Burk Girls Invitational Softball Tournament Ends Successfully

FIRST PLACE TROPHY CLAYTON BAIT AND TACKLE TEAM

SECOND PLACE TROPHY FIRST NATIONAL BANK TEAM

A successful ending for the Burk Girl's Softball Invitational Tournament drew to close a very successful program for many girls and parents of the Burkburnett Girls Softball League.

After a 3-way tie in summer league games it was suspected that our girls were developing into credible softball talent. This talent proved itself when the Burk All Star teams placed first and second in tournament play-offs.

The Burk "Red" All-Stars placed first in the tournament, the Burk "Blue" placed second and the Wichita Falls Sharkettes placed third. A great interest in this tournament was shown by the many fans that gathered to see these games. Other teams playing were the Electra "Phillies," Sheppard AFB Charlie Brown All-Stars and Sheppard AFB Gators.

The league wishes to express its thanks to all who helped to make this tournament a success. It especially thanks the First National Bank for providing the All-Star hats and patches, the Burkburnett Bank and Junior Chamber of Commerce for providing individual trophies for the three placing tournament winners.

Glenn Scott, Bell Company Science Demonstrator To Perform Before Burkburnett Rotary Club

Glenn Scott, Bell Co. Science Demonstrator

Feats of telephone legerdemain will embellish the performance of Glenn Scott, phone company science demonstrator, when he appears before the Rotary Club of Burkburnett on July 30, according to C. A. Deuschle, manager.

Scott, a veteran of almost 6,000 public appearances in Texas, will have a few sleight-of-hand tricks up his sleeve as well as factual scientific material, when he presents his program, which he titles "The Magic of Communications."

The speaker will trace the evolution of the telephone instrument, showing working models of early phones, some recent but unsuccessful experimental phones, and the latest "push-button" style. Then, in the spirit of Houdini and Blackstone, he will produce three telephones from thin air, extract, a 30-foot banner from an apparently empty tube, and make a few things disappear.

Among his scientific feats of "magic" he will demonstrate a helium-neon laser, using it to transmit music over its ruby-red beam.

Asked what magic had to do with telephone service, Scott said, "There's nothing magic about the Bell System and its telephones. Today's telephone service is the result of thorough research, careful planning and hard work. But the wonders of telecommunications are such that they seem almost to be magic, and they lend themselves to magical interpretation or demonstration. Even Merlin, the magician of King Arthur of olden times would marvel at today's telephone wonders that exceed his ancient wizardry."

Fireman Wright is being sponsored by Wichita County Farm Bureau and Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies by contributing toward his cost of the school. Since volunteer firemen are interested in attending this school to help do a better job of fire fighting, the County Farm Bureaus and the Insurance Companies in the statewide program sponsored 100 firemen at the school.

Boy Scouts Do Good Deed For The Day-Tuesday

Two Boy Scouts were picking up trash at the South Underpass Tuesday when they noticed an out of state car start through the wrong way. One boy flagged him down and the other ran to flag down traffic coming the right way—which there was.

They did their daily good turn!

Scientific testing of blind-folded persons has proved that no one has an innate sense of direction.

CLEAR THINKING NEEDED

Congressional restraint in the matter of passage of gun-control law is commendable. A majority of people will probably go along with reasonable regulation. But, no gun-control law can ever prevent acts such as have taken the lives of three of our foremost citizens.

A noted West Coast columnist, in commenting on guns, has this to say: "Many of those who yell the loudest for gun control are those who know nothing of firearms. . . never shot a predator, never thrilled to the joys of upland game shooting and have never had to protect life or property with the aid of a gun. . . I do not think I am much different in my gun owning and using habits from millions of other Americans. . . And like many other Americans, I reserve the right to use those guns to protect my home and my family from anyone bent on stealing from the former or bringing harm to the latter. . . Those of us with the moderate view — and I think most Americans are in my camp — ask for moderate controls."

In the final analysis, an orderly society can exist only by the rule of law, a rule buttressed by the certain and appropriated punishment of the lawbreaker regardless of the alleged merit of his causes or his numbers. It would make good sense to attach the stiffest of penalties to the use of firearms in the commission of a crime. The point would be missed if gun ownership and the challenge of learning to shoot well and with care is restricted for millions of lawabiding citizens who now find enjoyment and satisfaction in this sport.

AN UNEXPECTED BONUS

Nature does not always behave the way man expects her to. A lot of people, for example, labor under the misconception that any kind of industrial development takes its toll of environment and wildlife. Happily, the reverse is often true. The oil exploration and drilling activities of the petroleum industry in the Gulf of Mexico along the shores of the Texas Coast provide a case in point.

Outdoors editor of the Houston Chronicle, Mr. Bob Brister, devoted a portion of his column to the good news that oil companies are slated to invest an estimated $1.5 billion in offshore drilling. He considers this good news because, "Off-shore oil platforms draw game fish like magnets. Larger species such as warsaw, ling, barracuda, and kingfish are attracted by the swarms of bait fish which congregate in the protection and shade of the platform, and some species feed upon the barnacles which quickly attach to the pilings."

Mr. Brister was pleased to note that many of the platforms are within "range" of small boats. Local sportsmen hope at least a few of the new oil rigs will be constructed in time to aid fishermen this summer. Oil companies frequently go to costly lengths to protect the habitats of wildlife. In this case, the more fortuitous circumstances of their development of petroleum deposits under our coastal waters has improved the fishing!

NOSE DIVE FOR HAPPINESS

Your dollar will probably buy a little less next year than the panner planned! It is reported that even with the 10 per cent tax surcharge and $6 billion reduction in spending demanded by Congress, the federal deficit for 1968 will be around $25 billion — $5 billion more than expected. Delay in passing the tax increase and higher Viet Nam war costs are blamed.

The red ink outlook would be a good deal less grim if our public officials could do a bit better in figuring out what we don't need. Many unbelievable projects pop to the surface of the federal budget and another one is reported by the Clarkton, North Carolina, Times. It seems the U. S. Public Health Service, as part of a $249,000 research program, " . . . has been sending psychologists and social scientists down to Puerto Rico to ask its citizens what causes them joy or sorrow. "It is not surprising that they discovered people were happier if they were healthy, had money, were educated and were young."

The Times suggests that if a research project were done in the U. S., it would be found that the taxpayer's " . . . happiness quotient takes a nose dive everytime he hears about some of the peculiar ways his money is being spent these days."

HOW TO BEAT THE HEAT

THE HEAT OF SUMMER NEED NOT BE A HURDLE TO FUN AND RELAXATION! HERE ARE SOME TIPS FROM EXPERTS THAT CAN TAME THOSE LONG HOT DAYS AND NIGHTS!

1. MODERATION IS THE KEY TO BATHING! DON'T BATHE IN WATER THAT'S TOO HOT OR COLD—NEITHER ONE WILL COOL YOU AS WELL AS WATER THAT'S SKIN TEMPERATURE. TWO BATHS ON THE HOTTEST DAYS SHOULD BE PLenty.

2. DON'T BE LURED BY SAND 'N' SURF ON THE HOTTEST DAYS. GROUND TEMPERATURES AT THE BEACH CAN EXCEED 140 DEGREES—AND ONLY A FISH COULD STAY IN THE SURF LONG ENOUGH TO STAY COOL!

3. KEEP CLOTHING LOOSE AND LIGHT. T-SHIRTS AND OTHER POROUS SKINCLOTHES ARE ALL RIGHT BECAUSE THEY ABSORB MOISTURE. THE LIGHT COLOR MAY COOL YOU MORE MENTALLY THAN PHYSICALLY—BUT NO CASES, AS LONG AS IT WORKS!

4. KEEP HOUSE AIR COOL AND CIRCULATING WITH AN AIR-CONDITIONER SUCH AS THE CHRYSLER AIRTEMP. THE AIRTEMP HAS A UNIQUE AIR DISTRIBUTION CAPABILITY AND AN AUTOMATIC THERMOSTAT TO TAKE THE GUESTS OUT OF COMFORT CONTROL.

5. BREAK UP STALE AIR BY PULLING LARGE PIECES OF FURNITURE OUT FROM THE WALL AND REARRANGING IT AT SLIGHT ANGLES. THIS WILL CREATE NEW CIRCULATION PATTERNS.

6. GET PLENTY OF REST! USE ANY WORK-SAVING DEVICE YOU CAN, AND ON THOSE SCORCHING NIGHTS, TRY TO GET AN EXTRA HOUR OF SLEEP.

Subscription TV Is Urged By Entertainment World

Hollywood—(HK)—In an industry characterized by the outspoken diversity of opinion of its members, it's refreshing to find Andy Williams, the TV and recording star, and Charlton Heston, the movie star and president of the Screen Actors Guild, in almost complete agreement on the benefits subscription TV (STV) can bring to the field of entertainment.

STV, the system whereby a viewer can watch box office attractions free of advertising by paying for his selections, has fired the imagination of the entertainment world. Leading stars such as Rosalind Russell, Ralph Bellamy, Dana Andrews, and Olivia de Havilland; Sol Hurok, the impresario; and Otto Preminger, the producer, have all publicly advocated the introduction of STV. In so doing, they basically agree with the position of Andy Williams who said, "We need pay TV."

While the individual viewpoints of the entertainers may vary, it is evident they believe that STV can foster a needed diversity and freshness to TV programming.

Ralph Bellamy looks for the movie industry to be "stimulated economically and artistically by the increased revenue of premiering new films on subscription television."

In an interview Rosalind Russell said, "Hollywood has changed, as everything has changed. But it doesn't mean it is finished. I think pay TV is just around the corner, and then this town will be prosperous as it never has been before. It won't be the same business we knew, but it will be very exciting."

Otto Preminger in oral testimony favoring STV said, "Don't you believe four million people in the United States would be willing to pay 25 cents to see a really great production of 'Hamlet'?"

At the present time, WHCT in Hartford, Conn., is the only TV station in the country carrying STV. The combined opposition of the TV networks and theater owners have been instrumental in preventing the nationwide introduction of the system.

The message from the entertainment world in favor of STV is clear. Now, if it can also become loud enough, maybe the public will have an opportunity to see and judge the merits of the new system for itself.

SPECIAL COMMUNICATIONS AVAILABLE

One of many special communications services available for the handicapped is the Electronic Larynx. When pressed against the throat, this device transmits substitute vocal cord vibrations and makes it possible for many people to speak again. It's available through the local telephone business office.

Bell Company Achieves New Communications For Handicapped

One of the most promising new areas of scientific achievement has been communications service for the handicapped. Whether the handicap involves the loss of sight, hearing, speech or use of limb, the telephone is being adapted to overcome these problems.

"Communications services are being made available for even the more severely afflicted," said C. A. Deuschle, manager for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. "These people are able to talk with friends and relatives, and those who live alone often enjoy an added degree of safety. Many are able to earn a living for the first time."

Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, spent much of his life helping the handicapped. He once said he would rather be remembered as a teacher of the deaf than as the telephone's inventor.

In a time when most deaf children were doomed to be mute, Dr. Bell believed they could be taught to speak and, by lip reading, learn to understand. "The deaf do not speak," he said, "because they cannot hear."

According to Deuschle, Dr. Bell would be proud of the Bell System's continuing development of new equipment designed to help the handicapped.

"Telephone people have engineered many special service arrangements or custom-built installations to meet the special needs of severely handicapped customers," he noted. "A simple device such as a one-ounce headset attached to an eyeglass frame may be all that's needed. In most cases, only minor modification of existing telephone equipment is necessary."

A person whose vocal cords have been removed cannot produce voice sounds, but the Electronic Larynx, when pressed against his throat, transmits substitute vocal cord vibrations into the vocal tract. Word sounds are then formed normally by the tongue, lips and teeth. Southwestern Bell makes this device available at cost.

The problem one may have with certain hearing deficiencies is eliminated by the special hard-of-hearing telephone set with a small volume control knob in the receiver.

A Tactile-Visual Set converts sound signals into sight signals and into touch signals. If the signals are coded in some pre-arranged way, the deaf person can read these signals that come over telephone line like Morse code by watching the blinking light or by feeling a disc with his fingertips.

To converse with someone, even a person with a hearing deficiency must know that someone is trying to reach him. The standard telephone can be equipped with bells of various frequency ranges other than the standard one. There are extra strength signals such as horns and loud gongs. There are also buzzers, tone ringers and the chime signals.

The School-to-Home telephone unit has for years enabled confined students to keep up with their classwork and continue their schooling. A school-to-hospital telephone unit permits a student to receive classroom instruction while hospitalized. A portable speaker-microphone at school carries every word to the hospital room of the student. The unit is plugged into outlets in each of his classrooms and permits two-way conversation.

A business man or woman can continue to operate a business by phone even though he or she is paralyzed and has only slight use of one hand. With the use of a Card Dialer automatic dialer, frequently called numbers can be dialed by simply pressing a button.

A Speakerphone set provides a loudspeaker to listen to incoming voices and a desk microphone provides hands-free talking. For incoming calls, a person can press one button to answer and another to release the connection, all while lying on his back at home.

When a person is not able to hold a handset, he can use a Single Button Set which has a small on-off switch. An adjustable arm may be provided to hold the handset in a position convenient for telephoning.

"The success of the special services in meeting the special needs of the handicapped is a real reward," said Deuschle. "We're glad the telephone can provide handicapped people with the means to assert new independence and develop self-reliance."

Sometimes the desire to run out the door and chuck it all is overpowering when we are confronted with the mess of an after-dinner table!

Sometimes, insight lets us see that our lives are quite a mess too. In fact, things seem such a jumble, that our reaction to this truth, if acknowledged, is, "What's the use?"

Well, of course, the only thing to do with the dishes is to take them to the sink, put them in hot water, and wash them with a good cleansing agent until they shine.

Less obvious, perhaps, is what to do with a messed-up life. We invite you to seek an answer in church this week. You are sure to find there the Power who will help you with your problems, a power who cares immeasurably for your soul.

"Casting all your care upon him, for he careth for you." I Peter 5:7

"And the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain." Isaiah 40:4b.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

MISS ANN CRANK IS BRIDE OF RANDY CLEMENT

MRS. HOWARD RANDAL CLEMENT

BURKBURNETT, Tex.— Miss Ann Crank became the bride of Howard Randal Clement Saturday afternoon in a ceremony performed by the Rev. Lamoin Champ, pastor, in the First Baptist Church. Parents of the couple are Lt. Col. and Mrs. Dale F. Crank, Pease AFB, N. H., and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Clement.

The church was decorated with 30-branch spiral candelabra entwined with smilax and arrangements of yellow gladioli and lemon leaf flanking a prie dieu. Music was presented by Mrs. Beverly Riley, soloist, and Mrs. Panice Vincent, pianist.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Capt. Gene Sergent, wore an A-line gown of imported organza with a pearled and scalloped hand-clipped Chantilly lace redingote cage which swept into a Watteau chapel train. She carried a nosegay of glomelias and lily of the valley with a cymidium orchid. Her father is on active duty overseas.

Miss Kathy Crank of Pease AFB was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a yellow organza Empire gown and a matching bow in her hair. She carried a nosegay of Marguerite daisies.

David Clement was his brother's best man and ushers were Rusty Ratliff and John Edwards. Candlelighters were Steven and Mark Lax and Janet Lax was flower girl. Stevie Clement, brother of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall with the bride's mother as hostess. The refreshment and registration tables were covered with white organdy with gold candelabra holding yellow carnations, majestic daisies and leatherleaf.

Assisting were Mrs. Gene Sergent of Albuquerque, N. M., sister of the bride, Mrs. Lewis A. Gray, sister of the groom; Mrs. Wayne Lax, Miss Mary Ruth Clement of Wichita Falls and Miss Linda Crank, of Portsmouth, N. H., sister of the bride.

Following a trip to Amarillo, Albuquerque and Southern California the couple will live in Burkburnett.

The couple are graduates of Burkburnett High School. She was 1966 football queen and all-school beauty. She is a spring graduate of Phillips School of Business, Gulfport, Miss. He was a senior letterman. He attended the University of Southern Mississippi and will attend Midwestern University.

The groom's parents were hosts for a rehearsal party at the Wichita Club Friday.

"So," said the personnel director, "suppose you tell me what previous experience you have had."

"I spent five years as an executive secretary," replied the applicant. "All I had to do was look like a girl, think like a man, act like a lady, and work like a dog."

Tart-Sweet Plum Good Mold

Our recipe suggestion for today introduces the spritely taste of pureed fresh plums molded with a snap of ginger and lemon juice. California leads in the cultivation of this plump and juicy fruit in season through September, with July and August the biggest months.

West Coast plums are mainly of Japanese and European variety—the Japanese, mostly shades of red verging to yellow—the European, mostly purple to black. When they yield to slight pressure, plums are ripe for eating.

They are a succulent source of a useful amount of vitamins and minerals and pleasantly low in calories. Fresh plums, a favorite snack, are a perennial favorite in the summer fruit bowl, and picnic hamper.

|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 2 envelopes unflavored gelatine | 1/2 teaspoon fresh lemon juice |
| 1/2 cup cold water              | 1 1/4 pounds fresh ripe plums  |
| 1/2 cup hot water               | 1/4 teaspoon salt              |
| 1 cup sugar                     | 1 egg white                    |
| 1/4 teaspoon ginger             | Whipped Cream (optional)       |

Soften gelatine in cold water. Add hot water, sugar, ginger and lemon juice. Stir until gelatine is dissolved. In the meantime, slice plums, wash and put through a food mill or electric blender until pureed. Fold into gelatine mixture. Chill until mixture mounds when dropped from spoon. Add salt to egg white and beat until soft peaks form. Fold into plum mixture. Turn into a 1-quart mold. Chill until firm, about 4 hours. Serve with whipped cream, if desired. Makes about 6 servings.
