have to write a thank you note anyway, and I hope to go next year."

Without question—Anderson liked kids...

In Brief

Hill to run

AUSTIN (AP) — State Rep. Pat Hill today became the second Republican to announce for attorney general, launching her campaign with a blistering attack on Democrat Jim Mattox.

"The attorney general has to fight for Texas, not for his friends, his cronies, or those in the power circles who make $10,000 contributions to his campaign fund," Ms. Hill said.

"I've watched Jim Mattox for a long time. First, when I saw what was happening it made me sad. Then it made me mad," she said.

Ms. Hill, 43, of Dallas, is a four-term House member who chairs the House Judicial Affairs Committee. She will face state Sen. J.E. "Buster" Brown of Lake Jackson in the GOP primary.

'Dry' rush fails

AUSTIN (AP) — Alcohol-free rush week planned for the University of Texas was shorter than planned. The Interfraternity Council says one frat broke it on the first night.

Members of the Kappa Alpha fraternity were caught drinking with rush participants Monday night, said Scott Wilder, the council's executive director.

Wilder, acting as a "dry rush cop," saw several fraternity members and rushees drinking alcohol at an Austin bar. He declined to name the fraternity members or rushees and would not say how many were involved in the incident.

Do U.S. drug laws work?

By The Associated Press
 Penalties against drug use in the United States have escalated dramatically since crack began infiltrating the nation's cities about five years ago.
 During that time, Congress and nearly every legislature have overhauled drug laws to make them stronger, more consistent and — in a few cases — more creative.
 All signs suggest that the tougher laws haven't been enough to discourage drug abuse from spreading, but there's little doubt that those who are caught are paying a higher price.
 —In Tallahassee, Fla., recently, a 30-year-old man was sentenced to life in prison without parole for dealing crack. It was his first conviction.

 —In Indianapolis, a 28-year-old cocaine dealer was forbidden to marry or father children for four years.
 —Under a new law in Washington state, drug dealers can lose their homes and be banned from returning to their neighborhoods.
 Statistics on convictions and sentences for drug crimes are scarce, but those that exist suggest that more people are going to prison for drug crimes than ever before.
 In New York state, for instance, the number of people serving time for drug crimes has risen more than 400 percent during the past seven years.
 Federal drug convictions jumped 161 percent during the 1980s, and the percentage of federal inmates serving time for drug crimes has more than doubled.

About half the inmates in federal prisons today were convicted of drug crimes, and by 1995 the Bureau of Prisons expects seven of every 10 to be a drug criminal. That's in addition to the high percentage of convicts who were under the influence of drugs when they committed non-drug crimes such as murder.
 A decade ago, drug laws appeared to be in remission. The recreational drug use that had become popular during the late 1960s had fostered a new sense of permissiveness.
 Crack, the highly addictive form of cocaine, ended that. It appeared on the scene just as public concern over cocaine use seemed to be reaching a peak, and pushed concern into panic. Lawmakers responded with much tougher laws.
 Although the goal was a drug-free America, the only certain result so far has been overcrowded prisons and overburdened courts. But even critics acknowledge that courts have become less hospitable places for drug users and dealers than they were a few years ago.

 "The laws have gotten tougher," said Hubert Williams, the former police chief of Newark, N.J., who now heads the Police Foundation in Washington. "They are good and strong and effective for our purposes."
 The federal government has been a leader in the crackdown, with Congress passing anti-drug bills in 1984, 1986 and 1988. The laws established mandatory prison terms and fixed sentences for drug offenders, taking much of the sentencing discretion from judges.
 Similar laws have been passed by most states, and some have gone much further.

Dear Abby

Unhappy Man Wants to Live His Life Only as a Woman

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1989 Universal Press Syndicate

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Abby is off on a two-week vacation, but she left behind some of her favorite letters taken from her best-selling book "The Best of Dear Abby.")

DEAR ABBY: I am a 23-year-old male nurse. I love sports and excel in track. I was saved by the grace of Jesus Christ two years ago. I read the Bible daily and sing in the gospel choir.

Even though I am a born-again Christian, I am miserable. All my life I have wanted to be a woman. I would love to be on the U.S. Women's Olympic Track Team. I can cook, sew and type. I have never cared anything about mechanics, engineering, or any of the so-called masculine careers. I hate hunting and fishing. I could never kill a living thing.

Abby, this secret desire to be a woman is about to destroy me. I am not a homosexual, but I'd give anything to have a sex-change operation. Where is this done? Is it against the law? I will go anywhere. I'd rather be dead than continue living like this.

Abby, if the Lord really loves me, why did he give me a man's body when I feel and think like a woman? I have been this way all my life. Please help me!

SAVED BUT DIFFERENT

DEAR SAVED: The Lord created all of us, and why he made you "different" I do not know. Nature sometimes makes biological blunders, as is the case when one's body does not conform with his (or her) natural feelings. You are not alone. Don't feel guilty. One cannot help what he feels.

I believe that knowledge, skill and talent are divinely inspired, and that those scientists, physicians and surgeons whose combined efforts have made sex-change operations possible do so with God's guidance. For information about sex-reassignment surgery and related problems, inquire at the nearest medical school that has a human sexuality program.

DEAR ABBY: Three years ago, my 58-year-old husband had a brief affair with his secretary. It was no secret, and all the tongues in this little town were wagging a mile a minute.

Once I found a motel key in his coat pocket, and he had the gall to tell me that he got tired driving so he checked into this motel to take a little nap. (Three miles from home!)

Well, last year he had an operation that left him practically impotent, and since then I couldn't ask for a more devoted husband. He phones me if he knows he's going to be half an hour late. He buys me presents, sends me flowers, and even takes me on business trips, which he never did before.

Of course I'm enjoying all this, but why in your opinion has my husband suddenly turned over a new leaf?

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: Probably because there's not much left under the old one.

DEAR ABBY: I saw a man on the commuter train reading a book titled "Dear Abby," and he sure seemed to be enjoying it. I suppose you wrote it. Please send me the book, and if it's any good I'll send you a check.

RUSSELL

DEAR RUSSELL: Send me the check, and if it's any good I'll send you the book.

DEAR ABBY: I just found out I'm pregnant. Will you please send me a booklet on how to have a lovely wedding?

EXPECTING

"How to Write Letters for All Occasions" provides sample letters of congratulations, thank-yous, condolences, resumes and business letters — even how to write a love letter! It also includes how to properly address clergymen, government officials, dignitaries, widows and others. To order, send your name and address, plus check or money order for $2.99 ($3.99 in Canada) to: Abby's Letter Booklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054. (Postage is included.)

ASTRO-GRAPH BERNICE BEDE OSOL

Sept. 1, 1989

Friendships are likely to take on new meanings for you in the year ahead. A number of new associations will be formed and closer bonds will be established with several old friends.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Friends will comply with your wishes to a limited degree today. If you are too dictatorial or demanding, even people who are usually supportive could work against you. Get a jump on life by understanding the influences which are governing you in the year ahead. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today by mailing $1 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Your hunches could provide you with valuable insights today, but they will still require some monitoring on your behalf. Be able to distinguish between positive impulses or wishful thinking.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Chances are if you pay a lot of money to have a good time today, you won't. Conversely, activities that are free or very inexpensive could turn out to be really fun.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) It's admirable to be independent and have strong self-identification, but don't go to foolish lengths today to prove your point. Victories of this ilk will have a hollow ring.

 CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Although you mind will be keen and your intentions good today there is still a possibility you might do or say something thoughtless that could hurt a sensitive friend's feelings.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Be willing to share today because it will encourage the person with whom you're involved to do likewise. Both will come out winners.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Today you are likely to be more at ease with companions who are thoughtful and gentle. Aggressive or abrasive types will make you feel very uncomfortable and their behavior might embarrass you.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You won't go wrong today in whatever you do if you operate in accordance with your highest standards. If you start to hedge a bit, complications are possible.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Social conditions should be to your liking today, but you might not feel as happy about financial arrangements. Be extremely cautious today as to how and where you use your money.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) There is a delicate balance that must be maintained in your commercial affairs today so that you do not swing from a favorable position to a negative one. Subdue impulsiveness.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) No matter how hard you try today you'll find it will be impossible to please everyone with whom you'll have dealings. Don't get upset, instead be grateful for the happy arrangements.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Your possibilities for personal gain continue to look encouraging again today, but what you eventually get might be less than your expectations.

Reaction mixed to billboard

DALLAS (AP) — Some city officials have denounced a Dallas Patrolmen's Union billboard designed to draw attention to a $17.9 million pay and benefits proposal the union wants the City Council to approve.

"I don't know of anyone who supports police officers as much as I do, but they're getting almost into propaganda and coercion. I think it alienates people," said Mayor Pro Tem John Evans.

The billboards, at three downtown locations, depict a dead police officer lying face down next to a police car.

Among the benefits the union is seeking is a 6 percent pay raise for officers.

Black oil means job is being done

BARTLESVILLE, Okla. (AP) — Black oil signifies only that detergents and dispersants in your car's engine oil are doing their job of removing dirt particles from the engine and holding them in suspension. Although there are many motor oils available, not all are created equal. The most obvious differences are in the type, quantity and quality of additives used, says Phillips 66.

Deep Creek chapter hosts home caregivers

The Deep Creek Chapter of the American Business Women's Association met Aug. 17 at Reta's Cake and Bar-B-Que. Some seven members and three guests attended the meeting.

Guests included Bonnie Carroll, scholarship recipient; Sandra Galyean, R.N., Director of Cogdell Home Health Services; and Freda Murray, R.N., also of Home Health Services.

Home Health Services is the oldest concept of care, in caring for patients in their home. There are three eligibility requirements to qualify for home health care: 1. The patient is essentially home bound. 2. There is a skilled health need resulting from illness or injury.

Hefners expecting child in April

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Playboy founder Hugh Hefner and his new wife, Kimberley Conrad, are expecting a child in April, a spokesman says.

Hefner, 63, had hinted recently that he and his bride were going to have a child.

"If anybody wants to know what we did on our honeymoon, they'll find out in April," Hefner said, according to Playboy spokesman Bill Farley.

Hefner and the 26-year-old former Playmate of the Year were married July 1.

jury. 3. The care must be ordered by a physician.

To begin these services, one must either talk to his physician or call 573-6374 for information. Freda Murray discussed the newborn aspects of the home health program which is relatively new to their operation. They have a portable Billilight that is available to parents of newborns who would otherwise have to stay in the hospital after the mother is dismissed. The newborn can now go home with the new parents, and the nurses come to the home to check the baby's blood for the Billa Ruben level.

Dorothy Dortch was the vocational speaker. She works for the Scurry County Veterinarian Clinic. She has worked there for six years. She shared her many "unusual experiences" with the group.

Bonnie Carroll, chapter scholarship recipient, will be attending Western Texas College this fall. She is employed in the O.B. department of Cogdell Memorial Hospital, but works in different areas when the department has no newborns. She said that she really enjoys her work and it gives her "much joy."

In other business, members discussed the cookbook fundraising efforts, White Buffalo Days Oct. 13, and the Fall Tea. Penny Cochran will be the hostess of the September meeting at the Shack at 6:30 p.m. Sept. 20.

Lean look suits pork

By NANCY BYAL

The lean look is fashionable for pork, too. Hogs today are bred and fed to have less fat. Pork cuts are trimmed of fat more closely. Pork tenderloin and center loin are the cuts lowest in fat. As you cut the meat into strips, trim away any fat around the outside edges.

2 tablespoons cornstarch
2 tablespoons cold water
2 medium tomatoes, chopped
3 cups hot cooked brown rice

Partially freeze meat. Cut on the bias into thin bite-size strips. Spray a 12-inch skillet with non-stick coating. Cook pork and garlic in skillet until meat is brown, stirring occasionally. Stir in broccoli, bias-sliced onion, ½ cup water and soy sauce. Bring to boiling. Reduce heat; cover and simmer 3 to 5 minutes or until broccoli is crisp-tender and meat is done.

Meanwhile, quarter papaya lengthwise. Seed and peel. Cut crosswise into ¼-inch slices. Stir together cornstarch and 2 tablespoons water; add to skillet. Cook and stir until thickened and bubbly; cook and stir 2 minutes more. Stir in papaya and tomatoes. Heat through. Serve with hot cooked rice.

On Aug. 14, 1945, President Harry S. Truman announced that Japan had unconditionally surrendered, ending the hostilities of World War II. Capitulation came several days after the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and after Emperor Hirohito called upon Japan's war council to give up.

North's jump to four diamonds was a splinter bid. It showed a singleton diamond plus four-card support for hearts, the last suit bid by South. And it also implied slam interest. When South asked for aces, the five-spade response showed two aces plus the queen of the agreed-upon trump suit — unlike traditional responses to Blackwood.

Against six hearts, West led the ace of diamonds. If West fails to continue diamonds, declarer can pitch a diamond on dummy's ace of clubs, draw three rounds of trumps and then play spades. Even though spades do not split, a spade can be ruffed in dummy and the rest of the spades will be good. But what about when West plays a second diamond? Now declarer must ruff in dummy and the hand gets tricky. If declarer plays two rounds of hearts right away and then plays ace and king of spades, West will ruff. But there is a way for declarer to succeed.

After ruffing the second round of diamonds, declarer should ruff a club high and lead a low heart to dummy's nine. Then he ruffs a second club and leads a heart to dummy's jack. A third club can be ruffed with declarer's last heart, and a spade is then led to dummy's ace. Now the queen of hearts can take West's last trump, and dummy's clubs will be good after the ace is cashed. There will be no need for the spade suit to split, since declarer will have enough tricks for the contract.

Pot luck dish lasts no time

By NANCY BYAL
Better Homes and Gardens
Food Editor

This dish was cleaned up in a hurry at my son's school potluck supper. Sauce mix, soup mix and milk make a super-easy, creamy sauce that tastes great.

BROCCOLI AND WILD RICE BAKE
1 to 1½ pounds broccoli, cut into 1-inch pieces

One 6¾-ounce package quick-cooking long grain and wild rice mix

One 1-ounce envelope sour cream sauce mix

1 single-serving-size envelope instant cream of chicken soup mix

2 cups milk

¾ cup soft bread crumbs

1 tablespoon margarine or butter, melted

¼ teaspoon paprika

Cook broccoli stems in enough boiling salted water to cover 5 minutes. Add flowerets; cook 4 to 5 minutes or until tender. Drain. Prepare rice mix according to package directions. Combine sauce and soup mixes; stir in milk. In a 2-quart casserole combine rice and milk mixture; fold in broccoli. Combine bread crumbs, margarine and paprika; sprinkle over top. Bake, uncovered, in 350-degree oven 35 to 40 minutes or until heated through. Makes 8 servings.

Nutrition information per serving: 134 cal., 6 g pro., 17 g carb., 4 g fat, 5 mg chol., 402 mg sodium. U.S. RDA: 24 percent vit. A, 63 percent vit. C.

Man arraigned in shooting death of policeman

WACO, Texas (AP) — A Waco-area man was being held in lieu of $500,000 bail today in connection with the fatal shooting of three in-laws, including a Waco police officer.

Billy Wayne Coble, 40, was arraigned Wednesday on a murder charge in the slaying of Waco Police Sgt. John Bobby Vicha, the brother of his estranged wife Karen. Coble was being held at the McLennan County Jail in lieu of $500,000 bail, Justice of the Peace David Pareya said.

Authorities said he is expected to be charged in the shooting deaths of his wife's parents once the district attorney's office completes its investigation.

Officials say that after Coble shot the three Tuesday evening, he bound and gagged his three daughters and a nephew and then abducted his wife.

The children were later found by Chad Stanley, 16, a friend of one of the daughters.

"We got them out of the house because they said he was coming back, and he said he was going to kill himself," Stanley said.

The incident ended late Tuesday after Coble, in what officials called a suicide attempt, crashed the car he and his wife were in near Meridian, about 45 miles northwest of Waco.

"The chase didn't last very long," said Bosque County chief deputy Dewell Harper. "The guy sped up to 80, then intentionally ran into a truck that had pulled over to the side of the road."

"That's what he was trying to do — suicide and another murder," Harper said.

The Cobles were not living together, said Lt. Coy Jones.

Rural mailboxes target of thief

Sheriff's deputies are investigating the theft of stamps and money from three rural mailboxes on the north side of Lake J.B. Thomas.

Ira Postmaster Leona Wiggins told officers at 12:40 p.m. Wednesday that one of her carriers, Perry Loveless, saw a man standing beside some mailboxes in that area Monday and that the man, driving a van, left when he saw Loveless.

Wiggins said stamps and money are missing from the mailboxes of Mrs. J.D. Blankenship, Mrs. Jess Murphy and Tommy Webb.

Coble was released from Goodall-Wichter Hospital on Wednesday morning and was transferred to jail.

Mrs. Coble remained in the hospital Wednesday after undergoing treatment for cuts and abrasions, according to a hospital spokesman.

The driver of the truck the Cobles' car hit also remained in stable condition in the hospital after undergoing treatment for cuts.

Law enforcement officials and friends of the Vichas said Wednesday that a series of disturbances relating to a pending divorce between Billie Wayne and Karen Coble preceded the killings.

Sgt. Roy Halsell of the Waco Police Department said Coble was arrested Aug. 4 and charged with false imprisonment. A McLennan County Grand Jury indicted Coble last Thursday on kidnapping, in relation to the in-ciliation."

A hearing on the divorce was to be held Friday. Vicha, an 18-year veteran of the police department, worked directly under Waco Police Chief Larry Scott, a police spokesman said.

Credit card disclosure rules may help consumers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Credit card disclosure rules taking effect today offer the nation's 107 million card holders a new opportunity to shop around for lower interest rates, consumer activists say.

Industry analysts, however, say they expect the new rules to have little impact — at least over the short haul.

The regulations, adopted by the Federal Reserve Board in April, require credit card issuers to disclose the interest rate, monthly fee, grace period and other terms in a chart on applications used to sign up customers.

Previously, the card's costs did not have to be disclosed until it arrived in the mail.

The new rules also require companies to notify existing customers in advance when their accounts are about to be renewed and another annual fee charged.

"Consumers should use the renewal notice as a reminder to switch cards and save," said Elgie Holstein, director of the Bankcard Holders of America, a consumer group. She advised cardholders to pay off their high-rate cards with a cash advance from a low-rate card.

The new rules apply to bank cards, such as Visa, MasterCard and Discover; to department store cards; and also to cards such as American Express and Diners Club, whose full balance must be paid monthly.

"I'm very hopeful that this will at least provide the edge to consumers to make better judgments," said Peggy Miller, a lobbyist for the Consumer Federation of America.

Miller and other consumer activists believe the regulations should force card companies to compete by lowering their interest rates and annual fees.

Bankers and analysts, however, say most cardholders probably won't see much decline.

"It's going to put some strain on banks charging above-market rates ... and some of the banks that have extremely low rates may see a little more business, but the vast majority are going to stay where they are," said Robert H. Burke, senior vice president of the Bank of New York.

"I don't think it's going to do much of anything," agreed Robert B. McKinley, publisher and editor of RAM Research's Bankcard Update, a Frederick, Md., newsletter that follows the industry.

McKinley said competition has increased in the past several years, but rates are still high, even in the dozen or so states such as California and New York that have their own disclosure laws.

Nationally, cards offered by banks had average interest rates of 18.28 percent in August and an average annual fee of $16.97, he said.

One reason interest rates are not lower is the growing concentration of the industry as large institutions buy out smaller credit card operations, said McKinley. Another is that consumers don't appear to pay much attention to interest rates.

Economists attribute the indifference to interest rates in part to the fact that most people intend to pay off their entire bill each month, avoiding interest charges. But a substantial portion don't follow through on their good intentions.

Although earlier disclosure of card terms should help card shoppers, McKinley said it still won't be easy to find cards with the lowest rates.

Big national operations, which do the most advertising and mail solicitation, generally charge higher rates and fees. The best bargains often come from banks and savings institutions that, at most, advertise only regionally.

Items stolen

Police are investigating the theft of a vacuum pump and an amp meter from a service truck belonging to Snyder Heating & Air Conditioning Co. at 4702 College Ave.

Anita Felan of the company told officers at 9:38 a.m. Wednesday that the equipment had been stolen.

Shoplifting

A 13-year-old girl was arrested for shoplifting at 6:29 p.m. Wednesday at Kmart.

Princess Anne, husband to separate

LONDON (AP) — Princess Anne, the only daughter of Queen Elizabeth II, is separating from her husband Mark Phillips after 15 years of marriage, Buckingham Palace announced today.

The 39-year-old princess and her 40-year-old husband do not plan to divorce, the announcement said.

The queen, on holiday at Balmoral, Scotland, was described by royal sources to be "obviously saddened" but to understand the couple's decision, which was taken in principle earlier this year, according to Press Association, Britain's domestic news agency.

"Her Royal Highness, the Princess Royal, and Capt. Mark Phillips have decided to separate on terms agreed between them," the announcement said. "There are no plans for divorce proceedings."

The terms of the separation were not disclosed but Anne will continue to live at the couple's home, Gatcombe Park in Gloucestershire, about 80 miles west of London. Phillips will move to another house nearby, the palace said.

The palace press office could not say whether this would be Aston Farm on the Gatcombe estate.

The couple's children, Peter, 11, and Zara, 8, will live with their mother at Gatcombe and Phillips will have full access to them, the palace said.

The separation had been disclosed Wednesday night by Phillips' father, Maj. Peter Phillips.

Rumors of trouble in the marriage date back to 1981. In recent years, Anne and Phillips have spent periods of up to six months apart.

Speculation that their marriage was on the rocks arose most recently in April, after personal letters written to Anne by a handsome 35-year-old aide to the queen, naval Cmdr. Timothy Laurence, were stolen and sent to the tabloid The Sun.

Phillips' name has been linked romantically with several women in British tabloid reports in recent years.

Releases into the air can be found anywhere from steel mills and refineries to the corner service station.

In addition to cancer, federal authorities concluded in the 1970s that chronic exposure to benzene also causes leukemia and birth defects and damages blood-forming organs.

Agency officials said. Benzene — a flammable, colorless liquid — is found widely in industry as a byproduct in steelmaking, in the production of styrofoam, as a component of gasoline and as an industrial solvent. It has many other uses.

According to one EPA official, as many as 100 million people across the country are exposed to some level of benzene pollution.

EPA said clamping down on emissions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government is about to clamp tight controls on how the cancer-causing chemical benzene is to be handled and stored by industrial users in the hope of cutting releases into the air by 90 percent.

The new controls, a dozen years in the making, were being announced today by the Environmental Protection Agency, agency officials said.

Government soldiers kill paramilitary squad

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Soldiers in northern Colombia killed five members of a paramilitary squad reportedly run by drug traffickers, and police today said more than 500 people were arrested for violating a curfew in Medellin. American dependents of U.S. Embassy employees were advised by the State Department to leave the country.

The 10 p.m.-to-6 a.m. curfew was imposed in Medellin and eight other cities as part of a nationwide crackdown on cocaine traffickers who have waged a campaign of assassinations, bombings and arson in recent weeks.

Medellin is considered the headquarters of the cartels that supply 80 percent of the cocaine to the United States. National police said in a communique that 530 people were arrested for violating the first day of the curfew. All but two had been released by this morning, a police spokesman in Medellin told The Associated Press.

Meanwhile, a paramilitary band believed affiliated with drug traffickers clashed with an army patrol in a remote area of the northern state of Cesar, the Colombian radio chain RCN quoted military sources as saying.

Five of the attackers were killed, RCN quoted the army sources as saying. Leftist guerrillas seeking to topple the government have generally been inactive during the recent war with drug lords, but new political violence broke out on Wednesday. Six insurgents of the National Liberation Army were killed and one soldier was wounded in a battle Wednesday in the state of Cesar, the Bogota morning daily El Tiempo said. Two policemen also were killed in a guerrilla ambush in the northeast state of Arauca, El Tiempo said, quoting police in Arauca. Meanwhile, 12 bodies were found in a shallow grave in the state of Cordoba, El Tiempo said. One of the victims reportedly was identified as a veterinarian kidnapped several months ago by leftist rebels.

Leftist guerrillas also executed 10 of their own ranks, apparently for suspicion of being traitors, El Tiempo said, quoting sources with the army's 2nd Division in the northern state of Sucre. In Medellin, a police force of 4,000 was on full alert and 18 special anti-terrorist units were stationed throughout the city. "Everything has started with no major inconveniences. People rushed to their homes shortly before the curfew time began and now the city is quiet," a spokesman at the Medellin Police Office said by telephone Wednesday night.

Drugs

"for-drugs" legislation intended to offer debt-relief incentives to Latin American nations to subsidize the withdrawal of farm land from producing coca crops, which are refined to produce cocaine.

A U.S. investment of $400 million in such a plan could free enough funds to subsidize the withdrawal of every acre in Bolivia, Colombia and Peru in coca production, said Biden, who plans to introduce the legislation when Congress reconvenes next month.

Sources who had seen the classified section of the draft containing information about proposed aid to the three Latin American countries had said the figure could reach $300 million, and National Security Adviser Brent Scowcroft indicated Tuesday that it would be even higher.

Scowcroft had included the $65 million in military equipment that Bush announced on Friday for Colombia. That money comes from a discretionary fund available for fiscal 1989, which ends Sept. 30. The strategy covers fiscal 1990.

Although Bush met with his top lieutenants in the drug war Tuesday at his vacation home in Kennebunkport, Maine, to discuss the strategy, the focus of the meeting was Colombia, sources said Wednesday.

"The fundamental issues of the strategy ... did not change," a third source said, noting that the final strategy had gone to the printer before the meeting occurred.

Colombia has been wracked with violence since President Virgilio Barco imposed emergency regulations allowing the immediate resumption of extraditions of alleged drug traffickers to the United States. The move came after the Aug. 18 assassination of a leading presidential candidate who was an outspoken foe of drug traffickers.

Colombian Justice Minister Monica de Greiff met for about 40 minutes Wednesday with Bennett, said Bennett spokesman Don Hamilton, who declined to say what Bush's final drug strategy provides for Colombia.

Mrs. de Greiff asked on Tuesday for $19 million in aid for judicial protection. The United States has so far pledged $2.5 million.

The crackdown on drug users called for in the strategy will start early, with a program allowing judges to strip student loans and other federal benefits from drug offenders expected to begin Friday.

The program, required by the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988, won't affect welfare, disability or Social Security benefits.

Singer

Asked what it's like to work on Ralph Emery's "Nashville Now" talk and variety show, she said, "It's not as easy of a job as it looks. We show up at 4:30 and rehearse, with new artists, about nine songs a night, and by the time you go on the air live at seven o'clock, you're hoping you remember them."

"But I like it live because taping can take a long time, sometimes. When it's live TV, you know we're through at 8:30." Some of her other recent projects have included singing backup on the hit records of new artist Clint Black, "Better Man" and "Killin' Time," and on Willie Nelson's new album, which has not yet been released.

She is also singing "Go, Spuds, Go," in the Spuds Mackenzie television commercial and can be heard on the "New Spirit of Dodge" jingle and in TV ads for McDonald's, All-State Insurance and the Sears Discover Card.

She often flies to Chicago to record jingles, she said.

One of Jana's best friends among the numerous musicians and actors who have come out of Snyder is Brad Maule, a singer-songwriter as well as an actor who has been on the cast of "General Hospital" for a number of years. "I'm trying to get him to come here and pursue his singing and songwriting," she said.

She said Snyder piano teacher Lynn Bethel was "probably my biggest influence in music" and that when she played recitals at the Martha Ann Woman's Club, "It was a big day for me."

Jana has also had success as a songwriter, contributing "Jump Into My Fire" to the Grammy Award-winning album of Etta James last year.

She has had the chance to record a solo album, "but I turned it down, and it was probably the right move because I'm making good money and I don't have to be on the bus," she said. "That's the big thing: I don't have to be on the bus."

She said a number of Snyder people have visited the show and have come backstage to meet her and that she always enjoys meeting people from Snyder, although she had not met some of them before.

The "Nashville Now" audience is estimated at 42 million.

Killer goes to the electric chair

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — A former textile worker was executed for raping and murdering the 61-year-old woman he stabbed 42 times with a butcher knife in her farmhouse 12 years ago.

Alton Wayne, 34, was put to death in the electric chair at the State Penitentiary late Wednesday.

The sentence was carried out following a day of appeals that ended with the U.S. Supreme Court voting 7-2 against postponement. Justices William J. Brennan and Thurgood Marshall, who oppose the death penalty under all circumstances, voted for a reprieve.

Earlier, Gov. Gerald L. Baliles denied clemency for Wayne. Wayne was baptized Tuesday night, and took communion before the execution.

In a final statement, he said: "I would express that what is about to take place is a murder. I don't hate anyone. I forgive everyone involved."

Wayne was convicted of murdering Lavergne B. Marshall, a widow who authorities testified had been beaten beyond recognition when her nude body was found in a bathtub in 1977. She had been bitten as well as stabbed, and the killer had poured laundry bleach on the body, according to testimony.

Amnesty International argued that Wayne should have been spared the death penalty because he is borderline mentally retarded.

Defense attorneys offered new evidence showing brain damage and diminished mental capacity. Richard H. Burr, a lawyer from the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund in New York, told an appeals panel that Wayne was deprived of an adequate psychiatric evaluation.

Dr. Gott

Peter Gott, M.D.

© 1989 NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm interested in maintaining my present weight. I've been told to calculate caloric intake by taking my age, subtracting 18 and multiply by 20. The total is subtracted from 2,100 to determine the total calories to be consumed daily without weight gain. Is this correct?

DEAR READER: Many schemes like the one you describe have been published to calculate proper caloric intake. They all have at least two failings.

First, the calculations are based on someone else's idea of "ideal" weight. This may not be appropriate for everyone. For example, you may be short and muscular or tall and slender. Depending on your body-build, you may need more — or fewer — calories to maintain your weight.

To a large degree, our body weights depend on our inherited, genetic makeup. You and I could weigh the same but, because of our genetic inheritance, we might burn calories (or store them as fat) at different rates. Therefore, on the same caloric regimen, you would gain and I would lose — or vice versa.

Second, calculations do not take into account physical activity. Take two people with the same weight, similar genes and identical caloric intake. One is a trained athlete, the other is sedentary. Obviously, the active person will require more calories to maintain weight than will the inactive individual.

Because of variations in genetically determined metabolism and activity levels, calculating calories is an inaccurate way to control weight.

I've found an easier, more useful way. If you weigh yourself weekly and adjust your caloric intake accordingly, you should be able to achieve and maintain the weight you wish. For instance, if you start off 10 pounds heavier than you want to be, reduce calories by eating less starch and fat and omitting alcohol and sugar.

When you reach your desired weight, relax the restrictions. Adjust every week. Anticipate holidays, when you are likely to eat more. This method will meet your caloric needs

Department studies stocking policy

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission chairman Charles Nash said proposed changes in the animal stocking policy will restore public confidence in the program that has recently been under fire.

"We're tightening it down a little bit, in closing those maybe existing loopholes that were there," Nash said Wednesday. "Before, we were not advised of any stockings. And I think that will be the major change."

The commission told Parks and Wildlife executive director Charles Travis to inform them monthly on all private stocking applications.

The animal stocking program became the object of criticism after allegations that the politically powerful may have received special treatment in and, at the same time, allow for genetic influences and exercise. Also, since your weight will probably not vary more than a few pounds a week, gaining or losing becomes a simple task involving "fine-tuning" your diet.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Weight Control Through Calorie Control." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

placing animals on their ranches.

News reports earlier this year told of several stockings of antelope, deer, fish and other animals onto lands owned by public officials, including House Speaker Gib Lewis, University of Texas Regent Louis Beecherl and former Parks and Wildlife Commission chairman Ed Cox Jr.

On Wednesday, Travis recommended the commission be told of any stocking request made by an elected or appointed state official.

But Commissioner Tim Hixon said that proposal "singles out a particular group. And I'm not sure it's entirely fair."

Hixon said perhaps all stocking requests could be publicly posted, but Commissioner Lee Bass said, "You may invite every poacher in the county to some guy's ranch."

No action taken in Penry case

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Board of Pardons and Poles said it was premature to act on a request to commute the death sentence of a mentally retarded man convicted of capital murder.

Curtis Mason, attorney for Johnny Paul Penry, had asked the board to commute his client's sentence to life in prison.

But spokeswoman Karin Armstrong said the board's policy is to await a commutation recommendation from a majority of the officials in the court in which the person is convicted.

"The board agreed that it was premature until trial officials take some action," she said Wednesday.

Penry, 33, who has the mentality of a 7-year-old, was convicted and sentenced to death for the slaying of Pamela Moseley Carpenter of Livingston. She is the sister of former Washington Redskins kicker Mark Moseley.

The U.S. Supreme Court in June voted to vacate Penry's death sentence for the October 1979 rape-slaying because the trial judge refused a defense attorney's request for further instructions to the jury concerning Penry's mental illness.

Last week, a federal judge entered an order sending Penry's case back to the trial court and the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals with instructions to retry him or commute his sentence.

"Hello, dear. Anything new in the Leona Helmsley trial?"

Communication ability enhanced

FORT BLISS, Texas (AP) — When it gathered with the Air Force and Marines in the deserts of Texas and New Mexico for two weeks of mock battles, the Army enjoyed a capability it had never seen before — it could easily communicate with its sister services.

For years, Army forces have been excluded from a network of information sharing between the Air Force, Marines and Navy because their radar equipment operates with a computer language incompatible with the language used by the other services.

But at Exercise Roving Sands, a giant military training exercise, members of the 11th Air Defense Artillery Brigade shared radar communication with the Air Force and Marines.
