Mrs. R. J. Kelly Slightly Injured In Auto Wreck

Mrs. Jack Kelly was painfully but not seriously injured late Wednesday night when the car in which she was riding overturned near the Weeth school house, on the Burk Burnett and Iowa Park road.

Rotary-Lions Clubs Entertains Faculty Tuesday Night

The ninth annual teachers banquet, given by the Rotary and Lions Clubs was held Tuesday evening in the basement of the First Methodist church. Approximately two hundred persons attended.

Walker Collins was Master of Ceremonies and introduced Glen Bear, who gave the welcome address. Miss Peggy Gideon, primary instructor, responded to the welcome address in behalf of the teachers.

The principal address of the evening was given by B. M. Dinsmore, superintendent of the public schools in Electra.

The program of entertainment consisted of numbers of different nature and all were presented and appreciated by the audience.

Numbers of the program included a piano solo by Arthur Davis of Wichita Falls, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. H. McHaffey, also of Wichita Falls.

The forty teachers of the local school system were introduced by Butler Westerfield with thirteen new ones in the group.

The invocation was given by Rev. L. G. Hagar, pastor of the First Methodist church.

Notice To Auxiliary Members

NAME OF BAYLOR COLLEGE CHANGED
Belton, Texas, Sept. 25.—Baylor College for Women became debt free today as a result of the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hardin of Burk Burnett and hence forth will be known as Mary Hardin-Baylor college.

Dr. W. H. McKenzie of Austin, chairman of the finance committee of the board of trustees, told faculty members, students and high officials of the Baptist church at a testimonial dinner that trustees of the Hardin trust fund had advanced $250,000 to the college to help it retire all its debts.

"This advance, or loan, is to be retired by the 25 per cent participation in the income from the trust fund to which the college is entitled, according to the terms of the trust, so that, in reality, the college is now free from debt," he said.

By resolution of the board, announced at the close of the appreciation dinner, the name was modified in honor of Mrs. Hardin.

She's Queen Of Wichita County

Miss Olena Cash, beautiful young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cash of Burk Burnett, was crowned Queen of the Wichita County Fair in elaborate ceremonies at the fair Wednesday night.

Miss Cash is a senior in the Burk Burnett high school. With the members of her court and other distinguished guests from communities in this area, she was guest of honor Wednesday night at a ball at the home of Tom Burnett.

The queen and her court were presented in an impressive pageant as the feature of the opening day of the county's annual fair.

Miss Olena Cash Crowned Queen

BURK VS. IOWA PARK TO BE MAIN EVENT

The third day of the Wichita County Fair, at Iowa Park, will open this morning at 9 a. m. with Burk Burnett furnishing most of the entertaining features.

Football Game
The Chamber of Commerce has arranged a number of entertaining numbers to be presented at 7:30 p. m. which will be followed by the football game between Burk Burnett and Iowa Park. This is the first conference game for Burk Burnett and a large motorcade will leave here at 4 o'clock. The caravan will form at the City Hall where hat bands will be issued by Herman Brown, manager of the local chamber.

The pep squad and football boys held a rally Thursday morning at 8:45 and dedicated the game to Supt. Westerfield. According to Coach Hill the Bulldogs are in good shape and he expects them to come back home victorious.

Burkburnett Queen

Miss Olena Cash, of this city, winner of three beauty contests in the past, was crowned queen of the fair. Queen Olena was gorgeously gowned in white satin with a beautiful train, made of silver cloth, and rose mair ribbon edged in silver ribbon. Down the center of the train were large medallions made of silver sequins and spangles and ornamented with rhinestones and pearls.

Burkburnett's other representatives were Leta of the House of Evert, princess, wearing white taffeta, and Ruby of the House of Chapman, duchess, wearing navy blue organdie.

Legion Meeting October 5th

The regular meeting of the Oscar Frye Post of the American Legion will be held Friday, October 5th, at their home on Ave. D.

Refreshments will be served and the entertainment committee has arranged a good program. The local post has accepted a challenge from the Electra post in a membership drive, the losing side entertaining the winners.

Commander C. F. Johnson states that the 1935 assessment will be due Oct. 1st and urges every member to pay as soon as possible. Hy Standly is chairman of the membership drive.

Holcombe Fine Arts School To Open Here Tues.

The year book committee, Dorothy Silber; yell leader, Margaret N. White; song leader, Ruth Miller; Club Mothers, Mrs. Stimpson and Mrs. Podberger. Everyone had a lovely time. Picnic lunch was spread after the business meeting.

Gay Marianettes Elects Officers

The Gay Marianettes of the Methodist Church, elected the following officers last Sunday: Willie Etta Alexander, president; Nedra Campbell, vice president; Margaret Coats, secretary and treasurer; Mildred Davis, reporter.

Mrs. J. M. Thomas was elected to teach our class. She is to succeed Mrs. P. G. Williamson who has been the teacher for about three years.

We invite all young people to attend Sunday School next Sunday at 9:45 a. m. —Reporter.

Methodist Church

Rev. Warren T. Whiteside will preach at the morning service. This will be Bro. Whiteside's last visit to us this conference year. Let's give a good audience. He will probably hold our Fourth Quarterly Conference in the afternoon.

The pastor will preach at the evening hour, 7:30 o'clock. Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. This is Promotion Day. We hope each member will be present to find out his or her place for this next year.

Burkburnett Princess And Duchess

MISS LETA EVERT

MISS RUBY CHAPMAN

Burkburnett named Miss Leta Evert as princess to the Wichita County Fair at Iowa Park on the opening night of Sept. 26. Miss Evert chose as her duchess, Miss Ruby Chapman.

Cotton Prospects Are No Better

The two Burk Burnett gins had ginned up to Thursday noon 526 bales. The quality of most of the cotton is poor and the seed is immature due to the drouth.

This same time last year the Burk Burnett gins had ginned 1546 bales, 1020 more than this year. Rounds bales were bringing 13c and square bales 12 1/2c. Seed was selling for $38.00.

Boy Swings From Tree Limb And Breaks Leg

Willis Kreager Jr., 8, son of Rev. Kreager was playing in a tree Tuesday and as he descended the tree to one of the lower limbs he swung to the ground. In the fall he broke his leg in three places between the knee and the ankle. He received treatment at Dr. Russell's Clinic and his condition is fair.

A CHALLENGE

A few months ago Burk Burnett was agog with the prospects of a public library. Some donations of money were made. Equipment purchased. A drive was inaugurated to secure additional books are things of the past and now is the opportune time to revive interest was contributed. The building, lights, water and gas were offered. With the first donations several hundreds of books were purchased. A drive was inaugurated to secured additional books from the homes in the community. Then action ceased, and the library stands a challenge to Burk Burnett.

With the coming of summer months interest lagged and vacations interfered with civic activities. Hot days and vacation trips are things of the pas and now is the opportune time to revive interest in this civic project. With equipment, books, funds, and quarters already solicited, the library is in a position to advance rapidly to an institution of assistance in Burk Burnett.

First steps having been successfully taken, citizens of this community should never waver in purpose until the public library is dedicated. Burk Burnett has a reputation of launching and completing civic projects successfully. It must not fail on this, one of the most worthwhile undertakings in its history.

More funds are needed. More books must be secured. A librarian must be in charge. A public library is now a challenge to the efforts of the entire community. Are you willing to accept the challenge or must the first steps taken have been taken in vain? Shall the shadow of a library stand as a reproach to Burk Burnett citizens?

SCHOOLS COMING BACK

No single effect of the depression is more lamented than that which forced the public schools of the nation to attempt to continue to operate on greatly reduced budgets, and therefore it comes as cheering news to learn from the National Educational Association that the beginning of the new term sees the schools well on the road to recovery.

Thousands of boys and girls all over the land are trooping back to classrooms. They find that teacher vacancies have been filled, that curtailed activities have been resumed. Although by no means have economic skies entirely cleared for school authorities—there are still many districts in which strictest economy will have to be practiced—the improvement is reported as being general, from coast to coast and border to border, in the smaller towns as well as the larger cities.

Burkburnett parents should be gratified to learn that the futures of their sons and daughters are not further to be menaced by strongest times. But at the same time it might be wise for all concerned to look ahead and set up whatever safeguards are necessary to protect the schools from similar hardships in the future.

A FINE FAIR YEAR

Last year when county fairs throughout the country showed evidence of new life and interest there were those claimed it was only the revival of an old novelty and would not last. Just now, however, these same county fairs are proving again that the pessimists were wrong, for this year's fairs are reported to be running, as a general rule, far ahead of last years in attendance.

There is an appeal about the county fair that can neither be explained nor overlooked. High-priced free attractions do not make them a success, and neither do the "barkers" on the midway. There is something else serving as the magnet which still draws people to the fair grounds. It may be humanity's affection for fine horses; it may be their admiration of unusual livestock; it may be an interest in the things which American housewives know how to make better than the women of any other nation, or it may be a human longing for companionship and a chance to mingle for a few hours with one's neighbors and friends of long-standing. Surely it must be all of these in combination that makes the county fair different from any other form of entertainment, and which preserves its popularity from year to year.

The Burkburnett citizen who can attend a county fair and doesn't do so is losing something out of life that nothing can replace. There is no substitute for the county fair. So maybe, after all, it is that fact which accounts for its ability to succeed in so many communities when all other forms of amusement fail.

It's a funny world. If you guess where the little red ball will go that's gambling; but if you guess where stock prices will go that's genius.

What's the use. If you insist on your own way you are called selfish and if you give up to please others you are called "soft."

The schools can influence your state of mind, but your principles depend on the state of your purse.

If you wonder why they're called "finishing schools" take a look at old dad's pocketbook.

A wise wife is one who makes her husband wear a blue necktie when she serves huckleberry pie.

Money should never be referred to as "dough" because dough sticks to the fingers.

Conceit does to the pretty girl what castor oil would do to ice cream.

Periodic Health

By DR. WILLIAM J. SCHOLLES
PART 2

Statistics show that three to five per cent of the population are incapacitated through disease at all times. Also, that an average of ten days of the year is spent in illness by every man, woman and child in the United States. This enormous waste could be materially reduced were every person to receive a periodic health examination and live up to the instructions received at the time of that examination.

The Economic Waste of Disease

The loss in terms of money runs into countless millions. The cost in human suffering is incalculable. The slowing down of human progress is staggering. And all could be cut squarely in half were the value of regular physical examinations fully appreciated.

A periodic health examination not only prevents the so-called fatal diseases—it reduces those minor ailments which in the aggregate constitute an enormous economic loss in every man's life. The greatest single cause of dependence after middle life, with the possible exception of losses through bad investments, is sickness.

The man of means is the only one who can "afford" to be sick, and yet it is the man on a salary, the business man, and the wage earner who is least concerned about his health albeit he can least afford to be ill. A serious illness of a month in ninety per cent of cases creates an economic loss which the individual is fortunate to absorb within a year. And yet this loss in fully one-half of all cases is preventable.

Why You Should Be Examined

One occasionally encounters the argument that a periodic health examination is a waste of money. The burden of contention is, "Why should I spend fifty or a hundred dollars a year for such examinations when I probably wouldn't have been sick anyhow?"

This reasoning would be entirely sound could the word "probably" be deleted. Furthermore the merits or demerits of any health measure cannot be judged on an individual basis. Only conclusions based on observations covering 100,000 cases have any value. Of a given 100,000 population we know that a certain percentage will die this year, next year, and each year thereafter of certain preventable diseases. Some will die of heart disease, others of cancer, some of kidney disease, others of tuberculosis, and so on. Whether a certain person—YOU—will die next year or ten years hence, and what disease will cause your death, is of course beyond human ken. But you make up part of the 100,000 and you will eventually contribute your figure to the list from whose total the average of human life expectancy is calculated. Will YOU Be Living Next Year?

There are tens of thousands of people living today who will have died a year from now of a disease they have at the present moment but of whose existence they are as yet unaware. Most of these people would not die during the coming year if all would right now submit to an examination that would disclose their malady before it discloses itself.

Burkburnett girls are cheaper in one way. The cars they wreck while learning to drive usually belong to their boy friends.

Fairview P-TA
Met September 20

The Social Chairman, Mrs. Y. C. Paschall, served punch and cookies to those present at the teacher's reception sponsored by the Fairview Parent-Teachers Association Thursday night, September 13.

Reverend Gregory had charge of the Devotional. He read twenty-second chapter of Proverbs and made "train children at ability level" his theme.

Superintendent Y. C. Paschall taught us many lessons in his talk on "How Physical Surroundings Affect the Child's Start in Life". He discussed not only local physical surroundings, but also how the state and national conditions affect the lives of the local children. The meeting opened with a Sing Song conducted by Miss Maudell Gentry.

Just before the business meeting, Mrs. Erwin Brand, principal of the grade school, introduced the teachers. This introduction featured the three new teachers, Miss John Reagan Jacobson, teacher of the first grade, Miss Maudell Gentry, teacher of music and English in the elementary grades, and Mr. Charles L. Jones, teacher of mechanical drawing and shop work in the high school and mathematics in the grade school.

Then the business meeting, the most interesting part of the business was the reading of a menu that is to be served to the County Council at Fairview, October 10.

Burkburnett P-TA
Opens First Session
Wednesday

"The Welfare of under-privileged children will be our main project for this year," stated Mrs. J. N. Thomas, president of the Burkburnett Parent-Teachers Association in her message at the first meeting Thursday. This work will carry out the national theme for the year, "The Future of the Forgotten Child".

Rev. Hagard led the devotional, telling of the real service to humanity by education.

The rounds of applause that greeted the introduction of the faculty expressed approval of both old and new teachers.

Mrs. J. F. Kelley led the program. Mrs. M. W. Majors gave a brief history of Parent-Teacher work in Burkburnett and its meaning to the school and community.

Mrs. Wesbrook served wafers and punch to the large crowd at the close of the meeting.

Study Club Hears
Interesting Program

With Mrs. P. G. Williamson as leader, an interesting program was presented to members of the University Study Club, at the home of Mrs. Scott Williamson on Hayworth Avenue Wednesday afternoon.

Each member responded to roll call with the name of an opera, its composer and some interesting incident connected with it. Mrs. Duncan discussed "The Origin and Development of the Opera." She pointed out its changes and development from the early recitative or musical declamation to grand opera, naming artists who influenced this advancement.

"The Life of Mozart" was the subject of Mrs. Clifton's discussion. She told of his genius which was noticeable at the age of three, of his life as a musician and composer and of his early death, as a pauper. She pointed out that even though only thirty-five years of age at his death he left numbers of compositions, one of the most important being "The Magic Flute."

The lesson closed with Mrs. Pogue giving the story of "The Magic Flute." She gave the characters, the development of the plot, and quotations from some of the songs. An open discussion followed the lesson.

During the social hour refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames John Bostic, Ray Crisman, H. Lee Clifton, J. H. Davis, C. J. Duncan, R. M. Gilchrist, W. R. Hill, Geo. Kerr, Joe Majors, J. M. Pogue, H. W. Prinzing, R. P. Reagan, I. D. Russel, R. C. Tevis, W. D. Utts, Butler Westfield, P. G. Williamson and the hostesses.

Home Economics
Club Elects Officers

Tuesday afternoon the girls of the Home Economics Club of Fairview were favored with a picnic at the Burk Water Station. Games were played and then we elected officers as follows:

President, Eva Stimpson; vice president, Marion McClarney; secretary, Lenora Podberger; reporter, Ruby Jewell Williamson, publicity chairman, Lavern Beavers; chairman of social committee, Anita Pharris; chairman of program committee, Rosalie McCall; chairman of year book committee, Dorothy Siber; yell leader, Margaret N. White; song leader, Ruth Miller; Club Mothers, Mrs. Stimpson and Mrs. Podberger. Everyone had a lovely time. Picnic lunch was spread after the business meeting.

Gay Marianettes
Elects Officers

The Gay Marianettes of the Methodist Church, elected the following officers last Sunday: Willie Etta Alexander, president; Nedra Campbell, vice president; Margaret Coats, secretary and treasurer; Mildred Davis, reporter.

Mrs. J. M. Thomas was elected to teach our class. She is to succeed Mrs. P. G. Williamson who has been the teacher for about three years.

We invite all young people to attend Sunday School next Sunday at 9:45 a. m. —Reporter.

Methodist Church

Rev. Warren T. Whiteside will preach at the morning service. This will be Bro. Whiteside's last visit to us this conference year. Let's give a good audience. He will probably hold our Fourth Quarterly Conference in the afternoon.

The pastor will preach at the evening hour, 7:30 o'clock.

Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. This is Promotion Day. We hope each member will be present to find out his or her place for this next year.

TRADE YOUR OLD CAR TODAY
WHILE PRESENT PRICES LAST
We need several 1933 cars for our used car stock. Buy a new 1934 Chevrolet-and profit by good trade-in allowances before values drop

The longer you hold on to that old car of yours, the less chance you'll have of getting a good price on it. Used car values are constantly declining. Any automobile man will tell you that. Any automobile man will tell you it's wise to get rid of it now. You'll save yourself plenty of money if you do. And if you want a new car that's going to command a wonderful resale value in the future, buy a Chevrolet now. Chevrolet has Knee-Action wheels. Chevrolet is the only car in the low-price field that does. And it won't be long before Knee-Action will be considered just as important to have on a car as 4-wheel brakes. Knee-Action cars will be the preferred "buys" in the used car as well as the new car market. In fact, cars without Knee-Action probably won't "sell"—they'll be looked upon as out-of-date.

Prince, Joy Sessums, James Thomas, Neeley Vaught, Jack Everhart and the hostess, M. W. Majors.

Jr. Music Club Meets And Elects Officers

The Junior Music Club met at the home of Mrs. D. H. Gregory Tuesday evening. Vera Mae Johnson, past 1st. vice president presided during the meeting.

Programs for the year were discussed by the class and new officers elected as follows: Jannette Davidson, 1st vice president, Vera Mae Johnson, 2nd vice president; Mary Ruth Cooper, secretary-treasurer; General Gregory, reporter.

Piano numbers were played by members of the group. The next meeting will be with Betty Louise Barnes.

Refreshments were served to Betty Louise Barnes, Mary Helen Bundy, Mary Ruth Cooper, Jeanett Davidson, General Gregory, Vera Mae Johnson, Carroll Gregory, Allyn Kelly, Rubynell Russell.

Mrs. H. R. Hayes Hostess at Party

A delightful bridge party was enjoyed by guests at the home of Mrs. H. R. Hayes Monday afternoon.

The hostess arranged for one table of auction and two tables contract. Mrs. Clyde Bohner won high score prize in auction while Mrs. Walter Bohner won low score prize. Mrs. Morris Bookbinder won high score prize and Mrs. Henry Porter low score prize in contract.

Mrs. Kell Wylie was presented a number of lovely gifts by guest present with Mesdames Fulcher Armstrong and Royce Huddleston of Wichita Falls sending gifts.

Those attending were the honoree, Mrs. Kell Wylie and Mesdames Lewis Ryan, Henry Porter, Morris Bookbinder, Johnnie Anderson, Leslie Welch, S. B. Crissey, Walter Bohner, Clyde Bohner, Jimmie Collier, Miss Mamie Stewart and the hostess Mrs. H. R. Hayes.

Dry: "There are fifty speak-eases in this town, and I'm proud to say, I've never been in one of them."
Wet: "Which one is that?"

Mrs. Kell Wylie Shower Honoree

Among the complimentary parties of the week was a surprise friendship shower given Mrs. Kell Wylie Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. R. Hayes with Mrs. H. A. Goodwin as co-hostess.

A program of entertainment featured a mock business session to keep the honor guest waiting until the arrival of Mrs. Nora Jordan, playing the part of negro mammy, delivering the collection of gifts. A floral love was told by answering questions with the names of flowers by all present and a contest of jumbled words was played.

After a display of the dainty gifts the hostesses served a delicious refreshment plate to those present: Mesdames H. M. Booth, Glen Howard, R. A. Brownin, B. F. Gilchrist, W. O. Alexander, Edna Marshall, Nora Brumme, L. J. Lorang, Leo Foster, H. C. Ellis, Fred Brookman, Sam Davis, H. A. Goodwin and H. R. Hayes. Those sending gifts but were unable to attend were Mesdames W. M. Franks, George Bryarly, J. C. Adams, W. W. Estes, W. T. Bush, O. B. Wofford.

Y. W. A.

The Y. W. A. met Monday evening at 7 o'clock at the regular meeting place. The time has been changed to 6:45 o'clock. The auxiliary opened with a song led by Matalie McClure. Each person quoted a scripture from the Bible for the devotional. We had a business meeting in which all new officer were elected for the coming year. Marie England resigned from reporter and took Personal Service Chairman. The Y. W. A. will have charge of the program Wednesday night at prayer meeting.

Those present were: Mesdames Brooks Robertson and Geo. Kent, Misses Natalie McClure, Elva Jane England, Marie England, Edna Styles, Florence Nichols, Thelma McCaig, and Goldie McCaig.

Harris-Warn Wedding Announced This Week

Announcement was made this week of the marriage of Miss Josephine Warn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Warn and John Harris both of Burkburnett. The marriage was an event of last June 10 in Waurika, Okla. and has been kept a secret by the young couple until this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris have been residents of Burkburnett for a number of years and both attended school here.

School Of Expression And Dancing to Open Here Tuesday

Mrs. H. L. Gross of the Gross School of Expression and Dancing of Wichita Falls will be in Burkburnett Tuesday to open a branch dance studio at 205 S. Avenue D at the home of Mrs. Lynn Kincaid.

There will be a short program presented by a group of dance pupils of the Gross School at the Palace Theatre Friday night, in connection with the regular feature.

Mrs. Gross has successfully and satisfactorily operated her school in Wichita Falls for the past five years, and she will endeavor to give the people of Burkburnett the same courteous service that has marked her success in Wichita Falls.

Business Men's Class Entertained Women's Class Chicken Dinner

An enjoyable event of Monday night for members of three women's Sunday School classes of the First Baptist church was the social given by members of the Business Men's Sunday School class in the basement of the Baptist church. For the past few weeks the classes have been in an attendance contest with the chicken dinner in view for the winners. As chicken dinners are a rare treat for women, served by men, the women came out far ahead in the contest.

A number of entertaining features were presented during the program with W. C. Cross as master of ceremonies. All numbers were well presented and appreciated by the audience.

A sumptuous chicken dinner was served to approximately four hundred men, women and children.

Buying a Cheaper Tire?—Get It From Well-Known Firm

Pointing out that big manufacturers of automobile tires make tires not quite as expensive as their regular higher priced lines, Jim Alexander, local dealer for The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., stresses the importance of not risking an accident with cheap tires made by an unknown manufacturer.

"Many motorists have the erroneous idea that big tire manufacturers, such as Goodyear, which is the largest builder of tires in the world, do not make less expensive brands," Mr. Alexander said.

"This is emphatically not the case, but a lot of car owners purchase tires of unknown quality made by an unknown manufacturer, when they can have a tire made by a nationally known organization at no greater cost—a tire the quality of which is assured and is backed by the firm.

"Goodyear, for instance, manufacturers the Speedway tire—which costs less, to be sure, but which has traction in the center of the tread where it is most needed, and the carcass of which is made of Super-twist cord, giving thousands of miles of additional wear due to its ability to stretch and come back as the tire flexes while being driven. Center traction, thick tread, ribbed side-walls—all these things mean safety; and I am strongly of the opinion a motorist is not exercising proper precaution against accident when he buys a tire made by unknown manufacturer just because it is inexpensive."

A sailor, after placing some flowers on a grave in the cemetery, noticed an old Chinaman placing a bowl of rice on a nearby grave, and asked: "When do you expect your friend to come up and eat the rice?"

The old Chinaman replied with a smile: "Same time your friend come to smell flowers."

Hardin Club Members Attend Reception

Members of Hardin Home Demonstration Club, who attended the reception Saturday afternoon, honoring Mrs. M. G. Catter who was, before her recent marriage, Miss Ethel Louise Webb, county demonstration agent, were Mesdames W. D. Bent, Edith Goodlett, Fred Brookman, A. A. Evert, M. R. Howell and F. O. Minick. Mrs. Evert was included in the receiving line and Mrs. Brookman read a paper.

Freshman Flashes

Polly Hall
This year we're having lots of fun. We're Freshmen and we're getting big, And every mother's and every father's son Congratulates himself on all he has done,
While he eats up book knowledge like a pig.

For the first time we study Latin, that language of the dead, And even though it's hard in Algebra we find play.
"This year is the hardest," we laugh at him who thus said.
Sometimes people brag on us and we send it promptly to our head.
We must confess we're sorry when an end it at each happy day.

There are many mysteries in the high eighth class. One of the most baffling is who is the nice looking red-headed boy Barjetta Owens has been giving her attention to for the past week? Also we would like to know why Doris Ruth Barnes blushes when anyone says "Corky".

"Jackey," said Mrs. Kelly, "are you teaching that parrot to use slang?"

"No mother," Jack replied, "I'm just teaching him what not to say."

Mr. Westerfield: "Here, young man, don't you know you shouldn't hit a fellow when he's down?"

Rike P.: "Well, what do you think I got him down for?"

Billy Walker came back to school Monday after a week's absence because of illness.

J. C. Adams is out of school on account of illness.

"What do you think of my sun tan, Auntie?" asked Olena in the bathing suit.
Auntie: "I think you should have been tanned by a stick instead of the sun."

Did you see the Senior Queen at the County Fair??

Nedra—Have you ever kissed a girl before?

Bub—No, but I've put crosses at the end of a letter.

Dietitian—Yes, a few lettuce leaves, without oil, and a glass of orange juice. There Miss that completes your daily diet.

Miss Morgan—Thank you, doctor, but do I take this before meals.

Scottie's Wife—Don't you think baby grows more like me every day?

Scottie—Yes, especially since she began to talk.

Miss Kirby, returning home late, thought she heard some one under the bed. "Who's there?" she called out.

"No one," replied the burglar. "Funny," said Miss Kirby, "I could have sworn I heard someone."

The Spice of Life

OLD AGE

The oldest inhabitant of the village had celebrated his hundredth birthday, and the reporter of a local paper called on him for an interview.

Having congratulated the old fellow, the reporter asked a few questions.

"To what," he inquired, "do you attribute your longevity?"

The centenarian paused a moment and then began: "I have never smoked, drunk alcoholic liquors, nor over-eaten, and I always rise at six in the morning."

"But," protested the reporter, "I had an uncle who acted in the same way, yet he only lived to be eighty. How do you account for that?"

"He didn't keep it up long enough!" was the calm reply.

Mrs. Peck: "I trust, Henry, you are coming home tonight promptly at nine o'clock."

Henry (hesitatingly): "I had thought about 10 —"

Mrs. Peck (interrupting sharply): "What did you say?"

Henry (quickly): "About 10 minutes to nine, dear."

A colored gentleman on being asked by his parson how was his better half, replied "She's bettah, thanks suh, but Parson, yo' sho' is careless wif yo' fractions."

Bank Clerk: "Now that you work in a theatre you can send me a few tickets now and then."

Theatre Clerk: "Certainly, and in return you can send me a few greenbacks from your bank now and then."

Then, there's the minister who says he doesn't mind if the members of the congregation pull out their watches on him, but what gets his goat is when they put the darn things up to their ears to see if they are going!

Poet: "I am going to publish a volume of my poems and do it under the name of John Smith."

Friend: "Well, I don't think that would be quite fair."

Poet: "Why not?"

Friend: "Just think of the thousands of innocent men who will be suspected."

BOY: A noise with dirt on it.

DID SHE FALL FOR IT?

Wife: "Mrs. Jones has another new hat."

Hubby: "Well, if she were as attractive as you are, my dear, she wouldn't have to depend so much upon the milliner."

No. 1: "I only worked three days last week."

No. 2: "Gee! I wish I could find a steady job like that!"

Salesman: "What kind of car would you like, madam, four, six or eight cylinders?"

Timid Customer: "Couldn't I begin with one?"

Mrs. Slack was taking her first ride in an auto and watched with growing alarm the driver continually putting his hand outside as a signal to the following traffic. At last she could stand it no longer, and becoming angry said: "Young man, you look after that car of yours and watch where you're going. I'll tell you when it starts raining."

Visitor: "What are you doing in here if you aren't guilty?"

Prisoner: "I want to be a warden and I'm starting at the bottom."

There were just as many reckless drivers thirty years ago, but the horses had more sense.

Traffic Policeman: "Hey, you, didn't you hear me yelling for you to stop?"

Motorist: "Oh, was that you yelling? I thought that was just somebody I had run over."

THE GOODYEAR MARGIN OF SAFETY

Skidding—cause of 5 1/2 times more accidents than blowouts—becomes more dangerous as winter approaches. For quickest stops buy "G-3" Good-years—proved safest by 8,400 tests.

When you must suddenly jam on your brakes, averting an accident often is a matter of inches. Well, stop tests on slippery pavement show: on smooth tires you slide 77% farther, on other new tires you slide 14% to 19% farther than on new "G-3" Good-year All-Weathers. That's the Goodyear Margin of Safety—a big reason why more people buy Goodyears than any other tire. Since it costs you nothing extra, why not have this margin of safety on your car too?

Office News

The following report on absences and tardies comes from the office:

	Tardy	Absent
Mon.	10	11
Tues.	8	0
Wed.	12	12
Thurs.	0	5
Fri.	10	8
Totals	40	36

Of course we realize this is nothing new but by reading our absences and tardies we help maintain higher school standards. Each student is requested to do his part toward keeping down absences and tardies.

Bulldogs

The bulldogs headed by Coach Volney Hill are greatly enthused by the number of supporters they have backing them this year. The bulldogs feel very grateful to the supporters and in showing their appreciation they will show them a championship team. Team spirit has been aroused very much lately and the boys are working hard for a district team.

The team consists of:
 R. E. Wayne Rose, Truett Majors
 R. T. Wilmer McNeil, Ed Martin
 R. G. Owen Hatcher, Carl Cook
 Center Howard Bentley
 L. T. Bill Jeffers
 L. E. Ray Lawler, Travis Milligan
 L. G. Eldon Andrews, S. Brashier
 Q. B. Johnnie Baptiste, G. L. Shaffer
 L. H. Tollie McKown, Louis Sims
 R. H. J. C. Peyton, Eddie Young, Hubert Gragg.

F. B. Oothor Wheeler, J. T. Clifton
 Others reporting for practice: Lorn Clements and Clifford Duke.
 As there are a number of games on the home field this season the Bulldogs will greatly appreciate the continued backing of the citizens. The schedule is as follows:
 Sept. 28, Iowa Park at Iowa Park.
 Oct. 5, Newcastle at Burkburnett.
 Oct. 19, Throckmorton at Burkburnett.
 Oct. 26, Olney at Burkburnett.
 Nov. 2, Open.
 Nov. 9, Crowell at Burkburnett.
 Nov. 16, Archer City at Archer City.
 Nov. 23, Electra at Electra.
 Nov. 29, Chillicothe at Burkburnett.

Business Of Being Seniors

Say, what was that noise from the other end of the hall? Don't be alarmed—that was "only" the senior class. There is nothing like a country week for them. You should be surprised at the outcome.

corn fed country boy to do all of the work or have the work done for the Senior Class—therefore our president is "Loyd Gwinn". It takes more than talking to get anything done—he "can take it"—and can he "dish it out".

It takes a loyal "supporter" to hold a job as responsible as Vice-President. Just think the hours and hours of leisure and waiting for the president to get sick. Tex Allen is the boy of "Vim, Vigor, and Vitality" (or is he?) for that intelligent job.

For a nice hand out (only in writing) Frances Clark was elected secretary. Since there is no brain work, the class as a whole thought perhaps she could handle the job.

Treasurer? The selection was none other than that of "Bonnie Parker" oh—I beg your pardon, I meant Grace Russel. Perhaps she'll be as trustworthy to the Seniors as Bonnie was to "her" man.

What's this about the reporter? No, it couldn't be that "yarn teller", "nick-naming" Gayle Preston. I suppose she's the one for the job—as far as exaggeration is concerned.

Well, if "Old Collection" Gregg isn't coming our way again. He will say, "Brother, can you spare a dime?" You see there's nothing like a leisure man to collect all the money he can.

We selected the insane yet brilliant (in ways) Boden girl, Marian, to be our chairman of the entertainment committee. We are looking forward to some entertainments that will be "humdingers." Marian has the originality and personality to carry the job on.

Our beauty also got an office. Our programs are going to have a "snap, pop, and crackle" to them this year. It doesn't take what you term brilliance for this but we are sure Olena can easily find some marvelous talent in the Senior Class.

Then comes our yell leaders. As it is generally known that Malene is "little but loud" and that Wade Goodlett is as loud but so little—could you guess in three guesses who are the yell leaders?

Thus ended our little election which went over with a bang. That's what you heard. "Beware of the

Total Enrollment

The enrollment of the Burkburnett Schools is unusually large this year. The student body is expecting to accomplish more this year than ever before. The following is the enrollment of the school by grades: 1st Grade, 122; 2nd grade, 115; third grade, 103; fourth grade, 118; Fifth grade, 155; sixth grade, 120; seventh grade, 108; eighth grade, 104; ninth grade, 69; tenth grade, 58; eleventh grade, 67; Total, 1139.

Would You Believe It?

Friday night at seven-thirty, the senior class put aside its dignity long enough to meet at Hardin Park to have the much talked-of kid party. Just try to imagine how some of the seniors looked dressed as kids. There were some that were six feet and two inches tall who wore knee trousers, and others really looked like kids in little red and white checked dresses. Of course they all enjoyed swinging, riding the merry-go-round, and the childish games and songs. They gave some yells, just to let everyone know they were around.

Malene Baber wasn't sure that everyone knew she was there and insisted that she be allowed to read, so to keep peace she was allowed to do so. Naturally Marian Boden, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boden, not wanting Malene to do more than she, was allowed to dance. Then "little" Tex Allen asked to say his "verse."

Before anyone else could ask to appear on program some of the children suggested a trip to town. As children's wishes must be granted, Miss Morgan consented. After parading up and down the "drag" they stopped and once again entertained all who cared to listen.

As kids are always attracted to carnivals, that was the next place the Class of '35 "honored" with their presence. You have to give the carnival owners some credit for having a very substantial ferris wheel, as it held up under the strain. Some of the children showed their intelligence by making the discovery that one could get "the desired effect" by riding the merry-mix-up. Some of the boys were childish enough to try the airplane, but Miss Morgan was successful in keeping the little tots from the little cars.

Once again the fair city was disturbed, as they went to the Rexall Drug Store for refreshments. In all too short a time, the senior kid party was a thing of the past.

Pep Squad News

The pep squad is working very hard for the game at Iowa Park, Friday night and we expect our football team to come out on top. We are sure that the boys are going to do their best to make the starting a grand success.

All girls are asked to come and work out with the pep squad. We need more girls to co-operate with us in this way. Don't forget the parties and picnics that are to come in the future.

High School Library

On Monday, September 24, two boxes containing 111 badly worn library books were sent by freight to a bookbinding company in Colorado. In several weeks the books will be returned with new, bright-colored backs ready for months of service. Statistics have been compiled by librarians showing that while a book in a publisher's binding can circulate about ten times without becoming worn, a re-bound book can circulate one hundred times.

Basketball

Smokey Shafer

Coach Robison in a statement Wednesday said he was starting his pre-season training sometimes within the next week. Probably three practices a week will be held at first, these starting at 7:30 p. m. After two or three weeks of this he plans to start regular practice.

At present material is very slim, but a pickup is expected when football turns lose many able gridders, who are blessed with talent for both sports.

A new league is being formed for the quintets of the nearby districts. This league is now composed of Olney, Wichita Falls, Crowell, Electra, Quanah and Seymour. Our new coach contemplates joining this league in order to give his boys more practice before they enter conference schedule. Heretofore the surrounding schools have had an advantage on the local boys due to the fact that basketball is started in these schools at a very early date, having no football squad and it being their only sport. This advantage will be removed somewhat this year although many first class basketball players will have little opportunity to practice the sport their efforts at present and until two weeks before basket ball conference opens being used in a football way.

In our new coach, we have a man who starred during his college career, and has shown himself to be an excellent judge in handling boys. As to his ability in coaching the game of basketball we have but to wait.

All boys interested in basketball, Coach Robison requests to meet him in the high school gym at 4 p. m. Monday, Oct. 1.

Marvin S.—But, darling, we arranged to keep our engagement a secret.

Juanita M.—Yes, love; but I could not help it. Yesterday, Corene said no idiot would ever marry me and I had to contradict her.

2B Spanish Strike

If any of you Spanish students think you can "Strike" under Miss Kirby you are badly mistaken. Monday, Sept. 24, the 2b Spanish Class had an oral theme, which has been common since school started. Monday, you know, is usually a "blue" day. Someone checked up and found out the best students in the class, with the exception of one, hadn't prepared the lesson; so, the strike began. A birdie must have let Miss Kirby know that something was storming the air. Those eighteen Spanish students believe they will work awhile for a change, and we're most sure there will be a change. "We hope so," as Miss Kirby would reply.

Assembly Program

The Assembly Program Thursday, Sept. 20 was opened by the entire assembly singing "America" and "The Star-Spangled Banner", led by Miss McClure.

Mr. Duncan introduced the speaker, Mr. Minter, of the American Legion, who gave a talk about the Constitution.

Mr. Westerfield gave a brief talk. The students agree that he gave them some profitable advice.

Mr. Duncan made several announcements and then the pupils met their fourth period classes.

Ruby L. B. (concluding the quarrel) I suppose you would like your ring back.

Sam F.—(politely) I would, rather—unless you can find somebody to take over the remaining installments.

Senior Girls Quartet

The Senior girls quartet has organized. They expect to accomplish much the ensuing year. The quartet is composed of Marion Boden, Malene Baber, Olena Cash, and Katie Mae Taylor. They will be accompanied by Miss Blanche Butler.

"Make Burkburnett Schools The Best In Texas"

Ignorance, bigotry, prejudice and intolerance all down the centuries have tried to crush intelligence with cruelty, reason with brutality, and spirituality with madness. This quartet of banalities constitute the curse of the world. IGNORANCE is the parent of the other three.

Comfort at a BARGAIN

NATURAL GAS is the perfect complement to modern living—it gives extraordinary conveniences and comfort at a cost that is within the reach of all.

For the amount of comfort contributed to living, Natural Gas Service is the outstanding value of all household purchases.

Considered in the light, Natural Gas is an unusual bargain in comfort be it in the smallest cottage or most elaborate home.

Burkburnett Gas Co.

R. J. Kelly, Manager

Senior Apron, Overall Party

Loyd Guinn, president of the senior class, announced that in the near future the Seniors will motor out to the big barn, which has been constructed near his home, for an Apron and Overall party.

Loyd evidently made this announcement in advance to the invitation in order that the girls who are not in the habit of helping their mothers enough to need aprons may have them made. Then too, it is not impossible that some boy has not found the need of overalls.

At any rate each senior is anticipating a good time.

Scraps from the Banquet

Note: (to begin with "Banquet" refers to the occasion at which the Rotary and Lions Clubs entertained the faculty.)

In introducing one of the teachers at the banquet, Mr. Westerfield said that her home was in Lake Dallas. Really, Mr. Westerfield, we didn't know there was any house in that lake.

Why did someone have to ask Mr. Reaves to introduce his guest? Surely he has not turned bashful on us.

It must have been some of the married men who introduced the idea of handing out numbers for partners at the banquet.

Just what did Miss Gideon mean by "carousing around?" Anyway, she seemed quite hopeful over the idea of giving the response to the welcome address, since most of those who have preceded her in the past have already given up school-teaching to become housewives.

The prize joke of the evening seemed to be the following: "A little girl signed her name as Mae West on her arithmetic paper. When the teacher asked why she did it, she said: 'I done 'em wrong.'"

The secretary of the Lions Club read a letter from the Lions Club headquarters in Chicago in which were listed the games of the Burkburnett who attended the World's Fair. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Blackwell.

Our Seniors

Eldon Andrews
 Just another Senior and a faithful football player for the Bulldogs. He was born in the fair city of Duncan, Oklahoma (another Oklahoma friend), in 1926, August 26. He is 18 years old, 6 ft. 11 in. tall, has brown eyes and is nearly a blond (here's your chance girls with a brown eyed blond).

He moved to Texas in 1920 and went to school at Fairview (another friend from the country) until his Sophomore year when he entered our dear ole' B. H. S.

A few of his favorites are: Teacher, Miss Morgan; Sport, Football; He plays tackle on the team (a good one at that). Food, Hamburgers (Wimpy the second); Hobby, Tinkering with Radios. (He's going to make the Senior class one) maybe. Movie Actress, Jean Harlow; Song, "Hold Me."

Malene Baber

Malene Baber (better known as half-pint Baber from Bunny Pond).

A little town in Alabama was certainly honored with the birth of this young lady. It was in Edwardsville, Alabama in 1916 on Sept. 23. So you see she is just 18 years old.

She moved from Alabama to our neighbor state Okla. at the age of 8. She is 5 feet 3 inches tall and has blue eyes. By the way, she is a brunette. (Little but loud); so she was elected the yell leader of the Senior Class for the year of '35. We know she will be a good one for she likes that football hero, G. L. S., and the peppy Senior Class is backing her.

A few of her favorites are: Teacher, Miss Morgan; Subject, Love; Sport, riding with a crowd; Food, Most anything; Hobby, Acting like a kid; Boy, The boy that works for that good Junior Class (the president); Pastime, Thinking of Oklahoma City; Song, (Since she is from Alabama) "The Alabama Jubilee, is her favorite; Movie Actor, Bing Crosby; Actress, Mae West (her next best pal).

Mr. Hill—May I have this afternoon off— I want to see a man about a job for my wife.

Mr. Westerfield—Will you be back tomorrow morning?

Mr. Hill—Yes, if she doesn't get it.

Lorene A. I suppose you are on the football team?

J. T. C.—Well, yes; I do the aerial work.

Lorene—What is that?
 J. T. C.—I blow up the footballs.

Senior Class To Sell Rings October 3

The Senior Class has requested all ring salesmen who wish to consider buying rings from to be in Burkburnett on October 3.

The class elected a committee consisting of: the president, Guinn, Secretary, Frances Guinn, Treasurer, Grace Russel; chairman of finance committee, Hubert and Loyd Wolf. The duty committee is to meet all ring salesmen and select the two make best propositions. The class will meet these two salesmen and the ring that pleases the majority.

Soph Class Attendance

The Sophomore class of Burkburnett made up of three sections, which have one of the best dance records in the school. The records of the sophomores have been one of challenging some of the classes to an attendance record test, but have not completed plans as yet.

Last year the L-8-1 section freshmen (now sophomores) better attendance record than any other section in school, the first to the eleventh grades. The sophomores will co-operate and record will not be broken.

Burkburnett Defeats Nocona

Smoky Shafer
 The game between the Bulldogs and the Nocona Indians marked by a thrilling start and brilliant finish the Bulldogs led 10-0.

Nocona took Burk opening off and were not stopped and had reached the Bulldogs yard line. The gritty Bulldog dug in and held them for a gain and the ball a succession of plunges and end runs by Wheeler and Sims the Bulldogs placed in scoring position on yard line. Quarter Baptist carried the ball over on a for the first score of the game. Wheeler plunged over for the point but was called back of an off-sides. Sim's try went wild. The end of the quarter found the score six to six in favor of the Bulldogs.

The second quarter was full, the only thrill being the Bulldogs threatened the goal by rushing to their fifty yard line.

There was no more scoring in the third quarter when the sprinted forty yards around end for Nocona's only score. Every kick for extra point was. Thus the game was left standing and seven, Nocona, until the three minutes of play during Wheeler plunged over for the point was good and the game was tied.

Andrews turned in a nice at guard showing an uncertainty to get in the Indians but thereby causing them no end of stress. Sims turned in his usual performance and Wheeler of leg injuries did well with plunging. Young played at half did good work, while Boden did much better than was expected in directing the team as he is the job. Babstise also passed times letting only two go.

The Bulldogs are now going for the Iowa Park game which will be played under the arcs of the Wichita County Fair at Iowa Friday 28.

English Instructors Meet

The English instructors of Burkburnett High School met with Miss Alice Morgan at the home of Mrs. Judd Exley on Monday evening at 7:15. Plans for the ensuing year were discussed and formulated. It was decided that there would be uniformity of style in all work. The pupils' English work was carefully checked by all of the teachers by means of an effort sheet sent out by the English department.

Miss Gorin, the librarian, presented the reading lists for the different grades from which books for the library will be selected. It was decided that the teachers in the English department would be given regular meetings. Miss Thelma Gular invited the group to meet with her next time.

At the close of the business guests arrived and enjoyed a social hour, after which love refreshments were served to the following: Misses Gladys West, Norene Kirby, Thelma Dunlap, Ethel Virginia Allen, Katherine Forman, Polk Robison, T. J. Blackwell, Jack Exley; and the hostess, Mrs. Judd Exley and Miss Morgan.

A Few Items Too Late For Last Weeks Issue:

Attendance at Sunday School
Sunday was 70. Our lesson was Isaiah's Contrast and True Worship.

The new song books were ordered last week and will be here for next Sunday the 23rd.

On Friday night, Sept. 28th is the night for our regular community meeting. Since most of the people are gathering their crops it was put off until the last Friday night in November.

On Friday night, Sept. 28th, will be our annual box supper for the benefit of the school. A fine program will be rendered by the school.
Everyone is cordially invited to come as a good time is assured.

Miss Marjorie and Miss Margarette Pirtle, Miss Pauline Ashton, and Miss Flora Dell Mason spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas.
Griffin and family.

Miss Modena Elkins spent Sunday visiting with Miss Evelyn Hatcher.

The 5th and 6th grades have for their projects this month, gathering insects of different types. They enjoy this very much.

Rev. Vernon Thornton, our boy preacher, filled his regular appointment at the Rabbit Creek school house Sunday night, but could not get here for the morning services.
Bro. Thornton delivered a fine sermon.

Miss Marjorie and Miss Margarette were sprinkled by Rev. Mitchell of Randlett two weeks ago.

Next services by Rev. Thornton will be the last Sunday of this month. Erwin Delbeck will be baptized at the Baptist Church in Burk-burnett, Texas at 3:00 p. m.

The 4-H Club held their regular monthly party at the school house last Friday night. Every one present had a fine time.

The rainy weather Friday kept the 4-H Club from displaying their farm and home products at Walters, Okla. as they always do. In spite of the dry weather, the club had some fine products.

Mr. Tobe Hardin and Mrs. Martha Nails and Aunt Mollie Rogers called on the Owens family Sunday afternoon. Aunt Mollie called before leaving for her home in Eastern Oklahoma. Their call and visit was greatly appreciated by the family.

Special Days at The Dallas Fair

Dallas, Sept. 26.—There will be many special days at the forty eighth State Fair of Texas which will attract thousands of visitors to the great Southwestern Exposition.

These special days, subject to additions at a later date, are as follows:

October 6th, Texas Day, Press
Day, First Officers Training Camp
Day, and Commercial Executives
Day.

October 8th, Agricultural day.
October 9th, Dallas Day and Kentucky Day.

October 10th, Girls Club and Texas Eclectic Day.

October 11th, Marvin College,
Confederate Veterans, G. A. R. and Oglesby Relief Corps Day.

October 12th, Childrens Day and Columbus Day.

October 13th, Texas and Oklahoma Day.

October 14th, Czech, Spanish
American War Veterans, Wichita
County and Texas Historic Nut Tree Planters Day.

October 15th, Negro Day, Wiley
College, Prairie View Normal and Frances Perkins Days.

October 16th, Jersey Cattle Breeders Association and Agricultural Workers Days.

October 17th, Boys' Club, Jersey

Day.

October 19th, Carnival Night,
High School Day, Philatelic Day
and Rotary Day.

October 20th, Future Farmers Day and Music Day.

October 21st, Closing Day and Future Farmers.

For the first time in history there will be a Frog Show at the State Fair of Texas. In a specially constructed pool, adjacent to the Poultry Building, Superintendent Walter Burton has arranged to exhibit some 800 monster bull frogs. These frogs have been specially caught in the ponds of East Texas. The frog orchestra will give concerts nightly with basso profundo solos prevailing. To keep the frogs company Mr.
Burton will install a couple of hundred turtles of all varieties as their pond-fellows.

Some Burkburnett people seem to think that the chief thing about hospitality out in the country is a chicken dinner.

The Spice of Life

End of Willie's Prayer: "—and,
dear Lord, please put vitamins in cake and candy instead of spinach and cod liver oil."

"Now, then, what should a polite little boy say to a lady who has given him a penny for carrying her grip?"
"I'm too polite to say it madam."

Jones had occasion to reprimand his wife. "I think, dear," he said soothingly, "that you fib a little occasionally."
She immediately became indignant.

"Well, I think it's a wife's duty."
"Wife's duty?" he echoed, wondering what was coming.

"Yes, to speak well of her husband occasionally," came the reply.

She: "What shall I do if they want me to sing?"

He: "Why, sing, of course—it'll be their own fault!"

Newlywed: "Did you make these biscuits with your own little hands?"

Bride: "Why, yes, darling."

Newlywed: "Well, who helped you lift them out of the stove?"

OVER THE TOP
A Brussels theatre has found means of making ladies remove their hats. Before the performance a strip appears on the screen curtain. "The management wishes to spare elderly ladies inconvenience.
They are required to retain their hats." There follows a general stampede to remove hats.

Lady (to new Maid): "How did it happen that you never saw finger bowls before? Didn't they use them where you worked last?"

New Maid: "No, Ma'am, they mostly washed themselves before they went to the table."

Mrs. Brown: "She told me that you told her the secret I told you not to tell her."

Mrs. Green: "The mean thing! I told her not to tell you I told her."
Mrs. Brown: "Well, don't tell her that I told you she told me."

You ride better..you drive better..you feel better in a Knee Action CHEVROLET

THE Ownership Test is simplicity itself. Chevrolet, through any of its dealers, will gladly lend you a new car to drive over the same routes and in the same way you drive every day. Chevrolet is confident you will like the freedom from jolts that Knee-Action brings—the restfulness of shock-proof steering—the luxurious appointments of the big Fisher body—the getaway of an 80-horsepower engine—the smooth, sure action of cable-controlled brakes—the refreshed feeling you enjoy when you are through. In fact, Chevrolet believes that the Ownership Test will prove to your complete satisfaction that the low-priced
Chevrolet is the car for you and yours.

If Steps Could Talk

By Melba Clark
People see all kinds of steps. There are long flights and short flights. Steps made of wood, stone, concrete, brick and steel. This is what some of the steps said:

First let's listen to some wooden steps. These steps are found inside the home of Mr. A. They are very heavily carpeted.

Bottom Step: "Hey! tell the third step to wake up. Say, number three, do you remember that a year ago tonight Mrs. A's pearls were stolen? Those burglars stepped on us. Here comes the maid. I can't help groaning when she steps on me. She's so terribly overweight, and she steps on that sharp nail every time."

Here are some stone steps. These steps are found in a courthouse.

Step: "My, but I'm tired! People have been tramping on me all day. Did you notice that couple who went in to get a marriage license? If everyone's steps were as springy as their's, I wouldn't be so tired. And did you see that poor old woman who went in to tell the county clerk she couldn't pay the mortgage? It was terrible. I'll bet it's not every courthouse step in the world who can boast that Al Capone walked on him."

Next Step: "Likewise. And twice today, men have married by beautiful complexion with matches."

Now for some concrete steps. These are found in a school building.

Step: "Aren't we beautiful in our new coats of paint? But how long will we stay that way. Some boy has already given the step below me a nasty scratch. If I could, some day I would actually straighten out under that cranky English teacher. I pity the poor pupils."

Next Step: "Did you see that girl who was here getting her credits. She's going to Bryn Mawr. Is she lucky? I wish I could go there. Maybe they'd treat me better."

Let's listen to some brick steps. These steps are found on the house of Mrs. X. They are at the kitchen door.

Corner Brick: "Move over, will you. You're about to crowd me off. My corner is just about worn off too. That grocery boy steps on me every time. Here he comes."

These steel steps are found back stage in a theatre.

Step: "We've nothing to fuss about I suppose. Some of the greatest Stars of the time have stepped on us. Sh-here comes the leading lady and man. Listen Leading man. 'Alright Elizabeth it's settled. After the show we'll get married!'"

"Leading Lady—'But what do you suppose the director will say?' Leading Man—'Why bother about the director? He won't find out until afterwards.' Leading Lady—'But he might discharge us.' Leading Man, 'We'll find another job.'"

Step: "That's the most pleasant thing I've heard today. Maybe the life of a step isn't so bad after all."

The Cathedral, Mexico City

Miss Kirby
On the north side of the Zocalo, a park in the center of Mexico City, stands the largest cathedral in N. America.

To stand before this magnificent structure, centuries old and lavishly decorated with carved facades, statues, and towers, is to realize the artistic abilities of the Spaniards.

The Cathedral measures more than 387 feet in length by 177 feet in width with a height of 174 feet. The twin towers rise 203 feet above the atrium. In the west tower hangs the large bell that measures ten feet across, sixteen feet in height and weighs 27,000 pounds. The clapper alone weighs 500 pounds. This bell was made in 1795 at a cost of $10,400.

The very pleasant little bell-ringer lives in one part of the east tower and takes a delight in guiding visitors to the dizzy heights of these towers from where they may look down on colorful Mexico City or up and across to the beautiful mountains that embrace Mexico. He explains with a smile that all the bells of the two towers are run only twice a year; one the tenth of December, and on the fifteenth of September, which is their Fourth of July. On these two dates one hundred and twenty men are needed to ring all the bells at once—sixty for each tower.

Within this cathedral are found fourteen chapels each decorated with gold and with statues carved from ivory. These are along the length of the cathedral—seven to each side. On entering through the massive doorway of carved wood, one sees in front of him The Alter of Pardons; behind that is the choir enclosed by a magnificent grill topped by three crosses. This same tombac or railing connects the choir with the High Alter, is made of gold, silver and copper, and is surmounted by fifty-two figurines that serve as candelabra. It weighs 26 tons and cost $1,500,000.

The High Alter is an imposing mass of columns of marble and jade and of gold and ivory figures of Christ, Mary and Angels.

Beyond this is "La Capilla de Los Reyes." The walls and ceilings of this chapel are more than a hundred feet high and are carved and covered with fine gold. Priceless statues carved of ivory occupy the niches in the wall.

Hundreds worship here each week; confessions to the priests are made each hour.

Americans stand in awe before this Cathedral and consider it a marvel of Mexico and a lasting monument to the Spanish Conquest, but to see them all over Mexico by the hundreds, as in Cholula where there are 360—one for each day in the year—is to know that Mexico has been and is a land of wealth and religion.

Where The Teachers Spent the Summer

Mr. Forman spent the summer in Cunningham, Kansas. He started working for the Skelly Oil Company on Monday after school dismissed and completed his task a week before school started.

Miss Michie, our Home Economics teacher, spent the summer at her home in Farmersville, Texas, for the first time in five years. During the summer she applied some of the principles of Home Economics.

Mr. Blackwell spent a part of the summer in Denton and the latter part in Chicago (some contrast in cities, eh?)

Miss Morgan, our Senior sponsor attended summer school for nine weeks in Ada, Oklahoma. She spent the latter part of the summer at her home in Marlow, Oklahoma.

Mr. Duncan left the first of June for St. Louis, Chicago and all points north. Among the people he visited are his wife's relations in Lincoln and Omaha, Nebraska, and friends in Northwestern Oklahoma. He returned to Burk July 11 and sweated in the heat the remaining part of the summer.

Mis Kirby spent most of the summer in Mexico City attending the University of Mexico. During the remaining part of the summer she visited her family at Gainesville.

Mr. Culpepper spent a part of the summer working at the National Supply at Electra and the rest, he says, wouldn't do to tell—Us-hu Mr. Culpepper, you shouldn't do that!

Miss McClure, the smiling Physical Education teacher, attended summer school and received her Bachelor of Arts degree. She took a short trip to San Angelo and spent the remaining part of the summer making preparations to come to the fair city of Burkburnett.

Mr. Westerfield spent the summer here, supervising the building of his new home and improving the school grounds and buildings.

Miss Dunaway attended the University of Texas where she began work on her M. A. degree. She remained at her home in Belcherville the rest of the summer.

Mr. Hill visited his mother at Granger, Texas and attended a coaches school at Lubbock.

Our new librarian, Miss Gorin attended summer school at T. C. U. in Fort Worth. The rest of the summer she was at home in Wichita Falls.

Mr. Reaves worked in Denton and spent two weeks in Colorado.

Miss Billingslea attended the University of Texas for twelve weeks working on her M. A. degree. She later visited her brother in Hamilton, Texas.

Our good, staunch friend, Mr. Johnson, attended Texas Technological College at Lubbock.

Our little office girl, Juanita, decided she liked work, but being a great believer in the philosophy "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" she decided to go to Houston and Galveston.

Mr. Williamson attended S. M. U. for twelve weeks where he received his M. A. degree.

Miss Wesbrooks taught summer school here. Later she attended the Century of Progress at Chicago and visited in Tennessee.

Mr. Everhart spent the greater part of his summer here and in "good old" Wise County, however, he gave a little of his time to A. & M.

Mr. Robison attended the coaches school at Texas Technological College at Lubbock and visited at his home in Tennessee.

Vocational Agriculture

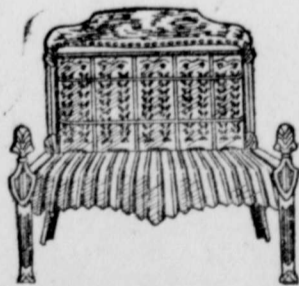

There was a short business session of all boys in Vocational Agriculture last Thursday morning during which time they decided to organize a Future Farmer of America (FFA) Chapter. This organization will consist of boys who are actually enrolled in the course of Vocational Agriculture.

A Nominating Committee consisting of Tollie McGown, Clark Jacobs Wilmer McNeil, Wayne Rose and John Garner was appointed. The following nominations were made by the committee: President, Howard Bentley and Owen Hatcher; Vice President, Lloyd Guinn and Odis Hatcher; Treasurer, Wayne Rose and John Garner; Reporter, Hubert Gragg and G. L. Shafer; and for Secretary, Norman Brittain and Durwood South. The officers

Home Economics IIB

The girls in the second year clothing class have already learned the general principles which are the foundation to clothing construction. This year they have started sewing from a different angle.

Each girl made a thorough examination of her wardrobe. In almost every case, she found some dresses that she couldn't or didn't like to wear. In class discussion she decided how she might make these dresses into garments that she could wear. Some dresses were so faded that it was necessary to dye them before they could be used. A few of the girls have decided to make these discarded dresses into skirts; others, blouses. One girl is making a jumper dress out of a dress with long sleeves.

Two girls have made some alterations on their dresses and they plan to buy some material for collars and cuffs. They want these garments to be made wearable and yet have enough style to avoid that "made-over" appearance.

In making over garments many more problems are met than in just the construction of new clothes. Some people can make good looking dresses if they have new materials and patterns to work with. Yet these same people can not begin with an old discarded dress and make a stylish garment.

Since the girls in the second year clothing class have been studying budgets, they have found that they should take care of the clothes they now have in order to make their clothing allowance include as many new garments as possible. One day in class they learned the proper method of darning hose and of sewing runners in hose. They also got some practical experience in making a hemmed patch.

If you ever need some help in making over garments, patching or darning, call on any of the girls enrolled in H. Ec. IIB—Tempe Angeline Baumhardt, Hazelston, Geneva Minick, Ermont Frances South, Marie Stevens, Cecil Lancaster, Mary Virginia Claudie Bowman, and Baumhardt.
