Terrell, Gannaway...

Two more announce they will seek office

Two more county residents have announced their intentions to run for office in the March 13 primary election.

Marlin Terrell, retired Farm Bureau manager in Scurry County, will bid for county judge while Hermleigh area farmer Jerry Gannaway will run for county commissioner in precinct 4. Both are filing as Democrats.

The two latest office seekers join six others who announced their candidacy last weekend, including incumbent county judge Bobby Goodwin. The county judge race is the only contested race so far.

Others who announced their candidacies last weekend — all of whom are Democrats — are Frances Billingsley for county clerk; Tommy Pate for county commissioner, precinct 2; Elois Pruitt for district clerk; Wanda Rushing for peace justice, precinct 1; and Rita Staton for county treasurer.

Billingsley, Pate and Staton are incumbents.

The current justice of the peace in precinct 1, Dan Callaway, has indicated he will not run again, as has Polly Underwood, district clerk.

To date, no one has filed for peace justice in precinct 2, held by R.C. Nixon of Hermleigh, or for the unexpired term of former county attorney Michael S. Line, which is held by Leland "Pete" Greene.

Sunday was the first day to file in the March election. The final day to file is Jan. 2.

SHS drama presents comedy, 'Ah Wilderness,' for 3 nights

"Ah Wilderness," a gentle comedy about family life, has been chosen by the Snyder High School Drama Department as its winter theater production.

The play will open a three-night engagement Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Worsham Auditorium. General admission seats are $3 and reserved seats are $5.

Written by the distinguished

American playwright, Eugene O'Neill, the play tells the story of a young man just coming into adulthood, and of his trials and tribulations as he deals with love, his family and the future. The play is set in turn-of-the-century New England, and features extensive sets and costumes of that period.

A cast and crew of 25 students will be featured in the production. The young man, Richard, will be played by Coy Berryman. His parents, Nat and Essie Miller, will be portrayed by Corey McDaniel and Amber Adams. Emily King has been selected as his sister Mildred, and the role of his older brother, Art Miller, will be played by Chris Robbins.

Parking proposal is tabled after city council petitioned

More than a dozen Austin Ave. residents in the Snyder High School area debated advantages and disadvantages of a possible prohibition of parking there in a Monday night city council meeting, after which the item was tabled to allow time for city police to be consulted.

Proponents were led by Mr. and Mrs. Max L. Williams of 3732 Austin, who had presented a petition bearing the names of 18 residents who support the prohibition of parking on the east side of the street from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on weekdays between 38th and 40th Sts.

They also presented a letter from SHS Principal Rueben Gillespie that said establishing the no-parking area "will greatly reduce the chances of accidents."

"I assure you that, if all of the on-campus parking is taken advantage of, there is adequate parking for all student cars," Gillespie said in his letter to City Manager John Gayle.

Williams said SHS students park in street, rather than use school parking areas, "for convenience" and cause chaotic traffic every weekday morning, noon and afternoon.

Rick Hopper of 3728 Austin and a man who did not identify himself argued, however, that they own too many vehicles to be prohibited from parking on the street.

Mayor Troy Williamson said he might be reluctant to make the east side of the street a no-parking area because residents of the street would inevitably have visitors for whom there would be no parking.

After extensive discussion, Councilman Paul Zeck's motion was approved for the item to be tabled while city police are consulted to see if a workable situation might be reached.

Other business in the two-hour meeting included approval of a $1,000 contribution from the city's hotel-motel tax revenues for part of the expenses in publishing a new brochure for the county museum at Western Texas College.

Museum director Shirley Leftwich attended the meeting to seek a $1,698 contribution, but councilmen said $1,000 was the most the city could afford, with (see CITY, page 9)

Grand jury...

Woman also indicted in Garza murder case

A 22-year-old Sweetwater man and a Snyder woman were indicted for murder by a county grand jury Monday in the early Thanksgiving Day killing of Oscar Garza Jr. of Snyder.

Francisco D. "Frank" Limones Jr. and Diana R. Castro were among 17 people against whom true-bills were issued by the panel.

Limones had been arrested and charged in the slaying, but the case against Castro was not made public until after it had been presented to the grand jury.

Her age and address will not be officially recorded until she is arrested.

The indictment accuses her of "intentionally and knowingly encouraging and directing" Limones to shoot Garza in the forehead with a small-caliber pistol in the early morning hours of Thanksgiving Day in an apartment in the 1900 Block of Coleman Ave. in the northeastern part of town.

Limones was arrested on Sunday, following the Thursday shooting, in Sweetwater, and he is being held on a $100,000 bond. The grand jury issued nine sealed indictments against eight defendants whose names and charges will not be revealed until they are arrested.

A 24-year-old Price Daniel Unit inmate from El Paso, Sebastian N. Mizceles, was indicted for escape in his early Sunday escape over a fence at the unit. Mizceles was captured a few hours later, before dawn, by city police on the property of a northern Snyder construction company.

Four people were true-billed in the early Monday theft of a Texas Tech University student's car outside a Hermleigh convenience store — Brad Colburn, 20, and Danny R. Elder, 23, both of Osceola, Ark., Jim D. May, 59, of Modesto, Calif., and Beth Buckner, 21, of West Memphis, Ark.

Liborio S. Oliva, who had not been arrested, was indicted for indecency with a child in connection with an alleged July 12 incident involving a girl under 17 years of age.

Don R. Constancio, 18, of 1600 27th St. was indicted for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle in the alleged Nov. 13 theft of a 1973 Buick from Bobby Griffith.

The SDN Column

By Roy McQueen

The feller on Deep Creek says, "'Ouch' is the class yell from the school of hard knocks."

December, with all the holiday goodies, is the wrong time to even think about a diet. One suggested plan, "Calories That Don't Count," is perfect for those of us who mainly wish slim:

Food on foot: All food eaten while standing has no calories. Exactly why is not clear but the current theory relates to gravity. The calories apparently bypass the stomach flowing directly down the legs and through the soles of the feet into the floor, like electricity. Walking appears to accelerate the process, so that an ice cream bar or hot dog eaten in certain situations may actually have a calorie deficit.

TV food: Anything eaten in front of the TV has no calories. This may have something to do with radiation leakage, which negates not only the calories, but all recollections of having eaten it.

Uneven edges: Pies and cakes should be cut neatly, in even wedges or slices. If not, the responsibility falls on the person putting them away to straighten up the edges by slicing away the offending irregularities, which have no calories when eaten.

Food on toothpicks: Sausage, cocktail franks, cheese, and crackers are all fattening unless impaled on frilled toothpicks. The insertion of a sharp object allows the calories to leak out.

Charitable foods: Girl Scout cookies, bake sale items, ice cream and church dinners all have a religious dispensation from calories.

Custom-made food: Anything somebody makes just for you must be eaten regardless of calories, because to do otherwise would be uncaring and insensitive. It is believed that your kind-hearted intentions will not go unrewarded.

What the heck, go ahead and enjoy yourself this holiday season.

Q—Can you saw off a shotgun and be legal? If so, how long can it (the barrel) be?

A—A city policeman said a shotgun's barrel must be at least 18 inches long and its entire length at least 26 inches, or it is a prohibited weapon, the possession of which is a second-degree felony, punishable by two to 20 years' imprisonment and up to a $10,000 fine.

In Brief

New Cabinet

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP) — One of the nation's two republics today named a government dominated by non-Communists following rallies nationwide that denounced the Communists and demanded a new federal government.

In the Czech republic, parliament accepted the resignations of 11 ministers in the regional government and sacked Communist deputy premier Jaroslav Tlapak, the state-run news agency CTK reported.

House arrest

EAST BERLIN (AP) — Former Communist Party chief Erich Honecker and other members of his ousted leadership have been put under house arrest at their luxury residential compound, the official news agency ADN said today.

Also, East Germany's chief prosecutor resigned amid criticism he could not handle investigations into abuses of power by ousted Communist leaders. Citizens began to keep vigil at police stations.

Honecker lost his job in a major power reshuffle on Oct. 18 and on Sunday he was ousted from the party he had led for 18 years.

Convict released by mistake

WACO, Texas (AP) — A convicted armed robber who was hurriedly sent to prison because officials considered him dangerous was released after only eight days because of an error by McLennan County officials.

Authorities say Clendon Ladon Cooper, a three-time convicted felon from Mart, was released from the Texas Department of Corrections eight days after he was sent there early by McLennan County officers.

Capt. Dan Weyenberg of the sheriff's department said the mistake was made by his department.

"We just screwed up. There is no question about it," he said.

The early release has left county officials pointing fingers at each other and at least one prosecutor, whom Cooper threatened during his trial, worried about his family's safety.

A McLennan County jury on Nov. 10 sentenced 23-year-old Cooper to 50 years in prison and fined him $10,000 in the July 14 sawed-off shotgun robbery of a Mart convenience store.

Deputies wanted to ship Cooper off to prison as soon as they could because he was considered a troublemaker in jail, Weyenberg said. But deputies did not wait for the district clerk's office to prepare a prison commitment order and put Cooper on the prison bus Nov. 22 based on his status as a parole violator.

But prison officials will not accept a prisoner without a commitment order from the judge of the presiding court.

Weyenberg is not sure if deputies did, but he said someone should have told prison officials to put a "hold" on Cooper until a commitment order could be drawn up and sent to Huntsville.

Official's memo stirs controversy

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Hispanic rights activist is asking FBI Director William S. Sessions to look into a Colorado City official's claim that prosecutors and the FBI were "on our side" in an investigation of the fatal police shooting of a rape suspect.

Colorado City Manager Brenda Hammond said City Attorney Tom Rees "assumed" the FBI, state and local prosecutors were on their side after a grand jury declined last month to indict the officer who shot 27-year-old Sammy Gomez in the back of the head during a scuffle.

In an undated memo to the city council, Ms. Hammond said Rees had "advised us to keep going like we have been since we now have everyone on our side — the district attorney, the attorney general's office and the F.B.I. and to hold to the hope that the statute of limitation (sic) will expire since we only lack a little over 5 months."

Jose Garcia De Lara, national president of the League of United Latin American Citizens, said the memo confirms his belief the investigation was "one hell of a railroad job ... (that) would put a Barnum & Bailey Circus performance to shame."

Rees did not return repeated phone calls from The Associated Press on Monday.

Ron Dusek, a spokesman for state Attorney General Jim Mattox, said it is "just preposterous" for Rees "to even suggest that the state attorney general's office or the FBI would be on his side."

"We all went in to do an independent, objective investigation. There was a grand jury that could have indicted, but the grand jury chose not to indict. This memo is nonsense," Dusek said.

All five Hispanics on the panel, however, resigned in protest last month after the officer was cleared, saying the proceedings were a "railroad job performed by the state and the district attorney's office." The grand jurors later rejoined the panel.

Ms. Hammond said Monday she wrote the memo after the grand jury declined to indict.

"Since we had not had any indictments as a result of the grand jury — since, all (the agencies cited) had testified, the city attorney said he assumed that meant everyone was on our side," Ms. Hammond said.

Dusek said no one on Mattox's staff has ever spoken with the city attorney or the city manager.

"The city attorney is apparently trying to sound important to his employer, and is just bragging that he knows something about the case," Dusek said. "Obviously, he didn't know anything."

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Conditions in general look favorable for you today, but the fly in the ointment could be your inability to keep secrets relating to information that might be self-defeating.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Your initial assessments about commercial situations should be on target today. If you don't act when inspired, your back-up plans may not be as effective.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Major achievements are possible today if you approach your objectives in a methodical fashion. Be sure you have a game plan for each of your goals.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) There's a possibility you might be intimidated by your own vivid imagination today. Face issues squarely and you'll find your fears are groundless.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) From time to time we all experience mood swings. Today if you have to deal with cranky pals, excuse their behavior the same as you would hope they would yours.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) When seeking advice today pertaining to an impor-

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Don't waste valuable time today looking for easy outs. If you face up to your challenges, you'll be able to overcome them and take pride in being an achiever.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Strive for equity today between work and pleasure, but be very careful you don't unconsciously tip the scales toward the fun activities.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) This can't be a very rewarding day for you, provided you're able to do things as you see fit, instead of outside influences being constructive; they could slow you down.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Companions who have petty traits will be annoying to you today. Try to associate with people who abide by your standards and are as broad minded as you are.

but note how Australian Ron Klinger's unusual lead won the battle of wits. South became declarer by responding naturally in hearts. (Many of us would use three clubs, asking for a major.)

If West makes a normal club lead, declarer will simply win dummy's ace and play a club. East will win and probably return a diamond. Now declarer can cash dummy's K-Q of diamonds while throwing a spade, and then play A-K of hearts and throw East on lead once again with the heart queen. The defenders will take only three tricks, since East must now either play away from the Q-5 of spades or give a sluff and a ruff.

Try it with the actual lead of the diamond three (no peeking). Declarer won the king in dummy, played K-A of hearts and led another diamond. Klinger followed low. Well, what would anyone think? Obviously East must have ducked with the ace of diamonds at trick one. So declarer put in the 10 of diamonds. East won the jack, cashed the queen of hearts and played the king of clubs. Declarer ruffed a diamond, played one high spade, and then got off lead with a club. But East won and played still another club. South could ruff, pitching a spade from dummy, but South now took the percentage play of finessing the spade jack. Down one.

Dusters pull away for 62-43 cage win

By PHIL RIDDLE
SDN Sports Editor

It took a while for the offenses to get untracked in Monday's WTC Lady Dusters-Clarendon College basketball game.

With over 11 minutes gone in the first half the score was just 5-5 in favor of the Western Texas squad.

The WTC women found their offense in the second half, though, and cruised to a 62-43 win over the Lady Bulldogs.

Bobbie Brown popped a three-pointer at 7:39 in the opening half to start an 11-2 Duster streak that would stretch their lead to 16-6.

Sloppy play on the part of the Dusters and atrocious officiating let Clarendon within a point at 18-17 at the intermission.

The Lady Bulldogs tied the contest on two occasions in the second half and even went ahead, 29-28, at the 13:20 mark before Tami Wilson took over the game for the Dusters.

Wilson grabbed an offensive rebound and layed in a shot to give WTC back the lead at 30-29.

Carla Gladden, the WTC point guard, snatched a defensive board and moved the ball downcourt before passing to Wilson who drove the lane for another two.

Jeana Stockett hit a three-point goal at 11:09 in the second half followed by another lay-up from Wilson to put the Dusters up by eight at 37-29.

Wilson tacked on three more points to finish a 14-2 WTC run with just under eight minutes left in the game.

Tracy Edmunds hit a bucket for the WTC women with 1:11 left in the tilt to give them their biggest lead of the contest at 62-42.

Wilson paced the WTC five with 23 points on ten baskets and three of six free throws.

Bobbie Brown added nine and Jeana Stockett and Vicky Jones tacked on eight each.

The win raises the Lady Dusters' record to 12-1 on the season and moves Clarendon to 3-2.

Frank Phillips College will be in Snyder to battle the Lady Dusters Thursday at 6 p.m. in the Scurry County Coliseum in the NBA glance

99-83 in WJCAC tilt...

WTC muzzles 'Dogs

By PHIL RIDDLE
SDN Sports Editor

Western Texas College's Westerners capped the first half of their game against the Clarendon College Bulldogs Monday with a 13-4 run, including an Allen Smith hoop at the buzzer, to take a 48-33 halftime lead.

The Westerners flexed their offensive muscles in the second half, going ahead by as much as 27 points before putting the game away at 99-83.

The WTC men picked up in the second half where they had left off in the first moving the ball and shooting well, as well as playing tenacious defense. To grab a 24-point lead at 70-46 on a Dominick Byrd slam-dunk.

Jeff Shelley followed a Clarendon miss with a three-pointer to set the score at 73-48 in favor of the Westerners.

The Bulldogs scored four unanswered points before Shelley came back on a six footer followed by a pretty bank off the glass by Ray Johnson.

Lester White and Johnson each hit a free throw before Shelley struck again grabbing an offensive rebound and putting it in for an 81-55 lead for WTC at the 9:38 mark of the second half.

Shelley stretched the lead to 27 points at 95-68 with four and a half minutes left in the game on a hoop from the top of the key.

Byrd and Shelley led the Westerners in scoring with 21 and 18 points, respectively.

Byrd scored on seven buckets and seven of 11 free-throws while Shelley's total came on seven hoops and a pair of free tosses on two attempts.

Cedric Mason with 14, Johnson with 11 and Tony Joyce and Allen Smith with 10 each were the other Westerners in double figures on the evening. Clarendon finished with a flurry scoring a 15-4 run in the closing three minutes of the contest.

"We know we have to win the games at home," said WTC coach Tony Mauldin after the game.

"We played very well at times during the game. Just before the half, in the middle of the second half, but we let them catch up to us a little at the end. We got sloppy."

He added, "They have a scrappy team, too. They never stopped coming at us even when we got ahead by 25-30 points."

The victory evens the Westerners' conference record at 1-1 and raises their overall slate to 11-3.

The next action for the Western Texas crew will be Thursday as Frank Phillips College blows in for an 8 p.m. contest at the Scurry County Coliseum.

Bills drop Monday thriller, 17-16, to Seattle Seahawks

SEATTLE (AP) — The Buffalo Bills have made winning plays much of the season. The Seattle Seahawks most definitely have not.

Surprise! Guess who made the most big plays Monday night.

The Seahawks (5-8) broke a four-game slide and handed the Bills a damaging 17-16 defeat. It was Buffalo's fourth straight road loss and just about ruined the Bills' chances of catching Denver for the AFC's best record.

The game was won with 5:38

Snyder frosh edge S'water

Stephen Bollinger ripped the Sweetwater defense for 25 points as the Snyder freshmen boys defeated the Mustangs, 58-55, in overtime Monday.

Snyder was put in an early hole as Sweetwater scored 20 points in the opening quarter to the Tigers' 13.

The Mustangs outscored Snyder, 15-10, in the second period to go in ahead 35-23 at the half.

Snyder's defense was the key in the third quarter as Sweetwater was allowed just six points.

Snyder's 17 in the period lessened the Mustangs' advantage to 41-40.

The teams ended regulation play knotted at 51.

Bollinger hit a pair of baskets in the overtime period and Tory Garza hit three free throws for the difference.

The win ups the frosh slate to 2-1.

Their next contest is against Big Spring at 10 a.m. Saturday in the SHS gym.

SNYDER: Bollinger 10 5-6 25, Stansell 0 4-4 4, Beretta 5 0-0 10, Garza 1 6-8 8, Ware 3 0-3 6, Richardson 1 3-4 5, Wilson 0 0-1 0, TOTALS 20 18-31 58.

SWEETWATER: Davis 2 0-0 4, Gomez 1 2-2 4, Boyd 0 2-5 2, Franklin 1 0-2 2, Moore 9 3-8 21, Stephens 4 1-4 9, Bredemeyer 6 1-5 13, TOTALS 23 9-28 55.

Total fouls: Snyder 21, Sweetwater 24. Fouled out: Snyder-Richardson. Record: Snyder 2-1. Snyder 13 10 17 11 7 58. Sweetwater 20 15 6 10 4 55.

remaining when Dave Krieg scrambled away from a strong rush, lobbed the ball over linebacker Ray Bentley and hit John L. Williams. The speedy fullback ran down the right sideline, got a crushing block from Brian Blades and knocked over Nate Odomes as he stepped into the end zone to complete a 51-yard score.

"It was one of those impromptu plays that Dave is good at making," said Williams, who spoke with CBS Radio and then refused to talk to other reporters and left the locker room. "We were running that play all game and he never threw it to me."

"Blades made a good block on the play. I had to get it in the end zone some way. I knew we had to get it in there at that particular time."

It was the last of a bunch of key plays on both sides. Earlier, on a similar play, Krieg hit rookie tight end Travis McNeal for 48 yards. That was Seattle's longest play of the year — until the winning touchdown.

Curt Warner scored from the 1-yard line soon after McNeal's catch and run. But the extra point was an adventure.

SHS boys and girls in non-district tilts

Snyder's Tigers will attempt to extract a little revenge for their Friday night 72-60 defeat as they host the Golden Tors of Lamesa tonight.

Snyder, 1-4 on the year, has been tabbed by District 4-4A coaches to challenge for a post-season tournament spot.

In their last meeting Tracey Brazier scored 19 points and Lee Hamilton added 13 to lead the Snyder bunch.

The Lady Tigers will be on the court in Tahoka for a 6 p.m. basketball game following their weekend tournament in Coahoma.

Snyder took the consolation prize in the event by defeating Blackwell, 62-57, Saturday.

Liz Greathouse tossed in 18 points and Ann Osborn, who was later named All-Tournament, added 14 to pace the Black and Gold girls.

A junior varsity game scheduled for 6 p.m. in Tahoka has been cancelled, so the varsity clubs will face off in that time slot.

In other area cage action tonight, Ira is at Westbrook at 6:30 p.m., Hermleigh is at Abilene Christian High School at 6:30 p.m. and Borden County hosts Jayton at 5 p.m.

Conference group plans to finish today

AUSTIN (AP) — Sen. Gene Green, the "Lone Ranger" on a House-Senate conference committee considering a workers' compensation reform measure, said if the panel doesn't accept his amendments today the Legislature will remain deadlocked on the issue.

"We need to have a compromise bill and that's what I'm trying to pass," Green, D-Houston, said. The panel is expected to finish its work today and send a bill to the full House for consideration Wednesday and the Senate on Thursday.

Green is the only member of the 10-member panel who voted against a House reform plan that is backed by business groups, Gov. Bill Clements, Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby and House Speaker Gib Lewis.

Despite the Senate's 17-14 rejection of the House plan, Hobby, the presiding officer of the Senate, packed the committee with those who support his position.

But Green said if the House doesn't give in, none of those 17 senators will switch their votes. Green's amendments would move the plan closer to the Senate's proposal by maintaining an injured workers' right to a jury trial and calculating benefits for permanent injuries based on lost wages due to the extent of the injury.

A two-vote swing in the 31-member Senate would give the business lobby a workers' comp overhaul that trial lawyers and labor groups say would prevent workers from receiving fair benefits for permanent injuries and impartial treatment in disputed comp claims.

Rumors flew through the Capitol Monday over whether any of the 17 senators intended to switch sides.

"They're still solid," said Sen. Carl Parker, D-Port Arthur, who has led the fight against the business-supported plan. "They will not be bludgeoned by an unjust bill and that bill is grossly unjust."

Sen. Judith Zaffirini, D-Laredo, a target of the business lobby as a possible vote switcher, said she will demand several changes before supporting a reform plan.

Woman improving after transplant

PITTSBURGH (AP) — With his wife showing signs of progress after the world's first heart, liver and kidney transplant, John Martin was on the telephone in a delicate conversation. On the line was the husband of the donor.

The talk was brief, said Dimitri Mavris, whose wife, 26-year-old Auli, died from injuries suffered in a freak automobile accident. Auli Mavris' organs were transplanted into 26-year-old Cindy Martin in Pittsburgh on Monday.

"He said, 'You have given us a great gift,' and I said, 'She would have wanted it that way. Our prayers are with you and your wife,'" Mavris said.

Mrs. Mavris was killed after being struck by a car driven by a neighbor in a parking lot by her apartment in Atlanta, when she was taking a load of trash to a bin.

Mrs. Martin remained in critical condition, considered normal after transplant surgery, in Presbyterian-University Hospital's intensive care unit. Doctors said Monday they were encouraged by her progress and planned to wean her from a respirator. They said infection had become her greatest risk.

"Hopefully, she will go home in three or four weeks," said Dr. John Armitage, who performed the heart transplant.

Another man arrested in car theft case

A 20-year-old Osceola, Ark., man was arrested Monday morning east of Snyder as the fourth suspect in a midnight car theft near Hermleigh.

A county sheriff's deputy took Brad Colburn into custody at 7 a.m. Monday in the parking lot of the Willow Park Inn on the felony unauthorized use of a motor vehicle charge.

Colburn was arrested in connection with the 12:34 a.m. Monday theft of a 1984 Nissan Pulsar from Texas Tech University student Jimmy D. Brown at the Allsup's convenience store off U.S. 84 at Hermleigh.

Officers had already arrested three other people for UUMV at 12:54 a.m. Monday at Huffman Ave. and U.S. 84 — 23-year-old Danny R. Elder of Osceola, 59-year-old Jim D. May of Modesto, Calif., and 21-year-old Beth Buckner of West Memphis, Ark.

Investigators believe that the four were traveling in two cars when one of them broke down and Colburn went to Allsup's and took Brown's car, the deputy said.

Then Colburn is believed to have given the other three the stolen car and to have continued in his own vehicle, after which he returned to Snyder in an attempt to have some money wired to him, the officer said.

He said the car had broken down about a half-mile from the convenience store and was abandoned there.

Bonds of $5,000 were set for each of the four, but May's bond was revoked when a felony DWI warrant on him from Arkansas was discovered.

Registration cards being mailed out

AUSTIN—By Christmas, Texas' new two-year voting certificates should be in the hands of the state's 8.2 million registered voters.

A statewide mailout of the postcard-type certificate is under way and they will be effective from Jan. 1, 1990-Dec. 31, 1991.

All registered voters should receive one of these cards. Those not already registered may call the county clerk's office to get a voter registration application.

The deadline for registering to vote in the March 13, 1990 primary is Feb. 11, 1990.

For more information call 1-800-252-VOTE.

Winners are announced in local contest

Winning the judge's choice award was a contemporary Texas theme tree decorated with silk poinsettias, cotton bolls, green peppers and ribbon with a ceramic cow skull for a topper.

Other ribbons in the Parade of Trees judging went to Edward D. Jones & Co., the WTC computer science dept., Children's Day Out, the WTC AV-LRC, the WTC cosmetology dept., The Shack, Snyder Jaycees, Cornett Realtors, Bigham & Sons House Moving, Honey Dos' Extension Homemakers, and Permian Communications.

Ribbons for wreaths went to the 20th Century Club, the WTC office careers dept., the Just 'Til Christmas shop, Keaton Kolor, Trinity, United Methodist Church's Rainbow School, The Shack, and Cornett Realtors.

The trees and wreaths are to remain on exhibit until Dec. 14 and the public is invited to see them during regular museum hours Monday through Friday and from 1-4 p.m. on Sundays. The museum's large tree features a Texas theme and will remain in place until the museum closes for the Christmas-New Year holiday on Dec. 15.

Police check theft of money

Police are investigating the theft of an undisclosed amount of money from a cash register at Wal-Mart.

Store manager L.C. Green reported the theft at 1:42 p.m. Monday, and officers said it would be investigated as a misdemeanor Class B theft, or a theft of more than $20 but less than $200.

Exact amounts of stolen money are usually not disclosed because a suspect's or cohort's knowledge of the amount is a key element of an investigation.

Dr. Gott

Peter Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Four years ago, I had surgery for medullary cancer of the thyroid. I now have a right paralyzed vocal cord from scar tissue and radiation therapy. My voice is very weak, and I cough constantly. My doctor has suggested Teflon injections into the vocal cord. Do you think this would help?

DEAR READER: I am not an ear-nose-and-throat specialist, so I won't comment on whether a Teflon injection would be appropriate for you.

The purpose of the Teflon injection is to stabilize and stiffen a vocal cord that has been injured. Such an injury may follow neck surgery or irradiation if one of the laryngeal nerves, which control movement of the vocal cords, is severed or impaired.

In patients who have had surgery for thyroid cancer, doctors would naturally worry that either the tumor had spread and/or post-operative scar tissue might be the cause of hoarseness and cough. In these instances, surgery to remove malignant cells and scar tissue would be more appropriate than Teflon injections.

If you feel uncomfortable about the advice given by your doctor, I suggest you seek a second opinion from another ear-nose-and-throat specialist.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Viruses and Cancer." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Please tell me about the new drug for Parkinson's disease.

DEAR READER: Selegiline (Eldepryl) has recently been approved by the Food and Drug Administration for treatment of severe Parkinson's disease. It is used in combination with the standard drug therapy, levodopa. Selegiline inhibits an enzyme that inactivates levodopa. Formerly, many patients taking levodopa developed a tolerance to the drug, requiring larger and larger doses, resulting in severe side effects, such as nausea, flushing, confusion, palpitations and involuntary body movements.

Now, with selegiline, less levodopa can be administered. This permits Parkinson's patients to maintain a more satisfactory and lasting functional independence.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I would like information on amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS). Thank you.

DEAR READER: Amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (Lou Gehrig's disease) is a nerve disease of unknown cause marked by progressive, incurable weakness of many muscles. This leads to hand, arm and leg weakness, difficulty speaking, inability to swallow, cramps and severe muscle wasting. The respiratory muscles are involved late in the disease.

Treatment consists of physical therapy (to help maintain muscle function), muscle relaxants (to reduce cramping), gastrostomy (to maintain nutrition through a feeding tube) and respiratory assistance. The course of the disease is not entirely predictable; 20 percent of patients survive more than five years.

2 announce candidacies Marlin Terrell for county judge

Marlin Terrell has announced that he will be a candidate for election to office of Scurry County judge.

Terrell will run on the Democratic ticket, opposing incumbent Bobby Goodwin.

Terrell retired earlier this year after over 30 years in the insurance business with Farm Bureau Insurance Companies. He is also a stock farmer.

Terrell, who graduated from high school in Prosper, Texas, north of Dallas, came to Snyder in 1965 and worked with Farm Bureau Insurance until May of this year.

He has been a Rotarian for 18 to 20 years and is a former Rotary Club president. He and his wife, Joritta, are members of the Presbyterian Church. Terrell has been an elder in Presbyterian churches since he was 21.

He and his wife have two children — Gary, who is an attorney in Lubbock, and Judy, a registered nurse in Greenwood — and five grandchildren.

Terrell has attended classes at Texas A&M University, served as a city councilman in Iowa Park, and won numerous awards through the Farm Bureau.

Terrell said he was motivated to run for county judge because, "First, I think we need some responsible people in that office, some person who has been successful in business. And we need to have some restraints on spending," he added. "I'd like the opportunity to serve the people of Scurry County."

Jerry Gannaway for Pct. 4 commissioner

Jerry Gannaway has announced his candidacy as a Democrat for county commissioner, precinct 4, in the upcoming March 13 primary election.

Gannaway was born and reared in Hermleigh, where he continues to reside. He is a graduate of Hermleigh school.

"I'd appreciate an opportunity to serve people of Precinct 4 and I think I can do them a good job," said Gannaway, a long-time farmer in the Hermleigh area.

Gannaway attended classes at San Angelo Junior College, now Angelo State University, and at Sul Ross State University in Alpine.

He is experienced in government, having served on the China Grove Gin board for 12 years, the Hermleigh school board nine years and the American Cotton Growers board for two years. He also served on the Sweetwater Rolling Plains Cotton Compress board of directors for seven years and on the executive board for five years.

Gannaway also worked on the Precinct 4 road and bridge crew for 11 years.

He and his wife, Kathy, are members of the First Baptist Church in Hermleigh. They have three children, Ricki of Tulsa; Billy Joe, a student at Western Texas College; and Stephanie, a student at Hermleigh. They also have one grandchild.

its annual $7,200 donation to the AJRA National Finals Rodeo and other events being considered.

Russell Jones Jr. appeared and then withdrew his proposal to obtain a water tap for a lot he owns outside the city limits at 910 N. College Ave., saying a dispute over the tap by which his property is served from an adjoining lot will apparently have to be settled in court.

A relative of the adjoining property owner attended the meeting to denounce Jones for his proposal, and city legal consultant Ernie B. Armstrong suggested to her that Jones' proposal to pay for his own tap and line should not be offensive to the other parties.

Jones said he does not want to use the existing two-lot tap.

An ordinance was passed on second reading to approve updated service credits for the Texas

Municipal Retirement System, with council members Mike Thornton, Ralph Williamson and Vernest Tippens voting "yes" and Zeck casting a "no" vote.

The item was voted against on first reading last month by Zeck and councilmen Joe Coronado and Jack Greene Jr., who did not attend Monday night's meeting.

Under "new business" on the 6:30 p.m. agenda, consideration of entering into a contract with Scurry County for the mutual use of city and county equipment was dismissed without discussion, city staff members said after the meeting, because county commissioners had passed word to the city that they were not interested.

The proposal was to exchange the use of a county roadgrader for the city's track-wheeled loader, they said.

Councilmen authorized the city staff to advertise for bids for a new bulldozer to be used at the city landfill, and a $12,954 bid from Sensus Technologies of Rio Rancho, N.M., formerly known as Rockwell International, was accepted for the purchase of an automated meter-reading system.

The system will have 25 routes with an average of 410 meters per route, customer services director Carolyn House noted.

A resolution was adopted to close 24th St. between Aves. Y and Z — an area that has never been open as a street.

The recent election of Scurry County Appraisal District board members Doug Flynn, John Reed, Julius Roemisch, Mickey Sterling and Billy J. Voss was acknowledged. The various taxing entities served by the district, including the city, elected the new members, although Snyder Independent School District and Scurry County have the dominant number of votes in the weighted balloting.

Victim's relatives file suit

HOUSTON (AP) — A wrongful death suit has been filed against the city of Houston, the police department and a restaurant and club by the parents and children of a woman who was killed in a freeway shootout with an off-duty police officer.

The suit, which seeks unspecified damages, was filed Monday by relatives of Ida Lee Shaw Delaney, 50. It also names as defendants Houston Police Department officers Alex Gonzalez, Robert Gonzalez Jr. and Alexander Moreno.

The suit also alleges that Tequila's Restaurant and Club continued to serve alcoholic beverages to the three off-duty officers although they were intoxicated in the hours immediately before Mrs. Delaney was shot to death in a shootout with Alex Gonzalez on Southwest Freeway.

The suit said the city and HPD have a history of tolerating excessive force by officers "to such an extent it has become custom and habit."

The suit also alleges the city and HPD do not maintain proper screening techniques for potential officers, allowing possibly volatile candidates to use excessive force on citizens, constituting negligence.

A Harris County grand jury is investigating the Delaney killing.

Observers say...

Wall's departure unfair, but necessary

DALLAS (AP) — M. Danny Wall had become the focal point of problems in the thrift industry, say observers who hope his departure as chief regulator will speed up resolution at crumbling institutions.

Wall drew praise from Texans for his Southwest Plan mergers of insolvent thrifts, but most said his resignation, which was announced Monday, will be beneficial.

"On balance, he did a very good job of finding solutions," said Robert Rieke, banking analyst at Dallas brokerage Rauscher Pierce Refsnos Inc. However Rieke said Wall had become an impediment to progress because of the focus on his activities surrounding Lincoln Savings and Loan in Irvine, Calif.

Critics have suggested Wall kept Lincoln open because of political pressure from five senators who received campaign contributions from thrift owner Charles Keating.

Rieke complained that the focus on Lincoln, which will require an estimated $2.5 billion in a federal bailout, has drawn at-

In Czechoslovakia...

Soviets set to reduce force

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has indicated it is ready to pull out some of the estimated 80,000 troops it has kept in Czechoslovakia since Soviet tanks spearheaded a 1968 invasion that crushed "Prague Spring" reforms.

The announcement by Tass came on the same day the Soviet Union and four other Warsaw Pact allies that took part in the invasion jointly denounced it.

The official Soviet news agency said Foreign Minister Eduard Shevardnadze met Monday with Foreign Minister Jaromir Johanes of Czechoslovakia to discuss deployment of Soviet troops in the East bloc country.

"It was decided to begin appropriate Soviet-Czechoslovak consultations with the understanding that this issue should be tackled in accordance with the ongoing European disarmament process," Tass said.

"Reduction of armed forces and armaments on condition of maintaining European balance ... is the indispensable guarantee of stability in Europe."

According to figures from the rival North American Treaty Organization, the Warsaw Pact has 3 million full-time military personnel in Europe, compared with 2.2 million for the Western alliance. Pact statistics in contrast claim rough parity: 3.6 million for NATO and 3.5 million for the East bloc.

Bulgaria, East Germany, Hungary, Poland and the Soviet Union issued their first-ever joint statement condemning the invasion, which they had defended for nearly two decades, at the end of a one-day Warsaw Pact meeting Monday.

"The dispatch of the armies of the five socialist countries to Czechoslovakia in 1968 was an act of interference in domestic affairs of sovereign Czechoslovakia and should be condemned," Tass reported.

For months, following momentous political change in Eastern Europe, all the signers of Monday's announcement except the Soviets condemned the invasion of their ally.

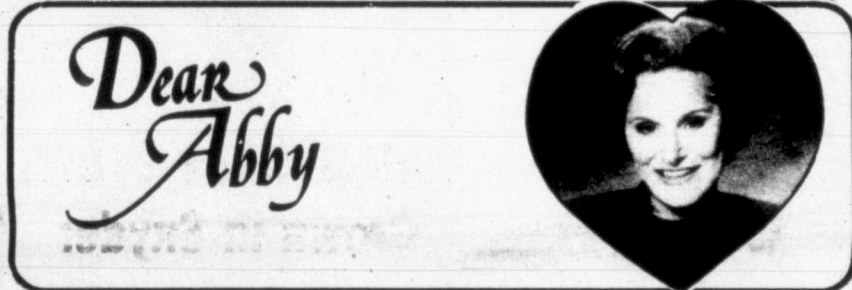

Romania was not a party to Monday's statement. Its hard-line leader Nicolae Ceausescu, attended the meeting but his country refused to take part in the invasion.

Ironically, Ceausescu is reported to have urged a Warsaw Pact invasion of Poland in August, when it became the first East bloc country to seat a government not led by Communists.

In a separate statement Monday, the Soviet government admitted the decision to send troops into Czechoslovakia in 1968 to crush a Communist-led reform movement "was erroneous in light of all facts known now."

Woman Shrouded In Smoke At Last Has Seen the Light

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1989 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: My family has been trying to get me to stop smoking for the last 10 years. I would always try to pacify them all by saying that one of these days I would quit — regardless if I really meant it or not. And then something happened to me that completely changed my way of thinking.

I was at my sister's home one afternoon, and as I was leaving, my 4-year-old niece came running out the door after me. She had a newspaper clipping in her hand, she grabbed a hold of me and hugged me, told me she loved me, and then asked me to read the clipping to her. The article was from your newspaper column, and it was a letter that a woman from Denver had written to you. Her name was Susan Ortez, and she had recently lost her mother to emphysema and pneumonia — this woman's mother smoked for 50 years.

I began to cry as I read this letter and finally realized that I was putting my family through a lot of unnecessary pain because of my unwillingness to break a habit. My family is more important to me than anything, and I would never do anything to intentionally hurt them. I understand their reasons now, and am happy to say that I have quit smoking!

I want very much for this woman in Denver to know what an impact her letter had on my life. My thanks to her for having the courage to write, to you for allowing your readers to see it, and to my niece, Heather, for loving me!

HOLLY SMITH, WICHITA, KAN.

DEAR HOLLY: Thanks for a great letter. Meet a soul sister in Phoenix!

DEAR ABBY: Every morning, I get up, get the morning paper, fix my cup of tea, light a cigarette and take a series of pills. I have chronic obstructive pulmonary disease and was placed on a respirator for seven days at the age of 38. I was in terrible shape, and lived only through the grace of God and the prayers of my two daughters, ages 16 and 19.

I am very much aware that smoking is a hard habit to break because I have honestly tried to quit — but I could never stay quit.

Abby, I want you to know that the letter you had in the column from Susan Ortez inspired me so much that I cut it out and hung it on my refrigerator door. Tomorrow morning, I am going to get up, get the morning paper, fix my cup of tea, take my pills and not light a cigarette.

Thank you, Abby. Thank you, Susan. Wish me luck.

B.J. OF PHOENIX

DEAR ABBY: Some friends of mine have an infant whom I love as if he were family. I am touched that they trust me enough to let me take care of him occasionally. While he was napping one day, I went in to check on him, as all of us baby-tenders do almost automatically, and a terrifying thought suddenly struck me! What would I do if he weren't OK? What if I didn't see his little chest rising and falling with each breath? What would I do, besides panic?

I had thought about taking a CPR class for years but never got around to it. That's no longer true. It took only a few hours. I hope I never have to use it, but at least now I know I'll never have to live with, "If only I had ..."

My message is directed to everyone else who has considered taking a CPR class but hasn't gotten around to it yet. Call your local hospital or Red Cross chapter and enroll in the next class before it's too late.

JOANN AMORE, NORMAL, ILL.

DEAR JOANN: I have suggested CPR courses before, but it's an important message that bears repeating. Thanks for the nudge.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the girl who spoke for "the single ones" — she thought single people should be entitled to bring a date (or escort) to a wedding. Doesn't she realize that most catered weddings cost anywhere from $25 to $75 per person?

If she doesn't feel comfortable at a wedding without a date, she should decline the invitation and use the money she would have spent on a wedding gift to invite a man of her choice out for an evening of dinner and dancing. Believe me, she wouldn't be missed at the wedding!

U.S. Navy thwarts Greenpeace plan to block launch

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Navy learned a lesson when Greenpeace anti-nuclear protesters halted the submarine launch of a Trident 2 missile in July, and it was ready for them this time.

In a high seas drama 50 miles off the Florida coast on Monday, Navy ships rammed and fire-hosed the 190-foot MV Greenpeace vessel while helicopters buzzed two small high-speed rafts. Sailors in motorized rafts cut the fuel lines of one Greenpeace raft before towing both out of the launch safety zone.

With their vessels helpless, about 25 Greenpeace activists could only watch as the nuclear submarine Tennessee unleashed the Trident 2, the Navy's newest, most powerful weapon, on a successful test launch.

The 44-foot missile shot out of a tube in the sub's deck, broke the sea's surface, ignited and hurled a dummy warhead package to an ocean target several thousand miles away.

"We did a perfect launch, just beautiful," Vice Adm. Roger Bacon, commander of the Atlantic Submarines Fleet, told reporters.

The success of the fourth Trident 2 test flight put the program back on track toward becoming operational next spring after two explosive failures in the first three tests.

Greenpeace, which said it was considering suing the Navy for Monday's action, had successfully used the MV Greenpeace and the two motorized rafts, called Zodiacs, to halt a launch from the Tennessee in July.

"We were more prepared today because we looked at what they tried to do on July 28, and we used the minimum force necessary today to clear the area," Bacon said.

The "minimum force" included three large ships, three helicopters and eight motorized rafts. More than 900 sailors were assigned to the task force that kept the launch area clear.

"This is a terrible outrage," said Peter Bahouth, executive director of Greenpeace USA, in a statement. "This is an unbridled act of aggression against a peaceful protest in international waters."

For many years, Greenpeace has attempted to stop nuclear testing at sea. In July 1985, this tactic of direct intervention turned tragic when French secret agents sunk the Rainbow Warrior, a Greenpeace ship, off Auckland, New Zealand.

The ship was sent to protest French nuclear testing in the South Pacific. Explosives were attached to the ship's hull. One crew member was killed.

Greenpeace's protest Monday was over the United States' refusal to negotiate with the Soviet Union on a reduction of sea-based nuclear missiles.

UPPER COLORADO SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT

1989 ANNUAL REPORT

Some 150 farmers, ranchers, and other individuals interested in agriculture attended the ranch breakfast August 9, at the W.C. Hart ranch south of Snyder. The group shown is enjoying an outdoor breakfast co-sponsored by the Upper Colorado SWCD and Ezell-Key Grain Co.

Report Sponsored by the Directors of the Upper Colorado SWCD

BORDEN COUNTY SCURRY COUNTY

Regular monthly meetings are held on the third Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Soil Conservation Office at 3423 Ave. T, Phone: 573-1268.

The Upper Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District is a legal sub-division of the State of Texas, governed by five elected directors. Our self-governed district has a working agreement with the Soil Conservation Service to provide technical assistance for planning, application, and management of conservation practices.

The Upper Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District wishes everyone a happy and prosperous year in 1990. Our sincere thanks go out to each person, business, organization, and unit of government who helped us in our effort to make the District a more satisfying place in which to live and work. A special thanks to the Snyder Field Office staff of the Soil Conservation Service for providing the technical assistance necessary for us to carry out our objectives. District Conservationist Terry Hefner, Range Conservationist Mike Squires, Range Conservationist Lynn Wauer, and SCS Technician Mark McDaniel have helped to make our accomplishments in conservation possible.

CONSERVATION TEACHERS—The Upper Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District honored two Scurry County teachers for their efforts in teaching conservation. Receiving plaques from the district were Jeffri Long, (left) a third grade teacher at Ira; and Judy Barkowsky, a third grade teacher at North Elementary.

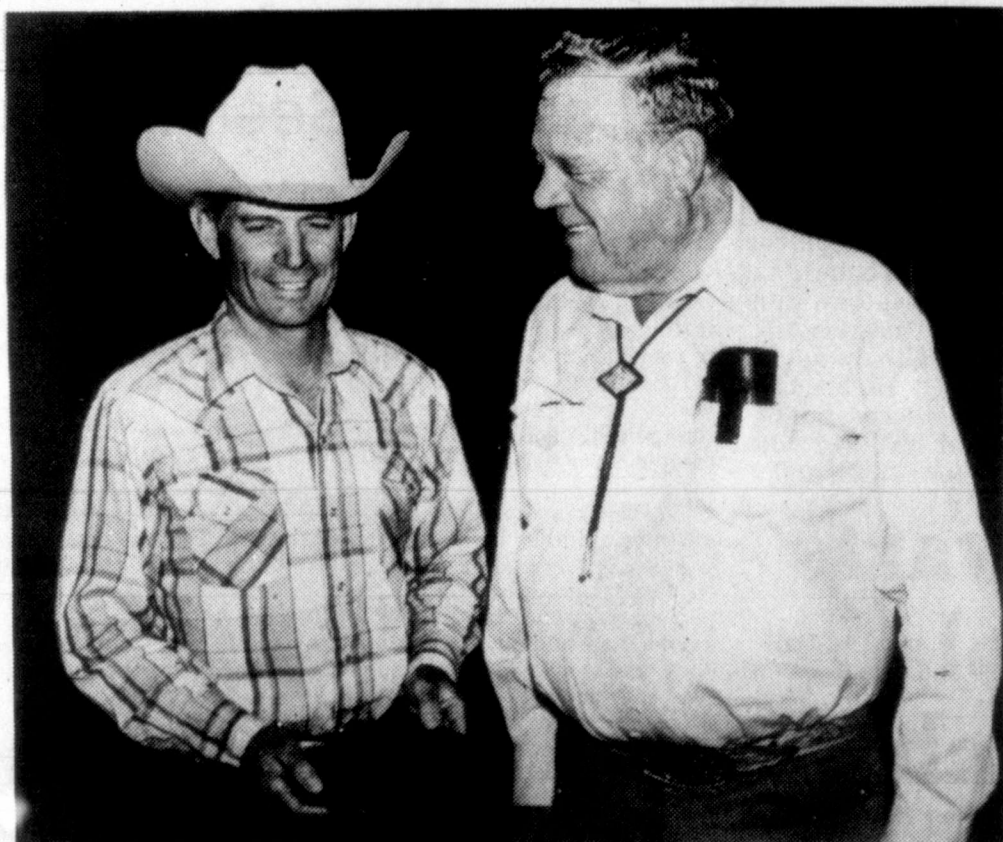

- CONSERVATION PRACTICES APPLIED IN THE UPPER COLORADO SWCD in 1989
- 205 new district co-operators covering 49,686 acres

  - 9 LTA contracts current
  - 49 Conservation Reserve Program contracts on 7,952 acres

  - 583 acres of range seeding
  - 1,349 acres of brush control
  - 8 ponds constructed
  - 7,200 acres of upland wildlife management
  - 15,440 acres of highly erodible cropland planted to grass

RURAL POSTERS—Poster entries earned these Students honors from the Upper Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District. Winning in the school category were (from top to bottom) Sheri Sandefur, first; Linley Rinehart, second; Shannon Jones, third; and Billy Box, fourth.

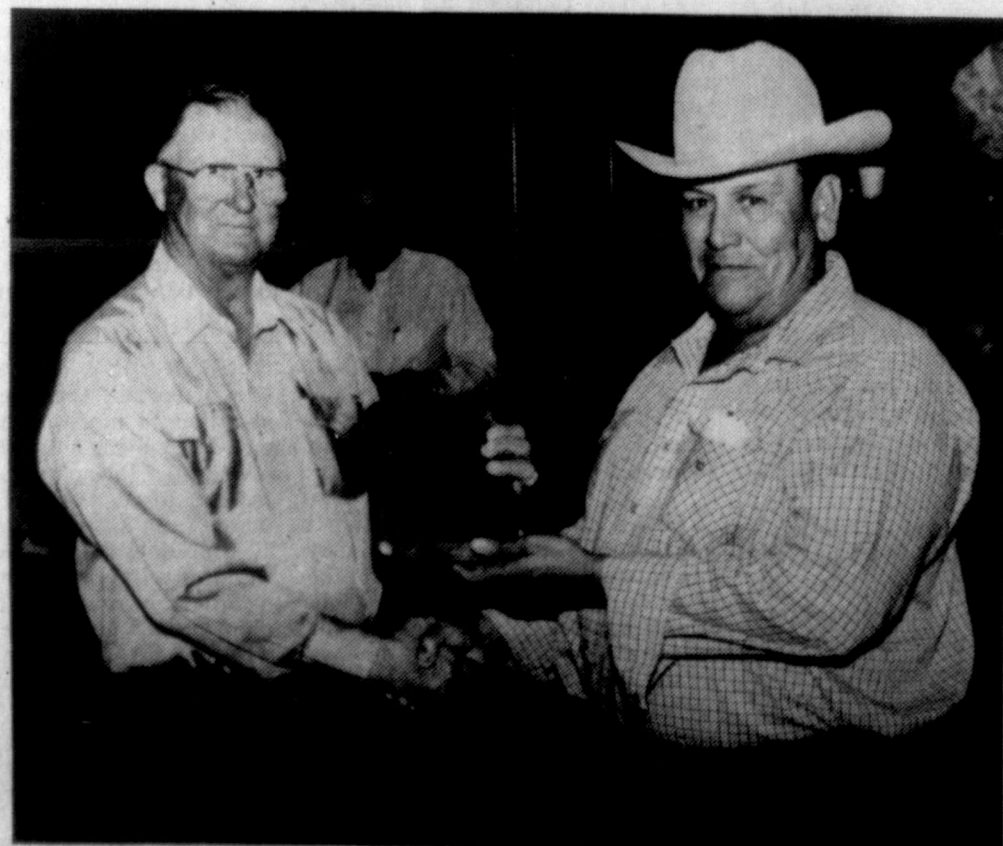

The construction of terraces and diversions is an excellent way to control and stop erosion on rolling land and sloping cropland. With terraces and diversions, rainwater is channeled across the field to a suitable outlet such as a grass waterway or pond. Through this channeling action, water is transported across the field and isn't allowed to cut down across the field, stopping erosion and the development of gullies.

CONSERVATION RANCHER—Mike Stephens (left) was honored as the 1989 Conservation Rancher of the Year by the Upper Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District which serves both Scurry and Borden Counties. Presenting him the award was district director W.L. Wilson, Jr.

The Soil Conservation Service assists farmers and ranchers in planning and constructing ponds for erosion control, stock water, and recreation. The pond site shown here is on the Max von Roeder farm northwest of Snyder.
