

Along The Waterfront

There have been very little fishing the past week in this area—the water just came back to the edge of the shore the past few days, but several have been hooking some fish.

A. F. Maier fished Sunday at Johnson's Bait Stand, catching 28 nice trout, and Mr. Whitfill of Lubbock caught 52 trout, and Les Quilling and party brought in 18 sand trout and two nice specks. The boats which are going out from there are bringing in 20 and 30 fish to the boat.

Fishing is reported to be pretty good at the Jolly Roger Fishing Pier. The local fishermen are landing small trout and some redfish off the pier.

Harry Mills has been taking a few parties out from Mills Wharf this week. He had a party of two out Wednesday and they caught 78 small trout. On Tuesday he had a party of five out and they got 35 trout. Mr. Eperon and friend fished with Harry Mills one day, landing 68 trout. Some fishermen are catching rat reds on their trot lines, several of them have weighed as much as three pounds. Fishermen are wading out at the wharf and catching drum.

Mr. Floyd at Floyd's Boat and Sales Co., says most fishermen who fish out in front of his place get enough trout to eat. Some of the guests from Walton Courts have been wading out on the flats and catching some fish.

The water is coming in again at Perry Jones' Wharf and fishing has been better there this week. Wednesday, one party caught a nice string of trout and two flounder.

George Brundrett, Bill Carrol and Mr. and Mrs. Burl Wagley of Houston, caught a nice string of reds, trout and sheepshead in the basin Sunday. Mr. Brundrett lost a big one which later was caught by Joe Everett. The fish still had Mr. Brundrett's cork and hook and part of the line on it. It was a 4 pounder.

PATRONS URGED TO PAY SCHOOL TAXES

According to Bob Ayers, school tax assessor and collector, if those taxpayers who have not paid their 1952 school taxes will do so before Feb. 1, 1953, the school will not be forced to pay a delinquent tax collector a 15% fee when such taxes are collected, thereby depriving the school system of much needed income.

School taxes become delinquent on Feb. 1 and start accumulating penalty and interest.

STATUES SEE THEIR ANNUAL SHOW

The Italian "Teatro Olimpico" in Vicenza, Italy, is one of the world's most elegant and least used theaters. Built in 1582 and filled with delicately carved wood and statuary, it is opened once each year for a period production in costume. Seen at left, a statue of a Renaissance Italian seems enthralled by the play. Contrasting symbols of modern times are the spotlights beaming between the statues. Actors on stage, seen at right, take bows.

V.F.W. Commander Attends Wild Game Dinner at Naval Hospital

A lot of entertainment and good food was served up Monday evening at the annual wild game dinner sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars for patients and staff of the Naval Hospital in Corpus Christi.

The dinner in the hospital mess hall, was from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. and the menu included venison, javelina, duck, shrimp and oysters, among other good things to eat. About 700 persons were in attendance.

Andy Anderson, outdoor columnist on the Houston Press, was master of ceremonies. He is national hospital chairman for the VFW and has sponsored several similar dinners.

Entertainment was furnished by Curley Fox and Texas Ruby, Houston television stars; Ken Harris and his orchestra; Chano Reyes and Manuel Trenchez, troubadours, and Raymond, the magician.

Among the special guests were Don E. Pepper, manager of the San Antonio regional office of the Veterans Administration; Billie Dorris, VFW department service officer; commanders of the surrounding VFW posts and many others.

Marion McElveen, local VFW post commander, stated that the Rockport post contributed most of the ducks and all the oysters. McElveen offers his apologies for the miswording of the news story in the Corpus Christi paper Sunday—the story was worded as if McElveen had contributed the oysters and ducks himself, which is incorrect. He also wishes to extend his thanks along with all the members of the VFW and ladies auxiliary to everyone who contributed ducks, and especially to Mills Wharf, G. D. Craighead, Sylvester Tacy, Jesse Odoms, R. R. Rice, Richard Happner, J. C. Gurley, Alex and Matt Scott, Earl Thomas, Jimmie Silberstein—and to the Rockport Electric Co. for the use of a deep freeze to store the ducks until they were needed.

Commander McElveen was accompanied to the dinner by Mrs. Thelma Rattiseau, president of the ladies auxiliary.

Everyone who attended reported the dinner a great success and a bigger and better one is being planned for next year.

Plans Underway To Speed Up M. of D. Drive

Jack McDavid, county chairman of the March of Dimes drive, has said that the collections have been very slow the first two weeks and plans are being made to speed up the collection.

A group of men have consented to contact the business/houses in the county for donations to the March of Dimes. Those offering their service are Joe Johnson, Jack McCready, Leonard LeBlanc, Dick Fox, Ed Barnard, Roscoe Johnson and Otis Rouquette.

Near the last of the month—the exact date will be announced in next week's Pilot—there will be a "Mothers March" and those interested are requested to have their porch lights on that night.

Mrs. Harold Dick, vice-president of the Woman's Club informed Mr. McDavid Tuesday morning that the club will sponsor a benefit canasta party for the March of Dimes on Saturday night, Jan. 31 at 7:30 o'clock at the Woman's Club building.

There will be no admission charged—it will be strictly a donation affair. Refreshments will be served and a door prize given, suitable for either a lady or gentleman. The ladies anticipate that more than one hundred will attend.

This is the second year that a full month's campaign has been made necessary by the seriously mounting financial responsibilities of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The March of Dimes money buys such appliances as braces, wheelchairs, crutches, and other devices to aid in the rehabilitation of polio patients.

Anyone in the county who may be so unfortunate as to have polio is eligible to receive treatment without cost through the March of Dimes fund, and there are very few families who can afford the very expensive treatment necessary for a polio patient.

Taylor Oak Park Guests Honored at Party

A going-away party at Roper's Taylor Oak Trailer Park was given for Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Whitfil in the recreation room at the park Tuesday evening.

With the honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell of Lockney, Tex. This group left Wednesday morning for New Orleans, from where they will embark on a United Fruit Co. ship for a 14-day Caribbean cruise.

The evening was spent in "Visiting with the Highlight," a skit prepared for the departing guests. Chairs were arranged in the semblance of a ship and then the lady voyagers were seated in the chairs while Bill Savoie of Kankakee, Ill., took his place with a pair of oars and vigorously rowed the imaginary craft to test the seafarers' susceptibility to seasickness.

At the end of the voyage and to cure such stomach qualms as they may have experienced, Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Whitfil were presented with corsages with the best wishes of the guests of Taylor Oak Park.

A lunch consisting of sandwiches, cookies and coffee was served.

The following new cars have been registered at the Aransas County courthouse during this month: Arthur Bracht, 1952 Nash sedan; Aransas Butane Gas Co., 1952 Chevrolet pickup; Don Vance, 1953 Safeway Housetrailer; Andrew P. Davis, 1953 Kaiser 4-door.

Texas Stunts Enhance March of Dimes Drive

Desperate for money to fight polio, Texas citizens are tapping all resources to accelerate the 1953 March of Dimes, according to General Robert J. Smith, state March of Dimes chairman.

Everything from quilting bees by mothers to mass school solicitation by pupils have been used successfully. Many sports phases have been utilized with special benefit games. Newspapers, radio and television stations have conducted fund-raising stunts.

Such ingenuity helped one school reach its "quota" before the campaign formally opened Jan. 2. That was the Rotan, Texas, junior high school, which based its successful drive on a contest between school rooms.

Other Texas schools have sponsored local March of Dimes. San Angelo High School's basket ball team became the vehicle for another effective effort. Different merchants offered to contribute $1 each for every point made by the team in a certain game. Several other Texas cities are adopting this plan.

Alice women gave a March of Dimes style show; San Antonio firemen played the policemen at basket ball in another benefit; Abilene carpenters union gave a dance; Breckenridge women made a quilt for auction over station KSTB, and in Denison, the Rev. V. D. Price, pastor of the Sunnyside Baptist Church, made a March of Dimes sermon from his bed where he has been confined following a polio attack.

Kerrville realtors sponsored a March of Dimes movie. Lufkin, Austin and other cities diverted all dimes placed in parking meters to the fund. Texarkana Elks backed a special March of Dimes radio show. Houston's top entertainment talent collaborated to put over an evening long benefit show. Beaumont's youngsters added to the cash jackpot with a roller skating party. The Texas A&M field house will be the scene of a Bryan community March of Dimes sports show.

General Smith said "countless other communities are using countless other schemes to guarantee success of this state-wide effort that must not fail."

If you copy the ways of the sloth, don't be surprised to find yourself out on a limb.

F.H.A. To Receive Applications for Victoria Housing Area

The Federal Housing Administration office at San Antonio will begin receiving applications for mortgage insurance under Title IX for programmed defense housing in the Victoria critical defense housing area on January 19, 1953, it was announced this week by C. T. MacLeod, FHA Director. Applications will be received through February 6, 1953.

The program of twenty (20) housing units to be built in the Victoria Area was announced recently by the Housing and Home Finance Agency in Washington. All of the programmed housing is intended for in-migrant defense workers or military and civilian personnel of Foster Air Force Base.

The announcement by FHA that it is ready to receive applications means that the program can now get started on the 20 units, Mr. MacLeod said. These units are in addition to the 100 sales and 100 rental units previously programmed in this area and which are now under construction.

Details of the new defense housing program for this area are as follows:

Of the 20 additional housing units programmed for the area, all are to be two-bedroom units with a maximum rent of $47.50, and all are to meet the needs of Negroes and members of other minority groups.

The maximum rents specified are shelter rents exclusive of extra charges for various utilities and services which may be approved by the FHA office in amounts consistent with normal charges in the area for such services.

In considering applications the

FHA will take into consideration the following factors:

1. The proximity of the site of the proposed housing to the defense plants or installation, and the desirability of the site with respect to transportation, commercial and community facilities and services, utilities, street improvements and similar relevant factors.

2. The rents to be charged, the size of the units in terms of number of rooms and bedrooms, and the relationship between the accommodations proposed and the proposed rents.

3. The capacity of the applicant to perform.

4. Properties within the "danger zone" immediately in front of the concrete runways on Foster Field will be ineligible.

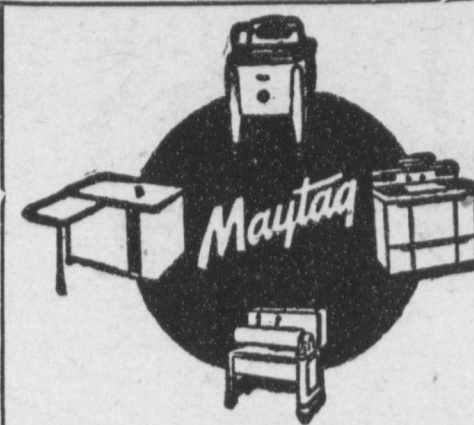

5. Evidence of availability of utilities must be submitted. All applications must contain the HHFA program number which is No. 270 and will be processed under Title IX. Application forms and information may be secured through the San Antonio FHA office, or see your mortgagee, Mr. MacLeod said.

New Homesite Addition at Aransas Pass

Aransas Pass' first large scale housing project got under way last week when work started on the new Oak Park Subdivision, just south of the city. Comprised of 21.6 acres of land, the new addition will be subdivided into 88 building sites, ranging in size from 58x135 to 95x140 feet.

The new addition is the first in the city to get blanket FHA and GI approval, and is being developed by the American Realty Company of Aransas Pass.

W. A. Weir, vice-president of the company said the addition will be highly developed with all utilities available, including lights, water, gas and sewer, together with paved streets, sidewalks, curbs and gutters.

Ruth Torres' Theme Judged Best In Class

Students in the English III class of Aransas County High School were recently assigned a theme on the subject of "Friendship" and Miss Ruth Torres, a junior, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Torres, turned in the paper which was judged to be the best.

The following is the theme turned in by Miss Torres:
WHAT FRIENDSHIP MEANS TO ME

True friendship is a liking for another that cannot be broken. It may go through poverty and wealth, heartbreak and joy, but it will last forever.

A true friendship is a joy and a blessing to the friends. In times of need nothing is more comforting than the friend who stands by you and for you through it all. Christ said when teaching His disciples, that no love is greater than to lay down your life for your friend. An acquaintance may profess to be your friend in wealth and happiness, but unless he is there in poverty and sorrow, he is not a friend.

Many times history has been made when friendship turns its hand to help some one in need. Many people have been helped by even an unknown friend. This is true in the case of the March of Dimes, the Damon Runyon cancer fund and the money raising projects of tuberculosis and the Red Cross. These are friendly, helpful enterprises that make both medical and humane history.

Surely every one realizes the importance of friendship. Without it this country would not have become a strong nation. We would not have prospered and grown into the friendly nation we are today. We would have no churches, clubs, charities, or anything that shows a liking to mankind.

Friendship is certainly a blessing. In English class a few days ago we read a few lines from Milton, reading thus: "Charity is a loan from God. If you want the security make the loan." Charity and friendship are the same, if you want the security, make the loan.

A woman can't keep a secret for two reasons; It is not worth keeping, or it is too good to keep.

A good thing to remember is that silent contempt often prevents a black eye.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT TEXAS

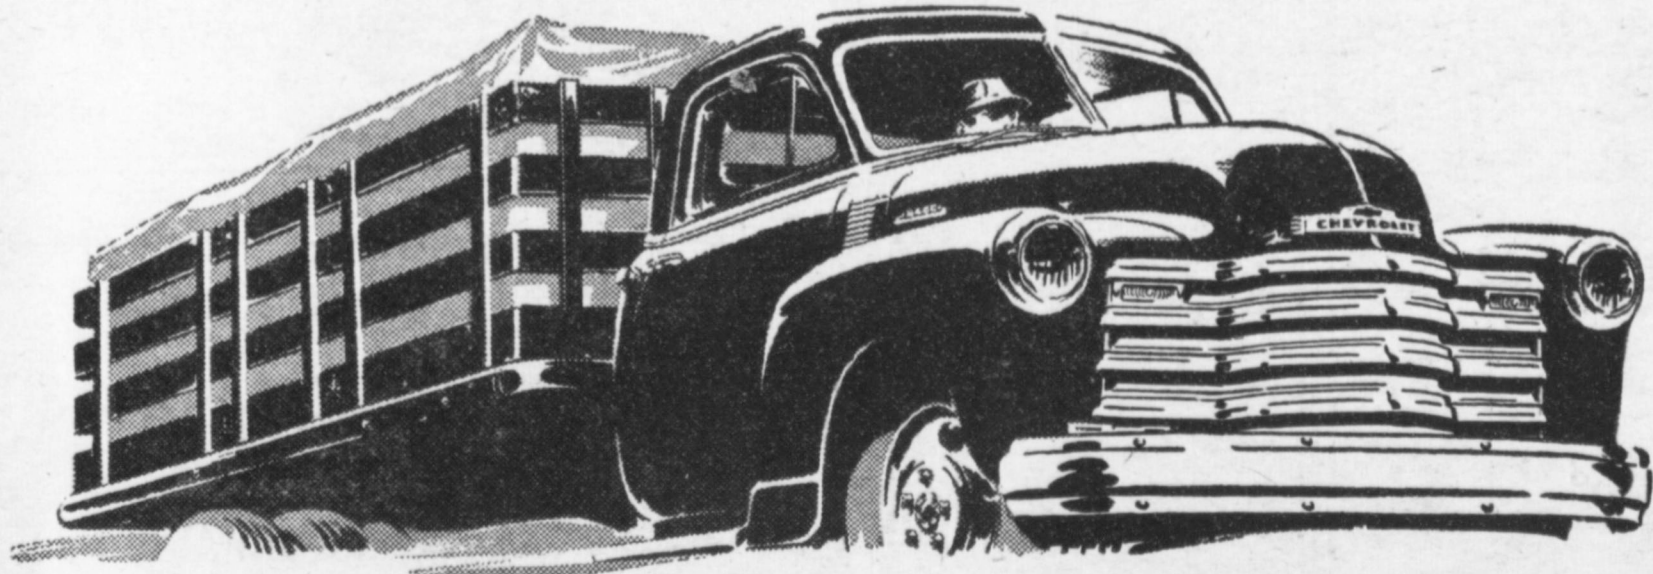

SPANISH GOVERNORS' PALACE

The Spanish Governor's Palace is located in San Antonio. This old adobe building was originally used by the Spanish Governors of Texas as an office and residence. Its keystone bears the Hapsburg coat-of-arms and the date 1749. This beautiful mosaic tile patio was the scene of many important meetings of state affairs. Inside the inner patio will be found a wishing well.

Opening Bottles With Teeth Is Harmful

It's impressive to be able to pry off bottle caps with your teeth, but it's much smarter—from a dental health point of view—to use a bottle opener.

And using a cigarette holder looks dignified, and it helps keep stain off your fingers, but it doesn't do your teeth any good, State Health Officer George W. Cox says.

Dr. Cox can count off some 36 everyday, commonplace habits that the great majority of Americans, including Texans, practice in one degree or another that are injurious to mouth tissue.

Lip biting is one such habit. Others are clenching or grinding teeth, picking them, chewing on match sticks, tooth picks, holding nails or bobby pins between the teeth, and thumb sucking. Biting on straw or the ear loops of eyeglasses, or chewing on pencils can also cause trouble.

Also said to be detrimental to teeth and gums is the practice of leaning your chin in the cup of your hands. It causes side pressure that is sometimes injurious to both teeth and jaws.

"This has to be a pretty consistent habit, though," the health officer asserted, "before it will be damaging. But it is something to watch."

Ever experience obscure headaches, tenderness at the temples, or tenseness in face muscles? These might be signs of faulty closure of opposing teeth which is reflected in mouth tissue.

Bible Class Will Build Ingleside City Park

It was announced last week that a city park is definitely in the offing for Ingleside. The Men's Downtown Bible Class has made known its intention to buy 9.91 acres of property in the Humble subdivision near the school for development as a park for recreational facilities for the youth and adults of Ingleside.

The class has invited others, both as a club and as individuals, to aid in "putting across" the city park for Ingleside. They point out, however, that they intend to buy the land regardless of whether it is aided by others.

HINTS ON HOME NURSING OF SICK

Sickness in a home brings grave concern for the patient's welfare. The homemaker usually is eager to learn how she can best work with the doctor and, what is equally important, how to save her time and energy in caring for the patient.

Before she calls the doctor (or if she expects a call from him), she will want to have a pencil and paper handy for his orders. She should write them down and read them back if any point is doubtful. When he talks with her, the doctor wants to know what the patient's condition is like. For this reason some kind of a written record will be invaluable; it should include such things as the patient's temperature and rate of pulse and breathing (taken every four hours if the doctor requests), plus such things as the amount of fluids and food taken by mouth, the amount eliminated by urination, and any unusual symptoms or signs observed.

The patient's record may be kept in a notebook if the illness is expected to be long. The form suggested by the American Red Cross includes columns for the following:

JAMES A. JARBOE
Registered Civil Engineer
Licensed State Land Surveyor
10 Years In
General Civil Engineering
13 Years In
Design Construction, Operation and Maintenance of Natural Gas Systems
Phones 3522 - 504 P. O. Box 522
Rockport, Texas

Date and hour, temperature (rate of pulse and breathing, if ordered), diet, medicines, treatment, bowel and kidney movements, and remarks.

The home nurse should use common sense in following the doctor's orders; for example, she shouldn't awaken a baby to give it a medicine for rest. However, any large decision should be shared with the doctor, and she shouldn't give medicine or treatment on her own hook.

It will be to her advantage if the family medicine cabinet holds only materials which it is safe to keep there. Poisons, sleeping drugs, and medicines prescribed for a certain patient should not be left in the medicine cabinet but instead placed somewhere that children can't get hold of them, preferably under lock and key. Any medicine which is not clearly labeled or which might become dangerous when too old should be thrown away. Certain drugs like the antibiotics should be refrigerated. Toilet articles such as mouth washes and shaving creams should be separated from medicines to avoid possible mistakes.

Materials which should be kept in the medicine closet include adhesive tape, rubbing alcohol, petroleum jelly, absorbent cotton, finger dressings, gauze bandages of several widths, scissors, tweezers, a fever thermometer, a medicine dropper, a hot water bottle (which can double for an ice bag), some kind of enema equipment, and a small rubber ear syringe. In addition the family doctor might like to recommend an anti-septic, a laxative, antacid, a headache remedy, and a lotion for minor skin ailments.

For the bedfast patient certain things will be needed: a bedpan and urinal (for a male patient), a container for vomiting, a supply of tissues and a sack pinned to the side of the bed for their disposal, and plenty of cotton. If urine is to be measured, a measuring glass or cup will be needed as well.

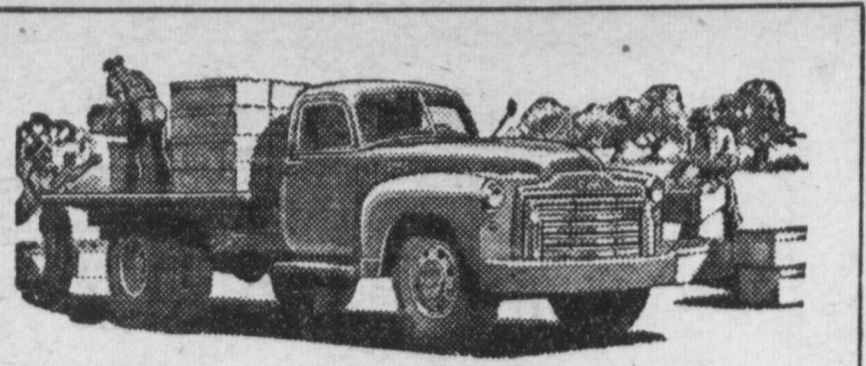

When the physician makes a sick call, he has most of the materials he needs in his bag. However, he will be aided if an extension cord for his light equipment or a good flashlight can be provided. He should have a place to wash his hands, plus soap and a clean towel. The patient should be ready for examination; he should be on the side of the bed where the doctor can work easily, only a sheet (or at most one additional bedcover) should be placed over him, and the gown or pajamas should be removed or loosened. A straight chair should be placed by the patient's bed for the doctor's use.

One person should remain in the sickroom during the examination to help the doctor as he requests and to reassure the patient. However, while obtaining the history of illness, the doctor may wish to question the patient alone. He may ask that certain supplies be ready in advance if he expects to change a surgical dressing.

A nursing plan will be helpful in giving care to the patient; the homemaker can make one with little time or effort. On a sheet of paper may be written the medicines or treatments, doses, and the times at which they are due. One way is to set up a schedule on the hour such as 9-12-3-6 for every three hours or 10-2-6 for every four hours. An alarm clock may be set for the time of the first medicine or treatment, and reset for the ones that follow. As a medicine is given, the hour at which it was due should be crossed through on the nursing schedule.

In giving medicines, five "rights" should be remembered: the right amount of the right medicine in the right manner to the right patient at the right time.

The home nurse, by preparing for possible illness in advance and learning how to work with the doctor, can protect her family's health interests.

A new type motor oil for the new cars

Your new car needs this new type oil

Prevents "4000-mile knock." Many 1952 and practically all the 1953 automobiles have high compression engines.

You've heard about these fine new engines. You know, for example, that they require gasoline with extra anti-knock performance . . . a gasoline like Humble Esso Extra.

Now, Detroit's automotive engineers have discovered that high compression engines need an entirely new type of motor oil. With conventional oils in the crankcase, the new engines have a tendency to ping, or knock, after four to eight thousand miles of driving.

This "4000-mile knock" is caused by combustion chamber deposits; these increase the compression ratio to a point where no commercial gasoline will give you anti-knock performance.

Humble Esso Uniflo, an entirely new type motor oil, prevents the formation of deposits that cause "4000-mile knock" in high compression engines if you begin to use it regularly in the first 1000 miles of driving.

Protects against friction wear and acid corrosion. Second, the engineers discovered that friction is the chief cause of wear in automobile engines. Moving parts in the new engines are so carefully machined that they fit very closely. This gives you much better performance from your car, but it also requires superior lubrication. Heavy oils and oils that "thicken" in cold weather don't flow readily between such closely fitting parts. The result is excessive wear from friction, and expensive engine overhauls . . . To minimize friction wear . . . again you need Humble's new Esso Uniflo Motor Oil.

Esso Uniflo has such an amazingly high viscosity index that it gives you the quick-flowing characteristics of an SAE 5W oil at 25° below zero Fahrenheit, and the tough, full body of an SAE 20 oil at 110° Fahrenheit.

Furthermore, the additives in Esso Uniflo are anti-acid—this new type oil cuts acid corrosion as much as 50%.

You Need Only One Grade of Humble Esso Uniflo. You use it year 'round. Esso Uniflo meets all the specifications for SAE viscosity classifications 5W, 10W, 20W and 20. It is a heavy duty, detergent oil, recommended for API service classifications ML (light duty), MM (medium duty), MS (severe duty) and DG (general diesel duty). Its viscosity index is amazingly high.

Premium Value—Premium Price

Humble Esso Uniflo costs something more than most motor oils. But you'll agree that the small extra cost—less than one-tenth of a cent for each mile of driving—is cheap insurance against "4000-mile knock," friction wear, and acid corrosion!

A Word to Owners of Older Automobiles

If you use an oil meeting SAE viscosity classifications up to 20—you will find it profitable to change to Humble's new type Esso Uniflo. It will protect your car against friction wear and acid corrosion; reduce starting drag and extend battery life.

If your engine has just been rebuilt—change to Esso Uniflo. It will prevent the deposits causing "4000-mile knock"; it will protect against wear from friction and corrosion, reduce starting drag and extend battery life.

If you use SAE 30 or SAE 40 oil—Humble continues to recommend Esso Extra Motor Oil No. 3, a high quality, heavy duty, detergent oil with a viscosity index second only to that of Esso Uniflo.

Mrs. Gilemore Honored With Shower

Mrs. Byron Bushart and Mrs. A. J. Burton honored Mrs. John Gilemore, recent bride, with a bridal shower at the assembly room of the First Presbyterian Church Wednesday night.

The table, covered with an ecru lace cloth, had a centerpiece of yellow calendula in a silver bowl on a reflector, flanked on each side with silver candelabrum with yellow tapers.

The gold heart-shaper cake resting in a yellow meline ruffle, was embossed with sugar spun yellow and white flowers.

A silver bowl of calendula was on the register table, which was presided over by Mrs. Robert Landrum.

Mrs. Henry Bailey, Mrs. T. H. Pollard and Mrs. Bushart served.

Some people are fenced off from success by their own railing.

Today's couplet: Girls who gush and baby-prattle haven't brains enough to rattle.

Having a good aim in life is fine, but you must know when to pull the trigger to get the best results.

Local Polio Victim Returns Home

Dorryace Wilhelm, 8 years of age, recently a patient at Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation, has been discharged from that Texas treatment center and returned home. Dorryace is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilhelm of Fulton.

Dorryace was referred to the Gonzales physical medicine specialty hospital by her physician for a program of rehabilitation following a bout with polio suffered Sept. 25, 1952. She was admitted to the Gonzales, Texas, hospital on Nov. 10.

As part of the continuing treatment program, a series of home routines have been set up for Dorryace, and she will return to the Gonzales hospital for periodic check-ups and to maintain the correct fit of her braces and other appliances. Improved techniques in hospital and home-administered treatments have enabled the treatment center to effectively reduce the average hospitalization period and thus accept a greater number of patients each year.

Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation is a non-profit, non-sectarian hospital, built and maintained by contributions from all over the state of Texas. First opened in 1941, there are now facilities to house 105 patients. A building program just getting under way will increase that capacity by about 30 per cent.

Sumpter P. Etheridge Buried Here Monday

Sumpter P. Etheridge, 69, veteran Texas newspaperman, died in the Rockport Hospital following a heart attack Friday night. He was a resident of San Antonio, and had a summer home here.

He was well-known in Texas newspaper circles. He was editorial director for the Corpus Christi Caller-Times in 1934. Prior to his retirement in 1952, he had worked for the San Antonio Express and the Evening News as a political writer.

He went to work as a reporter for the Beaumont Enterprise in 1907 and later became managing editor. In 1931 he went to the Houston Post as managing editor, and in 1936 to Tyler as the managing editor of the Courier-Telegraph, which post he held until he moved to San Antonio.

Etheridge, known to his many Texas newspaper and political friends as "Colonel," was born in Springplace, Ga. He was educated in public and private schools in Kyle and San Marcos, and at the University of Texas.

He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Monday at the Cage Funeral Chapel in Rockport with the Rev. Bradford Ramsey, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Rockport Cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Anna M. Etheridge; six sisters and two brothers.

Rotarians Entertain Three Guests Wednesday

The Rotary Club met Wednesday noon at the Methodist annex for their weekly luncheon meeting. Dr. Milford Barnes of Iowa City, Iowa, Troy Parker of Hill City, S. D., and George Adams of Bryan, Tex., were guests of the club. The secretary reported the club had a 100% attendance last week.

The president, Travis Bailey, announced that the district conference will be held in Brownsville on March 1, 2, and 3, and appointed Fred A. Bracht to represent the Rockport club at this meeting. Weldon Cabanis reported that he had received the new charter for the Cub Scouts and recommended that the club present it to the Cubs in the near future.

Fred Brundrett was program chairman and introduced Supt. J. F. Harbin, who gave a short talk about the new high school building. He said the building is a block long and a block wide, and has twelve classrooms, including the science room, the laboratory and the cafeteria.

The new shop will be fully equipped for a four-year course in shop work, so that a student may be fitted to do mechanical work as well as business or clerical work when he finishes high school.
