Congressman Bell Says "Cut-Off" Included In 1957 Budget

In a report from Congressman John J. Bell he stated that two items of local interest were included in the President's budget for 1957:

1. Gulf Intracoastal Waterway deepening and widening of Conn Brown Harbor at Aransas Pass, $28,000.00.

2. Advanced planning and design on "cut-off" realignment of channel from Rockport to Aransas Pass and beyond, $31,000.00.

(Tentatively allocated funds from the $6,302,000.00 included in President's budget for 1957—general advanced planning and design.)

So many folks have asked about water projects and what steps to take to get them started. There are several government agencies participating in various types of water conservation, and no wonder there is considerable confusion on the part of the people in regard to when and under what conditions the federal government will interest itself in flood control, irrigation, power production and similar activities, said Bell.

He added there are three agencies handling these matters: the Corps of Army Engineers, the Bureau of Reclamation, and the Department of Agriculture.

A&M Seniors Are Entertained By McClendons, Monday

Members of the 1956 Senior Class in civil engineering at Texas A&M College made an inspection of engineering construction in the area under the guidance of Drahn Jones, director of public works of the City of Corpus Christi, this week.

The class was entertained Monday night under the combined sponsorship of the South Texas Chapter of the Associated General Contractors, the Professional Engineering Society, the American Society of Civil Engineers and the A&M Club all of Corpus Christi.

The group came to Rockport after lunch Monday after an inspection of the Rockport and Fulton harbor improvements. Following the inspection, they went to the Fulton Beach summer home of W. W. McClendons.

McClendon, local engineer, is an A&M graduate, class of 1910.

The entertainment at the beach home was a fish fry at 6:30 p.m. More than 100 attended the affair including 50 A&M seniors, accompanied by S. W. Wright, head of the engineering department of A&M, and Joe Sorrells, professor of civil engineering.

The group was welcomed by Mayor Seth H. Steele of Rockport who is also an engineering graduate of A&M and Mrs. Mary Juergens, secretary-manager of the chamber of commerce.

Among those present from AGC were Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Bigler, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Bell, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hinman, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Goldston and James M. Goldston.

From the engineering societies were Victor Jaeggli, president of PES; James Childress, president of the ASCE; and Mrs. Drahn Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Foster, of the State Highway Dept., C. S. Reagan and others from the A&M Club also attended, including Bill Manning, vice president; Sam Treasley, treasurer; Charlie Manning of KSIX radio; T. L. Geistward, director; Ray Williams, secretary; George Pulls, director.

The response from the students was made by Walter Parsons, president of the student engineering chapter at A&M.

Music for the occasion was provided by two Rockport High School boys, Abner West and James Ballou.

Mrs. R. L. Madden fell at her home Tuesday morning and sprained her ankle. The doctor put her to bed for several days. Her ankle is not broken as was first reported.

Fur, Feathers & Fins

By JACK BAUGHMAN

Spring, if it isn't here is just around the corner, and a lot of folks are going to be slipping the old outboard in the water, and takin' off. There's nothing wrong with that idea, either, but a little care at the proper time may make the trip a happy one instead of a tragedy.

Just recently, in one of the west Texas lakes, an elderly man and his wife started to get in a little early fishing. Only a few hours later both of them perished from exposure and shock, after their boat had upset. Sure, they were rescued before they drowned, but the whole experience was just too much for them.

A fellow up in north Texas did drown, however, after his outboard rig was capsized in a storm, and his companion was fished out much the worse for wear and his involuntary dip in the water.

A central Texas father, by super-human efforts saved himself, his wife, and their son after the boy fell overboard in deep water, and both parents jumped in after him.

New boats, faster boats, bigger engines, the wrong engine on a boat, all can contribute to accidents that cost lives and, for the fellow that only uses the water once in a while, lack of attention to what the weather is doing can end in tragedy and death.

Big lakes and the salt water bays of the coast can get too rough to handle in a hurry.

Now comes Don Banning with the latest dope on one of the latest and toughest hand guns ever made. Late in February, Don says, "Smith and Wesson and the Remington Arms Company took the wraps off their new creation, the .44 Remington Magnum revolver. This huge handgun is by far the most powerful package ever produced by the famous old Smith & Wesson firm of Springfield, Mass. Weighing in at an even three pounds, the gun is finished in an attractive bright high-polish blue, has a 6 1/2 inch barrel, wide target hammer and trigger, and oversize grips of figured American walnut to absorb and distribute the sharp jolt of the heavy recoil.

"The cartridge designed for use in this new arm is the product of the evolution of the original .44 Smith & Wesson American, which played an important part in the settlement of the West. This new Magnum is more than three times as powerful as the old .45 Colt, and twice as powerful as the popular .357 Magnum.

"Designed to meet the needs of those who use a hand-gun for big game hunting, and the peace officer needing a weapon of the greatest power, the .44 Remington Magnum represents the ultimate in almost a century of ballistic engineering."

As accepted hull types, runabouts, cruisers, canoes, rowboats and the rest will have to make room for a new type craft, the outboard campboat.

The campboat is a craft designed or fitted to serve a number of purposes at once—the kind of boat a man can pack with gear, load his whole family aboard and set off on a camping-boating vacation.

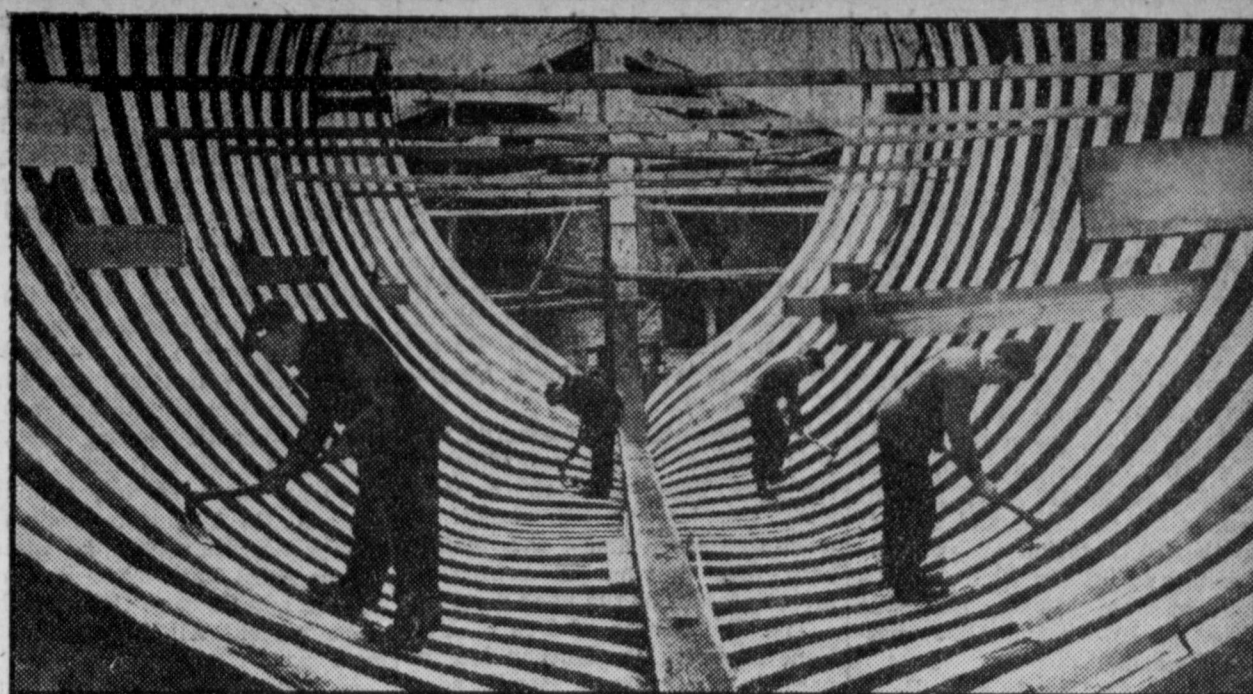

Anchoring a boat in the middle of the bay and throwing a baited hook overboard has never proved to be the best way to bring home a stringer full of fish. And yet our waterways are full of such anchoring dropping shrimp dunkers.

Queries regarding such tactics usually bring such answers as: "looked as good as any."

When the sun is high and the day is clear, it is to your advantage to crank up the old outboard, and do a little hunting for good fishing waters. Set the throttle at almost idling speed, and cruise slowly, looking over the situation for shell bottom, weed beds, and such like. It might pay off in more and better fish.

Nutria, hailed by many as the answer to weeds and vegetation in fresh water lakes, may have some drawbacks. Five of these South American animals, which in a general way resemble muskrats though growing much larger, were released in Eagle Lake six years ago, and started to raise families. Evidently they were fairly successful, for they have become so plentiful that they are raiding farmers' fields, and even cut down duck blinds in Eagle Lake, neglecting some of the vegetation. More than 2,000 have been killed in a move to control them, but it is reported that they have been found twenty miles from the lake.

White marlin average about fifty-seven pounds on the scales, about three hundred and fifty-seven on the end of a line. One hundred and sixty-one pounds is the rod-and-line record. The first one caught in Texas came from the "PILGRIM'S" SHIP MAKES PROGRESS—Workmen use adzes to smooth ribs of a 20th Century Mayflower as they work on the ship at Upham shipyard in Brixham, Devon, England. Twenty-one men, attired as were the pilgrims of 1629, are scheduled to sail the near replica of the Mayflower to the United States later this year. The 65-foot-long craft is being constructed in much the same fashion as was the original Mayflower.

Padre Beach area and in the last year or two the U. S. Fish and Wildlife vessel Oregon has discovered numbers of them in deep water, even catching them far out over the great Sigsbee Deep. They are found singly and in schools, and they feed in much the same manner as sailfish—on small fish. They may easily be distinguished from the much larger blue marlin by the shape of their dorsal fin, which is noticeably rounded at its forward end, rather than pointed like that of the latter fish. Their eyes are huge, also, much larger than in blue marlin of comparable size. The same baits and tackle used for sailfish is suitable for white marlin.

Texas Has Complete Storm Warning System

AUSTIN—Texas will meet the 1956 tornado season with one of the world's most complete storm warning systems, and with a well-oiled disaster relief organization.

Radar storm warning sets are in operation in 16 of the state's 20 first-order weather bureaus. All state highway patrolmen have been carefully schooled in the wily ways of the weather and are keeping a sharp eye on the sky as they patrol the state.

The Texas "local severe weather warning system," the first established anywhere in the world, is made up of sets operating around the clock in Amarillo, Wichita Falls, Fort Worth, Midland, Lubbock, Abilene, San Angelo, Waco, Austin, Port Arthur, Galveston, Houston, Corpus Christi, Victoria, San Antonio, and Brownsville.

Only four of the state's first-order weather bureaus—El Paso, Laredo, Del Rio, and Dallas, are without warning networks.

All stations are connected by teletype and radio. Any station is able to instantly appraise all other stations of a tornado traveling in their direction. When such a warning is given, the weather bureau in the storm's line of approach immediately notifies all communities in the area.

The sets were offered to local areas by the U.S. Government from war surplus stock. Each one was converted into a storm warning set at a cost of $10,000, borne by the cities.

State Health Commissioner, Henry A. Holle said his department stood ready to provide vaccine and public health engineering and emergency know-how to stem the threat of disease in event of weather disaster.

Meanwhile, the Commissioner urged these precautions if and when a tornado is sighted: Take shelter in a storm cellar, or underground excavation. When underground protection is not available, take protection along the inside walls on the lowest floor of a strongly reinforced building, or against the southwest corner of a house.

In open country, move away at right angles to the path of the storm. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest ditch or depression to avoid flying debris.

TELEPHONE TALK

by John Tucker, Manager

Telephone Growth Boosts Prosperity

Here are some facts about what's behind your telephone, what it takes to meet the needs of people all over Texas for telephone service.

Last year Southwestern Bell spent $91 million on new construction and $150 million for day-to-day expenses in Texas. In one way or another, nearly everyone in Texas benefited from this expenditure to keep your service going—and growing.

One result, we hope, was the best telephone service you've ever enjoyed. Another result, we are sure, was a healthy boost to the prosperity of the entire state.

For example, $104 million (one of the state's largest business payrolls) went into the pockets of 26,000 Texans who work for the telephone company. And most of this was spent in communities like ours for all the many goods and services which local merchants and businessmen provide.

How Others Benefited From Telephone Activity

Another $1,500,000 went to Texas service stations and garages to help keep the company's fleet of 3,529 trucks and automobiles rolling. This included the cost of 2,919,880 gallons of gasoline, as well as tires, accessories, repair parts and $500,000 in direct labor costs.

Three hundred twenty-six Texas automobile dealers profited from the sale of 589 new trucks and 110 new automobiles to the company.

Those in the building industry were paid $7,500,000 for their work on new buildings, additions, and major improvements. New building activity alone involved 254 different contractors directly and provided enough work to keep 4,500 skilled carpenters, bricklayers, plumbers, electricians, and other craftsmen busy full time for a year.

In addition, we paid $4,665,000 to independent contractors for jobs ranging from tree trimming to laying underground cable conduit.

Another $2,618,000 went to local suppliers of office furniture and fixtures, printing, office supplies, and the hundreds of sundry items to carry on our business. And $840,000 additional went to local people and firms outside the company for building maintenance and odd jobs, ranging from window washing to trash handling.

'56 Construction to Break All Records

This year's construction program will add up to $106 million, the largest in our history.

Many long months of planning and engineering have gone into this 1956 program. It is based on the company's faith that the Texas communities we serve will continue to grow and prosper—and on our ability to attract more, new investment dollars from outside the business.

To meet your needs for more and more telephone service, we must depend on finding people in all parts of the country who are willing to invest their savings in our business.

So, you see, one of the very important factors of good telephone service is the faith of investors that their savings can earn a safe and reasonable return in the telephone business. Another is the public's faith in us as one of the state's most necessary citizens, an important contribution to continuing prosperity.

Pack 49

The Cub Scouts of Pack 49 met on Thursday evening at the V.F.W. Hall in their last indoor pack meeting of the year. Some 120 cubs, parents, and guests were present to enjoy the program and to witness the presentation of awards.

Cubmaster Phillip Baldwin officiated at the session, and was assisted by Ernest Russell, Assistant Cubmaster.

The cubs of Den 1, Mrs. B. R. Thompson, Den Mother, opened the program with a flag ceremony, which included the Pledge of Allegiance and the singing of "America."

Following this, Cubmaster Baldwin presented Miss Pat Pugh of the Marine Laboratories, who presided over the showing of two moving pictures, taken at the New York Aquarium and at the Oceanarium at Marineland, Fla. These movies climaxed the month's study of "The Bottom of the Sea," and the display tables at the pack meeting were filled with novelties and useful items constructed of shells which the cubs had gathered from local beaches during the month.

At the conclusion of the films, a divided pack meeting was held, with Assistant Cubmaster Russell meeting outdoors with the Cub Scouts, while the Cubmaster held an information session with the parents, furnishing them with details concerning the Cub Scout Field Day to be held in Taft on April 28. It was announced that the Thursday Den Meetings would be discontinued during the month of April in favor of Saturday morning sessions, at which time Coach Melvin Borchert and a number of assistants from the cub fathers will instruct the boys in the rudiments of track, in preparation for this Field Day.

Following the divided session, Mr. Russell led the group in two games, on a balloon-busting game for the parents, which was won by the fathers over the mothers, and the other a "Turtle Race," which was won by Roger Carroll of Den 3.

The presentation of awards was accompanied by the awarding of the Pack Totem Pole to the dens with the largest attendance. It went to Dens 3 and 4 this month, both dens having 28 representatives present at the pack meeting.

The Cub Scouts of Den 3, Mrs. Gene Everett, Den Mother, led the pack in the "Grand Howl" as a closing ceremony, following which the cubs and guests were served refreshments by Den 5, Mrs. Herbert Mills, Den Mother. This den also presided over the clean-up of the hall.

The following Cub Scouts were presented with awards during the Award Ceremony: Dennis Davis, Silver Arrow on the Wolf Badge; J. C. Sanders, 2-year service star; Tom Wells, Wolf Badge; Bobby Borchert, Bear Badge, Lion Badge, and two-year service star; Roger Carroll, Silver Arrow on the Wolf Badge, and 1-year service star; William Wilson, Gold Arrow on the Wolf Badge; Andy Everett, Gold Arrow on the Bear Badge; N. F. Jackson, Jr., Gold Arrow on the Bear Badge; Tommy Picton, Gold and Silver Arrows on the Bear Badge; Chris Sorenson, 1-year service star; George Wetzel, Gold Arrow on the Bear Badge; and Jimmy Webb, Wolf Badge.

New Cubs presented to the Pack at this meeting and receiving their Bobcat pins were Butch Begnaud, Jack Gwynn, David Picton, Bart Rozzell, and Larry Iles.

CORPUS CHRISTI CLIPPERS TO PLAY FOUR EXHIBITION GAMES WITH MAJOR CLUBS

CORPUS CHRISTI—The Biggest stretch of baseball activity in Corpus Christi sports annals gets underway here Thursday, April 29, with the Corpus Christi Clippers of the Big State League sharing the spotlight with four major league teams within the next 11 days.

The Clippers play seven of those games, all spring training exhibition against collegiate and professional opposition. And then, of course, on April 5, 7 and 8, the big leaguers move in for exhibition contests. On April 5, the New York Giants play the Cleveland Indians, and on April 7 and 8, the Baltimore Orioles and Chicago Cubs tangle in Clipper Field. All three games are at 2 p.m.

The Clippers open the big siege of baseball activity Thursday, April 29, in the first of a two-game series against the defending Southwest Conference champion Texas Aggies. The teams play again Friday, and then Monterrey of the Class AA Mexican League moves into Clipper Field for games Saturday and Sunday.

On Monday, April 2, the newest entry in the Texas League, Austin, comes to town for one game, with Manager Connie Ryan leading his charges in against the team he piloted to the Big State League pennant last year. Several ex-Clippers are on the Austin roster.

Monterrey returns for another game Tuesday, April 3, and then the Mexico City Tigers of the Mexican League move in for a Wednesday engagement.

All games except the April 1 clash with Monterrey are at night, starting at 7:45. The Monterrey game on Easter Sunday begins at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Gene Snyder and son are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilkinson for the next two weeks.

PROPERTY RENDERING DEADLINES NEAR

April 1 will be the deadline for most Texans to render their property to certain taxing agencies. State laws require all real and personal property to be rendered for taxes on or before prescribed dates. Those who fail to comply can blame only themselves for the money loss they may consequently suffer.

Some Texas cities set their own tax deadlines. These are the cities of more than 5,000 population which have incorporated under the "Home Rule" provisions of our statutes. All other cities are governed by the general laws of Texas.

In towns operating under the general laws property must be rendered for taxes between January 1 and April 1 each year. A number of home rule cities set up the same requirements in their ordinances, while others prescribe different periods.

For state and county tax purposes, property must be rendered to the County Tax Assessor by April 30, and homestead exemptions must be claimed by the same time.

In some localities a third taxing unit is involved—the independent school district. In other places school taxes are collected by the city or county. In addition, some localities have water, irrigation, or levee districts which assess and collect taxes. Make inquiry as to where these various taxes are assessed, and as to applicable deadlines for rendition.

What property must be rendered for taxes? If Texas laws were strictly enforced, we would be required to render to all taxing units nearly every piece of real and personal property which we own, down to the very clothing on our backs. An exception is the constitutional exemption of $250 worth of household furniture. However, no taxing unit carries their requirements this far, and it will be necessary to inquire of each tax assessor when rendering your property whether specific types of property are ordinarily rendered in that locality. Some cities and counties collect ad valorem taxes on automobiles, television sets and other personal items, while others ignore practically all personal property. Business and professional men are generally required to render all merchandise, furnishings, fixtures, business automobiles and equipment.

If property is not rendered by the tax payer, it may then be placed upon the unrendered tax roll, and the taxing agency places such valuation thereon as it considers fair. One advantage of rendering your property is that you can set your own valuation. Then, if the county or city decides a higher valuation is in order, you will be given an opportunity to appear before a board to explain why the higher figure should not be used in computing your taxes.

Thereafter, an appeal to the courts is possible in some instances. Generally speaking, however, the courts are unable to strike out a valuation unless the agency or board has acted arbitrarily and placed on the property a valuation higher than that placed on comparable property owned by others. If you do not render, the valuation set by the taxing agency is final.

Remember these facts: You may need to render your property at three or more different tax offices. Ask each tax assessor if in doubt concerning the deadline or the rendering of specific personal items. (This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. Kite Flyers Warned Of Power Lines

COLLEGE STATION—March winds are a boon to kite flyers and kites are in the air. Now comes this word of caution from a farm safety expert, "Don't fly kites near electric power lines."

The safety expert, W. L. Ulich, agricultural engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and secretary of the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee, says reports are already coming in from over the state on accidents or near accidents involving kites.

One of the greatest dangers, says Ulich, comes from flying kites near power lines. Should a kite become entangled in a line, don't try to get it down. Leave it there and call the power company for assistance. A damp string will conduct electricity and shock could prove fatal. Above all, he warns against using metal of any kind in the construction of a kite and of using string containing metal, such as Christmas wrapping string, for flying the kite.

Should such a combination come in contact with an electric power line, there'll be trouble and it could be very serious.

Ulich says it is fun to fly a properly constructed kite. He suggests taking the kite to an open field or pasture for flying. There the danger from power lines and traffic hazards are no problems and kites can be flown by even the youngest member of the family.

Piggly Wiggly Completes Remodeling

The Piggly Wiggly store, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roe Sr., has just undergone a complete remodeling program. The store has been enlarged and rearranged with shopping convenience being the keynote. The shopping aisles have been widened to accommodate more and an easier flow of traffic. In keeping with the keynote of shopping convenience some 275 linear feet of shelving has been added. This provides room for the addition of some new items, enabling Piggly Wiggly to offer a more complete line of groceries and sundry items being sold in grocery markets today. This complete line of nationally advertised as well as Texas pack merchandise has been rearranged and displayed in vertical sections. This, too, for customer convenience. This type of display affords the customer convenience and opportunity to study the comparative value of various lines of merchandise.

The meat market continues to handle the finest of home killed and packing house meats. The market service area has been relocated and rearranged to speed service and offer better accessibility. In addition to the regular retail meat sales Piggly Wiggly offers processing service for home freezers. Calves fed and fattened in pens owned by Mr. Roe are available for your freezer. Other processing services are also offered. Curing and smoking of pork and pork sausage is another of the meat department and processing services. Custom barbequing continues to be a service available at Piggly Wiggly.

The produce department has been enlarged and rearranged. A new vegetable vault has been added to help maintain the highest quality and garden freshness of the fruits and vegetables. Many of the vegetables offered have been processed and packaged for the shoppers convenience.

To climax this program of remodeling, Piggly Wiggly has planned a grand promotion this weekend. Included in this promotion are free goods for each customer by drawing, ranging in from 5c to $10. Free samples of pancakes, meringue, candy, balloons. Even two live clowns will be on hand for this gala occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Roe invite you to come in and inspect Piggly Wiggly. Mr. Roe said there is ample parking space in front, along the side and in the rear of the store.

For details of this weekend promotion, see their ad in this issue.

Easter

(Writtend by Martha Ballou)

The greatest festival of the Christian church commemorates the resurrection of Jesus Christ. It is a movable feast, that is, it is not always held on the same date.

The church council of Nicaea (A.D. 325) decided that Easter should be celebrated on the first Sunday after the first full moon on or after the vernal equinox (March 21).

Easter can come as early as March 22 or as late as April 25.

In many churches, Easter is preceded by a season of prayer and fasting, called Lent. This is observed in memory of the 40 days' fast of Christ in the desert.

In the western church the Lenten season is from Ash Wednesday until noon of Holy Saturday—the day before Easter. These six weeks and four days include 40 fasting days, since Sundays are not fast days and they do not observe Saturdays as fast days.

Ash Wednesday gets its name from the practice, mainly in the Roman Catholic Church, of putting ashes on the foreheads of the faithful. This is to remind them that "man is but dust" and that he must do penance.

The second Sunday before Easter is Passion Sunday, and the week following is now usually called Passion Week, though Passion Week originally meant the week before Easter.

Palm Sunday, celebrates the triumphant entry of Christ into Jerusalem. Many churches are decorated with palms, and in some churches palms are blessed and distributed. Holy Week begins on this day. Holy Thursday, or Maundy Thursday, is in memory of the Last Supper of Christ with His disciples. Good Friday commemorates the Crucifixion.

The Easter service is the most elaborate of the church year. The message, "the Lord is risen," is expressed in ceremonies, prayer, and music.

Besides the services in churches, sunrise services are held outdoors in many places. Some of these have won national fame because of the beauty of their surroundings, such as those at Pikes Peak in Colorado, in the Grand Canyon of Arizona, and in the Hollywood Bowl.

Many Easter customs come from the Old World. The white lily, the symbol of the resurrection, is the special Easter flower. Colored eggs and rabbits have come from pagan antiquity as symbols of new life.

Our name Easter comes from Eostre, an ancient Anglo-Saxon goddess, originally of the dawn. In pagan times an annual spring festival was held in her honor.

Some Easter customs have come from this and other pre-Christian spring festivals. Others come from the Passover Feast of the Jews, observed in memory of their deliverance from Egypt.

The question of "Why is Good Friday called Good Friday" has been asked. It's true that Christ was crucified on that day but it is good for you and I because Christ shed His precious blood on the cross for us that we may have everlasting life.

He paid the price for all men on that day, and because He did, we may have an eternal life by trusting and having faith in Jesus Christ, the Savior of mankind.

Have you forgotten the real meaning of Easter during all the rush, buying new clothes for everyone, making baskets, and dyeing eggs bright colors for the younger generation?

George Sorenson of Palacios visited Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Brundrett.

Looking Over the Past Ten Years

Ten years ago, on April 1, 1946, the ownership of The Pilot changed from Jack Blackwell to the present owners and as our first decade in Rockport ends we cannot help but think of the many changes and improvements that have taken place during that time.

Citizens who have lived in the area all their life perhaps do not realize the rapid change that has taken place. For example, during our time the following tourist courts and motels have been erected: Anchor, Balboa, Bay Haven Lodges, Beacon, Del Camino, Dobkins Cottages, Flamingo, Hinton's, Idylwilde, Kriger Courts, Rod & Reel, Romana, Live Oak Apartments, Mars, Nautical, Patio, Jo-Ann Courts, Sandra Courts, South Beach Lodges, Tropics Motor Hotel, Village Courts, Walton Courts, Weldell's Courts, Surf, and Yacht Basin Motel. In addition the courts that were here when we arrived have all been remodeled, many of them several times.

Business buildings which have been erected or remodeled are: Surf Theatre, Walker's Variety, Mundine Barber Shop, Townsend's Dress Shop, Byrons, Roatan Drug Store, Del Mar Grill, First National Bank, Glass, Sorenson & McDavid Insurance, John Cox & Son Gulf Service, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., Schumann's Texaco Service Station, Geo. Clark Chevrolet, Brocato's Cafe, Cameli's Marine Supplies, Kaffie Lumber Co., Hinton's Rockport Motor Shop, Mary's Malt, Sea Shelle Shop, Haynes Cafe, Marine Laboratory, Cove Drive-in, Arrow Taxi, Earl's Drive-in.

Commercial Motor Co., Chester Johnson Motors, Western Auto Store, Rockport Lumber Co., Ellis Clark's office, West's Red & White, Ankele's Hardware, Theo's Grill, Aransas Butane Gas Co., J. M. Sparks & Son, Lassiter's Tailor Shop, Mitchell's Jewelry, Central Power & Light Co., The Barbecue Pit, Taylor's Magnolia Service Station, El Sombrero Cafe, Vandagriff Cleaners, City Barber Shop, Nelda's Cafe, Bill's Sporting Goods, Piggly Wiggly, Johnson's Drug Store, Prophet's Furniture, Rockport Electric Co., Auto Service Co., Elliot-Hughes Clinic, Bracht's Feed Store, Shiver's Grocery, Holland's Woodworking Shop, Mike's Service Station, Blissett's Humble Service Station, Texaco Service Station, Smith's Service Station, Anderson's Magnolia Service Station, Sinclair Service Station, Thompson's Spa, Duck Inn, Mary's Liquor Dutch's Drive In, Picton Lumber Co.

Roy's Liquor Store, Floyd's Boat and Sales, Johnson's Bait Stand, Magee's, Helen's Drive In, Phillips Service Station, Rockport Hospital, Jackson Fish Co., Rockport Yacht and Supply.

In Fulton, Bracht's Food Store, Jones Red and White, Village Center, Wilson's Sporting Goods, Rouquette's Humble Station, Fulton Lumber Co. have added new buildings. Almost all the others have remodeled to keep in step with the building progress of the area.

Other improvements include the new high school and additions to the elementary school. An elementary school at Fulton. Additional improvements will be made soon.

New churches built in the area include: First Presbyterian, Catholic, Methodist, Baptist, First Assembly of God, Episcopal, Northside Baptist. All the other churches have building programs that they are working on.

City water and sewage improvements have been made. The new jail is under construction and will be followed by the new courthouse. These civic improvements are in addition to the new harbor at Fulton and improvements made at the yacht basin by the Navigation Board.

The Woman's Club building has been an added attraction to the area during our time as has the new Chamber of Commerce building and the Live Oak Country Club.

It would be useless to try and list the new houses and remodeling that has taken place in the residential area.

Many of the first persons that we met in Rockport have since passed away. Of course many new friends have been made, but still they do not entirely take the place of the first ones who said: "Welcome to Rockport, hope you like it here."

We have all had our ups and downs during the past ten years, but with all the possibilities the area holds for all, a united effort can bring more and more prosperity to all.

So, when we sit back and think over our stay in the area, we are indeed grateful for the many kind favors extended to us and we hope that we may in our humble way add to the betterment of the community.

Oh, we almost forgot. The new Pilot office is evidence that you appreciate our efforts.

Coffee Honors Miss Joy Roe

Last Friday morning, March 23 in the assembly room of the First Presbyterian Church an unusual setting was used for a coffee, given in honor of Miss Joy Kathryn Roe, bride-elect of Jackie DeForest.

The theme of "Sailing on the Sea of Matrimony" was carried out mainly in the table appointments. A large table was covered with commercial netting over blue, reaching the floor and caught up in garlands, which were fastened with lengths of rope and tassels. On a plaque "body of water" rested a three-foot sail boat. Around the edge of the plaque was greenery on which rested many beautiful specimens of shells, representing a "shoreline." In the boat stood a lovely small bride and groom. The boat not only flew a United States flag, but also a personal flag, which read: "Joy and Jackie." Crystal platters of cookies were placed at one end of the table while at the other end, Mrs. Lois Rozzell served coffee from an antique silver service.

The small guest-registry table was covered with lace over pink, and a vase of uplifted hands contained a lovely bouquet of sweet-peas. Sweetpeas and bougainvillea were used in other arrangements throughout the room. Mrs. J. D. Griggs served at the guest book. In the receiving line with the bride-elect were her mother, Mrs. Charles Roe Sr. and the hostesses for the event, Mrs. Carl M. Osborn, Mrs. J. F. Brundrett, Mrs. J. W. Ingersoll, Mrs. Hugh Morrison, Mrs. G. L. Brundrett, Mrs. A. Arnett Ward was also a hostess but was unable to attend because of illness. There were over 85 invited guests.

The sail boat was loaned by Paul C. Sorenson, the dolls were from the famous collection of Miss Carolyn Ada Hooper, and the shells were from the collection of Miss Myra Ingersoll.

Miss Hope Lang, June bride-elect, was honoree for a shower Saturday night at the Fulton Lions Club building. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Frank Casterline, Mrs. John R. The tea table was laid with a lace cloth over pink and a low arrangement of pink roses and bridal wreath resting on a reflector formed the centerpiece. Pink roses were also on the register table presided over by Miss Barbara Schuster. Miss Glenda Nell Dunn poured punch and Miss Shirley Cole served the cake squares iced in pink. Mrs. Royce Harrell displayed the gifts. The guest list numbered 75.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Frandolig had as their guests Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Edwards and children, Mr. and Mrs. George Knowles of Corpus Christi.
