County audit will begin Thursday

The audit of county governmental operations that has been ordered by District Judge Gene L. Dulaney will begin Thursday with the arrival of an auditor from the national accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand.

Dulaney said today that the audit will take about three weeks here and another week in Lubbock to write the report, with the total cost not to exceed $20,000. "It will make it (the county government) more accountable and more efficient," the 132nd District judge said. "I'm pretty sure they can save the county money."

Dulaney said he found an argument by county commissioners that the audit should be delayed until after the first of the year "unpersuasive," because the completion of the county's year-end business is not a major factor in the assessment of overall operations over a period of years. "I couldn't see any reason for waiting," the judge said. "I wanted to get it over with before the first of the year."

Dan Winders, a Coopers & Lybrand specialist in governmental accounting from Oklahoma City, will be here Thursday to begin the audit. He is scheduled to be joined Friday or Monday by company partner John Burdette of Lubbock. Winders and company partner Ben Robinson last month performed a two-day preliminary examination of county financial records on which they based a recommendation to Dulaney to go ahead with the full audit. Dulaney said how far back in years the auditors go "is up to them." The county is operated on a calendar year basis.

Local United Way effort surpasses its goal by $8,735

For the first time since 1985, Scurry County United Way has surpassed its goal.

Local United Way president Barbara Figueroa announced Monday the effort has brought in $86,735, exceeding its goal by over $8,700.

"It's really pretty incredible considering the economy right now," beamed Figueroa. "We've still got a couple of packets out and as soon as they are in the board will meet to decide what to do with the extra money.

"What we'll probably do is re-allocate, which will be sort of like a Christmas present for the organizations that receive United Way money."

The mark of $86,735 also surpassed goals set for the past two years. In 1987, the goal was $85,000, of which $75,000 was raised. In 1988, the effort raised $78,000 towards a goal of $80,000.

This year's goal of $78,000 would allocate $28,000 to Scurry County Boy's Club, $15,000 to Snyder Child Day Care, $13,000 to Noah Project, $5,500 each to the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and $500 each to Red Cross and The Salvation Army. Also included is $5,000 for local expenses.

Figueroa said the board will schedule a meeting to determine where the extra funds raised this year should be placed. Some of the funds may be held over or they may all be used as "bonus allocations" to the organizations which the local United Way serves.

Others are L.E. Griffin, Paul Gilbert, Wilma Dillard, Larry Anderson, Bert Robbins, Art Feinsod, Fran Farmer, Glen Butler and Donny Brown.

Blanche Butler is the local drive coordinator.

Golden Terrace Village sets open house for 16 new units

Golden Terrace Village nearly doubles in size this Thursday as open house will be held for 16 recently-constructed units.

Officials have scheduled the reception from 4-6 p.m. Refreshments will be served in apartment 24.

Residents will begin moving in Friday.

The housing facility — built to serve the needs of senior citizens — opened with 24 units in July of 1985. The latest addition brings the total to 40.

The 16 new units are all one-bedroom. One unit has been constructed with the handicapped individual in mind.

Manager L.E. "Doc" Griffin said the entire 40-unit complex is full, although applications are still being taken. The apartments are for senior citizens, age 62 and over, and rent is based on income.

Cameron Alread Architect, Inc. of Fort Worth designed the 16 new units, which were constructed by Neches Homes, Inc. of Lindale.

The complex is named in honor of the Golden K Kiwanis Club — the group credited with instigating plans to build a housing area designed for senior citizens. Senior Citizens, Inc., a (see UNITS, page 8)

Realtor board installs new officers for 1990

The Scurry County Board of Realtors Tuesday night installed new officers for 1990, and heard the Snyder High School Stage Band and an awards presentation during its annual installation banquet at Snyder Country Club.

Fifty-five people, including two dozen realtors, attended the turkey and dressing banquet as Clarence Payne of City Realtors was installed for a second term as president.

Linda Walton and Dolores Jones, both of Jack & Jack Realtors, were also installed as vice president and secretary-treasurer by Snyder attorney David Cotton, whose law firm handles a large volume of real estate transactions. The crowd was entertained with Christmas music and jazz by the SHS Stage Band, which was led by director and trumpet player Walter Reneau.

"99 Club" awards from the Texas Real Estate Commission Political Action Committee (TRE-PAC) were presented to Payne, Jones and realtor Lenora Boydston, for contributions of more than $100 to the Austin committee.

Payne was also recognized as a TRE-PAC director.

In his address, the president discussed realtors' ethics and qualifications.

In murder case...

Local woman arrested

A 21-year-old Snyder woman was arrested Tuesday afternoon on a murder warrant that was issued following her Monday indictment in the Thanksgiving Day murder of Oscar Garza Jr.

Diana Rodriguez Castro of 1910 Coleman Ave., No. 1, was taken into custody by a police detective sergeant at 5:04 p.m. at the district attorney's office.

Castro was indicted for murder along with Francisco D. "Frank" Limones Jr., 22, of Sweetwater in the small-caliber pistol shooting of Garza, who was shot in the head following a reported argument in Apartment No. 4 at 1900 Coleman in the early morning hours of Thanksgiving Day.

Limones and Castro are both being held at the county jail, Limones in lieu of a $100,000 bond and Castro on a $50,000 bond.

They are scheduled to be arraigned in 1:30 p.m. Thursday proceedings in 132nd District Court.

The case received wide attention in part because Garza's body had been disposed of in a trash dumpster north of the Coleman Apartments, in the northeastern part of town, where it lay all Thanksgiving Day and the next morning until a city trash truck made its regular Friday morning run.

Garza is believed to have been killed about 3 a.m., reportedly in the presence of at least three witnesses.

A tipster called police late on the morning of the trash truck's pick-up and told them there was a body in the dumpster. The truck was intercepted and the body discovered in a search of the compactor's contents at the city landfill east of town.

Emergency declared by Philippine leader

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — A beleaguered President Corazon Aquino declared a state of national emergency today and pleaded with fellow Filipinos to defy the hundreds of mutinous soldiers who "want to kill me."

The declaration came after a cease-fire between rebel and loyalist troops enabled about 1,800 foreigners, hundreds of them Americans, to be evacuated from Manila's financial district, scene of heavy fighting since Saturday.

The rebels, angered at U.S.

military support for Mrs. Aquino, had on Tuesday threatened to prevent some Americans from leaving. Today, they issued a veiled threat against those who remain in the country.

After the evacuation, rebel and military representatives then opened talks for a peaceful settlement of the crisis.

Mrs. Aquino had previously vowed not to negotiate, demanding that the rebels "surrender or die." She had also overruled recommendations from Cabinet members two days ago to declare a state of emergency.

If you gain weight, no matter how hard you try, you might be able to blame sleepwalking.

Medical researchers have discovered help for a variety of sleep disorders such as snoring, narcolepsy and breathing lapses. But sleepwalkers, or somnambulism, is still mostly a mystery.

Some people with the problem can tell horror stories about showing up in the hotel lobby clad only in pajamas. We suspect folks with the sleepwalking problem have better PJs than the average guy.

The same researchers say middle-aged people who work in pressure-packed jobs are the most likely to be victims of sleepwalking, which can be triggered by job stress, jet lag, late hours or even sleeping in a new surrounding.

Sleepwalking is more common than you might think. About 5 percent of the U.S. population, or roughly 10 million people, sleepwalk occasionally. Most victims indulge in harmless, but sometimes embarrassing actions—like mistaking the wife's closet for the bathroom.

One person complained of putting on weight despite intense dieting. He did notice feeling stuffed early in the morning. His wife discovered the guy was making pastrami and cheese sandwiches during the middle of the night. This forced his concerned wife to put the refrigerator under lock and key.

He then lost weight—aided by nocturnal ramblings about the house trying to figure out where the missus had hidden the key.

In Brief

Small tumor

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Bill Clements is feeling fine after having a small tumor removed from his lower left eyelid last week, an aide says.

Clements, 72, appeared at a news conference Tuesday with a small scar beneath his left eye. He mentioned having a medical procedure conducted but didn't disclose what the exact problem had been.

"I didn't hurt it. The doctor did," Clements told reporters. "I had a little skin deal there, right on the lid, and he took it off. Want to look at it real close?"

Bill will pass

AUSTIN (AP) — Leaders of a House-Senate conference committee working on an overhaul of the workers' compensation system say the panel will pass a bill today but that measure's fate in the full House and Senate remains up in the air.

"It's just sort of wait and see," Gov. Bill Clements said Tuesday. "It's kind of like watching water boil."

The current special session ends Dec. 13.

Reporter suspended

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas radio newsman Salvador Valdez, missing for nearly a week in Central and South America, was immediately suspended when he returned home.

Sent to San Salvador Nov. 25 by Dallas-based Cadena Radio Centro, Valdez was not heard from between Nov. 28 and Monday, when he reached CRC officials to tell them he was all right. His disappearance prompted fears among friends and colleagues that he had been killed in Salvadoran violence.

When Valdez arrived at Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport Tuesday afternoon, he explained that he left El Salvador Nov. 29 to go to Colombia, where he planned to cover several stories. But he couldn't get a phone line for two days.

"I tried and tried and tried to call," Valdez said. "The operator kept telling me she couldn't get a line to the United States."

Odor thought to deter theft of park trees

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) — Thieves would smell something other than the sweet, pine aroma of Christmas if they were to take a tree from this city's park.

Their olfactory senses would sniff the odorous odor of skunk.

After several trees in a park were stolen during the Christmas season two years ago, public works employees last year began spraying the remaining trees with a special mixture of skunk oil and fox urine, public works Director Ralph Dannenberg said Tuesday.

The commercial product has an odor very much like a skunk's and can last on cloth and carpeting for weeks, if not months, Dannenberg said. The mixture is extremely potent in an enclosed area, he said.

"You can't even smell it going on the trees, but once you bring it inside a heated room, it does start to stink," he said. "We sprayed it on a bush and brought it in the office to test it out and got the thing back outside in a hurry."

Since the spraying began, the city has had no reports of tree thefts from parks during the Christmas season, he said.

In 1939, Albert Einstein wrote a letter to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, urging the U.S. begin an atomic weapons research program.

three spades over his partner's one-spade overcall, taking away some of the opponents' bidding room. Still Lew Stansby, South, was able to visualize from his own spade length that dummy had to be short. So it was easy for him to bid the slam. Making it depended upon a guess in the club suit. Stansby tried dummy's heart queen at trick one, ruffing when East played the king. Declarer was now able to draw trumps and crossruff spades and hearts, ending up in the dummy.

By that time East was known to have started with K-J-10 of hearts alone, K-J and three little spades, and a singleton diamond. When declarer led a small club from dummy, East of course played low. What now? Of course it was a guess, but in this instance an educated guess. Lew Stansby had only to remember the bidding: East was the dealer and had passed. That would never have happened if he held the ace of clubs in addition to his K-J combinations in the majors. So Stansby put in the club jack and made his slam. Unfortunately for the United States, this was just one good hand in a losing cause, since Brazil did win the match and the Bermuda Bowl World Team Championship.

Some eateries now offering edible flowers

Basil, tarragon, organically-grown California herbs — and edible flowers — are among most popular items offered by the Fines Herbes Co. of New York City. In response to the trend toward "natural" and "unusual" cuisine, some of New York's finest chefs are featuring delectable blossoms on their menus. Peter Goldstein, company president, says Fines Herbes sells more than 1,500 flowers a week to city restaurants. Edible flowers, he says, "seem to be growing in popularity in New York almost as fast as they are growing in California." Goldstein's products are cut each day and shipped overnight from a number of New York and California farms. The average shelf life of an edible flower is 3 days, so Goldstein says he and his staff personally wrap each product by hand.

Tigers fall to Lamesa, 67-47

Tornadoes conquer Snyder in rematch of Friday battle

By PHIL RIDDLE
SDN Sports Editor

Snyder took a 21-13 lead in Tuesday's basketball game with Lamesa before allowing the Tors to tie them at 32 apiece at the half. The visiting team finally overtook the Tigers for a 67-47 win.

The combination of a good Lamesa defense and cold Snyder shooting netted the Tigers just 15 second half points, six in the third period and nine in the fourth.

With just over two minutes in the second quarter Tracy Braziel ran up the baseline for a lay-in and was fouled to boot.

He converted the free-throw and the Snyder quintet had a 30-23 lead.

Burt Butler of Lamesa hit for two of his nine points next to draw LHS closer at 30-25.

On Snyder's next trip downcourt Toby Godwin fed Ed Rios for an easy lay-up and Snyder had their seven point lead back.

Lamesa used the final 1:26 in the half to catch the Tigers on a 7-0 streak that knotted the score at 32-all at intermission.

The score remained close through the third period as Braziel hit all six of Snyder's points.

Lamesa was able to push through just 12 and at the end of three quarters Snyder trailed 44-38.

The Golden Tornadoes stretched their lead to 60-41 with a 16-3 run through the first five minutes of the final stanza closing the door on Snyder hopes.

Butler started the fourth by hitting on both ends of a one-and-one to set the score at 46-38.

SHS sophomore post player Hayward Clay snatched an offensive board and banked the ball in to close the gap to six.

Clay hit his second free-throw after being fouled underneath in the act of shooting following a Butler field goal for Lamesa to keep the Tigers within eight at 49-41.

The Tornadoes scored 11 unanswered points on shots by Dwight Mason and Keene Hunter to give them a 60-41 advantage with 3:36 left in the contest.

Braziel broke the drought for Snyder on a lay-up after an offensive rebound.

Lee Hamilton twice hit both shots of one-and-one situations but it was simply too little, too late.

Snyder's Toby Goodwin grabbed a rebound at the 1:42 mark in the fourth quarter and was banged by a pair of defenders and knocked to the floor.

Referee Dee Carter blew the whistle and called walking on Goodwin.

While the call was hardly pivotal, it was sort of a capsule of the Snyder frustration against Lamesa.

The Tigers drop to 1-5 with the loss and Lamesa is bumped to 7-1 on the season.

The Tigers will participate in the Lamesa Tournament this weekend tangling with Lubbock Estacado Friday at 5:45 in the opening round.

The Tigers, depending on the outcome of that contest, will play either Odessa Permian or Lubbock Dunbar in the second round.

If they win, they will meet the winner of the Dunbar-Permian game at 12:30 p.m. Saturday.

Should Snyder lose, they play the loser at 11 a.m. Saturday.

If the Tigers can win both contests they will participate in the championship tilt at 7:45 p.m. Saturday.

The Lady Coyotes lost to Jayton, 45-37, while the guys were dropped by New Home 62-48.

NHHS cagers connected on nine three-point goals in the battle.

Cole Vestal was the only other Borden County player in double figures. He ended the night with 13 points.

The girls of Borden County lost by eight as Rebecca Brown with 12 and Tori Bass with 14 points paced the Lady Jaybirds.

Lady Coyotes Lisha Sternadel, who had 14 points, and Kristi Adcock, with nine, led BCHS.

The Borden County girls' JV beat Jayton in the early game 49-25.

Snyder's domination continued in the second period as they rolled up 17 points to Tahoka's eight to take a commanding 45-16 lead at the half.

The Lady Bulldogs didn't score in double figures in a quarter until the fourth when they tacked up 15.

In all, 12 Lady Tigers scored Tuesday.

Houston's Ware and UI's Thompson lead AP All-American offensive team

by The Associated Press

Last week, they were rivals. Now Houston quarterback Andre Ware and Indiana running back Anthony Thompson are teammates.

Ware, who edged Thompson in voting for the Heisman Trophy, joined him Tuesday on The Associated Press 1989 All-American college football team.

Ware broke 13 NCAA records and tied two others as the top gun in Houston's run-and-shoot offense. He capped a remarkable season last Saturday by setting season records for most completions (365) and passing yards (4,699). His 46 touchdown passes were one short of Jim McMahon's NCAA mark.

As Ware established passing standards, Thompson ran off with most marks of his own. The tailback set NCAA career marks for touchdowns and points, led the nation in rushing with 1,793 yards and broke the single-game rushing record with 377 against Wisconsin.

Ware and Thompson were unlikely candidates for stardom. Ware had virtually no preseason publicity and, because Houston was on probation, wasn't seen on television. Thompson played for a losing team at a school better known for basketball.

Yet they emerged as the top stars on an AP offensive team that includes Outland Trophy finalist Michael Tanks of Florida State and a trio of record-setting receivers — Clarkston Hines of Duke, Emmanuel Hazard of Houston and Terance Mathis of New Mexico.

The defense features Butkus Award winner Percy Snow of Michigan State, Outland finalist Moe Gardner of Illinois and Lombardi Award finalists Chris Zorich of Notre Dame and Tim Ryan of Southern California. The Butkus honors the top linebacker in the country; the Outland and Lombardi awards are for linemen.

Fourth-ranked Notre Dame is the only school with three players on the team — Zorich, defensive back Todd Lyght and return specialist Raghib "Rocket" Ismail. Top-ranked Colorado, No. 5 Florida State, No. 12 Southern Cal, No. 13 Houston and No. 22 Michigan State each placed two players on the team.

Joining Ware and Thompson in the backfield is Florida running back Emmitt Smith. Alongside Tanks on the offensive line are guards Eric Still of Tennessee and Joe Garten of Colorado and tackles Bob Kula of Michigan State and Jim Mabry of Arkansas. Jason Hanson of Washington State is the kicker.

Rounding out the defense are lineman Greg Mark of Miami, linebackers Keith McCants of Alabama and James Francis of Baylor and defensive backs Mark Carrier of Southern Cal, Tripp Welborne of Michigan and LeRoy Butler of Florida State. The punter is Colorado's Tom Rouen.

The All-America team has 12 seniors, 11 juniors and two sophomores, Ismail and Hanson. The juniors are Ware, Smith, Hazard, Garten, Zorich, Gardner, McCants, Lyght, Welborne, Carrier and Rouen.

There are no repeaters from last year's first team. Thompson and Snow were on the second team in 1988.

Smith ran for 1,599 yards this season, including a 316-yard performance against New Mexico, and was ranked third nationally in rushing. He holds 58 school records and is the No. 5 rusher in Southeastern Conference history.

Hines caught 61 passes for 1,149 yards and set an NCAA record with 38 career touchdown catches as Duke won a share of its first Atlantic Coast Conference championship since 1965. He ended his career as the ACC leader in catches and receiving yardage.

Mathis and Hazard, both 5-foot-9 and about 170 pounds, are the smallest players on the team, but each has big numbers. Mathis, who doubled as a kick returner, set NCAA records for career catches (263) and receiving yards (4,254) and moved up to third in all-purpose career yardage with 6,691. Hazard, Ware's favorite target, set season records with 142 receptions and 22 touchdowns.

Florida State line coach Wayne McDuffie called Tanks the best center he's seen in 15 years. "He has eaten up every nose guard we've faced," McDuffie said. "No one has gotten past him for a sack."

Kula, who switched to tackle after three years at guard, replaced All-American Tony Mandarich as the anchor of a Michigan State offensive line that paved the way for the Big Ten's second-best rushing attack.

Arkansas averaged 314 yards per game on the ground behind the blocking of Mabry and his offensive linemates. A four-year letterman, Mabry helped lead the Razorbacks to their second straight Southwest Conference title this season.

Still is the heavyweight of the team at 283 pounds, and he's as smart as he is big. The 6-3 guard made the All-SEC academic team for the fourth straight year and was the catalyst of an offensive line that, in Coach Johnny Majors' opinion, was "as good as any we've had."

Garten was the iron man of Colorado's offense, playing more downs than any other player on the undefeated team that is second nationally in rushing with 372 yards per game.

Ismail was a triple threat as a receiver, runner and kick returner, averaging 17 yards every time he touched the ball. He returned two kickoffs for touchdowns against Michigan and ran back a punt for a score against Air Force, giving him five returns for scores in his two seasons.

Hanson made 21 of 27 field goal attempts, missing only once inside 45 yards, and extended his point-after streak to 81 before having one blocked in the final game of the season. Five of his field goals were 50 yards or longer, including a 58-yarder that was the longest in the nation this season.

Zorich, who spearheaded a Notre Dame defense that gave up only 15 points a game, made a big impression on Stanford center Chuck Gillingham. "He was a good player last year and I think he's gotten 100 percent better," Gillingham said after Notre Dame beat Stanford 27-17. "He's got arms as big as my thighs."

Gardner was a major reason Illinois led the Big Ten in total defense.

Reindeer Romp set Dec. 19

All interested joggers and walkers are reminded of the second annual Reindeer Romp planned for Tuesday, Dec. 19.

The romp is an informal affair, its promoters emphasize, designed to give people the opportunity to walk or jog with a group and see some of the holiday decorations in residential areas.

The walking or jogging is also good exercise, and getting out with a group makes exercising more fun, Lee Burke, one of the romp's originators, said.

Bekky Butler, who is helping to organize the romp, said that this activity was created to promote health and physical fitness which many regard as a special Christmas gift to family and friends.

Some 75 persons participated last year and she said they hope to do as well or even better this year.

The group will meet at 6:30 p.m. on Dec. 19 at the pavilion in Towle Park. Those who can and would like to can bring along toys and/or canned goods to be given to the Goodfellows and Toys for Tots projects.

The route for walkers will be about two miles and the jogging route will be about five miles. The routes will be announced later. Anyone who does not wish to cover the entire distance may drop out at any time.

In the event of bad weather, the romp will be rescheduled for Dec. 21.

For more information call Burke at Western Texas College, Leslie or Bekky Butler, or Wanda Hudgins.

East Germany...

Krenz resigns as president

EAST BERLIN (AP) — Egon Krenz resigned today as East Germany's president, three days after quitting as Communist Party chief because his ties to former party leaders made him unacceptable to the reform movement.

The announcement of his resignation as head of state came in a one-sentence dispatch on the official ADN news agency.

Krenz has been virtually without power since stepping down as Communist Party general secretary on Sunday, along with the ruling Politburo and the entire Central Committee.

He had replaced longtime Communist leader Erich Honecker on Oct. 18. But Krenz, who was closely associated with Honecker's hard-line policies, had been the target of growing criticism, within the party and among opposition groups.

Krenz had been president since Oct. 24. The post is largely ceremonial.

Also today, the government newspaper Neues Deutschland said the party may scrap its traditional structure of having a Politburo, Central Committee and general secretary to make a "radical end to structural Stalinism." As reform movements sweep through Eastern Europe, the hard-line policies of Stalinism have become a prime target for criticism.

Reform began in East Germany after Honecker was forced out following 18 years in power. Since then, a popular uprising and exodus of thousands of people to the West have forced the Communist government to open East Germany's borders and the Berlin Wall to allow citizens to travel freely.

The Communist Party also has given up its guaranteed monopoly on power.

A special party congress will be held Dec. 15 to choose a new leadership.

In another development today, ADN said that Manfred Seidel, the No. 2 official in the government's Commercial Coordination office, had been arrested and was the target of a criminal probe. Authorities suspect that Seidel, in cooperation with his fugitive boss, Alexander Schalck-Golodkowski, smuggled $110 million out of East Germany, ADN said.

Schalck-Golodkowski has been the target of an international manhunt, after discovery that he was in charge of a huge ring that sold weapons to countries in the Middle East, South America, and Africa.

Wolfgang Vogel, the lawyer representing Schalck-Golodkowski, was detained for several hours Tuesday night. Vogel, famous for arranging major East-West prisoner and spy swaps, later said in a statement he was closing his practice "to go walking and have a rest."

Births

Travis and Joan Bunch are the parents of a baby boy, Dylan Austin, born Monday at 10:48 a.m. at Scenic Mountain Medical Center in Big Spring. He weighed 7 pounds, 14 1/2 ounces. Dylan is welcomed home by two sisters, Lindsey and Stacey.

The tumultuous changes in East Germany have partly been caused by disclosures of corruption and abuse of power by former government officials.

Allegations include that the old leaders who maintained East Germany's autocratic society lived lavishly on public funds and funneled millions of dollars into Swiss bank accounts.

Czechoslovakia...

New government, approved by opposition, to be formed

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP) — The Communist leadership, whose new coalition government was rejected by the pro-democracy movement, will present a new Cabinet approved by the opposition, the nation's top dissident said today.

The dissident, Vaclav Havel, said at a news conference that Communist Premier Ladislav Adamec will present the list of names for the Cabinet to the opposition on Friday before it is made public.

He refused to disclose any details of the intense negotiations to include more non-Communists in the government.

Havel spoke after holding his first talks with Communist Party chief Karel Urbanek, who he said agreed with the opposition that "young, able people and experts who are not discredited" should be brought into the government.

After his 75-minute meeting with Urbanek, Havel and other opposition leaders met briefly with Adamec, who is trying to form a new Cabinet after a coalition government he named Sunday ran into fierce popular resistance.

The opposition spurned that government because it brought in just five non-Communists and left Communists in control of all key ministries.

The opposition has threatened a general strike on Monday if a new federal government is not named by Sunday.

Havel said Adamec will consult Thursday with representatives of other, increasingly independent official parties on forming a new government.

The opposition will then learn the names of the new cabinet Friday.

Both the government and the opposition have refused to disclose details of their negotiations. Opposition sources said the talks envisage some form of power-sharing before the free elections the opposition wants held by July.

The agreement on the new government represents the latest of several dramatic concessions the Communists have made.

On Tuesday, sources within New Forum said members of the opposition group had aided police in sealing up almost all of the rooms of the secret police headquarters in Dresden. The sources, who demanded anonymity, said the rooms were sealed to prevent the removal of evidence needed in corruption cases.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm a 42-year-old male with agoraphobia. I read about EBV in your column and had to insist that my doctor test me for it. He was reluctant because he thought it was my nerves and depression causing my problem.

DEAR READER: Agoraphobia (a fear of open, public places) is the most common phobic disorder. A phobia is an irrational fear of objects or situations that are not dangerous.

You are experiencing a constellation of symptoms (exaggerated fears, tiredness and weakness) suggesting emotional, not physical causes. I recommend you consider psychological counseling, rather than emphasizing the unlikely physical basis of your complaints.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Mental and Emotional Illness."

DEAR DR. GOTT: Several weeks ago, you had an article about sores in the mouth that appeared to be chronic herpes. Please be candid and advise how a person contracts this virus.

DEAR READER: Not all sores in the mouth are herpes. However, people with oral herpes develop the disease by direct contact with the virus.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I have acne on the back of my upper thighs and buttocks. I bathe daily, but the acne doesn't go away and I'm too embarrassed to see a dermatologist.

DEAR READER: Acne on the buttocks and thighs is uncommon and usually occurs because these areas are covered and tend to be moist. Try using a bath soap, such as Dial, that contains a substance to kill bacteria.

Because you are obviously distressed about your skin condition, I urge you to see a dermatologist. Put your embarrassment on hold and ask the specialist for some practical advice.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I have a question about a person's diet. I've been advised to eat a diet low in fat and cholesterol. What should I eat?

School finances...

Special session to be called

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Bill Clements says he will call a special session of the Legislature in March to overhaul public school finances, but several lawmakers say that's too long to wait.

"I'd like to address the issue right now. I think we've waited long enough," said Sen. Hector Uribe, D-Brownsville, a co-sponsor of a three-year, $5.6 billion school finance proposal introduced Tuesday.

Uribe said school districts need to know soon how much money they will be receiving so they can plan for the 1990-91 school year. He noted that lawmakers have failed in more than 11 months to reform workers' compensation, Clements' top legislative priority.

finance as it has with workers' comp, we will certainly be in a chaotic situation," the senator said.

The Texas Supreme Court, voting 9-0, in October ruled the state system of funding public schools unconstitutional and gave the Legislature a May 1 deadline to write a new plan.

"The fact is, we have researched this thing long enough. It is time to act. We've heard from every expert imaginable. We need to act," said Rep. Gregory Luna, D-San Antonio, House sponsor of the new plan.

"Nothing has been more damaging than Gov. Clements' delay on this issue," added Sen. Carlos Truan, D-Corpus Christi.

Truan said Clements' record on school finance, including his previous support for a constitutional amendment to legalize the current system, has been damaging.

"That is a horrible record which I predict will forever condemn the legacy of the Clements administration to the dustbin of history, just as the existing system of school finance has condemned so many hundreds of thousands of Texas school students to an inferior education," Truan said.

Clements said Tuesday he has decided to call lawmakers into session "in March, probably the early part of March."

He said he wants to wait on the recommendations of a new task force that began looking at school finance late last month.

Clements also said the state may have to consider consolidation of its 1,100 public school districts because of the court ruling.

"We're going to go right back to what the Supreme Court said, which is that we have an inefficient system. So we're going to start talking about efficiency and we're going to start talking about consolidation," Clements said.

Consolidation, the governor said, is "a bad word, it's a contentious word and a lot of people don't like the idea. But if there's anything inefficient about our system, it's 1,100 school districts." The Uribe-Luna proposal, which they dubbed "the equality plan," would shift to a countywide tax base for schools.

The plan would establish a minimum countywide property tax rate of 80 cents per $100 valuation, and it would allow local school boards to add up to 20 cents in enrichment taxes for a maximum allowable tax of $1 per $100.

No prosecution for magazine

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Sweden's attorney general has decided against prosecuting a magazine for defamation after it quoted the wife of former Swedish tennis great Bjorn Borg as saying, "Swedes are stupid nobodies."

The remark attributed to Loredana Borg, a former Italian rock singer who married Borg in September, appeared on the advertising billboard of the celebrity and gossip weekly Svensk Damtidning.

Attorney General Hans Stark received a complaint from an unidentified person who said that the headline violated the law forbidding "agitation against an ethnic group."

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1989 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Most people are familiar with Seeing Eye dogs for the blind, but not many are aware that there are Hearing Ear dogs trained to assist the deaf.

I am a deaf person who has a Hearing Ear dog named Danny. We are a team. Danny goes everywhere with me. We have been stopped by grocery store managers who ask us to leave, saying, "We don't allow dogs in here."

Abby, every state in the union (except Hawaii and Alaska) has laws guaranteeing deaf persons the right to be accompanied by a specially trained dog. These dogs wear a bright orange leash and collar.

It cost more than $3,500 to train Danny. I also had to be trained to handle Danny. I keep him clean and well-groomed, so he's always presentable when we go out in public.

Please print this, Abby — then maybe people will stop complaining about "that dog" in stores where ordinary dogs are not allowed. Thank you.

S.G. AND DANNY, MILWAUKIE, ORE.

DEAR S.G.: Glad to help. And now for a related bone of contention: Readers — when you see a Seeing Eye or Hearing Ear dog, please do not pet it or try to make friends with it. The dog is "working" and should not be distracted from its duties.

TODD

DEAR TODD: I've heard from many male virgins who share your views. Read on:

DEAR ABBY: This letter is in response to the letter from "Been There."

I am a 20-year-old male college student. I've gone with the same girl for almost a year, and we are both virgins. I have never put pressure on any girl to have sex with me. I couldn't live with myself if I had.

At a college of 30,000, it is easy to find a girl to have sex with, but I don't want a relationship like that.

Not all men are looking for a girl who will jump into the sack with them on the first date. And contrary to what most people believe, a man and a woman in love can sleep together without having sex. We have done this a few times. The pleasure I received from it was the feeling of having the person I love being next to me as I fell asleep and woke up.

Face it, "Been There," nice guys don't finish last, and good girls don't end up alone. Better to go to your grave with your virginity than to give it to a jerk.

HAPPY IN IOWA

DEAR ABBY: You advised a 17-year-old girl to dump her boyfriend for pushing sex on her. Three cheers! Then, a couple of days later, another girl wrote to say, "If you don't give him what he wants, some little tramp will" and, "You'll go to your grave with your virginity," because all the other fish in the sea want the same thing.

I'm a young man (20) who has managed to struggle along with my virtue intact. I am proud of my virginity and have all intentions of taking it to my honeymoon. I also don't like the idea of giving myself to CONFIDENTIAL TO "CALL ME CINDY (NOT MY REAL NAME)": True, you only live once, but try to live right. There is no accident insurance to protect the girl who pursues the wrong policy.

Trapped Texans said freed

DALLAS (AP) — Two Texans trapped in a Manila hotel for several days amid the continuing violence of an attempted overthrow of President Corazon Aquino are safe, a relative says.

"They just walked out the front door" of the Intercontinental Hotel in the Manila financial district, Mrs. Donna Manthey, wife of Dallas lawyer Ronald Manthey, said late Tuesday.

A U.S. Embassy spokeswoman reported earlier that a "great number" of Americans have been evacuated from the hotel district on buses.

"We've heard that all the hotels have been evacuated," said the spokeswoman, Mary Yates.

But authorities say it will likely take some time to account for all Americans trapped in the hotel and financial district.

Manthey, 35, and legal assistant, Pamela Sue Grundeman, 26, of Dallas were among about 215 Americans trapped in the Manila financial district for several days.

Some hotel guests Tuesday praised the conduct of rebel troops occupying their hotels, but the guests were desperate to get out of the battle zone.

Manthey, a Dallas lawyer, told KLIF radio in Dallas that electricity in the hotel had been off for 36 hours. He said guests couldn't leave the building because of rebel and government fighting.

"It's very hot and humid. We're getting occasional meals downstairs through sort of like a cafeteria style, when the hotel can put it together," Manthey said. "We're just trying to gather information, trying to figure out what we can do to get out of the accounting financial district and this hotel," he said.

"The rebels will not directly stop us from leaving the hotel. But the rebels have very strong armament positions around the hotel, and are in constant fighting with the government forces, which have also surrounded the entire district," he said.
