Two Local Teams Place In Girls' Softball Tourney

Two Burk Burnett teams placed high in the annual Girls Invitational Softball tournament held here over the weekend. The Red team swept to a routing 16-4 decision over the Wichita Falls Sharkettes in the tournament finals Monday night. In the semi-final game, played the same night, the Burk Green team defeated Henrietta to take third place. The games ended the season play for the girls — one of the most successful seasons ever held as far as girls softball activities go. League President Jim Sullivan said more than 90 girls took part, a large increase over last year. Crowds were bigger than ever, too, attesting to the growing interest and popularity of the thrilling action the girls provide. Only dark side to the picture was a slight financial deficit, and Sullivan said he is working to reduce or to eliminate this. A huge trophy for all-around sportsmanship in league play was awarded to First National Bank team. The award was made at the annual banquet held at the American Legion Hall.

Preston Milk Burkett's Defeat Iowa Park; Take Second Place

The Preston Milk Burkett's won their next to final game by defeating Iowa Park by a score of 16 to 6. The Burkett's played sharp defensive ball. Home runs were knock by Pam Hensley and Becky Jones. The Preston Burkett outfielders include Penny Brown, Debby Commings, Moya Bewley, Janna McGee, Kitty McNish, and Bobby Schelty. The Burkett's are in second place in the Wichita senior girls league and have one remaining game. The Burkett's fielding and batting are steadily improving. Mr. James Hall and son, Stephen left Wednesday for their home in Newhall, Calif., following several days visit here with his mother, Mrs. Beulah Hall.

Six Are Honored By Red Cross For Blood Donations

A total of 56 pints were collected during the visit, which sponsors said was a highly commendable amount.

Burkburnett Bank To Introduce BankAmericard Plan To City, Area

The Burk Burnett Bank is introducing the BankAmericard credit card plan to residents of the Burk Burnett area, according to an announcement by Jack Aaron, bank president. Some 15,000 cards will be placed in the hands of potential buyers in the Burk Burnett area, Aaron said. The bank president said, "There have been many requests for the BankAmericard program in our area and to meet the needs of our expanding economy, we are happy to make this announcement." BankAmericard programs are operated independently by various banks, but each card is interchangeable throughout the nation at any place of business which accepts such credit cards. The holder of a wallet-size plastic BankAmericard can charge travel, meals, clothing, repairs to home or car, any item or service sold by a business which recognizes the BankAmericard program. The BankAmericard holder pays nothing to get his card and pays no periodic dues. Member merchants pay a small fee and a discount on goods and services charged, Aaron said. "The merchant banks his credit card slips like cash. He has no waiting period for payment and is completely protected from losses caused by customer failure to pay." The BankAmericard program was originated in 1959 in California by Bank of America as a statewide all-purpose credit card. It has grown nationwide and is expanding into Great Britain, Canada, Japan and Mexico. Member merchants can usually be identified by a BankAmericard window decal. Aaron said all merchants in the area will be called upon,

A MENACE TO REMEMBER

Some time ago, a student editor at a state university wrote an editorial in the form of a letter to his father. Among other things, he said, "... Dad, believe me when I say that I am indebted to you for paternal love and protection, but believe me also when I say that my generation holds in contempt the colossal social, economic and political blunders which you perpetuated. As we survey the worthless heritage of crime, war, poverty and greed, we unite in shouting, 'We will have none of it. There must be a second Renaissance!'"

Some time ago, in this case, was 1934. And the student who wrote it is now an associate professor of journalism at another large state university. Of his editorial of more than 30 years ago, the professor says, "... though players change, the central themes remain quite constant." Youth of today should and do question the merit of existing institutions in their search for something better. However, it should not be forgotten that their search will be in vain unless it is carried on within the framework of a political and economic system that encourages inquiry. The great menace today lies in the violent dissenters, who would oppress those who do not agree with them.

A CRITICAL DISTINCTION

"Merchandiser," a publication of a major oil company asks, "What is Customer Relations?" and then goes on to explain that it means more than cold, impersonal service. It means giving every customer "very important" treatment, approaching the customer's car with respect and thanking customers by name and asking them to return. Comprehension of why a business firm must bother with so-called Customer Relations is especially important. It dramatizes the all-important distinction between private enterprise and a "public service" as run by government. Private enterprise no matter how big, unlike government, depends upon the voluntary patronage of its customers. It pleases them or goes out of business. Customer Relations is a life and death matter.

Customer Relations may mean caring for your car. It may involve seeing that the customer gets a good suit of clothes, the kind of shoes he wants or meeting his wishes at the store counter for any one of a thousand items. It is well to remember "Customer Relations" is of little importance except in a free society under a representative form of government.

THE DECISION MAKERS

Once again the power of the free market has been demonstrated. A major automobile company has discontinued production of what was, a few years ago, a popular sporty car. Thus, critics of the free market who claim that promotion and advertising by large firms can force unwanted products onto the public have once more been confounded by the real lifemarketplace. It happens everyday and is far from a rarity in the automobile industry.

As The Wall Street Journal comments, "It's always a little sad to see a car nameplate disappear; some 3,000 have vanished during the industry's history. It's rather comforting, nonetheless, to be reminded once more that in U.S. markets it's still the consumer who makes the big decisions."

Nogales, Ariz., Herald: "In case you missed it, syndicated columnist Evans and Novak reported that when militants at Cornell demanded $2,000 to buy bongo drums to celebrate the first anniversary of Martin Luther King's death, Cornell President James Perkins raised $1,700 and also provided them with free transportation to New York City in the university airplane."

TELL ME

Texans To Vote August 5th On 'Water For Texas' Amendment

Texas has before it a plan for the most extensive and complex water system yet conceived by man. The Texas Water Plan provides for constructing 67 major reservoirs and hundreds of miles of canals to make certain that water is available for those who need it, and at the same time, to offer flood protection to many of those who have been endangered. Enough water to cover 13 million acres with 12 inches of life-giving moisture will be pumped from the lower Mississippi River to Texas and eastern New Mexico, if current feasibility studies are completed as expected, and if Texas votes yes on Constitutional Amendment No. 2.

The vote on August 5 will determine whether or not Texas is willing to show the world that our planning is serious — that we are willing to put our money where our mouth is. While it is a $3.5 billion bond authorization, the funds will be used during the next 40 to 50 years, not all at once. The money will be used for temporary financing, with none for gifts or grants. Those who use the water will have to pay for it, with interest. The entire state requires and will benefit from the Texas Water Plan. It is designed to take care of our population in the year 2020, which will be about 30.5 million. At the present rate of growth, some areas of Texas will be facing a water shortage in 1980, and by 1985 many wells in some areas will be dry.

Plenty of water has brought Texas from the days of wide open spaces, cattle and prickly pear to a position of sustaining the nation's largest group of metropolitan areas and a major share of its industry. The supply and demand figures for water are dangerously close now. If we are to continue our trend of growth, we must develop new supplies. Without enough water, we face disaster in vital areas of our economy.

Passage of the Texas Water Plan Bond Issue — Constitutional Amendment 2 — on August 5 will show all concerned that Texas is ready to meet our future water needs. Each and every Governor of Texas during the last twenty years has agreed on this issue, and it is supported almost unanimously by the House of Representatives and the Texas Senate. Be sure to cast your vote in favor of Water For Texas.

Six Flags Over Texas, the popular theme entertainment center between Dallas and Fort Worth, opened its newest attraction, a 180-foot long stainless steel slide which is attached to the 50-foot level of a 300-foot oil derrick, the tallest in the world. Commented Luann Harrell, left, and Linda Shafer after they completed the run in eight seconds flat, "Wow! It's like going off the top of a five-story building in a blanket."

Arlington, Texas: SIX FLAGS Over Texas commenced its summer operating schedule and is now open seven days a week from 10:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M. through Labor Day.

The popular theme entertainment park located between Dallas and Fort Worth just opened its newest attraction, a 300-foot oil derrick, the world's tallest land based oil rig.

Completed at a cost of $750,000, the towering attraction was originally scheduled to open at the beginning of SIX FLAGS 1969 season in mid April. However, a near four month dock strike at the Port of Houston delayed two vital pieces of equipment arriving via ship from Switzerland which was necessary to operate the attraction.

Two elevators capable of carrying 50 passengers each take visitors up to observation levels near the top of the oil rig for a panoramic view of the entire 145-acre Park stretched out below.

At the fifty-foot level of the rig, a 180-foot long 12 lane stainless steel slide is attached. Visitors can race down the entire 180-foot length of the slide seated upon fiber glass blankets in 8 or 9 seconds flat. The slide is as tall as a five story building.

SIX FLAGS' new wild west show entitled "The Cavalcade of the Horse" is now in full swing. Performances are scheduled three times each day with four shows on Saturday in a 1,500 seat arena located in the Texas section.

In mid July, a new ride called the Mini-Mine Train opens. This ride is a smaller version of the very popular Run-A-Way Mine Train and was especially designed for the younger set.

Attendance during the Spring was up 13% and SIX FLAGS anticipates hosting more than 2,000,000 visitors this season.

Two Texans, Allen Case and Betty O'Neil, headline the cast for the Dallas Summer Musical's fourth show of the season, "Destry Rides Again," opening at the Music Hall July 22 and playing through Aug. 3. Case, a former Dallasite and a frequent star on television Westerns, will play the peace-loving sheriff of Bottleneck, Tom Destry; and Fort Worth's Betty O'Neil will be the saloon hostess, Frenchy. Stanley Carlson will play Wash Dimsdale and Audrey Guard, Rose Lovejoy. Others include Ian Candenhead as Kent, Bill Le Massena as Major Slade and dancers Tony De Vecchi, Ted Forlow and Elvie McGehee in the exciting Whip Dance.

"Destry Rides Again" To Appear As Musical At Dallas Music Hall

Allen Case, the Dallas boy who went on to stage and television stardom, will return home to take the title role in "Destry Rides Again" for the 1969 Dallas Summer Musicals, July 22 to Aug. 3 at the Music Hall.

Case's previous appearances at the Music Hall were in 1956, when he played Joe in the national company of "Damn Yankees" and in 1966, when he starred as Curley in "Oklahoma!" for the Summer Musicals.

"Destry Rides Again" is a six-times-told tale, having been first a novel by Max Brand, then four different movie versions, beginning with one starring Tom Mix, and finally, the musical. This last version was the idea of Broadway producer David Merrick, who asked Harold Rome (who wrote the music and lyrics for "Fanny") to write the same for "Destry," and Leonard Gershe to write the book. The musical opened in New York in 1959 for a 14-month run, with Dolores Gray and Andy Griffith starring in the original cast.

The plot is a real Western in which a mild-mannered, gunless deputy sheriff (Destry) cleans all the baddies out of the cowtown of Bottleneck. In the clean-up he wins as the prize the dance-hall girl with the heart of gold (Frenchy) who once was the property of the late head baddie and owner of the Last Chance Saloon.

Allen Case played Sir Harry in the original Broadway production of "Once Upon A Mattress," and was Joe Cable in the New York City Center revival of "South Pacific." He played in musical and straight productions in stock for a number of years, but is best known for his television appearances. For two years, he was co-star of TV's "The Deputy," and has taken featured roles in "Gunsmoke," "Rifleman," "Have Gun-Will Travel," "Lawman," "Bronco," "Perry Mason," "Sugarfoot" and "Wagon Train."

GRAND SLAM FOR BASEBALL MOTHERS!

As "Play Ball!" signals the beginning of a new baseball season, millions of Little Leaguers are pulling out bats, mitts, and uniforms and rushing off to answer the call. To millions of mothers, however, "Play ball!" means a new series of battles with grass stains, mud and dirt, perspiration and grime. Junior may be the hitting star of his team, but his uniform strikes out in the laundry!

To smart mothers, however, who are making the modern enzyme pre-soak a permanent part of their laundry routine, baseball uniforms and practice clothes now pose no threat. Laboratories have developed the modern enzyme pre-soak to attack stubborn grass stains and ground-in dirt and grime so that they simply wash out afterwards in the regular laundry.

The Axiom laboratories report also that because enzymes work on stains and not on the fabric, pre-soaking is as safe and as effective for Dad's best shirts and mother's delicate washable blouses as it is for that baseball uniform. And the Axiom "brighteners" work during the pre-soak period to get whites whiter and to bring out new brightness in colors.

So while Junior is breaking .500 on the ball field, Mother doesn't have to strike out in the laundry. Today's 30-minute enzyme pre-soak will guarantee a grand slam every washday!

16 Accidents On County's Rural Roads In June

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 16 accidents on rural highways in Wichita County during the month of June, according to Sergeant D. S. Lawson, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in one person killed, six persons injured and an estimated property damage of $15,685.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first six months of 1969 shows a total of 90 accidents resulting in three persons killed, 48 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $70,160.00.

During the first six months of 1969 in Texas there were 1,470 traffic deaths, or two less as compared to the 1,472 traffic deaths for the same period of 1968. However, if past trends continue the last six months will probably far exceed the first six months; as a matter of fact, the last six months of 1968 there were 2,009 traffic deaths.

The Sergeant stated, "With an all time record of 49 traffic deaths over the 4th of July weekend, we are not only well ahead in comparison to the beginning of the second six months in 1968, but well on our way to establishing a record year in 1969."

Cool Comfort From Household Heating System

Home owners with a household warm air heating plant, are especially fortunate in summer, for it is an easy matter to convert this type of heating system into a central air conditioner to comfort the family when weather gets hot and humid.

In wintertime, warm air from the furnace is conveyed through ducts to the various rooms of a house. In summertime, these ducts can convey cool air to the same rooms if central air conditioning equipment is added to the system.

The General Electric Executive model, for instance, is available in 34,000, 48,000 and 63,000 BTUH capacities to match the cooling requirements of any home.

Installation is comparatively simple. The condensing unit rests on a concrete base just outside the house. Cooling coils are placed in the heating system near the furnace. These coils are connected to the outdoor condensing unit with "Quick-Attach" tubing which has been factory-charged with refrigerant. This GE-pioneered development not only insures that the refrigerant is factory-clean to permit comfort cooling and long component life, but also greatly speeds up the installation of the system.

The Executive model is attractively-styled with a sturdy polyester cover, designed to withstand all types of outdoor weather. It is finished in a champagne shade that takes on the hue of the colors around it so that it becomes a harmonious and unobtrusive part of the surroundings.

This unit is most economical to operate, according to industry rating standards. The 34,000 BTUH model, for example, produces 9.2 BTUH of cooling power for every watt of electrical input, almost 20 percent more economical than other cooling units manufactured.

Reliability also is realized in the Executive model because of the "matched component" concept of design wherein GE makes all of the major parts that go into the unit.

It is still another way in which local merchants can help to keep you from getting hot under the collar.

It doesn't complicate your life.

Maverick is the simple machine—simple to own, simple to repair, simple to service, simple to drive.

It doesn't cost a lot.

With prices everywhere going sky-high, Maverick comes along with a down-to-earth price—$1995.*

It doesn't have a tiny trunk.

Maverick gives you 10.4 cu. ft. of trunk space—nearly twice as much as the leading import. Now the whole family's luggage can go along for the ride.

It doesn't squeeze you in.

Some big people live in this country. That's why we made Maverick bigger than the imports. Lots of legroom and shoulder room.

It doesn't squeeze you out.

It's great for parking, great for handling, great for zipping through traffic.

It doesn't cost a lot for maintenance.

You can do most maintenance jobs yourself, if you want. If your mechanic does it, he can do it in a lot less time. Great when time is money and the money is yours.

It doesn't need a lot of service.

Maverick oil changes and chassis lubrication come less often than in the leading import. (Isn't it time you started seeing less of your mechanic and more of your car?)

It doesn't burn a lot of gas.

Maverick gives you the kind of mileage you'd expect from a little import—even with a powerful six-cylinder engine.

It doesn't hold back on power.

Turn on the engine and turn loose 105 horses—nearly twice as much as the leading import. This means highway power, passing power. The kind of power you need.

It doesn't handle like a kite.

Burk Bank Team Captures Title In Midget Tourney

By RON HOLT

The Burkburnett Bank swept undefeated through four games to capture its fifth straight tournament title in Burkburnett Midget league action this past week.

The Bankers gathered the title with a 4-3 decision of the Optimist Club in the Saturday night finals.

Hubert Smith's crew rode the strong pitching of David Todd and some timely placed hitting to jump to a 4-1 lead through five innings before seeing the Optimist lads plate two runs with two out in the top of the sixth. Todd came back to strike out the next hitter.

The Burkburnett Bank played without the services of Benny Wilkinson, one of the league's best pitchers, due to an ineligibility ruling on a small incident that was blown out of proportion.

Taking second place honors was the ever-tough Optimist bunch under the direction of Al Kee. The Optimist were undefeated through early games and pushed the Bankers hard before falling in the finals.

Home Builders proved to be the surprise team of the tournament after placing in the cellar during the season play as it won the third place trophy. Rudy Komos boys' fell to the Optimist in the semifinals.

Providing stiff competition during the tournament was the First National Bank, Carpenters Union and Mills Grain. Mills Grain, season champion, was ousted in the first two rounds.

JULY 20-26 PROCLAIMED AS COUNTY FARM SAFETY WEEK

County Judge Calvin Ashley proclaimed July 20-26, 1969 as FARM SAFETY WEEK in Wichita County, at the request of Raymond Schroeder, Wichita County Farm Bureau president. The local organization is coordinating activities within the county for the special farm safety campaign. The county farm leader said the accidental death rate for farm residents is steadily increasing. "If this trend is to be reversed and the needless suffering and losses substantially reduced, each of us must have a renewed effort," Schroeder emphasized. He emphasized that farming remains one of the most hazardous occupations in this country today; but added, many of the present losses could be prevented with the use of safety tools such as seat belts, fire extinguishers, SMV emblems, and tractor roll-guards and crush, resistant cabs. In his proclamation, Judge Ashley said "the citizens of Wichita County are proud of our farm families from whom comes our abundance of food and fiber; therefore, our citizens are deeply concerned about the safety and well-being of this segment of our population as they go about the sometimes hazardous task of producing the commodities needed by the entire population." The proclamation said the week-long special safety campaign is a coordinated effort by Farm Bureau and various local and state agricultural and safety groups. The judge urged farm families "to become more safety conscious, not only during the FARM SAFETY WEEK, but every day of the year."

Those enjoying the day were Denise Cookham and Karen Gandy, Tulsa, Okla.; Roberta Pike, Debbie Holtzen, Siera and Janice Frields, of Burkburnett and Janice Whitesides of San Angelo. Mrs. Gwen Metz, Mrs. Betty Frields, Mrs. B. L. Turner and Gary Metz helped with the hostess duties. Miss Dianna Stubblefield has returned to her home in Comanche, Okla., after an extended visit here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Stubblefield and Mr. and Mrs. John McMuellen.

LIBRARY CORNER

Since the library is one of the really cool places in town, why not come down — browse in comfort and take some of these new books. New fiction on the shelves: James Gould Cozzens' GUARD OF HONOR, A picture of life as it was led by the American Army Air Force in World War II; John Cheever's latest novel, BULLET PARK; two books by Muriel Spark, THE PRIME OF MISS JEAN BRODIE and THE PUBLIC IMAGE; SQUADRON SHILLING — a story of World War I, including Sopwith Camels — sans Snoopy — by Arch Whitehouse; two new science fiction stories: THE AGE OF THE PUSSYFOOT, by Fredrik Pohl, and THE ANDROMEDA STRAIN, by Michael Crichton; and two books of short stories: THE BEST OF GLENCANNON, by Guy Gilpatrick, and A TREASURY OF HORSE STORIES, including such authors as John Steinbeck, Rudyard Kipling, Oliver Wendell Holmes, and John Galsworthy. Non-fiction is varied as we move from the autobiography of Dr. Charles Mayo, MAYO: THE STORY OF MY FAMILY AND MY CAREER, to THE TWO-TON ALBATROSS, by William C. Anderson—a story of a family's trip across a trans-continental highway in a travel trailer with two kids, two guppies, a miniature orange tree, a lobster named HUD, a St. Bernard dog, and a claustrophobic wife. After the children of two generations have been brought up on Peter Rabbit, THE TALE OF BEATRIX POTTER has been written by Margaret Lane — Miss Potter's secret code journal was discovered. ARIZONA UNDER THE SUN, by Oren Arnold, is a mine of information on how to live in the sun, the arts and crafts of the Indians in Arizona; sight-seeing tours; and advice on how and what and where to buy souvenirs in Arizona. THE ALGIERS MOTEL INCIDENT is John Hershey's account of an incident in the Detroit riot of 1967. The new discoveries that biologists are readying for the human race are "as earth-shaking as the atom bomb" says Gordon Rattray Taylor author of the book, THE BIOLOGICAL TIME BOMB. For the junior readers who are busily filling their TEXAS READING CLUB lists — 120 at this time—there are new books almost daily. Found in library: girl's ring. Identify it and you may have it. Still on the "found" list: boy's green knit cap, girl's white sweater, child's plaid jacket, Vietnam hat, and plaid wool scarf.

Mrs. E. W. Roderick accompanied Mrs. Mary Wood to the bus station in Wichita Falls Monday where Mrs. Wood left by bus to visit her sister, Mrs. Janie Allison in Port Neches, Tex.

God Bless...

God bless Mommie, Daddie, and all my friends at church...

"Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God."

God's word has a great deal to say about prayer, for prayer is our means to communicate with God. Through prayer we can give thanks, petition for our friends, and seek God's wisdom for our daily living.

Make prayer a daily practice in your life.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Life's Meaning? Helping Others

Mrs. Juanita Green likes parties with a theme. Like inviting local teenagers for chit-chat about grooming problems—how to keep that wonderful school girl skin young-looking, or planning that dream house.

Or a Christmas party just for men, to help them buy the right gifts for their wives and sweethearts—particularly cosmetics, and save them from the embarrassment the male sex often suffers when facing such chores.

What's the point? Well, Mrs. Green is one of an enthusiastic army of independent Stanley dealers who regard education...and fun... as part of selling. She informs people about the "quality-plus" products that have made a household word of Stanley Home Products, Inc., of Westfield, Massachusetts, for nearly four decades. Show the guests how they can enhance and beautify their lives and simplify so many daily chores... and they'll buy and say "thank you."

As a dealer who specializes in Stanley's "Lady Catherine" line of good-grooming aids, Mrs. Green has developed highly successful party methods. She has conducted bridal and baby showers, anniversary parties, graduation and birthday parties...any occasion, in fact, that people most need a helping hand in choosing and buying gifts.

Her parties reflect her love for people, and she is herself tremendously well-liked and respected. People like to come to her parties, and since they trust her, do not hesitate to buy for important events, as well as everyday needs. "Helping others gives my life meaning," she declares, and finds her Stanley work a fulfilling ideal for this.

The Green home in Springfield, Mass. is a symbol of Mrs. Green's ideals. Her whole family lovingly joins in her enterprise. Two older daughters keep house and pack orders, a younger son stamps and files, and her husband, quite naturally, keeps the books and manages the exchequer.

Which is all quite remarkable for a typical American housewife who just over a year and a half ago never wore makeup at all, and answered a Stanley advertisement for dealers because time was hanging heavily on her hands with all the children at school. What's more she is now a Unit Sales Leader and has begun to climb the ladder of success.

What better success story for a woman who loves people, is public spirited, and strives to give her family the best education, a good life, and a feeling of togetherness!
