Jackson Marine Service, Inc., B. Jackson, has purchased the plans with the State Highway De-Rockport Boat Works and as-partment and the U. S. Corps of sumed management of the property Monday, according to N. F. Jackson, vice president of the corporation.

This is part of a steady program inaugurated shortly after World War II, when the Jackson boys started changing over the company's fleet, which their father had been operating, from bay to Gulf vessels, and providing facilities to care for their own boats.

Over this period, they have enlarged their company's facilities for shrimp handling; installed a marine service station; built boats; handled dock rentals; furnished diesel service; and done considerable boat repair service for other owners, as well as caring for their

Some time ago, Picton said, when it became apparent that considerable more planning was necessary to utilize the area to its fullest excomposed of S. F., N. F. and J. tent, and to work out cooperative partment and the U. S. Corps of Engineers, Innis was told to go ahead. The plans shown are the result of extended study by the Navigation Board and by the engineering firm Innis represents.

Picton emphasized that consideration of these plans did not mean that the Cove Harbor south of town was abandoned, for it has next priority in the building program of the District.

Out of the $415,000 voted a little over four years ago, Picton pointed out, the District had completed Fulton Harbor; re-dredged Rockport basin; and had practically completed purchase of all land needed at the Cove for construction of an industrial harbor there. This he said, would leave about $75,000 or $80,000 on hand remaining from the earlier bond issue, when all the land was finally paid for, and the cost of the work at the Cove would be appiling, 20 feet long, similar to proximately $150,000 if the Intracoastal Canal Cut-off was dredged before the Cove was constructed. If the canal was not dredged. Picton stated, it would take be-330 feet of their old wooden bulk- tween $150,000 and $200,000 in adhead along the Rockport harbor ditional dredging costs to conwith their piles, thus ending long struct the Cove harbor. first assignment outside of the Sunday at 6:00 p.m. United States. He was assigned to an AC&W Squadron at Williams NORTHSIDE BAPTIST CHURCH Lake, B. C., in the frozen wastes of Canada, where he was Chief Clerk and Personnel Specialist. Sgt. Cosgrove spent a year in Canada prior to his assignment to p.m. the Rockport Air Force Station in October of 1957. Here he has again been assigned duty as Chief Clerk and Personnel Specialist.

The Sergeant is continuing his work with local boys in baseball. This year he is managing the Rockport American Legion team in a league formed with nearby cities. He is forming a team of boys 18 years of age and under. Tryouts are being held until the end of this week, after which time the team will be formed. He has had tremendous response from the boys interested in baseball. Over 40 boys have turned out for practice this week. Sgt. Cosgrove certainly has hopes of fielding a winning team this season. He says that the boys show excellent prospects.

Sgt. Cosgrove and his wife are living on Laurel Street in Rockport. Naturally they live across the street from the ball park.

A suit in Trespass to Try mingled seed. The word of God Title against all of the above theories of men, but must be the pure word of God.

You have a right to ask for chapter and verse, please, for everything that your preacher teaches. If he cannot give it, then there is something wrong. Remember, "the Gospel of Christ is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." But if it has anything else mixed with it, then it loses its power to save the sinner, just as good food is the power of God to satisfy hunger and nourish the body, but if you mix some poison in with it; then it loses that power.

Now in the Bible you will find that the Gospel requires that you have implicit faith, repent of all sins, confess your faith, and be baptized for the remission of sins | Phone SO4-2471 and rise to walk a new life. (Mrk. 16:16; Acts 3:19; Acts 8:36-38; Acts. 2:38; Rom. 6: 3, 4). Do these things, my friends, and you will be a converted person, your sins will be forgiven, and God will add you to His church where you can worship Him in spirit and truth. (Acts 17; Jno. 4:24; Acts 2:42). You we've a condial invita-tion to attend all of our services.
