

Along The Waterfront

The tide is coming into the bays again but there is not enough clear water to make fishing good in this area, although some fish are being caught every day. Several fishermen have been catching some fish out at Perry Jones' Wharf on Copano Bay.

Rat reds and drum have been biting at Mills' Wharf and the other fish are starting to come back in that area.

Trout are biting out in front of Floyd's Boat and Sales Co. Hub Jones, Robert Stewart and party caught about 80 trout the first of the week on the flats out in front of Floyd's.

At Johnson's Bait Stand there are a few fishing, but the water is so low and muddy they are not getting big catches of fish.

The guests at Walton Courts have been fishing at various points in the bay, all getting some fish.

Shorty and Mrs. Townsend had some friends out fishing over the week end. Shorty said they caught some small fish, but not enough to brag about.

He told the club about his visit to Crystal City last Halloween, where the school children are given prizes for the best pictures which are painted on the show windows at Halloween by the business houses. This project is sponsored by the Rotary Club. His other subject dealt with the decline of the number of fish and oysters in the bays which he says is not caused by fishing with nets, but by dredging or destroying and covering the bottom of the bay with silt thereby retarding the growth of fish and oysters.

The meeting was opened with the song, "America", and an invocation by Jack Horton. The guests present were: Merritt Huelett, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Curtis Utz, Tribune, Kansas, Rev. A. C. Peterson, Cuero, Texas, Stan Bell, Corpus Christi and Ed Frazer, Corpus Christi.

Doc Gives
W-down On Colds

How many times have you heard the wit remark, "An untreated cold lasts two weeks but one that's treated lasts only fourteen days?" Ask the man who owns one, though, if you want to find out whether he thinks he needs treatment, or at least a little "t.l.c." under loving care). Instead, all gets (usually unasked) are run-out sayings like the one above and perhaps the advice to use a few home remedies, the usefulness of which may be open to question. Doctors believe colds should be treated for several reasons: (1) to make the patient as comfortable as possible, (2) to keep him from getting any serious complications (for example, pneumonia, middle ear infection, or sinus infection), and (3) to enable him to lose as little time as possible from school or work. The exact cause of colds is still argued, but a few general facts are known. Most scientists agree that colds are caused by one of a group of viruses. "What's a virus?" you ask. It's a very tiny, disease-producing agent, so small it can't be seen with a standard microscope or caught in a filter used to strain bacteria, small plants which can be seen with the microscope. Unlike bacteria, which can be grown in a test tube, a virus is unable to live or reproduce its kind any place except within a living cell of an animal or vegetable, which makes it the "scroungiest of the lot" when it comes to causers of disease. In fact, viruses have been described as "master parasites." Not only does a cold virus come to eat and live within the body of its host, man; in effect, it invites bacteria to come on in, have some free meals, and share its lodgings. Thus, while a virus may be the cause of the cold, it is believed that most complications are caused by bacteria that flock in, much like the playmates of a little boy who has found his mother's freshly baked cake and spread the good word. How good a toe hold a cold gets depends on several things, and the order of their importance is not clear. They include the disease-producing ability of the virus itself and of bacteria which may push their way in on its heels and also the state of your body's resistance to colds. Among possible causes for low resistance are chilling or exposure to sudden, severe changes in the weather, lack of sleep, tiredness, worry and anxiety, irritating dusts and gases, eating or drinking too much, an improperly balanced diet, and allergies.

JANUARY 2 TO 31

(In Texas more colds occur from mid-January to June, with the peak period during March and April). By staying home at least the first day, while your cold is considered to be most dangerous, you will do your fellow man as great a service as yourself. A great many cold sufferers take the attitude, "I don't feel as bad if I can keep my mind off my cold by working." They are self-appointed martyrs — and every one who catches their colds harbors no love for them.

What about "catching a fresh cold?" One doctor believes there's a grain of truth in this expression. Not only that, but the so-called fresh cold may be the first sign of a serious complication, rather than of a brand-new cold.

Besides resting in bed and keeping warm when you have a cold, you should add to your regular diet plenty of fruit juices and water. Meals should be simple, nourishing, and easily digested, and with a sore throat soft or liquid foods may be preferred. Your doctor will be glad to prescribe medicine to relieve your stuffy nose or sore throat and he will be on the lookout for any serious complications.

The "common cold" is a poor name, its victim will tell you, for he feels his sufferings are anything but common.

Policy, Not Law, Determines Refund or Exchange On Returned Goods

The season for returning Christmas gifts to stores for exchange is now upon us. Most business establishments are as cooperative as possible about this annual American pastime, but before getting into any arguments with a reluctant clerk or manager, better take a look at the legal situation involved. You may find that persuasion is more in order than demands for adjustment.

Department stores are under no legal obligation to take back a purchase and refund your money or deliver other goods in exchange just because you changed your mind. Most stores do make refunds and exchanges, but that is because it is their policy to do so—because they are required to, according to the State Bar of Texas.

However, a promise to refund or exchange merchandise made by the store or the salesman should be honored. Similarly, if a store misrepresents the quality of certain goods or if the goods are defective, you are justified in expecting a satisfactory adjustment. But you have no more legal right to expect a store to refund or exchange because you change your mind about a purchase than the store has to ask you to give back the goods that were sold to you because it didn't want to sell them after all.

Suppose you buy a coat in one store and find that another company has it on sale for five dollars less. Must the store where you bought it take back the coat and give you a refund, or refund the difference in price? The seller is under no obligation to refund the difference, any more than he could make you pay the difference if he discovered that a competitor offered the same coat at a higher price than he had charged for it. Usually the seller is permitted to set his own price, but ceiling prices and other regulations restrict this

McCready Attends Western Auto Show In Houston

Jack McCready, owner of the Western Auto Associate Store in Rockport returned Sunday after attending the Western Auto January Merchandise Show in Houston.

Mr. McCready said that the show permitted Western Auto Associate store owners to get a first hand picture in advance of the many new and improved items of spring and summer merchandise. Featured were all new patterns and construction features in County Club seat covers; a complete spring and summer toy line, fishing tackle, particularly Western Auto's new "Three Year Guaranteed" Revelation products, the 1953 Wizard power mowers and wider than ever assortment of Wizard fans and window fans.

A wide selection of Climax water systems were also ordered by the local store.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kinsey and son, Alan, of Corpus Christi, spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Allemand and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hamblin and family.

James Silberisen visited relatives in Galveston over the week end.

Much the same rules apply to the refund of deposits. Unless it is the policy of a store to refund deposits on articles, or at least apply the amount on the purchase of some other item, the buyer is obligated to go through with the terms of the contract, even though he has changed his mind about the purchase.

When one selects, orders, and deposits money on the purchase of an article, the store is under no obligation to deliver the article in accordance with the terms of the sale. If the buyer refuses to accept the article or pay the remainder of the purchase price, the seller can take legal action against him, according to the terms of the contract.

The same principles apply to a trade-in allowance on used merchandise towards the purchase of a new article. Such a trade-in allowance is considered the same as a deposit.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Chevrolet Launches 1953 Drive

Maryanne Carney gamely faces the herculean task of filling out 8,000 newspaper advertising orders which will be used in the announcement of Chevrolet's widely discussed 1953 passenger cars. Actually, Maryanne will get plenty of help on the assignment, but her position among the stacks of insertion orders emphasizes the promotional part behind the event.

Gov. Shivers Honorary State Chairman For Heart Fund Campaign

Governor Allan Shivers will serve again as the honorary state chairman of the annual Heart Fund campaign, is has been announced by S. E. McCreless of San Antonio, state chairman, and Bruce Barton, national chairman for the 1953 Heart Fund.

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd and State Insurance Commissioner George B. Butler will serve with the governor as honorary co-chairmen. McCreless also announced that William Rawland, Cleburne publisher and president of the Texas Press Association, will be publicity chairman for the February campaign, and that Ben H. Wooten, president of the First National Bank in Dallas, will be state campaign treasurer.

"The continued interest and counsel of these outstanding men augurs well for the success of the 1953 Heart Fund," McCreless declared.

The state campaign chairman pointed out that "the Heart Fund supports skilled research investigators in their quest for new weapons against the diseases which constitute the nation's leading public health problem."

The research financed from contributions made during the 1953 Heart Fund will be designed to find new drugs, surgery and diagnostic aids which help in the prevention, care and treatment of heart ailments, McCreless explained.

"In addition to research," McCreless said, "the Heart Fund provides for extensive educational activities which are designed to eliminate unnecessary fear and to acquaint the public with the programs conducted to combat heart diseases."

P.-T.S. Met At School Friday Night

The Sacred Heart Parent-Teacher Society met in the parish school building Friday night for their regular monthly meeting, with eight members, Father McCarthy and the sisters present.

This was a very interesting meeting and the members voted to build a library for the books which have been purchased for the school. They also voted to furnish a dictionary for each room.

The school clinic held recently was very successful and the secretary was instructed to send a card of thanks to those who donated their time to this work.

Deputy Grand Matron Visits Eastern Star

The Deputy Grand Matron of the Order of the Eastern Star made her official visit to the local chapter of the Eastern Star on Friday night, January 9, at the Masonic hall. She instructed the members in the work of the order.

There were twenty-five members and twenty-six visitors present at the meeting.

Mrs. Wm. Beetley was in charge of the decorations. She placed floral arrangements at the various stations.

Mrs. Mildred Jones, Mrs. Vera Irel and Mrs. Alma Ratliff were on the refreshment committee.

LUCKY FISH—Held high by his captor, pretty Mary Timm, this fat fish has a smug look of satisfaction. The curly-haired Long Beach, Calif., girl holds the title of California Tuna Queen. Her claim to the crown is the 15-pounder dangling from her line. Apparently hooking a poor fish is no problem for Miss Timm.

Achievement Award Will Go to Outstanding Agricultural Worker

The 1953 Hoblitzelle Achievement Award for the advancement of Texas Rural Life this year will go to the professional worker in the field of agriculture who has made the most worthwhile contribution to agriculture in Texas during the past three years.

The award is a $5,000 cash prize and a gold medal. It will be made through the Karl Hoblitzelle Agricultural Laboratory of the Texas Research Foundation at Renner in May, 1953, Dr. C. L. Lundell, Director of the Foundation, announced.

Regional committees throughout the state have been named to receive and to make nominations of candidates for the Hoblitzelle Award. In the South Texas area, the regional committee is headed by Mr. Russell J. Cook, Associate Director, Division of Agriculture, Texas College of Arts and Industries, Kingsville. Other members of this committee are: Mr. Tommy Tompkins, Manager, Valley Chamber of Commerce, Weslaco; Mr. W. L. Jones, Agricultural Director, San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, San Antonio; Mr. Walter Cardwell, Manager, Luling Foundation Farm, Luling; Mr. Lon C. Hill, President, Central Power and Light Company, Corpus Christi; and Mr. Arvie Elliott, Vice-President, Victoria Bank and Trust Company, Victoria.

The Hoblitzelle Agricultural Awards were established in 1950 by Karl Hoblitzelle, Texas theatre man and philanthropist, to recognize outstanding contributions to agriculture and to the sciences which serve agriculture.

Fred M. Shaw, secretary for the Hoblitzelle Agricultural Awards, reports that the specific award to be made this year is given every third year to the Texan who has made the most contribution to the advancement of agriculture and rural life in the Professional fields.

Workers in agriculture include editors of publications, soil conservation service field men, county agricultural agents, vocational agriculture teachers, home economics teachers, workers in farm organizations such as Farm Bureau and Grange, agricultural field representatives for business and commercial concerns, field men at experiment stations not assigned to formal research, directors of farm radio programs, Chamber of Commerce agriculture workers, forestry workers, and any other types of professional people who may be eligible.

He said that equal consideration will be given to all persons engaged in research supporting agriculture irrespective of creed, color, nationality, age, or professional or scientific affiliation.

Shaw said that anyone who wishes may nominate a professional agriculture worker for the award. The nominee may live either within or outside the region in which he is nominated. These nominations are to be forwarded not later than February 15 to the chairman of the regional committee, together with a full description of the achievement of the candidate and with any available clippings and pub-

National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Signed by Dr. Everett R. Clinchy, president of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, the Citation terms Braniff "a constant source of strength and leadership in the work of building better relations among men everywhere, regardless of national, racial and religious affiliations".

"Braniff is a tireless ambassador of good will", the Citation continued, "who has traveled thousands of miles in this country and abroad and has visited all the capitals of the free world to advance the acceptance and the practice of the brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God—our best hope for peace and freedom throughout the world".

The National Conference of Christians and Jews and World Brotherhood are civic organizations of religiously motivated persons who are promoting justice, amity, understanding and cooperation among Protestants, Catholics and Jews. The organizations do not aim at union or amalgamation of religious bodies or at modifying any of the distinct beliefs of members.

Braniff has been active for years in the work of the organization in this country. In July of 1950, he helped to establish World Brotherhood in Europe in which eighteen countries are now represented.

Pointers On Home Nursing Given

Anyone who has come to grips with disease or an accident, especially if it involves an operation or lasts a long time, is familiar with the accompanying financial problems. Nursing the patient in the home, when possible, helps reduce medical costs, but with home nursing other problems arise, such as the possibility of overworking the homemaker (who usually must do the nursing) and the need to learn how to follow the doctor's orders, carry out simple treatments, and report on the patient's condition.

The home nurse can often help the doctor in the diagnosis and treatment by developing her sense of observation. Signposts that all is not well with the patient are called "symptoms" and are of two kinds: subjective (known only to the patient) or objective (known to the observer as well). Examples of subjective symptoms are pain, feeling sick at the stomach (nausea), or feeling bad in general (malaise). Objective symptoms include such things as bleeding, skin rashes, swelling and fever. A mother learns to recognize the location of pain by her child's behavior even when he is too young to tell where it is.

The patient's temperature, pulse and respiration are a quick and accurate way of telling what the patient's condition is like. Although feeling the forehead may help decide whether the patient is feverish, the most accurate way is to use a clinical thermometer, the appearance of which is known to most people. Its bulb contains mercury, a heat-sensitive substance which rises through a hollow tube in the stem to indicate the body's heat. The stem is marked off in degrees and fifths of degrees, and this side of the stem is shaped so that the numbers are magnified and can be easily read in a good light.

The temperature can be taken by mouth, by rectum, or at some other part of the body not reached by air, like the armpit. First, the mercury must be shaken into the bulb to 95 degrees or below by grasping the other end of the thermometer firmly between the thumb and first two fingers and shaking it with a loose wrist movement as is shaking water from the hand. Care should be taken not to strike the tube against furniture or other objects.

If the temperature is to be taken by mouth, the patient should not have drunk anything hot or cold for a few minutes beforehand. While he is sitting or lying down, the thermometer is placed in his mouth, well under the tongue and a little to one side. He is told to keep his lips shut and not to bite down. In three minutes the tube is removed, wiped toward the bulb end with absorbent cotton or a disposable tissue to make reading easier, and help in a good light. The stem can be rolled slightly from side to side if the mercury can't be seen at first. The normal temperature is usually considered to be about 98.6 degrees Fahrenheit by mouth.

The rectal temperature, which is the most reliable, is about one degree higher than the one for the mouth, and the temperature taken at the armpit may be about one degree lower than by mouth. The thermometer should be left in place about three minutes for mouth or rectal readings and ten minutes under the arm.

The patient's pulse can be counted while the thermometer is still in place. The patient's arm and hand are placed in a relaxed position, thumb up. The nurse places her forefinger (or several fingers) on the thumb side of the patient's wrist between the tendons, cord-like structures which can be felt through the skin, and the wristbone and locates the beating of the artery, the blood vessel. The pulse beat should be counted for a minute using a watch with a second hand. Besides the rate should be noted whether the pulse is regular or skips a beat, slows down, or becomes faster; whether it feels full and bounding or small and weak; and whether the artery feels hard or soft to the touch.

The rate of breathing should be counted without the patient's knowledge because it is more easily influenced by emotion than the pulse; both can be affected by other things such as exercise, position, eating, or disease. Each rise of the chest is counted for a minute to get the rate of respiration. The nurse also should report whether breathing is deep or shallow, regular or irregular, noisy or quiet, or sighing or yawning.

Income Tax Payments Due This Month For Many

Some Texans who settle back comfortably and wait for March 15th to roll around before doing anything about their Federal income tax may be in for a rude surprise, lawyers say. For, although the instructions and forms recently mailed to each taxpayer do not mention the fact, for practical purposes January 15, rather than the March deadline, is the last day of grace for many individuals.

This is due to the Federal laws requiring certain persons to file Declarations of Estimated Income Tax—or the pay-as-you-go plan. Under those laws several million people are required each year to estimate their total annual income in advance, making quarterly tax payments based upon such estimates. The final quarterly payment for 1952 is due on or before Jan. 15, 1953.

A declaration must be filed by every citizen or resident who receives annual wages (subject to withholding) in excess of $4,500, plus $600 for each exemption claimed.

For example, a single person with no dependents who received wages in excess of $5,100 is required to file a declaration. If he has one additional exemption, he need not file unless his wages exceed $5,700 during 1952. This latter figure would also apply to a married couple without dependents filing a joint return.

In other words, the amount goes up $600 for each exemption the taxpayer is entitled to claim, including any exemptions for age or blindness.

A Declaration of Estimated Income Tax must also be filed by any person with annual income from sources other than wages (subject to withholding) in excess of $100. Of course, individuals whose incomes did not exceed $600 during 1952 need not file, even though no tax has been withheld.

Those falling into the required category who have failed to file declarations at quarterly intervals during 1952 may make amends by filing either a final declaration or an income tax return by Jan. 15. At the same time they should pay any balance of tax owed the government on their entire 1952 income.

Now, if paying the entire balance of your tax prior to Jan. 15 is going to be a difficult matter, due to a quirk in the tax laws you may be able to avoid penalties by paying at least 80% of your total tax at that time and the remaining balance by March 15. This would involve filing both a declaration (by Jan. 15) and a tax return (by March 15).

The first quarterly declaration on 1953 income is due on or before March 15.

SPECIAL DELIVERY—Greetings and congratulations for his boss, Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield, at right, were delivered by mail carrier Nevin Greene of Washington, D. C. Greene met Summerfield after his appointment at a Washington hotel which is one of the stops on Greene's route.

Fun is like insurance—the older you get the more it costs you.

Fur coats come from skinning dumb animals—including father. Sure, the boss has a snap; all he has to do is worry.

Social Security In Review

Ring out the old! Ring in the new!

In a year end report reviewing past activities and giving plans for the future, H. M. Cleveland, manager of the Corpus Christi office of the Social Security Administration, states that the old-age and survivors insurance system starts its seventeenth year of operation Jan. 1.

The insurance payments, which are based on each workers earnings are paid as a matter of right to retired workers and their families and to the families (mainly widows and children) of workers who die.

Payments to retired workers, at this time average about $47.25 a month. For a man and wife over age 65, the average is about $81.50 for a couple. Family payments for a widow with two young children average around $103 a month.

Monthly payments of retirement and family insurance were first paid in 1940, and at the end of that year 200,000 persons in the nation were on the rolls. In December 1952, there were 5 million benefit payments in force.

Due to the broader coverage, the more liberal eligibility requirements, and increases in the amount of the payments, which came about by amendment of the law in 1950, the number of beneficiaries has increased by 2 million persons since then, according to Cleveland.

In conclusion, Cleveland's report pointed out that the Federal family insurance system took a long step forward in 1952. The Social Security program will continue in 1953 toward its goal of financial protection of families against the loss of

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Pretty "Foxy" Terrier

Talking about dogs the other night—and Sandy Johnson topped everything off with a tall story about his fox terrier, "Boscum."

According to Sandy, "Comes bird season and that dog won't stir if I take down my rifle. Same if it's deer season and I go for my shotgun—he won't move, but he's scratching at the door if I so much as look at my rifle!"

One day, Sandy decided to fool him. He took down both his shotgun and his rifle—and swish, Boscum was on his way! So Sandy put the guns back and took out his fishing rod. He went outside and there was Boscum—digging like crazy for worms!

From where I sit, a dog that can outguess humans is as rare as a human that can outguess other humans. For instance, I like a glass of beer with lunch but I wouldn't think of pouring you one without first asking. Everybody has preferences—and it's finding out what they are and respecting them that keeps freedom from "going to the dogs."
